Wishing you in the mighty name of Jesus Christ

We had collected several thousands of old Tamil Spiritual Books which are rich in Sound Doctrines across various places of India for 7 years. Some of them are more than 200 years old books. We have spent millions of hours and money in scanning them and coverting them to E-Books. The work is still in progress. These E-books are published completely free of cost (Matt 10:8) forever. We give all the praise and glory to God for giving this wonderful opportunity to server Him. You can download thousands of similar Tamil Christian E-books from our website www.WordOfGod.in completely free of cost at any time.

95% of these E-Books are not being printed now and their copyrights are already expired. The remaining books are sent as E-Books mostly with the permission from the Authors. If you feel that your books should not be published as E-Book freely, kindly execuse and forgive us. Please let us know the book details by WhatsApp or Email we will remove them from our website.

Preface

THE NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION is a completely new translation of the Holy Bible made by over a hundred scholars working directly from the best available Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek texts. It had its beginning in 1965 when, after several years of exploratory study by committees from the Christian Reformed Church and the National Association of Evangelicals, a group of scholars met at Palos Heights, Illinois, and concurred in the need for a new translation of the Bible in contemporary English. This group, though not made up of official church representatives, was transdenominational. Its conclusion was endorsed by a large number of leaders from many denominations who met in Chicago in 1966.

Responsibility for the new version was delegated by the Palos Heights group to a self-governing body of fifteen, the Committee on Bible Translation, composed for the most part of biblical scholars from colleges, universities and seminaries. In 1967 the New York Bible Society (now the International Bible Society) generously undertook the financial sponsorship of the project—a sponsorship that made it possible to enlist the help of many distinguished scholars. The fact that participants from the United States, Great Britain, Canada, Australia and New Zealand worked together gave the project its international scope. That they were from many denominations—including Anglican, Assemblies of God, Baptist, Brethren, Christian Reformed, Church of Christ, Evangelical Free, Lutheran, Mennonite, Methodist, Nazarene, Presbyterian, Wesleyan and other churches—helped to safeguard the translation from sectarian bias.

How it was made helps to give the New International Version its distinctiveness. The translation of each book was assigned to a team of scholars. Next, one of the Intermediate Editorial Committees revised the initial translation, with constant reference to the Hebrew, Aramaic or Greek. Their work then went to one of the General Editorial Committees, which checked it in detail and made another thorough revision. This revision in turn was carefully reviewed by the Committee on Bible Translation, which made further changes and then released the final version for publication. In this way the entire Bible underwent three revisions, during each of which the translation was examined for its faithfulness to the original languages and for its English style.

All this involved many thousands of hours of research and discussion regarding the meaning of the texts and the precise way of putting them into English. It may well be that no other translation has been made by a more thorough process of review and revision from committee to committee than this one.

From the beginning of the project, the Committee on Bible Translation held to certain goals for the New International Version: that it would be an accurate translation and one that would have clarity and literary quality and so prove suitable for public and private reading, teaching, preaching, memorizing and liturgical use. The Committee also sought to preserve some measure of continuity with the long tradition of translating the Scriptures into English.

In working toward these goals, the translators were united in their commitment to the authority and infallibility of the Bible as God's Word in written form. They believe that it contains the divine answer to the deepest needs of humanity, that it sheds unique light on our path in a dark world, and that it sets forth the way to our eternal well-being.

The first concern of the translators has been the accuracy of the translation and its fidelity to the thought of the biblical writers. They have weighed the significance of the lexical and grammatical details of the Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek texts. At the same time, they have striven for more than a word-for-word translation. Because thought patterns and syntax differ from language to language, faithful communication of the meaning of the writers of the Bible demands frequent modifications in sentence structure and constant regard for the contextual meanings of words.

A sensitive feeling for style does not always accompany scholarship. Accordingly the Committee on Bible Translation submitted the developing version to a number of stylistic consultants. Two of them read every book of both Old and New Testaments twice—once before and once after the last major revision—and made invaluable suggestions. Samples of the translation were tested for clarity and ease of reading by various kinds of people—young and old, highly educated and less well educated, ministers and laymen.

Concern for clear and natural English—that the New International Version should be idiomatic but not idiosyncratic, contemporary but not dated—motivated the translators and consultants. At the same time, they tried to reflect the differing styles of the biblical writers. In view of the international use of English, the translators sought to avoid obvious Americanisms on the one hand and obvious Anglicisms on the other. A British edition reflects the comparatively few differences of significant idiom and of spelling.

As for the traditional pronouns "thou," "thee" and "thine" in reference to the Deity, the translators judged that to use these archaisms (along with the old verb forms such as "doest," "wouldest" and "hadst") would violate accuracy in translation. Neither Hebrew, Aramaic nor Greek uses special pronouns for the persons of the Godhead. A present-day translation is not enhanced by forms that in the time of the King James Version were used in everyday speech, whether referring to God or man.

For the Old Testament the standard Hebrew text, the Masoretic Text as published in the latest editions of Biblia Hebraica, was used throughout. The Dead Sea Scrolls contain material bearing on an earlier stage of the Hebrew text. They were consulted, as were the Samaritan Pentateuch and the ancient scribal traditions relating to textual changes. Sometimes a variant Hebrew reading in the margin of the Masoretic Text was followed instead of the text itself. Such instances, being variants within the Masoretic tradition, are not specified by footnotes. In rare cases, words in the consonantal text were divided differently from the way they appear in the Masoretic Text. Footnotes indicate this. The translators also consulted the more important early versions—the Septuagint; Aquila, Symmachus and Theodotion; the Vulgate; the Syriac Peshitta; the Targums; and for the Psalms the Juxta Hebraica of Jerome. Readings from these versions were occasionally followed where the Masoretic Text seemed doubtful and where accepted principles of textual criticism showed that one or more of these textual witnesses appeared to provide the correct reading. Such instances are footnoted. Sometimes vowel letters and vowel signs did not, in the judgment of the translators, represent the correct vowels for the original consonantal text. Accordingly some words were read with a different set of vowels. These instances are usually not indicated by footnotes.

The Greek text used in translating the New Testament was an eclectic one. No other piece of ancient literature has such an abundance of manuscript witnesses as does the New Testament. Where existing manuscripts differ, the translators made their choice of readings according to accepted principles of New Testament textual criticism. Footnotes call attention to places where there was uncertainty about what the original text was. The best current printed texts of the Greek New Testament were used.

There is a sense in which the work of translation is never wholly finished. This applies to all great literature and uniquely so to the Bible. In 1973 the New Testament in the New International Version was published. Since then, suggestions for corrections and revisions have been received from various sources. The Committee on Bible Translation carefully considered the suggestions and adopted a number of them. These were incorporated in the first printing of the entire Bible in 1978. Additional revisions were made by the Committee on Bible Translation in 1983 and appear in printings after that date.

As in other ancient documents, the precise meaning of the biblical texts is sometimes uncertain. This is more often the case with the Hebrew and Aramaic texts than with the Greek text. Although archaeological and linguistic discoveries in this century aid in understanding difficult passages, some uncertainties remain. The more significant of these have been called to the reader's attention in the footnotes.

In regard to the divine name YHWH, commonly referred to as the Tetragrammaton, the translators adopted the device used in most English versions of rendering that name as "LORD" in capital letters to distinguish it from Adonai, another Hebrew word rendered "Lord," for which small letters are used. Wherever the two names stand together in the Old Testament as a compound name of God, they are rendered "Sovereign LORD."

Because for most readers today the phrases "the LORD of hosts" and "God of hosts" have little meaning, this version renders them "the LORD Almighty" and "God Almighty." These renderings convey the sense of the Hebrew, namely, "he who is sovereign over all the 'hosts' (powers) in heaven and on earth, especially over the 'hosts' (armies) of Israel." For readers unacquainted with Hebrew this does not make clear the distinction between Sabaoth ("hosts" or "Almighty") and Shaddai (which can also be translated "Almighty"), but the latter occurs infrequently and is always footnoted. When Adonai and YHWH Sabaoth occur together, they are rendered "the Lord, the LORD Almighty."

As for other proper nouns, the familiar spellings of the King James Version are generally retained. Names traditionally spelled with "ch," except where it is final, are usually spelled in this translation with "k" or "c," since the biblical languages do not have the sound that "ch" frequently indicates in English—for example, in chant. For well-known names such as Zechariah, however, the traditional spelling has been retained. Variation in the spelling of names in the original languages has usually not been indicated. Where a person or place has two or more different names in the Hebrew, Aramaic or Greek texts, the more familiar one has generally been used, with footnotes where needed.

To achieve clarity the translators sometimes supplied words not in the original texts but required by the context. If there was uncertainty about such material, it is enclosed in brackets. Also for the sake of clarity or style, nouns, including some proper nouns, are sometimes substituted for pronouns, and vice versa. And though the Hebrew writers often shifted back and forth between first, second and third personal pronouns without change of antecedent, this translation often makes them uniform, in accordance with English style and without the use of footnotes.

Poetical passages are printed as poetry, that is, with indentation of lines and with separate stanzas. These are generally designed to reflect the structure of Hebrew poetry. This poetry is normally characterized by parallelism in balanced lines. Most of the poetry in the Bible is in the Old Testament, and scholars differ regarding the scansion of Hebrew lines. The translators determined the stanza divisions for the most part by analysis of the subject matter. The stanzas therefore serve as poetic paragraphs.

As an aid to the reader, italicized sectional headings are inserted in most of the books. They are not to be regarded as part of the NIV text, are not for oral reading, and are not intended to dictate the interpretation of the sections they head.

The footnotes in this version are of several kinds, most of which need no explanation. Those giving alternative translations begin with "Or" and generally introduce the alternative with the last word preceding it in the text, except when it is a single-word alternative; in poetry quoted in a footnote a slant mark indicates a line division. Footnotes introduced by "Or" do not have uniform significance. In some cases two possible translations were considered to have about equal validity. In other cases, though the translators were convinced that the translation in the text was correct, they judged that another interpretation was possible and of sufficient importance to be represented in a footnote.

In the New Testament, footnotes that refer to uncertainty regarding the original text are introduced by "Some manuscripts" or similar expressions. In the Old Testament, evidence for the reading chosen is given first and evidence for the alternative is added after a semicolon (for example: Septuagint; Hebrew father). In such notes the term "Hebrew" refers to the Masoretic Text.

It should be noted that minerals, flora and fauna, architectural details, articles of clothing and jewelry, musical instruments and other articles cannot always be identified with precision. Also measures of capacity in the biblical period are particularly uncertain (see the table of weights and measures following the text).

Like all translations of the Bible, made as they are by imperfect man, this one undoubtedly falls short of its goals. Yet we are grateful to God for the extent to which he has enabled us to realize these goals and for the strength he has given us and our colleagues to complete our task. We offer this version of the Bible to him in whose name and for whose glory it has been made. We pray that it will lead many into a better understanding of the Holy Scriptures and a fuller knowledge of Jesus Christ the incarnate Word, of whom the Scriptures so faithfully testify.

Introduction

HISTORY

The NIV Cross-Reference Bible began with a vision of one individual more than a decade ago. By the time the project was completed, however, it involved more than forty individuals and a half dozen computers.

Dr. Donald Madvig, then of Bethel Theological Seminary in St. Paul, began work on the NIV Cross-Reference Bible in 1973, shortly after the first text edition of the NIV New Testament was released. His plan was to collate by hand all the cross references from the best available study Bibles and to refine and rearrange the material. The New Testament was completed in essence in 1980. As Madvig began his work on the Old Testament, he realized the poor quality of the content and organization of the study Bibles on which he had been basing his work. However, ill health prevented his continued involvement with the project. In 1981 Zondervan Bible Publishers invited John Kohlenberger of Portland, Oregon, to continue the work on the Old Testament. Because of the massive nature of this phase of the project five Old Testament experts were called in to help. These men, most of whom had served as translators of the NIV, gathered teams of students from their respective educational institutions to collate and evaluate Old Testament cross references as Madvig had done for the New Testament.

Since an enormous amount of sorting of data was necessary for the Old Testament, it was apparent that this could best be done by computers; therefore Zondervan contacted the Control Data Corporation to develop the software needed for this undertaking.

The material the contributors accumulated amounted to nearly 5,000 hand-written pages that were edited and keyed into a massive computer data-base. By June of 1982 the input was completed and the material was sorted into Biblical order. The computer printout that was used for further editing was more than 2,500 pages, or 150,000 lines long. The material was first edited for obvious errors, corrected, resorted and sent back to the original contributors in October of 1982 for their interaction.

During this process the New Testament materials were reworked to match the format that had by now been adopted for the Old Testament. The Old Testament contributors' references to the New Testament were also evaluated in order to tie them into New Testament "chains," further assuring the cohesiveness of the two Testaments whose materials had been assembled by such different processes. During 1983 the references were organized into "chains," which after a final phase of thorough examination and editing totaled just over 82,000 references—without any loss of information.

In December of 1983, these references were merged by computer with the NIV—a process that essentially proofread the Old Testament materials—and a tape of Genesis through Job was computer typeset at Auto-Graphics, Inc. in Los Angeles. The rest of the Old Testament was completed and typeset at the beginning of February 1984.

FEATURES OF THE NIV CROSS-REFERENCE BIBLE

Because of the exacting manual work on the New Testament and the precision of the computer process for the Old Testament, the NIV Cross-Reference Bible is one of the most thorough, accurate and best organized reference Bibles available. And, as is clear from the title and introduction to this Bible, the major features are the text of the New International Version and the cross-reference system.

But before examining each feature independently, you should become familiar with the general layout of the page. The first pages of Matthew will serve this purpose well. Most important is the text of the NIV. You will notice that it is not laid out verse-by-verse and margin-to-margin in each of the two columns of text. Verse numbers still appear as raised letters preceding the words that start each verse, but the text is organized in paragraph form, a more meaningful way of dividing the text.

Further, the structure of the text is pointed out by special indentations. The structure of chapter 1, as explained in verse 17, is emphasized by double spacing between the three groups of genealogical materials and by indenting each of the fourteen generations under their heads: Abraham (vv. 2-6a), David (vv. 6b-11) and the exile of Babylon (vv. 12-16). Other examples of special indentation include poetry (Mt 2:6, 18), letters (Ac 15:23-29) and lists (Ne 7:8-63).

Paragraphs show the logical organization of the verses or sentences of the text. Sectional headings show the logical organization of the paragraphs. The materials of Matthew 1:1-17 are therefore titled "The Genealogy of Jesus."

Footnotes to the NIV text are indicated by raised, bold-faced letters following the words or phrases they explain. They point out such things as alternate translations (Mt 2:2c), meanings of Hebrew and Greek terms (Mt 1:17b, 21c), Old Testament quotations (Mt 2:6h, 15j, 18k) and alternate readings in ancient Biblical manuscripts (Mt 5:22u, 44b). These footnotes appear at the bottom of the right-hand column, preceded by the footnote letter and verse number.

Cross-Reference materials are also indicated by raised letters, but this system employs a different typeface than the one for footnotes: NIV footnotes use a bold typeface, while cross-reference footnotes use a light italic typeface. When a single word is addressed by both types of footnotes, the bold NIV footnote comes first, as in Matthew 1:21, "Jesus, ct*".

Further, though the cross-reference materials normally appear in the center column, they sometimes completely fill the center column, as on the first page of Genesis. In such cases they continue at the bottom of the right-hand column preceding the NIV footnotes.

To locate the cross-reference materials for any word or phrase, first find the chapter and verse (in bold print) in the center column. Then, match the raised italic letter that follows the word or phrase in the text to the raised italic letter following your chapter and verse designation in the center column. It is important to begin with the chapter and verse designations, because each footnote letter can be repeated two or three times on each page but can be used only once in a single verse.

One final feature of the page is the system of Parallel and Reference Passages. When two or more passages of Scripture are nearly identical or deal with the same event, this "parallel" is noted at the sectional headings for those passages. At Matthew 1:1, verses 1-17 are noted as "parallel" (pp) to Luke 3:23-38, as are verses 3-6 to Ruth 4:18-22 and 7-11 to 1 Chronicles 3:10-17. Similar events in the Gospels and narrative portions of the Old Testament are designated "reference passages" and are indicated by the abbreviation "Ref," as at Matthew 8:23.

THE CROSS-REFERENCE SYSTEM

The cross-reference system resembles a chain with many "links." The "links" in the chain, rather than referring individually to each other, refer instead to the first link. This organizing head of the chain is called the "See" reference and is indicated by the letter "S" preceding the book-chapter-verse designation.

Two exceptions must immediately be noted to this basic scheme. First, because of limits of space, the initial reference is not always the organizing head. Second, the links in long chains are not always gathered at one location. In other words, a chain is sometimes subdivided into shorter chains.

An example of the first instance occurs in Matthew 1:20, where the reference to the word "angel" is listed in the center column as "S Ac 5:19." The "See" reference relating to angels is in Acts, not in its first appearance in Matthew (otherwise the books of Genesis and Matthew would be all references and little text). An example of the second occurs in Matthew 1:1, where the phrase "son of David" is referenced to twelve contexts as well as to "S Mt 9:27." At Matthew 9:27 "Son of David" is referenced to an additional eight contexts.

A further examination of this "son of David" chain would reveal that the subdivision is based on specific subject matter. The materials at Matthew 1:1 relate to the Old Testament background of Jesus' descent from David while the materials at Matthew 9:27 are all statements or confessions proclaiming Jesus as the son of David. This is also true of the "angel" list at Acts 5:27. The texts listed in the center column generally relate to the "angel of the Lord," while the texts listed at "S Jn 20:12" refer to angels in general.

Because the New Testament was done by hand, the subdivision of the chains is often based on the specifics of content. Because the Old Testament was done by computer, the subdivision is not usually so specific. In both Testaments, however, you will want to work through all of the references and all of their references, to whatever degree you desire. Whether they are "S" references or not, they all have significant points of contact with the words and concepts you are studying.

The materials at Genesis 1:1 provide a good example of the resources of the NIV Cross-Reference Bible. There are four lists of references to the first verse of the Bible. All relate to creation, but from different perspectives and applications. Note a deals with creation as having taken place "in the beginning." Note b lists the three other occurrences of the word "created" in Genesis 1-2. Note c focuses on "the heavens" as God's creation. Note d, because it is attached to the end of the verse as well as to the word "earth," deals with the word "earth," the phrase "the heavens and the earth" and with creation itself (the whole verse).

Just as all of these facets and elements of creation are contained in this one verse, so they will be in others. The various chains will intersect and diverge; your perspectives will be sharpened as well as broadened as you work through the cross-reference system. This will be true of any subject you study. The materials of the NIV Cross-Reference Bible are virtually inexhaustible—but you must decide how far you want to work through each study.

There are two additional features regarding the lists of references that you should note. First, as you work through each list, you will find that they are in Biblical order with one exception. If reference is made to a verse within the same chapter you are studying, that "ver" reference is first in the list, regardless of Biblical order (see note c at Matthew 9:26). Second, if an Old Testament verse is quoted in the New Testament, the New Testament reference is marked with an asterisk (*).

PARALLEL AND REFERENCE PASSAGES

When two or more passages of Scripture are nearly identical or deal with the same event, this "parallel" is noted at the sectional headings for those passages. These passages are especially common in the Gospels and in Samuel, Kings and Chronicles. (Parallel passages in the Psalms are noted directly after the Psalm number, as in Psalm 14. Parallels in Obadiah simply precede verse 1, as there are no subheadings in the book.)

When the two (or more) passages are identical or nearly identical, as at Ezra 1:1, this "parallel" is noted with "pp." When the passages are similar, though not the same event, as at Genesis 12:10, this similarity is noted with "Ref." Both types of passages are always ranges of verses. Individual parallel verses, such as Judges 17:6 and 21:25, are connected in the cross references, but are not marked as parallel passages.

Two things should be kept in mind when studying parallel and reference passages. First, these passages are noted at the sectional headings but do not necessarily cover the entire range of verses the sectional headings do. For example, at 2 Chronicles 36:15 the sectional heading "The Fall of Jerusalem" covers verses 15-23. But the first parallel covers only verses 17-20 and the second, verses 22-23.

Second, when a parallel or reference passage is noted at a sectional heading no further parallels are listed in the cross-reference system. This was done to conserve space and avoid repetition. Thus, whenever you are studying any verse in any passage of Scripture, check the sectional heading to see if there are parallel passages to include in your study for further illumination and further references.

CONCORDANCE

Besides the cross-reference system and the parallel and reference passages, your Bible contains the largest concordance ever bound together with an English Bible.

You can use the Concordance to find "lost verses"—verses that you remember in essence but not in location—by looking up their key words. If you wanted to find the verse that states "iron sharpens iron," you could locate it under either the word "iron" or "sharpens." But if you wanted to locate the verse that states that the Word of God is "sharper than any double-edged sword," you would have to be more selective with your words, for neither "than" nor "any" is listed. For more information on the Concordance see the Introduction to the Concordance on page 1153.

The Beginning

1 In the beginning[a] God created[b] the heavens[c] and the earth.[d] 2 Now the earth was[a] formless[e] and empty,[f] darkness was over the surface of the deep,[g] and the Spirit of God[h] was hovering[i] over the waters.

3 And God said,[j] "Let there be light," and there was light.[k] 4 God saw that the light was good,[l] and he separated the light from the darkness.[m] 5 God called[n] the light "day," and the darkness he called "night."[o] And there was evening, and there was morning[p]—the first day.

6 And God said,[q] "Let there be an expanse[r] between the waters[s] to separate water from water." 7 So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it.[t] And it was so.[u] 8 God called[v] the expanse "sky."[w] And there was evening, and there was morning[x]—the second day.

9 And God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place,[y] and let dry ground[z] appear." And it was so.[a] 10 God called[b] the dry ground "land," and the gathered waters[c] he called "seas."[d]
And God saw that it was good.[e] 11 Then God said, "Let the land produce vegetation:[f] seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds."[g] And it was so.[h] 12 The land produced vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds[i] and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.[j] 13 And there was evening, and there was morning[k]—the third day.

rate the day from the night,[m] and let them serve as signs[n] to mark seasons[o] and days and years,[p] panse of the sky to give light on the earth." And it was so.[q] 16 God made two great lights—the greater light[r] to govern[s] the day and the lesser light to govern[t] the night.[u] He also made the stars.[v] 17 God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth,

ing[y]—the fourth day.

20 And God said, "Let the water teem with living creatures,[z] and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky."[a] 21 So God created[b] the great creatures of the sea[c] and every living and moving thing with which the water teems,[d] according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind.[e] And God saw that it was good.[f] 22 God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds increase on the earth."[g] there was morning[h]—the fifth that move along the ground, and wild animals, each according to its kind." And it was so.[a] 25God made the wild animals[b] according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds.[c] And God saw that it was good.[d] 26Then God said, "Let us[e] make man[f] in our image,[g] in our likeness,[h] and let them rule[i] over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air,[j] over the livestock, over all the earth,[b] and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

27So God created[k] man[l] in his own image,[m] in the image of God[n] he created
him;
male and female[o] he created them.[p]

28God blessed them and said to them,[q] "Be fruitful and increase in number;[r] fill the earth[s] and subdue it. Rule over[t] the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground.[u]" 29Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it.
They will be yours for food.[v] 30And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air and all the creatures that move on the ground—everything that has the breath of life[w] in it—I give every green plant for food.[x]" And it was so.
31God saw all that he had made,[y] and it was very good.[z] And there was evening, and there was morning[a]—the sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.[b]

2By the seventh day[c] God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested[c] from all his work.[d] 3And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy,[e] because on it he rested[f] from all the work of creating[g] that he had done.

Adam and Eve

4This is the account[h] of the heavens and the earth when they were created.[i]

When the LORD God made the earth and the heavens— 5and no shrub of the field had yet appeared on the earth[d] and no plant of the field had yet sprung up,[j] for the LORD God had not sent rain on the earth[d][k] and there was no man to work the ground, 6but streams[e] came up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground— 7the LORD God formed[l] the man[f][m] from the dust[n] of the ground[o] and breathed into his nostrils the breath[p] of life,[q] and the man became a living being.[r] 8Now the LORD God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden;[s] and there he put the man he had formed. 9And the LORD God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground—trees[t] that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life[u] and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.[v] 10A river[w] watering the garden flowed from Eden;[x] from there it was separated into four headwaters. 11The name of the first is the Pishon; it winds through the entire land of Havilah,[y] where there is gold. 12(The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin[g][z] and onyx are also there.) 13The name of the second river is the Gihon; it winds through the entire land of Cush.[h] 14The name of the third river is the Tigris;[a] it runs along the east side of Asshur.
And the fourth river is the Euphrates.[b] 15The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden[c] to work it and take care of it. 16And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden;[d] 17but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil,[e] for when you eat of it you will surely die."[f] 18The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a 19Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field[b] and all the birds of the air.[c] He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called[d] each living creature,[e] that was its name. 20So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field.

But for Adam[i] no suitable helper[f] was found. 21So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep;[g] and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs[j] and closed up the place with flesh. 22Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib[k][h] he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

23The man said,

"This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;[i] she shall be called[l] 'woman,[j]' for she was taken out of man.[k]" 24For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united[l] to his wife, and they will become one flesh.[m]

25The man and his wife were both naked,[n] and they felt no shame.

The Fall of Man

3 Now the serpent[o] was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?[p]"

2The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden,[q] 3but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'"[r]

4"You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman.[s] 5"For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God,[t] knowing good and evil."

6When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable[u] for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband,[v] who was with her, and he ate it.[w] 7Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked;[x] so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.[y]

8Then the man and his wife heard

God among the trees of the garden.
9But the LORD God called to the man,
"Where are you?"[b]

10He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid[c] because I was naked;[d] so I hid."

11And he said, "Who told you that you were naked?[e] Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you 12The man said, "The woman you put here with me[g]—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it."

13Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me,[h] and I ate."

14So the LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this,

"Cursed[i] are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals!
You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust[j] all the days of your life.

between you and the woman, and between your offspring[m][k] and hers;[l]

16To the woman he said,

"I will greatly increase your pains in childbearing;
with pain you will give birth to children.[n]
Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you.[o]" 17To Adam he said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the

you;

20 Adam[o] named his wife Eve,[p f] because she would become the mother of all the living.
21 The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them.[g] 22 And the LORD God said, "The man has now become like one of us,[h] knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life[i] and eat, and live forever." 23 So the LORD God banished him from the Garden of Eden[j] to work the ground[k] from which he had been taken. 24 After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side[q] of the Garden of Eden[l] cher-ubim[m] and a flaming sword[n] flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.[o]

Cain and Abel

4 Adam[p] lay with his wife[q] Eve,[r] and she became pregnant and gave birth to Cain.[r r] She said, "With the help of the LORD I have brought forth[s] a man." 2 Later she gave birth to his brother Abel.[s] Now Abel kept flocks, and Cain worked the soil.[t] 3 In the course of time Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering[u] to the LORD.[v] 4 But Abel brought fat portions[w] from some of the firstborn of his flock.[x] The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering,[y] 5 but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was very angry, and his face was downcast.
6 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry?[z] Why is your face downcast? 7 If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door;[a] it desires to have you, but you must master it.[b]" 8 Now Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field."[t] And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.[c] 9 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?"[d]

"I don't know,"[e] he replied. "Am I my brother's keeper?" 10 The LORD said, "What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground.[f] 11 Now you are under a curse[g] and driven from the ground, which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. 12 When you work the ground, it will no longer yield its crops for you.[h] You will be a restless wanderer[i] on the earth.[j]" 13 Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is more than I can bear. 14 Today you are driving me from the land, and I will be hidden from your presence;[k] I will be a restless wanderer on the earth,[l] and whoever finds me will kill me."[m] 15 But the LORD said to him, "Not so[u]; if anyone kills Cain,[n] he will suffer vengeance[o] seven times over.[p]" Then the LORD put a mark on Cain so that no one who found him would kill him.
16 So Cain went out from the LORD's presence[q] and lived in the land of Nod,[v] east of Eden.[r] 17 Cain lay with his wife,[s] and she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was then building a city,[t] and he named it after his son[u] Enoch.
18 To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael was the father of Methushael, and Me-thushael was the father of Lamech.
19 Lamech married[v] two women,[w] one named Adah and the other Zillah.
20 Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who live in tents and raise livestock. 21 His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all who play the harp[x] and flute.[y] 22 Zillah also had a son, Tubal-Cain, who forged[z] all kinds of tools out of[w] bronze and iron.
Tubal-Cain's sister was Naamah.
23 Lamech said to his wives,

"Adah and Zillah, listen to me;
wives of Lamech, hear my words.

25Adam lay with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth,[y] saying, "God has granted me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him." 26Seth also had a son, and he named him Enosh.
At that time men began to call on[z] the name of the LORD.

From Adam to Noah

5 This is the written account of Adam's line.
When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God. 2He created them male and female and blessed them. And when they were created, he called them "man.[a]" 3When Adam had lived 130 years, he had a son in his own likeness, in his own image; and he named him Seth.
4After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters. 5Altogether, Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.
6When Seth had lived 105 years, he became the father[b] of Enosh. 7And after he became the father of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters. 8Altogether, Seth lived 912
years, and then he died.
9When Enosh had lived 90 years, he became the father of Kenan. 10And after he became the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters. 11Altogether, Enosh lived 905 years, and then he died.
12When Kenan had lived 70 years, he became the father of Mahalalel. 13And after he became the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters. 14Altogether, Kenan lived 910 years, and then he died.
15When Mahalalel had lived 65 years, he became the father of Jared. 16And after he became the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters. 17Altogether, Mahalalel lived 895 years, and then he died.
18When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch. 19And after he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters. 20Altogether, Jared lived 962 years, and then he died.
21When Enoch had lived 65 years, he became the father of Methuselah.
22And after he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters. 23Altogether, Enoch lived 365 years. 24Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.
25When Methuselah had lived 187 years, he became the father of La-mech. 26And after he became the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters. 27Altogether, Methuselah lived 969 years, and then he died.
28When Lamech had lived 182 years, he had a son. 29He named him Noah[c] and said, "He will comfort us in the labor and painful toil of our hands caused by the ground the LORD has cursed." 30After Noah was born, La-mech lived 595 years and had other sons and daughters. 31Altogether, La-mech lived 777 years, and then he died.
32After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham and Japheth.

The Flood

6 When men began to increase in number on the earth and daughters were born to them, 2the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful, and they married any of them they chose. 3Then the LORD said, "My Spirit will not contend with[d] man forever; for he is mortal[e]; his days will be a hundred and twenty years." 4The Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God went to the daughters of men and had children by them.
They were the heroes of old, men of renown.
5The LORD saw how great man's wickedness on the earth had become, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the time. 6The LORD was grieved that he had made man on the earth, and his heart was filled with pain. 7So the LORD said, "I will wipe mankind, whom I have created, from the face of the earth[a]—men and animals, and creatures that move along the ground, and birds of the air—for I am grieved that I have made them."[b] 8 But Noah[c] found favor in the eyes of the LORD.[d]

9 This is the account[e] of Noah.

Noah was a righteous man, blameless[f] among the people of his time,[g] and he walked with God.[h] 10 Noah had three sons: Shem,[i] Ham and Japheth.[j] 11 Now the earth was corrupt[k] in God's sight and was full of violence.[l] 12 God saw how corrupt[m] the earth had become, for all the people on earth had corrupted their ways.[n] 13 So God said to Noah, "I am going to put an end to all people, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. I am surely going to destroy[o] both them and the earth.[p] 14 So make yourself an ark of cypress[f] wood;[q] make rooms in it and coat it with pitch[r] inside and out.
15 This is how you are to build it: The ark is to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high.[g] 16 Make a roof for it and finish[h] the ark to within 18 inches[i] of the top. Put a door in the side of the ark and make lower, middle and upper decks. 17 I am going to bring floodwaters[s] on the earth to destroy all life under the heavens, every creature that has the breath of life in it. Everything on earth will perish.[t] 18 But I will establish my covenant with you,[u] and you will enter the ark[v]—you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you. 19 You are to bring into the ark two of all living creatures, male and female, to keep them alive with you.[w] 20 Two[x] of every kind of bird, of every kind of animal and of every kind[y] of creature that moves along the ground will come to you to be kept alive.[z] 21 You are to take every kind of food that is to be eaten and store it away as food for you and for them."

22 Noah did everything just as God commanded him.[a]

7 The LORD then said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and your whole family,[b] because I have found you righteous[c] in this generation. 2 Take with you seven[j] of every kind of clean[d] animal, a male and its mate, and two of every kind of unclean animal, a male and its mate, 3 and also seven of every kind of bird, male and female, to keep their various kinds alive[e] throughout the earth. 4 Seven days from now I will send rain[f] on the earth[g] for forty days[h] and forty nights,[i] and I will wipe from the face of the earth every living creature I have made."[j]

5 And Noah did all that the LORD commanded him.[k]

6 Noah was six hundred years old[l] when the floodwaters came on the earth. 7 And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives entered the ark[m] to escape the waters of the flood.
8 Pairs of clean and unclean[n] animals, of birds and of all creatures that move along the ground, 9 male and female, came to Noah and entered the ark, as God had commanded Noah.[o] 10 And after the seven days[p] the floodwaters came on the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life,[q] on the seventeenth day of the second month[r]—on that day all the springs of the great deep[s] burst forth, and the floodgates of the heavens[t] were opened. 12 And rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights.[u]

13 On that very day Noah and his sons,[v] Shem, Ham and Japheth, together with his wife and the wives of his three sons, entered the ark.[w] 14 They had with them every wild animal according to its kind, all livestock according to their kinds, every creature that moves along the ground according to its kind and every bird according to its kind,[x] everything with wings. 15 Pairs of all creatures that have the breath of life in them came to Noah and entered the ark.[y] 16 The animals going in were male and female of every living thing, as God had commanded Noah.[z] Then the LORD shut him in.

17 For forty days[a] the flood kept coming on the earth, and as the waters increased they lifted the ark high above the earth. 18 The waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water.
19 They rose greatly on the earth, and all the high mountains under the entire heavens were covered.[b] 20 The waters rose and covered the mountains to a depth of more than twenty feet.[k,l][a] 21 Every living thing that moved on the earth perished—birds, livestock, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all mankind.[b] 22 Everything on dry land that had the breath of life[c] in its nostrils died. 23 Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; men and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds of the air were wiped from the earth.[d] Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.[e]

24 The waters flooded the earth for a hundred and fifty days.[f]

8 But God remembered[g] Noah and all the wild animals and the livestock that were with him in the ark, and he sent a wind over the earth,[h] and the waters receded. 2 Now the springs of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens[i] had been closed, and the rain[j] had stopped falling from the sky. 3 The water receded steadily from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days[k] the water had gone down, 4 and on the seventeenth day of the seventh month[l] the ark came to rest on the mountains[m] of Ararat.[n] 5 The waters continued to recede until the tenth month, and on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains became visible.

6 After forty days[o] Noah opened the window he had made in the ark 7 and sent out a raven,[p] and it kept flying back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth.[q] 8 Then he sent out a dove[r] to see if the water had receded from the surface of the ground. 9 But the dove could find no place to set its feet because there was water over all the surface of the earth; so it returned to Noah in the ark. He reached out his hand and took the dove and brought it back to himself in the ark. 10 He waited seven more days and again sent out the dove from the ark. 11 When the dove returned to him in the evening, there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf! Then Noah knew that the water had receded from the earth.[s] 12 He waited seven more days and sent the dove out again, but this time it did not return to him.

13 By the first day of the first month of Noah's six hundred and first year,[t] the water had dried up from the earth. Noah then removed the covering from the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was dry. 14 By the twenty-seventh day of the second month[u] the earth was completely dry.

15 Then God said to Noah, 16 "Come out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and their wives.[v] 17 Bring out every kind of living creature that is with you—the birds, the animals, and all the creatures that move along the ground—so they can multiply on the earth and be fruitful and increase in number upon it."[w]

18 So Noah came out, together with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives.[x] 19 All the animals and all the creatures that move along the ground and all the birds—everything that moves on the earth—came out of the ark, one kind after another.

20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD[y] and, taking some of all the clean animals and clean[z] birds, he sacrificed burnt offerings[a] on it. 21 The LORD smelled the pleasing aroma[b] and said in his heart: "Never again will I curse the ground[c] because of man, even though[m] every inclination of his heart is evil from childhood.[d] And never again will I destroy[e] all living creatures,[f] as I have done.

22 "As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest,[g] cold and heat, summer and winter,[h]
day and night will never cease."[i]

God's Covenant With Noah

9 Then God blessed Noah and his sons, saying to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the earth.[j] 2 The fear and dread of you will fall upon all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air, upon every creature that moves along the ground, and upon all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hands.[k] 3 Everything that lives and moves will be food for you.[l] Just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything.[m]

4 "But you must not eat meat that has its lifeblood still in it.[n] 5 And for your lifeblood I will surely demand an accounting.[o] I will demand an accounting from every animal.[p] And from each man, too, I will demand an accounting for the life of his fellow man.[a] 6"Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed;[b] for in the image of God[c] has God made man.

7As for you, be fruitful and increase in number; multiply on the earth and increase upon it."[d] 8Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him: 9"I now establish my covenant with you[e] and with your descendants after you 10and with every living creature that was with you—the birds, the livestock and all the wild animals, all those that came out of the ark with you—every living creature on earth. 11I establish my covenant[f] with you:[g] Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.[h]" 12And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant[i] I am making between me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all generations to come:[j] 13I have set my rainbow[k] in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth.
14Whenever I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow[l] appears in the clouds, 15I will remember my covenant[m] between me and you and all living creatures of every kind. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all life.[n] 16Whenever the rainbow[o] appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant[p] between God and all living creatures of every kind on the earth." 17So God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant[q] I have established between me and all life on the earth."

The Sons of Noah

18The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth.[r] (Ham was the father of Canaan.)[s] 19These were the three sons of Noah,[t] and from them came the people who were scattered over the earth.[u] 20Noah, a man of the soil, proceeded[n] to plant a vineyard. 21When he drank some of its wine,[v] he became drunk and lay uncovered inside his tent. 22Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father's nakedness[w] and told his two brothers outside. 23But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it across their shoulders; then they walked in backward and covered their father's nakedness. Their faces were turned the other way so that they would not see their father's nakedness.
24When Noah awoke from his wine and found out what his youngest son had done to him, 25he said, "Cursed[x] be Canaan![y]

The lowest of slaves will he be to his brothers.[z]"

26He also said,

"Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem![a]
May Canaan be the slave[b] of Shem.[o] 27May God extend the territory of Japheth[p];[c] may Japheth live in the tents of Shem,[d]
and may Canaan be his[q] slave."

28After the flood Noah lived 350 years. 29Altogether, Noah lived 950 years, and then he died.[e]

The Table of Nations

10 This is the account[f] of Shem, Ham and Japheth,[g] Noah's sons,[h] who themselves had sons after the flood.

The Japhethites

10:2-5pp — 1Ch 1:5-7

2The sons[r] of Japheth: Gomer,[i] Magog,[j] Madai, Javan,[k] Tubal,[l] Meshech[m] and Tiras.
3The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz,[n] Riphath and Togarmah.[o] 4The sons of Javan: Elishah,[p] Tarshish,[q] the Kit-tim[r] and the Rodanim.[s] 5(From these the maritime peoples spread out into their territories by their clans within their nations, each with its own language.)[s]

The Hamites

Cush,[a] Mizraim,[t] Put[b] and Canaan.[c]

7The sons of Cush:

Seba,[d] Havilah,[e] Sabtah, Raamah[f] and Sabteca.

The sons of Raamah:

Sheba[g] and Dedan.[h]

8Cush was the father[u] of Nimrod,[i] who grew to be a mighty warrior on the earth. 9He was a mighty[j] hunter[k] before the LORD; that is why it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD." 10The first centers of his kingdom were Babylon,[l] Erech,[m] Akkad and Calneh,[n] in[v] Shinar.[w][o] 11From that land he went to Assyria,[p] where he built Nineveh,[q] Rehoboth Ir,[x] Calah 12and Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.

13Mizraim was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites, 14Pathrusites, Casluhites (from whom the Philistines[r] came) and Caphtorites.[s]

15Canaan[t] was the father of Sidon[u] his firstborn,[y][v] and of the Hittites,[w] 16Jebusites,[x] Amorites,[y] Girgashites,[z] 17Hivites,[a] Arkites, Sinites, 18Arvadites,[b] Zemarites and Hamathites.[c]

Later the Canaanite[d] clans scattered 19and the borders of Canaan[e] reached from Sidon[f] toward Gerar[g] as far as Gaza,[h] and then toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim,[i] as far as Lasha.

20These are the sons of Ham by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.

The Semites

10:21-31pp — Ge 11:10-27; 1Ch 1:17-27

21Sons were also born to Shem, whose older brother was[z] Japheth; Shem was the ancestor of all the sons of Eber.[j] 22The sons of Shem:

Elam,[k] Asshur,[l] Arphaxad,[m] Lud and Aram.[n]

23The sons of Aram:

Uz,[o] Hul, Gether and Meshech.[a] 24Arphaxad was the father of[b] Shelah, and Shelah the father of Eber.[p] 25Two sons were born to Eber:

One was named Peleg,[c] because in his time the earth was divided; his brother was named Joktan.

26Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, 27Hadoram, Uzal,[q] Diklah, 28Obal, Abimael, Sheba,[r] 29Ophir,[s] Havilah and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

30The region where they lived stretched from Mesha toward Sephar, in the eastern hill country.

31These are the sons of Shem by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.

32These are the clans of Noah's sons,[t] according to their lines of descent, within their nations. From these the nations spread out over the earth[u] after the flood.

The Tower of Babel

11 Now the whole world had one language[v] and a common speech. 2As men moved eastward,[d] they found a plain in Shinar[w][w] and settled there.

3They said to each other, "Come, let's make bricks[x] and bake them thoroughly." They used brick instead of stone,[y] and tar[z] for mortar. 4Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens,[a] so that we may make a name[b] for ourselves and not be scattered[c] over the face of the whole earth."[d]

5But the LORD came down[e] to see the city and the tower that the men were building. 6The LORD said, "If as one people speaking the same language[f] they have begun to do this, then noth-

From Shem to Abram

10This is the account[i] of Shem.

Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father[f] of Arphaxad.[j] 11And after he became the father of Arphaxad, Shem
daughters.
12When Arphaxad had lived 35 years, he became the father of Shelah.[k] 13And after he became the father of Shelah, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.[g] 14When Shelah had lived 30 years, he became the father of Eber.[l] 15And after he became the father of Eber, Shelah
daughters.
16When Eber had lived 34 years, he became the father of Peleg.[m] 17And after he became the father of Peleg, Eber
daughters.
18When Peleg had lived 30 years, he became the father of Reu.[n] 19And after he became the father of Reu, Peleg
daughters.
20When Reu had lived 32 years, he became the father of Serug.[o] 21And after he became the father of Serug, Reu
daughters.
22When Serug had lived 30 years, he became the father of Nahor.[p] 23And after he became the father of Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.
24When Nahor had lived 29 years, he became the father of Terah.[q] 25And after he became the father of Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.
26After Terah had lived 70 years, he became the father of Abram,[r] Nahor[s] and Haran.[t]

27This is the account[u] of Terah.

Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor[v] and Haran. And Haran became the father of Lot.[w] 28While his father Terah was still alive, Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans,[x] in the land of his birth. 29Abram and Nahor[y] both married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai,[z] and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah;[a] she was the daughter of Haran, the father of both Milcah and Iscah. 30Now Sarai was barren; she had no children.[b] 31Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot[c] son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law[d] Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and together they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans[e] to go to Canaan.[f] But when they came to Haran,[g] they settled there.
32Terah[h] lived 205 years, and he died in Haran.

The Call of Abram

12 The LORD had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household[i] and go to the land[j] I will show you.[k]

2"I will make you into a great nation[l] and I will bless you;[m] I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing.[n] 3I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse;[o]
and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you.[p]"

4So Abram left, as the LORD had told him; and Lot[q] went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old[r] when he set out from Haran.[s] 5He took his wife Sarai,[t] his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated[u] and the people[v] they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan,[w] and they arrived there.
6Abram traveled through the land[x] as far as the site of the great tree of Moreh at Shechem. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. 7The LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring[h] I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

8From there he went on toward the hills east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD. 9Then Abram set out and continued toward the Negev.

Abram in Egypt

12:10-20pp — Ge 20:1-18; 26:1-11

10Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe. 11As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "I know what a beautiful woman you are. 12When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' Then they will kill me but will let you live. 13Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of

14When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw that she was a very beautiful woman. 15And when Pharaoh's officials saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into his palace. 16He treated Abram well for her sake, and Abram acquired sheep and cattle, male and female donkeys, men-servants and maidservants, and camels.

17But the LORD inflicted serious diseases on Pharaoh and his household[u] because of Abram's wife Sarai. 18So Pharaoh summoned Abram. "What have you done to me?"[v] he said. "Why didn't you tell me she was your wife?[w] 19Why did you say, 'She is my sister,'[x] so that I took her to be my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and go!" 20Then Pharaoh gave orders about Abram to his men, and they sent him on his way, with his wife and everything he had.

Abram and Lot Separate

13 So Abram went up from Egypt[y] to the Negev,[z] with his wife and everything he had, and Lot[a] went with him. 2Abram had become very wealthy[b] in livestock[c] and in silver and gold.

3From the Negev[d] he went from place to place until he came to Bethel,[e] to the place between Bethel and Ai[f] where his tent had been earlier 4and where he had first built an altar.[g] There Abram called on the name of the LORD.[h]

5Now Lot,[i] who was moving about with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. 6But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to stay together.[j] 7And quarreling[k] arose between Abram's herdsmen and the herdsmen of Lot. The Canaanites[l] and Perizzites[m] were also living in the land[n] at that time.

8So Abram said to Lot,[o] "Let's not have any quarreling between you and me,[p] or between your herdsmen and mine, for we are brothers.[q] 9Is not the whole land before you? Let's part company. If you go to the left, I'll go to the right; if you go to the right, I'll go to the left."[r]

10Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain[s] of the Jordan[t] was well watered, like the garden of the LORD,[u] like the land of Egypt,[v] toward Zoar.[w] (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom[x] and Gomorrah.)[y] 11So Lot chose for himself the whole plain of the Jordan and set out toward the east. The two men parted company: 12Abram lived in the land of Canaan,[z] while Lot[a] lived among the cities of the plain[b] and pitched his tents near Sodom.[c] 13Now the men of Sodom[d] were wicked and were sinning greatly against the LORD.[e]

14The LORD said to Abram after Lot had parted from him, "Lift up your eyes from where you are and look north and south, east and west.[f] 15All the land that you see I will give to you and your offspring[i] forever.[g] 16I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust, then your offspring could be counted.[h] 17Go, walk through the 18 So Abram moved his tents and went to live near the great trees of Mamre[c] at Hebron,[d] where he built an altar to the LORD.[e]

Abram Rescues Lot

14 At this time Amraphel king of Shinar,[i][f] Arioch king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer[g] king of Elam[h] and Tidal king of Goiim 2 went to war against Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim,[i] and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).[j] 3 All these latter kings joined forces in the Valley of Siddim[k] (the Salt Sea[k][l]). 4 For twelve years they had been subject to Kedorlaomer,[m] but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.
5 In the fourteenth year, Kedorlao-mer[n] and the kings allied with him went out and defeated the Rephaites[o] in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzites in Ham, the Emites[p] in Shaveh Kiriathaim 6 and the Horites[q] in the hill country of Seir,[r] as far as El Paran[s] near the desert. 7 Then they turned back and went to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh),[t] and they conquered the whole territory of the Amalekites,[u] as well as the Amorites[v] who were living in Hazazon Tamar.[w] 8 Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah,[x] the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim[y] and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar)[z] marched out and drew up their battle lines in the Valley of Sid-dim[a] 9 against Kedorlaomer[b] king of Elam,[c] Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ella-sar—four kings against five. 10 Now the Valley of Siddim[d] was full of tar[e] pits, and when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah[f] fled, some of the men fell into them and the rest fled to the hills.[g] 11 The four kings seized all the goods[h] of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food; then they went away. 12 They also carried off Abram's nephew Lot[i] and his possessions, since he was living in Sodom.
13 One who had escaped came and reported this to Abram the Hebrew.[j] Now Abram was living near the great trees of Mamre[k] the Amorite, a brother[l] of Eshcol[l] and Aner, all of whom were allied with Abram. 14 When Abram heard that his relative[m] had been taken captive, he called out the 318 trained[n] men born in his household[o] and went in pursuit as far as Dan.[p] 15 During the night Abram divided his men[q] to attack them and he routed them, pursuing them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.[r] 16 He recovered[s] all the goods[t] and brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, together with the women and the other people.
17 After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer[u] and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom[v] came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).[w] 18 Then Melchizedek[x] king of Salem[m][y] brought out bread[z] and wine.[a] He was priest of God Most High,[b] 19 and he blessed Abram,[c] saying,

"Blessed be Abram by God Most High,[d]
Creator[n] of heaven and earth.[e] 20 And blessed be[o] God Most High,[f] who delivered your enemies into your hand."

Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.[g] 21 The king of Sodom[h] said to Abram, "Give me the people and keep the goods[i] for yourself." 22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom,[j] "I have raised my hand[k] to the LORD, God Most High,[l] Creator of heaven and earth,[m] and have taken an oath 23 that I will accept nothing belonging to you,[n] not even a thread or the thong of a sandal, so that you will never be able to say, 'I made Abram rich.' 24 I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share that belongs to the men who went with me—to Aner, Eshcol and Mamre.[o] Let them have their share."

God's Covenant With Abram

15 After this, the word of the LORD came to Abram[p] in a vision:[q]

2 But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD,[d] what can you give me since I remain childless[e] and the one who will inherit[f] my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?"[r] 3 And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant[g] in my household[h] will be my heir." 4 Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."[i] 5 He took him outside and said, "Look up at the heavens and count the stars[j]—if indeed you can count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your offspring be."[k] 6 Abram believed the LORD, and he credited it to him as righteousness.[l] 7 He also said to him, "I am the LORD, who brought you out[m] of Ur of the Chaldeans[n] to give you this land to take possession of it."[o] 8 But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD,[p] how can I know[q] that I will gain possession of it?"[r] 9 So the LORD said to him, "Bring me a heifer,[s] a goat and a ram, each three years old,[t] along with a dove and a young pigeon.[u]" 10 Abram brought all these to him, cut them in two and arranged the halves opposite each other;[v] the birds, however, he did not cut in half.[w] 11 Then birds of prey came down on the carcasses,[x] but Abram drove them away.
12 As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep,[y] and a thick and dreadful darkness came over him.
13 Then the LORD said to him, "Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved[z] and mistreated four hundred years.[a] 14 But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will come out[b] with great possessions.[c] 15 You, however, will go to your fathers[d] in peace and be buried at a good old age.[e] 16 In the fourth generation[f] your descendants will come back here,[g] for the sin of the Amorites[h] has not yet reached its full measure." 17 When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, a smoking firepot with a blazing torch[i] appeared and passed between the pieces.[j] 18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram[k] and said, "To your descendants I give

Hagar and Ishmael

16 Now Sarai,[t] Abram's wife, had borne him no children.[u] But she had an Egyptian maidservant[v] named Hagar;[w] 2 so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children.[x] Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her."[y] Abram agreed to what Sarai said. 3 So after Abram had been living in Canaan[z] ten years,[a] Sarai his wife took her Egyptian maidservant Hagar and gave her to her husband to be his wife.
4 He slept with Hagar,[b] and she conceived.
When she knew she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress.[c] 5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering. I put my servant in your arms, and now that she knows she is pregnant, she despises me. May the LORD judge between you and me."[d] 6 "Your servant is in your hands,"[e] Abram said. "Do with her whatever you think best." Then Sarai mistreated[f] Hagar; so she fled from her.
7 The angel of the LORD[g] found Hagar near a spring[h] in the desert; it was the spring that is beside the road to Shur.[i] 8 And he said, "Hagar,[j] servant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?"[k]
"I'm running away from my mistress Sarai," she answered.
9 Then the angel of the LORD told her, "Go back to your mistress and submit to her." 10 The angel added, "I will so will be too numerous to count."[a] 11The angel of the LORD[b] also said to her:

"You are now with child and you will have a son.[c] You shall name him[d] Ishmael,[e][u] for the LORD has heard of your misery.[f] 12He will be a wild donkey[g] of a man; his hand will be against everyone and everyone's hand against him, and he will live in hostility toward[v] all his brothers.[h]"

13She gave this name to the LORD who spoke to her: "You are the God who sees me,[i]" for she said, "I have now seen[w] the One who sees me."[j] 14That is why the well[k] was called Beer Lahai Roi[x];[l] it is still there, between Kadesh[m] and Bered.
15So Hagar[n] bore Abram a son,[o] and Abram gave the name Ishmael[p] to the son she had borne. 16Abram was eighty-six years old[q] when Hagar bore him Ishmael.

The Covenant of Circumcision

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old,[r] the LORD appeared to him[s] and said, "I am God Almighty[x];[t] walk before me and be blameless.[u] 2I will confirm my covenant between me and you[v] and will greatly increase your numbers."[w] 3Abram fell facedown,[x] and God said to him, 4"As for me, this is my covenant with you:[y] You will be the father of many nations.[z] 5No longer will you be called Abram[y]; your name will be Abraham,[z][a] for I have made you a father of many nations.[b] 6I will make you very fruitful;[c] I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.[d] 7I will establish my covenant[e][f] as an everlasting covenant[g][h] between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God[i] and the God of your descendants after you.[j] 8The whole land of Canaan,[k] where you are now an alien,[l] I will give as an everlasting possession to you and your descendants after you;[m] and I will be their God.[n]" 9Then God said to Abraham, "As for you, you must keep my covenant,[o] you and your descendants after you for the generations to come.[p] 10This is my covenant with you and your descendants after you, the covenant you are to keep: Every male among you shall be circumcised.[q] 11You are to undergo circumcision,[r] and it will be the sign of the covenant[s] between me and you.
12For the generations to come[t] every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised,[u] including those born in your household or bought with money from a foreigner—those who are not your offspring. 13Whether born in your household or bought with your money, they must be circumcised.[v] My covenant in your flesh is to be an everlasting covenant.[w] 14Any uncircumcised male, who has not been circumcised[x] in the flesh, will be cut off from his people;[y] he has broken my covenant.[z]" 15God also said to Abraham, "As for Sarai[a] your wife, you are no longer to call her Sarai; her name will be Sarah.[b] 16I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her.[c] I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations;[d] kings of peoples will come from her." 17Abraham fell facedown;[e] he laughed[f] and said to himself, "Will a son be born to a man a hundred years old?[g] Will Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?"[h] 18And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael[i] might live under your blessing!"[j] 19Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son,[k] and you will call him Isaac.[a][l] I will establish my covenant with him[m] as an everlasting covenant[n] for his descendants after him. 20And as for Ishmael, I have heard you: I will surely bless him; I will make him fruitful and will greatly increase his numbers.[o] He will be the father of twelve rulers,[p] and I will make him into a great nation.[q] 21But my covenant[r] I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you by this time next year." 22When he had finished speaking with Abraham, God went up from him.

23On that very day Abraham took his son Ishmael and all those born in his household or bought with his money, every male in his household, and circumcised them, as God told him.
24Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised, 25and his son Ishmael was thirteen; 26Abraham and his son Ishmael were both circumcised on that same day. 27And every male in Abraham's household, including those born in his household or bought from a foreigner, was circumcised with him.

The Three Visitors

18 The LORD appeared to Abraham[j] near the great trees of Mamre[k] while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent[l] in the heat of the day. 2Abra-ham looked up[m] and saw three men[n] standing nearby. When he saw them, he hurried from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground.[o] 3He said, "If I have found favor in your eyes,[p] my lord,[b] do not pass your servant[q] by. 4Let a little water be brought, and then you may all wash your feet[r] and rest under this tree. 5Let me get you something to eat,[s] so you can be refreshed and then go on your way—now that you have come to your servant."
"Very well," they answered, "do as you say."
6So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. "Quick," he said, "get three seahs[c] of fine flour and knead it and bake some bread."[t] 7Then he ran to the herd and selected a choice, tender calf[u] and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it. 8He then brought some curds[v] and milk[w] and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them.[x] While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.
9"Where is your wife Sarah?"[y] they asked him.
"There, in the tent,"[z] he said.
10Then the LORD[d] said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year,[a] and Sarah your wife will have a son."[b]
Now Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him. 11Abraham and Sarah were already old and well advanced in years,[c] and Sarah was past the age of childbearing.[d] 12So Sarah laughed[e] to herself as she thought, "After I am worn out and my master[e] is old, will I now have this pleasure?"[f] 13Then the LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Will I really have a child, now that I am old?'[g] 14Is anything too hard for the LORD?[h] I will return to you at the appointed time next year[i] and Sarah will have a son."[j] 15Sarah was afraid, so she lied and said, "I did not laugh." But he said, "Yes, you did laugh."

Abraham Pleads for Sodom

16When the men[k] got up to leave, they looked down toward Sodom, and Abraham walked along with them to see them on their way. 17Then the LORD said, "Shall I hide from Abraham[l] what I am about to do?[m] 18Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation,[n] and all nations on earth will be blessed through him. 19For I have chosen him[o], so that he will direct his children[p] and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD[q] by doing what is right and just,[r] so that the LORD will bring about for Abraham what he has promised him."[s] 20Then the LORD said, "The outcry against Sodom[t] and Gomorrah is so great[u] and their sin so grievous[v] 21that I will go down[w] and see if what they have done is as bad as the outcry that has reached me. If not, I will know." 22The men[x] turned away and went toward Sodom,[y] but Abraham remained standing before the LORD.[f][z] 23Then Abraham approached him and said: "Will you sweep away the righteous with the wicked?[a] 24What if there are fifty righteous people in the city?
Will you really sweep it away and not spare[g] the place for the sake of the fifty righteous people in it?[b] 25Far be it from you to do such a thing[c]—to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous[d] and the wicked alike.[e] Far

26 The LORD said, "If I find fifty right-27 Then Abraham spoke up again:

"Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, though I am nothing but dust and ashes,[d] 28 what if the number of the righteous is five less than fifty? Will you destroy the whole city because of five people?"
"If I find forty-five there," he said, "I will not destroy it." 29 Once again he spoke to him, "What if only forty are found there?" He said, "For the sake of forty, I will not do it."
30 Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry,[e] but let me speak. What if only thirty can be found there?" He answered, "I will not do it if I find thirty there." 31 Abraham said, "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, what if only twenty can be found there?"
He said, "For the sake of twenty, I will not destroy it."
angry, but let me speak just once more.[f] What if only ten can be found there?"
He answered, "For the sake of ten,[g] I will not destroy it."

ing[h] with Abraham, he left,[i] and Abraham returned home.[j]

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

19 The two angels[k] arrived at Sodom[l] in the evening, and Lot[m] was sitting in the gateway of the city.[n] When he saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground.[o] 2 "My lords," he said, "please turn aside to your ser-vant's house. You can wash your feet[p] and spend the night and then go on your way early in the morning."
"No," they answered, "we will spend the night in the square."[q] 3 But he insisted[r] so strongly that they did go with him and entered his house.[s] He prepared a meal for them, baking bread without yeast,[t] and they ate.[u] 4 Before they had gone to bed, all the men from every part of the city of Sodom[v]—both young and old—surrounded the house. 5 They called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can have sex with them."[w] 6 Lot went outside to meet them[x] and shut the door behind him 7 and said, "No, my friends. Don't do this wicked thing. 8 Look, I have two daughters who have never slept with a man. Let me bring them out to you, and you can do what you like with them. But don't do anything to these men, for they have come under the protection of my roof."[y] 9 "Get out of our way," they replied.
And they said, "This fellow came here as an alien,[z] and now he wants to play the judge![a] We'll treat you worse than them." They kept bringing pressure on Lot and moved forward to break down the door.
10 But the men[b] inside reached out and pulled Lot back into the house and shut the door. 11 Then they struck the men who were at the door of the house, young and old, with blindness[c] so that they could not find the door.
12 The two men said to Lot, "Do you have anyone else here—sons-in-law, sons or daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you?[d] Get them out of here, 13 because we[e] are going to destroy this place. The outcry to the LORD against its people is so great[f] that he has sent us to destroy it."[g] 14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry[i] his daughters. He said, "Hurry and get out of this place, because the LORD is about to destroy the city![h]" But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.[i] 15 With the coming of dawn, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Hurry! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away[j] when the city is punished.[k]" 16 When he hesitated, the men grasped his hand and the hands of his wife and of his two daughters[l] and led them safely out of the city, for the LORD was merciful to them.[m] 17 As soon as they had brought them out, one of them said, "Flee for your lives![n] Don't look back,[o] and don't stop anywhere in the plain![p] Flee to the mountains[q] or you will be swept away!" 18 But Lot said to them, "No, my lords,[j] please! 19 Your[k] servant has found favor in your[k] eyes,[r] and you[k] have shown great kindness[a] to me in sparing my life. But I can't flee to the mountains;[b] this disaster will overtake me, and I'll die. 20Look, here is a town near enough to run to, and it is small.

Let me flee to it—it is very small, isn't it? Then my life will be spared." 21He said to him, "Very well, I will grant this request[c] too; I will not overthrow the town you speak of. 22But flee there quickly, because I cannot do anything until you reach it." (That is why the town was called Zoar.[l][d]) 23By the time Lot reached Zoar,[e] the sun had risen over the land. 24Then the LORD rained down burning sulfur[f] on Sodom and Gomorrah[g]—from the LORD out of the heavens.[h] 25Thus he overthrew those cities[i] and the entire plain,[j] including all those living in the cities—and also the vegetation in the land.[k] 26But Lot's wife looked back,[l] and she became a pillar of salt.[m] 27Early the next morning Abraham got up and returned to the place where he had stood before the LORD.[n] 28He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, toward all the land of the plain, and he saw dense smoke rising from the land, like smoke from a furnace.[o] 29So when God destroyed the cities of the plain,[p] he remembered[q] Abraham, and he brought Lot out of the catastrophe[r] that overthrew the cities where Lot had lived.[s]

Lot and His Daughters

30Lot and his two daughters left Zoar[t] and settled in the mountains,[u] for he was afraid to stay in Zoar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave.
31One day the older daughter said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man around here to lie with us, as is the custom all over the earth.
32Let's get our father to drink wine and then lie with him and preserve our family line[v] through our father."[w] 33That night they got their father to drink wine, and the older daughter went in and lay with him. He was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.[x] 34The next day the older daughter said to the younger, "Last night I lay with my father. Let's get him to drink wine again tonight, and you go in and lie with him so we can preserve our family line through our father."[y] 35So they got their father to drink wine[z] that night also, and the younger daughter went and lay with him. Again he was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.[a] 36So both of Lot's daughters became pregnant by their father.[b] 37The older daughter had a son, and she named him Moab[m];[c] he is the father of the Moabites[d] of today. 38The younger daughter also had a son, and she named him Ben-Ammi[n]; he is the father of the Ammonites[e] of today.

Abraham and Abimelech

20:1-18Ref — Ge 12:10-20; 26:1-11

20 Now Abraham moved on from there[f] into the region of the Negev[g] and lived between Kadesh[h] and Shur.[i] For a while[j] he stayed in Gerar,[k] 2and there Abraham said of his wife Sarah, "She is my sister.[l]" Then Abimelech[m] king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her.[n] 3But God came to Abimelech[o] in a dream[p] one night and said to him, "You are as good as dead[q] because of the woman you have taken; she is a married woman."[r] 4Now Abimelech had not gone near her, so he said, "Lord, will you destroy an innocent nation?[s] 5Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister,[t]' and didn't she also say, 'He is my brother'? I have done this with a clear conscience[u] and clean hands.[v]" 6Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know you did this with a clear conscience, and so I have kept[w] you from sinning against me.[x] That is why I did not let you touch her. 7Now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet,[y] and he will pray for you[z] and you will live. But if you do not return her, you may be sure that you and all yours will die."[a] 8Early the next morning Abimelech summoned all his officials, and when he told them all that had happened, they were very much afraid. 9Then Abimelech called Abraham in and said, "What have you done to us? How have I wronged you that you have brought such great guilt upon me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done."[a] 10And Abime-lech asked Abraham, "What was your reason for doing this?" 11Abraham replied, "I said to myself, 'There is surely no fear of God[b] in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.'[c] 12Besides, she really is my sister,[d] the daughter of my father though not of my mother; and she became my wife. 13And when God had me wander[e] from my father's household,[f] I said to her, 'This is how you can show your love to me: Everywhere we go, say of me, "He is my brother." ' " 14Then Abimelech[g] brought sheep and cattle and male and female slaves and gave them to Abraham,[h] and he returned Sarah his wife to him. 15And Abimelech said, "My land is before you; live wherever you like."[i] 16To Sarah he said, "I am giving your brother a thousand shekels[o] of silver.

This is to cover the offense against you before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated." 17Then Abraham prayed to God,[j] and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his slave girls so they could have children again, 18for the LORD had closed up every womb in Abimelech's household because of Abraham's wife Sarah.[k]

The Birth of Isaac

21 Now the LORD was gracious to Sarah[l] as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah what he had promised.[m] 2Sarah became pregnant and bore a son[n] to Abraham in his old age,[o] at the very time God had promised him.[p] 3Abraham gave the name Isaac[p][q] to the son Sarah bore him.
4When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him,[r] as God commanded him. 5Abraham was a hundred years old[s] when his son Isaac was born to him.
6Sarah said, "God has brought me laughter,[t] and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me." 7And she added, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."[u]

Hagar and Ishmael Sent Away

8The child grew and was weaned,[v] and on the day Isaac was weaned Abraham held a great feast. 9But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham[w] was mocking,[x] 10and she said to Abraham, "Get rid of that slave woman[y] and her son, for that slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac."[z] 11The matter distressed Abraham greatly because it concerned his son.[a] 12But God said to him, "Do not be so distressed about the boy and your maidservant. Listen to whatever Sarah tells you, because it is through Isaac that your offspring[q] will be reckoned.[b] 13I will make the son of the maidservant into a nation[c] also, because he is your offspring."
took some food and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar.[d] He set them on her shoulders and then sent her off with the boy. She went on her way and wandered in the desert of Beersheba.[e] 15When the water in the skin was gone, she put the boy under one of the bushes. 16Then she went off and sat down nearby, about a bowshot away, for she thought, "I cannot watch the boy die." And as she sat there nearby, she[r] began to sob.[f] 17God heard the boy crying,[g] and the angel of God[h] called to Hagar from heaven[i] and said to her, "What is the matter, Hagar? Do not be afraid;[j] God has heard the boy crying as he lies there. 18Lift the boy up and take him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation.[k]" 19Then God opened her eyes[l] and she saw a well of water.[m] So she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.
20God was with the boy[n] as he grew up. He lived in the desert and became an archer. 21While he was living in the Desert of Paran,[o] his mother got a wife for him[p] from Egypt.

The Treaty at Beersheba

22At that time Abimelech[q] and Phicol the commander of his forces[r] said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do.[s] 23Now swear[t] to me here before God that you will not deal falsely with me or my children or my descendants.[u] Show to me and the alien the same kindness I have shown to you."[a] 24Abraham said, "I swear it." 25Then Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized.[b] 26But Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this. You did not tell me, and I heard about it only today." 27So Abraham brought sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a treaty.[c] 28Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock, 29and Abimelech asked Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs you have set apart by themselves?" 30He replied, "Accept these seven lambs from my hand as a witness[d] that I dug this well.[e]" 31So that place was called Beersheba,[s][f] because the two men swore an oath[g] there.

32After the treaty[h] had been made at Beersheba,[i] Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his forces[j] returned to the land of the Philistines.[k] 33Abraham planted a tamarisk tree[l] in Beersheba, and there he called upon the name of the LORD,[m] the Eternal God.[n] 34And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines[o] for a long time.

Abraham Tested

22 Some time later God tested[p] Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!"
"Here I am,"[q] he replied.
2Then God said, "Take your son[r], your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the region of Moriah.[s] Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering[t] on one of the mountains I will tell you about.[u]" 3Early the next morning[v] Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about.
4On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. 5He said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you.[w]" 6Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac,[x] and he himself carried the fire and the knife.[y] As the two of them went on together, 7Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, "Father?"
"Yes, my son?" Abraham replied.
"The fire and wood are here," Isaac said, "but where is the lamb[z] for the burnt offering?"
8Abraham answered, "God himself will provide[a] the lamb[b] for the burnt offering, my son." And the two of them went on together.
9When they reached the place God had told him about,[c] Abraham built an altar[d] there and arranged the wood[e] on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar,[f] on top of the wood.
10Then he reached out his hand and took the knife[g] to slay his son.[h] 11But the angel of the LORD[i] called out to him from heaven,[j] "Abraham! Abraham!"[k]
"Here I am,"[l] he replied.
12"Do not lay a hand on the boy," he said. "Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God,[m] because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son.[n]" 13Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram[t] caught by its horns.[o] He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.[p] 14So Abraham called[q] that place The LORD[r] Will Provide. And to this day it is said, "On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.[s]" 15The angel of the LORD[t] called to Abraham from heaven[u] a second time 16and said, "I swear by myself,[v] declares the LORD, that because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son,[w] 17I will surely bless you[x] and make your descendants[y] as numerous as the stars in the sky[z] and as the sand on the seashore.[a] Your descendants will take possession of the cities of their enemies,[b] 18and through your offspring[u] all nations on earth will be blessed,[c] because you have obeyed me."[d] 19Then Abraham returned to his servants, and they set off together for Beersheba.[e] And Abraham stayed in Beersheba.

Nahor's Sons

20Some time later Abraham was told, "Milcah is also a mother; she has borne sons to your brother Nahor:[a] 21Uz[b] the firstborn, Buz[c] his brother, Kemuel (the father of Aram), 22Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph and Bethuel."[d] 23Bethuel became the father of Rebekah.[e] Milcah bore these eight sons to Abraham's brother Nahor.[f] 24His concu-bine,[g] whose name was Reumah, also had sons: Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

The Death of Sarah

23 Sarah lived to be a hundred and twenty-seven years old. 2She died at Kiriath Arba[h] (that is, Hebron)[i] in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to weep over her.[j] 3Then Abraham rose from beside his dead wife and spoke to the Hittites.[v][k] He said, 4"I am an alien and a stranger[l] among you. Sell me some property for a burial site here so I can bury my dead.[m]" 5The Hittites replied to Abraham, 6"Sir, listen to us. You are a mighty prince[n] among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our tombs. None of us will refuse you his tomb for burying your dead."
7Then Abraham rose and bowed down before the people of the land, the Hittites. 8He said to them, "If you are willing to let me bury my dead, then listen to me and intercede with Ephron son of Zohar[o] on my behalf 9so he will sell me the cave of Machpelah,[p] which belongs to him and is at the end of his field. Ask him to sell it to me for the full price as a burial site among you." 10Ephron the Hittite was sitting among his people and he replied to Abraham in the hearing of all the Hittites[q] who had come to the gate[r] of his city. 11"No, my lord," he said. "Listen to me; I give[w][s] you the field, and I give[w] you the cave that is in it. I give[w] it to you in the presence of my people.
Bury your dead." 12Again Abraham bowed down before the people of the land 13and he said to Ephron in their hearing, "Listen to me, if you will. I will pay the price of the field. Accept it from me so I can bury my dead there." 14Ephron answered Abraham, 15"Listen to me, my lord; the land is worth four hundred shekels[x] of silver,[t] but what is that between me and you? Bury your dead."
16Abraham agreed to Ephron's terms and weighed out for him the price he had named in the hearing of the Hittites: four hundred shekels of silver,[u] according to the weight current among the merchants.[v] 17So Ephron's field in Machpelah[w] near Mamre[x]—both the field and the cave in it, and all the trees within the borders of the field—was deeded 18to Abraham as his property[y] in the presence of all the Hittites[z] who had come to the gate[a] of the city. 19Afterward Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Machpelah[b] near Mamre (which is at Hebron[c]) in the land of Canaan.[d] 20So the field and the cave in it were deeded[e] to Abraham by the Hittites as a burial site.[f]

Isaac and Rebekah

24 Abraham was now old and well advanced in years,[g] and the LORD had blessed[h] him in every way.[i] 2He said to the chief[y] servant[j] in his household, the one in charge of all that he had,[k] "Put your hand under my thigh.[l] 3I want you to swear[m] by the LORD, the God of heaven[n] and the God of earth,[o] that you will not get a wife for my son[p] from the daughters of the Canaanites,[q] among whom I am living,[r] 4but will go to my country and my own relatives[s] and get a wife for my son Isaac.[t]" 5The servant asked him, "What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land?[u] Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?[v]" 6"Make sure that you do not take my son back there,"[w] Abraham said. 7"The LORD, the God of heaven,[x] who brought me out of my father's household and my native land[y] and who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying, 'To your offspring[z][z] I will give this land'[a]—he will send his angel before you[b] so that you can get a wife for my son from there. 8If the woman is unwilling to come back with you, then you will be released from this oath[c] of mine. Only do not take my son back there."[d] 9So the servant put his hand under the thigh[a] of his master[b] Abraham and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels[c] and left, taking with him all kinds of good things[d] from his master. He set out for Aram Naharaim[a][e] and made his way to the town of Nahor.[f] 11 He had the camels kneel down near the well[g] outside the town; it was toward evening, the time the women go out to draw water.[h] 12 Then he prayed, "O LORD, God of my master Abraham,[i] give me success[j] today, and show kindness[k] to my master Abraham. 13 See, I am standing beside this spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.[l] 14 May it be that when I say to a girl, 'Please let down your jar that I may have a drink,' and she says, 'Drink,[m] and I'll water your camels too'[n]—let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac.[o] By this I will know[p] that you have shown kindness to my master." 15 Before he had finished praying,[q] Rebekah[r] came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Be-thuel[s] son of Milcah,[t] who was the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor.[u] 16 The girl was very beautiful,[v] a virgin;[w] no man had ever lain with her.
She went down to the spring, filled her jar and came up again.
17 The servant hurried to meet her and said, "Please give me a little water from your jar."[x] 18 "Drink,[y] my lord," she said, and quickly lowered the jar to her hands and gave him a drink.
19 After she had given him a drink, she said, "I'll draw water for your camels[z] too,[a] until they have finished drinking." 20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels.[b] 21 Without saying a word, the man watched her closely to learn whether or not the LORD had made his journey successful.[c] 22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold nose ring[d] weighing a beka[b] and two gold bracelets[e] weighing ten shekels.[c] 23 Then he asked, "Whose daughter are you?[f] Please tell me, is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?[g]" 24 She answered him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son that Mil-cah bore to Nahor.[h]" 25 And she added, "We have plenty of straw and fodder,[i] as well as room for you to spend the night."
26 Then the man bowed down and worshiped the LORD,[j] 27 saying, "Praise be to the LORD,[k] the God of my master Abraham,[l] who has not abandoned his kindness and faithfulness[m] to my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the journey[n] to the house of my master's relatives."[o] 28 The girl ran and told her mother's household about these things.[p] 29 Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban,[q] and he hurried out to the man at the spring. 30 As soon as he had seen the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's arms,[r] and had heard Rebekah tell what the man said to her, he went out to the man and found him standing by the camels near the spring.
31 "Come, you who are blessed by the LORD,"[s] he said. "Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels." 32 So the man went to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and fodder[t] were brought for the camels, and water for him and his men to wash their feet.[u] 33 Then food was set before him, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told you what I have to say."
"Then tell us," Laban said.
34 So he said, "I am Abraham's servant.[v] 35 The LORD has blessed[w] my master abundantly,[x] and he has become wealthy.[y] He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, men-servants and maidservants, and camels and donkeys.[z] 36 My master's wife Sarah has borne him a son in her[d] old age,[a] and he has given him everything he owns.[b] 37 And my master made me swear an oath,[c] and said, 'You must not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live,[d] 38 but go to my father's family and to my own clan, and get a wife for my son.'[e] 39 "Then I asked my master, 'What if the woman will not come back with me?'[f] 40 "He replied, 'The LORD, before whom I have walked,[g] will send his angel with you[h] and make your journey a success,[i] so that you can get a let her become the wife of your mas-what they said, he bowed down to the ground before the LORD.[z] 53Then the servant brought out gold and silver jewelry and articles of clothing[a] and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave costly gifts[b] to her brother and to her mother. 54Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night there.

When they got up the next morning, he said, "Send me on my way[c] to my 55But her brother and her mother re-

57Then they said, "Let's call the girl Rebekah and asked her, "Will you go

"I will go,"[h] she said.
59So they sent their sister Rebekah on her way,[i] along with her nurse[j] and Abraham's servant and his men. 60And they blessed[k] Rebekah and said to her,

"Our sister, may you increase to thousands upon thousands;[l] may your offspring possess 61Then Rebekah and her maids[n] got went back with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

62Now Isaac had come from Beer Lahai Roi,[o] for he was living in the Negev.[p] 63He went out to the field one evening to meditate,[f][q] and as he looked up,[r] he saw camels approaching. 64Rebekah also looked up and saw Isaac. She got down from her camel[s] 65and asked the servant, "Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?" "He is my master," the servant answered. So she took her veil[t] and covered herself.
66Then the servant told Isaac all he had done. 67Isaac brought her into the tent[u] of his mother Sarah,[v] and he married Rebekah.[w] So she became his wife, and he loved her;[x] and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.[y]

The Death of Abraham

25 Abraham took[g] another wife, whose name was Keturah. 2She bore him Zimran,[z] Jokshan, Medan, Midian,[a] Ishbak and Shuah.[b] 3Jokshan was the father of Sheba[c] and Dedan;[d] the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites and the Leummites. 4The sons of Midian were Ephah,[e] Epher, Hanoch, Abida and El-daah. All these were descendants of Keturah.
to Isaac.[f] 6But while he was still living,

[e]55 Or she [f]63 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain. [g]1 Or had taken he gave gifts to the sons of his concubines[a] and sent them away from his son Isaac[b] to the land of the east.[c] 7 Altogether, Abraham lived a hundred and seventy-five years.[d] 8 Then Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age,[e] an old man and full of years; and he was gathered to his people.[f] 9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him[g] in the cave of Machpelah[h] near Mamre,[i] in the field of Ephron[j] son of Zohar the Hittite,[k] 10 the field Abraham had bought from the Hittites.[h][l] There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah. 11 After Abraham's death, God blessed his son Isaac,[m] who then lived near Beer Lahai Roi.[n]

Ishmael's Sons

12 This is the account[o] of Abraham's son Ishmael, whom Sarah's maidservant, Hagar[p] the Egyptian, bore to Abraham.[q]

13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, listed in the order of their birth: Nebaioth[r] the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar,[s] Adbeel, Mibsam, 14 Mishma, Dumah,[t] Massa, 15 Hadad, Tema,[u] Jetur,[v] Naphish and Kedemah. 16 These were the sons of Ishmael, and these are the names of the twelve tribal rulers[w] according to their settlements and camps.[x] 17 Altogether, Ishmael lived a hundred and thirty-seven years. He breathed his last and died, and he was gathered to his people.[y] 18 His descendants[z] settled in the area from Havilah to Shur,[a] near the border of Egypt, as you go toward Asshur.
And they lived in hostility toward[i] all their brothers.[b]

Jacob and Esau

19 This is the account[c] of Abraham's son Isaac.

Abraham became the father of Isaac, 20 and Isaac was forty years old[d] when he married Rebekah[e] daughter of Be-thuel[f] the Aramean from Paddan Aram[j][g] and sister of Laban[h] the Aramean.[i]

21 Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was barren.[j] The LORD answered his prayer,[k] and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.
22 The babies jostled each other within her, and she said, "Why is this happening to me?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.[l]

23 The LORD said to her,

"Two nations[m] are in your womb, and two peoples from within you will be separated; one people will be stronger than the other,
and the older will serve the younger."[n]

24 When the time came for her to give birth,[o] there were twin boys in her womb.[p] 25 The first to come out was red,[q] and his whole body was like a hairy garment;[r] so they named him Esau.[k][s] 26 After this, his brother came out,[t] with his hand grasping Esau's heel;[u] so he was named Jacob.[l][v] Isaac was sixty years old[w] when Rebekah gave birth to them.

27 The boys grew up, and Esau became a skillful hunter,[x] a man of the open country,[y] while Jacob was a quiet man, staying among the tents. 28 Isaac, who had a taste for wild game,[z] loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob.[a] 29 Once when Jacob was cooking some stew,[b] Esau came in from the open country,[c] famished. 30 He said to Jacob, "Quick, let me have some of that red stew![d] I'm famished!" (That is why he was also called Edom.[m])[e] 31 Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright.[f]"

32 "Look, I am about to die," Esau said. "What good is the birthright to me?"

33 But Jacob said, "Swear[g] to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright[h] to Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew.[i] He ate and drank, and then got up and left.

So Esau despised his birthright.

26 Now there was a famine in the land[j]—besides the earlier famine of Abraham's time—and Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines[k] in Gerar.[l] 2 The LORD appeared[m] to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt;[n] 5because Abraham obeyed me[k] and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees[l] and my laws."[m] 6So Isaac stayed in Gerar.[n]

7When the men of that place asked him about his wife, he said, "She is my sister,[o]" because he was afraid to say, "She is my wife." He thought, "The men of this place might kill me on account of Rebekah, because she is beautiful."

8When Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines[p] looked down from a window and saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah. 9So Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, "She is really your wife! Why did you say, 'She is my sister'?[q]" Isaac answered him, "Because I thought I might lose my life on account of her."

10Then Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us?[r] One of the men might well have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us."

11So Abimelech gave orders to all the people: "Anyone who molests[s] this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."[t]

12Isaac planted crops in that land and the same year reaped a hundredfold,[u] because the LORD blessed him.[v] 13The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy.[w] 14He had so many flocks and herds and servants[x] that the Philistines envied him.[y] 15So all the wells[z] that his father's servants had dug in the time of his father Abraham, the Philistines stopped up,[a] filling them with earth.

16Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Move away from us;[b] you have become too powerful for us.[c]" 17So Isaac moved away from there and encamped in the Valley of Gerar[d] and settled there. 18Isaac reopened the wells[e] that had been dug in the time of his father Abraham, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died, and he gave them the same names his father had given them.

19Isaac's servants dug in the valley and discovered a well of fresh water there. 20But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled[f] with Isaac's herdsmen and said, "The water is ours!"[g] So he named the well Esek,[o] because they disputed with him. 21Then they dug another well, but they quarreled[h] over that one also; so he named it Sitnah.[p] 22He moved on from there and dug another well, and no one quarreled over it. He named it Rehoboth,[q][i] saying, "Now the LORD has given us room[j] and we will flourish[k] in the land."

23From there he went up to Beersheba.[l] 24That night the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham.[m] Do not be afraid,[n] for I am with you;[o] I will bless you and will increase the number of your descendants[p] for the sake of my servant Abraham."[q]

25Isaac built an altar[r] there and called on the name of the LORD.[s] There he pitched his tent, and there his servants dug a well.[t]

26Meanwhile, Abimelech had come to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his personal adviser and Phicol the commander of his forces.[u] 27Isaac asked them, "Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me and sent me away?[v]"

28They answered, "We saw clearly that the LORD was with you;[w] so we said, 'There ought to be a sworn agreement between us'—between us and you. Let us make a treaty[x] with you 29that you will do us no harm,[y] just as we did not molest you but always treated you well and sent you away in peace. And now you are blessed by the LORD."[z]

30Isaac then made a feast[a] for them, and they ate and drank. 31Early the next morning the men swore an oath[b] to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.

32That day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well[c] they had dug.
They said, "We've found water!" 33He called it Shibah,[r] and to this day the name of the town has been Beersheba.[a][a] 34When Esau was forty years old,[b] he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and also Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite.[c] 35They were a source of grief to Isaac and Rebekah.[d]

Jacob Gets Isaac's Blessing

27 When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see,[e] he called for Esau his older son[f] and said to him, "My son."

"Here I am," he answered.

2Isaac said, "I am now an old man and don't know the day of my death.[g] 3Now then, get your weapons—your quiver and bow—and go out to the open country[h] to hunt some wild game for me. 4Prepare me the kind of tasty food I like[i] and bring it to me to eat, so that I may give you my blessing[j] before I die."[k]

5Now Rebekah was listening as Isaac spoke to his son Esau. When Esau left for the open country[l] to hunt game and bring it back, 6Rebekah said to her son Jacob,[m] "Look, I overheard your father say to your brother Esau, 7'Bring me some game and prepare me some tasty food to eat, so that I may give you my blessing in the presence of the LORD before I die.'[n] 8Now, my son, listen carefully and do what I tell you:[o] 9Go out to the flock and bring me two choice young goats,[p] so I can prepare some tasty food for your father, just the way he likes it.[q] 10Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may give you his blessing[r] before he dies."

11Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "But my brother Esau is a hairy man,[s] and I'm a man with smooth skin. 12What if my father touches me?[t] I would appear to be tricking him and would bring down a curse[u] on myself rather than a blessing."

13His mother said to him, "My son, let the curse fall on me.[v] Just do what I say;[w] go and get them for me."

14So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and she prepared some tasty food, just the way his father liked it.[x] 15Then Rebekah took the best clothes[y] of Esau her older son,[z] which she had in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob. 16She also covered his hands and the smooth part of his neck with the goatskins.[a] 17Then she handed to her son Jacob the tasty food and the bread she had made.

18He went to his father and said, "My father."

"Yes, my son," he answered. "Who is it?"[b]

19Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn.[c] I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game[d] so that you may give me your blessing."[e]

20Isaac asked his son, "How did you find it so quickly, my son?"

"The LORD your God gave me success,[f]" he replied.

21Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near so I can touch you,[g] my son, to know whether you really are my son Esau or not."

22Jacob went close to his father Isaac,[h] who touched[i] him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau." 23He did not recognize him, for his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau;[j] so he blessed him. 24"Are you really my son Esau?" he asked.

"I am," he replied.

25Then he said, "My son, bring me some of your game to eat, so that I may give you my blessing."[k]

Jacob brought it to him and he ate; and he brought some wine and he drank. 26Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come here, my son, and kiss me."

27So he went to him and kissed[l] him[m]. When Isaac caught the smell of his clothes,[n] he blessed him and said,

"Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.[o] 28May God give you of heaven's dew[p] and of earth's richness[q]— an abundance of grain[r] and new wine.[s] 29May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you.[t] Be lord over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you.[u] May those who curse you be cursed and those who bless you be blessed.[v]"

30After Isaac finished blessing him and Jacob had scarcely left his father's presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting. 31He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, "My father, sit up 32His father Isaac asked him, "Who are you?"[b]

"I am your son," he answered,
"your firstborn, Esau.[c]" 33Isaac trembled violently and said, "Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me?[d] I ate it just before you came and I blessed him—and indeed he will be blessed![e]" 34When Esau heard his father's words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry[f] and said to his father, "Bless[g] me—me too, my father!" 35But he said, "Your brother came deceitfully[h] and took your blessing."[i] 36Esau said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob[t]?[j] He has deceived[k] me these two times: He took my birthright,[l] and now he's taken my blessing!"[m] Then he asked, "Haven't you reserved any blessing for me?" 37Isaac answered Esau, "I have made him lord over you and have made all his relatives his servants, and I have sustained him with grain and new wine.[n] So what can I possibly do for you, my son?" 38Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father?
Bless me too, my father!" Then Esau wept aloud.[o] 39His father Isaac answered him,[p]

"Your dwelling will be away from the earth's richness, away from the dew[q] of heaven above.[r] 40You will live by the sword and you will serve[s] your brother.[t] But when you grow restless, you will throw his yoke from off your neck.[u]"

Jacob Flees to Laban

41Esau held a grudge[v] against Jacob[w] because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, "The days of mourning[x] for my father are near; then I will kill[y] my brother Jacob."[z] 42When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau[a] had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is consoling himself with the thought of killing you.[b] 43Now then, my son, do what I say:[c] Flee at once to my brother Laban[d] in Haran.[e] 44Stay with him for a while[f] until your brother's fury subsides.
45When your brother is no longer angry with you and forgets what you did to him,[g] I'll send word for you to come back from there.[h] Why should I lose both of you in one day?" 46Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I'm disgusted with living because of these Hittite[i] women. If Jacob takes a wife from among the women of this land,[j] from Hittite women like these, my life will not be worth living."[k]

28 So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed[u][l] him and commanded him: "Do not marry a Canaanite woman.[m] 2Go at once to Paddan Aram,[v][n] to the house of your mother's father Bethuel.[o] Take a wife for yourself there, from among the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.[p] 3May God Almighty[w][q] bless[r] you and make you fruitful[s] and increase your numbers[t] until you become a community of peoples. 4May he give you and your descendants the blessing given to Abraham,[u] so that you may take possession of the land[v] where you now live as an alien,[w] the land God gave to Abraham." 5Then Isaac sent Jacob on his way,[x] and he went to Pad-dan Aram,[y] to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean,[z] the brother of Rebekah,[a] who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.
6Now Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Pad-dan Aram to take a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he commanded him, "Do not marry a Canaanite woman,"[b] 7and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Paddan Aram. 8Esau then realized how displeasing the Canaanite women[c] were to his father Isaac;[d] 9so he went to Ishmael[e] and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth[f] and daughter of Ishmael son of Abraham, in addition to the wives he already had.[g]

Jacob's Dream at Bethel

10Jacob left Beersheba[h] and set out for Haran.[i] 11When he reached a certain place,[j] he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head[k] and lay down to sleep. 12He had a dream[l] in which he saw a stairway[x] resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of LORD,[b] and he said: "I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac.[c] I will give you and your descendants the land[d] on which you are lying.[e] 14Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you[f] will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south.[g] All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring.[h] 15I am with you[i] and will watch over you[j][k] wherever you go,[l] and I will bring you back to this land.[m] I will not leave you[n] until I have done what I have promised you.[o]"[p] 16When Jacob awoke from his sleep,[q] he thought, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I was not aware of it." 17He was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place![r] This is none other than the house of God;[s] this is the gate of heaven." 18Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head[t] and set it up as a pillar[u] and poured oil on top of it.[v] 19He called that place Bethel,[z][w] though the city used to be called Luz.[x] 20Then Jacob made a vow,[y] saying, "If God will be with me and will watch over me[z] on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear[a] 21so that I return safely[b] to my father's house,[c] then the LORD[a] will be my God[d] 22and[b] this stone that I have set up as a pillar[e] will be God's house,[f] and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth.[g]"

Jacob Arrives in Paddan Aram

29 Then Jacob continued on his journey and came to the land of the eastern peoples.[h] 2There he saw a well in the field, with three flocks of sheep lying near it because the flocks were watered from that well.[i] The stone[j] over the mouth of the well was large. 3When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone[k] away from the well's mouth and water the sheep.[l] Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.
4Jacob asked the shepherds, "My brothers, where are you from?"[m] "We're from Haran,[n]" they replied.
5He said to them, "Do you know Laban, Nahor's grandson?"[o]
"Yes, we know him," they answered.
6Then Jacob asked them, "Is he well?"
"Yes, he is," they said, "and here comes his daughter Rachel[p] with the sheep.[q]" 7"Look," he said, "the sun is still high; it is not time for the flocks to be gathered. Water the sheep and take them back to pasture." 8"We can't," they replied, "until all the flocks are gathered and the stone[r] has been rolled away from the mouth of the well. Then we will water[s] the sheep."
9While he was still talking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep,[t] for she was a shepherdess. 10When Jacob saw Rachel[u] daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, and Laban's sheep, he went over and rolled the stone[v] away from the mouth of the well and watered[w] his uncle's sheep.[x] 11Then Jacob kissed[y] Rachel and began to weep aloud.[z] 12He had told Rachel that he was a relative[a] of her father and a son of Rebekah.[b] So she ran and told her father.[c] 13As soon as Laban[d] heard the news about Jacob, his sister's son, he hurried to meet him. He embraced him[e] and kissed him and brought him to his home, and there Jacob told him all these things. 14Then Laban said to him, "You are my own flesh and blood."[f]

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

After Jacob had stayed with him for a whole month, 15Laban said to him, "Just because you are a relative[g] of mine, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages[h] should be."
16Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah,[i] and the name of the younger was Rachel.[j] 17Leah had weak[c] eyes, but Rachel[k] was lovely in form, and beautiful.[l] 18Jacob was in love with Rachel[m] and said, "I'll work for you seven years in return for your younger daughter Rachel."[n] 19Laban said, "It's better that I give her to you than to some other man.
Stay here with me." 20So Jacob served seven years to get Rachel,[a] but they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her.[b] 21Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife. My time is completed, and I want to lie with her.[c]" 22So Laban brought together all the people of the place and gave a feast.[d] 23But when evening came, he took his daughter Leah[e] and gave her to Jacob, and Jacob lay with her. 24And Laban gave his servant girl Zilpah[f] to his daughter as her maidservant.[g] 25When morning came, there was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me?[h] I served you for Rachel, didn't I? Why have you deceived me?[i]" 26Laban replied, "It is not our custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the older one.[j] 27Fin-ish this daughter's bridal week;[k] then we will give you the younger one also, in return for another seven years of work.[l]" 28And Jacob did so. He finished the week with Leah, and then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife.[m] 29Laban gave his servant girl Bil-hah[n] to his daughter Rachel as her maidservant.[o] 30Jacob lay with Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah.[p] And he worked for Laban another seven years.[q]

Jacob's Children

31When the LORD saw that Leah was not loved,[r] he opened her womb,[s] but Rachel was barren. 32Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son.[t] She named him Reuben,[d][u] for she said, "It is because the LORD has seen my misery.[v] Surely my husband will love me now." 33She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "Because the LORD heard that I am not loved,[w] he gave me this one too." So she named him Simeon.[e][x] 34Again she conceived, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "Now at last my husband will become attached to me,[y] because I have borne him three sons." So he was named Levi.[f][z]
gave birth to a son she said, "This time I will praise the LORD." So she named him Judah.[g][a] Then she stopped having children.[b]

30 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children,[c] she became jealous of her sister.[d] So she said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I'll die!" 2Jacob became angry with her and said, "Am I in the place of God,[e] who has kept you from having children?"[f] 3Then she said, "Here is Bilhah,[g] my maidservant.[h] Sleep with her so that she can bear children for me and that through her I too can build a family."[i] 4So she gave him her servant Bilhah as a wife.[j] Jacob slept with her,[k] 5and she became pregnant and bore him a son. 6Then Rachel said, "God has vindicated me;[l] he has listened to my plea and given me a son."[m] Because of this she named him Dan.[h][n] 7Rachel's servant Bilhah[o] conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.
8Then Rachel said, "I have had a great struggle with my sister, and I have won."[p] So she named him Naphtali.[i][q] 9When Leah[r] saw that she had stopped having children,[s] she took her maidservant Zilpah[t] and gave her to Jacob as a wife.[u] 10Leah's servant Zilpah[v] bore Jacob a son. 11Then Leah said, "What good fortune!"[j] So she named him Gad.[k][w] 12Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a second son. 13Then Leah said, "How happy I am! The women will call me[x] happy."[y] So she named him Asher.[l][z] 14During wheat harvest,[a] Reuben went out into the fields and found some mandrake plants,[b] which he brought to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes." 15But she said to her, "Wasn't it enough[c] that you took away my husband? Will you take my son's man-drakes too?"
"Very well," Rachel said, "he can sleep with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes."[d] 16So when Jacob came in from the fields that evening, Leah went out to her that night.

[17] God listened to Leah,[b] and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth son. [18] Then Leah said, "God has rewarded me for giving my maidservant

Issachar.[m][d]
[19] Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son. [20] Then Leah said, "God has presented me with a precious gift. This time my husband will treat me with honor,[e] because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun.[n][f] [21] Some time later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.[g] [22] Then God remembered Rachel;[h] he listened to her[i] and opened her womb.[j] [23] She became pregnant and gave birth to a son[k] and said, "God has taken away my disgrace."[l] [24] She named him Joseph,[o][m] and said, "May the LORD add to me another son."[n]

Jacob's Flocks Increase

[25] After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me on my way[o] so I can go back to my own homeland.[p] [26] Give me my wives and children, for whom I have served you,[q] and I will be on my way. You [27] But Laban said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes,[r] please stay.

I have learned by divination[s] that[p] the LORD has blessed me because of you."[t] [28] He added, "Name your wages,[u] and I will pay them." [29] Jacob said to him, "You know how I have worked for you[v] and how your livestock has fared under my care.[w] [30] The little you had before I came has increased greatly, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I have been.[x] But now, when may I do something for my own household?[y]" [31] "What shall I give you?" he asked.
"Don't give me anything," Jacob replied. "But if you will do this one thing for me, I will go on tending your flocks and watching over them: [32] Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or lamb and every spotted or speckled goat.[z] They will be my wages.[a] [33] And wages you have paid me. Any goat in my possession that is not speckled or spotted, or any lamb that is not dark-colored,[b] will be considered stolen.[c]" [34] "Agreed," said Laban. "Let it be as you have said." [35] That same day he removed all the male goats that were streaked or spotted, and all the speckled or spotted female goats (all that had white on them) and all the dark-colored lambs,[d] and he placed them in the care of his sons.[e] [36] Then he put a three-day journey[f] between himself and Jacob, while Jacob continued to tend the rest of Laban's flocks.

[37] Jacob, however, took fresh-cut branches from poplar, almond[g] and plane trees[h] and made white stripes on them by peeling the bark and exposing the white inner wood of the branches.[i] [38] Then he placed the peeled branches[j] in all the watering troughs,[k] so that they would be directly in front of the flocks when they came to drink. When the flocks were in heat[l] and came to drink, [39] they mated in front of the branches.[m] And they bore young that were streaked or speckled or spotted.[n] [40] Jacob set apart the young of the flock by themselves, but made the rest face the streaked and dark-colored animals[o] that belonged to Laban. Thus he made separate flocks for himself and did not put them with Laban's animals.
[41] Whenever the stronger females were in heat,[p] Jacob would place the branches in the troughs in front of the animals so they would mate near the branches,[q] [42] but if the animals were weak, he would not place them there.
So the weak animals went to Laban and the strong ones to Jacob.[r] [43] In this way the man grew exceedingly prosperous and came to own large flocks, and maidservants and menservants, and camels and donkeys.[s]

Jacob Flees From Laban

31 Jacob heard that Laban's sons[t] were saying, "Jacob has taken everything our father owned and has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father."[u] [2] And Jacob noticed that Laban's attitude toward him was not what it had been.[v] [3] Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Go back[w] to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."[a] 4So Jacob sent word to Rachel and Leah to come out to the fields where his flocks were. 5He said to them, "I see that your father[b]'s attitude toward me is not what it was before,[c] but the God of my father has been with me.[d] 6You know that I've worked for your father with all my strength,[e] 7yet your father has cheated[f] me by changing my wages[g] ten times.[h] However, God has not allowed him to harm me.[i] 8If he said, 'The speckled ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks gave birth to speckled young; and if he said, 'The streaked ones will be your wages,'[j] then all the flocks bore streaked young. 9So God has taken away your father's livestock[k] and has given them to me.[l] 10"In breeding season I once had a dream[m] in which I looked up and saw that the male goats mating with the flock were streaked, speckled or spotted. 11The angel of God[n] said to me in the dream,[o] 'Jacob.' I answered, 'Here I am.'[p] 12And he said, 'Look up and see that all the male goats mating with the flock are streaked, speckled or spotted,[q] for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you.[r] 13I am the God of Bethel,[s] where you anointed a pillar[t] and where you made a vow[u] to me.

Now leave this land at once and go back to your native land.[v]' " 14Then Rachel and Leah replied, "Do we still have any share[w] in the inheritance of our father's estate? 15Does he not regard us as foreigners?[x] Not only has he sold us, but he has used up what was paid for us.[y] 16Surely all the wealth that God took away from our father belongs to us and our children.[z] So do whatever God has told you." 17Then Jacob put his children and his wives[a] on camels,[b] 18and he drove all his livestock ahead of him, along with all the goods he had accumulated[c] in Paddan Aram,[q][d] to go to his father Isaac[e] in the land of Canaan.[f] 19When Laban had gone to shear his sheep,[g] Rachel stole her father's household gods.[h] 20Moreover, Jacob deceived[i] Laban the Aramean[j] by not telling him he was running away.[k] 21So he fled[l] with all he had, and crossing the River,[r][m] he headed for the hill country of Gilead.[n]

Laban Pursues Jacob

22On the third day[o] Laban was told that Jacob had fled.[p] 23Taking his relatives[q] with him,[r] he pursued Jacob for seven days and caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.[s] 24Then God came to Laban the Aramean[t] in a dream at night and said to him,[u] "Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad."[v] 25Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country of Gilead[w] when Laban overtook him, and Laban and his relatives camped there too. 26Then Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done?[x] You've deceived me,[y] and you've carried off my daughters like captives in war.[z] 27Why did you run off secretly and deceive me? Why didn't you tell me,[a] so I could send you away with joy and singing to the music of tambourines[b] and harps?[c] 28You didn't even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters good-by.[d] You have done a foolish thing. 29I have the power to harm you;[e] but last night the God of your father[f] said to me, 'Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.'[g] 30Now you have gone off because you longed to return to your father's house.[h] But why did you steal[i] my gods?[j]" 31Jacob answered Laban, "I was afraid, because I thought you would take your daughters away from me by force.[k] 32But if you find anyone who has your gods, he shall not live.[l] In the presence of our relatives, see for yourself whether there is anything of yours here with me; and if so, take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.[m] 33So Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent[n] and into the tent of the two maidservants,[o] but he found nothing.[p] After he came out of Leah's tent, he entered Rachel's tent. 34Now Rachel had taken the household gods[q] and put them inside her camel's saddle[r] and was sitting on them. Laban searched[s] through everything in the tent but found nothing.
35Rachel said to her father, "Don't be angry, my lord, that I cannot stand up in your presence;[t] I'm having my period.[a]" So he searched but could not find the household gods.[b] 36 Jacob was angry and took Laban to task. "What is my crime?" he asked Laban. "What sin have I committed[c] that you hunt me down?[d] 37 Now that you have searched through all my goods, what have you found that belongs to your household?[e] Put it here in front of your relatives[f] and mine, and let them judge between the two of us.[g] 38 "I have been with you for twenty years now.[h] Your sheep and goats have not miscarried,[i] nor have I eaten rams from your flocks. 39 I did not bring you animals torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. And you demanded payment from me for whatever was stolen[j] by day or night.[k] 40 This was my situation: The heat consumed me in the daytime and the cold at night, and sleep fled from my eyes.[l] 41 It was like this for the twenty years[m] I was in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters[n] and six years for your flocks,[o] and you changed my wages[p] ten times.[q] 42 If the God of my father,[r] the God of Abraham[s] and the Fear of Isaac,[t] had not been with me,[u] you would surely have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my hardship and the toil of my hands,[v] and last night he rebuked you.[w]" 43 Laban answered Jacob, "The women are my daughters, the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks.[x] All you see is mine. Yet what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about the children they have borne? 44 Come now, let's make a covenant,[y] you and I, and let it serve as a witness between us."[z] 45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.[a] 46 He said to his relatives, "Gather some stones." So they took stones and piled them in a heap,[b] and they ate there by the heap. 47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha,[a] and Jacob called it Galeed.[b][c] 48 Laban said, "This heap[d] is a witness between you and me today."[e] That is why it was called Galeed. 49 It was also called Mizpah,[c][f] because he said, "May the LORD keep watch between you and me when we are away from each other. 50 If you mistreat[g] my daughters or if you take any wives besides my daughters, even though no one is with us, remember that God is a witness[h] between you and me."[i] 51 Laban also said to Jacob, "Here is this heap,[j] and here is this pillar[k] I have set up between you and me.

52 This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness,[l] that I will not go past this heap to your side to harm you and that you will not go past this heap[m] and pillar to my side to harm me.[n] 53 May the God of Abraham[o] and the God of Nahor,[p] the God of their father, judge between us."[q]
So Jacob took an oath[r] in the name of the Fear of his father Isaac.[s] 54 He offered a sacrifice[t] there in the hill country and invited his relatives to a meal.[u] After they had eaten, they spent the night there.
55 Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters[v] and blessed[w] them. Then he left and returned home.[x]

Jacob Prepares to Meet Esau

32 Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God[y] met him.
2 When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is the camp of God!"[z] So he named that place Mahanaim.[d][a] 3 Jacob sent messengers[b] ahead of him to his brother Esau[c] in the land of Seir,[d] the country of Edom.[e] 4 He instructed them: "This is what you are to say to my master[f] Esau: 'Your servant[g] Jacob says, I have been staying with Laban[h] and have remained there till now. 5 I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats, menservants and maidservants.[i] Now I am sending this message to my lord,[j] that I may find favor in your eyes.[k]'" 6 When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him."[l] 7 In great fear[m] and distress[n] Jacob divided the people who were with him into two groups,[e][o] and the flocks and herds and camels as well. 8 He thought, "If Esau comes and attacks one group,[f] the group[f] that is left may escape." 9 Then Jacob prayed, "O God of my father Abraham,[p] God of my father Isaac,[q] O LORD, who said to me, 'Go back to your country and your relatives, and I will make you prosper,'[a] 10I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness[b] you have shown your servant. I had only my staff[c] when I crossed this Jordan, but now I have become two groups.[d] 11Save me, I pray, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid[e] he will come and attack me,[f] and also the mothers with their children.[g] 12But you have said, 'I will surely make you prosper and will make your descendants like the sand[h] of the sea, which cannot be counted.[i]' "

13He spent the night there, and from what he had with him he selected a gift[j] for his brother Esau: 14two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,[k] 15thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.[l] 16He put them in the care of his servants, each herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Go ahead of me, and keep some space between the herds."[m]

17He instructed the one in the lead: "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and who owns all these animals in front of you?' 18then you are to say, 'They belong to your servant[n] Jacob. They are a gift[o] sent to my lord Esau, and he is coming behind us.' "

19He also instructed the second, the third and all the others who followed the herds: "You are to say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. 20And be sure to say, 'Your servant[p] Jacob is coming behind us.' " For he thought, "I will pacify him with these gifts[q] I am sending on ahead;[r] later, when I see him, perhaps he will receive me."[s] 21So Jacob's gifts[t] went on ahead of him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

Jacob Wrestles With God

22That night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maidservants and his eleven sons[u] and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.[v] 23After he had sent them across the stream, he sent over all his possessions.[w] 24So Jacob was left alone,[x] and a man[y] wrestled with him till daybreak. 25When the man saw that he could not overpower him, he touched the socket of Jacob's hip[z] so that his hip was wrenched as he wrestled with the man. 26Then the man said, "Let me go, for it is daybreak."

But Jacob replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."[a] 27The man asked him, "What is your name?"

"Jacob,"[b] he answered.

28Then the man said, "Your name[c] will no longer be Jacob, but Israel,[y][d] because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome."[e]

29Jacob said, "Please tell me your name."[f]

But he replied, "Why do you ask my name?"[g] Then he blessed[h] him there.

30So Jacob called the place Peniel,[z] saying, "It is because I saw God face to face,[i] and yet my life was spared."

31The sun rose above him as he passed Peniel,[a][j] and he was limping because of his hip. 32Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the tendon attached to the socket of the hip,[k] because the socket of Jacob's hip was touched near the tendon.

Jacob Meets Esau

33 Jacob looked up and there was Esau, coming with his four hundred men;[l] so he divided the children among Leah, Rachel and the two maidservants.[m] 2He put the maidservants and their children[n] in front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph[o] in the rear. 3He himself went on ahead and bowed down to the ground[p] seven times[q] as he approached his brother.

4But Esau[r] ran to meet Jacob and embraced him; he threw his arms around his neck and kissed him.[s] And they wept.[t] 5Then Esau looked up and saw the women and children. "Who are these with you?" he asked.

Jacob answered, "They are the children God has graciously given your servant.[u]" 6Then the maidservants and their children[v] approached and bowed down.[w] 7Next, Leah and her children[x] came and bowed down.[y] Last of all came Joseph and Rachel,[z] and they too bowed down.

8Esau asked, "What do you mean by all these droves I met?"[a]

"To find favor in your eyes, my lord,"[b] he said.

9But Esau said, "I already have plenty,[z] my brother. Keep what you have for yourself." 10 "No, please!" said Jacob. "If I have found favor in your eyes,[b] accept this gift[c] from me. For to see your face is like seeing the face of God,[d] now that you have received me favorably.[e] 11 Please accept the present[f] that was brought to you, for God has been gracious to me[g] and I have all I need."[h] And because Jacob insisted,[i] Esau accepted it.

12 Then Esau said, "Let us be on our way; I'll accompany you." 13 But Jacob said to him, "My lord[j] knows that the children are tender and that I must care for the ewes and cows that are nursing their young.[k] If they are driven hard just one day, all the animals will die. 14 So let my lord go on ahead of his servant, while I move along slowly at the pace of the droves[l] before me and that of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir.[m]" 15 Esau said, "Then let me leave some of my men with you."
"But why do that?" Jacob asked.
"Just let me find favor in the eyes of my lord."[n] 16 So that day Esau started on his way back to Seir.[o] 17 Jacob, however, went to Succoth,[p] where he built a place for himself and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place is called Succoth.[b]
18 After Jacob came from Paddan Aram,[c][q] he arrived safely at the[d] city of Shechem[r] in Canaan and camped within sight of the city. 19 For a hundred pieces of silver,[e] he bought from the sons of Hamor,[s] the father of Shechem,[t] the plot of ground[u] where he pitched his tent.[v] 20 There he set up an altar[w] and called it El Elohe Israel.[f]

Dinah and the Shechemites

34 Now Dinah,[x] the daughter Leah had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the women of the land. 2 When Shechem[y] son of Hamor[z] the Hivite,[a] the ruler of that area, saw her, he took her and violated her.[b] 3 His heart was drawn to Dinah[c] daughter of Jacob,[d] and he loved[e] the girl and spoke tenderly[f] to her. 4 And Shechem said to his father Hamor, "Get me this girl as my wife."[g] 5 When Jacob heard that his daughter Dinah had been defiled,[h] his sons were in the fields with his livestock; so he kept quiet about it until they came home.

6 Then Shechem's father Hamor went out to talk with Jacob.[i] 7 Now Jacob's sons had come in from the fields as soon as they heard what had happened. They were filled with grief[j] and fury,[k] because Shechem had done a disgraceful thing in[g] Israel[l] by lying with Jacob's daughter—a thing that should not be done.[m] 8 But Hamor said to them, "My son Shechem has his heart set on your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife.[n] 9 Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves.[o] 10 You can settle among us;[p] the land is open to you.[q] Live in it, trade[h] in it,[r] and acquire property in it.[s]" 11 Then Shechem said to Dinah's father and brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes,[t] and I will give you whatever you ask. 12 Make the price for the bride[u] and the gift I am to bring as great as you like, and I'll pay whatever you ask me. Only give me the girl as my wife."
13 Because their sister Dinah had been defiled,[v] Jacob's sons replied deceitful-ly[w] as they spoke to Shechem and his father Hamor. 14 They said to them, "We can't do such a thing; we can't give our sister to a man who is not circumcised.[x] That would be a disgrace to us. 15 We will give our consent to you on one condition[y] only: that you become like us by circumcising all your males.[z] 16 Then we will give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves.[a] We'll settle among you and become one people with you.[b] 17 But if you will not agree to be circumcised, we'll take our sister[i] and go." 18 Their proposal seemed good to Hamor and his son Shechem. 19 The young man, who was the most honored[c] of all his father's household, lost no time in doing what they said, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter.[d] 20 So Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their city[e] to speak to their fellow townsmen. 21 "These men are friendly toward us," they said. "Let them live in our land and trade in it;[f] the land has plenty of room for them.

24All the men who went out of the city gate[e] agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male in the city was circumcised.
25Three days later, while all of them were still in pain,[f] two of Jacob's sons, Simeon[g] and Levi,[h] Dinah's brothers, took their swords[i] and attacked the unsuspecting city,[j] killing every male.[k] 26They put Hamor and his son Shechem to the sword[l] and took Dinah[m] from Shechem's house and left. 27The sons of Jacob came upon the dead bodies and looted the city[n] where[j] their sister had been defiled.[o] 28They seized their flocks and herds and donkeys[p] and everything else of theirs in the city and out in the fields.[q] 29They carried off all their wealth and all their women and children,[r] taking as plunder[s] everything in the houses.[t] 30Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble[u] on me by making me a stench[v] to the Canaanites and Perizzites, the people living in this land.[w] We are few in number,[x] and if they join forces against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed." 31But they replied, "Should he have treated our sister like a prostitute?[y]"

Jacob Returns to Bethel

35 Then God said to Jacob, "Go up to Bethel[z] and settle there, and build an altar[a] there to God,[b] who appeared to you[c] when you were fleeing from your brother Esau."[d] 2So Jacob said to his household[e] and to all who were with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods[f] you have with you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes.[g] 3Then come, let us go up to Bethel, where I will build an altar to God,[h] who answered me in the day of my distress[i] and who has been with me wherever I have gone.[j]" 4So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods they had and the rings in their ears,[k] and Jacob buried them under the oak[l] at Shechem.[m] 5Then they set out, and the terror of God[n] fell upon the towns all around them so that no one pursued them.[o] 6Jacob and all the people with him came to Luz[p] (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan.[q] 7There he built an altar,[r] and he called the place El Bethel,[k][s] because it was there that God revealed himself to him[t] when he was fleeing from his brother.[u] 8Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse,[v] died and was buried under the oak[w] below Bethel.[x] So it was named Allon Bacuth.[l]
9After Jacob returned from Paddan Aram,[m][y] God appeared to him again and blessed him.[z] 10God said to him, "Your name is Jacob,[n] but you will no longer be called Jacob; your name will be Israel.[o]"[a] So he named him Israel.
11And God said to him, "I am God Almighty[p];[b] be fruitful and increase in number.[c] A nation[d] and a community of nations will come from you, and kings will come from your body.[e] 12The land I gave to Abraham and Isaac I also give to you, and I will give this land to your descendants after you.[f]"[g] 13Then God went up from him[h] at the place where he had talked with him.
14Jacob set up a stone pillar[i] at the place where God had talked with him, and he poured out a drink offering[j] on it; he also poured oil on it.[k] 15Jacob called the place where God had talked with him Bethel.[q][l]

The Deaths of Rachel and Isaac

16Then they moved on from Bethel.
While they were still some distance from Ephrath,[m] Rachel[n] began to give birth and had great difficulty. 17And as she was having great difficulty in childbirth, the midwife[o] said to her, "Don't be afraid, for you have another son."[p] 18As she breathed her last—for she was dying—she named her son Ben-Oni.[r][q] But his father named him Benjamin.[s][r] 19So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath[s] (that is, Beth-6Esau took his wives and sons and daughters and all the members of his household, as well as his livestock and all his other animals and all the goods he had acquired in Canaan,[n] and moved to a land some distance from his brother Jacob.[o] 7Their possessions were too great for them to remain together; the land where they were staying could not support them both because of their livestock.[p] 8So Esau[q] (that is, Edom)[r] settled in the hill country of Seir.[s] 9This is the account[t] of Esau the father of the Edomites[u] in the hill country of Seir.

10These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.[v] 11The sons of Eliphaz:[w] Teman,[x] Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz.[y] 12Esau's son Eliphaz also had a concubine[z] named Timna, who bore him Amalek.[a] These were grandsons of Esau's wife Adah.[b] 13The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.[c] 14The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah[d] daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon, whom she bore to Esau:
Jeush, Jalam and Korah.[e]

15These were the chiefs[f] among Esau's descendants:
The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau:
Chiefs Teman,[g] Omar, Zepho, Kenaz,[h] 16Korah,[t] Gatam and Amalek. These were the chiefs descended from Eliphaz[i] in Edom;[j] they were grandsons of Adah.[k] 17The sons of Esau's son Reuel:[l] Chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the chiefs descended from Reuel in Edom; they were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.[m] 18The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah:[n]
Chiefs Jeush, Jalam and Korah.[o] These were the chiefs descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah.
19These were the sons of Esau[p] (that is, Edom),[q] and these were their chiefs.[r]

[t]16 Masoretic Text; Samaritan Pentateuch (see also Gen. 36:11 and 1 Chron. 1:36) does not have Korah.

20These were the sons of Seir the Horite,[a] who were living in the region:

Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,[b] 21Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These sons of Seir in Edom were Horite chiefs.[c]

22The sons of Lotan:

Hori and Homam.[u] Timna was Lotan's sister.

23The sons of Shobal:

Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

24The sons of Zibeon:[d]

Aiah and Anah. This is the Anah who discovered the hot springs[v][e] in the desert while he was grazing the donkeys[f] of his father Zibeon.

25The children of Anah:[g]

Dishon and Oholibamah[h] daughter of Anah.

26The sons of Dishon[w]:

Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Keran.

27The sons of Ezer:

Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan.

28The sons of Dishan:

Uz and Aran.

29These were the Horite chiefs:

Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,[i] 30Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These were the Horite chiefs,[j] according to their divisions, in the land of Seir.

The Rulers of Edom

31These were the kings who reigned in Edom before any Israelite king[k] reigned[x]: 32Bela son of Beor became king of Edom. His city was named Dinhabah.

33When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah[l] succeeded him as king.
34When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites[m] succeeded him as king.
35When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian[n] in the country of Moab,[o] succeeded him as king. His city was named Avith.
36When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah succeeded him as king.
37When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth[p] on the river[y] succeeded him as king.
38When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan son of Acbor succeeded him as king.
39When Baal-Hanan son of Acbor died, Hadad[z] succeeded him as king. His city was named Pau, and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab.

40These were the chiefs[q] descended from Esau, by name, according to their clans and regions:

Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, 41Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, 42Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, 43Magdiel and Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they occupied.

This was Esau the father of the Edomites.[r]

Joseph's Dreams

37 Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed,[s] the land of Canaan.[t]

2This is the account[u] of Jacob.

Joseph,[v] a young man of seventeen,[w] was tending the flocks[x] with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah[y] and the sons of Zilpah,[z] his father's wives, and he brought their father a bad report[a] about them.

3Now Israel[b] loved Joseph more than any of his other sons,[c] because he had been born to him in his old age;[d] and he made a richly ornamented[a] robe[e] for him.[f] 4When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him[g] and could not speak a kind word to him.

5Joseph had a dream,[h] and when he told it to his brothers,[i] they hated him all the more.[j] 6He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had: 7We were binding sheaves[k] of grain out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around mine and bowed down to it."[l]

8His brothers said to him, "Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?"[m] And they hated him all the more[a] because of his dream and what he had said.

9 Then he had another dream,[b] and he told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars[c] were bowing down to me."[d] 10 When he told his father as well as his brothers,[e] his father rebuked[f] him and said, "What is this dream you had?
Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?"[g] 11 His brothers were jealous of him,[h] but his father kept the matter in mind.[i]

Joseph Sold by His Brothers

12 Now his brothers had gone to graze their father's flocks near Shechem,[j] 13 and Israel[k] said to Joseph, "As you know, your brothers are grazing the flocks near Shechem.[l] Come, I am going to send you to them."
"Very well," he replied.
14 So he said to him, "Go and see if all is well with your brothers[m] and with the flocks, and bring word back to me." Then he sent him off from the Valley of Hebron.[n] When Joseph arrived at Shechem, 15 a man found him wandering around in the fields and asked him, "What are you looking for?" 16 He replied, "I'm looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are grazing their flocks?" 17 "They have moved on from here," the man answered. "I heard them say, 'Let's go to Dothan.'[o]" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them near Dothan. 18 But they saw him in the distance, and before he reached them, they plotted to kill him.[p] 19 "Here comes that dreamer![q]" they said to each other. 20 "Come now, let's kill him and throw him into one of these cisterns[r] and say that a ferocious animal[s] devoured him.[t] Then we'll see what comes of his dreams."[u] 21 When Reuben[v] heard this, he tried to rescue him from their hands. "Let's not take his life," he said.[w] 22 "Don't shed any blood. Throw him into this cistern[x] here in the desert, but don't lay a hand on him." Reuben said this to rescue him from them and take him back to his father.[y] 23 So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe—the richly ornamented robe[z] he was wearing— 24 and they took him and threw him into the cistern.[a] Now the cistern was empty; there was no water in it.
25 As they sat down to eat their meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites[b] coming from Gilead.[c] Their camels were loaded with spices, balm[d] and myrrh,[e] and they were on their way to take them down to Egypt.[f] 26 Judah[g] said to his brothers, "What will we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?[h] 27 Come, let's sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him; after all, he is our brother,[i] our own flesh and blood.[j]" His brothers agreed.
28 So when the Midianite[k] merchants came by, his brothers pulled Joseph up out of the cistern[l] and sold[m] him for twenty shekels[b] of silver[n] to the Ishmaelites,[o] who took him to Egypt.[p] 29 When Reuben returned to the cistern and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes.[q] 30 He went back to his brothers and said, "The boy isn't there! Where can I turn now?"[r] 31 Then they got Joseph's robe,[s] slaughtered a goat and dipped the robe in the blood.[t] 32 They took the ornamented robe[u] back to their father and said, "We found this. Examine it to see whether it is your son's robe." 33 He recognized it and said, "It is my son's robe! Some ferocious animal[v] has devoured him. Joseph has surely been torn to pieces."[w] 34 Then Jacob tore his clothes,[x] put on sackcloth[y] and mourned for his son many days.[z] 35 All his sons and daughters came to comfort him,[a] but he refused to be comforted.[b] "No," he said, "in mourning will I go down to the grave[c][c] to my son.[d]" So his father wept for him.
36 Meanwhile, the Midianites[d][e] sold Joseph[f] in Egypt to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard.[g]

Hirah.[a] 2There Judah met the daughter of a Canaanite man named Shua.[b] He married her and lay with her; 3she became pregnant and gave birth to a son, who was named Er.[c] 4She conceived again and gave birth to a son and named him Onan.[d] 5She gave birth to still another son and named him Shelah.[e] It was at Kezib that she gave birth to him.

6Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.[f] 7But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the LORD's sight;[g] so the LORD put him to death.[h]

8Then Judah said to Onan, "Lie with your brother's wife and fulfill your duty to her as a brother-in-law to produce offspring for your brother."[i] 9But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so whenever he lay with his brother's wife, he spilled his semen on the ground to keep from producing offspring for his brother. 10What he did was wicked in the LORD's sight; so he put him to death also.[j]

11Judah then said to his daughter-in-law[k] Tamar,[l] "Live as a widow in your father's house[m] until my son Shelah[n] grows up."[o] For he thought, "He may die too, just like his brothers." So Tamar went to live in her father's house.

12After a long time Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua,[p] died. When Judah had recovered from his grief, he went up to Timnah,[q] to the men who were shearing his sheep,[r] and his friend Hirah the Adullamite[s] went with him.

13When Tamar[t] was told, "Your father-in-law is on his way to Timnah to shear his sheep,"[u] 14she took off her widow's clothes,[v] covered herself with a veil[w] to disguise herself, and then sat down[x] at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah.[y] For she saw that, though Shelah[z] had now grown up, she had not been given to him as his wife.

15When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute,[a] for she had covered her face. 16Not realizing[b] that she was his daughter-in-law,[c] he went over to her by the roadside and said,
"Come now, let me sleep with you."[d]

"And what will you give me to sleep with you?"[e] she asked.

17"I'll send you a young goat[f] from my flock," he said.

"Will you give me something as a pledge[g] until you send it?" she asked.

18He said, "What pledge should I give you?"

"Your seal[h] and its cord, and the staff[i] in your hand," she answered. So he gave them to her and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him.[j] 19After she left, she took off her veil and put on her widow's clothes[k] again.

20Meanwhile Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite[l] in order to get his pledge[m] back from the woman, but he did not find her. 21He asked the men who lived there, "Where is the shrine prostitute[n] who was beside the road at Enaim?"

"There hasn't been any shrine prostitute here," they said.

22So he went back to Judah and said, "I didn't find her. Besides, the men who lived there said, 'There hasn't been any shrine prostitute here.' " 23Then Judah said, "Let her keep what she has,[o] or we will become a laughingstock.[p] After all, I did send her this young goat, but you didn't find her."

24About three months later Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar is guilty of prostitution, and as a result she is now pregnant."

Judah said, "Bring her out and have her burned to death!"[q]

25As she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law. "I am pregnant by the man who owns these," she said. And she added, "See if you recognize whose seal and cord and staff these are."[r]

26Judah recognized them and said, "She is more righteous than I,[s] since I wouldn't give her to my son Shelah.[t]" And he did not sleep with her again.

birth, there were twin boys in her womb.[u] 28As she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand; so the mid-wife[v] took a scarlet thread and tied it on his wrist[w] and said, "This one came out first." 29But when he drew back his hand, his brother came out,[x] and she said, "So this is how you have broken out!" And he was named Perez.[e][y] 30Then his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his wrist,[z] came out and he was given the name Zerah.[f][a]

Joseph and Potiphar's Wife

39 Now Joseph[a] had been taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian who was one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard,[b] bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.[c] 2The LORD was with Joseph[d] and he prospered, and he lived in the house of his Egyptian master. 3When his master saw that the LORD was with him[e] and that the LORD gave him success in everything he did,[f] 4Joseph found favor in his eyes[g] and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household,[h] and he entrusted to his care everything he owned.[i] 5From the time he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the household[j] of the Egyptian because of Joseph.[k] The blessing of the LORD was on everything Potiphar had, both in the house and in the field.[l] 6So he left in Joseph's care everything he had;[m] with Joseph in charge, he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate.
Now Joseph was well-built and handsome,[n] 7and after a while his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Come to bed with me!"[o] 8But he refused.[p] "With me in charge," he told her, "my master does not concern himself with anything in the house; everything he owns he has entrusted to my care.[q] 9No one is greater in this house than I am.[r] My master has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife.
How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?"[s] 10And though she spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused[t] to go to bed with her or even be with her.
11One day he went into the house to attend to his duties,[u] and none of the household servants[v] was inside. 12She caught him by his cloak[w] and said, "Come to bed with me!"[x] But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.[y] 13When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house, 14she called her household servants.[z] "Look," she said to them, "this Hebrew[a] has been brought to us to make sport of us![b] He came in here to sleep with me, but I screamed.[c] 15When he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."[d]

16She kept his cloak beside her until his master came home. 17Then she told him this story:[e] "That Hebrew[f] slave[g] you brought us came to me to make sport of me. 18But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house." 19When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is how your slave treated me," he burned with anger.[h] 20Joseph's master took him and put him in prison,[i] the place where the king's prisoners were confined.
But while Joseph was there in the prison, 21the LORD was with him;[j] he showed him kindness[k] and granted him favor in the eyes of the prison warden.[l] 22So the warden put Joseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there.[m] 23The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph's[n] care, because the LORD was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.[o]

The Cupbearer and the Baker

40 Some time later, the cupbearer[p] and the baker[q] of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt. 2Pharaoh was angry[r] with his two officials,[s] the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, 3and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard,[t] in the same prison where Joseph was confined. 4The captain of the guard[u] assigned them to Joseph,[v] and he attended them.
After they had been in custody[w] for some time, 5each of the two men—the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in prison—had a dream[x] the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.[y] 6When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw that they were dejected. 7So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were in custody[z] with him in his master's house, "Why are your faces so sad today?"[a] 8"We both had dreams," they answered, "but there is no one to interpret them."[b] Then Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God?[c] Tell me your dreams." 9So the chief cupbearer[d] told Joseph his dream. He said to him, "In my dream I saw a vine in front of me, 10and on the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, it blossomed,[a] and its clusters ripened into grapes. 11Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in his hand." 12"This is what it means,[b]" Joseph said to him. "The three branches are three days.[c] 13Within three days[d] Pharaoh will lift up your head[e] and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer.[f] 14But when all goes well with you, remember me[g] and show me kindness;[h] mention me to Pharaoh[i] and get me out of this prison. 15For I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews,[j] and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon."[k] 16When the chief baker[l] saw that Joseph had given a favorable interpretation,[m] he said to Joseph, "I too had a dream: On my head were three baskets[n] of bread.[g] 17In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head." 18"This is what it means," Joseph said. "The three baskets are three days.[o] 19Within three days[p] Pharaoh will lift off your head[q] and hang you on a tree.[h][r] And the birds will eat away your flesh."[s] 20Now the third day[t] was Pharaoh's birthday,[u] and he gave a feast for all his officials.[v] He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker[w] in the presence of his officials: 21He restored the chief cupbearer[x] to his position,[y] so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh's hand,[z] 22but he hanged[i] the chief baker,[a] just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation.[b] 23The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him.[c]

Pharaoh's Dreams

41 When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream:[d] He was standing by the Nile,[e] 2when out of the river there came up seven cows, sleek and fat,[f] and they grazed among the reeds.[g] 3After them, seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile and stood beside those on the riverbank. 4And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.[h] 5He fell asleep again and had a sec-healthy and good, were growing on a single stalk. 6After them, seven other heads of grain sprouted—thin and scorched by the east wind.[j] 7The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy, full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up;[k] it had been a dream.

8In the morning his mind was troubled,[l] so he sent for all the magicians[m] and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them for him.[n] 9Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, "Today I am reminded of my shortcomings.[o] 10Pharaoh was once angry with his servants,[p] and he imprisoned me and the chief baker in the house of the captain of the guard.[q] 11Each of us had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.[r] 12Now a young Hebrew[s] was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard.[t] We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us, giving each man the interpretation of his dream.[u] 13And things turned out exactly as he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged.[i][v]" 14So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was quickly brought from the dungeon.[w] When he had shaved[x] and changed his clothes,[y] he came before Pharaoh.
15Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and no one can interpret it.[z] But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."[a] 16"I cannot do it," Joseph replied to Pharaoh, "but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires."[b] 17Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile,[c] 18when out of the river there came up seven cows, fat and sleek, and they grazed among the reeds.[d] 19After them, seven other cows came up—scrawny and very ugly and lean. I had never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt. 20The lean, ugly cows ate up the seven fat cows that came up first. 21But even after they ate them, no one could tell that they had done so; they looked just as ugly as before. Then I woke up.
22"In my dreams I also saw seven heads of grain, full and good, growing on a single stalk. 23After them, seven other heads sprouted—withered and thin and scorched by the east wind.

24The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads. I told this to the magicians, but none could explain it to me.[a]" 25Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same.[b] God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.[c] 26The seven good cows[d] are seven years, and the seven good heads of grain are seven years; it is one and the same dream.
27The seven lean, ugly cows that came up afterward are seven years, and so are the seven worthless heads of grain scorched by the east wind: They are seven years of famine.[e] 28"It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do.[f] 29Seven years of great abundance[g] are coming throughout the land of Egypt, 30but seven years of famine[h] will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land.[i] 31The abundance in the land will not be remembered, because the famine that follows it will be so severe. 32The reason the dream was given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided[j] by God, and God will do it soon.[k] 33"And now let Pharaoh look for a discerning and wise man[l] and put him in charge of the land of Egypt.[m] 34Let Pharaoh appoint commissioners[n] over the land to take a fifth[o] of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.[p] 35They should collect all the food of these good years that are coming and store up the grain under the authority of Pharaoh, to be kept in the cities for food.[q] 36This food should be held in reserve for the country, to be used during the seven years of famine that will come upon Egypt,[r] so that the country may not be ruined by the famine." 37The plan seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his officials.[s] 38So Pharaoh asked them, "Can we find anyone like this man, one in whom is the spirit of God[j]?"[t] 39Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you,[u] there is no one so discerning and wise as you.[v] 40You shall be in charge of my palace,[w] and all my people are to submit to your orders.[x] Only with respect to the throne will I be greater than you.[y]"

Joseph in Charge of Egypt

41So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I hereby put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt."[z] 42Then Pharaoh took his signet ring[a] from his finger and put it on Joseph's finger. He dressed him in robes[b] of fine linen[c] and put a gold chain around his neck.[d] 43He had him ride in a chariot[e] as his second-in-command,[k][f] and men shouted before him, "Make way[l]!"[g] Thus he put him in charge of the whole land of Egypt.[h] 44Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, but without your word no one will lift hand or foot in all Egypt."[i] 45Pharaoh gave Joseph[j] the name Zaphenath-Paneah and gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest[k] of On,[m][l] to be his wife.[m] And Joseph went throughout the land of Egypt.
46Joseph was thirty years old[n] when he entered the service[o] of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and traveled throughout Egypt. 47During the seven years of abundance[p] the land produced plentifully. 48Joseph collected all the food produced in those seven years of abundance in Egypt and stored it in the cities.[q] In each city he put the food grown in the fields surrounding it. 49Jo-seph stored up huge quantities of grain, like the sand of the sea;[r] it was so much that he stopped keeping records because it was beyond measure.
50Before the years of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.[s] 51Joseph named his firstborn[t] Manasseh[n][u] and said, "It is because God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's household." 52The second son he named Ephraim[o][v] and said, "It is because God has made me fruitful[w] in the land of my suffering." 53The seven years of abundance in Egypt came to an end, 54and the seven years of famine[x] began,[y] just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all the other lands, but in the whole land of Egypt there was food. 55When all Egypt began to feel the famine,[a] the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do what he tells you."[b] 56When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians,[c] for the famine[d] was severe throughout Egypt.[e] 57And all the countries came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph,[f] because the famine was severe in all the world.[g]

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

42 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt,[h] he said to his sons, "Why do you just keep looking at each other?" 2He continued, "I have heard that there is grain in Egypt.
Go down there and buy some for us,[i] so that we may live and not die."[j] 3Then ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain[k] from Egypt. 4But Jacob did not send Benjamin,[l] Joseph's brother, with the others, because he was afraid that harm might come to him.[m] 5So Israel's sons were among those who went to buy grain,[n] for the famine was in the land of Canaan[o] also.[p] 6Now Joseph was the governor of the land,[q] the one who sold grain to all its people.[r] So when Joseph's brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.[s] 7As soon as Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he pretended to be a stranger and spoke harshly to them.[t] "Where do you come from?"[u] he asked.
"From the land of Canaan," they replied, "to buy food." 8Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him.[v] 9Then he remembered his dreams[w] about them and said to them, "You are spies![x] You have come to see where our land is unprotected."[y] 10"No, my lord,[z]" they answered.
"Your servants have come to buy food.[a] 11We are all the sons of one man. Your servants[b] are honest men,[c] not spies.[d]" 12"No!" he said to them. "You have come to see where our land is unprotected."[e] 13But they replied, "Your servants[f] were twelve brothers, the sons of one man, who lives in the land of Canaan.[g] The youngest is now with our father, and one is no more."[h] 14Joseph said to them, "It is just as I told you: You are spies![i] 15And this is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives,[j] you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.[k] 16Send one of your number to get your brother;[l] the rest of you will be kept in prison,[m] so that your words may be tested to see if you are telling the truth.[n] If you are not, then as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies![o]" 17And he put them all in custody[p] for three days.
18On the third day, Joseph said to them, "Do this and you will live, for I fear God:[q] 19If you are honest men,[r] let one of your brothers stay here in prison,[s] while the rest of you go and take grain back for your starving households.[t] 20But you must bring your youngest brother to me,[u] so that your words may be verified and that you may not die." This they proceeded to do.
21They said to one another, "Surely we are being punished because of our brother.[v] We saw how distressed he was when he pleaded with us for his life, but we would not listen; that's why this distress[w] has come upon us." 22Reuben replied, "Didn't I tell you not to sin against the boy?[x] But you wouldn't listen! Now we must give an accounting[y] for his blood."[z] 23They did not realize[a] that Joseph could understand them,[b] since he was using an interpreter.
24He turned away from them and began to weep,[c] but then turned back and spoke to them again. He had Simeon taken from them and bound before their eyes.[d] 25Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain,[e] to put each man's silver back in his sack,[f] and to give them provisions[g] for their journey.[h] After this was done for them, 26they loaded their grain on their donkeys[i] and left.
27At the place where they stopped for the night one of them opened his sack to get feed for his donkey,[j] and he saw his silver in the mouth of his sack.[k] 28"My silver has been returned," he said to his brothers. "Here it is in my sack."
Their hearts sank[l] and they turned to each other trembling[m] and said, "What is this that God has done to us?"[n] 29When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan,[o] they told him all that had happened to them.

They said, 30"The man who is lord over the land spoke harshly to us and treated us as though we were spying on the land. 31But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.
32We were twelve brothers, sons of one father. One is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in Canaan.' 33"Then the man who is lord over the land said to us, 'This is how I will know whether you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take food for your starving households and go. 34But bring your youngest brother to me so I will know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I will give your brother back to you, and you can trade in the land.'" 35As they were emptying their sacks, there in each man's sack was his pouch of silver! When they and their father saw the money pouches, they were frightened. 36Their father Jacob said to them, "You have deprived me of my children. Joseph is no more and Simeon is no more, and now you want to take Benjamin. Everything is against
37Then Reuben said to his father, "You may put both of my sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him back." 38But Jacob said, "My son will not go down there with you; his brother is dead and he is the only one left. If harm comes to him on the journey you are taking, you will bring my gray head down to the grave in sorrow."

The Second Journey to Egypt

43 Now the famine was still severe in the land. 2So when they had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go back and buy us a little more food." 3But Judah said to him, "The man warned us solemnly, 'You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.' 4If you will send our brother along with us, we will go down and buy food for you. 5But if you will not send him, we will not go down, because the man said to us, 'You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'" 6Israel asked, "Why did you bring this trouble on me by telling the man you had another brother?" 7They replied, "The man questioned us closely about ourselves and our family. 'Is your father still living?' he asked us. 'Do you have another brother?' We simply answered his questions. How were we to know he would say, 'Bring your brother down here'?" 8Then Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the boy along with me and we will go at once, so that we and you and our children may live and not die. 9I myself will guarantee his safety; you can hold me personally responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him here before you, I will bear the blame before you all my life. 10As it is, if we had not delayed, we could have gone and returned twice." 11Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be, then do this: Put some of the best products of the land in your bags and take them down to the man as a gift—a little balm and a little honey, some spices and myrrh, some pistachio nuts and almonds.
12Take double the amount of silver with you, for you must return the silver that was put back into the mouths of your sacks. Perhaps it was a mistake. 13Take your brother also and go back to the man at once. 14And may God Almighty grant you mercy before the man so that he will let your other brother and Benjamin come back with you. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved."
15So the men took the gifts and double the amount of silver, and Benjamin also. They hurried down to Egypt and presented themselves to Joseph.
16When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Take these men to my house, slaughter an animal and prepare dinner; they are to eat with me at noon." 17The man did as Joseph told him and took the men to Joseph's house.
18Now the men were frightened when they were taken to his house. They thought, "We were brought here because of the silver that was put back into our sacks the first time. He wants to attack us and overpower us and seize us as slaves and take our donkeys."

19So they went up to Joseph's steward[a] and spoke to him at the entrance to the house. 20"Please, sir," they said, "we came down here the first time to buy food.[b] 21But at the place where we stopped for the night we opened our sacks and each of us found his silver—the exact weight—in the mouth of his sack. So we have brought it back with us.[c] 22We have also brought additional silver with us to buy food. We don't know who put our silver in our sacks." 23"It's all right," he said. "Don't be afraid. Your God, the God of your father,[d] has given you treasure in your sacks;[e] I received your silver." Then he brought Simeon out to them.[f] 24The steward took the men into Joseph's house,[g] gave them water to wash their feet[h] and provided fodder for their donkeys. 25They prepared their gifts[i] for Joseph's arrival at noon,[j] because they had heard that they were to eat there.
26When Joseph came home,[k] they presented to him the gifts[l] they had brought into the house, and they bowed down before him to the ground.[m] 27He asked them how they were, and then he said, "How is your aged father[n] you told me about? Is he still living?"[o] 28They replied, "Your servant our father[p] is still alive and well." And they bowed low[q] to pay him honor.[r] 29As he looked about and saw his brother Benjamin, his own mother's son,[s] he asked, "Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?"[t] And he said, "God be gracious to you,[u] my son." 30Deeply moved[v] at the sight of his brother, Joseph hurried out and looked for a place to weep. He went into his private room and wept[w]
there.
31After he had washed his face, he came out and, controlling himself,[x] said, "Serve the food."[y] 32They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews,[z] for that is detestable to Egyptians.[a] 33The men had been seated before him in the order of their ages, from the firstborn[b] to the youngest;[c] and they looked at each other in astonishment. 34When portions were served to them from Joseph's table, Benjamin's portion was five times as much as anyone else's.[d] So they feasted[e] and drank freely with him.

A Silver Cup in a Sack

44 Now Joseph gave these instructions to the steward of his house:[f] "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man's silver in the mouth of his sack.[g] 2Then put my cup,[h] the silver one,[i] in the mouth of the youngest one's sack, along with the silver for his grain." And he did as Joseph said.
3As morning dawned, the men were sent on their way with their donkeys.[j] 4They had not gone far from the city when Joseph said to his steward,[k] "Go after those men at once, and when you catch up with them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid good with evil?[l] 5Isn't this the cup[m] my master drinks from and also uses for divination?[n] This is a wicked thing you have done.'" 6When he caught up with them, he repeated these words to them. 7But they said to him, "Why does my lord say such things? Far be it from your servants[o] to do anything like that![p] 8We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan[q] the silver[r] we found inside the mouths of our sacks.[s] So why would we steal[t] silver or gold from your master's house? 9If any of your servants[u] is found to have it, he will die;[v] and the rest of us will become my lord's slaves.[w]" 10"Very well, then," he said, "let it be as you say. Whoever is found to have it[x] will become my slave;[y] the rest of you will be free from blame."[z] 11Each of them quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.
12Then the steward[a] proceeded to search,[b] beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest.[c] And the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.[d] 13At this, they tore their clothes.[e] Then they all loaded their donkeys[f] and returned to the city.
14Joseph was still in the house[g] when Judah[h] and his brothers came in, and they threw themselves to the ground before him.[i] 15Joseph said to them, "What is this you have done?[j] Don't you know that a man like me can find things out by divination?[k]" 16"What can we say to my lord?[l]" Judah[m] replied. "What can we say?
How can we prove our innocence?[n] God has uncovered your servants'[o] guilt. We are now my lord's slaves[p]—we ourselves and the one who was found to have the cup.[q]"

[m]S ver 14 [n]Ps 26:6; 73:13 [o]S Ge 42:11 [p]S Ge 43:18 [q]S ver 2

17But Joseph said, "Far be it from me to do such a thing! Only the man who was found to have the cup will become my slave. The rest of you, go back to your father in peace." 18Then Judah went up to him and said: "Please, my lord, let your servant speak a word to my lord. Do not be angry with your servant, though you are equal to Pharaoh himself. 19My lord asked his servants, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' 20And we answered, 'We have an aged father, and there is a young son born to him in his old age. His brother is dead, and he is the only one of his mother's sons left, and his father loves him.' 21"Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me so I can see him for myself.' 22And we said to my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father; if he leaves him, his father will die.' 23But you told your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.' 24When we went back to your servant my father, we told him what my lord had said.
25"Then our father said, 'Go back and buy a little more food.' 26But we said, 'We cannot go down. Only if our youngest brother is with us will we go. We cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' 27"Your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons. 28One of them went away from me, and I said, "He has surely been torn to pieces." And I have not seen him since. 29If you take this one from me too and harm comes to him, you will bring my gray head down to the grave[a][z] in misery.'[a] 30"So now, if the boy is not with us when I go back to your servant my father[b] and if my father, whose life is closely bound up with the boy's life,[c] 31sees that the boy isn't there, he will die.[d] Your servants[e] will bring the gray head of our father down to the grave[f] in sorrow. 32Your servant guaranteed the boy's safety to my father. I said, 'If I do not bring him back to you, I will bear the blame before you, my father, all my life!'[g] 33"Now then, please let your servant remain here as my lord's slave[h] in place of the boy,[i] and let the boy return with his brothers. 34How can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? No! Do not let me see the misery[j] that would come upon my father."[k]

Joseph Makes Himself Known

45 Then Joseph could no longer control himself[l] before all his attendants, and he cried out, "Have everyone leave my presence!"[m] So there was no one with Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers.
2And he wept[n] so loudly that the Egyptians heard him, and Pharaoh's household heard about it.[o] 3Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Is my father still living?"[p] But his brothers were not able to answer him,[q] because they were terrified at his presence.[r] 4Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come close to me."[s] When they had done so, he said, "I am your brother Joseph, the one you sold into Egypt![t] 5And now, do not be distressed[u] and do not be angry with yourselves for selling me here,[v] because it was to save lives that God sent me ahead of you.[w] 6For two years now there has been famine[x] in the land, and for the next five years there will not be plowing and reaping. 7But God sent me ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant[y] on earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.[z][b] 8"So then, it was not you who sent me here, but God.[a] He made me father[b] to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household and ruler of all Egypt.[c] 9Now hurry[d] back to my father and say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; don't delay.[e] 10You shall live in the region of Goshen[f] and be near me—you, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and all you have.[g] 11I will provide for you there,[h] because five years of famine[i] are still to come.
Otherwise you and your household and all who belong to you will become destitute.'[j] 12"You can see for yourselves, and so can my brother Benjamin,[k] that it is really I who am speaking to you.[l] 13Tell my father about all the honor accorded me in Egypt[m] and about everything you have seen. And bring my father down here quickly."[n] 14Then he threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin[a] embraced him,[b] weeping. 15And he kissed[c] all his brothers and wept over them.[d] Afterward his brothers talked with him.[e]

16When the news reached Pharaoh's palace that Joseph's brothers had come,[f] Pharaoh and all his officials[g] were pleased.[h] 17Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals[i] and return to the land of Canaan,[j] 18and bring your father and your families back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt[k] and you can enjoy the fat of the land.'[l] 19"You are also directed to tell them, 'Do this: Take some carts[m] from Egypt for your children and your wives, and get your father and come. 20Never mind about your belongings,[n] because the best of all Egypt[o] will be yours.'" 21So the sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them carts,[p] as Pharaoh had commanded, and he also gave them provisions for their journey.[q] 22To each of them he gave new clothing,[r] but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels[u] of silver and five sets of clothes.[s] 23And this is what he sent to his father: ten donkeys[t] loaded with the best things[u] of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and other provisions for his journey.[v] 24Then he sent his brothers away, and as they were leaving he said to them, "Don't quarrel on the way!"[w]

25So they went up out of Egypt[x] and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan.[y] 26They told him, "Joseph is still alive! In fact, he is ruler of all Egypt."[z] Jacob was stunned; he did not believe them.[a] 27But when they told him everything Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts[b] Joseph had sent to carry him back, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.
28And Israel said, "I'm convinced![c] My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."[d]

Jacob Goes to Egypt

46 So Israel[e] set out with all that was his, and when he reached Beersheba,[f] he offered sacrifices[g] to the God of his father Isaac.[h] 2And God spoke to Israel[i] in a vision at night[j] and said, "Jacob! Jacob!"

"Here I am,"[k] he replied.

3"I am God, the God of your father,"[l] he said. "Do not be afraid[m] to go down to Egypt,[n] for I will make you into a great nation[o] there.[p] 4I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again.[q] And Joseph's own hand will close your eyes.[r]"

5Then Jacob left Beersheba,[s] and Israel's[t] sons took their father Jacob and their children and their wives in the carts[u] that Pharaoh had sent to transport him. 6They also took with them their livestock and the possessions[v] they had acquired[w] in Canaan, and Jacob and all his offspring went to Egypt.[x] 7He took with him to Egypt[y] his sons and grandsons and his daughters and granddaughters—all his offspring.[z]

Israel[a] (Jacob and his descendants) who went to Egypt:

27With the two sons[a] who had been of Jacob's family, which went to Egypt, were seventy[b] in all.[s] 28Now Jacob sent Judah[t] ahead of him to Joseph to get directions to Go-from our boyhood on, just as our fathers did.'[i] Then you will be allowed to settle[j] in the region of Goshen,[k] for all shepherds are detestable to the Egyptians.[l]"

47 Joseph went and told Pharaoh, "My father and brothers, with their flocks and herds and everything they own, have come from the land of Canaan[m] and are now in Goshen."[n] 2He chose five of his brothers and presented them[o] before Pharaoh.
3Pharaoh asked the brothers, "What is your occupation?"[p]
"Your servants[q] are shepherds,"[r] they replied to Pharaoh, "just as our fathers were." 4They also said to him, "We have come to live here awhile,[s] because the famine is severe in Canaan[t] and your servants' flocks have no pasture.[u] So now, please let your servants settle in Goshen."[v] 5Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you, 6and the land of Egypt is before you; settle[w] your father and your brothers in the best part of the land.[x] Let them live in Goshen. And if you know of any among them with special ability,[y] put them in charge of my own livestock.[z]" 7Then Joseph brought his father Jacob in and presented him[a] before Pharaoh. After Jacob blessed[d] Pharaoh,[b] 8Pharaoh asked him, "How old are you?" 9And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty.[c] My years have been few and difficult,[d] and they do not equal the years of the pilgrimage of my fathers.[e]" 10Then Jacob blessed[e] Pharaoh[f] and went out from his presence.
11So Joseph settled his father and his brothers in Egypt and gave them property in the best part of the land,[g] the district of Rameses,[h] as Pharaoh directed. 12Joseph also provided his father and his brothers and all his father's household with food, according to the number of their children.[i] away because of the famine.[a] 14Joseph collected all the money that was to be found in Egypt and Canaan in payment for the grain they were buying,[b] and he brought it to Pharaoh's palace.[c] 15When the money of the people of Egypt and Canaan was gone,[d] all Egypt came to Joseph[e] and said, "Give us food. Why should we die before your eyes?[f] Our money is used up." 16"Then bring your livestock,[g]" said Joseph. "I will sell you food in exchange for your livestock, since your money is gone.[h]" 17So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses,[i] their sheep and goats, their cattle and donkeys.[j] And he brought them through that year with food in exchange for all their livestock.

18When that year was over, they came to him the following year and said, "We cannot hide from our lord the fact that since our money is gone[k] and our livestock belongs to you,[l] there is nothing left for our lord except our bodies and our land. 19Why should we perish before your eyes[m]—we and our land as well? Buy us and our land in exchange for food,[n] and we with our land will be in bondage to Pharaoh.[o] Give us seed so that we may live and not die,[p] and that the land may not become desolate." 20So Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians, one and all, sold their fields, because the famine was too severe[q] for them. The land became Pharaoh's, 21and Joseph reduced the people to servitude,[f] [r] from one end of Egypt to the other.
22However, he did not buy the land of the priests,[s] because they received a regular allotment from Pharaoh and had food enough from the allotment[t] Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land.
23Joseph said to the people, "Now that I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh, here is seed[u] for you so you can plant the ground.[v] 24But when the crop comes in, give a fifth[w] of it to Pharaoh. The other four-fifths you may keep as seed for the fields and as food for yourselves and your households and your children." 25"You have saved our lives," they said. "May we find favor in the eyes of our lord;[x] we will be in bondage to Pharaoh."[y] 26So Joseph established it as a law concerning land in Egypt—still in force today—that a fifth[z] of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. It was only the land of the priests that did not become Pharaoh's.[a] 27Now the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen.[b] They acquired property there[c] and were fruitful and increased greatly in number.[d] 28Jacob lived in Egypt[e] seventeen years, and the years of his life were a hundred and forty-seven.[f] 29When the time drew near for Israel[g] to die,[h] he called for his son Joseph and said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes,[i] put your hand under my thigh[j] and promise that you will show me kindness[k] and faithfulness.[l] Do not bury me in Egypt, 30but when I rest with my fathers,[m] carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried."[n]
"I will do as you say," he said.
31"Swear to me,"[o] he said. Then Joseph swore to him,[p] and Israel[q] worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.[g] [r]

Manasseh and Ephraim

48 Some time later Joseph was told, "Your father is ill." So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim[s] along with him. 2When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has come to you," Israel[t] rallied his strength and sat up on the bed.
3Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty[h] [u] appeared to me at Luz[v] in the land of Canaan, and there he blessed me[w] 4and said to me, 'I am going to make you fruitful and will increase your numbers.[x] I will make you a community of peoples, and I will give this land[y] as an everlasting possession to your descendants after you.'[z] 5"Now then, your two sons born to you in Egypt[a] before I came to you here will be reckoned as mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine,[b] just as Reuben[c] and Simeon[d] are mine. 6Any children born to you after them will be yours; in the territory they inherit they will be reckoned under the names of their brothers. 7As I was returning from Ephrath. So I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).[a] 8When Israel[b] saw the sons of Joseph,[c] he asked, "Who are these?" 9"They are the sons God has given me here,"[d] Joseph said to his father.

Then Israel said, "Bring them to me so I may bless[e] them." 10Now Israel's eyes were failing because of old age, and he could hardly see.[f] So Joseph brought his sons close to him, and his father kissed them[g] and embraced them.[h] 11Israel[i] said to Joseph, "I never expected to see your face again,[j] and now God has allowed me to see your children too."[k] 12Then Joseph removed them from Israel's knees[l] and bowed down with his face to the ground.[m] 13And Joseph took both of them, Ephraim on his right toward Israel's left hand and Manasseh on his left toward Israel's right hand,[n] and brought them close to him.
14But Israel[o] reached out his right hand and put it on Ephraim's head,[p] though he was the younger,[q] and crossing his arms, he put his left hand on Manasseh's head, even though Manasseh was the firstborn.[r] 15Then he blessed[s] Joseph and said,

"May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,[t] the God who has been my shepherd[u]
all my life to this day, 16the Angel[v] who has delivered me from all harm[w]
—may he bless[x] these boys.[y] May they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac,[z] and may they increase greatly upon the earth."[a]

17When Joseph saw his father placing his right hand[b] on Ephraim's head[c] he was displeased; so he took hold of his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.
18Joseph said to him, "No, my father, this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head."[d] 19But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He too will become a people, and he too will become great.[e] Nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he,[f] and his descendants will become a group of nations.[g]" 20He blessed[h] them that day[i] and said, "In your[j] name will Israel[j] pronounce this blessing:[k] 'May God make you like Ephraim[l] and Manasseh.[m]' "

So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.
21Then Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die, but God will be with you[k][n] and take you[k] back to the land of your[k] fathers.[o] 22And to you, as one who is over your brothers,[p] I give the ridge of land[l][q] I took from the Amorites with my sword[r] and my bow."

Jacob Blesses His Sons

49 Then Jacob called for his sons and said: "Gather around so I can tell you what will happen to you in days to come.[s]

Jacob;
listen to your father Israel.[u]

3"Reuben, you are my firstborn,[v] their swords[m] are weapons of violence.[c] 6Let me not enter their council, let me not join their assembly,[d] for they have killed men in their anger[e]

pleased.
7Cursed be their anger, so fierce, and their fury,[g] so cruel![h] I will scatter them in Jacob and disperse them in Israel.[i] 8"Judah,[n][j] your brothers will praise

you;
your hand will be on the neck[k] of your enemies;

33When Jacob had finished giving instructions to his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.[e]

50 Joseph threw himself upon his father and wept over him and kissed him.[f] 2Then Joseph directed the physicians in his service to embalm his father Israel. So the physicians embalmed him,[g] 3taking a full forty days, for that was the time required for embalming. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.[h] 4When the days of mourning[i] had passed, Joseph said to Pharaoh's court,[j] "If I have found favor in your eyes,[k] speak to Pharaoh for me. Tell him, 5'My father made me swear an oath[l] and said, "I am about to die;[m] bury me in the tomb I dug for myself[n] in the land of Canaan."[o] Now let me go up and bury my father;[p] then I will return.' " 6Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do." 7So Joseph went up to bury his father. All Pharaoh's officials[q] accompanied him—the dignitaries of his court[r] and all the dignitaries of Egypt— 8besides all the members of Joseph's household and his brothers and those belonging to his father's household.[s] Only their children and their flocks and herds were left in Goshen.[t] 9Chariots[u] and horsemen[b] also went up with him. It was a very large company.
10When they reached the threshing floor[v] of Atad, near the Jordan, they lamented loudly and bitterly;[w] and there Joseph observed a seven-day period[x] of mourning[y] for his father.[z] 11When the Canaanites[a] who lived there saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "The Egyptians are holding a solemn ceremony of mourning."[b] That is why that place near the Jordan is called Abel Mizraim.[c] 12So Jacob's sons did as he had commanded them:[c] 13They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah,[d] near Mamre,[e] which Abraham had bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite,[f] along with the field.[g] 14After burying his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, together with his brothers and all the others who had gone with him to bury his father.[h]

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

15When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph holds a grudge[i] against us and pays us back for all the wrongs we did to him?"[j] 16So they sent word to Joseph, saying, "Your father left these instructions[k] before he died: 17'This is what you are to say to Joseph: I ask you to forgive your brothers the sins[l] and the wrongs they committed in treating you so badly.'[m] Now please forgive the sins of the servants of the God of your father.[n]" When their message came to him, Joseph wept.[o] 18His brothers then came and threw themselves down before him.[p] "We are your slaves,"[q] they said.
19But Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid. Am I in the place of God?[r] 20You intended to harm me,[s] but God intended[t] it for good[u] to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.[v] 21So then, don't be afraid.
I will provide for you and your children.[w]" And he reassured them and spoke kindly[x] to them.

The Death of Joseph

22Joseph stayed in Egypt, along with all his father's family. He lived a hundred and ten years[y] 23and saw the third generation[z] of Ephraim's[a] children.[b] Also the children of Makir[c] son of Manasseh[d] were placed at birth on Joseph's knees.[d][e] 24Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die.[f] But God will surely come to your aid[g] and take you up out of this land to the land[h] he promised on oath to Abraham,[i] Isaac[j] and Jacob."[k] 25And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath[l] and said, "God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones[m] up from this place."[n] 26So Joseph died[o] at the age of a hundred and ten.[p] And after they embalmed him,[q] he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

The Israelites Oppressed

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel[a] who went to Egypt with Jacob, each with his family: 2Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah; 3Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin; 4Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.[b] 5The descendants of Jacob numbered seventy[a] in all;[c] Joseph was already in Egypt.

6Now Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died,[d] 7but the Israelites were fruitful and multiplied greatly and became exceedingly numerous,[e] so that the land was filled with them.

8Then a new king, who did not know about Joseph, came to power in Egypt.[f] 9"Look," he said to his people, "the Israelites have become much too numerous[g] for us.[h] 10Come, we must deal shrewdly[i] with them or they will become even more numerous and, if war breaks out, will join our enemies, fight against us and leave the country."[j]

11So they put slave masters[k] over them to oppress them with forced labor,[l] and they built Pithom and Rameses[m] as store cities[n] for Pharaoh. 12But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites 13and worked them ruthlessly.[o] 14They made their lives bitter with hard labor[p] in brick[q] and mortar and with all kinds of work in the fields; in all their hard labor the Egyptians used them ruthlessly.[r]

15The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives,[s] whose names were Shiphrah and Puah, 16"When you help the Hebrew women in childbirth and observe them on the delivery stool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, let her live."[t] 17The midwives, however, feared[u] God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them to do;[v] they let the boys live. 18Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, "Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?"

19The midwives answered Pharaoh, "Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives arrive."[w]

20So God was kind to the midwives[x] and the people increased and became even more numerous. 21And because the midwives feared[y] God, he gave them families[z] of their own.

22Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: "Every boy that is born[b] you must throw into the Nile,[a] but let every girl live."[b]

The Birth of Moses

2 Now a man of the house of Levi[c] married a Levite woman,[d] 2and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine[e] child, she hid him for three months.[f] 3But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus[g] basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch.[h] Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds[i] along the bank of the Nile. 4His sister[j] stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

5Then Pharaoh's daughter went down to the Nile to bathe, and her attendants were walking along the river bank.[k] She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her slave girl to get it. 6She opened it and saw the baby. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. "This is one of the Hebrew babies," she said.

7Then his sister asked Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?"

8"Yes, go," she answered. And the girl went and got the baby's mother.

9Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So the woman took the baby and nursed him. 10When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. She named[a] him Moses,[c] saying, "I drew[b] him out of the water."

Moses Flees to Midian

11One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to where his own people[c] were and watched them at their hard labor.[d] He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people. 12Glancing this way and that and seeing no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. 13The next day he went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He asked the one in the wrong, "Why are you hitting your fellow Hebrew?"[e]

14The man said, "Who made you ruler and judge over us?[f] Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid and thought, "What I did must have become known."

15When Pharaoh heard of this, he tried to kill[g] Moses, but Moses fled[h] from Pharaoh and went to live in Midi-an,[i] where he sat down by a well.
16Now a priest of Midian[j] had seven daughters, and they came to draw water[k] and fill the troughs[l] to water their father's flock. 17Some shepherds came along and drove them away, but Moses got up and came to their rescue[m] and watered their flock.[n]

18When the girls returned to Reuel[o] their father, he asked them, "Why have you returned so early today?"

19They answered, "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds. He even drew water for us and watered the flock."

20"And where is he?" he asked his daughters. "Why did you leave him?
Invite him to have something to eat."[p]

21Moses agreed to stay with the man, who gave his daughter Zipporah[q] to Moses in marriage. 22Zipporah gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom,[d][r] saying, "I have become an alien[s] in a foreign land."

23During that long period,[t] the king of Egypt died.[u] The Israelites groaned in their slavery[v] and cried out, and their cry[w] for help because of their slavery went up to God. 24God heard their groaning and he remembered[x] his covenant[y] with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob. 25So God looked on the Israelites and was concerned[z] about them.

Moses and the Burning Bush

3 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro[a] his father-in-law, the priest of Midian,[b] and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to Horeb,[c] the mountain[d] of God. 2There the angel of the LORD[e] appeared to him in flames of fire[f] from within a bush.[g] Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. 3So Moses thought, "I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up."

4When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called[h] to him from within the bush,[i] "Moses!
Moses!"

And Moses said, "Here I am."[j]

5"Do not come any closer,"[k] God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground."[l] 6Then he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob."[m] At this, Moses hid[n] his face, because he was afraid to look at God.[o] 7The LORD said, "I have indeed seen[p] the misery[q] of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned[r] about their suffering.[s] 8So I have come down[t] to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land,[u] a land flowing with milk and honey[v]—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Per-izzites, Hivites[w] and Jebusites.[x] 9And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing[y] them.

10So now, go. I am sending[z] you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt."[a] 11But Moses said to God, "Who am I,[b] that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

12And God said, "I will be with you.[c] And this will be the sign[d] to you 13Moses said to God, "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to name?'[b] Then what shall I tell them?" 14God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM.[f] This is what you are to say to the Israelites: 'I AM[c] has sent me to you.' " 15God also said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'The LORD,[g] the God of your

God of Isaac and the God of Signs for Moses

4 Moses answered, "What if they do not believe me or listen[b] to me and say, 'The LORD did not appear to you'?" 2Then the LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?"

"A staff,"[c] he replied.
3The LORD said, "Throw it on the ground."
Moses threw it on the ground and it became a snake,[d] and he ran from it.
4Then the LORD said to him, "Reach out your hand and take it by the tail." So Moses reached out and took hold of the snake and it turned back into a staff in his hand. 5"This," said the LORD, "is so that they may believe[e] that the LORD, the God of their fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob—has appeared to you." 6Then the LORD said, "Put your hand inside your cloak." So Moses put his hand into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was leprous,[h] like snow.[f] 7"Now put it back into your cloak," he said. So Moses put his hand back into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored,[g] like the rest of his flesh.
8Then the LORD said, "If they do not believe[h] you or pay attention to the first miraculous sign,[i] they may believe the second. 9But if they do not believe these two signs or listen to you, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the river will become blood[j] on the ground." 10Moses said to the LORD, "O Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant. I am slow of speech and tongue."[k] 11The LORD said to him, "Who gave man his mouth? Who makes him deaf or mute?[l] Who gives him sight or makes him blind?[m] Is it not I, the LORD?
12Now go;[n] I will help you speak and will teach you what to say."[o] 13But Moses said, "O Lord, please send someone else to do it."[p] 14Then the LORD's anger burned[q] against Moses and he said, "What know he can speak well. He is already

[e]12 The Hebrew is plural. [f]14 Or I WILL BE WHAT I WILL BE [h]6 The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin—not necessarily leprosy.

will be glad when he sees you. 15You shall speak to him and put words in his mouth;[a] I will help both of you speak and will teach you what to do. 16He will speak to the people for you, and it will be as if he were your mouth[b] and as if you were God to him.[c] 17But take this staff[d] in your hand[e] so you can perform miraculous signs[f] with it."

Moses Returns to Egypt

18Then Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, "Let me go back to my own people in Egypt to see if any of them are still alive." Jethro said, "Go, and I wish you well."
19Now the LORD had said to Moses in Midian, "Go back to Egypt, for all the men who wanted to kill[g] you are dead.[h]" 20So Moses took his wife and sons,[i] put them on a donkey and started back to Egypt. And he took the staff[j] of God in his hand.
21The LORD said to Moses, "When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders[k] I have given you the power to do. But I will harden his heart[l] so that he will not let the people go.[m] 22Then say to Pharaoh, 'This is what the LORD says: Israel is my firstborn son,[n] 23and I told you, "Let my son go,[o] so he may worship[p] me." But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your firstborn son.' "[q] 24At a lodging place on the way, the LORD met ˻Moses˼[i] and was about to kill[r] him. 25But Zipporah[s] took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin[t] and touched ˻Moses'˼ feet with it.[j] "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me," she said. 26So the LORD let him alone.
(At that time she said "bridegroom of blood," referring to circumcision.) 27The LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the desert to meet Moses." So he met Moses at the mountain[u] of God and kissed[v] him. 28Then Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say,[w] and also about all the miraculous signs he had commanded him to perform.
29Moses and Aaron brought together all the elders[x] of the Israelites, 30and Aaron told them everything the LORD had said to Moses. He also performed the signs[y] before the people, 31and they believed.[z] And when they heard that the LORD was concerned[a] about them and had seen their misery,[b] they bowed down and worshiped.[c]

Bricks Without Straw

5 Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Let my people go,[d] so that they may hold a festival[e] to me in the desert.' " 2Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD,[f] that I should obey him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD and I will not let Israel go."[g] 3Then they said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us take a three-day journey[h] into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, or he may strike us with plagues[i] or with the sword." 4But the king of Egypt said, "Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their labor?[j] Get back to your work!" 5Then Pharaoh said, "Look, the people of the land are now numerous,[k] and you are stopping them from working." 6That same day Pharaoh gave this order to the slave drivers[l] and foremen in charge of the people: 7"You are no longer to supply the people with straw for making bricks;[m] let them go and gather their own straw. 8But require them to make the same number of bricks as before; don't reduce the quota.[n] They are lazy;[o] that is why they are crying out, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'[p] 9Make the work harder for the men so that they keep working and pay no attention to lies." 10Then the slave drivers[q] and the foremen went out and said to the people, "This is what Pharaoh says: 'I will not give you any more straw. 11Go and get your own straw wherever you can find it, but your work will not be reduced[r] at all.' " 12So the people scattered all over Egypt to gather stubble to use for straw. 13The slave drivers kept pressing them, saying, "Complete the work required of you for each day, just as when you had straw." 14The Israelite foremen appointed by Pharaoh's slave drivers were beaten[s] and were asked, "Why didn't you meet your quota of bricks yesterday or today, as before?" 15Then the Israelite foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh: "Why have you treated your servants this way?
16Your servants are given no straw, yet we are told, 'Make bricks!' Your servants are being beaten, but the fault is with your own people."

saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.' 18Now get to work.[b] You will not be given any straw, yet you must produce your full quota of bricks." 19The Israelite foremen realized they were in trouble when they were told, "You are not to reduce the number of bricks required of you for each day." 20When they left Pharaoh, they found Moses and Aaron waiting to meet them, 21and they said, "May the LORD look upon you and judge[c] you! You have made us a stench[d] to Pharaoh and his officials and have put a sword[e] in their hand to kill us."[f]

God Promises Deliverance

22Moses returned to the LORD and said, "O Lord, why have you brought trouble upon this people?[g] Is this why you sent me? 23Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble upon this people, and you have not rescued[h] your people at all."

6 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of my mighty hand[i] he will let them go;[j] because of my mighty hand he will drive them out of his country."[k] 2God also said to Moses, "I am the LORD.[l] 3I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty,[k][m] but by my name[n] the LORD[l][o] I did not make myself known to them.[m] 4I also established my covenant[p] with them to give them the land[q] of Canaan, where they lived as aliens.[r] 5Moreover, I have heard the groaning[s] of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.[t] 6"Therefore, say to the Israelites: 'I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.[u] I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem[v] you with an outstretched arm[w] and with mighty acts of judgment.[x] 7I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God.[y] Then you will know[z] that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. 8And I will bring you to the land[a] I swore[b] with uplifted hand[c] to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob.[d] I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD.' "[e] 9Moses reported this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and cruel bondage.[f]
10Then the LORD said to Moses, 11"Go, tell[g] Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his country."[h] 12But Moses said to the LORD, "If the Israelites will not listen[i] to me, why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I speak with faltering lips[n]?"[j]

Family Record of Moses and Aaron 13Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron about the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he commanded them to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.[k] 14These were the heads of their families[o]:[l]

The sons of Reuben[m] the first-were the clans of Reuben.

and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.
16These were the names of the sons of Levi[o] according to their records: Gershon,[p] Kohath and Merari.[q] Levi lived 137 years.
17The sons of Gershon, by clans, were Libni and Shimei.[r] 18The sons of Kohath[s] were Am-ram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.[t] Kohath lived 133 years.
19The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi.[u] These were the clans of Levi according to their records.
20Amram[v] married his father's sister Jochebed, who bore him Aaron and Moses.[w] Amram lived 137 years.
21The sons of Izhar[x] were Korah, Nepheg and Zicri.
22The sons of Uzziel were Misha-

Ithamar.[d] 24The sons of Korah[e] were Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These were the Korahite clans.
25Eleazar son of Aaron married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas.[f]

These were the heads of the Levite families, clan by clan.

26It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring the Israelites out of Egypt[g] by their divisions."[h] 27They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh[i] king of Egypt about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt. It was the same Moses and Aaron.[j]

Aaron to Speak for Moses

28Now when the LORD spoke to Moses in Egypt, 29he said to him, "I am the LORD.[k] Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I tell you." 30But Moses said to the LORD, "Since I speak with faltering lips,[l] why would Pharaoh listen to me?"

7 Then the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you like God[m] to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.[n] 2You are to say everything I command you, and your brother Aaron is to tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his country. 3But I will harden Pharaoh's heart,[o] and though I multiply my miraculous signs and wonders[p] in Egypt, 4he will not listen[q] to you. Then I will lay my hand on Egypt and with mighty acts of judgment[r] I will bring out my divisions,[s] my people the Israelites. 5And the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD[t] when I stretch out my hand[u] against Egypt and bring the Israelites out of it."
6Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD commanded[v] them. 7Moses was eighty years old[w] and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron's Staff Becomes a Snake

8The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 9"When Pharaoh says to you, 'Perform a miracle,[x]' then say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh,' and it will become a snake."[y]
10So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as the LORD commanded. Aaron threw his staff down in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a snake. 11Pharaoh then summoned wise men and sorcerers,[z] and the Egyptian magicians[a] also did the same things by their secret arts:[b] 12Each one threw down his staff and it became a snake. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs. 13Yet Pharaoh's heart[c] became hard and he would not listen[d] to them, just as the LORD had said.

The Plague of Blood

14Then the LORD said to Moses,
"Pharaoh's heart is unyielding;[e] he refuses to let the people go. 15Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he goes out to the water.[f] Wait on the bank of the Nile[g] to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was changed into a snake. 16Then say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to say to you: Let my people go, so that they may worship[h] me in the desert.
But until now you have not listened.[i] 17This is what the LORD says: By this you will know that I am the LORD:[j] With the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water of the Nile, and it will be changed into blood.[k] 18The fish in the Nile will die, and the river will stink;[l] the Egyptians will not be able to drink its water.'"[m] 19The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your staff[n] and stretch out your hand[o] over the waters of Egypt—over the streams and canals, over the ponds and all the reservoirs'—and they will turn to blood.
Blood will be everywhere in Egypt, even in the wooden buckets and stone jars."
20Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded.[p] He raised his staff in the presence of Pharaoh and his officials and struck the water of the Nile,[q] and all the water was changed into blood.[r] 21The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled so bad that the Egyptians could not drink its water.
Blood was everywhere in Egypt.
22But the Egyptian magicians[s] did the same things by their secret arts,[t] and Pharaoh's heart[u] became hard; he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said. 23Instead, he turned and went into his palace, and did not take even this to heart. 24And all the Egyptians dug along the Nile to get drinking water[v], because they could not drink the water of the river.

The Plague of Frogs

25Seven days passed after the LORD struck the Nile. 8 1Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship[a] me. 2If you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs.[b] 3The Nile will teem with frogs. They will come up into your palace and your bedroom and onto your bed, into the houses of your officials and on your people,[c] and into your ovens and kneading troughs.[d] 4The frogs will go up on you and your people and all your officials.' "

5Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your staff[e] over the streams and canals and ponds, and make frogs[f] come up on the land of Egypt.' "

6So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs[g] came up and covered the land. 7But the magicians did the same things by their secret arts;[h] they also made frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

8Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray[i] to the LORD to take the frogs away from me and my people, and I will let your people go to offer sacrifices[j] to the LORD."

9Moses said to Pharaoh, "I leave to you the honor of setting the time[k] for me to pray for you and your officials and your people that you and your houses may be rid of the frogs, except for those that remain in the Nile."

10"Tomorrow," Pharaoh said.

Moses replied, "It will be as you say, so that you may know there is no one like the LORD our God.[l] 11The frogs will leave you and your houses, your officials and your people; they will remain only in the Nile."

12After Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh, Moses cried out to the LORD about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh. 13And the LORD did what Moses asked.[m] The frogs died in the houses, in the courtyards and in the fields. 14They were piled into heaps, and the land reeked of them. 15But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief,[n] he hardened his heart[o] and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.

The Plague of Gnats

16Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff[p] and strike the dust of the ground,' and throughout the land of Egypt the dust will become gnats." 17They did this, and when Aaron stretched out his hand with the staff and struck the dust of the ground, gnats[q] came upon men and animals. All the dust throughout the land of Egypt became gnats. 18But when the magicians[r] tried to produce gnats by their secret arts,[s] they could not. And the gnats were on men and animals.

19The magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger[t] of God." But Pharaoh's heart[u] was hard and he would not listen,[v] just as the LORD had said.

The Plague of Flies

20Then the LORD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning[w] and confront Pharaoh as he goes to the water and say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship[x] me. 21If you do not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you and your officials, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies, and even the ground where they are.

22" 'But on that day I will deal differently with the land of Goshen,[y] where my people live;[z] no swarms of flies will be there, so that you will know[a] that I, the LORD, am in this land. 23I will make a distinction[p] between my people and your people.[b] This miraculous sign will occur tomorrow.' "

24And the LORD did this. Dense swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials, and throughout Egypt the land was ruined by the flies.[c]

25Then Pharaoh summoned[d] Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God here in the land."

26But Moses said, "That would not be right. The sacrifices we offer the LORD our God would be detestable to the Egyptians.[e] And if we offer sacrifices that are detestable in their eyes, will they not stone us? 27We must take a three-day journey[f] into the desert to offer sacrifices[g] to the LORD our God, as he commands us."

28Pharaoh said, "I will let you go to offer sacrifices to the LORD your God in the desert, but you must not go very far. Now pray[h] for me."

29Moses answered, "As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD, and tomorrow the flies will leave Pharaoh and his officials and his people. Only be sure that Pharaoh does not act de-ceitfully[a] again by not letting the people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD." 30Then Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD,[b] 31and the LORD did what Moses asked: The flies left Pharaoh and his officials and his people; not a fly remained. 32But this time also Pharaoh hardened his heart[c] and would not let the people go.

The Plague on Livestock

9 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, so that they may worship[d] me." 2If you refuse to let them go and continue to hold them back, 3the hand[e] of the LORD will bring a terrible plague[f] on your livestock in the field—on your horses and donkeys and camels and on your cattle and sheep and goats. 4But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and that of Egypt,[g] so that no animal belonging to the Israelites will die.' " 5The LORD set a time and said, "Tomorrow the LORD will do this in the land." 6And the next day the LORD did it: All the livestock[h] of the Egyptians died,[i] but not one animal belonging to the Israelites died. 7Pharaoh sent men to investigate and found that not even one of the animals of the Israelites had died. Yet his heart[j] was unyielding and he would not let the people go.[k]

The Plague of Boils

8Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Take handfuls of soot from a furnace and have Moses toss it into the air in the presence of Pharaoh. 9It will become fine dust over the whole land of Egypt, and festering boils[l] will break out on men and animals throughout the land." 10So they took soot from a furnace and stood before Pharaoh. Moses tossed it into the air, and festering boils broke out on men and animals. 11The magicians[m] could not stand before Moses because of the boils that were on them and on all the Egyptians. 12But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart[n] and he would not listen[o] to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said to Moses.

The Plague of Hail

13Then the LORD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning, confront Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so that they may worship[p] me, 14or this time I will send the full force of my plagues against you and against your officials and your people, so you may know[q] that there is no one like[r] me in all the earth. 15For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people[s] with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth. 16But I have raised you up[a] for this very purpose,[t] that I might show you my power[u] and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth. 17You still set yourself against my people and will not let them go. 18Therefore, at this time tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm[v] that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded till now.[w] 19Give an order now to bring your livestock and everything you have in the field to a place of shelter, because the hail will fall on every man and animal that has not been brought in and is still out in the field, and they will die.' " 20Those officials of Pharaoh who feared[x] the word of the LORD hurried to bring their slaves and their livestock inside. 21But those who ignored[y] the word of the LORD left their slaves and livestock in the field.
22Then the LORD said to Moses,
"Stretch out your hand toward the sky so that hail will fall all over Egypt—on men and animals and on everything growing in the fields of Egypt." 23When Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, the LORD sent thunder[z] and hail,[a] and lightning flashed down to the ground. So the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt; 24hail fell and lightning flashed back and forth. It was the worst storm in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.[b] 25Throughout Egypt hail struck everything in the fields—both men and animals; it beat down everything growing in the fields and stripped every tree.[c] 26The only place it did not hail was the land of Goshen,[d] where the Israelites were.[e] 27Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. "This time I have sinned,"[a] he said to them. "The LORD is in the right,[b] and I and my people are in the wrong. 28Pray[c] to the LORD, for we have had enough thunder and hail. I will let you go;[d] you don't have to stay any longer." 29Moses replied, "When I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands[e] in prayer to the LORD. The thunder will stop and there will be no more hail, so you may know that the earth[f] is the LORD's. 30But I know that you and your officials still do not fear[g] the LORD God." 31(The flax and barley[h] were destroyed, since the barley had headed and the flax was in bloom. 32The wheat and spelt,[i] however, were not destroyed, because they ripen later.) 33Then Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. He spread out his hands toward the LORD; the thunder and hail stopped, and the rain no longer poured down on the land. 34When Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder had stopped, he sinned again: He and his officials hardened their hearts. 35So Pharaoh's heart[j] was hard and he would not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had said through Moses.

The Plague of Locusts

10 Then the LORD said to Moses,
"Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart[k] and the hearts of his officials so that I may perform these miraculous signs[l] of mine among them 2that you may tell your children[m] and grandchildren how I dealt harshly[n] with the Egyptians and how I performed my signs among them, and that you may know that I am the LORD."[o] 3So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, "This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says:
'How long will you refuse to humble[p] yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may worship me. 4If you refuse[q] to let them go, I will bring locusts[r] into your country tomorrow.
5They will cover the face of the ground so that it cannot be seen. They will devour what little you have left[s] after the hail, including every tree that is growing in your fields.[t] 6They will fill your houses[u] and those of all your officials and all the Egyptians—something neither your fathers nor your forefathers have ever seen from the day they settled in this land till now.' "[v] Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.
7Pharaoh's officials said to him, "How long will this man be a snare[w] to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship the LORD their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt is ruined?"[x] 8Then Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. "Go, worship[y] the LORD your God," he said.
"But just who will be going?" 9Moses answered, "We will go with our young and old, with our sons and daughters, and with our flocks and herds, because we are to celebrate a festival[z] to the LORD." 10Pharaoh said, "The LORD be with you—if I let you go, along with your women and children! Clearly you are bent on evil.[r] 11No! Have only the men go; and worship the LORD, since that's what you have been asking for." Then Moses and Aaron were driven out of Pharaoh's presence.
12And the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand[a] over Egypt so that locusts will swarm over the land and devour everything growing in the fields, everything left by the hail." 13So Moses stretched out his staff[b] over Egypt, and the LORD made an east wind blow across the land all that day and all that night. By morning the wind had brought the locusts;[c] 14they invaded all Egypt and settled down in every area of the country in great numbers. Never before had there been such a plague of locusts,[d] nor will there ever be again. 15They covered all the ground until it was black. They devoured[e] all that was left after the hail—everything growing in the fields and the fruit on the trees. Nothing green remained on tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.
16Pharaoh quickly summoned[f] Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned[g] against the LORD your God and against you. 17Now forgive[h] my sin once more and pray[i] to the LORD your God to take this deadly plague away from me."
18Moses then left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.[j] 19And the LORD changed the wind to a very strong west wind, which caught up the locusts and carried them into the Red Sea.[s] Not a locust was left anywhere in Egypt.
20But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart,[k] and he would not let the Israelites go.

The Plague of Darkness

21 Then the LORD said to Moses,
"Stretch out your hand toward the sky so that darkness[a] will spread over Egypt—darkness that can be felt." 22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and total darkness[b] covered all Egypt for three days. 23 No one could see anyone else or leave his place for three days. Yet all the Israelites had light in the places where they lived.[c] 24 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "Go,[d] worship the LORD.
Even your women and children[e] may go with you; only leave your flocks and herds behind."[f] 25 But Moses said, "You must allow us to have sacrifices and burnt offerings[g] to present to the LORD our God.
26 Our livestock too must go with us; not a hoof is to be left behind. We have to use some of them in worshiping the LORD our God, and until we get there we will not know what we are to use to worship the LORD."
27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart,[h] and he was not willing to let them go. 28 Pharaoh said to Moses, "Get out of my sight! Make sure you do not appear before me again! The day you see my face you will die." 29 "Just as you say," Moses replied, "I will never appear[i] before you again."

The Plague on the Firstborn

11 Now the LORD had said to Moses, "I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you go[j] from here, and when he does, he will drive you out completely.[k] 2 Tell the people that men and women alike are to ask their neighbors for articles of silver and gold."[l] 3 (The LORD made the Egyptians favorably disposed[m] toward the people, and Moses himself was highly regarded[n] in Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and by the people.) 4 So Moses said, "This is what the LORD says: 'About midnight[o] I will go throughout Egypt.[p] 5 Every firstborn[q] son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, who sits on the throne, to the firstborn son of the slave girl, who is at her hand mill,[r] and all the firstborn of the cattle as well. 6 There will be loud wailing[s] throughout Egypt—worse than there has ever been or ever will be again. 7 But among the Israelites not a dog will bark at any man or animal.' Then you will know that the LORD makes a distinction[t] between Egypt and Israel. 8 All these officials of yours will come to me, bowing down before me and saying, 'Go,[u] you and all the people who follow you!' After that I will leave."[v] Then Moses, hot with anger, left Pharaoh.
9 The LORD had said to Moses, "Pharaoh will refuse to listen[w] to you—so that my wonders[x] may be multiplied in Egypt." 10 Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart,[y] and he would not let the Israelites go out of his country.

The Passover

12:14-20pp — Lev 23:4-8; Nu 28:16-25; Dt 16:1-8

12 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 "This month is to be for you the first month,[z] the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[t3][a] for his family, one for each household.[b] 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect,[c] and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month,[d] when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight.[e] 7 Then they are to take some of the blood[f] and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs. 8 That same night[g] they are to eat the meat roasted[h] over the fire, along with bitter herbs,[i] and bread made without yeast.[j] 9 Do not eat the meat raw or cooked in water, but roast it over the fire—head, legs and inner parts.[k] 10 Do not leave any of it till morning;[l] if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste;[m] it is the LORD's Passover.[n] 12 "On that same night I will pass through[o] Egypt and strike down[p] every firstborn[a]—both men and animals—and I will bring judgment on all the gods[b] of Egypt. I am the LORD.[c] 13The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over[d] you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.[e] 14"This is a day you are to commemorate;[f] for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.[g] 15For seven days you are to eat bread made without yeast.[h] On the first day remove the yeast from your houses, for whoever eats anything with yeast in it from the first day through the seventh must be cut off[i] from Israel. 16On the first day hold a sacred assembly, and another one on the seventh day. Do no work[j] at all on these days, except to prepare food for everyone to eat—that is all you may do.

17"Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread,[k] because it was on this very day that I brought your divisions out of Egypt.[l] Celebrate this day as a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.[m] 18In the first month[n] you are to eat bread made without yeast, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day. 19For seven days no yeast is to be found in your houses. And whoever eats anything with yeast in it must be cut off[o] from the community of Israel, whether he is an alien[p] or native-born. 20Eat nothing made with yeast. Wherever you live,[q] you must eat unleavened bread."[r] 21Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go at once and select the animals for your families and slaughter the Passover[s] lamb. 22Take a bunch of hyssop,[t] dip it into the blood in the basin and put some of the blood[u] on the top and on both sides of the doorframe. Not one of you shall go out the door of his house until morning. 23When the LORD goes through the land to strike[v] down the Egyptians, he will see the blood[w] on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over[x] that doorway, and he will not permit the destroyer[y] to enter your houses and strike you down.
24"Obey these instructions as a lasting ordinance[z] for you and your descendants. 25When you enter the land[a] that the LORD will give you as he promised, observe this ceremony. 26And when your children[b] ask you, 'What does this ceremony mean to you?' 27then tell them, 'It is the Passover[c] sacrifice to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt and spared our homes when he struck down the Egyptians.'"[d] Then the people bowed down and worshiped.[e] 28The Israelites did just what the LORD commanded[f] Moses and Aaron.
29At midnight[g] the LORD[h] struck down all the firstborn[i] in Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on the throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner, who was in the dungeon, and the firstborn of all the livestock[j] as well.
30Pharaoh and all his officials and all the Egyptians got up during the night, and there was loud wailing[k] in Egypt, for there was not a house without someone dead.

The Exodus

31During the night Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Up! Leave my people, you and the Israelites! Go, worship[l] the LORD as you have requested. 32Take your flocks and herds,[m] as you have said, and go. And also bless[n] me." 33The Egyptians urged the people to hurry[o] and leave[p] the country. "For otherwise," they said, "we will all die!"[q] 34So the people took their dough before the yeast was added, and carried it on their shoulders in kneading troughs[r] wrapped in clothing. 35The Israelites did as Moses instructed and asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold[s] and for clothing.[t] 36The LORD had made the Egyptians favorably disposed[u] toward the people, and they gave them what they asked for; so they plundered[v] the Egyptians.
37The Israelites journeyed from Rameses[w] to Succoth.[x] There were about six hundred thousand men[y] on foot, besides women and children. 38Many other people[z] went up with them, as well as large droves of livestock, both flocks and herds. 39With the dough they had brought from Egypt, they baked cakes of unleavened bread. The dough was without yeast because they had been driven out[a] of Egypt and did not have time to prepare food for themselves.
40Now the length of time the Israelite people lived in Egypt[u] was 430 years.[b]

[41]At the end of the 430 years, to the very day, all the LORD's divisions[a] left Egypt.[b] [42]Because the LORD kept vigil that night to bring them out of Egypt, on this night all the Israelites are to keep vigil to honor the LORD for the Passover Restrictions

[43]The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "These are the regulations for the Passover:[d]
"No foreigner[e] is to eat of it. [44]Any slave you have bought may eat of it after you have circumcised[f] him, [45]but a temporary resident and a hired worker[g] may not eat of it.
[46]"It must be eaten inside one house; take none of the meat outside the house. Do not break any of the bones.[h] [47]The whole community of Israel must celebrate it.
[48]"An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD's Passover must have all the males in his household circumcised; then he may take part like one born in the land.[i] No uncircumcised[j] male may eat of it. [49]The same law applies to the native-born and to the alien[k] living among you." [50]All the Israelites did just what the LORD had commanded[l] Moses and Aaron. [51]And on that very day the LORD brought the Israelites out of Egypt[m] by their divisions.[n]

Consecration of the Firstborn

13 The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Consecrate to me every firstborn male.[o] The first offspring of every womb among the Israelites belongs to me, whether man or animal." [3]Then Moses said to the people, "Commemorate this day, the day you came out of Egypt,[p] out of the land of slavery, because the LORD brought you out of it with a mighty hand.[q] Eat nothing containing yeast.[r] [4]Today, in the month of Abib,[s] you are leaving.
[5]When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites,[t] Hittites, Amorites, Hivites and Jebusites[u]—the land he swore to your forefathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey[v]—you are to observe this ceremony[w] in this month: [6]For seven days eat bread made without yeast and on the seventh day hold a festival[x] to the LORD. [7]Eat unleavened bread during those seven days; nothing with yeast in it is to be seen among you, nor shall any yeast be seen anywhere within your borders. [8]On that day tell your son,[y] 'I do this because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.' [9]This observance will be for you like a sign on your hand[z] and a reminder on your forehead[a] that the law of the LORD is to be on your lips. For the LORD brought you out of Egypt with his mighty hand.[b] [10]You must keep this ordinance[c] at the appointed time[d] year after year.
[11]"After the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites[e] and gives it to you, as he promised on oath[f] to you and your forefathers,[g] [12]you are to give over to the LORD the first offspring of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to the LORD.[h] [13]Redeem with a lamb every firstborn donkey,[i] but if you do not redeem it, break its neck.[j] Redeem[k] every first-born among your sons.[l] [14]"In days to come, when your son[m] asks you, 'What does this mean?' say to him, 'With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.[n] [15]When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed every firstborn in Egypt, both man and animal. This is why I sacrifice to the LORD the first male offspring of every womb and redeem each of my firstborn sons.'[o] [16]And it will be like a sign on your hand and a symbol on your forehead[p] that the LORD brought us out of Egypt with his mighty hand."

Crossing the Sea

[17]When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them on the road through the Philistine country, though that was shorter. For God said, "If they face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt."[q] [18]So God led[r] the people around by the desert road toward the Red Sea.[v] The Israelites went up out of Egypt armed for battle.[s] [19]Moses took the bones of Joseph[t] with him because Joseph had made the sons of Israel swear an oath. He had said, "God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up with you from this place."[w][u] camped at Etham on the edge of the desert.[w] [21]By day the LORD went ahead[a] of them in a pillar of cloud[b] to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night.

22Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left[c] its place in front of the people.

14 Then the LORD said to Moses, 2"Tell the Israelites to turn back and encamp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol[d] and the sea. They are to encamp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon.[e] 3Pharaoh will think, 'The Israelites are wandering around the land in confusion, hemmed in by the desert.' 4And I will harden Pharaoh's heart,[f] and he will pursue them.[g] But I will gain glory[h] for myself through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD."[i] So the Israelites did this.

5When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled,[j] Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds[k] about them and said, "What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and have lost their services!" 6So he had his chariot made ready and took his army with him. 7He took six hundred of the best chariots,[l] along with all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them. 8The LORD hardened the heart[m] of Pharaoh king of Egypt, so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out boldly.[n] 9The Egyptians—all Pharaoh's horses[o] and chariots, horsemen[x] and troops[p]—pursued the Israelites and overtook[q] them as they camped by the sea near Pi Hahiroth, opposite Baal Zephon.[r] 10As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up, and there were the Egyptians, marching after them. They were terrified and cried[s] out to the LORD. 11They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us to the desert to die?[t] What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? 12Didn't we say to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians'? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!"[u] 13Moses answered the people, "Do not be afraid.[v] Stand firm and you will see[w] the deliverance the LORD will bring you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see[x] again. 14The LORD will fight[y] for you; you need only to be still."[z]

15Then the LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me?[a] Tell the Israelites to move on. 16Raise your staff[b] and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water[c] so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground. 17I will harden the hearts[d] of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them.[e] And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.
18The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD[f] when I gain glory through Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen."

19Then the angel of God,[g] who had been traveling in front of Israel's army, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud[h] also moved from in front and stood behind[i] them, 20com-ing between the armies of Egypt and Israel. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness[j] to the one side and light to the other side; so neither went near the other all night long.

21Then Moses stretched out his hand[k] over the sea,[l] and all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind[m] and turned it into dry land.[n] The waters were divided,[o] 22and the Israelites went through the sea[p] on dry ground,[q] with a wall[r] of water on their right and on their left.

23The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and horsemen[s] followed them into the sea.
24During the last watch of the night the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud[t] at the Egyptian army and threw it into confusion.[u] 25He made the wheels of their chariots come off[y] so that they had difficulty driving.
And the Egyptians said, "Let's get away from the Israelites! The LORD is fighting[v] for them against Egypt."[w]

26Then the LORD said to Moses,
"Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen." 27Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea went back to its place.[x] The Egyptians were fleeing toward[z] it, and the LORD swept them into the sea.[y] 28The water

30That day the LORD saved[e] Israel from saw the Egyptians lying dead on the

the great power[f] the LORD displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared[g] the LORD and put their trust[h] in him and in Moses his servant.

The Song of Moses and Miriam

15 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song[i] to the LORD:

"I will sing[j] to the LORD, for he is highly exalted.
The horse and its rider[k] he has hurled into the sea.[l] 2The LORD is my strength[m] and my song; he has become my salvation.[n] He is my God,[o] and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt[p] him.
3The LORD is a warrior;[q] the LORD is his name.[r] 4Pharaoh's chariots and his army[s] he has hurled into the sea.
The best of Pharaoh's officers are drowned in the Red Sea.[a] 5The deep waters[t] have covered them; they sank to the depths like a stone.[u] 6"Your right hand,[v] O LORD, was majestic in power.
Your right hand,[w] O LORD, shattered[x] the enemy.
7In the greatness of your majesty[y] you threw down those who opposed you.
You unleashed your burning anger;[z] it consumed[a] them like stubble.
8By the blast of your nostrils[b] the waters piled up.[c] The surging waters stood firm like a wall;[d] the deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea.[e] 9"The enemy boasted,
'I will pursue,[f] I will overtake them.
I will divide the spoils;[g] I will gorge myself on them.
I will draw my sword and my hand will destroy them.' 10But you blew with your breath,[h] and the sea covered them.
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.[i] 11"Who among the gods is like you,[j] O LORD?
Who is like you—majestic in holiness,[k] awesome in glory,[l] working wonders?[m] 12You stretched out[n] your right hand and the earth swallowed them.[o] 13"In your unfailing love you will lead[p] the people you have redeemed.[q] In your strength you will guide them to your holy dwelling.[r] 14The nations will hear and tremble;[s] anguish[t] will grip the people of Philistia.[u] 15The chiefs[v] of Edom[w] will be terrified, the leaders of Moab will be seized with trembling,[x] the people[b] of Canaan will melt[y] away; 16 terror[z] and dread will fall upon them.
By the power of your arm they will be as still as a stone[a]— until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people you bought[c][b] pass by.[c] 17You will bring[d] them in and plant[e] them on the mountain[f] of your inheritance—the place, O LORD, you made for your dwelling,[g] the sanctuary,[h] O Lord, your hands established.
18The LORD will reign for ever and ever."[i]

The Waters of Marah and Elim

22Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea and they went into the Desert[j] of Shur.[k] For three days they traveled in the desert without finding water.[l] 23When they came to Marah, they could not drink its water because it was bitter. (That is why the place is called Marah.[e][m]) 24So the people grumbled[n] against Moses, saying, "What are we to drink?"[o] 25Then Moses cried out[p] to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood. He threw[q] it into the water, and the water became sweet.
There the LORD made a decree and a law for them, and there he tested[r] them. 26He said, "If you listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep[s] all his decrees,[t] I will not bring on you any of the diseases[u] I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the LORD, who heals[v] you." 27Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped[w] there near the water.

Manna and Quail

16 The whole Israelite community set out from Elim and came to the Desert of Sin,[x] which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had come out of Egypt.[y] 2In the desert the whole community grumbled[z] against Moses and Aaron. 3The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the LORD's hand in Egypt![a] There we sat around pots of meat and ate all the food[b] we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death."[c] 4Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will rain down bread from heaven[d] for you.
The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. In this way I will test[e] them and see whether they will follow my instructions. 5On the sixth day they are to prepare what they bring in, and that is to be twice[f] as much as they gather on the other days." 6So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of Egypt,[g] 7and in the morning you will see the glory[h] of the LORD, because he has heard your grumbling[i] against him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?"[j] 8Moses also said, "You will know that it was the LORD when he gives you meat to eat in the evening and all the bread you want in the morning, because he has heard your grumbling[k] against him.
Who are we? You are not grumbling against us, but against the LORD."[l] 9Then Moses told Aaron, "Say to the entire Israelite community, 'Come before the LORD, for he has heard your grumbling.' " 10While Aaron was speaking to the whole Israelite community, they looked toward the desert, and there was the glory[m] of the LORD appearing in the cloud.[n] 11The LORD said to Moses, 12"I have heard the grumbling[o] of the Israelites.
Tell them, 'At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.' "[p] 13That evening quail[q] came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew[r] around the camp. 14When the dew was gone, thin flakes like frost[s] on the ground appeared on the desert floor. 15When the Israelites saw it, they said to each other, "What is it?" For they did not know[t] what it was.
Moses said to them, "It is the bread[u] the LORD has given you to eat. 16This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Each one is to gather as much as he needs.
Take an omer[f][v] for each person you have in your tent.' "

[f]16 That is, probably about 2 quarts (about 2 liters); also in verses 18, 32, 33 and 36

17 The Israelites did as they were told; some gathered much, some little.
18 And when they measured it by the omer, he who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little.[a] Each one gathered as much as he needed.
19 Then Moses said to them, "No one is to keep any of it until morning."[b] 20 However, some of them paid no attention to Moses; they kept part of it until morning, but it was full of maggots and began to smell.[c] So Moses was angry[d] with them.
21 Each morning everyone gathered as much as he needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away. 22 On the sixth day, they gathered twice[e] as much—two omers[g] for each person—and the leaders of the community[f] came and reported this to Moses. 23 He said to them, "This is what the LORD commanded: 'Tomorrow is to be a day of rest, a holy Sabbath[g] to the LORD. So bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left and keep it until morning.' " 24 So they saved it until morning, as Moses commanded, and it did not stink or get maggots in it. 25 "Eat it today," Moses said, "because today is a Sabbath to the LORD. You will not find any of it on the ground today. 26 Six days you are to gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath,[h] there will not be any."
27 Nevertheless, some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather it, but they found none. 28 Then the LORD said to Moses, "How long will you[h] refuse to keep my commands[i] and my instructions? 29 Bear in mind that the LORD has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the sixth day he gives you bread for two days. Everyone is to stay where he is on the seventh day; no one is to go out." 30 So the people rested on the seventh day.
31 The people of Israel called the bread manna.[i][j] It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey. 32 Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Take an omer of manna and keep it for the generations to come, so they can see the bread I gave you to eat in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.' " 33 So Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar and put an omer of manna[k] in it. Then place it before the LORD to be kept for the generations to come." 34 As the LORD commanded Moses, Aaron put the manna in front of the Testimony,[l] that it might be kept.
35 The Israelites ate manna[m] forty years,[n] until they came to a land that was settled; they ate manna until they reached the border of Canaan.[o] 36 (An omer[p] is one tenth of an ephah.)[q]

Water From the Rock

set out from the Desert of Sin,[r] traveling from place to place as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim,[s] but there was no water[t] for the people to drink. 2 So they quarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water[u] to drink."[v] Moses replied, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put the LORD to the test?"[w] 3 But the people were thirsty[x] for water there, and they grumbled[y] against Moses. They said, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to make us and our children and livestock die[z] of thirst?"
4 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What am I to do with these people?
They are almost ready to stone[a] me." 5 The LORD answered Moses, "Walk on ahead of the people. Take with you some of the elders of Israel and take in your hand the staff[b] with which you struck the Nile,[c] and go. 6 I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb.[d] Strike[e] the rock, and water[f] will come out of it for the people to drink." So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel. 7 And he called the place Massah[j][g] and Meribah[k][h] because the Israelites quarreled and because they tested the LORD saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

The Amalekites Defeated

8 The Amalekites[i] came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim.[j] 9 Moses said to Joshua,[k] "Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff[l] of God in my hands."
10 So Joshua fought the Amalekites as Moses had ordered, and Moses, Aaron and Hur[m] went to the top of the hill.
11 As long as Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning,[n] but whenever he lowered his hands, the Amalekites were winning. 12When Moses' hands grew tired, they took a stone and put it under him and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held his hands up—one on one side, one on the other—so that his hands remained steady till sunset.[a] 13So Joshua overcame the Amalekite[b] army with the sword.

14Then the LORD said to Moses,
"Write[c] this on a scroll as something to be remembered and make sure that Joshua hears it, because I will completely blot out[d] the memory of Ama-lek[e] from under heaven."

Jethro Visits Moses

18 Now Jethro,[j] the priest of Midi-an[k] and father-in-law of Moses, heard of everything God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.[l] 2After Moses had sent away his wife Zipporah,[m] his father-in-law Jethro received her 3and her two sons.[n] One son was named Gershom,[m] for Moses said, "I have become an alien in a foreign land";[o] 4and the other was named Eliezer,[n][p] for he said, "My father's God was my helper;[q] he saved me from the sword of Pharaoh." 5Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, together with Moses' sons and wife, came to him in the desert, where he was camped near the mountain[r] of God. 6Jethro had sent word to him, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."
7So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down[s] and kissed[t] him. They greeted each other and then went into the tent. 8Moses told his father-in-law about everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake and about all the hardships[u] they had met along the way and how the LORD had saved[v]
them.
9Jethro was delighted to hear about all the good things[w] the LORD had done for Israel in rescuing them from the hand of the Egyptians. 10He said, "Praise be to the LORD,[x] who rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh, and who rescued the people from the hand of the Egyptians.
11Now I know that the LORD is greater than all other gods,[y] for he did this to those who had treated Israel arrogantly."[z] 12Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law,[a] brought a burnt offering[b] and other sacrifices[c] to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread[d] with Moses' father-in-law in the presence[e] of God.
13The next day Moses took his seat to serve as judge for the people, and they stood around him from morning till evening. 14When his father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he said, "What is this you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge, while all these people stand around you from morning till evening?" 15Moses answered him, "Because the people come to me to seek God's will.[f] 16Whenever they have a dispute,[g] it is brought to me, and I decide between the parties and inform them of God's decrees and laws."[h] 17Moses' father-in-law replied, "What you are doing is not good. 18You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone.[i] 19Listen now to me and I will give you some advice, and may God be with you.[j] You must be the people's representative before God and bring their disputes[k] to him. 20Teach them the decrees and laws,[l] and show them the way to live[m] and the duties they are to perform.[n] 21But select capable men[o] from all the people—men who fear[p] God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain[q]—and appoint them as officials[r] over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. 22Have them serve as judges for the people at all times, but have them bring every difficult case[s] to you; the simple cases they can decide themselves. That will make your load lighter, because they will share[t] it with you. 23If you do this and God so commands, you will be able to stand the strain, and all these people will go home satisfied." 24Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. 25He chose capable men from all Israel and made

At Mount Sinai

19 In the third month after the Israelites left Egypt[g]—on the very day—they came to the Desert of Sinai.[h] 2After they set out from Rephidim,[i] they entered the Desert of Sinai, and Israel camped there in the desert in front of the mountain.[j] 3Then Moses went up to God,[k] and the LORD called[l] to him from the mountain and said, "This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and what you are to tell the people of Israel: 4'You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt,[m] and how I carried you on eagles' wings[n] and brought you to myself.[o] 5Now if you obey me fully[p] and keep my covenant,[q] then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession.[r] Although the whole earth[s] is mine, 6you[o] will be for me a kingdom of priests[t] and a holy nation.'[u] These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites."
7So Moses went back and summoned the elders[v] of the people and set before them all the words the LORD had commanded him to speak.[w] 8The people all responded together, "We will do everything the LORD has said."[x] So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.
9The LORD said to Moses, "I am going to come to you in a dense cloud,[y] so that the people will hear me speaking[z] with you and will always put their trust[a] in you." Then Moses told the LORD what the people had said.
10And the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate[b] them today and tomorrow. Have them wash their clothes[c] 11and be ready by the third day,[d] because on that day the LORD will come down[e] on Mount Sinai[f] in the sight of all the people. 12Put limits[g] for the people around the mountain and tell them, 'Be careful that you do not go up the mountain or touch the foot of it.
Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death. 13He shall surely be stoned[h] or shot with arrows; not a hand is to be laid on him. Whether man or animal, he shall not be permitted to live.' Only when the ram's horn[i] sounds a long blast may they go up to the mountain."[j] 14After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes.[k] 15Then he said to the people, "Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain[l] from sexual relations." 16On the morning of the third day there was thunder[m] and lightning, with a thick cloud[n] over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast.[o] Everyone in the camp trembled.[p] 17Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.[q] 18Mount Sinai was covered with smoke,[r] because the LORD descended on it in fire.[s] The smoke billowed up from it like smoke from a furnace,[t] the whole mountain[p] trembled[u] violently, 19and the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder. Then Moses spoke and the voice[q] of God answered[w] him.[q] 20The LORD descended to the top of Mount Sinai[x] and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up 21and the LORD said to him, "Go down and warn the people so they do not force their way through to see[y] the LORD and many of them perish.[z] 22Even the priests, who approach[a] the LORD, must consecrate[b] themselves, or the LORD will break out against them."[c] 23Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up Mount Sinai,[d] because you yourself warned us, 'Put limits[e] around the mountain and set it apart as holy.' " 24The LORD replied, "Go down and bring Aaron[f] up with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out against them."[g] 25So Moses went down to the people and told them.

The Ten Commandments

20:1-17pp — Dt 5:6-21

20 And God spoke[a] all these words:[b]

2"I am the LORD your God,[c] who brought you out[d] of Egypt,[e] out of the land of slavery.[f]

3"You shall have no other gods before[r] me.[g]

4"You shall not make for yourself an idol[h] in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. 5You shall not bow down to them or worship[i] them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God,[j] punishing the children for the sin of the fathers[k] to the third and fourth generation[l] of those who hate me, 6but showing love to a thousand[m] generations, of those who love me and keep my commandments.

7"You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.[n]

8"Remember the Sabbath[o] day by keeping it holy. 9Six days you shall labor and do all your work,[p] 10but the seventh day is a Sabbath[q] to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien within your gates. 11For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth,[r] the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested[s] on the seventh day.[t] Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

12"Honor your father and your mother,[u] so that you may live long[v] in the land[w] the LORD your God is giving you.

13"You shall not murder.[x] 14"You shall not commit adultery.[y] 15"You shall not steal.[z]

16"You shall not give false testimony[a] against your neighbor.[b]

17"You shall not covet[c] your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

18When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet[d] and saw the mountain in smoke,[e] they trembled with fear.[f] They stayed at a distance 19and said to Moses, "Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak[g] to us or we will die."[h] 20Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid.[i] God has come to test[j] you, so that the fear[k] of God will be with you to keep you from sinning."[l] 21The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness[m] where God was.

Idols and Altars

22Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites this: 'You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven:[n] 23Do not make any gods to be alongside me;[o] do not make for yourselves gods of silver or gods of gold.[p] 24" 'Make an altar[q] of earth for me and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings[r] and fellowship offerings,[s] your sheep and goats and your cattle. Wherever I cause my name[s] to be honored, I will come to you and bless[t] you. 25If you make an altar of stones for me, do not build it with dressed stones, for you will defile it if you use a tool[u] on it.
26And do not go up to my altar on steps, lest your nakedness[v] be exposed on it.'

21 "These are the laws[w] you are to set before them:

is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free,[a] without paying anything. 3If he comes alone, he is to go free alone; but if he has a wife when he comes, she is to go with him. 4If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free.
5"But if the servant declares, 'I love my master and my wife and children and do not want to go free,'[b] 6then his master must take him before the judges.[t][c] He shall take him to the door or the doorpost and pierce[d] his ear with an awl. Then he will be his servant for life.[e] 7"If a man sells his daughter as a servant, she is not to go free as men-servants do. 8If she does not please the master who has selected her for himself,[u] he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, because he has broken faith with her.
9If he selects her for his son, he must grant her the rights of a daughter. 10If he marries another woman, he must not deprive the first one of her food, clothing and marital rights.[f] 11If he does not provide her with these three things, she is to go free, without any payment of money.

Personal Injuries

12"Anyone who strikes a man and kills him shall surely be put to death.[g] 13However, if he does not do it intentionally, but God lets it happen, he is to flee to a place[h] I will designate. 14But if a man schemes and kills another man deliberately,[i] take him away from my altar and put him to death.[j] 15"Anyone who attacks[v] his father or his mother must be put to death.
16"Anyone who kidnaps another and either sells[k] him or still has him when he is caught must be put to death.[l] 17"Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.[m] 18"If men quarrel and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist[w] and he does not die but is confined to bed, 19the one who struck the blow will not be held responsible if the other gets up and walks around outside with his staff; however, he must pay the injured man for the loss of his time and see that he is completely healed.
20"If a man beats his male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies as a direct result, he must be punished, 21but he is not to be punished if the slave gets up after a day or two, since the slave is his property.[n] 22"If men who are fighting hit a pregnant woman and she gives birth prematurely[x] but there is no serious injury, the offender must be fined whatever the woman's husband demands[o] and the court allows. 23But if there is serious injury, you are to take life for life,[p] 24eye for eye, tooth for tooth,[q] hand for hand, foot for foot, 25burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.
26"If a man hits a manservant or maidservant in the eye and destroys it, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the eye. 27And if he knocks out the tooth of a manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the tooth.
28"If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull must be stoned to death,[r] and its meat must not be eaten. But the owner of the bull will not be held responsible. 29If, however, the bull has had the habit of goring and the owner has been warned but has not kept it penned up[s] and it kills a man or woman, the bull must be stoned and the owner also must be put to death.
30However, if payment is demanded of him, he may redeem his life by paying whatever is demanded.[t] 31This law also applies if the bull gores a son or daughter. 32If the bull gores a male or female slave, the owner must pay thirty shekels[y][u] of silver to the master of the slave, and the bull must be stoned.
33"If a man uncovers a pit[v] or digs one and fails to cover it and an ox or a donkey falls into it, 34the owner of the pit must pay for the loss; he must pay its owner, and the dead animal will be his.
35"If a man's bull injures the bull of another and it dies, they are to sell the live one and divide both the money and the dead animal equally. 36However, if it was known that the bull had the habit of goring, yet the owner did not keep it penned up,[w] the owner must pay, animal for animal, and the dead animal will be his.

Protection of Property

22 "If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he must pay back[a] five head of cattle for the ox and four sheep for the sheep.
2"If a thief is caught breaking in[b] and is struck so that he dies, the defender is not guilty of bloodshed;[c] 3but if it happens[z] after sunrise, he is guilty of bloodshed.
"A thief must certainly make restitution,[d] but if he has nothing, he must be sold[e] to pay for his theft.
4"If the stolen animal is found alive in his possession[f]—whether ox or donkey or sheep—he must pay back double.[g] 5"If a man grazes his livestock in a field or vineyard and lets them stray and they graze in another man's field, he must make restitution[h] from the best of his own field or vineyard.
6"If a fire breaks out and spreads into thornbushes so that it burns shocks[i] of grain or standing grain or the whole field, the one who started the fire must make restitution.[j] 7"If a man gives his neighbor silver or goods for safekeeping[k] and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, the thief, if he is caught, must pay back double.[l] 8But if the thief is not found, the owner of the house must appear before the judges[a][m] to determine whether he has laid his hands on the other man's property. 9In all cases of illegal possession of an ox, a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or any other lost property about which somebody says, 'This is mine,' both parties are to bring their cases before the judges.[n] The one whom the judges declare[b] guilty must pay back double to his neighbor.
10"If a man gives a donkey, an ox, a sheep or any other animal to his neighbor for safekeeping[o] and it dies or is injured or is taken away while no one is looking, 11the issue between them will be settled by the taking of an oath[p] before the LORD that the neighbor did not lay hands on the other person's property. The owner is to accept this, and no restitution is required. 12But if the animal was stolen from the neighbor, he must make restitution[q] to the owner. 13If it was torn to pieces by a wild animal, he shall bring in the remains as evidence and he will not be required to pay for the torn animal.[r] 14"If a man borrows an animal from his neighbor and it is injured or dies while the owner is not present, he must make restitution.[s] 15But if the owner is with the animal, the borrower will not have to pay. If the animal was hired, the money paid for the hire covers the loss.[t]

Social Responsibility

16"If a man seduces a virgin[u] who is not pledged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the bride-price,[v] and she shall be his wife. 17If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must still pay the bride-price for vir-gins.
18"Do not allow a sorceress[w] to live.
19"Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal[x] must be put to death.
20"Whoever sacrifices to any god[y] other than the LORD must be destroyed.[c][z] 21"Do not mistreat an alien[a] or oppress him, for you were aliens[b] in Egypt.
22"Do not take advantage of a widow or an orphan.[c] 23If you do and they cry out[d] to me, I will certainly hear their cry.[e] 24My anger will be aroused, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives will become widows and your children fatherless.[f] 25"If you lend money to one of my people among you who is needy, do not be like a moneylender; charge him no interest.[d][g] 26If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge,[h] return it to him by sunset, 27because his cloak is the only covering he has for his body.
What else will he sleep in?[i] When he cries out to me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.[j] 28"Do not blaspheme God[e][k] or curse[l] the ruler of your people.[m] 29"Do not hold back offerings[n] from your granaries or your vats.[f]
"You must give me the firstborn of your sons.[o] 30Do the same with your cattle and your sheep.[p] Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but give them to me on the eighth day.[q] 31"You are to be my holy people.[r] So

Laws of Justice and Mercy

23 "Do not spread false reports.[b] Do not help a wicked man by being a malicious witness.[c] 2"Do not follow the crowd in doing wrong. When you give testimony in a lawsuit, do not pervert justice[d] by siding with the crowd,[e] 3and do not show favoritism[f] to a poor man in his lawsuit.
4"If you come across your enemy's[g] ox or donkey wandering off, be sure to take it back to him.[h] 5If you see the donkey[i] of someone who hates you fallen down under its load, do not leave it there; be sure you help him with it.
6"Do not deny justice[j] to your poor people in their lawsuits. 7Have nothing to do with a false charge[k] and do not put an innocent[l] or honest person to death,[m] for I will not acquit the guilty.[n] 8"Do not accept a bribe,[o] for a bribe blinds those who see and twists the words of the righteous.
9"Do not oppress an alien;[p] you yourselves know how it feels to be aliens, because you were aliens in Egypt.

Sabbath Laws

10"For six years you are to sow your fields and harvest the crops, 11but during the seventh year let the land lie un-plowed and unused.[q] Then the poor among your people may get food from it, and the wild animals may eat what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.
12"Six days do your work,[r] but on the seventh day do not work, so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the slave born in your household, and the alien as well, may be refreshed.[s] 13"Be careful[t] to do everything I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other gods;[u] do not let them be heard on your lips.[v]

The Three Annual Festivals

14"Three times[w] a year you are to celebrate a festival to me.
15"Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread;[x] for seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you.
Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib,[y] for in that month you came out of Egypt.

"No one is to appear before me empty-handed.[z] 16"Celebrate the Feast of Harvest[a] with the firstfruits[b] of the crops you sow in your field.
"Celebrate the Feast of Ingathering[c] at the end of the year, when you gather in your crops from the field.[d] 17"Three times[e] a year all the men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD.
18"Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast.[f]
"The fat of my festival offerings must not be kept until morning.[g] 19"Bring the best of the firstfruits[h] of your soil to the house of the LORD your God.
"Do not cook a young goat in its mother's milk.[i]

God's Angel to Prepare the Way

20"See, I am sending an angel[j] ahead of you to guard you along the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared.[k] 21Pay attention to him and listen[l] to what he says. Do not rebel against him; he will not forgive[m] your rebellion,[n] since my Name[o] is in him.
22If you listen carefully to what he says and do[p] all that I say, I will be an enemy[q] to your enemies and will oppose those who oppose you. 23My angel will go ahead of you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites and Jebu-sites,[r] and I will wipe them out. 24Do not bow down before their gods or worship[s] them or follow their practices.[t] You must demolish[u] them and break their sacred stones[v] to pieces.
25Worship the LORD your God,[w] and his blessing[x] will be on your food and water. I will take away sickness[y] from among you, 26and none will miscarry or be barren[z] in your land. I will give you a full life span.[a] 27"I will send my terror[b] ahead of you and throw into confusion[c] every nation you encounter. I will make all your enemies turn their backs and [33]Do not let them live in your land, or they will cause you to sin against me, because the worship of their gods will certainly be a snare[i] to you."

The Covenant Confirmed

24 Then he said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron,[j] Nadab and Abihu,[k] and seventy of the elders[l] of Israel. You are to worship at a distance, [2]but Moses alone is to approach[m] the LORD; the others must not come near. And the people may not come up with him."

[3]When Moses went and told the people all the LORD's words and laws,[n] they responded with one voice, "Everything the LORD has said we will do."[o] [4]Moses then wrote[p] down everything the LORD had said.

He got up early the next morning and built an altar[q] at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve stone pillars[r] representing the twelve tribes of Israel. [5]Then he sent young Israelite men, and they offered burnt offerings[s] and sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings[j][t] to the LORD. [6]Moses[u] took half of the blood[v] and put it in bowls, and the other half he sprinkled[w] on the altar. [7]Then he took the Book of the Covenant[x] and read it to the people. They responded, "We will do everything the LORD has said; we will obey."[y]

[8]Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people[z] and said, "This is the blood of the covenant[a] that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

[9]Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders[b] of Israel went up [10]and saw[c] the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a pavement made of sapphire,[k][d] clear as the sky[e] itself. [11]But God did not raise his hand against these leaders of the Israelites; they saw[f] God, and they ate and drank.[g]

[12]The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone,[h] with the law and commands I have written for their instruction."

[13]Then Moses set out with Joshua[i] his aide, and Moses went up on the mountain[j] of God. [14]He said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur[k] are with you, and anyone involved in a dispute[l] can go to them."

[15]When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud[m] covered it, [16]and the glory[n] of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai.[o] For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from within the cloud.[p] [17]To the Israelites the glory of the LORD looked like a consuming fire[q] on top of the mountain. [18]Then Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty[r] days and forty nights.[s]

Offerings for the Tabernacle

25:1-7pp — Ex 35:4-9

25 The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Tell the Israelites to bring me an offering. You are to receive the offering for me from each man whose heart prompts[t] him to give. [3]These are the offerings you are to receive from them: gold, silver and bronze; [4]blue, purple and scarlet yarn[u] and fine linen; goat hair; [5]ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows[l];[v] acacia wood;[w] [6]olive oil[x] for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;[y] [7]and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod[z] and breastpiece.[a]

10 "Have them make a chest[b] of acacia wood—two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.[m] 11 Overlay[c] it with pure gold, both inside and out, and make a gold molding around it. 12 Cast four gold rings for it and fasten them to its four feet, with two rings[d] on one side and two rings on the other. 13 Then make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.[e] 14 Insert the poles[f] into the rings on the sides of the chest to carry it. 15 The poles are to remain in the rings of this ark; they are not to be removed.[g] 16 Then put in the ark the Testimony,[h] which I will give you.

17 "Make an atonement cover[n][i] of pure gold—two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.[o] 18 And make two cherubim[j] out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover. 19 Make one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; make the cherubim of one piece with the cover, at the two ends. 20 The cherubim[k] are to have their wings spread upward, overshadowing[l] the cover with them. The cherubim are to face each other, looking toward the cover. 21 Place the cover on top of the ark[m] and put in the ark the Testimony,[n] which I will give you. 22 There, above the cover between the two cherubim[o] that are over the ark of the Testimony, I will meet[p] with you and give you all my commands for the Israelites.[q]

23 "Make a table[r] of acacia wood—two cubits long, a cubit wide and a cubit and a half high.[p] 24 Overlay it with pure gold and make a gold molding around it. 25 Also make around it a rim a handbreadth[q] wide and put a gold molding on the rim. 26 Make four gold rings for the table and fasten them to the four corners, where the four legs are. 27 The rings are to be close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table. 28 Make the poles of acacia wood, overlay them with gold[s] and carry the table with them. 29 And make its plates and dishes of pure gold, as well as its pitchers and bowls for the pouring out of offerings.[t] 30 Put the bread of the Presence[u] on this table to be before me at all times.

31 "Make a lampstand[v] of pure gold and hammer it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms shall be of one piece with it. 32 Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand—three on one side and three on the other. 33 Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms are to be on one branch, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand. 34 And on the lampstand there are to be four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms. 35 One bud shall be under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair—six branches in all. 36 The buds and branches shall all be of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.[w]

37 "Then make its seven lamps[x] and set them up on it so that they light the space in front of it. 38 Its wick trimmers and trays[y] are to be of pure gold. 39 A talent[r] of pure gold is to be used for the lampstand and all these accessories. 40 See that you make them according to the pattern[z] shown you on the mountain.

The Tabernacle

26 "Make the tabernacle[a] with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim[b] worked into them by a skilled craftsman. 2 All the curtains are to be the same size[c]—twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.[s] 3 Join five of the curtains together, and do the same with the other five. 4 Make loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and do the same with the end curtain in the other set.

5 Make fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other. 6 Then make fifty gold clasps and use them to fasten the curtains together so that the tabernacle is a unit.[a] 7 "Make curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven altogether. 8 All eleven curtains are to be the same size[b]—thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.[t] 9 Join five of the curtains together into one set and the other six into another set. Fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent. 10 Make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set. 11 Then make fifty bronze clasps and put them in the loops to fasten the tent together as a unit.[c] 12 As for the additional length of the tent curtains, the half curtain that is left over is to hang down at the rear of the tabernacle. 13 The tent curtains will be a cubit[u] longer on both sides; what is left will hang over the sides of the tabernacle so as to cover it. 14 Make for the tent a covering[d] of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.[v] [e] 15 "Make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle. 16 Each frame is to be ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,[w] 17 with two projections set parallel to each other. Make all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.
18 Make twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle 19 and make forty silver bases[f] to go under them—two bases for each frame, one under each projection. 20 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, make twenty frames 21 and forty silver bases[g]—two under each frame. 22 Make six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle, 23 and make two frames for the corners at the far end. 24 At these two corners they must be double from the bottom all the way to the top, and fitted into a single ring; both shall be like that. 25 So there will be eight frames and sixteen silver bases—two under each frame.
26 "Also make crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle, 27 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle. 28 The center crossbar is to extend from end to end at the middle of the frames. 29 Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings to hold the cross-bars. Also overlay the crossbars with gold.
30 "Set up the tabernacle[h] according to the plan[i] shown you on the mountain.
31 "Make a curtain[j] of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim[k] worked into it by a skilled craftsman. 32 Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold and standing on four silver bases.[l] 33 Hang the curtain from the clasps and place the ark of the Testimony behind the curtain.[m] The curtain will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place.[n] 34 Put the atonement cover[o] on the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place.
35 Place the table[p] outside the curtain on the north side of the tabernacle and put the lampstand[q] opposite it on the south side.
36 "For the entrance to the tent make a curtain[r] of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen—the work of an embroiderer.[s] 37 Make gold hooks for this curtain and five posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold. And cast five bronze bases for them.

The Altar of Burnt Offering

27 "Build an altar[t] of acacia wood, three cubits[x] high; it is to be square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.[y] 2 Make a horn[u] at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar are of one piece, and overlay the altar with bronze. 3 Make all its utensils of bronze—its pots to remove the ashes, and its shovels, sprinkling bowls,[v] meat forks and firepans.[w] 4 Make a grating for it, a bronze network, and make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the network. 5 Put it under the ledge of the altar so that it is halfway up the altar. 6 Make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze.[x] 7 The poles are to be inserted into the rings so they will be on two sides of the altar when it is carried.[y] 8 Make the altar hollow, out of boards. It is to be made just as you were shown[z] on the mountain.

The Courtyard

27:9-19pp — Ex 38:9-20

[9]"Make a courtyard[y] for the tabernacle. The south side shall be a hundred cubits[z] long and is to have curtains of finely twisted linen, [10]with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts. [11]The north side shall also be a tains, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

[12]"The west end of the courtyard shall be fifty cubits[a] wide and have curtains, with ten posts and ten bases.
[13]On the east end, toward the sunrise, the courtyard shall also be fifty cubits wide. [14]Curtains fifteen cubits[b] long are to be on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases, [15]and curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on the other side, with three posts and three bases.
[16]"For the entrance to the courtyard, provide a curtain[b] twenty cubits[c] long, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen—the work of an embroiderer[c]—with four posts and four bases. [17]All the posts around the courtyard are to have silver bands and hooks, and bronze bases. [18]The courtyard shall be a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide,[d] with curtains of finely twisted linen five cubits[e] high, and with bronze bases. [19]All the other articles used in the service of the tabernacle, whatever their function, including all the tent pegs for it and those for the courtyard, are to be of bronze.

Oil for the Lampstand

27:20-21pp — Lev 24:1-3

[20]"Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil[d] of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning. [21]In the Tent of Meeting,[e] outside the curtain that is in front of the Testimony,[f] Aaron and his sons are to keep the lamps[g] burning before the LORD from evening till morning.

sacred garments[m] for your brother Aaron, to give him dignity and honor.[n] [3]Tell all the skilled men[o] to whom I have given wisdom[p] in such matters that they are to make garments for Aaron, for his consecration, so he may serve me as priest. [4]These are the garments they are to make: a breastpiece,[q] an ephod,[r] a robe,[s] a woven tunic,[t] a turban[u] and a sash. They are to make these sacred garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so they may serve me as priests. [5]Have them use gold, and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen.[v]

The Ephod

28:6-14pp — Ex 39:2-7

[6]"Make the ephod[w] of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen—the work of a skilled craftsman. [7]It is to have two shoulder pieces attached to two of its corners, so it can be fastened. [8]Its skillfully woven waistband[x] is to be like it—of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen.
[9]"Take two onyx stones and en-grave[y] on them the names of the sons of Israel [10]in the order of their birth—six names on one stone and the remaining six on the other. [11]Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the way a gem cutter engraves a seal. Then mount the stones in gold filigree settings [12]and fasten them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel.
Aaron is to bear the names on his shoulders[z] as a memorial[a] before the LORD. [13]Make gold filigree settings [14]and two braided chains of pure gold, like a rope, and attach the chains to the settings.

The Breastpiece

28:15-28pp — Ex 39:8-21

[15]"Fashion a breastpiece[b] for making decisions—the work of a skilled craftsman. Make it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen. [16]It is to be [z]9 That is, about 150 feet (about 46 meters); also in verse 11 [a]12 That is, about 75 feet (about 23 meters); also in verse 13 [b]14 That is, about 22 1/2 feet (about 6.9 meters); also in verse 15 [c]16 That is, about 30 feet (about 9 meters) [d]18 That is, about 150 feet (about 46 meters) long and 75 feet (about 23 meters) wide [e]18 That is, about 7 1/2 feet (about 2.3 meters) square—a span[f] long and a span wide—and folded double. 17Then mount four rows of precious stones[a] on it. In the first row there shall be a ruby, a topaz and a beryl; 18in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire[g] and an emerald; 19in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst; 20in the fourth row a chrysolite,[b] an onyx and a jasper.[h] Mount them in gold filigree settings. 21There are to be twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel,[c] each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.[d]

22"For the breastpiece make braided chains of pure gold, like a rope. 23Make two gold rings for it and fasten them to two corners of the breastpiece. 24Fasten the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece, 25and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front. 26Make two gold rings and attach them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.
27Make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod. 28The rings of the breast-piece are to be tied to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband, so that the breastpiece will not swing out from the ephod.

29"Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place,[e] he will bear the names of the sons of Israel over his heart on the breastpiece of decision as a continuing memorial before the LORD. 30Also put the Urim and the Thummim[f] in the breastpiece, so they may be over Aaron's heart whenever he enters the presence of the LORD. Thus Aaron will always bear the means of making decisions for the Israelites over his heart before the LORD.

Other Priestly Garments

31"Make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth, 32with an opening for the head in its center. There shall be a woven edge like a collar[i] around this opening, so that it will not tear. 33Make pomegranates[g] of blue, purple and scarlet yarn around the hem of the robe, with gold bells between them.
34The gold bells and the pomegranates are to alternate around the hem of the robe. 35Aaron must wear it when he ministers. The sound of the bells will be heard when he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and when he comes out, so that he will not die.

36"Make a plate[h] of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.[i] 37Fasten a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban; it is to be on the front of the turban. 38It will be on Aaron's forehead, and he will bear the guilt[j] involved in the sacred gifts the Israelites consecrate, whatever their gifts may be. It will be on Aaron's forehead continually so that they will be acceptable[k] to the LORD.

39"Weave the tunic[l] of fine linen and make the turban[m] of fine linen. The sash is to be the work of an embroiderer. 40Make tunics, sashes and headbands for Aaron's sons,[n] to give them dignity and honor.[o] 41After you put these clothes[p] on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint[q] and ordain them.
Consecrate them so they may serve me as priests.[r]

42"Make linen undergarments[s] as a covering for the body, reaching from the waist to the thigh. 43Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting[t] or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place,[u] so that they will not incur guilt and die.[v]

"This is to be a lasting ordinance[w] for Aaron and his descendants.

Consecration of the Priests

29:1-37pp — Lev 8:1-36

29 "This is what you are to do to consecrate[x] them, so they may serve me as priests: Take a young bull and two rams without defect.[y] 2And from fine wheat flour, without yeast, make bread, and cakes mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.[z] 3Put them in a basket and present them in it—along with the bull and the two rams.[a] 4Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water.[b] 5Take the garments[c] and dress Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself and the breastpiece. Fasten the ephod on him by its skillfully woven waistband.[d] 6Put the turban[e] on his head and attach the sacred diadem[f] to 10"Bring the bull to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.[v] 11Slaughter it in the LORD's presence[w] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 12Take some of the bull's blood and put it on the horns[x] of the altar with your finger, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.[y] 13Then take all the fat[z] around the inner parts,[a] the covering of the liver, and both kidneys with the fat around them, and burn them on the altar. 14But burn the bull's flesh and its hide and its offal[b] outside the camp.[c] It is a sin offering.

15"Take one of the rams,[d] and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.[e] 16Slaughter it and take the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides. 17Cut the ram into pieces and wash[f] the inner parts and the legs, putting them with the head and the other pieces. 18Then burn the entire ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma,[g] an offering made to the LORD by fire.

19"Take the other ram,[h] and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.[i] 20Slaughter it, take some of its blood and put it on the lobes of the right ears of Aaron and his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet.[j] Then sprinkle blood against the altar on all sides.[k] 21And take some of the blood[l] on the altar and some of the anointing oil[m] and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. Then he and his sons and their garments will be consecrated.[n]

22"Take from this ram the fat,[o] the fat tail, the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys with the fat around them, and the right thigh. (This is the ram for the ordination.) 23From the basket of bread made without yeast, which is before the LORD, take a loaf, and a cake made with oil, and a wafer. 24Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.[p] 25Then take them from their hands and burn them on the altar along with the burnt offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD, an offering made to the LORD by fire.[q] 26After you take the breast of the ram for Aaron's ordination, wave it before the LORD as a wave offering, and it will be your share.[r]

27"Consecrate those parts of the ordination ram that belong to Aaron and his sons:[s] the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. 28This is always to be the regular share from the Israelites for Aaron and his sons. It is the contribution the Israelites are to make to the LORD from their fellowship offerings.[t,k]

29"Aaron's sacred garments[u] will belong to his descendants so that they can be anointed and ordained in them.[v] 30The son[w] who succeeds him as priest and comes to the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place is to wear them seven days.

31"Take the ram[x] for the ordination and cook the meat in a sacred place.[y] 32At the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread[z] that is in the basket. 33They are to eat these offerings by which atonement was made for their ordination and consecration. But no one else may eat[a] them, because they are sacred. 34And if any of the meat of the ordination ram or any bread is left over till morning,[b] burn it up. It must not be eaten, because it is sacred.

35"Do for Aaron and his sons everything I have commanded you, taking seven days to ordain them. 36Sacrifice a bull each day[c] as a sin offering to make atonement[m]. Purify the altar by making atonement for it, and anoint it to consecrate[n] it. 37For seven days make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. Then the altar will be most holy, and whatever touches it will be holy.[o]

38"This is what you are to offer on the altar regularly each day:[p] two lambs a year old. 39Offer one in the morning and the other at twilight.[q] 40With the first lamb offer a tenth of an ephah[l] of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin[m] of oil[r] from pressed olives, and a quarter of a hin of wine as a lamb at twilight[b] with the same grain offering[c] and its drink offering as in the morning—a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

42"For the generations to come[d] this burnt offering is to be made regularly[e] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting[f] before the LORD. There I will meet you and speak to you;[g] 43there also I will meet with the Israelites, and the place will be consecrated by my glory.[h] 44"So I will consecrate the Tent of Meeting and the altar and will consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests.[i] 45Then I will dwell[j] among the Israelites and be their God.[k] 46They will know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out of Egypt[l] so that I might dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.[m]

The Altar of Incense

30:1-5pp — Ex 37:25-28

30 "Make an altar[n] of acacia wood for burning incense.[o] 2It is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high[n]—its horns[p] of one piece with it. 3Overlay the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it.[q] 4Make two gold rings[r] for the altar below the molding—two on opposite sides—to hold the poles used to carry it. 5Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.[s] 6Put the altar in front of the curtain that is before the ark of the Testimony—before the atonement cover[t] that is over the Testimony—where I will meet with you.
7"Aaron must burn fragrant incense[u] on the altar every morning when he tends the lamps. 8He must burn incense again when he lights the lamps at twilight so incense will burn regularly before the LORD for the generations to come.[v] 9Do not offer on this altar any other incense[w] or any burnt offering or grain offering, and do not pour a drink offering on it. 10Once a year[x] Aaron shall make atonement[y] on its horns. This annual atonement must be made with the blood of the atoning sin offering[z] for the generations to come.[a] It is most holy to the LORD."

Atonement Money

11Then the LORD said to Moses, 12"When you take a census[b] of the Israelites to count them, each one must pay the LORD a ransom[c] for his life at the time he is counted. Then no plague[d] will come on them when you number them. 13Each one who crosses over to those already counted is to give a half shekel,[o] according to the sanctuary shekel,[e] which weighs twenty gerahs. This half shekel is an offering to the LORD. 14All who cross over, those twenty years old or more,[f] are to give an offering to the LORD. 15The rich are not to give more than a half shekel and the poor are not to give less[g] when you make the offering to the LORD to atone for your lives. 16Receive the atonement[h] money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting.[i] It will be a memorial[j] for the Israelites before the LORD, making atonement for your lives."

Basin for Washing

17Then the LORD said to Moses, 18"Make a bronze basin,[k] with its bronze stand, for washing. Place it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it. 19Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet[l] with water[m] from it. 20Whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water so that they will not die.[n] Also, when they approach the altar to minister by presenting an offering made to the LORD by fire, 21they shall wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. This is to be a lasting ordinance[o] for Aaron and his descendants for the generations to come."[p]

Anointing Oil

22Then the LORD said to Moses, 23"Take the following fine spices:[q] 500 shekels[p] of liquid myrrh,[r] half as much (that is, 250 shekels) of fragrant cinnamon,[s] 250 shekels of fragrant cane,[t] 24500 shekels[u] of cassia[v]—all according to the sanctuary shekel—and a hin[q] of olive oil. 25Make these into a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer.[w] It will be the sacred anointing oil.[x] 26Then use it to

Incense

[34]Then the LORD said to Moses, "Take fragrant spices[j]—gum resin, onycha and galbanum—and pure frankincense, all in equal amounts, [35]and make a fragrant blend of incense,[k] the work of a perfumer.[l] It is to be salted and pure and sacred. Bezalel and Oholiab

31:2-6pp — Ex 35:30-35

31 Then the LORD said to Moses, [2]"See, I have chosen Bezalel[q] son of Uri, the son of Hur,[r] of the tribe of Judah, [3]and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge[s] in all kinds of crafts[t]— [4]to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze, [5]to cut and set stones, to work in wood, and to engage in all kinds of craftsmanship. [6]Moreover, I have appointed Oholiab[u] son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan,[v] to help him. Also I have given skill to all the craftsmen[w] to make everything I have commanded you: [7]the Tent of Meeting,[x] the ark of the Testimony[y] with the atonement cover[z] on it, and all the other furnishings of the tent— [8]the table[a] and its articles, the pure gold lampstand[b] and all its accessories, the altar of incense,[c] [9]the altar of burnt offering[d] and all its utensils, the basin[e] with its stand— [10]and also the woven garments[f], both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests, [11]and the anointing oil[g] and fragrant incense[h] for the Holy Place. They are to make them just as I commanded[i] you."

The Sabbath

[12]Then the LORD said to Moses, [13]"Say to the Israelites, 'You must observe my Sabbaths.[j] This will be a sign[k] between me and you for the generations to come,[l] so you may know that I am the LORD, who makes you holy.[r] [m]

[14]" 'Observe the Sabbath, because it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death;[n] whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from his people. [15]For six days, work[o] is to be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest,[p] holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must be put to death. [16]The Israelites are to observe the Sabbath,[q] celebrating it for the generations to come as a lasting covenant. [17]It will be a sign[r] between me and the Israelites forever, for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he abstained from work and rested.[s] ' "[t]

[18]When the LORD finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai,[u] he gave him the two tablets of the Testimony, the tablets of stone[v] inscribed by the finger of God.[w]

The Golden Calf

32 When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain,[x] they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods[s] who will go before[y] us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him."[z]

[2]Aaron answered them, "Take off the gold earrings[a] that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me." [3]So all the people took off their earrings and brought them to Aaron. [4]He took what they handed him and made it into an idol[a] cast in the shape of a calf,[b] fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, "These are your gods,[t][c] O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt."[d] 5When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf and announced, "Tomorrow there will be a festival[e] to the LORD." 6So the next day the people rose early and sacrificed burnt offerings and presented fellowship offerings.[u][f] Afterward they sat down to eat and drink[g] and got up to indulge in revelry.[h]

down, because your people, whom you brought up out of Egypt,[i] have become corrupt.[j] 8They have been quick to turn away[k] from what I commanded them and have made themselves an idol[l] cast in the shape of a calf.[m] They have bowed down to it and sacrificed[n] to it and have said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.'[o] 9"I have seen these people," the LORD said to Moses, "and they are a stiff-necked[p] people. 10Now leave me alone[q] so that my anger may burn against them and that I may destroy[r] them. Then I will make you into a great nation."[s] 11But Moses sought the favor[t] of the LORD his God. "O LORD," he said, "why should your anger burn against your people, whom you brought out of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand?[u] 12Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out, to kill them in the mountains and to wipe them off the face of the earth'?[v] Turn from your fierce anger; relent and do not bring disaster[w] on your people. 13Remember[x] your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, to whom you swore by your own self:[y] 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars[z] in the sky and I will give your descendants all this land[a] I promised them, and it will be their inheritance forever.'" 14Then the LORD relented[b] and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened.
15Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony[c] in his hands.[d] They were inscribed[e] on both sides, front and back. 16The tablets were the work of God; the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.[f] 17When Joshua[g] heard the noise of the people shouting, he said to Moses, "There is the sound of war in the camp." 18Moses replied:

"It is not the sound of victory, it is not the sound of defeat; it is the sound of singing that I hear."

19When Moses approached the camp and saw the calf[h] and the dancing,[i] his anger burned[j] and he threw the tablets out of his hands, breaking them to pieces[k] at the foot of the mountain.
20And he took the calf they had made and burned[l] it in the fire; then he ground it to powder,[m] scattered it on the water[n] and made the Israelites drink it.
21He said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you led them into such great sin?" 22"Do not be angry,[o] my lord," Aaron answered. "You know how prone these people are to evil.[p] 23They said to me, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him.'[q] 24So I told them, 'Whoever has any gold jewelry, take it off.' Then they gave me the gold, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!"[r] 25Moses saw that the people were running wild and that Aaron had let them get out of control and so become a laughingstock[s] to their enemies. 26So he stood at the entrance to the camp and said, "Whoever is for the LORD, come to me." And all the Levites rallied to him.
27Then he said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Each man strap a sword to his side. Go back and forth through the camp from one end to the other, each killing his brother and friend and neighbor.'"[t] 28The Levites did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people died. 29Then Moses said, "You have been set apart to the LORD today, for you were against your own sons and brothers, and he has blessed you this day."

30The next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin.[a] But now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement[b] for your sin." 31So Moses went back to the LORD and said, "Oh, what a great sin these people have committed![c] They have made themselves gods of gold.[d] 32But now, please forgive their sin[e]—but if not, then blot me[f] out of the book[g] you have written." 33The LORD replied to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me I will blot out[h] of my book. 34Now go, lead[i] the people to the place[j] I spoke of, and my angel[k] will go before you. However, when the time comes for me to punish,[l] I will punish them for their sin." 35And the LORD struck the people with a plague because of what they did with the calf[m] Aaron had made.
33 Then the LORD said to Moses,
"Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath[n] to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.'[o] 2I will send an angel[p] before you and drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.[q] 3Go up to the land flowing with milk and honey.[r] But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked[s] people and I might destroy[t] you on the way." 4When the people heard these distressing words, they began to mourn[u] and no one put on any ornaments. 5For the LORD had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people.[v] If I were to go with you even for a moment, I might destroy[w] you.
Now take off your ornaments and I will decide what to do with you.'" 6So the Israelites stripped off their ornaments at Mount Horeb.[x]

The Tent of Meeting

7Now Moses used to take a tent and pitch it outside the camp some distance away, calling it the "tent of meeting."[y] Anyone inquiring[z] of the LORD would go to the tent of meeting outside the camp. 8And whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose and stood at the entrances to their tents,[a] watching Moses until he entered the tent. 9As Moses went into the tent, the pillar of cloud[b] would come down and stay at the entrance, while the LORD spoke[c] with Moses. 10Whenever the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they all stood and worshiped, each at the entrance to his tent.[d] 11The LORD would speak to Moses face to face,[e] as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young aide Joshua[f] son of Nun did not leave the tent.

Moses and the Glory of the LORD 12Moses said to the LORD, "You have been telling me, 'Lead these people,'[g] but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, 'I know you by name[h] and you have found favor[i] with me.' 13If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways[j] so I may know you and continue to find favor with you. Remember that this nation is your people."[k] 14The LORD replied, "My Presence[l] will go with you, and I will give you rest."[m] 15Then Moses said to him, "If your Presence[n] does not go with us, do not send us up from here. 16How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us?[o] What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?"[p] 17And the LORD said to Moses, "I will do the very thing you have asked,[q] because I am pleased with you and I know you by name."[r] 18Then Moses said, "Now show me your glory."[s] 19And the LORD said, "I will cause all my goodness to pass[t] in front of you, and I will proclaim my name,[u] the LORD, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.[v] 20But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one may see[w] me and live." 21Then the LORD said, "There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. 22When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock[x] and cover you with my hand[y] until I have passed by. 23Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen."

The New Stone Tablets

34 The LORD said to Moses, "Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones,[a] and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets,[b] which you broke.[c] 2Be ready in the morning, and then come up on Mount Sinai.[d] Present yourself to me there on top of the mountain. 3No one is to come with you or be seen anywhere on the mountain;[e] not even the flocks and herds may graze in front of the mountain."
4So Moses chiseled[f] out two stone tablets like the first ones and went up Mount Sinai early in the morning, as the LORD had commanded him; and he carried the two stone tablets in his hands.[g] 5Then the LORD came down in the cloud[h] and stood there with him and proclaimed his name, the LORD.[i] 6And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, "The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate[j] and gracious God, slow to anger,[k] abounding in love[l] and faithfulness,[m] 7maintaining love to thousands,[n] and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin.[o] Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished;[p] he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation."[q] 8Moses bowed to the ground at once and worshiped. 9"O Lord, if I have found favor[r] in your eyes," he said, "then let the Lord go with us.[s] Although this is a stiff-necked[t] people, forgive our wickedness and our sin,[u] and take us as your inheritance."[v] 10Then the LORD said: "I am making a covenant[w] with you. Before all your people I will do wonders[x] never before done in any nation in all the world.[y] The people you live among will see how awesome is the work that I, the LORD, will do for you. 11Obey what I command[z] you today. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebu-sites.[a] 12Be careful not to make a treaty[b] with those who live in the land where you are going, or they will be a snare[c] among you. 13Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and cut down their Asherah poles.[v][d] 14Do not worship any other god,[e] for the LORD, whose name[f] is Jealous, is a jeal-15"Be careful not to make a treaty[h] when they prostitute[i] themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you and you will eat their sacrifices.[j] 16And when you choose some of their daughters as wives[k] for your sons and those daughters prostitute themselves to their gods,[l] they will lead your sons to do the same.

17"Do not make cast idols.[m] 18"Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread.[n] For seven days eat bread made without yeast,[o] as I commanded you.
Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib,[p] for in that month you came out of Egypt.
19"The first offspring[q] of every womb belongs to me, including all the firstborn males of your livestock, whether from herd or flock. 20Redeem the firstborn donkey with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck.[r] Redeem all your firstborn sons.[s]
"No one is to appear before me empty-handed.[t] 21"Six days you shall labor, but on the seventh day you shall rest;[u] even during the plowing season and harvest[v] you must rest.
22"Celebrate the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits[w] of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering[x] at the turn of the year.[w] 23Three times[y] a year all your men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD, the God of Israel. 24I will drive out nations[z] before you and enlarge your territory,[a] and no one will covet your land when you go up three times each year to appear before the LORD your God.

fice to me along with anything containing yeast,[b] and do not let any of the main until morning.[c] accordance with these words I have Israel." 28Moses was there with the

The Radiant Face of Moses

29When Moses came down from Mount Sinai[e] with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands,[f] he was not aware that his face was radiant[g] because he had spoken with the LORD.
30When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him. 31But Moses called to them; so Aaron and all the leaders of the community[h] came back to him, and he spoke to them.
32Afterward all the Israelites came near him, and he gave them all the commands[i] the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.
33When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil[j] over his face. 34But whenever he entered the LORD's presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, 35they saw that his face was radiant.[k] Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD.

Sabbath Regulations

35 Moses assembled the whole Israelite community and said to them, "These are the things the LORD has commanded[l] you to do: 2For six days, work is to be done, but the seventh day shall be your holy day, a Sabbath[m] of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it must be put to death.[n] 3Do not light a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day.[o]"

Materials for the Tabernacle

35:4-9pp — Ex 25:1-7
35:10-19pp — Ex 39:32-41

4Moses said to the whole Israelite community, "This is what the LORD has commanded: 5From what you have, take an offering for the LORD. Everyone who is willing is to bring to the LORD an offering of gold, silver and bronze; 6blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen; goat hair; 7ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows[x]; acacia wood; 8olive oil[p] for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; 9and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.
10"All who are skilled among you are to come and make everything the LORD has commanded:[q] 11the tabernacle[r] with its tent and its covering, clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases; 12the ark[s] with its poles and the atonement cover and the curtain[t] that shields it; 13the table[u] with its poles and all its articles and the bread of the Presence; 14the lampstand[v] that is for light with its accessories, lamps and oil for the light; 15the altar[w] of incense with its poles, the anointing oil[x] and the fragrant incense;[y] the curtain for the doorway at the entrance to the tabernacle;[z] 16the altar[a] of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the bronze basin[b] with its stand; 17the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;[c] 18the tent pegs[d] for the tabernacle and for the courtyard, and their ropes; 19the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary—both the sacred garments[e] for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests." 20Then the whole Israelite community withdrew from Moses' presence, 21and everyone who was willing and whose heart moved him came and brought an offering to the LORD for the work on the Tent of Meeting, for all its service, and for the sacred garments.
22All who were willing, men and women alike, came and brought gold jewelry of all kinds: brooches, earrings, rings and ornaments. They all presented their gold as a wave offering to the LORD. 23Everyone who had blue, purple or scarlet yarn[f] or fine linen, or goat hair, ram skins dyed red or hides of sea cows brought them. 24Those presenting an offering of silver or bronze brought it as an offering to the LORD, and everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the work brought it. 25Every skilled woman[g] spun with her hands and brought what she had spun—blue, purple or scarlet yarn or fine linen.
26And all the women who were willing and had the skill spun the goat hair.
27The leaders[h] brought onyx stones and other gems[i] to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece. 28They also brought spices and olive oil for the light and for the anointing oil and for Bezalel and Oholiab

30Then Moses said to the Israelites, "See, the LORD has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, 31and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge in all kinds of crafts[d]— 32to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze, 33to cut and set stones, to work in wood and to engage in all kinds of artistic craftsmanship. 34And he has given both him and Oholiab[e] son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach[f] others. 35He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work[g] as craftsmen, designers, embroiderers in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen, and weavers—all of them master craftsmen and design-

36 ers. 1So Bezalel, Oholiab and every skilled person[h] to whom the LORD has given skill and ability to know how to carry out all the work of constructing the sanctuary[i] are to do the work just as the Lord has commanded."

2Then Moses summoned Bezalel[j] and Oholiab[k] and every skilled person to whom the LORD had given ability and who was willing[l] to come and do the work. 3They received from Moses all the offerings[m] the Israelites had brought to carry out the work of constructing the sanctuary. And the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning. 4So all the skilled craftsmen who were doing all the work on the sanctuary left their work 5and said to Moses, "The people are bringing more than enough[n] for doing the work the LORD commanded to be done."

6Then Moses gave an order and they sent this word throughout the camp: "No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary." And so the people were restrained from bringing more, 7because what they already had was more[o] than enough to do all the work.

8All the skilled men among the workmen made the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman. 9All the curtains were the same size—twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.[y] 10They joined five of the curtains together and did the same with the other five. 11Then they made loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and the same was done with the end curtain in the other set. 12They also made fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other. 13Then they made fifty gold clasps and used them to fasten the two sets of curtains together so that the tabernacle was a unit.[p]

14They made curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven all together. 15All eleven curtains were the same size—thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.[z] 16They joined five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another set. 17Then they made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set. 18They made fifty bronze clasps to fasten the tent together as a unit.[q] 19Then they made for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.[a]

20They made upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle. 21Each frame was ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,[b] 22with two projections set parallel to each other. They made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way. 23They made twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle 24and made forty silver bases to go under them—two bases for each frame, one under each projection. 25For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, they made twenty frames 26and forty silver bases—two under each frame. 27They made six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle, 28and two frames were made for the corners of the tabernacle at the far end. 29At these two corners the frames were double from the bottom all the way to both were made alike. 30 So there were

two under each frame.
31 They also made crossbars of acacia
the tabernacle, 32 five for those on the
the west, at the far end of the tabernacle. 33 They made the center crossbar so that it extended from end to end at the middle of the frames. 34 They overlaid the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars.
They also overlaid the crossbars with gold.
35 They made the curtain[a] of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman. 36 They made four posts of acacia wood for it and overlaid them with gold. They made gold hooks for them and cast their four silver bases. 37 For the entrance to the tent they made a curtain
embroiderer;[b] 38 and they made five posts with hooks for them. They overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold and made their five bases of bronze.

37 Bezalel[c] made the ark[d] of acacia wood—two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.[c] 2 He overlaid it with pure gold,[e] both inside and out, and made a gold molding around it.
3 He cast four gold rings for it and fastened them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other. 4 Then he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.
5 And he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it.
6 He made the atonement cover[f] of pure gold—two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.[d] 7 Then he made two cherubim[g] out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover. 8 He made one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; at the two ends he made them of one piece with the cover.
9 The cherubim had their wings spread upward, overshadowing[h] the cover with them. The cherubim faced each other, looking toward the cover.[i]

The Table

10 They[e] made the table[j] of acacia wood—two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.[f] 11 Then they overlaid it with pure gold[k] and made a gold molding around it. 12 They also made around it a rim a hand-breadth[g] wide and put a gold molding on the rim. 13 They cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners, where the four legs were.
14 The rings[l] were put close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table. 15 The poles for carrying the table were made of acacia wood and were overlaid with gold. 16 And they made from pure gold the articles for the table—its plates and dishes and bowls and its pitchers for the pouring out of drink offerings.

17 They made the lampstand[m] of pure gold and hammered it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms were of one piece with it.
18 Six branches extended from the sides of the lampstand—three on one side and three on the other. 19 Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms were on one branch, three on the next branch and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand. 20 And on the lampstand were four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms. 21 One bud was under the first pair of branches extending from the lamp-stand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair—six branches in all. 22 The buds and the branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.[n] 23 They made its seven lamps,[o] as well as its wick trimmers and trays, of pure gold. 24 They made the lampstand and all its accessories from one talent[h] of pure gold.

25They made the altar of incense[a] out of acacia wood. It was square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high[i]—its horns[b] of one piece with it.
26They overlaid the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it. 27They made two gold rings[c] below the molding—two on opposite sides—to hold the poles used to carry it. 28They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.[d] 29They also made the sacred anointing oil[e] and the pure, fragrant incense[f]—the work of a perfumer.

38 They[j] built the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, three cubits[k] high; it was square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.[l] 2They made a horn at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar were of one piece, and they overlaid the altar with bronze.[g] 3They made all its utensils[h] of bronze—its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks and firepans. 4They made a grating for the altar, a bronze network, to be under its ledge, halfway up the altar. 5They cast bronze rings to hold the poles for the four corners of the bronze grating. 6They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. 7They inserted the poles into the rings so they would be on the sides of the altar for carrying it. They made it hollow, out of boards.

8They made the bronze basin[i] and its bronze stand from the mirrors of the women[j] who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

38:9-20pp — Ex 27:9-19

9Next they made the courtyard. The south side was a hundred cubits[m] long and had curtains of finely twisted linen, 10with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts. 11The north side was also a hundred cubits long and had twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.
12The west end was fifty cubits[n] wide and had curtains, with ten posts and ten bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts. 13The east end, toward the sunrise, was also fifty cubits wide.
14Curtains fifteen cubits[o] long were on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases, 15and curtains fifteen cubits long were on the other side of the entrance to the courtyard, with three posts and three bases. 16All the curtains around the courtyard were of finely twisted linen. 17The bases for the posts were bronze. The hooks and bands on the posts were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver; so all the posts of the courtyard had silver bands.
18The curtain for the entrance to the courtyard was of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen—the work of an embroiderer. It was twenty cubits[p] long and, like the curtains of the courtyard, five cubits[q] high, 19with four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks and bands were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver. 20All the tent pegs[k] of the tabernacle and of the surrounding courtyard were bronze.

The Materials Used

21These are the amounts of the materials used for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony,[l] which were recorded at Moses' command by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar[m] son of Aaron, the priest. 22(Bezalel[n] son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything the LORD commanded Moses; 23with him was Oholiab[o] son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan—a craftsman and designer, and an embroiderer in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen.) 24The total amount of the gold from the wave offering used for all the work on the sanctuary[p] was 29 talents and 730 shekels,[r] according to the sanctuary shekel.[q] 25The silver obtained from those of the community who were counted in the census[r] was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels,[s] according to the sanctuary

[illegible]

29The bronze from the wave offering was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels.[w] 30They used it to make the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grating and all its utensils, 31the bases for the surrounding courtyard and those for its entrance and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and those for the surrounding courtyard.

The Priestly Garments

39 From the blue, purple and scarlet yarn they made woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary. They also made sacred garments for Aaron, as the LORD commanded Moses.

2They[x] made the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen. 3They hammered out thin sheets of gold and cut strands to be worked into the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen—the work of a skilled craftsman. 4They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached to two of its corners, so it could be fastened. 5Its skillfully woven waistband was like it—of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen, as the LORD commanded Moses.
6They mounted the onyx stones in gold filigree settings and engraved them like a seal with the names of the sons of Israel. 7Then they fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

39:8-21pp — Ex 28:15-28

8They fashioned the breastpiece—the work of a skilled craftsman.
They made it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen. 9It was square—a span[y] long and a span wide—and folded double. 10Then they mounted four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there was a ruby, a topaz and a beryl; 11in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire[z] and an emerald; 12in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst; 13in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper.[a] They were mounted in gold filigree settings. 14There were twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.[k] 15For the breastpiece they made braided chains of pure gold, like a rope. 16They made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and fastened the rings to two of the corners of the breastpiece. 17They fastened the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece, 18and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front. 19They made two gold rings and attached them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.
20Then they made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod. 21They tied the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband so that the breastpiece would not swing out from the ephod—as the LORD commanded Moses.

22They made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth—the work of a weaver— 23with an opening in the center of the robe like the opening of a collar,[b] and a band around this opening, so that it would not tear. 24They made pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen around the hem of the robe. 25 And they made bells of pure gold and attached them around the hem between the pomegranates. 26 The bells and pomegranates alternated around the hem of the robe to be worn for ministering, as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 For Aaron and his sons, they made tunics of fine linen[a]—the work of a weaver— 28 and the turban[b] of fine linen, the linen headbands and the undergarments of finely twisted linen. 29 The sash was of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn—the work of an embroiderer—as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 They made the plate, the sacred diadem, out of pure gold and engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.[c] 31 Then they fastened a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban,[d] as the LORD commanded Moses.

Moses Inspects the Tabernacle

39:32-41pp — Ex 35:10-19

32 So all the work on the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.[e] 33 Then they brought the tabernacle[f] to Moses: the tent and all its furnishings, its clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases; 34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of hides of sea cows[c] and the shielding curtain; 35 the ark of the Testimony[g] with its poles and the atonement cover; 36 the table[h] with all its articles and the bread of the Presence;[i] 37 the pure gold lampstand[j] with its row of lamps and all its accessories,[k] and the oil[l] for the light; 38 the gold altar,[m] the anointing oil,[n] the fragrant incense,[o] and the curtain[p] for the entrance to the tent; 39 the bronze altar[q] with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the basin[r] with its stand; 40 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;[s] the ropes and tent pegs for the courtyard; all the furnishings for the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting; 41 and the woven garments[t] worn for ministering in the sanctuary, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when serving as priests.

42 The Israelites had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses.[u] 43 Moses inspected the work and saw that they had done it just as the LORD had commanded.[v] So Moses blessed[w] them.

Setting Up the Tabernacle

40 Then the LORD said to Moses: 2 "Set up[x] the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting,[y] on the first day of the first month.[z] 3 Place the ark[a] of the Testimony in it and shield the ark with the curtain. 4 Bring in the table[b] and set out what belongs on it.[c] Then bring in the lampstand[d] and set up its lamps. 5 Place the gold altar[e] of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony and put the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

6 "Place the altar[f] of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting; 7 place the basin[g] between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it. 8 Set up the courtyard[h] around it and put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard.

9 "Take the anointing oil and anoint[i] the tabernacle and everything in it; consecrate it and all its furnishings,[j] and it will be holy. 10 Then anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate[k] the altar, and it will be most holy. 11 Anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate them.

12 "Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting[l] and wash them with water.[m] 13 Then dress Aaron in the sacred garments,[n] anoint him and consecrate[o] him so he may serve me as priest. 14 Bring his sons and dress them in tunics.[p] 15 Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so they may serve me as priests. Their anointing will be to a priesthood that will continue for all generations to come.[q]" 16 Moses did everything just as the LORD commanded[r] him.

17 So the tabernacle[s] was set up on the first day of the first month[t] in the second year. 18 When Moses[u] set up the tabernacle, he put the bases in place, erected the frames,[v] inserted the crossbars and set up the posts. 19 Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering[w] over the tent, as the LORD commanded[x] him.

20 He took the Testimony[y] and placed it in the ark,[z] attached the poles to the ark and put the atonement cover[a] over it. 21 Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle and hung the shielding cur-

24He placed the lampstand[f] in the the LORD commanded[h] him.

26Moses placed the gold altar[i] in the 27and burned fragrant incense on it, as the LORD commanded[j] him. 28Then he put up the curtain[k] at the entrance to 29He set the altar[l] of burnt offering near the entrance to the tabernacle, the burnt offerings and grain offerings,[m] as the LORD commanded[n] him.

30He placed the basin[o] between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing, 31and Moses and Aaron and his sons used it to wash[p] their hands and feet. 32They washed whenever they entered the Tent of Meeting or approached the altar,[q] as the LORD commanded[r] Moses.
33Then Moses set up the courtyard[s] around the tabernacle and altar and put up the curtain[t] at the entrance to the courtyard. And so Moses finished the work.

The Glory of the LORD

34Then the cloud[u] covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory[v] of the LORD filled the tabernacle. 35Moses could not enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud had settled upon it, and the glory[w] of the LORD filled the tabernacle.[x] 36In all the travels of the Israelites, whenever the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle, they would set out;[y] 37but if the cloud did not lift, they did not set out—until the day it lifted. 38So the cloud[z] of the LORD was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel during all their travels.

Leviticus

The Burnt Offering

1 The Lord called to Moses[a] and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting.[b] He said, 2"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When any of you brings an offering to the Lord,[c] bring as your offering an animal from either the herd or the flock.[d] 3" 'If the offering is a burnt offering[e] from the herd,[f] he is to offer a male without defect.[g] He must present it at the entrance to the Tent[h] of Meeting so that it[a] will be acceptable[i] to the Lord.
4He is to lay his hand on the head[j] of the burnt offering,[k] and it will be accepted[l] on his behalf to make atonement[m] for him. 5He is to slaughter[n] the young bull[o] before the Lord, and then Aaron's sons[p] the priests shall bring the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides[q] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 6He is to skin[r] the burnt offering and cut it into pieces.[s] 7The sons of Aaron the priest are to put fire on the altar and arrange wood[t] on the fire. 8Then Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, including the head and the fat,[u] on the burning wood[v] that is on the altar. 9He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water,[w] and the priest is to burn all of it[x] on the altar.[y] It is a burnt offering,[z] an offering made by fire,[a] an aroma pleasing to the Lord.[b] 10" 'If the offering is a burnt offering from the flock, from either the sheep[c] or the goats,[d] he is to offer a male without defect. 11He is to slaughter it at the north side of the altar[e] before the Lord, and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.[f] 12He is to cut it into pieces, and the priest shall arrange them, including the head and the fat,[g] on the burning wood that is on the altar. 13He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water,[h] and the priest is to bring all of it and burn it[i] on the altar.[j] It is a burnt offering,[k] an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the Lord.
14" 'If the offering to the Lord is a burnt offering of birds, he is to offer a dove or a young pigeon.[l] 15The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off the head[m] and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar.[n] 16He is to remove the crop with its contents[b] and throw it to the east side of the altar, where the ashes[o] are.
17He shall tear it open by the wings, not severing it completely,[p] and then the priest shall burn it on the wood[q] that is on the fire on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the Lord.

The Grain Offering

2 " 'When someone brings a grain offering[r] to the Lord, his offering is to be of fine flour.[s] He is to pour oil[t] on it,[u] put incense on it[v] 2and take it to Aaron's sons the priests. The priest shall take a handful of the fine flour[w] and oil, together with all the incense,[x] and burn this as a memorial portion[y] on the altar, an offering made by fire,[z] an aroma pleasing to the Lord.[a] 3The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons;[b] it is a most holy[c] part of the offerings made to the Lord by fire.
4" 'If you bring a grain offering baked in an oven,[d] it is to consist of fine flour: cakes made without yeast and mixed with oil, or[c] wafers[e] made without yeast and spread with oil.[f] 5If your grain offering is prepared on a griddle,[g] it is to be made of fine flour mixed with oil, and without yeast.
6Crumble it and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering. 7If your grain offering is cooked in a pan,[h] it is to be made of salt to all your offerings.

14" 'If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits[i] to the LORD, offer crushed heads of new grain roasted in the fire.
15Put oil and incense[j] on it; it is a grain offering. 16The priest shall burn the memorial portion[k] of the crushed grain and the oil, together with all the incense,[l] as an offering made to the LORD by fire.[m]

The Fellowship Offering

3 " 'If someone's offering is a fellowship offering,[n][a] and he offers an animal from the herd, whether male or female, he is to present before the LORD an animal without defect.[o] 2He is to lay his hand on the head[p] of his offering and slaughter it[q] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.[r] Then Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle[s] the blood against the altar[t] on all sides.[u] 3From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice made to the LORD by fire: all the fat[v] that covers the inner parts[w] or is connected to them, 4both kidneys[x] with the fat around them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.
5Then Aaron's sons[y] are to burn it on the altar[z] on top of the burnt offering[a] that is on the burning wood,[b] as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.[c] 6" 'If he offers an animal from the flock as a fellowship offering[d] to the LORD, he is to offer a male or female without defect. 7If he offers a lamb,[e] he is to present it before the LORD.[f] 8He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it[g] in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides. 9From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice[h] made to the LORD by fire: its fat, the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone, all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them, 10both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys. 11The priest shall burn them on the altar[i] as food,[j] an offering made to the LORD by fire.[k] 12" 'If his offering is a goat,[l] he is to present it before the LORD. 13He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall sprinkle[m] its blood against the altar on all sides.[n] 14From what he offers he is to make this offering to the LORD by fire: all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them, 15both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.[o] 16The priest shall burn them on the altar[p] as food,[q] an offering made by fire, a pleasing aroma.[r] All the fat[s] is the LORD's.[t] 17" 'This is a lasting ordinance[u] for the generations to come,[v] wherever you live:[w] You must not eat any fat or any blood.[x]' "

The Sin Offering

4 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Say to the Israelites: 'When anyone sins unintentionally[y] and does what is for-bidden in any of the LORD's commands[z]— 3" 'If the anointed priest[a] sins,[b] bringing guilt on the people, he must bring to the LORD a young bull[c] without defect[d] as a sin offering[e] for the sin he has committed.[f] 4He is to present the bull at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD.[g] He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the LORD. 5Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood[h] and carry it into the Tent of Meeting. 6He is to dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle[i] some of it seven times before the LORD,[j] in front of the curtain of the sanctuary.[k] 7The priest shall then put some of the blood

The Guilt Offering

14The LORD said to Moses: 15"When a person commits a violation and sins unintentionally[g] in regard to any of the LORD's holy things, he is to bring to the LORD as a penalty[h] a ram[i] from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value in silver, according to the sanctuary shekel.[h][j] It is a guilt offering.[k] 16He must make restitution[l] for what he has failed to do in regard to the holy things, add a fifth of the value[m] to that and give it all to the priest, who will make atonement for him with the ram as a guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.
17"If a person sins and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD's commands, even though he does not know it,[n] he is guilty and will be held responsible.[o] 18He is to bring to the priest as a guilt offering[p] a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the wrong he has committed unintentionally, and he will be forgiven.[q] 19It is a guilt offering; he has been guilty of[i] wrongdoing against the LORD."[r]

6 The LORD said to Moses: 2"If anyone sins and is unfaithful to the LORD[s] by deceiving his neighbor[t] about something entrusted to him or left in his care[u] or stolen, or if he cheats[v] him, 3or if he finds lost property and lies about it,[w] or if he swears falsely,[x] or if he commits any such sin that people may do— 4when he thus sins and becomes guilty, he must return[y] tion, or what was entrusted to him, or the lost property he found, 5or whatever it was he swore falsely about. He must make restitution[z] in full, add a fifth of the value to it and give it all to the owner on the day he presents his guilt offering.[a] 6And as a penalty he must bring to the priest, that is, to the LORD, his guilt offering,[b] a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the

8The LORD said to Moses: 9"Give Aaron and his sons this command:
'These are the regulations for the burnt offering[b]: The burnt offering is to remain on the altar hearth throughout the night, till morning, and the fire must be kept burning on the altar.[c] 10The priest shall then put on his linen clothes,[d] with linen undergarments next to his body,[e] and shall remove the ashes[f] of the burnt offering that the fire has consumed on the altar and place them beside the altar. 11Then he is to take off these clothes and put on others, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a place that is ceremonially clean.[g] 12The fire on the altar must be kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the priest is to add firewood[h] and arrange the burnt offering on the fire and burn the fat[i] of the fellowship offerings[j][i] on it. 13The fire must be kept burning on the altar continuously; it must not go out.

14" 'These are the regulations for the grain offering:[k] Aaron's sons are to bring it before the LORD, in front of the altar. 15The priest is to take a handful of fine flour and oil, together with all the incense[l] on the grain offering,[m] and burn the memorial portion[n] on the altar as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.
16Aaron and his sons[o] shall eat the rest[p] of it, but it is to be eaten without yeast[q] in a holy place;[r] they are to eat it in the courtyard[s] of the Tent of Meeting.[t] 17It must not be baked with yeast; I have given it as their share[u] of the offerings made to me by fire.[v] Like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is most holy.[w] 18Any male descendant of Aaron may eat it.[x] It is his regular share[y] of the offerings made to the LORD by fire for the generations to come.[z] Whatever touches them will become holy.[k][a]' "

19The LORD also said to Moses, 20"This is the offering Aaron and his sons are to bring to the LORD on the day he[l] is anointed:[b] a tenth of an ephah[m][c] of fine flour[d] as a regular grain offering,[e] half of it in the morning and half in the evening. 21Prepare it with oil on a griddle;[f] bring it well-mixed and present the grain offering broken[n] in pieces as an aroma pleasing to the LORD. 22The son who is to succeed him as anointed priest[g] shall prepare it. It is the LORD's regular share and is to be burned completely.[h] 23Every grain offering of a priest shall be burned completely; it must not be eaten."

The Sin Offering

Aaron and his sons: 'These are the regulations for the sin offering:[i] The sin offering is to be slaughtered before the LORD[j] in the place[k] the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is most holy. 26The priest who offers it shall eat it; it is to be eaten in a holy place,[l] in the courtyard[m] of the Tent of Meeting.[n] 27Whatever touches any of the flesh will become holy,[o] and if any of the blood is spattered on a garment, you must wash it in a holy place. 28The clay pot[p] the meat is cooked in must be broken; but if it is cooked in a bronze pot, the pot is to be scoured and rinsed with water. 29Any male in a priest's family may eat it;[q] it is most holy.[r] 30But any sin offering whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement[s] in the Holy Place[t] must not be eaten; it must be burned.[u]

guilt offering,[v] which is most holy: 2The guilt offering is to be slaughtered in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, and its blood is to be sprinkled against the altar on all sides.
3All its fat[w] shall be offered: the fat tail and the fat that covers the inner parts, 4both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which is to be removed with the kidneys.[x] 5The priest shall burn them on the altar[y] as an offering made to the LORD by fire. It is a guilt offering. 6Any male in a priest's family may eat it,[z] but it must be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.[a]

7" 'The same law applies to both the sin offering[b] and the guilt offering:[c] They belong to the priest[d] who makes atonement with them.[e] 8The priest the sons of Aaron.

The Fellowship Offering

fellowship offering[a] a person may present to the LORD: 12" 'If he offers it as an expression of thankfulness, then along with this thank offering[e] he is to offer cakes[f] of bread made without yeast[g] and mixed with oil, wafers[h] made without yeast and spread with oil,[i] and cakes of fine flour well-kneaded and mixed with oil.
13Along with his fellowship offering of thanksgiving[j] he is to present an offering with cakes of bread made with yeast.[k] 14He is to bring one of each kind as an offering, a contribution to the LORD; it belongs to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offerings. 15The meat of his fellowship offering of thanksgiving must be eaten on the day it is offered; he must leave none of it till morning.[l] 16" 'If, however, his offering is the result of a vow[m] or is a freewill offering,[n] the sacrifice shall be eaten on the day he offers it, but anything left over may be eaten on the next day.[o] 17Any meat of the sacrifice left over till the third day must be burned up.[p] 18If any meat of the fellowship offering[q] is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted.[r] It will not be credited[s] to the one who offered it, for it is impure; the person who eats any of it will be held responsible.[t] 19" 'Meat that touches anything ceremonially unclean must not be eaten; it must be burned up. As for other meat, anyone ceremonially clean may eat it.
20But if anyone who is unclean[u] eats any meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.[v] 21If anyone touches something unclean[w]—whether human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean, detestable thing—and then eats any of the meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.' "

Eating Fat and Blood Forbidden

the Israelites: 'Do not eat any of the fat of cattle, sheep or goats.[x] 24The fat of an animal found dead or torn by wild animals[y] may be used for any other purpose, but you must not eat it.
25Anyone who eats the fat of an animal from which an offering by fire may be[b] made to the LORD must be cut off from his people. 26And wherever you live, you must not eat the blood[z] of any bird or animal. 27If anyone eats blood,[a] that person must be cut off from his people.' "

The Priests' Share

28The LORD said to Moses, 29"Say to the Israelites: 'Anyone who brings a fellowship offering to the LORD is to bring part of it as his sacrifice to the LORD. 30With his own hands he is to bring the offering made to the LORD by fire; he is to bring the fat, together with the breast, and wave the breast before the LORD as a wave offering.[b] 31The priest shall burn the fat on the altar,[c] but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons.[d] 32You are to give the right thigh of your fellowship offerings to the priest as a contribution.[e] 33The son of Aaron who offers the blood and the fat of the fellowship offering shall have the right thigh as his share. 34From the fellowship offerings of the Israelites, I have taken the breast that is waved and the thigh[f] that is presented and have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons[g] as their regular share from the Israelites.' "
35This is the portion of the offerings made to the LORD by fire that were allotted to Aaron and his sons on the day they were presented to serve the LORD as priests. 36On the day they were anointed,[h] the LORD commanded that the Israelites give this to them as their regular share for the generations to come.

37These, then, are the regulations for the burnt offering,[i] the grain offering,[j] the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering[k] and the fellowship offering, 38which the LORD gave Moses[l] on Mount Sinai[m] on the day he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to the LORD,[n] in the Desert of Sinai.

The Ordination of Aaron and His Sons

8:1-36pp — Ex 29:1-37

8 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Bring Aaron and his sons,[a] their garments,[b] the anointing oil,[c] the bull for the sin offering,[d] the two rams[e] and the basket containing bread made without yeast,[f] 3and gather the entire assembly[g] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting." 4Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the assembly gathered at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
5Moses said to the assembly, "This is what the LORD has commanded to be done.[h]" 6Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward and washed them with water.[i] 7He put the tunic on Aaron, tied the sash around him, clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him. He also tied the ephod to him by its skillfully woven waistband; so it was fastened on him.[j] 8He placed the breastpiece[k] on him and put the Urim and Thummim[l] in the breast-piece. 9Then he placed the turban[m] on Aaron's head and set the gold plate, the sacred diadem,[n] on the front of it, as the LORD commanded Moses.[o] 10Then Moses took the anointing oil[p] and anointed[q] the tabernacle[r] and everything in it, and so consecrated them. 11He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times, anointing the altar and all its utensils and the basin with its stand, to consecrate them.[s] 12He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed[t] him to consecrate him.[u] 13Then he brought Aaron's sons[v] forward, put tunics[w] on them, tied sashes around them and put headbands on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.[x] 14He then presented the bull[y] for the sin offering,[z] and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.[a] 15Moses slaughtered the bull and took some of the blood,[b] and with his finger he put it on all the horns of the altar[c] to purify the altar.[d] He poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. So he consecrated it to make atonement for it.[e] 16Moses also took all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, and both kidneys and their fat, and burned it on the altar. 17But the bull with its hide and its flesh and its offal[f] he burned up outside the camp,[g] as the LORD commanded Moses.
18He then presented the ram[h] for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head. 19Then Moses slaughtered the ram and sprinkled the blood against the altar on all sides. 20He cut the ram into pieces and burned the head, the pieces and the fat.[i] 21He washed the inner parts and the legs with water and burned the whole ram on the altar as a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire, as the LORD commanded Moses.
22He then presented the other ram, the ram for the ordination,[j] and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.[k] 23Moses slaughtered the ram and took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.[l] 24Moses also brought Aaron's sons forward and put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Then he sprinkled blood against the altar on all sides.[m] 25He took the fat[n], the fat tail, all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys and their fat and the right thigh. 26Then from the basket of bread made without yeast, which was before the LORD, he took a cake of bread, and one made with oil, and a wafer;[o] he put these on the fat portions and on the right thigh. 27He put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and waved them before the LORD[p] as a wave offering. 28Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering as an ordination offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire. 29He also took the breast—Moses' share of the ordination ram[q]—and waved it before the LORD as a wave offering, as the LORD commanded Moses.
30Then Moses[r] took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood from the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments[s] and on his sons and their garments. So he consecrated[t] Aaron and his garments and his sons and their garments.
31Moses then said to Aaron and his sons, "Cook the meat at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting[u] and eat it there with the bread from the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying,[q] 'Aaron and his sons are to eat it.' 32Then burn up the rest of the meat and to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are seven days.[a] 34What has been done today was commanded by the LORD[b] to make atonement for you. 35You must stay at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days and do what the LORD requires,[c] so you will not die; for that is what I have been commanded." 36So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD commanded through Moses.

The Priests Begin Their Ministry

9 On the eighth day[d] Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders[e] of Israel. 2He said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for your sin offering and a ram for your burnt offering, both without defect, and present them before the LORD. 3Then say to the Israelites: 'Take a male goat[f] for a sin offering,[g] a calf[h] and a lamb[i]—both a year old and without defect—for a burnt offering, 4and an ox[j][a] and a ram for a fellowship offering[b][k] to sacrifice before the LORD, together with a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.[l]' " 5They took the things Moses commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and the entire assembly came near and stood before the LORD. 6Then Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD[m] may appear to you." 7Moses said to Aaron, "Come to the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and the people;[n] sacrifice the offering that is for the people and make atonement for them, as the LORD has commanded.[o]" 8So Aaron came to the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin offering[p] for himself. 9His sons brought the blood to him,[q] and he dipped his finger into the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.[r] 10On the altar he burned the fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver from the sin offering, as the LORD commanded Moses; 11the flesh and the hide[t] he burned up outside the camp.[u] 12Then he slaughtered the burnt offering.[v] His sons handed him the blood,[w] and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides. 13They handed him the burnt offering piece by piece, including the head, and he burned them on the altar.[x] 14He washed the inner parts and the legs and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.[y] 15Aaron then brought the offering that was for the people.[z] He took the goat for the people's sin offering and slaughtered it and offered it for a sin offering as he did with the first one.
16He brought the burnt offering and offered it in the prescribed way.[a] 17He also brought the grain offering, took a handful of it and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning's burnt offering.[b] 18He slaughtered the ox and the ram as the fellowship offering for the people.[c] His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides. 19But the fat portions of the ox and the ram—the fat tail, the layer of fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver— 20these they laid on the breasts, and then Aaron burned the fat on the altar. 21Aaron waved the breasts and the right thigh before the LORD as a wave offering,[d] as Moses commanded.
22Then Aaron lifted his hands toward the people and blessed them.[e] And having sacrificed the sin offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offering, he stepped down.
23Moses and Aaron then went into the Tent of Meeting.[f] When they came out, they blessed the people; and the glory of the LORD[g] appeared to all the people. 24Fire[h] came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted for joy and fell face-down.[i]

The Death of Nadab and Abihu

10 Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu[j] took their censers,[k] put fire in them[l] and added incense;[m] and they offered unauthorized fire before the LORD,[n] contrary to his command.[o] 2So fire came out[p] from the presence of the LORD and consumed them,[q] and they died before the LORD.[r] 3Moses then said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke of when he said:

" 'Among those who approach me[s] I will show myself holy;[t] in the sight of all the people I will be honored.[a]' "

Aaron remained silent.
4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan,[b] sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel,[c] and said to them, "Come here; carry your cousins outside the camp,[d] away from the front of the sanctuary.[e]" 5 So they came and carried them, still in their tunics,[f] outside the camp, as Moses ordered.
6 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar,[g] "Do not let your hair become unkempt,[t][h] and do not tear your clothes,[i] or you will die and the LORD will be angry with the whole community.[j] But your relatives, all the house of Israel, may mourn[k] for those the LORD has destroyed by fire.
7 Do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting[l] or you will die, because the LORD's anointing oil[m] is on you." So they did as Moses said.
8 Then the LORD said to Aaron, 9 "You and your sons are not to drink wine[n] or other fermented drink[o] whenever you go into the Tent of Meeting, or you will die. This is a lasting ordinance[p] for the generations to come. 10 You must distinguish between the holy and the common, between the unclean and the clean,[q] 11 and you must teach[r] the Israelites all the decrees the LORD has given them through Moses.[s]" 12 Moses said to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the grain offering[t] left over from the offerings made to the LORD by fire and eat it prepared without yeast beside the altar,[u] for it is most holy. 13 Eat it in a holy place,[v] because it is your share and your sons' share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire; for so I have been commanded.[w] 14 But you and your sons and your daughters may eat the breast[x] that was waved and the thigh that was presented. Eat them in a ceremonially clean place;[y] they have been given to you and your children as your share of the Israelites' fellowship offerings.[a] 15 The thigh[z] that was presented and the breast that was waved must be brought with the fat portions of the offerings made by fire, to be waved before the LORD as a wave offering.[a] This will be the regular share for you and your children, as the LORD has commanded." 16 When Moses inquired about the goat of the sin offering[b] and found that it had been burned up, he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, and asked, 17 "Why didn't you eat the sin offering[c] in the sanctuary area? It is most holy; it was given to you to take away the guilt[d] of the community by making atonement for them before the LORD. 18 Since its blood was not taken into the Holy Place,[e] you should have eaten the goat in the sanctuary area, as I commanded.[f]" 19 Aaron replied to Moses, "Today they sacrificed their sin offering and their burnt offering[g] before the LORD, but such things as this have happened to me. Would the LORD have been pleased if I had eaten the sin offering today?" 20 When Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

Clean and Unclean Food

11 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 2 "Say to the Israelites:
'Of all the animals that live on land, these are the ones you may eat:[h] 3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof completely divided and that chews the cud.
4 " 'There are some that only chew the cud or only have a split hoof, but you must not eat them.[i] The camel, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is ceremonially unclean for you. 5 The coney,[v] though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you. 6 The rabbit, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you. 7 And the pig,[j] though it has a split hoof completely divided, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you. 8 You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you.[k] 9 " 'Of all the creatures living in the water of the seas and the streams, you may eat any that have fins and scales.
10 But all creatures in the seas or streams that do not have fins and scales—whether among all the swarming things or among all the other living creatures in the water—you are to detest.[l] 11 And since you are to detest them, you must not eat their meat and you must detest their carcasses.[m] 12 Anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales is to be detestable to you.[n] 13 " 'These are the birds you are to detest and not eat because they are detestable: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture, 14the red kite, any kind[a] of black kite, 15any kind of raven,[b] 16the horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk, 17the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl, 18the white owl,[c] the desert owl, the osprey, 19the stork,[d] any kind[e] of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.[w][f]

20" 'All flying insects that walk on all fours are to be detestable to you.[g] 21There are, however, some winged creatures that walk on all fours that you may eat: those that have jointed legs for hopping on the ground. 22Of these you may eat any kind of locust,[h] katydid, cricket or grasshopper. 23But all other winged creatures that have four legs you are to detest.

24" 'You will make yourselves unclean by these;[i] whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening.[j] 25Whoever picks up one of their carcasses must wash his clothes,[k] and he will be unclean till evening.[l]

26" 'Every animal that has a split hoof not completely divided or that does not chew the cud is unclean for you; whoever touches the carcass of any of them will be unclean. 27Of all the animals that walk on all fours, those that walk on their paws are unclean for you; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening. 28Anyone who picks up their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.[m] They are unclean for you.

29" 'Of the animals that move about on the ground, these are unclean for you:[n] the weasel, the rat,[o] any kind of great lizard, 30the gecko, the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink and the chameleon. 31Of all those that move along the ground, these are unclean for you. Whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean till evening.
32When one of them dies and falls on something, that article, whatever its use, will be unclean, whether it is made of wood, cloth, hide or sackcloth.[p] Put it in water; it will be unclean till evening, and then it will be clean. 33If one of them falls into a clay pot, everything in it will be unclean, and you must break the pot.[q] 34Any food that could be eaten but has water on it from such a pot is unclean, and any liquid that could be drunk from it is unclean. 35Anything that one of their carcasses falls on becomes unclean; an oven or cooking pot must be broken up. They are unclean, and you are to regard them as unclean. 36A spring, however, or a cistern for collecting water remains clean, but anyone who touches one of these carcasses is unclean. 37If a carcass falls on any seeds that are to be planted, they remain clean. 38But if water has been put on the seed and a carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.

39" 'If an animal that you are allowed to eat dies,[r] anyone who touches the carcass[s] will be unclean till evening.
40Anyone who eats some of the carcass[t] must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.[u] Anyone who picks up the carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

41" 'Every creature that moves about on the ground is detestable; it is not to be eaten. 42You are not to eat any creature that moves about on the ground, whether it moves on its belly or walks on all fours or on many feet; it is detestable. 43Do not defile yourselves by any of these creatures.[v] Do not make yourselves unclean by means of them or be made unclean by them. 44I am the LORD your God;[w] consecrate yourselves[x] and be holy,[y] because I am holy.[z] Do not make yourselves unclean by any creature that moves about on the ground.[a] 45I am the LORD who brought you up out of Egypt[b] to be your God;[c] therefore be holy, because I am holy.[d]

46" 'These are the regulations concerning animals, birds, every living thing that moves in the water and every creature that moves about on the ground. 47You must distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between living creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten.[e] ' "

Purification After Childbirth

12 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Say to the Israelites: 'A woman who becomes pregnant and gives birth to a son will be ceremonially unclean for seven days, just as she is unclean during her monthly period.[f] 3On the eighth day[g] the boy is to be circumcised.[h] 4Then the woman must wait thirty-three days to be purified from her bleeding. She must not touch anything sacred or go to the sanctuary until the days of her purification are over. 5If she gives birth to a daughter, for two weeks the woman will be unclean, as during her period. Then she must wait sixty-six days to be purified from her bleeding.

6" 'When the days of her purification for a son or daughter are over,[a] she is to bring to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting a year-old lamb[b] for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a dove for a sin offering.[c] 7He shall offer them before the LORD to make atonement for her, and then she will be ceremonially clean from her flow of blood.

" 'These are the regulations for the woman who gives birth to a boy or a girl. 8If she cannot afford a lamb, she is to bring two doves or two young pigeons,[d] one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering.[e] In this way the priest will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.[f] ' "

Regulations About Infectious Skin Diseases

13 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 2"When anyone has a swelling[g] or a rash or a bright spot[h] on his skin that may become an infectious skin disease,[x][i] he must be brought to Aaron the priest[j] or to one of his sons[y] who is a priest. 3The priest is to examine the sore on his skin, and if the hair in the sore has turned white and the sore appears to be more than skin deep,[z] it is an infectious skin disease. When the priest examines him, he shall pronounce him ceremonially unclean.[k] 4If the spot[l] on his skin is white but does not appear to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.[m] 5On the seventh day[n] the priest is to examine him,[o] and if he sees that the sore is unchanged and has not spread in the skin, he is to keep him in isolation another seven days. 6On the seventh day the priest is to examine him again, and if the sore has faded and has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean;[p] it is only a rash. The man must wash his clothes,[q] and he will be clean.[r] 7But if the rash does spread in his skin after he has shown himself to the priest to be pronounced clean, he must appear before the priest again.[s] 8The priest is to examine him, and if the rash has spread in the skin, he shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious disease.

9"When anyone has an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to the priest. 10The priest is to examine him, and if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white and if there is raw flesh in the swelling, 11it is a chronic skin disease[t] and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He is not to put him in isolation, because he is already unclean.

12"If the disease breaks out all over his skin and, so far as the priest can see, it covers all the skin of the infected person from head to foot, 13the priest is to examine him, and if the disease has covered his whole body, he shall pronounce that person clean. Since it has all turned white, he is clean. 14But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean. 15When the priest sees the raw flesh, he shall pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; he has an infectious disease.[u] 16Should the raw flesh change and turn white, he must go to the priest. 17The priest is to examine him, and if the sores have turned white, the priest shall pronounce the infected person clean;[v] then he will be clean.

18"When someone has a boil[w] on his skin and it heals, 19and in the place where the boil was, a white swelling or reddish-white[x] spot[y] appears, he must present himself to the priest. 20The priest is to examine it, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease[z] that has broken out where the boil was. 21But if, when the priest examines it, there is no white hair in it and it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days. 22If it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is infectious. 23But if the spot is unchanged and has not spread, it is only a scar from the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.[a] 24"When someone has a burn on his skin and a reddish-white or white spot appears in the raw flesh of the burn, 25the priest is to examine the spot, and if the hair in it has turned white, and it appears to be more than skin deep, it is an infectious disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.[a] [26]But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the spot and if it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.[b] [27]On the seventh day the priest is to examine him,[c] and if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease. [28]If, however, the spot is unchanged and has not spread in the skin but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scar from the burn.[d]

[29]"If a man or woman has a sore on the head[e] or on the chin, [30]the priest is to examine the sore, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce that person unclean; it is an itch, an infectious disease of the head or chin. [31]But if, when the priest examines this kind of sore, it does not seem to be more than skin deep and there is no black hair in it, then the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.[f] [32]On the seventh day the priest is to examine the sore,[g] and if the itch has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it and it does not appear to be more than skin deep, [33]he must be shaved except for the diseased area, and the priest is to keep him in isolation another seven days. [34]On the seventh day the priest is to examine the itch,[h] and if it has not spread in the skin and appears to be no more than skin deep, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.[i] [35]But if the itch does spread in the skin after he is pronounced clean, [36]the priest is to examine him, and if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair; the person is unclean.[j] [37]If, however, in his judgment it is unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

[38]"When a man or woman has white spots on the skin, [39]the priest is to examine them, and if the spots are dull white, it is a harmless rash that has broken out on the skin; that person is clean.

[40]"When a man has lost his hair and is bald,[k] he is clean. [41]If he has lost his hair from the front of his scalp and has a bald forehead, he is clean. [42]But if he has a reddish-white sore on his bald head or forehead, it is an infectious disease breaking out on his head or forehead. [43]The priest is to examine him, and if the swollen sore on his head or forehead is reddish-white like an infectious skin disease, [44]the man is diseased and is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean because of the sore on his head.

[45]"The person with such an infectious disease must wear torn clothes,[l] let his hair be unkempt,[a] cover the lower part of his face[m] and cry out, 'Unclean! Unclean!'[n] [46]As long as he has the infection he remains unclean. He must live alone; he must live outside the camp.[o]

Regulations About Mildew

[47]"If any clothing is contaminated with mildew—any woolen or linen clothing, [48]any woven or knitted material of linen or wool, any leather or anything made of leather— [49]and if the contamination in the clothing, or leather, or woven or knitted material, or any leather article, is greenish or reddish, it is a spreading mildew and must be shown to the priest.[p] [50]The priest is to examine the mildew[q] and isolate the affected article for seven days. [51]On the seventh day he is to examine it,[r] and if the mildew has spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather, whatever its use, it is a destructive mildew; the article is unclean.[s] [52]He must burn up the clothing, or the woven or knitted material of wool or linen, or any leather article that has the contamination in it, because the mildew is destructive; the article must be burned up.[t]

[53]"But if, when the priest examines it, the mildew has not spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather article, [54]he shall order that the contaminated article be washed. Then he is to isolate it for another seven days. [55]After the affected article has been washed, the priest is to examine it, and if the mildew has not changed its appearance, even though it has not spread, it is unclean. Burn it with fire, whether the mildew has affected one side or the other. [56]If, when the priest examines it, the mildew has faded after the article has been washed, reappears in the clothing, or in the wo-

Cleansing From Infectious Skin Diseases

14 The LORD said to Moses, 2"These are the regulations for the diseased person at the time of his ceremonial cleansing, when he is brought to the priest:[a] 3The priest is to go outside the camp and examine him.[b] If the person has been healed of his infectious skin disease,[b][c] 4the priest shall order that two live clean birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop[d] be brought for the one to be cleansed.[e] 5Then the priest shall order that one of the birds be killed over fresh water in a clay pot.[f] 6He is then to take the live bird and dip it, together with the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn and the hyssop, into the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.[g] 7Seven times[h] he shall sprinkle[i] the one to be cleansed of the infectious disease and pronounce him clean. Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields.[j] 8"The person to be cleansed must wash his clothes,[k] shave off all his hair and bathe with water;[l] then he will be ceremonially clean.[m] After this he may come into the camp,[n] but he must stay outside his tent for seven days. 9On the seventh day[o] he must shave off all his hair;[p] he must shave his head, his beard, his eyebrows and the rest of his hair. He must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water, and he will be clean.[q]

10"On the eighth day[r] he must bring two male lambs and one ewe lamb[s] a year old, each without defect, along with three-tenths of an ephah[c][t] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering,[u] and one log[d] of oil.[v] 11The priest who pronounces him clean shall present[w] both the one to be cleansed and his offerings before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.[x] 12"Then the priest is to take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering,[y] along with the log of oil; he shall wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.[z] 13He is to slaughter the lamb in the holy place[a] where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered. Like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest;[b] it is most holy. 14The priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.[c] 15The priest shall then take some of the log of oil, pour it in the palm of his own left hand,[d] 16dip his right forefinger into the oil in his palm, and with his finger sprinkle some of it before the LORD seven times.[e] 17The priest is to put some of the oil remaining in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the

toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.[f] 18The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed[g] and make atonement for him before the LORD.

19"Then the priest is to sacrifice the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his un-cleanness.[h] After that, the priest shall slaughter the burnt offering 20and offer it on the altar, together with the grain offering, and make atonement for him,[i] and he will be clean.[j]

21"If, however, he is poor[k] and cannot afford these,[l] he must take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, together with a tenth of an ephah[e] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, a log of oil, 22and two doves or two young pigeons,[m] which he can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.[n]

23"On the eighth day he must bring them for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,[o] before the LORD.[p] 24The priest is to take

Cleansing From Mildew

[33]The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, [34]"When you enter the land of Canaan,[l] which I am giving you as your possession,[m] and I put a spreading mildew in a house in that land, [35]the owner of the house must go and tell the priest, 'I have seen something that looks like mildew in my house.' [36]The priest is to order the house to be emptied before he goes in to examine the mildew, so that nothing in the house will be pronounced unclean. After this the priest is to go in and inspect the house. [37]He is to examine the mildew on the walls, and if it has greenish or reddish[n] depressions that appear to be deeper than the surface of the wall, [38]the priest shall go out the doorway of the house and close it up for seven days.[o] [39]On the seventh day[p] the priest shall return to inspect the house. If the mildew has spread on the walls, [40]he is to order that the contaminated stones be torn out and thrown into an unclean place outside the town.[q] [41]He must have all the inside walls of the house scraped and the material that is scraped off dumped into an unclean place outside the town. [42]Then they are to take other stones to replace these and take new clay and plaster the house.

[43]"If the mildew reappears in the house after the stones have been torn out and the house scraped and plastered, [44]the priest is to go and examine it and, if the mildew has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew; the house is unclean.[r] [45]It must be torn down—its stones, timbers and all the plaster—and taken out of the town to an unclean place.

[46]"Anyone who goes into the house while it is closed up will be unclean till evening.[s] [47]Anyone who sleeps or eats in the house must wash his clothes.[t]

[48]"But if the priest comes to examine it and the mildew has not spread after the house has been plastered, he shall pronounce the house clean,[u] because the mildew is gone. [49]To purify the house he is to take two birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop.[v] [50]He shall kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot.[w] [51]Then he is to take the cedar wood, the hyssop,[x] the scarlet yarn and the live bird, dip them into the blood of the dead bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.[y] [52]He shall purify the house with the bird's blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop and the scarlet yarn. [53]Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields[z] outside the town. In this way he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.[a]"

[54]These are the regulations for any infectious skin disease,[b] for an itch, [55]for mildew[c] in clothing or in a house, [56]and for a swelling, a rash or a bright spot,[d] [57]to determine when something is clean or unclean.

These are the regulations for infectious skin diseases and mildew.[e]

Discharges Causing Uncleanness

The Day of Atonement

16:2-34pp — Lev 23:26-32; Nu 29:7-11

16 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron who died when they approached the LORD.[a] 2The LORD said to Moses: "Tell your brother Aaron not to come whenever he chooses[b] into the Most Holy Place[c] behind the curtain[d] in front of the atonement cover[e] on the ark, or else he will die, because I appear[f] in the cloud[g] over the atonement cover.

3"This is how Aaron is to enter the sanctuary area:[h] with a young bull[i] for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.[j] 4He is to put on the sacred linen tunic,[k] with linen undergarments next to his body; he is to tie the linen sash around him and put on the linen turban.[l] These are sacred garments;[m] so he must bathe himself with water[n] before he puts them on.[o] 5From the Israelite community[p] he is to take two male goats[q] for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

6"Aaron is to offer the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household.[r] 7Then he is to take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 8He is to cast lots[s] for the two goats—one lot for the LORD and the other for the scapegoat.[h8] [t] 9Aaron shall bring the goat whose lot falls to the LORD and sacrifice it for a sin offering. 10But the goat chosen by lot as the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD to be used for making atonement[u] by sending it into the desert as a scapegoat.

11"Aaron shall bring the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household,[v] and he is to slaughter the bull for his own sin offering. 12He is to take a censer full of burning coals[w] from the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of finely ground fragrant incense[x] and take them behind the curtain. 13He is to put the incense on the fire before the LORD, and the smoke of the incense will conceal the atonement cover[y] above the Testimony, so that he will not die.[z] 14He is to take some of the bull's blood[a] and with his finger sprinkle it on the front of the atonement cover; then he shall sprinkle some of it with his finger seven times before the atonement cover.[b]

15"He shall then slaughter the goat for the sin offering for the people[c] and take its blood behind the curtain[d] and do with it as he did with the bull's blood: He shall sprinkle[e] it on the atonement cover and in front of it. 16In this way he will make atonement[f] for the Most Holy Place[g] because of the uncleanness and rebellion of the Israelites, whatever their sins have been. He is to do the same for the Tent of Meeting,[h] which is among them in the midst of their uncleanness. 17No one is to be in the Tent of Meeting from the time Aaron goes in to make atonement in the Most Holy Place until he comes out, having made atonement for himself, his household and the whole community of Israel.

18"Then he shall come out to the altar[i] that is before the LORD and make atonement for it. He shall take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on all the horns of the altar.[j] 19He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse it and to consecrate it from the uncleanness of the Israelites.[k]

20"When Aaron has finished making atonement for the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting and the altar, he shall bring forward the live goat.[l] 21He is to lay both hands on the head of the live goat[m] and confess[n] over it all the wickedness and rebellion of the Israelites—all their sins—and put them on the goat's head. He shall send the goat away into the desert in the care of a man appointed for the task. 22The goat will carry on itself all their sins[o] to a solitary place; and the man shall release it in the desert.

23"Then Aaron is to go into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments[p] he put on before he entered the Most Holy Place, and he is to leave them there.[q] 24He shall bathe himself with water in a holy place[r] and put on his regular garments.[s] Then he shall come out and sacrifice the burnt offering for himself and the burnt offering for the people,[t] to make atonement for himself and for the people.[u] 25He shall also burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26"The man who releases the goat as a scapegoat[v] must wash his clothes[w] and bathe himself with water;[x] afterward he may come into the camp.

ings, whose blood was brought into the Most Holy Place to make atonement, must be taken outside the camp;[a] their hides, flesh and offal are to be burned up. 28The man who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterward he may come into the camp.[b]

29"This is to be a lasting ordinance[c] for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month[d] you must deny yourselves[i][e] and not do any work[f]—whether native-born[g] or an alien living among you— 30because on this day atonement will be made[h] for you, to cleanse you. Then, before the LORD, you will be clean from all your sins.[i] 31It is a sabbath of rest, and you must deny yourselves;[j] it is a lasting ordinance.[k] 32The priest who is anointed and ordained[l] to succeed his father as high priest is to make atonement. He is to put on the sacred linen garments[m] 33and make atonement for the Most Holy Place, for the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and for the priests and all the people of the community.[n]

34"This is to be a lasting ordinance[o] for you: Atonement is to be made once a year[p] for all the sins of the Israelites."

And it was done, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Eating Blood Forbidden

17 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Speak to Aaron and his sons[q] and to all the Israelites and say to them: 'This is what the LORD has commanded: 3Any Israelite who sacrifices an ox,[j] a lamb[r] or a goat[s] in the camp or outside of it 4instead of bringing it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting[t] to present it as an offering to the LORD in front of the tabernacle of the LORD[u]—that man shall be considered guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood and must be cut off from his people.[v] 5This is so the Israelites will bring to the LORD the sacrifices they are now making in the open fields. They must bring them to the priest, that is, to the LORD, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and sacrifice them as fellowship offerings.[k][w] 6The priest is to sprinkle the blood against the altar[x] of the LORD[y] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.[z] 7They must no longer offer any of their sacrifices to the goat idols[l][a] to whom they prostitute themselves.[b] This is to be a lasting ordinance[c] for them and for the generations to come.'[d]

8"Say to them: 'Any Israelite or any alien living among them who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice 9and does not bring it to the entrance to the Tent[e] of Meeting[f] to sacrifice it to the LORD[g]—that man must be cut off from his people.

10" 'Any Israelite or any alien living among them who eats any blood—I will set my face against that person who eats blood[h] and will cut him off from his people. 11For the life of a creature is in the blood,[i] and I have given it to you to make atonement for yourselves on the altar; it is the blood that makes atonement for one's life.[j] 12Therefore I say to the Israelites, "None of you may eat blood, nor may an alien living among you eat blood."

13" 'Any Israelite or any alien living among you who hunts any animal or bird that may be eaten must drain out the blood and cover it with earth,[k] 14because the life of every creature is its blood. That is why I have said to the Israelites, "You must not eat the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood; anyone who eats it must be cut off."[l]

15" 'Anyone, whether native-born or alien, who eats anything[m] found dead or torn by wild animals[n] must wash his clothes and bathe with water,[o] and he will be ceremonially unclean till evening;[p] then he will be clean. 16But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe himself, he will be held responsible.[q] ' "

Unlawful Sexual Relations

18 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'I am the LORD your God.[r] 3You must not do as they do in Egypt, where you used to live, and you must not do as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you. Do not follow their practices.[s] 4You must obey my laws[t] and be careful to follow my decrees.[u] I am the LORD your God.[v] 5Keep my decrees and laws,[w] for the man who obeys them will live by them.[x] I am the LORD.

Various Laws

19 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Speak to the entire assembly of Israel[h] and say to them: 'Be holy because I, the LORD your God,[i] am holy.[j] 3" 'Each of you must respect his mother and father,[k] and you must observe my Sabbaths.[l] I am the LORD your God.[m] 4" 'Do not turn to idols or make gods of cast metal for yourselves.[n] I am the LORD your God.[o] 5" 'When you sacrifice a fellowship offering[n] to the LORD, sacrifice it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf. 6It shall be eaten on the day you sacrifice it or on the next day; anything left over until the third day must be burned up.[p] 7If any of it is eaten on the third day, it is impure and will not be accepted.[q] 8Whoever eats it will be held responsible[r] because he has desecrated what is holy[s] to the LORD; that person must be cut off from his people.[t] 9" 'When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges[u] of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.[v] 10Do not go over your vineyard a second time[w] or pick up the grapes that have fallen.[x] Leave them for the poor and the alien.[y] I am the LORD your God.
11" 'Do not steal.[z]

since she has no husband—for her he may make himself unclean.[a] 4He must not make himself unclean for people related to him by marriage,[u] and so defile himself.

5" 'Priests must not shave[b] their heads or shave off the edges of their beards[c] or cut their bodies.[d] 6They must be holy to their God[e] and must not profane the name of their God.[f] Because they present the offerings made to the LORD by fire,[g] the food of their God,[h] they are to be holy.[i]

7" 'They must not marry women defiled by prostitution or divorced from their husbands,[j] because priests are holy to their God.[k] 8Regard them as holy,[l] because they offer up the food of your God.[m] Consider them holy, because I the LORD am holy—I who make you holy.[v][n]

9" 'If a priest's daughter defiles herself by becoming a prostitute, she disgraces her father; she must be burned in the fire.[o]

10" 'The high priest, the one among his brothers who has had the anointing oil poured on his head[p] and who has been ordained to wear the priestly garments,[q] must not let his hair become unkempt[w] or tear his clothes.[r] 11He must not enter a place where there is a dead body.[s] He must not make himself unclean,[t] even for his father or mother,[u] 12nor leave the sanctuary[v] of his God or desecrate it, because he has been dedicated by the anointing oil[w] of his God. I am the LORD.

13" 'The woman he marries must be a virgin.[x] 14He must not marry a widow, a divorced woman, or a woman defiled by prostitution, but only a virgin from his own people, 15so he will not defile his offspring among his people. I am the LORD, who makes him holy.[x]' "

16The LORD said to Moses, 17"Say to Aaron: 'For the generations to come none of your descendants who has a defect[y] may come near to offer the food of his God.[z] 18No man who has any defect[a] may come near: no man who is blind[b] or lame,[c] disfigured or deformed; 19no man with a crippled foot or hand, 20or who is hunchbacked or dwarfed, or who has any eye defect, or who has festering or running sores or damaged testicles.[d] 21No descendant of Aaron the priest who has any defect[e] is to come near to present the offerings made to the LORD by fire.[f] He has a defect; he must not come near to offer the food of his God.[g] 22He may eat the most holy food of his God,[h] as well as the holy food; 23yet because of his defect,[i] he must not go near the curtain or approach the altar, and so desecrate my sanctuary.[j] I am the LORD, who makes them holy.[y][k]' "

24So Moses told this to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites.

22 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Tell Aaron and his sons to treat with respect the sacred offerings[l] the Israelites consecrate to me, so they will not profane my holy name.[m] I am the LORD.[n]

3"Say to them: 'For the generations to come, if any of your descendants is ceremonially unclean and yet comes near the sacred offerings that the Israelites consecrate to the LORD,[o] that person must be cut off from my presence.[p] I am the LORD.

4" 'If a descendant of Aaron has an infectious skin disease[z] or a bodily discharge,[q] he may not eat the sacred offerings until he is cleansed. He will also be unclean if he touches something defiled by a corpse[r] or by anyone who has an emission of semen, 5or if he touches any crawling thing[s] that makes him unclean, or any person[t] who makes him unclean, whatever the uncleanness may be. 6The one who touches any such thing will be unclean[u] till evening.[v] He must not eat any of the sacred offerings unless he has bathed himself with water.[w] 7When the sun goes down, he will be clean, and after that he may eat the sacred offerings, for they are his food.[x] 8He must not eat anything found dead[y] or torn by wild animals,[z] and so become unclean[a] through it. I am the LORD.[b]

9" 'The priests are to keep my requirements[c] so that they do not become guilty[d] and die[e] for treating them with contempt. I am the LORD, who makes them holy.[a][f]

10" 'No one outside a priest's family may eat the sacred offering, nor may the guest of a priest or his hired worker eat it.[g] 11But if a priest buys a slave with money, or if a slave is born in his household, that slave may eat his

Unacceptable Sacrifices

17The LORD said to Moses, 18"Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them: 'If any of you—either an Israelite or an alien living in Israel[j]—presents a gift[k] for a burnt offering to the LORD, either to fulfill a vow[l] or as a freewill offering,[m] 19you must present a male without defect[n] from the cattle, sheep or goats in order that it may be accepted on your behalf.[o] 20Do not bring anything with a defect,[p] because it will not be accepted on your behalf.[q] 21When anyone brings from the herd or flock[r] a fellowship offering[b][s] to the LORD to fulfill a special vow or as a freewill offering,[t] it must be without defect or blemish[u] to be acceptable.[v] 22Do not offer to the LORD the blind, the injured or the maimed, or anything with warts or festering or running sores. Do not place any of these on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire. 23You may, however, present as a freewill offering an ox[c] or a sheep that is deformed or stunted, but it will not be accepted in fulfillment of a vow. 24You must not offer to the LORD an animal whose testicles are bruised, crushed, torn or cut.[w] You must not do this in your own land, from the hand of a foreigner and offer them as the food of your God.[x] They will not be accepted on your behalf, because they are deformed and have defects.[y] ' "

them.[i] I am the LORD. 32Do not profane my holy name.[j] I must be acknowledged as holy by the Israelites.[k] I am the LORD, who makes[d] you holy[e][l] 33and who brought you out of Egypt[m] to be your God.[n] I am the LORD."

23 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Speak to the Israelites and say to them:
'These are my appointed feasts,[o] the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies.[p]

The Sabbath

3" 'There are six days when you may work,[q] but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest,[r] a day of sacred assembly.
You are not to do any work;[s] wherever you live, it is a Sabbath to the LORD.

The Passover and Unleavened Bread

23:4-8pp — Ex 12:14-20; Nu 28:16-25; Dt 16:1-8

4" 'These are the LORD's appointed feasts, the sacred assemblies you are to proclaim at their appointed times:[t] 5The LORD's Passover[u] begins at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month.[v] 6On the fifteenth day of that month the LORD's Feast of Unleavened Bread[w] begins; for seven days[x] you must eat bread made without yeast.
7On the first day hold a sacred assembly[y] and do no regular work. 8For seven days present an offering made to the LORD by fire.[z] And on the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.' "

Firstfruits

9The LORD said to Moses, 10"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you enter the land I am going to give you[a] and you reap its harvest,[b] bring to the priest a sheaf[c] of the first grain you harvest.[d] 11He is to wave the sheaf before the LORD[e] so it will be accepted[f]

[b]21 Traditionally peace offering [c]23 The Hebrew word can include both male and female. [d]32 Or made [e]32 Or who sanctifies you; or who sets you apart as holy on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath. 12 On the day you wave the sheaf, you must sacrifice as a burnt offering to the LORD a lamb a year old[a] without defect,[b] 13 together with its grain offering[c] of two-tenths of an ephah[f][d] of fine flour mixed with oil—an offering made to the LORD by fire, a pleasing aroma—and its drink offering[e] of a quarter of a hin[g] of wine.[f] 14 You must not eat any bread, or roasted or new grain,[g] until the very day you bring this offering to your God.[h] This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come,[i] wherever you live.[j]

Feast of Weeks

23:15-22pp — Nu 28:26-31; Dt 16:9-12

15 " 'From the day after the Sabbath, the day you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, count off seven full weeks. 16 Count off fifty days up to the day after the seventh Sabbath,[k] and then present an offering of new grain to the LORD. 17 From wherever you live, bring two loaves made of two-tenths of an ephah[l] of fine flour, baked with yeast, as a wave offering of firstfruits[m] to the LORD. 18 Present with this bread seven male lambs, each a year old and without defect, one young bull and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings[n]—an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD. 19 Then sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering and two lambs, each a year old, for a fellowship offering.[h] 20 The priest is to wave the two lambs before the LORD as a wave offering,[o] together with the bread of the firstfruits.
They are a sacred offering to the LORD for the priest. 21 On that same day you are to proclaim a sacred assembly[p] and do no regular work.[q] This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.
22 " 'When you reap the harvest[r] of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.[s] Leave them for the poor and the alien.[t] I am the LORD your God.' "

Feast of Trumpets

23:23-25pp — Nu 29:1-6

23 The LORD said to Moses, 24 "Say to the Israelites: 'On the first day of the seventh month you are to have a day of rest, a sacred assembly[u] commemorated with trumpet blasts.[v] 25 Do no regular work,[w] but present an offering made to the LORD by fire.[x]' "

Day of Atonement

26 The LORD said to Moses, 27 "The tenth day of this seventh month[y] is the Day of Atonement.[z] Hold a sacred assembly[a] and deny yourselves,[i] and present an offering made to the LORD by fire. 28 Do no work[b] on that day, because it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before the LORD your God. 29 Anyone who does not deny himself on that day must be cut off from his people.[c] 30 I will destroy from among his people[d] anyone who does any work on that day. 31 You shall do no work at all. This is to be a lasting ordinance[e] for the generations to come, wherever you live. 32 It is a sabbath of rest[f] for you, and you must deny yourselves. From the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening you are to observe your sabbath."[g]

Feast of Tabernacles

33 The LORD said to Moses, 34 "Say to the Israelites: 'On the fifteenth day of the seventh[h] month the LORD's Feast of Tabernacles[i] begins, and it lasts for seven days. 35 The first day is a sacred assembly;[j] do no regular work.[k] 36 For seven days present offerings made to the LORD by fire, and on the eighth day hold a sacred assembly[l] and present an offering made to the LORD by fire.[m] It is the closing assembly; do no regular work.
37 (" 'These are the LORD's appointed feasts, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies for bringing offerings made to the LORD by fire—the burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings[n] required for each day. 38 These offerings[o] are in addition to those for the LORD's Sabbaths[p] and[j] in addition to your gifts and whatever you have vowed and all the freewill offerings[q] you give to the LORD.) 39 " 'So beginning with the fifteenth day of the seventh month, after you have gathered the crops of the land, ites the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Oil and Bread Set Before the LORD

24:1-3pp — Ex 27:20-21

24 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning continually. 3Outside the curtain of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron is to tend the lamps before the LORD from evening till morning, continually. This is to be a lasting ordinance[h] for the generations to come.
4The lamps on the pure gold lamp-stand[i] before the LORD must be tended continually.
5"Take fine flour and bake twelve loaves of bread,[j] using two-tenths of an ephah[k][k] for each loaf. 6Set them in two rows, six in each row, on the table of pure gold[l] before the LORD. 7Along each row put some pure incense[m] as a memorial portion[n] to represent the bread and to be an offering made to the LORD by fire. 8This bread is to be set out before the LORD regularly,[o] Sabbath after Sabbath,[p] on behalf of the Israelites, as a lasting covenant. 9It belongs to Aaron and his sons,[q] who are to eat it in a holy place,[r] because it is a most holy[s] part of their regular share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire."

A Blasphemer Stoned

10Now the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites, and a fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite. 11The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name[t] with a curse;[u] so they brought him to Moses.[v] (His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri the Danite.)[w] 12They put him in custody until the will of the LORD should be made clear to them.[x]
13Then the LORD said to Moses: 14"Take the blasphemer outside the camp. All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him.[y] 15Say to the Israelites: 'If anyone curses his God,[z] he will be held responsible;[a] 16anyone who blasphemes[b] the name of the LORD must be put to death.[c] The entire assembly must stone him.
Whether an alien or native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death.
17" 'If anyone takes the life of a human being, he must be put to death.[d] 18Anyone who takes the life of someone's animal must make restitution[e]—life for life. 19If anyone injures his neighbor, whatever he has done must be done to him: 20fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth.[f] As he has injured the other, so he is to be injured. 21Whoever kills an animal must make restitution,[g] but whoever kills a man must be put to death.[h] 22You are to have the same law for the alien[i] and the native-born.[j] I am the LORD your God.' "
23Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him.[k] The Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sabbath Year

25 The LORD said to Moses on Mount Sinai,[l] 2"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you enter the land I am going to give you, the land itself must observe a sabbath to the LORD. 3For six years sow your fields, and for six years prune your vineyards and gather their crops.[m] 4But in the seventh year the land is to have a sabbath of rest,[n] a sabbath to the LORD.
Do not sow your fields or prune your vineyards.[o] 5Do not reap what grows of itself[p] or harvest the grapes[q] of your untended vines.[r] The land is to have a year of rest. 6Whatever the land yields during the sabbath year[s] will be food for you—for yourself, your manservant and maidservant, and the hired worker and temporary resident who live among you, 7as well as for your live-

The Year of Jubilee

25:8-38Ref — Dt 15:1-11 25:39-55Ref — Ex 21:2-11; Dt 15:12-18

8" 'Count off seven sabbaths of years—seven times seven years—so that the seven sabbaths of years amount to a period of forty-nine years. 9Then have the trumpet[b] sounded everywhere on the tenth day of the seventh month;[c] on the Day of Atonement[d] sound the trumpet throughout your land. 10Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty[e] throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee[f] for you; each one of you is to return to his family property[g] and each to his own clan. 11The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee[h] for you; do not sow and do not reap what grows of itself or harvest the untended vines.[i] 12For it is a jubilee and is to be holy for you; eat only what is taken directly from the fields.

13" 'In this Year of Jubilee[j] everyone is to return to his own property.

14" 'If you sell land to one of your countrymen or buy any from him, do not take advantage of each other.[k] 15You are to buy from your countryman on the basis of the number of years[l] since the Jubilee. And he is to sell to you on the basis of the number of years left for harvesting crops. 16When the years are many, you are to increase the price, and when the years are few, you are to decrease the price,[m] because what he is really selling you is the number of crops. 17Do not take advantage of each other,[n] but fear your God.[o] I am the LORD your God.[p]

18" 'Follow my decrees and be careful to obey my laws,[q] and you will live safely in the land.[r] 19Then the land will yield its fruit,[s] and you will eat your fill and live there in safety.[t] 20You may ask, "What will we eat in the seventh year[u] if we do not plant or harvest our crops?" 21I will send you such a blessing[v] in the sixth year that the land will yield enough for three years.[w] 22While you plant during the eighth year, you will eat from the old crop and will continue to eat from it until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.[x]

23" 'The land[y] must not be sold permanently, because the land is mine[z] and you are but aliens[a] and my tenants. 24Throughout the country that you hold as a possession, you must provide for the redemption[b] of the land.

25" 'If one of your countrymen becomes poor and sells some of his property, his nearest relative[c] is to come and redeem[d] what his countryman has sold. 26If, however, a man has no one to redeem it for him but he himself prospers[e] and acquires sufficient means to redeem it, 27he is to determine the value for the years[f] since he sold it and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it; he can then go back to his own property.[g] 28But if he does not acquire the means to repay him, what he sold will remain in the possession of the buyer until the Year of Jubilee. It will be returned[h] in the Jubilee, and he can then go back to his property.[i]

29" 'If a man sells a house in a walled city, he retains the right of redemption a full year after its sale. During that time he may redeem it. 30If it is not redeemed before a full year has passed, the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to the buyer and his descendants. It is not to be returned in the Jubilee. 31But houses in villages without walls around them are to be considered as open country. They can be redeemed, and they are to be returned in the Jubilee.

32" 'The Levites always have the right to redeem their houses in the Levitical towns,[j] which they possess. 33So the property of the Levites is redeemable—that is, a house sold in any town they hold—and is to be returned in the Jubilee, because the houses in the towns of the Levites are their property among the Israelites. 34But the pastureland belonging to their towns must not be sold; it is their permanent possession.[k]

35" 'If one of your countrymen becomes poor[l] and is unable to support himself among you, help him[m] as you would an alien or a temporary resident, so he can continue to live among you. 36Do not take interest[n] of any kind[1] from him, but fear your God,[o] so that your countryman may continue to live among you. 37You must not lend him money at interest[p] or sell him food at a profit. 38I am the LORD your God, or a cousin or any blood relative in his clan may redeem him. Or if he prospers,[m] he may redeem himself. 50 He and his buyer are to count the time from the year he sold himself up to the Year of Jubilee,[n] The price for his release is to be based on the rate paid to a hired man[o] for that number of years.

51 If many years remain, he must pay for his redemption a larger share of the price paid for him. 52 If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he is to compute that and pay for his redemption accordingly.[p] 53 He is to be treated as a man hired from year to year; you must see to it that his owner does not rule over him ruthlessly.[q]

46These are the decrees, the laws and the regulations that the LORD established on Mount Sinai[e] between himself and the Israelites through Moses.[f]

Redeeming What Is the LORD's

27 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'If anyone makes a special vow[g] to dedicate persons to the LORD by giving equivalent values, 3set the value of a male between the ages of twenty and sixty at fifty shekels[n] of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel[o];[h] 4and if it is a female, set her value at thirty shekels.[p] 5If it is a person between the ages of five and twenty, set the value of a male at twenty shekels[q][i] and of a female at ten shekels.[r] 6If it is a person between one month and five years, set the value of a male at five shekels[s][j] of silver and that of a female at three shekels[t] of silver. 7If it is a person sixty years old or more, set the value of a male at fifteen shekels[u] and of a female at ten shekels. 8If anyone making the vow is too poor to pay[k] the specified amount, he is to present the person to the priest, who will set the value[l] for him according to what the man making the vow can afford.

9" 'If what he vowed is an animal that is acceptable as an offering to the LORD,[m] such an animal given to the LORD becomes holy.[n] 10He must not exchange it or substitute a good one for a bad one, or a bad one for a good one;[o] if he should substitute one animal for another, both it and the substitute become holy. 11If what he vowed is a ceremonially unclean animal[p]—one that is not acceptable as an offering to the LORD—the animal must be presented to the priest, 12who will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, that is what it will be. 13If the owner wishes to redeem[q] the animal, he must add a fifth to its value.[r]

14" 'If a man dedicates his house as something holy to the LORD, the priest will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, so it will remain. 15If the man who dedicates his house redeems it,[s] he must add a fifth to its value, and the house will again become his.

16" 'If a man dedicates to the LORD part of his family land, its value is to be set according to the amount of seed required for it—fifty shekels of silver to a homer[v] of barley seed. 17If he dedicates his field during the Year of Jubilee, the value that has been set remains. 18But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee,[t] the priest will determine the value according to the number of years that remain[u] until the next Year of Jubilee, and its set value will be reduced. 19If the man who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it,[v] he must add a fifth to its value, and the field will again become his. 20If, however, he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold it to someone else, it can never be redeemed. 21When the field is released in the Jubilee,[w] it will become holy,[x] like a field devoted to the LORD;[y] it will become the property of the priests.[w]

22" 'If a man dedicates to the LORD a field he has bought, which is not part of his family land, 23the priest will determine its value up to the Year of Jubilee,[z] and the man must pay its value on that day as something holy to the LORD. 24In the Year of Jubilee the field will revert to the person from whom he bought it,[a] the one whose land it was. 25Every value is to be set according to the sanctuary shekel,[b] twenty gerahs[c] to the shekel.

26" 'No one, however, may dedicate the firstborn of an animal, since the firstborn already belongs to the LORD;[d] whether a cow[x] or a sheep, it is the LORD's. 27If it is one of the unclean animals,[e] he may buy it back at its set value, adding a fifth of the value to it. If he does not redeem it, it is to be sold at its set value.

28" 'But nothing that a man owns and devotes[y][f] to the LORD—whether man or animal or family land—may be sold or redeemed; everything so devoted is most holy[g] to the LORD.

The Census

1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting[a] in the Desert of Sinai[b] on the first day of the second month[c] of the second year after the Israelites came out of Egypt.[d] He said: 2"Take a census[e] of the whole Israelite community by their clans and families,[f] listing every man by name,[g] one by one. 3You and Aaron[h] are to number by their divisions all the men in Israel twenty years old or more[i] who are able to serve in the army.[j] 4One man from each tribe,[k] each the head of his family,[l] is to help you.[m] 5These are the names[n] of the men who are to assist
you:

from Reuben,[o] Elizur son of Shedeur;[p] 6from Simeon,[q] Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;[r] 7from Judah,[s] Nahshon son of Amminadab;[t] 8from Issachar,[u] Nethanel son of Zuar;[v] 9from Zebulun,[w] Eliab son of Helon;[x] 10from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim,[y] Elishama son of Ammihud;[z] from Manasseh,[a] Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;[b] 11from Benjamin,[c] Abidan son of Gideoni;[d] 12from Dan,[e] Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;[f] 13from Asher,[g] Pagiel son of Ocran;[h] 14from Gad,[i] Eliasaph son of Deuel;[j] 15from Naphtali,[k] Ahira son of Enan.[l]" 16These were the men appointed from the community, the leaders[m] of their ancestral tribes.[n] They were the heads of the clans of Israel.[o] 17Moses and Aaron took these men whose names had been given, 18and they called the whole community together on the first day of the second month.[p] The people indicated their ancestry[q] by their clans and families,[r] and the men twenty years old or more[s] were listed by name, one by one, 19as the LORD commanded Moses. And so he counted[t] them in the Desert of Sinai:

20From the descendants of Reuben[u] the firstborn son[v] of Israel:

All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families.
21The number from the tribe of Reuben[w] was 46,500.

22From the descendants of Simeon:[x]

All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were counted and listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families. 23The number from the tribe of Simeon was 59,300.[y]

24From the descendants of Gad:[z]

clans and families. 25The number from the tribe of Gad[a] was 45,650.

26From the descendants of Judah:[b]

clans and families. 27The number from the tribe of Judah[c] was 74,600.

28From the descendants of Issachar:[d]

ber from the tribe of Benjamin[j] was 35,400.

[38]From the descendants of Dan:[k] All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. [39]The number from the tribe of Dan was 62,700.[l]

[40]From the descendants of Asher:[m] All the men twenty years old or
more who were able to serve in
the army were listed by name,
according to the records of their
clans and families. [41]The number from the tribe of Asher[n] was 41,500.

[42]From the descendants of Naphtali:[o] All the men twenty years old or
more who were able to serve in
the army were listed by name,
according to the records of their
clans and families. [43]The number from the tribe of Naphtali[p] was 53,400.[q]

[44]These were the men counted by Moses and Aaron[r] and the twelve leaders of Israel, each one representing his family. [45]All the Israelites twenty years old or more[s] who were able to serve in Israel's army were counted according to their families.[t] [46]The total number was 603,550.[u]

[47]The families of the tribe of Levi,[v] however, were not counted[w] along with the others. [48]The LORD had said to Moses: [49]"You must not count the tribe of Levi or include them in the census of the other Israelites. [50]Instead, appoint the Levites to be in charge of the tabernacle[x] of the Testimony[y]—over all its furnishings[z] and everything belonging to it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they are to take care of it and encamp around it.
[51]Whenever the tabernacle[a] is to move,[b] the Levites are to take it down, and whenever the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall do it.[c] Anyone else who goes near it shall be put to death.[d] [52]The Israelites are to set up their tents by divisions, each man in his own camp under his own standard.[e] [53]The Levites, however, are to set up their tents around the tabernacle[f] of the Testimony so that wrath will not fall[g] on the Israelite community. The Levites are to be responsible for the care of the tabernacle of the Testimony.[h]"

[54]The Israelites did all this just as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Arrangement of the Tribal Camps

2 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: [2]"The Israelites are to camp around the Tent of Meeting some distance from it, each man under his standard[i] with the banners of his family."

[3]On the east, toward the sunrise, the divisions of the camp of Judah are to encamp under their standard. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Am-minadab.[j] [4]His division numbers 74,600.

[5]The tribe of Issachar[k] will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar.[l] [6]His division numbers 54,400.

[7]The tribe of Zebulun will be next. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon.[a] 8 His division numbers 57,400.

9 All the men assigned to the camp of Judah, according to their divisions, number 186,400. They will set out first.[b]

10 On the south[c] will be the divisions of the camp of Reuben under their standard. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur.[d] 11 His division numbers 46,500.
12 The tribe of Simeon[e] will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.[f] 13 His division numbers 59,300.
14 The tribe of Gad[g] will be next.
The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel.[a][h] 15 His division numbers 45,650.
16 All the men assigned to the camp of Reuben,[i] according to their divisions, number 151,450.
They will set out second.

17 Then the Tent of Meeting and the camp of the Levites[j] will set out in the middle of the camps.
They will set out in the same order as they encamp, each in his own place under his standard.

18 On the west[k] will be the divisions of the camp of Ephraim[l] under their standard. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud.[m] 19 His division numbers 40,500.
20 The tribe of Manasseh[n] will be next to them. The leader of the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.[o] 21 His division 22 The tribe of Benjamin[p] will be next. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni.[q] 23 His division numbers 35,- 400.

24 All the men assigned to the camp of Ephraim,[r] according to their divisions, number 108,100.
They will set out third.[s]

25 On the north[t] will be the divisions of the camp of Dan, under their standard.[u] The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.[v] 26 His division numbers 62,700.
27 The tribe of Asher will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran.[w] 28 His division numbers 41,500.
29 The tribe of Naphtali[x] will be next. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.[y] 30 His division numbers 53,400.
31 All the men assigned to the camp of Dan number 157,600. They will set out last,[z] under their standards.

32 These are the Israelites, counted according to their families.[a] All those in the camps, by their divisions, number 603,550.[b] 33 The Levites, however, were not counted[c] along with the other Israelites, as
the LORD commanded Moses.

34 So the Israelites did everything the LORD commanded Moses; that is the way they encamped under their standards, and that is the way they set out, each with his clan and family.

The Levites

3 This is the account of the family of Aaron and Moses[d] at the time the LORD talked with Moses on Mount Sinai.[e] 2 The names of the sons of Aaron were Nadab the firstborn[f] and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.[g] 3 Those were the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests,[h] who were ordained to serve as priests. 4 Nadab and Abihu, however, fell dead before the LORD[i] when they made an offering with unauthorized fire before him in the Desert of Sinai.[j] They had no sons; so only Eleazar and Ithamar[k] served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.[l] 5 The LORD said to Moses, 6 "Bring the tribe of Levi[m] and present them to Aaron the priest to assist him.[n] 7 They are to perform duties for him and for the whole community[o] at the Tent of Meeting by doing the work[p] of the tabernacle. 8 They are to take care of all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, fulfilling the obligations of the Israelites by doing the work of the tabernacle.
9 Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons;[q] they are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to him.[b] 10 Appoint Aaron[r] and his sons to serve as priests;[s] anyone else who approaches the sanctuary must be put to death."[t] 11The LORD also said to Moses, 12"I have taken the Levites[a] from among the Israelites in place of the first male offspring[b] of every Israelite woman.

The Levites are mine,[c] 13for all the firstborn are mine.[d] When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set apart for myself every firstborn in Israel, whether man or animal. They are to be mine. I am the LORD."[e] 14The LORD said to Moses in the Desert of Sinai,[f] 15"Count[g] the Levites by their families and clans. Count every male a month old or more."[h] 16So Moses counted them, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

17These were the names of the sons of Levi:[i] Gershon,[j] Kohath[k] and Merari.[l] 18These were the names of the Gershonite clans: Libni and Shimei.[m] 19The Kohathite clans: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.[n] 20The Merarite clans:[o] Mahli and Mushi.[p]
These were the Levite clans, according to their families.

21To Gershon[q] belonged the clans of the Libnites and Shimeites;[r] these were the Gershonite clans. 22The number of all the males a month old or more who were counted was 7,500.
23The Gershonite clans were to camp on the west, behind the tabernacle.[s] 24The leader of the families of the Gershonites was Eliasaph son of Lael. 25At the Tent of Meeting the Gershonites were responsible for the care of the tabernacle[t] and tent, its coverings,[u] the curtain at the entrance[v] to the Tent of Meeting,[w] 26the curtains of the courtyard,[x] the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar,[y] and the ropes[z]—and everything[a] related to their use.

27To Kohath[b] belonged the clans of the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites and Uzzielites;[c] these were the Kohathite[d] clans. 28The number of all the males a month old or more[e] was 8,- 600.[c] The Kohathites were responsible[f] for the care of the sanctuary.[g] 29The Kohathite clans were to camp on the south side[h] of the tabernacle. 30The leader of the families of the Kohathite clans was Elizaphan[i] son of Uzziel.
31They were responsible for the care of the ark,[j] the table,[k] the lampstand,[l] the altars,[m] the articles[n] of the sanctuary used in ministering, the curtain,[o] and everything related to their use.[p] 32The chief leader of the Levites was Eleazar[q] son of Aaron, the priest. He was appointed over those who were responsible[r] for the care of the sanctuary.[s]

33To Merari belonged the clans of the Mahlites and the Mushites;[t] these were the Merarite clans.[u] 34The number of all the males a month old or more[v] who were counted was 6,200.
35The leader of the families of the Mera-rite clans was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.[w] 36The Merarites were appointed[x] to take care of the frames of the tabernacle,[y] its crossbars,[z] posts,[a] bases, all its equipment, and everything related to their use,[b] 37as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard[c] with their bases, tent pegs[d] and ropes.

38Moses and Aaron and his sons were to camp to the east[e] of the tabernacle, toward the sunrise, in front of the Tent of Meeting.[f] They were responsible for the care of the sanctuary[g] on behalf of the Israelites. Anyone else who approached the sanctuary was to be put to death.[h]

39The total number of Levites counted[i] at the LORD's command by Moses and Aaron according to their clans, including every male a month old or more, was 22,000.[j]

40The LORD said to Moses, "Count all the firstborn Israelite males who are a month old or more[k] and make a list of their names.[l] 41Take the Levites for me in place of all the firstborn of the Israelites,[m] and the livestock of the Levites in place of all the firstborn of the livestock of the Israelites. I am the LORD."[n]

42So Moses counted all the firstborn of the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him. 43The total number of firstborn males a month old or more,[o] listed by name, was 22,273.[p]

44The LORD also said to Moses, 45"Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock.
The Levites are to be mine.[q] I am the LORD.[r] 46To redeem[s] the 273 firstborn

Israelites who exceed the number of the Levites, 47collect five shekels[d,a] for each one, according to the sanctuary shekel,[b] which weighs twenty gerahs.[c] 48Give the money for the redemption[d] of the additional Israelites to Aaron and his sons."[e] 49So Moses collected the redemption money[f] from those who exceeded the number redeemed by the Levites.
50From the firstborn of the Israelites[g] he collected silver weighing 1,365 shekels,[e,h] according to the sanctuary shekel. 51Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

The Kohathites

4 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: 2"Take a census[i] of the Kohathite branch of the Levites by their clans and families. 3Count[j] all the men from thirty to fifty years of age[k] who come to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting.
4"This is the work[l] of the Kohathites[m] in the Tent of Meeting: the care of the most holy things.[n] 5When the camp is to move,[o] Aaron and his sons are to go in and take down the shielding curtain[p] and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.[q] 6Then they are to cover this with hides of sea cows[f,r] spread a cloth of solid blue over that and put the poles[s] in place.
7"Over the table of the Presence[t] they are to spread a blue cloth and put on it the plates, dishes and bowls, and the jars for drink offerings;[u] the bread that is continually there[v] is to remain on it. 8Over these they are to spread a scarlet cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles[w] in place.
9"They are to take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand that is for light, together with its lamps, its wick trimmers and trays,[x] and all its jars for the oil used to supply it. 10Then they are to wrap it and all its accessories in a covering of hides of sea cows and put it on a carrying frame.[y] 11"Over the gold altar[z] they are to spread a blue cloth and cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles[a] in place.
12"They are to take all the articles[b] used for ministering in the sanctuary, wrap them in a blue cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put them on a carrying frame.[c] 13"They are to remove the ashes[d] from the bronze altar[e] and spread a purple cloth over it. 14Then they are to place on it all the utensils[f] used for ministering at the altar, including the firepans,[g] meat forks,[h] shovels[i] and sprinkling bowls.[j] Over it they are to spread a covering of hides of sea cows and put its poles[k] in place.
15"After Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy articles, and when the camp is ready to move,[l] the Kohathites[m] are to come to do the carrying.[n] But they must not touch the holy things[o] or they will die.[p,q] The Ko-hathites are to carry those things that are in the Tent of Meeting.
16"Eleazar[r] son of Aaron, the priest, is to have charge of the oil for the light,[s] the fragrant incense,[t] the regular grain offering[u] and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including its holy furnishings and articles."
17The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 18"See that the Kohathite tribal clans are not cut off from the Levites. 19So that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things,[v] do this for them: Aaron and his sons[w] are to go into the sanctuary and assign to each man his work and what he is to carry.[x] 20But the Kohathites must not go in to look[y] at the holy things, even for a moment, or they will die."

The Gershonites

21The LORD said to Moses, 22"Take a census also of the Gershonites by their families and clans. 23Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age[z] who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.
24"This is the service of the Gershon-ite clans as they work and carry burdens: 25They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle,[a] the Tent of Meeting,[b] its covering[c] and the outer covering of hides of sea cows, the curtains for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, 26the curtains of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar,[d] the curtain for the entrance,[e] the ropes and all the equipment[f] used in its service. The Gershonites are to do all that needs to be done with these things. 27All their service, whether carrying or doing other work, is to be done under the di-

The Merarites

29"Count[e] the Merarites by their clans and families.[f] 30Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting. 31This is their duty as they perform service at the Tent of Meeting: to carry the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts and bases,[g] 32as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, ropes,[h] all their equipment and everything related to their use. Assign to each man the specific things he is to carry. 33This is the service of the Merarite clans as they work at the Tent of Meeting under the direction of Ithamar[i] son of Aaron, the priest."

The Numbering of the Levite Clans

34Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the community counted the Kohathites[j] by their clans and families. 35All the men from thirty to fifty years of age[k] who came to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting, 36counted by clans, were 2,750. 37This was the total of all those in the Kohathite clans[l] who served in the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD's command through Moses.

38The Gershonites[m] were counted by their clans and families. 39All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting, 40counted by their clans and families, were 2,630. 41This was the total of those in the Gershonite clans who served at the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD's command.

42The Merarites were counted by their clans and families. 43All the men from thirty to fifty years of age[n] who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting, 44counted by their clans, were 3,200. 45This was the total of those in the Merarite clans.[o] Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD's command through Moses.

46So Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted[p] all the Levites by their clans and families. 47All the men from thirty to fifty years of age[q] who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting 48numbered 8,580.[r] 49At the LORD's command through Moses, each was assigned his work and told what to carry.

Thus they were counted,[s] as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Purity of the Camp

5 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Command the Israelites to send away from the camp anyone who has an infectious skin disease[g][t] or a discharge[u] of any kind, or who is ceremonially unclean[v] because of a dead body.[w] 3Send away male and female alike; send them outside the camp so they will not defile their camp, where I dwell among them.[x]" 4The Israelites did this; they sent them outside the camp. They did just as the LORD had instructed Moses.

Restitution for Wrongs

5The LORD said to Moses, 6"Say to the Israelites: 'When a man or woman wrongs another in any way[h] and so is unfaithful[y] to the LORD, that person is guilty[z] 7and must confess[a] the sin he has committed. He must make full restitution[b] for his wrong, add one fifth to it and give it all to the person he has wronged. 8But if that person has no close relative to whom restitution can be made for the wrong, the restitution belongs to the LORD and must be given to the priest, along with the ram[c] with which atonement is made for him.[d] 9All the sacred contributions the Israelites bring to a priest will belong to him.[e] 10Each man's sacred gifts are his own, but what he gives to the priest will belong to the priest.[f]' "

The Test for an Unfaithful Wife

11Then the LORD said to Moses, 12"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'If a man's wife goes astray[g] and is unfaithful to him 13by sleeping with another man,[h] and this is hidden from her husband and her impurity is undetected (since there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act), 14and if feelings of jealousy[i] come over her husband and he suspects his wife and she is impure—or if he is jealous and suspects her even though she is not impure—15then he is to take his wife to the shall put the woman under oath and ried to your husband, may this bitter water that brings a curse[i] not harm enter your body so that your abdomen swells and your thigh wastes away.[k]"

"Amen. So be it.[n]" 23 " 'The priest is to write these curses on a scroll[o] and then wash them off into the bitter water. 24 He shall have the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and this water will enter her and cause bitter suffering. 25 The priest is to take from her hands the grain offering for jealousy, wave it before the LORD[p] and bring it to the altar.
26 The priest is then to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial offering[q] and burn it on the altar; after that, he is to have the woman drink the water. 27 If she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, then

The Nazirite

6 The LORD said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'If a man or woman wants to make a special vow[v], a vow of separation[w] to the LORD as a Nazirite,[x] 3 he must abstain from wine[y] and other fermented drink and must not drink vinegar[z] made from wine or from other fermented drink.
He must not drink grape juice or eat grapes[a] or raisins. 4 As long as he is a Nazirite, he must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins.
5 " 'During the entire period of his vow of separation no razor[b] may be used on his head.[c] He must be holy until the period of his separation to the LORD is over; he must let the hair of his head grow long. 6 Throughout the period of his separation to the LORD he must not go near a dead body.[d] 7 Even if his own father or mother or brother or sister dies, he must not make himself ceremonially unclean[e] on account of them, because the symbol of his separation to God is on his head.
8 Throughout the period of his separation he is consecrated to the LORD.
9 " 'If someone dies suddenly in his presence, thus defiling the hair he has dedicated,[f] he must shave his head on the day of his cleansing[g]—the seventh day. 10 Then on the eighth day[h] he must bring two doves or two young pigeons[i] to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.[j] 11 The priest is to offer one as a sin offering[k] and the other as a burnt offering[l] to make atonement[m] for him because he sinned by being in the presence of the dead body. That same day he is to consecrate his head. 12 He must dedicate himself to the LORD for the period of his separation and must bring a year-old male lamb[a] as a guilt offering.[b] The previous days do not count, because he became defiled during his separation.

13"'Now this is the law for the Nazi-rite when the period of his separation is over.[c] He is to be brought to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.[d] 14There he is to present his offerings to the LORD: a year-old male lamb without defect[e] for a burnt offering, a year-old ewe lamb without defect for a sin offering,[f] a ram[g] without defect for a fellowship offering,[m][h] 15together with their grain offerings[i] and drink offerings,[j] and a basket of bread made without yeast—cakes made of fine flour mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.[k] 16"'The priest is to present them[l] before the LORD[m] and make the sin offering and the burnt offering.[n] 17He is to present the basket of unleavened bread and is to sacrifice the ram as a fellowship offering[o] to the LORD, together with its grain offering[p] and drink offering.[q] 18"'Then at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the Nazirite must shave off the hair that he dedicated.[r] He is to take the hair and put it in the fire that is under the sacrifice of the fellowship offering.
19"'After the Nazirite has shaved off the hair of his dedication, the priest is to place in his hands a boiled shoulder of the ram, and a cake and a wafer from the basket, both made without yeast.[s] 20The priest shall then wave them before the LORD as a wave offering;[t] they are holy[u] and belong to the priest, together with the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented.[v] After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.[w] 21"'This is the law of the Nazirite[x] who vows his offering to the LORD in accordance with his separation, in addition to whatever else he can afford.
He must fulfill the vow[y] he has made, according to the law of the Nazirite.'"

The Priestly Blessing

22The LORD said to Moses, 23"Tell Aaron and his sons, 'This is how you are to bless[z] the Israelites. Say to them:

24"'"The LORD bless you[a] and keep you;[b] 25the LORD make his face shine upon you[c]
and be gracious to you;[d] 26the LORD turn his face[e] toward you and give you peace."'[f]

Israelites, and I will bless them."

Offerings at the Dedication of the Tabernacle

7 When Moses finished setting up the tabernacle,[h] he anointed[i] it and consecrated it and all its furnishings.[j] He also anointed and consecrated the altar and all its utensils.[k] 2Then the leaders of Israel,[l] the heads of families who were the tribal leaders in charge of those who were counted,[m] made offerings. 3They brought as their gifts before the LORD six covered carts[n] and twelve oxen—an ox from each leader and a cart from every two. These they presented before the tabernacle.
4The LORD said to Moses, 5"Accept these from them, that they may be used in the work at the Tent of Meeting. Give them to the Levites as each man's work requires." 6So Moses took the carts and oxen and gave them to the Levites. 7He gave two carts and four oxen to the Gershonites,[o] as their work required, 8and he gave four carts and eight oxen to the Merarites,[p] as their work required.
They were all under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest. 9But Moses did not give any to the Kohathites,[q] because they were to carry on their shoulders[r] the holy things, for which they were responsible.
10When the altar was anointed,[s] the leaders brought their offerings for its dedication[t] and presented them before the altar. 11For the LORD had said to Moses, "Each day one leader is to bring his offering for the dedication of the altar." 12The one who brought his offering on the first day was Nahshon[u] son of Am-minadab of the tribe of Judah.
13His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels,[n] and one silver sprinkling bowl[v] weighing seventy shekels,[o][w] both according to the sanctuary shekel,[x] each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;[y] 14one gold dish[z] weigh-silver dishes weighed two thousand four hundred shekels,[r] according to the sanctuary shekel.[c] 86The twelve gold dishes filled with incense weighed ten shekels each, according to the sanctuary shekel.[d] Altogether, the gold dishes weighed a hundred and twenty shekels.[s] 87The total number of animals for the burnt offering[e] came to twelve young bulls, twelve rams and twelve male lambs a year old, together with their grain offering.[f] Twelve male goats were used for the sin offering.[g] 88The total number of animals for the sacrifice of the fellowship offering[h] came to twenty-four oxen, sixty rams, sixty male goats and sixty male lambs[i] a year old. These were the offerings for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.[j]

89When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting[k] to speak with the LORD,[l] he heard the voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim above the atonement cover[m] on the ark of the Testimony.[n] And he spoke with him.

Setting Up the Lamps

8 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Speak to Aaron and say to him, 'When you set up the seven lamps, they are to light the area in front of the lamp-stand.[o]' "

3Aaron did so; he set up the lamps so that they faced forward on the lamp-stand, just as the LORD commanded Moses. 4This is how the lampstand was made: It was made of hammered gold[p]—from its base to its blossoms.
The lampstand was made exactly like the pattern[q] the LORD had shown Moses.

The Setting Apart of the Levites

5The LORD said to Moses: 6"Take the Levites from among the other Israelites and make them ceremonially clean.[r] 7To purify them, do this: Sprinkle the water of cleansing[s] on them; then have them shave their whole bodies[t] and wash their clothes,[u] and so purify themselves.[v] 8Have them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil;[w] then you are to take a second young bull for a sin offering.[x] 9Bring the Levites to the front of the Tent of Meeting[y] and assemble the whole Israelite community.[z] 10You are to bring the Levites before the LORD, and the Israelites are to lay their hands on them.[a] 11Aaron is to present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering[b] from the Israelites, so that they may be ready to do the work of the LORD.

12"After the Levites lay their hands on the heads of the bulls,[c] use the one for a sin offering[d] to the LORD and the other for a burnt offering,[e] to make atonement[f] for the Levites. 13Have the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons and then present them as a wave offering[g] to the LORD. 14In this way you are to set the Levites apart from the other Israelites, and the Levites will be mine.[h]

15"After you have purified the Levites and presented them as a wave offering,[i] they are to come to do their work at the Tent of Meeting.[j] 16They are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to me. I have taken them as my own in place of the firstborn,[k] the first male offspring[l] from every Israelite woman. 17Every firstborn male in Israel, whether man or animal,[m] is mine.
When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set them apart for myself.[n][o] 18And I have taken the Levites in place of all the firstborn sons in Israel.[p] 19Of all the Israelites, I have given the Levites as gifts to Aaron and his sons[q] to do the work at the Tent of Meeting on behalf of the Israelites[r] and to make atonement for them[s] so that no plague will strike the Israelites when they go near the sanctuary."

20Moses, Aaron and the whole Israelite community did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses. 21The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes.[t] Then Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD and made atonement[u] for them to purify them.[v] 22After that, the Levites came to do their work[w] at the Tent of Meeting under the supervision of Aaron and his sons. They did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses.

23The LORD said to Moses, 24"This applies to the Levites: Men twenty-five years old or more[x] shall come to take part in the work at the Tent of Meeting,[y] 25but at the age of fifty,[z] they must retire from their regular service and work no longer. 26They may assist

9 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai in the first month[b] of the second year after they came out of Egypt.[c] He said, 2"Have the Israelites celebrate the Passover[d] at the appointed time.[e] 3Celebrate it at the appointed time, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month,[f] in accordance with all its rules and regulations.[g]" 4So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover,[h] 5and they did so in the Desert of Sinai[i] at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month.[j] The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.[k] 6But some of them could not celebrate the Passover on that day because they were ceremonially unclean[l] on account of a dead body.[m] So they came to Moses and Aaron[n] that same day 7and said to Moses, "We have become unclean because of a dead body, but why should we be kept from presenting the LORD's offering with the other Israelites at the appointed time?[o]" 8Moses answered them, "Wait until I find out what the LORD commands concerning you."[p] 9Then the LORD said to Moses, 10"Tell the Israelites: 'When any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body[q] or are away on a journey, they may still celebrate[r] the LORD's Passover. 11They are to celebrate it on the fourteenth day of the second month[s] at twilight. They are to eat the lamb, together with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.[t] 12They must not leave any of it till morning[u] or break any of its bones.[v] When they celebrate the Passover, they must follow all the regulations.[w] 13But if a man who is cer-emonially clean and not on a journey fails to celebrate the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people[x] because he did not present the LORD's offering at the appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.
14" 'An alien[y] living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD's Passover must do so in accordance with its rules and regulations. You must have the same regulations for the alien and the native-born.' "

The Cloud Above the Tabernacle

15On the day the tabernacle, the Tent of the Testimony,[z] was set up,[a] the cloud[b] covered it. From evening till morning the cloud above the tabernacle looked like fire.[c] 16That is how it continued to be; the cloud covered it, and at night it looked like fire.[d] 17Whenever the cloud lifted from above the Tent, the Israelites set out;[e] wherever the cloud settled, the Israelites encamped.[f] 18At the LORD's command the Israelites set out, and at his command they encamped. As long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they remained[g] in camp. 19When the cloud remained over the tabernacle a long time, the Israelites obeyed the LORD's order[h] and did not set out.[i] 20Sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle only a few days; at the LORD's command they would encamp, and then at his command they would set out. 21Sometimes the cloud stayed only from evening till morning, and when it lifted in the morning, they set out. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud lifted, they set out. 22Whether the cloud stayed over the tabernacle for two days or a month or a year, the Israelites would remain in camp and not set out; but when it lifted, they would set out.
23At the LORD's command they encamped, and at the LORD's command they set out. They obeyed the LORD's order, in accordance with his command through Moses.

The Silver Trumpets

10 The LORD said to Moses: 2"Make two trumpets[j] of hammered silver, and use them for calling the community[k] together and for having the camps set out.[l] 3When both are sounded, the whole community is to assemble before you at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 4If only one is sounded, the leaders[m]—the heads of the clans of Israel—are to assemble before you. 5When a trumpet blast is sounded, the tribes camping on the east are to set out.[n] 6At the sounding of a second blast, the camps on the south are to set out.[o] The blast will be the signal for setting out. 7To gather the assembly, blow the trumpets,[p] but not with the same signal.[q] 8"The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to blow the trumpets. This is to be a

The Israelites Leave Sinai

11On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year,[k] the cloud lifted[l] from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.[m] 12Then the Israelites set out from the Desert of Sinai and traveled from place to place until the cloud came to rest in the Desert of Paran.[n] 13They set out, this first time, at the Lord's command through Moses.[o] 14The divisions of the camp of Judah went first, under their standard.[p] Nahshon son of Amminadab[q] was in command. 15Nethanel son of Zuar was over the division of the tribe[r] of Issachar,[s] 16and Eliab son of Helon[t] was over the division of the tribe of Zebulun.[u] 17Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and Merarites, who carried it, set out.[v] 18The divisions of the camp of Reuben[w] went next, under their standard.[x] Elizur son of Shedeur[y] was in command. 19Shelumiel son of Zuri-shaddai was over the division of the tribe of Simeon,[z] 20and Eliasaph son of Deuel was over the division of the tribe of Gad.[a] 21Then the Kohathites[b] set out, carrying the holy things.[c] The tabernacle was to be set up before they arrived.[d] 22The divisions of the camp of Ephraim[e] went next, under their standard. Elishama son of Ammihud[f] was in command. 23Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was over the division of the tribe of Manasseh,[g] 24and Abidan son of Gideoni was over the division of the tribe of Benjamin.[h] 25Finally, as the rear guard[i] for all the units, the divisions of the camp of Dan set out, under their standard. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai[j] was in command. 26Pagiel son of Ocran was over the division of the tribe of Asher,[k] 27and Ahira son of Enan was over the division of the tribe of Naphtali.[l] 28This was the order of march for the Israelite divisions as they set out.
29Now Moses said to Hobab[m] son of Reuel[n] the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law,[o] "We are setting out for the place about which the Lord said, 'I will give it to you.'[p] Come with us and we will treat you well, for the Lord has promised good things to Israel." 30He answered, "No, I will not go;[q] I am going back to my own land and my own people.[r]" 31But Moses said, "Please do not leave us. You know where we should camp in the desert, and you can be our eyes.[s] 32If you come with us, we will share with you[t] whatever good things the Lord gives us.[u]" 33So they set out[v] from the mountain of the Lord and traveled for three days.
The ark of the covenant of the Lord[w] went before them during those three days to find them a place to rest.[x] 34The cloud of the Lord was over them by day when they set out from the camp.[y] 35Whenever the ark set out, Moses
said,

"Rise up,[z] O Lord!
May your enemies be scattered;[a] may your foes flee before you.[b]"[c] 36Whenever it came to rest, he said,

"Return,[d] O Lord, to the countless thousands of Israel.[e]"

Fire From the Lord

11 Now the people complained[f] about their hardships in the hearing of the Lord,[g] and when he heard them his anger was aroused.[h] Then fire from the Lord burned among them[i] and consumed[j] some of the outskirts of the camp. 2When the people cried out to Moses, he prayed[k] to the Lord[l] and the fire died down.
3So that place was called Taberah,[u][m] because fire from the Lord had burned among them.[n]

Quail From the Lord

4The rabble with them began to crave other food,[o] and again the Israelites started wailing[p] and said, "If only we had meat to eat! 5We remember the fish we ate in Egypt at no cost—also the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic.[a] 6But now we have lost our appetite; we never see anything but this manna![b]" 7The manna was like coriander seed[c] and looked like resin.[d] 8The people went around gathering it,[e] and then ground it in a handmill or crushed it in a mortar. They cooked it in a pot or made it into cakes. And it tasted like something made with olive oil. 9When the dew[f] settled on the camp at night, the manna also came down.

10Moses heard the people of every family wailing,[g] each at the entrance to his tent. The LORD became exceedingly angry, and Moses was troubled. 11He asked the LORD, "Why have you brought this trouble[h] on your servant?
What have I done to displease you that you put the burden of all these people on me?[i] 12Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth? Why do you tell me to carry them in my arms, as a nurse carries an infant,[j] to the land you promised on oath[k] to their forefathers?[l] 13Where can I get meat for all these people?[m] They keep wailing to me, 'Give us meat to eat!' 14I cannot carry all these people by myself; the burden is too heavy for me.[n] 15If this is how you are going to treat me, put me to death[o] right now[p]—if I have found favor in your eyes—and do not let me face my own ruin." 16The LORD said to Moses: "Bring me seventy of Israel's elders[q] who are known to you as leaders and officials among the people.[r] Have them come to the Tent of Meeting,[s] that they may stand there with you. 17I will come down and speak with you[t] there, and I will take of the Spirit that is on you and put the Spirit on them.[u] They will help you carry the burden of the people so that you will not have to carry it alone.[v] 18"Tell the people: 'Consecrate yourselves[w] in preparation for tomorrow, when you will eat meat. The LORD heard you when you wailed,[x] "If only we had meat to eat! We were better off in Egypt!"[y] Now the LORD will give you meat,[z] and you will eat it. 19You will not eat it for just one day, or two days, or five, ten or twenty days, 20but for a whole month—until it comes out of your nostrils and you loathe it[a]—because you have rejected the LORD,[b] who is among you, and have wailed before him, saying, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?"' "[c] 21But Moses said, "Here I am among six hundred thousand men[d] on foot, and you say, 'I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!' 22Would they have enough if flocks and herds were slaughtered for them? Would they have enough if all the fish in the sea were caught for them?"[e] 23The LORD answered Moses, "Is the LORD's arm too short?[f] You will now see whether or not what I say will come true for you.[g]" 24So Moses went out and told the people what the LORD had said. He brought together seventy of their elders and had them stand around the Tent. 25Then the LORD came down in the cloud[h] and spoke with him,[i] and he took of the Spirit[j] that was on him and put the Spirit on the seventy elders.[k] When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied,[l] but they did not do so again.[v] 26However, two men, whose names were Eldad and Medad, had remained in the camp. They were listed among the elders, but did not go out to the Tent. Yet the Spirit also rested on them,[m] and they prophesied in the camp. 27A young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophe-sying in the camp." 28Joshua son of Nun,[n] who had been Moses' aide[o] since youth, spoke up and said, "Moses, my lord, stop them!"[p] 29But Moses replied, "Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets[q] and that the LORD would put his Spirit[r] on them!"[s] 30Then Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.
31Now a wind went out from the LORD and drove quail[t] in from the sea.
It brought them[w] down all around the camp to about three feet[x] above the ground, as far as a day's walk in any direction. 32All that day and night and all the next day the people went out and gathered quail. No one gathered less than ten homers.[y] Then they spread them out all around the camp.
33But while the meat was still between their teeth[u] and before it could be consumed, the anger[v] of the LORD burned against the people, and he struck them with a severe plague.[z] [34]Therefore the place was named Kibroth Hattaavah,[z][a] because there they buried the people who had craved other food.

[35]From Kibroth Hattaavah the people traveled to Hazeroth[b] and stayed there.

Miriam and Aaron Oppose Moses

12 Miriam[c] and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife,[d] for he had married a Cushite. [2]"Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?" they asked. "Hasn't he also spoken through us?"[e] And the LORD heard this.[f]

[3](Now Moses was a very humble man,[g] more humble than anyone else on the face of the earth.)

[4]At once the LORD said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, "Come out to the Tent of Meeting, all three of you." So the three of them came out. [5]Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud;[h] he stood at the entrance to the Tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam.
When both of them stepped forward, [6]he said, "Listen to my words:

"When a prophet of the LORD is among you,
I reveal[j] myself to him in visions,[k]
I speak to him in dreams.[l] [7]But this is not true of my servant Moses;[m]
he is faithful in all my house.[n] [8]With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles;[o] he sees the form of the LORD.[p] Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"[q]

[9]The anger of the LORD burned against them,[r] and he left them.[s]

[10]When the cloud lifted from above the Tent,[t] there stood Miriam—leprous,[a][u] like snow.[v] Aaron turned toward her and saw that she had lep-rosy;[w] [11]and he said to Moses, "Please, my lord, do not hold against us the sin we have so foolishly committed.[w] [12]Do not let her be like a stillborn infant coming from its mother's womb with its flesh half eaten away."

[13]So Moses cried out to the LORD, "O God, please heal her![x]" [14]The LORD replied to Moses, "If her father had spit in her face,[y] would she not have been in disgrace for seven days? Confine her outside the camp[z] for seven days; after that she can be brought back." [15]So Miriam was confined outside the camp[a] for seven days,[b] and the people did not move on till she was brought back.

[16]After that, the people left Haze-roth[c] and encamped in the Desert of Paran.[d]

Exploring Canaan

13 The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Send some men to explore[e] the land of Canaan,[f] which I am giving to the Israelites.[g] From each ancestral tribe[h] send one of its leaders."

[3]So at the LORD's command Moses sent them out from the Desert of Paran. All of them were leaders of the Israelites.[i] [4]These are their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur; [5]from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori; [6]from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;[j] [7]from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph; [8]from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;[k] [9]from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu; [10]from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi; [11]from the tribe of Manasseh (a tribe of Joseph), Gaddi son of Susi; [12]from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli; [13]from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael; [14]from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi; [15]from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Maki.

[16]These are the names of the men Moses sent to explore[l] the land.
(Moses gave Hoshea son of Nun[m] the name Joshua.)[n]

[17]When Moses sent them to explore Canaan,[o] he said, "Go up through the Negev[p] and on into the hill country.[q] the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many. [19]What kind of land.[y] (It was the season for the first ripe grapes.)[z] 21So they went up and explored the land from the Desert of Zin[a] as far as Rehob,[b] toward Lebo[b] Hamath.[c] 22They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron,[f] where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai,[g] the descendants of Anak,[h] lived. (Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)[i] 23When they reached the Valley of Eshcol,[c][j] they cut off a branch bearing a single cluster of grapes. Two of them carried it on a pole between them, along with some pomegranates[k] and figs.[l] 24That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut off there. 25At the end of forty days[m] they returned from exploring the land.[n]

Report on the Exploration

26They came back to Moses and Aaron and the whole Israelite community at Kadesh[o] in the Desert of Paran.[p] There they reported to them[q] and to the whole assembly and showed them the fruit of the land.[r] 27They gave Moses this account: "We went into the land to which you sent us, and it does flow with milk and honey![s] Here is its fruit.[t] 28But the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large.[u] We even saw descendants of Anak[v] there.[w] 29The Amalekites[x] live in the Negev; the Hittites,[y] Jebusites[z] and Amorites[a] live in the hill country;[b] and the Canaanites[c] live near the sea and along the Jordan.[d]" 30Then Caleb[e] silenced the people before Moses and said, "We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly do it." 31But the men who had gone up with him said, "We can't attack those people; they are stronger than we are."[f] 32And they spread among the Israelites a bad report[g] about the land they had explored. They said, "The land we explored devours[h] those living in it. All the people we saw there are of great size.[i] 33We saw the Nephilim[j] there (the descendants of Anak[k] come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers[l] in our own eyes, and we looked the same to them."

The People Rebel

14 That night all the people of the community raised their voices and wept aloud.[m] 2All the Israelites grumbled[n] against Moses and Aaron, and the whole assembly said to them,
"If only we had died in Egypt![o] Or in this desert![p] 3Why is the LORD bringing us to this land only to let us fall by the sword?[q] Our wives and children[r] will be taken as plunder.[s] Wouldn't it be better for us to go back to Egypt?"[t] 4And they said to each other, "We should choose a leader and go back to Egypt.[u]" 5Then Moses and Aaron fell face-down[v] in front of the whole Israelite assembly[w] gathered there. 6Joshua son of Nun[x] and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their clothes[y] 7and said to the entire Israelite assembly, "The land we passed through and explored is exceedingly good.[z] 8If the LORD is pleased with us,[a] he will lead us into that land, a land flowing with milk and honey,[b] and will give it to us.[c] 9Only do not rebel[d] against the LORD. And do not be afraid[e] of the people of the land,[f] because we will swallow them up. Their protection is gone, but the LORD is with[g] us.[h] Do not be afraid of them."[i] 10But the whole assembly talked about stoning[j] them. Then the glory of the LORD[k] appeared at the Tent of Meeting to all the Israelites. 11The LORD said to Moses, "How long will these people treat me with contempt?[l] How long will they refuse to believe in me,[m] in spite of all the miraculous signs[n] I have performed among them? 12I will strike them down with a plague[o] and destroy them, but I will make you into a nation[p] greater and stronger than they."[q] 13Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear about it! By your power you brought these people up from among them.[r] 14And they will tell the inhabitants of this land about it.
They have already heard[s] that you, O LORD, are with these people[t] and that you, O LORD, have been seen face to face,[a] that your cloud stays over them,[b] and that you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.[c] 15If you put these people to death all at one time, the nations who have heard this report about you will say, 16'The LORD was not able to bring these people into the land he promised them on oath;[d] so he slaughtered them in the desert.'[e] 17"Now may the Lord's strength be displayed, just as you have declared: 18'The LORD is slow to anger, abounding in love and forgiving sin and rebellion.[f] Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.'[g] 19In accordance with your great love, forgive[h] the sin of these people,[i] just as you have pardoned them from the time they left Egypt until now."[j] 20The LORD replied, "I have forgiven them,[k] as you asked. 21Nevertheless, as surely as I live[l] and as surely as the glory of the LORD[m] fills the whole earth,[n] 22not one of the men who saw my glory and the miraculous signs[o] I performed in Egypt and in the desert but who disobeyed me and tested me ten times[p]— 23not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath[q] to their forefathers. No one who has treated me with contempt[r] will ever see it.[s] 24But because my servant Caleb[t] has a different spirit and follows me wholeheartedly,[u] I will bring him into the land he went to, and his descendants will inherit it.[v] 25Since the Amalekites[w] and Canaanites[x] are living in the valleys, turn[y] back tomorrow and set out toward the desert along the route to the Red Sea.[d][z]" 26The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: 27"How long will this wicked community grumble against me? I have heard the complaints of these grumbling Israelites.[a] 28So tell them, 'As surely as I live,[b] declares the LORD, I will do to you[c] the very things I heard you say: 29In this desert your bodies will fall[d]—every one of you twenty years old or more[e] who was counted in the census[f] and who has grumbled against me. 30Not one of you will enter the land[g] I swore with uplifted hand[h] to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh[i] and Joshua son of Nun.[j] 31As for your children that you said would be taken as plunder, I will bring them in to enjoy the land you have rejected.[k] 32But you—your bodies will fall[l] in this desert. 33Your children will be shepherds here for forty years,[m] suffering for your unfaithfulness, until the last of your bodies lies in the desert.

34For forty years[n]—one year for each of the forty days you explored the land[o]—you will suffer for your sins and know what it is like to have me against you.' 35I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will surely do these things[p] to this whole wicked community, which has banded together against me. They will meet their end in this desert; here they will die.[q]" 36So the men Moses had sent[r] to explore the land, who returned and made the whole community grumble[s] against him by spreading a bad report[t] about it— 37these men responsible for spreading the bad report[u] about the land were struck down and died of a plague[v] before the LORD. 38Of the men who went to explore the land,[w] only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh survived.[x] 39When Moses reported this[y] to all the Israelites, they mourned[z] bitterly.
40Early the next morning they went up toward the high hill country.[a] "We have sinned[b]," they said. "We will go up to the place the LORD promised." 41But Moses said, "Why are you disobeying the LORD's command? This will not succeed![c] 42Do not go up, because the LORD is not with you. You will be defeated by your enemies,[d] 43for the Amalekites[e] and Canaanites[f] will face you there. Because you have turned away from the LORD, he will not be with you[g] and you will fall by the sword." 44Nevertheless, in their presumption they went up[h] toward the high hill country, though neither Moses nor the ark of the LORD's covenant moved from the camp.[i] 45Then the Amalekites and Canaanites[j] who lived in that hill country[k] came down and attacked them and beat them down all the way to Hormah.[l]

priest is to make atonement for the whole Israelite community, and they will be forgiven,[z] for it was not intentional[a] and they have brought to the Lord for their wrong an offering made by fire[b] and a sin offering.[c] 26The whole Israelite community and the aliens living among them will be forgiven, because all the people were involved in the unintentional wrong.[d]

27" 'But if just one person sins unintentionally,[e] he must bring a year-old female goat for a sin offering.[f] 28The priest is to make atonement[g] before the Lord for the one who erred by sinning unintentionally, and when atonement has been made for him, he will be forgiven.[h] 29One and the same law applies to everyone who sins unintentionally, whether he is a native-born Israelite or an alien.[i]

30" 'But anyone who sins defiantly,[j] whether native-born or alien,[k] blas-phemes the Lord,[l] and that person must be cut off from his people.[m] 31Because he has despised[n] the Lord's word and broken his commands,[o] that person must surely be cut off; his guilt remains on him.[p]' "

The Sabbath-Breaker Put to Death

32While the Israelites were in the desert,[q] a man was found gathering wood on the Sabbath day.[r] 33Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly, 34and they kept him in custody, because it was not man must die.[h] The whole assembly must stone him outside the camp.[i]" 36So the assembly took him outside the camp and stoned him[j] to death,[k] as the LORD commanded Moses.[l]

Tassels on Garments

37The LORD said to Moses, 38"Speak to the Israelites and say to them:
'Throughout the generations to come[g] you are to make tassels on the corners of your garments,[h] with a blue cord on each tassel. 39You will have these tassels to look at and so you will remember[i] all the commands of the LORD, that you may obey them and not prostitute yourselves[j] by going after the lusts of your own hearts[k] and eyes. 40Then you will remember to obey all my commands[l] and will be consecrated to your God.[m] 41I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to be your God.[n] I am the LORD your God.[o]'"

Korah, Dathan and Abiram

16 Korah[p] son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and certain Reubenites—Dathan and Abi-ram[q], sons of Eliab,[r] and On son of Peleth—became insolent[l] 2and rose up against Moses.[s] With them were 250 Israelite men, well-known community leaders who had been appointed members of the council.[t] 3They came as a group to oppose Moses and Aaron[u] and said to them, "You have gone too far! The whole community is holy,[v] every one of them, and the LORD is with them.[w] Why then do you set yourselves above the LORD's assembly?"[x] 4When Moses heard this, he fell face-down.[y] 5Then he said to Korah and all his followers: "In the morning the LORD will show who belongs to him and who is holy,[z] and he will have that person come near him.[a] The man he chooses[b] he will cause to come near him. 6You, Korah, and all your followers[c] are to do this: Take censers[d] 7and tomorrow put fire[e] and incense[f] in them before the LORD. The man the LORD chooses[g] will be the one who is holy.[h] You Levites have gone too far!" 8Moses also said to Korah, "Now listen, you Levites! 9Isn't it enough[i] for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the Israelite community and brought you near himself to do the work at the LORD's tabernacle and to stand before the community and minister to them?[j] 10He has brought you and all your fellow Levites near himself, but now you are trying to get the priesthood too.[k] 11It is against the LORD that you and all your followers have banded together. Who is Aaron that you should grumble[l] against him?"[m] 12Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram,[n] the sons of Eliab. But they said, "We will not come![o] 13Isn't it enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey[p] to kill us in the desert?[q] And now you also want to lord it over us?[r] 14Moreover, you haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey[s] or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards.[t] Will you gouge out the eyes of[m] these men?[u] No, we will not come!"[v] 15Then Moses became very angry[w] and said to the LORD, "Do not accept their offering. I have not taken so much as a donkey[x] from them, nor have I wronged any of them." 16Moses said to Korah, "You and all your followers are to appear before the LORD tomorrow—you and they and Aaron.[y] 17Each man is to take his censer and put incense in it—250 censers in all—and present it before the LORD.

You and Aaron are to present your cen-sers also.[z]" 18So each man took his censer,[a] put fire and incense in it, and stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 19When Korah had gathered all his followers in opposition to them[b] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the glory of the LORD[c] appeared to the entire assembly.
20The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 21"Separate yourselves[d] from this assembly so I can put an end to them at once."[e] 22But Moses and Aaron fell face-down[f] and cried out, "O God, God of the spirits of all mankind,[g] will you be angry with the entire assembly[h] when only one man sins?"[i]
23Then the LORD said to Moses, 24"Say to the assembly, 'Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.'"

25 Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him. 26 He warned the assembly, "Move back from the tents of these wicked men! Do not touch anything belonging to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins." 27 So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.
Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing with their wives, children and little ones at the entrances to their tents.
28 Then Moses said, "This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things and that it was not my idea: 29 If these men die a natural death and experience only what usually happens to men, then the LORD has not sent me. 30 But if the LORD brings about something totally new, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them, with everything that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the grave,[a] then you will know that these men have treated the LORD with contempt." 31 As soon as he finished saying all this, the ground under them split apart 32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, with their households and all Korah's men and all their possessions. 33 They went down alive into the grave, with everything they owned; the earth closed over them, and they perished and were gone from the community. 34 At their cries, all the Israelites around them fled, shouting, "The earth is going to swallow us too!" 35 And fire came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense.
36 The LORD said to Moses, 37 "Tell Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, to take the censers out of the smoldering remains and scatter the coals some distance away, for the censers are holy—38 the censers of the men who sinned at the cost of their lives. Hammer the censers into sheets to overlay the altar, for they were presented before the LORD and have become holy. Let them be a sign to the Israelites." 39 So Eleazar the priest collected the bronze censers brought by those who had been burned up, and he had them hammered out to overlay the altar, 40 as the LORD directed him through Moses. This was to remind the Israelites that no one except a descendant of Aaron should come to burn incense before the LORD, or he would become like Korah and his followers.
41 The next day the whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. "You have killed the LORD's people," they said.
42 But when the assembly gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron and turned toward the Tent of Meeting, suddenly the cloud covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared. 43 Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Tent of Meeting, 44 and the LORD said to Moses, 45 "Get away from this assembly so I can put an end to them at once." And they fell facedown.
46 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer and put incense in it, along with fire from the altar, and hurry to the assembly to make atonement for them. Wrath has come out from the LORD; the plague has started." 47 So Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly.
The plague had already started among the people, but Aaron offered the incense and made atonement for them.
48 He stood between the living and the dead, and the plague stopped. 49 But 14,700 people died from the plague, in addition to those who had died because of Korah. 50 Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, for the plague had stopped.

The Budding of Aaron's Staff

17 The LORD said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and get twelve staffs from them, one from the leader of each of their ancestral tribes. Write the name of each man on his staff. 3 On the staff of Levi write Aaron's name, for there must be one staff for the head of each ancestral tribe. 4 Place them in the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, where I meet with you.
5 The staff belonging to the man I choose will sprout, and I will rid myself of this constant grumbling against you by the Israelites." 6 So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and their leaders gave him twelve staffs, one for the leader of each of their ancestral tribes, and Aaron's staff was among them. 7 Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the Tent of the Testimony.
8 The next day Moses entered the Tent of the Testimony and saw that Aaron's staff,[a] which represented the house of Levi, had not only sprouted but had budded, blossomed and produced almonds.[b] 9Then Moses brought out all the staffs[c] from the LORD's presence to all the Israelites. They looked at them, and each man took his own staff.

10The LORD said to Moses, "Put back Aaron's staff[d] in front of the Testimony, to be kept as a sign to the rebellious.[e] This will put an end to their grumbling against me, so that they will not die." 11Moses did just as the LORD commanded him.
12The Israelites said to Moses, "We will die! We are lost, we are all lost![f] 13Anyone who even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD will die.[g] Are we all going to die?"

Duties of Priests and Levites 18 The LORD said to Aaron, "You, your sons and your father's family are to bear the responsibility for offenses against the sanctuary,[h] and you and your sons alone are to bear the responsibility for offenses against the priesthood. 2Bring your fellow Levites from your ancestral tribe to join you and assist you when you and your sons minister[i] before the Tent of the Testimony. 3They are to be responsible to you[j] and are to perform all the duties of the Tent,[k] but they must not go near the furnishings of the sanctuary or the altar, or both they and you will die.[l] 4They are to join you and be responsible for the care of the Tent of Meeting—all the work at the Tent—and no one else may come near where you are.[m] 5"You are to be responsible for the care of the sanctuary and the altar,[n] so that wrath will not fall on the Israelites again. 6I myself have selected your fellow Levites from among the Israelites as a gift to you,[o] dedicated to the LORD to do the work at the Tent of Meeting.[p] 7But only you and your sons may serve as priests in connection with everything at the altar and inside the curtain.[q] I am giving you the service of the priesthood as a gift.[r] Anyone else who comes near the sanctuary must be put to death.[s]"

Offerings for Priests and Levites

8Then the LORD said to Aaron, "I myself have put you in charge of the offerings presented to me; all the holy offerings the Israelites give me I give to you and your sons as your portion[t] and regular share.[u] 9You are to have the part of the most holy offerings[v] that is kept from the fire. From all the gifts they bring me as most holy offerings, whether grain[w] or sin[x] or guilt offerings,[y] that part belongs to you and your sons. 10Eat it as something most holy; every male shall eat it.[z] You must regard it as holy.[a] 11"This also is yours: whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the wave offerings[b] of the Israelites. I give this to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share.[c] Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean[d] may eat it.
12"I give you all the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain[e] they give the LORD[f] as the firstfruits of their harvest.[g] 13All the land's firstfruits that they bring to the LORD will be yours.[h] Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.[i] 14"Everything in Israel that is devoted[o] to the LORD[j] is yours. 15The first offspring of every womb, both man and animal, that is offered to the LORD is yours.[k] But you must redeem[l] every firstborn[m] son and every firstborn male of unclean animals.[n] 16When they are a month old,[o] you must redeem them at the redemption price set at five shekels[p][p] of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel,[q] which weighs twenty gerahs.[r] 17"But you must not redeem the first-born of an ox, a sheep or a goat; they are holy.[s] Sprinkle their blood[t] on the altar and burn their fat[u] as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.[v] 18Their meat is to be yours, just as the breast of the wave offering[w] and the right thigh are yours.[x] 19Whatever is set aside from the holy[y] offerings the Israelites present to the LORD I give to
your regular share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt[z] before the LORD for both you and your offspring." 20The LORD said to Aaron, "You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any share among them;[a] I am your share and your inheritance[b] among the Israelites.
21"I give to the Levites all the tithes[c] in Israel as their inheritance[d] in return for the work they do while serving at the Tent of Meeting.[e] 22From now on [o]14 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them. [p]16 That is, about 2 ounces (about 55 grams) the Israelites must not go near the Tent of Meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin and will die.[a] 23 It is the Levites who are to do the work at the Tent of Meeting and bear the responsibility for offenses against it.

This is a lasting ordinance[b] for the generations to come.[c] They will receive no inheritance[d] among the Israelites.[e] 24 Instead, I give to the Levites as their inheritance the tithes that the Israelites present as an offering to the LORD.[f] That is why I said concerning them:
'They will have no inheritance among the Israelites.' "
25 The LORD said to Moses, 26 "Speak to the Levites and say to them: 'When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you[g] as your inheritance, you must present a tenth of that tithe as the LORD's offering.[h] 27 Your offering will be reckoned[i] to you as grain from the threshing floor[j] or juice from the winepress.[k] 28 In this way you also will present an offering to the LORD from all the tithes[l] you receive from the Israelites. From these tithes you must give the LORD's portion to Aaron the priest.
29 You must present as the LORD's portion the best and holiest part of everything given to you.' 30 "Say to the Levites: 'When you present the best part, it will be reckoned to you as the product of the threshing floor or the winepress.[m] 31 You and your households may eat the rest of it anywhere, for it is your wages for your work at the Tent of Meeting.[n] 32 By presenting the best part[o] of it you will not be guilty in this matter;[p] then you will not defile the holy offerings[q] of the Israelites, and you will not die.' "

The Water of Cleansing

19 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: 2 "This is a requirement of the law that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer[r] without defect or blemish[s] and that has never been under a yoke.[t] 3 Give it to Eleazar[u] the priest; it is to be taken outside the camp[v] and slaughtered in his presence. 4 Then Eleazar the priest is to take some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle[w] it seven times toward the front of the Tent of Meeting. 5 While he watches, the heifer is to be burned—its hide, flesh, blood and offal.[x] 6 The priest is to take some cedar wood, hyssop[y] and scarlet wool[z] and throw them onto the burning heifer.
7 After that, the priest must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water.[a] He may then come into the camp, but he will be ceremonially unclean till evening. 8 The man who burns it must also wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he too will be unclean till evening.
9 "A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer[b] and put them in a ceremonially clean place[c] outside the camp. They shall be kept by the Israelite community for use in the water of cleansing;[d] it is for purification from sin.[e] 10 The man who gathers up[f] the ashes of the heifer must also wash his clothes, and he too will be unclean till evening.[g] This will be a lasting ordinance[h] both for the Israelites and for the aliens living among them.[i] 11 "Whoever touches the dead body[j] of anyone will be unclean for seven days.[k] 12 He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day;[l] then he will be clean.
But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean.[m] 13 Whoever touches the dead body[n] of anyone and fails to purify himself defiles the LORD's tabernacle.[o] That person must be cut off from Israel.[p] Because the water of cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, he is unclean;[q] his uncleanness remains on him.
14 "This is the law that applies when a person dies in a tent: Anyone who enters the tent and anyone who is in it will be unclean for seven days, 15 and every open container[r] without a lid fastened on it will be unclean.
16 "Anyone out in the open who touches someone who has been killed with a sword or someone who has died a natural death,[s] or anyone who touches a human bone[t] or a grave,[u] will be unclean for seven days.[v] 17 "For the unclean person, put some ashes[w] from the burned purification offering into a jar and pour fresh water[x] over them. 18 Then a man who is ceremonially clean is to take some hyssop,[y] dip it in the water and sprinkle[z] the tent and all the furnishings and the people who were there. He must also sprinkle anyone who has touched a human bone or a grave[a] or someone who has been killed or someone who has died a natural death. 19 The man who is clean is to sprinkle[b] the unclean person on the third and seventh days, and on the seventh day he is to purify him.[c] The person being cleansed must wash his clothes[d] and bathe with water, and

20 In the first month the whole Israelite community arrived at the Desert of Zin,[f] and they stayed at Kadesh.[g] There Miriam[h] died and was buried.
2Now there was no water[i] for the community,[j] and the people gathered in opposition[k] to Moses and Aaron.
3They quarreled[l] with Moses and said, "If only we had died when our brothers fell dead[m] before the LORD![n] 4Why did you bring the LORD's community into this desert,[o] that we and our livestock should die here?[p] 5Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to this terrible place? It has no grain or figs, grapevines or pomegranates.[q] And there is no water to drink![r]" 6Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting[s] and fell facedown,[t] and the glory of the LORD[u] appeared to them.
7The LORD said to Moses, 8"Take the staff,[v] and you and your brother Aaron gather the assembly together. Speak to that rock before their eyes and it will pour out its water.[w] You will bring water out of the rock for the community so they and their livestock can drink." 9So Moses took the staff[x] from the LORD's presence,[y] just as he commanded him. 10He and Aaron gathered the assembly together[z] in front of the rock and Moses said to them, "Listen, you rebels, must we bring you water out of this rock?"[a] 11Then Moses raised his arm and struck the rock twice with his staff. Water[b] gushed out, and the community and their livestock drank.
12But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust in me enough to honor me as holy[c] in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bah,[a][e] where the Israelites quarreled[f] himself holy among them.[g]

Edom Denies Israel Passage

14Moses sent messengers from Kadesh[h] to the king of Edom,[i] saying:
"This is what your brother Israel says: You know[j] about all the hardships[k] that have come upon us. 15Our forefathers went down into Egypt,[l] and we lived there many years.[m] The Egyptians mistreated[n] us and our fathers, 16but when we cried out to the LORD, he heard our cry[o] and sent an angel[p] and brought us out of Egypt.[q] "Now we are here at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.[r] 17Please let us pass through your country. We will not go through any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king's highway and not turn to the right or to the left until we have passed through your territory.[s]" 18But Edom[t] answered:
"You may not pass through here; if you try, we will march out and attack you with the sword.[u]" 19The Israelites replied:
"We will go along the main road, and if we or our livestock[v] drink any of your water, we will pay for it.[w] We only want to pass through on foot—nothing else." 20Again they answered:
"You may not pass through.[x]" Then Edom[y] came out against them with a large and powerful army. 21Since Edom refused to let them go through their territory,[z] Israel turned away from them.[a]

The Death of Aaron

22The whole Israelite community set out from Kadesh[b] and came to Mount Hor.[c] 23At Mount Hor, near the border of Edom,[d] the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 24"Aaron will be gathered to his people.[e] He will not enter the land I give the Israelites, because both of you rebelled against my command[f] at the [a]13 Meribah means quarreling.

waters of Meribah.[a] 25 Get Aaron and his son Eleazar and take them up Mount Hor.[b] 26 Remove Aaron's garments[c] and put them on his son Eleazar, for Aaron will be gathered to his people;[d] he will die there." 27 Moses did as the LORD commanded: They went up Mount Hor[e] in the sight of the whole community. 28 Moses removed Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar.[f] And Aaron died there[g] on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain, 29 and when the whole community learned that Aaron had died,[h] the entire house of Israel mourned for him[i] thirty days.

Arad Destroyed

21 When the Canaanite king of Arad,[j] who lived in the Negev,[k] heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked the Israelites and captured some of them. 2 Then Israel made this vow[l] to the LORD: "If you will deliver these people into our hands, we will totally destroy[r][m] their cities." 3 The LORD listened to Israel's plea and gave the Canaanites[n] over to them. They completely destroyed them[o] and their towns; so the place was named Hormah.[s][p]

The Bronze Snake

4 They traveled from Mount Hor[q] along the route to the Red Sea,[t][r] to go around Edom.[s] But the people grew impatient on the way;[t] 5 they spoke against God[u] and against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt[v] to die in the desert?[w] There is no bread! There is no water![x]
And we detest this miserable food!"[y] 6 Then the LORD sent venomous snakes[z] among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died.[a] 7 The people came to Moses[b] and said, "We sinned[c] when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD[d] will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed[e] for the people.
8 The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole;[f] anyone who is bitten can look at it and live." 9 So Moses made a bronze snake[g] and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.[h]

The Journey to Moab

10 The Israelites moved on and camped at Oboth.[i] 11 Then they set out from Oboth and camped in Iye Abarim, in the desert that faces Moab[j] toward the sunrise. 12 From there they moved on and camped in the Zered Valley.[k] 13 They set out from there and camped alongside the Arnon[l], which is in the desert extending into Amorite territory. The Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.[m] 14 That is why the Book of the Wars[n] of the LORD says:

"... Waheb in Suphah[u] and the ravines, the Arnon 15 and[v] the slopes of the ravines
that lead to the site of Ar[o] and lie along the border of Moab."

16 From there they continued on to Beer,[p] the well where the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together and I will give them water." 17 Then Israel sang this song:[q]

"Spring up, O well!
Sing about it, 18 about the well that the princes dug, that the nobles of the people sank—the nobles with scepters and staffs."

Then they went from the desert to Mattanah, 19 from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, 20 and from Bamoth to the valley in Moab where the top of Pisgah[r] overlooks the wasteland.

Defeat of Sihon and Og

21 Israel sent messengers[s] to say to Sihon[t] king of the Amorites:[u] 22 "Let us pass through your country. We will not turn aside into any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king's highway until we have passed through your territory.[v]"

23 But Sihon would not let Israel pass through his territory.[w] He mustered his entire army and marched out into the desert against Israel. When he reached Jahaz,[x] he fought with Israel.[y]

[r]2 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verse 3. [s]3 Hormah means destruction. [t]4 Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds [u]14 The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain. [v]14,15 Or "I have been given from Suphah and the ravines / of the Arnon [15]to

24Israel, however, put him to the sword[a] and took over his land[b] from the Arnon to the Jabbok,[c] but only as far as the Ammonites,[d] because their border was fortified. 25Israel captured all the cities of the Amorites[e] and occupied them,[f] including Heshbon[g] and all its surrounding settlements.
26Heshbon was the city of Sihon[h] king of the Amorites,[i] who had fought against the former king of Moab[j] and had taken from him all his land as far as the Arnon.[k] 27That is why the poets say:

"Come to Heshbon and let it be rebuilt;
let Sihon's city be restored.

28"Fire went out from Heshbon, a blaze from the city of Sihon.[l] It consumed[m] Ar[n] of Moab, the citizens of Arnon's heights.[o] 29Woe to you, O Moab![p] You are destroyed, O people of Chemosh![q]
He has given up his sons as fugitives[r] and his daughters as captives[s] to Sihon king of the Amorites.

30"But we have overthrown them; Heshbon is destroyed all the way to Dibon.[t]
We have demolished them as far as Nophah, which extends to Medeba.[u]" 31So Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.[v] 32After Moses had sent spies[w] to Ja-zer,[x] the Israelites captured its surrounding settlements and drove out the Amorites who were there. 33Then they turned and went up along the road toward Bashan,[y][z] and Og king of Bashan and his whole army marched out to meet them in battle at Edrei.[a] 34The LORD said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you, with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.[b]" 35So they struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army, leaving them no survivors.[c] And they took possession of his land.[d]

Balak Summons Balaam

22 Then the Israelites traveled to the plains of Moab[e] and camped along the Jordan[f] across from Jericho.[w][g]

2Now Balak son of Zippor[h] saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites, 3and Moab was terrified because there were so many people. Indeed, Moab was filled with dread[i] because of the Israelites.
4The Moabites[j] said to the elders of Midian,[k] "This horde is going to lick up everything[l] around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field."[m] So Balak son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, 5sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor,[n] who was at Pethor, near the River,[x][o] in his native land. Balak said:

"A people has come out of Egypt;[p] they cover the face of the land and have settled next to me.
6Now come and put a curse[q] on these people, because they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the country.[r] For I know that those you bless are blessed, and those you curse are cursed."

7The elders of Moab and Midian left, taking with them the fee for divination.[s] When they came to Balaam, they told him what Balak had said.
8"Spend the night here,"[t] Balaam said to them, "and I will bring you back the answer the LORD gives me." So the Moabite princes stayed with him.
9God came to Balaam[u] and asked,[v]
"Who are these men with you?" 10Balaam said to God, "Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message: 11'A people that has come out of Egypt covers the face of the land.
Now come and put a curse on them for me. Perhaps then I will be able to fight them and drive them away.'" 12But God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them. You must not put a curse on those people, because they are blessed.[w]" 13The next morning Balaam got up and said to Balak's princes, "Go back to your own country, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you." 14So the Moabite princes returned to Balak and said, "Balaam refused to come with us."
15Then Balak sent other princes, w1 Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River x5 That is, the Euphrates more numerous and more distinguished than the first. 16They came to Balaam and said:

"This is what Balak son of Zippor says: Do not let anything keep you from coming to me, 17because I will reward you handsomely[a] and do whatever you say. Come and put a curse[b] on these people for me."

18But Balaam answered them, "Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything great or small to go beyond the command of the LORD my God.[c] 19Now stay here tonight as the others did, and I will find out what else the LORD will tell me.[d]" 20That night God came to Balaam[e] and said, "Since these men have come to summon you, go with them, but do only what I tell you."[f]

Balaam's Donkey

21Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Moab. 22But God was very angry[g] when he went, and the angel of the LORD[h] stood in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.
23When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with a drawn sword[i] in his hand, she turned off the road into a field. Balaam beat her[j] to get her back on the road.
24Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between two vineyards, with walls on both sides. 25When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed close to the wall, crushing Ba-laam's foot against it. So he beat her again.
26Then the angel of the LORD moved on ahead and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right or to the left. 27When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam, and he was angry[k] and beat her with his staff.
28Then the LORD opened the donkey's mouth,[l] and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?[m]" 29Balaam answered the donkey, "You have made a fool of me! If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now.[n]" 30The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your own donkey, which you have always ridden, to this day? Have I been in the habit of doing this to you?"

"No," he said.
31Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes,[o] and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with his sword drawn. So he bowed low and fell facedown.
32The angel of the LORD asked him, "Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? I have come here to oppose you because your path is a reckless one before me.[y] 33The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away, I would certainly have killed you by now,[p] but I would have spared her."
34Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned.[q] I did not realize you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now if you are displeased, I will go back." 35The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.
36When Balak[r] heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the Moabite town on the Arnon[s] border, at the edge of his territory.
37Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why didn't you come to me? Am I really not able to reward you?" 38"Well, I have come to you now," Balaam replied. "But can I say just anything? I must speak only what God puts in my mouth."[t] 39Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth. 40Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep,[u] and gave some to Balaam and the princes who were with him.
41The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth Baal,[v] and from there he saw part of the people.[w]

Balaam's First Oracle

23 Balaam said, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams[x] for me." 2Balak did as Balaam said, and the two of them offered a bull and a ram on each altar.[y] 3Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your offering while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet with me.[z] Whatever he reveals to me I will tell you." Then he went off to a barren height.

5The LORD put a message in Balaam's mouth[a b] and said, "Go back to Balak and give him this message."[c] 6So he went back to him and found him standing beside his offering, with all the princes of Moab.[d] 7Then Balaam[e] uttered his oracle:[f]

"Balak brought me from Aram,[g] the king of Moab from the eastern mountains.[h]
'Come,' he said, 'curse Jacob for me; come, denounce Israel.'[i] 8How can I curse those whom God has not cursed?[j] How can I denounce those whom the LORD has not denounced?[k] 9From the rocky peaks I see them, from the heights I view them.[l] I see a people who live apart and do not consider themselves one of the nations.[m] 10Who can count the dust of Jacob[n] or number the fourth part of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous,[o]
and may my end be like theirs![p]" 11Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies,[q] but you have done nothing but bless them!"[r] 12He answered, "Must I not speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?"[s]

Balaam's Second Oracle

13Then Balak said to him, "Come with me to another place[t] where you can see them; you will see only a part but not all of them.[u] And from there, curse them for me.[v]" 14So he took him to the field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah,[w] and there he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.[x] 15Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your offering while I meet with him over there." 16The LORD met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth[y] and said, "Go back to Balak and give him this message."
17So he went to him and found him standing beside his offering, with the princes of Moab.[z] Balak asked him, "What did the LORD say?" 18Then he uttered his oracle:[a] 25Then Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!"

26Balaam answered, "Did I not tell you I must do whatever the LORD says?"[t]

Balaam's Third Oracle

27Then Balak said to Balaam, "Come, let me take you to another place.[u] Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them for me[v] from there." 28And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor,[w] overlooking the wasteland.
29Balaam said, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me." 30Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.[x]

24 Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel,[y] he did not resort to sorcery[z] as at other times, but turned his face toward the desert.[a] 2When Balaam looked out and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came upon him[a] 3and he uttered his oracle:

"The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly,[b] 4the oracle of one who hears the words of God,[c] who sees a vision from the Almighty,[a] [d] who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

5"How beautiful are your tents,[e] O Jacob, your dwelling places, O Israel!

6"Like valleys they spread out, like gardens beside a river,[f] like aloes[g] planted by the LORD, like cedars beside the waters.[h] 7Water will flow from their buckets; their seed will have abundant water.

"Their king will be greater than Agag;[i] 8"God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox.

They devour hostile nations and break their bones in pieces;[k]

9Like a lion they crouch and lie down, like a lioness[m]—who dares to rouse them?

"May those who bless you be blessed[n] and those who curse you be cursed!"[o]

10Then Balak's anger burned[p] against Balaam. He struck his hands together[q] and said to him, "I summoned you to curse my enemies,[r] but you have blessed them[s] these three times.[t] 11Now leave at once and go home![u] I said I would reward you handsomely,[v] but the LORD has kept you from being rewarded." 12Balaam answered Balak, "Did I not tell the messengers you sent me,[w] 13'Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything of my own accord, good or bad, to go beyond the command of the LORD[x]—and I must say only what the LORD says'?[y] 14Now I am going back to my people, but come, let me warn you of what this people will do to your people in days to come."[z]

Balaam's Fourth Oracle

15Then he uttered his oracle:

"The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly, 16the oracle of one who hears the words[a] of God, who has knowledge from the Most High,[b] who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

17"I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near.[c] A star will come out of Jacob;[d] a scepter will rise out of Israel.[e] He will crush the foreheads of Moab,[f] the skulls[b] [g] of[c] all the sons of Sheth.[d] 18Edom[h] will be conquered; Seir,[i] his enemy, will be conquered,[j] but Israel[k] will grow strong.
19A ruler will come out of Jacob[l] and destroy the survivors of the city."

Balaam's Final Oracles

20Then Balaam saw Amalek[m] and uttered his oracle:

"Amalek was first among the nations, but he will come to ruin at last."[n]

21Then he saw the Kenites[o] and uttered his oracle:

"Your dwelling place is secure,[p] your nest is set in a rock; 22yet you Kenites will be destroyed when Asshur[q] takes you captive."

23Then he uttered his oracle:

"Ah, who can live when God does this?[e] 24 Ships will come from the shores of Kittim;[r] they will subdue Asshur[s] and Eber,[t] but they too will come to ruin."[u]

[25]Then Balaam[a] got up and returned home and Balak went his own way.

Moab Seduces Israel

25 While Israel was staying in Shittim,[b] the men began to indulge in sexual immorality[c] with Moabite[d] women,[e] [2]who invited them to the sacrifices[f] to their gods.[g] The people ate and bowed down before these gods.
[3]So Israel joined in worshiping[h] the Baal of Peor.[i] And the LORD's anger burned against them.
[4]The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders[j] of these people, kill them and expose[k] them in broad daylight before the LORD,[l] so that the LORD's fierce anger[m] may turn away from Israel."
[5]So Moses said to Israel's judges, "Each of you must put to death[n] those of your men who have joined in worshiping the Baal of Peor."[o] [6]Then an Israelite man brought to his family a Midianite[p] woman right before the eyes of Moses and the whole assembly of Israel while they were weeping[q] at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. [7]When Phinehas[r] son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, saw this, he left the assembly, took a spear[s] in his hand [8]and followed the Israelite into the tent. He drove the spear through both of them—through the Israelite and into the woman's body. Then the plague against the Israelites was stopped;[t] [9]but those who died in the plague[u] numbered 24,000.[v] [10]The LORD said to Moses, [11]"Phine-has son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, has turned my anger away from the Israelites;[w] for he was as zealous as I am for my honor[x] among them, so that in my zeal I did not put an end to them. [12]Therefore tell him I am making my covenant of peace[y] with him. [13]He and his descendants will have a covenant of a lasting priesthood,[z] because he was zealous[a] for the honor[b] of his God and made atonement[c] for the Israelites."[d] [14]The name of the Israelite who was killed with the Midianite woman[e] was Zimri son of Salu, the leader of a Simeonite family.[f] [15]And the name of the Midianite woman who was put to death was Cozbi[g] daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a Midianite family.[h] [16]The LORD said to Moses,[i] [17]"Treat the Midianites[j] as enemies[k] and kill them,[l] [18]because they treated you as enemies when they deceived you in the affair of Peor[m] and their sister Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite leader, the woman who was killed when the plague came as a result of Peor."

The Second Census

26 After the plague[n] the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, [2]"Take a census[o] of the whole Israelite community by families—all those twenty years old or more who are able to serve in the army[p] of Israel." [3]So on the plains of Moab[q] by the Jordan across from Jericho,[f3][r] Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them and said, [4]"Take a census of the men twenty years old or more, as the LORD commanded Moses."

These were the Israelites who came out of Egypt:[s]

[5]The descendants of Reuben,[t] the first-born son of Israel, were:
through Hanoch,[u] the Hanochite clan; through Pallu,[v] the Palluite clan; [6]through Hezron,[w] the Hezronite clan; through Carmi,[x] the Carmite clan.
[7]These were the clans of Reuben; those numbered were 43,730.
[8]The son of Pallu was Eliab, [9]and the sons of Eliab[y] were Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. The same Dathan and Abiram were the community[z] officials who rebelled against Moses and Aaron and were among Korah's followers when they rebelled against the LORD.[a] [10]The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them[b] along with Korah, whose followers died when the fire devoured the 250 men.[c] And they served as a warning sign.[d] [11]The line of Korah,[e] however, did not die out.[f]

[12]The descendants of Simeon by their clans were:
through Nemuel,[g] the Nemuelite clan; through Jamin,[h] the Jaminite clan; through Jakin, the Jakinite clan; [13]through Zerah,[i] the Zerahite clan; through Shaul, the Shaulite clan.
[14]These were the clans of Simeon;[j] there were 22,200 men.[k] land is to be allotted to them as an inheritance based on the number of names.[g] 54 To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one; each is to receive its inheritance according to the number[h] of those listed.[i] 55 Be sure that the land is distributed by lot.[j] What each group inherits will be according to the names for its ancestral tribe. 56 Each inheritance is to be distributed by lot among the larger and smaller groups."

62 All the male Levites a month old or more numbered 23,000.[t] They were not counted[u] along with the other Israelites because they received no inheritance[v] among them.[w]

63 These are the ones counted[x] by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they counted the Israelites on the plains of Moab[y] by the Jordan across from Jericho.[z] 64 Not one of them was among those counted[a] by Moses and Aaron[b] the priest when they counted the Israelites in the Desert of Sinai.
65 For the LORD had told those Israelites they would surely die in the desert,[c] and not one of them was left except Caleb[d] son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.[e]

Zelophehad's Daughters

27:1-11pp — Nu 36:1-12

27 The daughters of Zelophehad[f] son of Hepher,[g] the son of Gilead,[h] the son of Makir,[i] the son of Manasseh, belonged to the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph. The names of the daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. They approached 2 the entrance to the Tent of Meeting[j] and stood before Moses,[k] Eleazar the priest, the leaders[l] and the whole assembly, and said, 3 "Our father died in the desert.[m] He was not among Korah's followers, who banded together against the LORD,[n] but he died for his own sin and left no sons.[o] 4 Why should our father's name disappear from his clan because he had no son?
Give us property among our father's relatives."

5 So Moses brought their case[p] before the LORD[q] 6 and the LORD said to him, 7 "What Zelophehad's daughters are saying is right. You must certainly give them property as an inheritance[r] among their father's relatives and turn their father's inheritance over to them.[s]

8 "Say to the Israelites, 'If a man dies and leaves no son, turn his inheritance over to his daughter. 9 If he has no daughter, give his inheritance to his brothers. 10If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father's brothers. 11If his father had no brothers, give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his clan, that he may possess it. This is to be a legal requirement[a] for the Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses.' "

Joshua to Succeed Moses

12Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go up this mountain[b] in the Abarim range[c] and see the land[d] I have given the Israelites.[e] 13After you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people,[f] as your brother Aaron[g] was, 14for when the community rebelled at the waters in the Desert of Zin,[h] both of you disobeyed my command to honor me as holy[i] before their eyes." (These were the waters of Meribah[j] Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin.)

15Moses said to the LORD, 16"May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all mankind,[k] appoint a man over this community 17to go out and come in before them, one who will lead them out and bring them in, so the LORD's people will not be like sheep without a shepherd."[l]

18So the LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit,[l][m] and lay your hand on him.[n] 19Have him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire assembly and commission him[o] in their presence.[p] 20Give him some of your authority so the whole Israelite community will obey him.[q] 21He is to stand before Eleazar the priest, who will obtain decisions for him by inquiring[r] of the Urim[s] before the LORD. At his command he and the entire community of the Israelites will go out, and at his command they will come in."

22Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole assembly. 23Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him,[t] as the LORD instructed through Moses.

Daily Offerings

28 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Give this command to the Israelites and say to them: 'See that you present to me at the appointed time[u] the food[v] for my offerings made by fire, as an aroma pleasing to me.'[w] 3Say to them: 'This is the offering made by fire that you are to present to the LORD: two lambs a year old without defect,[x] as a regular burnt offering each day.[y] 4Prepare one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight,[z] 5together with a grain offering[a] of a tenth of an ephah[m] of fine flour[b] mixed with a quarter of a hin[n] of oil[c] from pressed olives. 6This is the regular burnt offering[d] instituted at Mount Sinai[e] as a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.[f] 7The accompanying drink offering[g] is to be a quarter of a hin of fermented drink[h] with each lamb. Pour out the drink offering to the LORD at the sanctuary.[i] 8Prepare the second lamb at twilight,[j] along with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering that you prepare in the morning.[k] This is an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.[l]

Sabbath Offerings

9" 'On the Sabbath[m] day, make an offering of two lambs a year old without defect,[n] together with its drink offering and a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah[o][o] of fine flour mixed with oil.[p] 10This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath,[q] in addition to the regular burnt offering[r] and its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

11" 'On the first of every month,[s] present to the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls,[t] one ram[u] and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.[v] 12With each bull there is to be a grain offering[w] of three-tenths of an ephah[p][x] of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, a grain offering of two-tenths[y] of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; 13and with each lamb, a grain offering[z] of a tenth[a] of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil. The Passover

28:16-25pp — Ex 12:14-20; Lev 23:4-8; Dt 16:1-8

16 " 'On the fourteenth day of the first month the LORD's Passover[b] is to be held. 17 On the fifteenth day of this month there is to be a festival; for seven days[c] eat bread made without yeast.[d] 18 On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.[e] 19 Present to the LORD an offering made by fire,[f] a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.[g] 20 With each bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah[h] of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;[i] 21 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.[j] 22 Include one male goat as a sin offering[k] to make atonement for you.[l] 23 Prepare these in addition to the regular morning burnt offering. 24 In this way prepare the food for the offering made by fire every day for seven days as an aroma pleasing to the LORD;[m] it is to be prepared in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. 25 On the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

28:26-31pp — Lev 23:15-22; Dt 16:9-12

26 " 'On the day of firstfruits,[n] when you present to the LORD an offering of new grain during the Feast of Weeks,[o]
hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.[p] 27 Present a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.[q] 28 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;[r] 29 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.[s] 30 Include one male goat[t] to make atonement for you. 31 Prepare these together with their drink offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offering[u] and its grain offering. Be sure the animals are without defect.

29 " 'On the first day of the seventh month hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.[v] It is a day for you to sound the trumpets. 2 As an aroma pleasing to the LORD,[w] prepare a burnt offering[x] of one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old,[y] all without defect.[z] 3 With the bull prepare a grain offering[a] of three-tenths of an ephah[s] of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths[t]; 4 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.[u][b] 5 Include one male goat[c] as a sin offering to make atonement for you. 6 These are in addition to the monthly[d] and daily burnt offerings[e] with their grain offerings[f] and drink offerings[g] as specified. They are offerings made to the LORD by fire—a pleasing aroma.[h]

29:7-11pp — Lev 16:2-34; 23:26-32

7 " 'On the tenth day of this seventh month hold a sacred assembly. You must deny yourselves[v][i] and do no work.[j] 8 Present as an aroma pleasing to the LORD a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.[k] 9 With the bull prepare a grain offering[l] of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;[m] 10 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.[n] 11 Include one male goat[o] as a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering for atonement and the regular burnt offering[p] with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.[q]

12 " 'On the fifteenth day of the seventh[r] month,[s] hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. Celebrate a festival to the LORD for seven days.
13 Present an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD,[t] a burnt offering of thirteen young bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.[u] 14 With each of the thirteen bulls prepare a grain offering[v] of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with each of the two rams, two-tenths; 15 and with each of the fourteen lambs, one-tenth.[w] 16 Include one male goat as a sin offering,[x] 40Moses told the Israelites all that the LORD commanded him.

Vows

30 Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel:[r] "This is what the LORD commands: 2When a man makes a vow to the LORD or takes an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said.[s]

3"When a young woman still living in her father's house makes a vow to the LORD or obligates herself by a pledge 4and her father hears about her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then all her vows and every pledge by which she obligated herself will stand.[t] 5But if her father forbids her[u] when he hears about it, none of her vows or the pledges by which she obligated herself will stand; the LORD will release her because her father has forbidden her.

6"If she marries after she makes a vow[v] or after her lips utter a rash promise by which she obligates herself 7and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her, then her vows or the pledges by which she obligated herself will stand. 8But if her husband[w] forbids her when he hears about it, he nullifies the vow that obligates her or the rash promise by which she obligates herself, and the LORD will release her.[x]

9"Any vow or obligation taken by a widow or divorced woman will be binding on her.

10"If a woman living with her husband makes a vow or obligates herself by a pledge under oath 11and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her and does not forbid her, then all her vows or the pledges by which she husband nullifies them when he hears about them, then none of the vows or pledges that came from her lips will stand.[a] Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will release her.

13Her husband may confirm or nullify any vow she makes or any sworn pledge to deny herself. 14But if her husband says nothing to her about it from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or the pledges binding on her.
He confirms them by saying nothing to her when he hears about them. 15If, however, he nullifies them[b] some time after he hears about them, then he is responsible for her guilt."

16These are the regulations the LORD gave Moses concerning relationships between a man and his wife, and between a father and his young daughter still living in his house.

Vengeance on the Midianites

31 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Take vengeance on the Midianites[c] for the Israelites. After that, you will be gathered to your people.[d]" 3So Moses said to the people, "Arm some of your men to go to war against the Midianites and to carry out the LORD's vengeance[e] on them. 4Send into battle a thousand men from each of the tribes of Israel." 5So twelve thousand men armed for battle,[f] a thousand from each tribe, were supplied from the clans of Israel. 6Moses sent them into battle,[g] a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas[h] son of Eleazar, the priest, who took with him articles from the sanctuary[i] and the trumpets[j] for signaling.

7They fought against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses,[k] and killed every man.[l] 8Among their victims were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba[m]—the five kings of Midian.[n] They also killed Balaam son of Beor[o] with the sword.[p] 9The Israelites captured the Midianite women[q] and children and took all the Midianite herds, flocks and goods as plunder.[r] 10They burned[s] all the towns where the Midianites had settled, as well as all their camps.[t] 11They took all the plunder and spoils, including the people and animals,[u] 12and brought the captives, spoils[v] and plunder to Moses and Eleazar the priest and the Israelite assembly[w] at their camp on the plains of Moab, by the Jordan across from Jericho.[x][z]

13Moses, Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the community went to meet them outside the camp. 14Moses was angry with the officers of the army[y]—the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds—who returned from the battle.

15"Have you allowed all the women to live?" he asked them. 16"They were the ones who followed Balaam's advice[z] and were the means of turning the Israelites away from the LORD in what happened at Peor,[a] so that a plague[b] struck the LORD's people.
17Now kill all the boys. And kill every woman who has slept with a man,[c] 18but save for yourselves every girl who has never slept with a man.

19"All of you who have killed anyone or touched anyone who was killed[d] must stay outside the camp seven days.[e] On the third and seventh days you must purify yourselves[f] and your captives. 20Purify every garment[g] as well as everything made of leather, goat hair or wood.[h]"

21Then Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone into battle,[i] "This is the requirement of the law that the LORD gave Moses: 22Gold, silver, bronze, iron,[j] tin, lead 23and anything else that can withstand fire must be put through the fire,[k] and then it will be clean. But it must also be purified with the water of cleansing.[l] And whatever cannot withstand fire must be put through that water. 24On the seventh day wash your clothes and you will be clean.[m] Then you may come into the camp.[n]"

Dividing the Spoils

25The LORD said to Moses, 26"You and Eleazar the priest and the family heads[o] of the community are to count all the people[p] and animals that were captured.[q] 27Divide[r] the spoils between the soldiers who took part in the battle and the rest of the community.
28From the soldiers who fought in the battle, set apart as tribute for the LORD[s] one out of every five hundred, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep or goats. 29Take this tribute from their half share and give it to Eleazar the priest as the LORD's part. 30From the Israelites' half, select one out of every fifty, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats or other animals. Give [x]12 Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River them to the Levites, who are responsible for the care of the LORD's tabernacle.[a]" 31So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32The plunder remaining from the spoils[b] that the soldiers took was 675,- 000 sheep, 3372,000 cattle, 3461,000 donkeys 35and 32,000 women who had never slept with a man.
36The half share of those who fought in the battle was:

337,500 sheep, 37of which the tribute for the LORD[c] was 675; 3836,000 cattle, of which the tribute for the LORD was 72; 3930,500 donkeys, of which the tribute for the LORD was 61; 4016,000 people, of which the tribute for the LORD was 32.

41Moses gave the tribute to Eleazar the priest as the LORD's part,[d] as the LORD commanded Moses.[e] 42The half belonging to the Israelites, which Moses set apart from that of the fighting men— 43the community's half—was 337,500 sheep, 4436,000 cattle, 4530,500 donkeys 46and 16,000 people. 47From the Israelites' half, Moses selected one out of every fifty persons and animals, as the LORD commanded him, and gave them to the Levites, who were responsible for the care of the LORD's tabernacle.
48Then the officers[f] who were over the units of the army—the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds—went to Moses 49and said to him, "Your servants have counted[g] the soldiers under our command, and not one is missing.[h] 50So we have brought as an offering to the LORD the gold articles each of us acquired—armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings and necklaces—to make atonement for ourselves[i] before the LORD." 51Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted from them the gold—all the crafted articles. 52All the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds that Moses and Eleazar presented as a gift to the LORD weighed 16,750 shekels.[y] 53Each soldier had taken plunder[j] for himself.
54Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting[k] as a memorial[l] for the Israelites before the LORD.

The Transjordan Tribes

32 The Reubenites and Gadites, who had very large herds and flocks,[m] saw that the lands of Jazer[n] and Gilead[o] were suitable for livestock.[p] 2So they came to Moses and Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the community,[q] and said, 3"Ataroth,[r] Dibon,[s] Jazer,[t] Nimrah,[u] Heshbon,[v] Elealeh,[w] Sebam,[x] Nebo[y] and Beon[z]— 4the land the LORD subdued[a] before the people of Israel—are suitable for livestock,[b] and your servants have livestock. 5If we have found favor in your eyes," they said, "let this land be given to your servants as our possession. Do not make us cross the Jordan.[c]" 6Moses said to the Gadites and Reu-benites, "Shall your countrymen go to war while you sit here? 7Why do you discourage the Israelites from going over into the land the LORD has given them?[d] 8This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to look over the land.[e] 9After they went up to the Valley of Eshcol[f] and viewed the land, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the land the LORD had given them. 10The LORD's anger was aroused[g] that day and he swore this oath:[h] 11'Because they have not followed me wholeheartedly, not one of the men twenty years old or more[i] who came up out of Egypt[j] will see the land I promised on oath[k] to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob[l]— 12not one except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they followed the LORD wholeheartedly.'[m] 13The LORD's anger burned against Israel[n] and he made them wander in the desert forty years, until the whole generation of those who had done evil in his sight was gone.[o] 14"And here you are, a brood of sinners, standing in the place of your fathers and making the LORD even more angry with Israel.[p] 15If you turn away from following him, he will again leave all this people in the desert, and you will be the cause of their destruction.[q]" 16Then they came up to him and said, "We would like to build pens[r] here for our livestock[s] and cities for our women and children. 17But we are ready to arm ourselves and go ahead of the Israelites[t] until we have brought them to their place.[u] Meanwhile our women and children will live in forti-

[y]52 That is, about 420 pounds (about 190 kilograms) fied cities, for protection from the inhabitants of the land. [18]We will not return to our homes until every Israelite has received his inheritance.[a] [19]We will not receive any inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan, because our inheritance[b] has come to us on the east side of the Jordan."[c] [20]Then Moses said to them, "If you will do this—if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for battle,[d] [21]and if all of you will go armed over the Jordan before the LORD until he has driven his enemies out before him[e]— [22]then when the land is subdued before the LORD, you may return[f] and be free from your obligation to the LORD and to Israel. And this land will be your possession[g] before the LORD.[h] [23]"But if you fail to do this, you will be sinning against the LORD; and you may be sure that your sin will find you out.[i] [24]Build cities for your women and children, and pens for your flocks,[j] but do what you have promised.[k]" [25]The Gadites and Reubenites said to Moses, "We your servants will do as our lord commands.[l] [26]Our children and wives, our flocks and herds will remain here in the cities of Gilead.[m] [27]But your servants, every man armed for battle, will cross over to fight[n] before the LORD, just as our lord says." [28]Then Moses gave orders about them[o] to Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun[p] and to the family heads of the Israelite tribes.[q] [29]He said to them, "If the Gadites and Reubenites, every man armed for battle, cross over the Jordan with you before the LORD, then when the land is subdued before you,[r] give them the land of Gilead as their possession.[s] [30]But if they do not cross over[t] with you armed, they must accept their possession with you in Canaan.[u]" [31]The Gadites and Reubenites answered, "Your servants will do what the LORD has said.[v] [32]We will cross over before the LORD into Canaan armed,[w] but the property we inherit will be on this side of the Jordan.[x]" [33]Then Moses gave to the Gadites,[y] the Reubenites and the half-tribe of Manasseh[z] son of Joseph the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites[a] and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan[b]—the whole land with its cities and the territory around them.[c] [34]The Gadites built up Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,[d] [35]Atroth Shophan, Ja-zer,[e] Jogbehah,[f] [36]Beth Nimrah[g] and Beth Haran as fortified cities, and built pens for their flocks.[h] [37]And the Reu-benites rebuilt Heshbon,[i] Elealeh[j] and Kiriathaim,[k] [38]as well as Nebo[l] and Baal Meon (these names were changed) and Sibmah.[m] They gave names to the cities they rebuilt.

[39]The descendants of Makir[n] son of Manasseh went to Gilead,[o] captured it and drove out the Amorites[p] who were there. [40]So Moses gave Gilead to the Makirites,[q] the descendants of Manasseh, and they settled there. [41]Jair,[r] a descendant of Manasseh, captured their settlements and called them Hav-voth Jair.[a][s] [42]And Nobah captured Kenath[t] and its surrounding settlements and called it Nobah[u] after himself.[v]

Stages in Israel's Journey

33 Here are the stages in the journey[w] of the Israelites when they came out of Egypt[x] by divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.[y] [2]At the LORD's command Moses recorded[z] the stages in their journey[a].
This is their journey by stages:

[3]The Israelites set out[b] from Rameses[c] on the fifteenth day of the first month, the day after the Passover.[d] They marched out boldly[e] in full view of all the Egyptians, [4]who were burying all their first-born,[f] whom the LORD had struck down among them; for the LORD had brought judgment[g] on their gods.[h] [5]The Israelites left Rameses and camped at Succoth.[i] [6]They left Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the desert.[j] [7]They left Etham, turned back to Pi Hahiroth, to the east of Baal Zephon,[k] and camped near Migdol.[l] [8]They left Pi Hahiroth[b][m] and passed through the sea[n] into the desert, and when they had traveled for three days in the Desert of Etham, they camped at Marah.[o] [9]They left Marah and went to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped[p] there.

Boundaries of Canaan

34 The LORD said to Moses, 2"Command the Israelites and say to them: 'When you enter Canaan,[a] the land that will be allotted to you as an inheritance[b] will have these boundaries:[c]

3" 'Your southern side will include some of the Desert of Zin[d] along the border of Edom. On the east, your southern boundary will start from the end of the Salt Sea,[e][e] 4cross south of Scorpion[f] Pass,[f] continue on to Zin and go south of Kadesh Barnea.[g] Then it will go to Hazar Addar and over to Azmon,[h] 5where it will turn, join the Wadi of Egypt[i] and end at the Sea.[g] 6" 'Your western boundary will be the coast of the Great Sea.[j] This will be your boundary on the west.[k]

7" 'For your northern boundary,[l] run a line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor[m] 8and from Mount Hor to Lebo[h] Hamath.[n] Then the boundary will go to Zedad, 9continue to Ziphron and end at Hazar Enan. This will be your boundary on the north.

10" 'For your eastern boundary,[o] run a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.
11The boundary will go down from She-pham to Riblah[p] on the east side of Ain[q] and continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Kinnereth.[i][r] 12Then the boundary will go down along the Jordan and end at the Salt Sea.

" 'This will be your land, with its boundaries on every side.' "

13Moses commanded the Israelites:
"Assign this land by lot[s] as an inheritance.[t] The LORD has ordered that it be given to the nine and a half tribes, 14because the families of the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance.[u] 15These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan of Jericho,[j] toward the sunrise."

16The LORD said to Moses, 17"These are the names of the men who are to assign the land for you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua[v] son of Nun. 18And appoint one leader from each tribe to help[w] assign the land.[x] 19These are their names:[y]

Caleb[z] son of Jephunneh, from the tribe of Judah;[a] 20Shemuel son of Ammihud, from the tribe of Simeon;[b] 21Elidad son of Kislon, sachar;

27Ahihud son of Shelomi, the leader from the tribe of Asher;[g] 28Pedahel son of Ammihud, the leader from the tribe of Naphtali."

29These are the men the LORD commanded to assign the inheritance to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.[h]

Towns for the Levites

35 On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho,[k][i] the LORD said to Moses, 2"Command the Israelites to give the Levites towns to live in[j] from the inheritance the Israelites will possess. And give them pasturelands[k] around the towns.
3Then they will have towns to live in and pasturelands for their cattle, flocks and all their other livestock.[l]

4"The pasturelands around the towns that you give the Levites will extend out fifteen hundred feet[l] from the town wall. 5Outside the town, measure three thousand feet[m][m] on the east side, three thousand on the south side, three thousand on the west and three thousand on the north, with the town in the center. They will have this area as pastureland for the towns.[n]

Levites forty-eight towns, together with their pasturelands. [8]The towns you give the Levites from the land the Israelites possess are to be given in proportion to the inheritance of each tribe: Take many towns from a tribe that has many, but few from one that has few."[a]

[9]Then the LORD said to Moses: [10]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When you cross the Jordan into Canaan,[b] [11]select some towns to be your cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone[c] accidentally[d] may flee. [12]They will be places of refuge from the avenger,[e] so that a person accused of murder[f] may not die before he stands trial before the assembly.[g] [13]These six towns you give will be your cities of refuge.[h] [14]Give three on this side of the Jordan and three in Canaan as cities of refuge. [15]These six towns will be a place of refuge for Israelites, aliens and any other people living among them, so that anyone who has killed another accidentally can flee there.

[16]" 'If a man strikes someone with an iron object so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.[i] [17]Or if anyone has a stone in his hand that could kill, and he strikes someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death. [18]Or if anyone has a wooden object in his hand that could kill, and he hits someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death. [19]The avenger of blood[j] shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.[k] [20]If anyone with malice aforethought shoves another or throws something at him intentionally[l] so that he dies [21]or if in hostility he hits him with his fist so that he dies, that person shall be put to death;[m] he is a murderer. The avenger of blood[n] shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

[22]" 'But if without hostility someone suddenly shoves another or throws something at him unintentionally[o] [23]or, without seeing him, drops a stone on him that could kill him, and he dies, then since he was not his enemy and he did not intend to harm him, [24]the assembly[p] must judge between him and the avenger of blood according to these regulations. [25]The assembly must protect the one accused of murder from the avenger of blood and send him back to the city of refuge to which he fled. He must stay there until the death of the high priest,[q] who was anointed[r] with the holy oil.[s] [26]" 'But if the accused ever goes outside the limits of the city of refuge to which he has fled [27]and the avenger of blood finds him outside the city, the avenger of blood may kill the accused without being guilty of murder. [28]The accused must stay in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; only after the death of the high priest may he return to his own property.

[29]" 'These are to be legal requirements[t] for you throughout the generations to come,[u] wherever you live.[v]

[30]" 'Anyone who kills a person is to be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of witnesses. But no one is to be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.[w] [31]" 'Do not accept a ransom[x] for the life of a murderer, who deserves to die. He must surely be put to death.

[32]" 'Do not accept a ransom for anyone who has fled to a city of refuge and so allow him to go back and live on his own land before the death of the high priest.

[33]" 'Do not pollute the land where you are. Bloodshed pollutes the land,[y] and atonement cannot be made for the land on which blood has been shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it. [34]Do not defile the land[z] where you live and where I dwell,[a] for I, the LORD, dwell among the Israelites.' "

Inheritance of Zelophehad's Daughters

36 The family heads of the clan of Gilead[b] son of Makir,[c] the son of Manasseh, who were from the clans of the descendants of Joseph,[d] came and spoke before Moses and the leaders,[e] the heads of the Israelite families. [2]They said, "When the LORD commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance to the Israelites by lot,[f] he ordered you to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad[g] to his daughters. [3]Now suppose they marry men from other Israelite tribes; then their inheritance will be taken from our ancestral inheritance and added to that of the tribe they marry into. And so part of the inheritance allotted to us will be taken away. [4]When the Year of Jubilee[h] for the Israelites comes, their inheritance will be added to that of the tribe into which they marry, and their property will be taken from the tribal inheritance of our forefathers." 5Then at the LORD's command Moses gave this order to the Israelites: "What the tribe of the descendants of Joseph is saying is right. 6This is what the LORD commands for Zelophehad's daughters: They may marry anyone they please as long as they marry within the tribal clan of their father. 7No inheritance[a] in Israel is to pass from tribe to tribe, for every Israelite shall keep the tribal land inherited from his forefathers. 8Every daughter who inherits land in any Israelite tribe must marry someone in her father's tribal clan,[b] so that every Israelite will possess the inheritance of his fathers. 9No inheritance may pass from tribe to tribe, for each Israelite tribe is to keep the land it inherits." 10So Zelophehad's daughters did as the LORD commanded Moses. 11Zelo-phehad's daughters—Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah[c]—married their cousins on their father's side.

12They married within the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in their father's clan and tribe.[d] lations the LORD gave through Moses[e] to the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.[n] [f]

Deuteronomy

The Command to Leave Horeb

1 These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel in the desert east of the Jordan[a]—that is, in the Arabah[b]—opposite Suph, between Paran[c] and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Dizahab. 2(It takes eleven days to go from Horeb[d] to Kadesh Barnea[e] by the Mount Seir[f] road.)[g] 3In the fortieth year,[h] on the first day of the eleventh month,[i] Moses proclaimed[j] to the Israelites all that the LORD had commanded him concerning them. 4This was after he had defeated Sihon[k] king of the Amorites,[l] who reigned in Heshbon,[m] and at Edrei had defeated Og[n] king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.[o] 5East of the Jordan in the territory of Moab,[p] Moses began to expound this law, saying:

6The LORD our God said to us[q] at Horeb,[r] "You have stayed long enough[s] at this mountain. 7Break camp and advance into the hill country of the Amorites;[t] go to all the neighboring peoples in the Arabah,[u] in the mountains, in the western foothills, in the Negev[v] and along the coast, to the land of the Canaanites[w] and to Lebanon,[x] as far as the great river, the Euphrates.[y] 8See, I have given you this land[z].[a] Go in and take possession of the land that the LORD swore[b] he would give to your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—and to their descendants after them."

The Appointment of Leaders

9At that time I said to you, "You are too heavy a burden[c] for me to carry alone.[d] 10The LORD your God has increased[e] your numbers[f] so that today you are as many[g] as the stars in the sky.[h] 11May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase[i] you a thousand times and bless you as he has promised![j] 12But how can I bear your problems and your burdens and your disputes all by myself?[k] 13Choose some wise, understanding and respected men[l] from each of your tribes, and I will set them over you." 14You answered me, "What you propose to do is good." 15So I took[m] the leading men of your tribes,[n] wise and respected men,[o] and appointed them to have authority over you—as commanders[p] of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens and as tribal officials.[q] 16And I charged your judges at that time: Hear the disputes between your brothers and judge[r] fairly,[s] whether the case is between brother Israelites or between one of them and an alien.[t] 17Do not show partiality[u] in judging; hear both small and great alike. Do not be afraid of any man,[v] for judgment belongs to God.
Bring me any case too hard for you, and I will hear it.[w] 18And at that time I told you everything you were to do.[x]

Spies Sent Out

19Then, as the LORD our God commanded us, we set out from Horeb and went toward the hill country of the Amorites[y] through all that vast and dreadful desert[z] that you have seen, and so we reached Kadesh Barnea.[a] 20Then I said to you, "You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. 21See, the LORD your God has given you the land. Go up and take possession[b] of it as the LORD, the God of your fathers, told you. Do not be afraid;[c] do not be discouraged."[d] 22Then all of you came to me and said, "Let us send men ahead to spy[e] out the land[f] for us and bring back a report about the route we are to take and the towns we will come to." 23The idea seemed good to me; so I selected[g] twelve of you, one man from the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol[a] and explored it. 25Taking with them some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and reported,[b] "It is a good land[c] that the LORD our God is giving us."[d]

Rebellion Against the LORD

26But you were unwilling to go up;[e] you rebelled[f] against the command of the LORD your God. 27You grumbled[g] in your tents and said, "The LORD hates us; so he brought us out of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us. 28Where can we go?
Our brothers have made us lose heart.
They say, 'The people are stronger and taller[h] than we are; the cities are large, with walls up to the sky. We even saw the Anakites[i] there.' " 29Then I said to you, "Do not be terrified; do not be afraid[j] of them.[k] 30The LORD your God, who is going before you, will fight[l] for you, as he did for you in Egypt, before your very eyes, 31and in the desert. There you saw how the LORD your God carried[m] you, as a father carries his son, all the way you went until you reached this place."[n] 32In spite of this,[o] you did not trust[p] in the LORD your God, 33who went ahead of you on your journey, in fire by night and in a cloud by day,[q] to search[r] out places for you to camp and to show you the way you should go.
34When the LORD heard[s] what you said, he was angry[t] and solemnly swore:[u] 35"Not a man of this evil generation shall see the good land[v] I swore to give your forefathers, 36except Caleb[w] son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land he set his feet on, because he followed the LORD wholeheartedly.[x]" 37Because of you the LORD became angry[y] with me also and said, "You shall not enter[z] it, either. 38But your assistant, Joshua[a] son of Nun, will enter it.
Encourage[b] him, because he will lead[c] Israel to inherit[d] it. 39And the little ones that you said would be taken captive,[e] your children who do not yet know[f] good from bad—they will enter the land. I will give it to them and they will take possession of it. 40But as for you, turn around and set out toward the desert along the route to the Red Sea.[a][g]" 41Then you replied, "We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight, as the LORD our God commanded us." So every one of you put on his weapons, thinking it easy to go up into the hill country.

42But the LORD said to me, "Tell them, 'Do not go up and fight, because I will not be with you. You will be defeated by your enemies.' "[h] 43So I told you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the LORD's command and in your arrogance you marched up into the hill country. 44The Amorites who lived in those hills came out against you; they chased you like a swarm of bees[i] and beat you down from Seir[j] all the way to Hormah.[k] 45You came back and wept before the LORD,[l] but he paid no attention[m] to your weeping and turned a deaf ear[n] to you. 46And so you stayed in Kadesh[o] many days—all the time you spent there.

Wanderings in the Desert

2 Then we turned back and set out toward the desert along the route to the Red Sea,[a][p] as the LORD had directed me. For a long time we made our way around the hill country of Seir.[q] 2Then the LORD said to me, 3"You have made your way around this hill country long enough;[r] now turn north. 4Give the people these orders:[s] 'You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers the descendants of Esau,[t] who live in Seir.[u] They will be afraid[v] of you, but be very careful.
5Do not provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land, not even enough to put your foot on. I have given Esau the hill country of Seir as his own.[w] 6You are to pay them in silver for the food you eat and the water you drink.' " 7The LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched[x] over your journey through this vast desert.[y] These forty years[z] the LORD your God has been with you, and you have not lacked anything.[a] 8So we went on past our brothers the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir.
We turned from[b] the Arabah[c] road, which comes up from Elath and Ezion Geber,[d] and traveled along the desert road of Moab.[e] 9Then the LORD said to me, "Do not harass the Moabites or provoke them to war, for I will not give you any part of [a]40,1 Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds their land. I have given Ar[a] to the descendants of Lot[b] as a possession."

10(The Emites[c] used to live there—a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites.[d] 11Like the Anakites, they too were considered Rephaites,[e] but the Moabites called them Emites. 12Horites[f] used to live in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out. They destroyed the Horites from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did[g] in the land the LORD gave them as their possession.)

13And the LORD said, "Now get up and cross the Zered Valley.[h]" So we crossed the valley.

14Thirty-eight years[i] passed from the time we left Kadesh Barnea[j] until we crossed the Zered Valley. By then, that entire generation[k] of fighting men had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them.[l] 15The LORD's hand was against them until he had completely eliminated[m] them from the camp.

16Now when the last of these fighting men among the people had died, 17the LORD said to me, 18"Today you are to pass by the region of Moab at Ar.[n] 19When you come to the Ammonites,[o] do not harass them or provoke them to war,[p] for I will not give you possession of any land belonging to the Ammonites. I have given it as a possession to the descendants of Lot.[q]"

20(That too was considered a land of the Rephaites,[r] who used to live there; but the Ammonites called them Zamzummites. 21They were a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites.[s] The LORD destroyed them from before the Ammonites, who drove them out and settled in their place. 22The LORD had done the same for the descendants of Esau, who lived in Seir,[t] when he destroyed the Horites from before them. They drove them out and have lived in their place to this day. 23And as for the Avvites[u] who lived in villages as far as Gaza,[v] the Caphtorites[w] coming out from Caphtor[b][x] destroyed them and settled in their place.)

Defeat of Sihon King of Heshbon

24"Set out now and cross the Arnon Gorge.[y] See, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite,[z] king of Heshbon, and his country. Begin to take possession of it and engage[a] him in battle. 25This very day I will begin to put the terror[b] and fear[c] of you on all the nations under heaven. They will hear reports of you and will tremble[d] and be in anguish because of you."

26From the desert of Kedemoth[e] I sent messengers to Sihon[f] king of Heshbon offering peace[g] and saying, 27"Let us pass through your country. We will stay on the main road; we will not turn aside to the right or to the left.[h] 28Sell us food to eat[i] and water to drink for their price in silver. Only let us pass through on foot[j]— 29as the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, did for us—until we cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us." 30But Sihon king of Heshbon refused to let us pass through. For the LORD[k] your God had made his spirit stubborn[l] and his heart obstinate[m] in order to give him into your hands,[n] as he has now done.

31The LORD said to me, "See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his country over to you. Now begin to conquer and possess his land."[o]

32When Sihon and all his army came out to meet us in battle[p] at Jahaz, 33the LORD our God delivered[q] him over to us and we struck him down,[r] together with his sons and his whole army. 34At that time we took all his towns and completely destroyed[c][s] them—men, women and children. We left no survivors. 35But the livestock[t] and the plunder[u] from the towns we had captured we carried off for ourselves. 36From Aroer[v] on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the gorge, even as far as Gilead,[w] not one town was too strong for us. The LORD our God gave[x] us all of them. 37But in accordance with the command of the LORD our God,[y] you did not encroach on any of the land of the Ammonites,[z] neither the land along the course of the Jabbok[a] nor that around the towns in the hills.

Defeat of Og King of Bashan

3 Next we turned and went up along the road toward Bashan, and Og king of Bashan[b] with his whole army marched out to meet us in battle at Edrei.[c] 2The LORD said to me, "Do not be afraid[d] of him, for I have handed him over to you with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon."

c34 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them.

3So the LORD our God also gave into our hands Og king of Bashan and all his army. We struck them down, leaving no survivors. 4At that time we took all his cities. There was not one of the sixty cities that we did not take from them—the whole region of Argob, Og's kingdom in Bashan. 5All these cities were fortified with high walls and with gates and bars, and there were also a great many unwalled villages. 6We completely destroyed[a] them, as we had done with Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying[a] every city—men, women and children. 7But all the livestock and the plunder from their cities we carried off for ourselves.

8So at that time we took from these two kings of the Amorites the territory east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge as far as Mount Hermon.
9(Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians; the Amorites call it Senir.) 10We took all the towns on the plateau, and all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, towns of Og's kingdom in Bashan. 11(Only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaites. His bed[b] was made of iron and was more than thirteen feet long and six feet wide.[c] It is still in Rabbah of the Ammonites.)

Division of the Land

12Of the land that we took over at that time, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory north of Aro-er by the Arnon Gorge, including half the hill country of Gilead, together with its towns. 13The rest of Gilead and also all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh.
(The whole region of Argob in Bashan used to be known as a land of the Rephaites. 14Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites; it was named after him, so that to this day Bashan is called Havvoth Jair.[d]) 15And I gave Gilead to Makir. 16But to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory extending from Gilead down to the Arnon Gorge (the middle of the gorge being the border) and out to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites. 17Its western border was the Jordan in the Arabah, from Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea[e]), below the slopes of Pisgah.

18I commanded you at that time:
"The LORD your God has given you this land to take possession of it. But all your able-bodied men, armed for battle, must cross over ahead of your brother Israelites. 19However, your wives, your children and your livestock (I know you have much livestock) may stay in the towns I have given you, 20until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as he has to you, and they too have taken over the land that the LORD your God is giving them, across the Jordan. After that, each of you may go back to the possession I have given you."

Moses Forbidden to Cross the Jordan

21At that time I commanded Joshua:
"You have seen with your own eyes all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. The LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms over there where you are going. 22Do not be afraid of them; the LORD your God himself will fight for you."

23At that time I pleaded with the LORD: 24"O Sovereign LORD, you have begun to show to your servant your greatness and your strong hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do the deeds and mighty works you do? 25Let me go over and see the good land beyond the Jordan—that fine hill country and Lebanon."

26But because of you the LORD was angry with me and would not listen to me. "That is enough," the LORD said.
"Do not speak to me anymore about this matter. 27Go up to the top of Pisgah and look west and north and south and east. Look at the land with your own eyes, since you are not going to cross this Jordan. 28But commission Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he will lead this people across and will cause them to inherit the land that you will see." 29So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.

Obedience Commanded

4 Hear now, O Israel, the decrees and laws I am about to teach you.
Follow them so that you may live and may go in and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. 2Do not add[a] to what I command you and do not subtract[b] from it, but keep[c] the commands[d] of the LORD your God that I give you.

3You saw with your own eyes what the LORD did at Baal Peor.[e] The LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor, 4but all of you who held fast to the LORD your God are still alive today.
5See, I have taught[f] you decrees and laws[g] as the LORD my God commanded[h] me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering[i] to take possession of it. 6Observe[j] them carefully, for this will show your wisdom[k] and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these decrees and say, "Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people."[l] 7What other nation is so great[m] as to have their gods near[n] them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him? 8And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous decrees and laws[o] as this body of laws I am setting before you today?
9Only be careful,[p] and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach[q] them to your children[r] and to their children after them.
10Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb,[s] when he said to me, "Assemble the people before me to hear my words so that they may learn[t] to revere[u] me as long as they live in the land[v] and may teach[w] them to their children." 11You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain[x] while it blazed with fire[y] to the very heavens, with black clouds and deep darkness.[z] 12Then the LORD spoke[a] to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form;[b] there was only a voice.[c] 13He declared to you his covenant,[d] the Ten Commandments,[e] which he commanded you to follow and then wrote them on two stone tablets. 14And the LORD directed me at that time to teach you the decrees and laws[f] you are to follow in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

Idolatry Forbidden

15You saw no form[g] of any kind the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb[h] out of the fire. Therefore watch yourselves very carefully,[i] 16so that you do not become corrupt[j] and make for yourselves an idol,[k] an image of any shape, whether formed like a man or a woman, 17or like any animal on earth or any bird that flies in the air,[l] 18or like any creature that moves along the ground or any fish in the waters below.
19And when you look up to the sky and see the sun,[m] the moon and the stars[n]—all the heavenly array[o]—do not be enticed[p] into bowing down to them and worshiping[q] things the LORD your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven. 20But as for you, the LORD took you and brought you out of the iron-smelting furnace,[r] out of Egypt,[s] to be the people of his inheritance,[t] as you now are.
21The LORD was angry with me[u] because of you, and he solemnly swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance. 22I will die in this land;[v] I will not cross the Jordan; but you are about to cross over and take possession of that good land.[w] 23Be careful not to forget the covenant[x] of the LORD your God that he made with you; do not make for yourselves an idol[y] in the form of anything the LORD your God has for-bidden. 24For the LORD your God is a consuming fire,[z] a jealous God.[a] 25After you have had children and grandchildren and have lived in the land a long time—if you then become corrupt[b] and make any kind of idol,[c] doing evil[d] in the eyes of the LORD your God and provoking him to anger, 26I call heaven and earth as witnesses[e] against you[f] this day that you will quickly perish[g] from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You will not live there long but will certainly be destroyed. 27The LORD will scatter[h] you among the peoples, and only a few of you will survive[i] among the nations to which the LORD will drive you. 28There you will worship man-made gods[j] of wood and stone,[k] which cannot see or hear or eat or smell.[l] 29But if from there you seek[m] the LORD your God, you will find him if your God is a merciful[f] God; he will not abandon[g] or destroy[h] you or forget[i] the covenant with your fore-oath.

The LORD Is God

32Ask[j] now about the former days, long before your time, from the day God created man on the earth;[k] ask from one end of the heavens to the other.[l] Has anything so great[m] as this ever happened, or has anything like it ever been heard of? 33Has any other people heard the voice of God[i] speaking out of fire, as you have, and lived?[n] 34Has any god ever tried to take for himself one nation out of another nation,[o] by testings,[p] by miraculous signs[q] and wonders,[r] by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm,[s] or by great and awesome deeds,[t] like all the things the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

35You were shown these things so that you might know that the LORD is God; besides him there is no other.[u] 36From heaven he made you hear his voice[v] to discipline[w] you. On earth he showed you his great fire, and you heard his words from out of the fire.
37Because he loved[x] your forefathers and chose their descendants after them, he brought you out of Egypt by his Presence and his great strength,[y] 38to drive out before you nations greater and stronger than you and to bring you into their land to give it to you for your inheritance,[z] as it is today.

39Acknowledge[a] and take to heart this day that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other.[b] 40Keep[c] his decrees and commands,[d] which I am giving you today, so that it may go well[e] with you and your children after you and that you may live long[f] in the land the LORD your God gives you for all time.

Cities of Refuge

4:41-43Ref — Nu 35:6-34; Dt 19:1-14; Jos 20:1-9

41Then Moses set aside three cities east of the Jordan, 42to which anyone who had killed a person could flee if he had unintentionally[g] killed his neighbor without malice aforethought. He could flee into one of these cities and save his life. 43The cities were these: Bezer in the desert plateau, for the Reu-benites; Ramoth[h] in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

Introduction to the Law

44This is the law Moses set before the Israelites. 45These are the stipulations, decrees and laws Moses gave them when they came out of Egypt 46and were in the valley near Beth Peor east of the Jordan, in the land of Sihon[i] king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon and was defeated by Moses and the Israelites as they came out of Egypt. 47They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan. 48This land extended from Aro-er[j] on the rim of the Arnon Gorge to Mount Siyon[j][k] (that is, Hermon[l]), 49and included all the Arabah east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Arabah,[k] below the slopes of Pisgah.

5:6-21pp — Ex 20:1-17

5 Moses summoned all Israel and
said:

Hear, O Israel, the decrees and laws[m] I declare in your hearing today.
Learn them and be sure to follow them.
2The LORD our God made a covenant[n] with us at Horeb.[o] 3It was not with our fathers that the LORD made this covenant, but with us,[p] with all of us who are alive here today.[q] 4The LORD spoke[r] to you face to face[s] out of the fire[t] on the mountain. 5(At that time I stood between[u] the LORD and you to declare to you the word of the LORD, because you were afraid[v] of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:

6"I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt,[w] out of the land of slavery.[x] 7"You shall have no other gods before[l] me.

down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers[b] to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,[c] 10 but showing love to a thousand[d] ⌊generations⌋ of those who love me and keep my command-

11 "You shall not misuse the name[f] of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.[g] 12 "Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy,[h] as the LORD your God has commanded you. 13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 14 but the seventh day[i] is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant,[j] nor your ox, your donkey or any of your animals, nor the alien within your gates, so that your man-rest, as you do.[k] 15 Remember that you were slaves[l] in Egypt and that the LORD your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand[m] and an outstretched arm.[n] Therefore the LORD your God has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.

16 "Honor your father[o] and your that you may live long[q] and that it may go well with you in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

17 "You shall not murder.[r] 18 "You shall not commit adultery.[s] 22 These are the commandments the LORD proclaimed in a loud voice to your whole assembly there on the mountain from out of the fire, the cloud and the deep darkness;[w] and he added nothing more. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets[x] and gave them to me.

23 When you heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was ablaze with fire, all the leading men of your tribes and your elders[y] came to me. 24 And you said, "The LORD our God has shown us[z] his glory and his majesty,[a] and we have heard his voice from the fire. Today we have seen that a man can live even if God speaks with him.[b] 25 But now, why should we die?
This great fire will consume us, and we will die if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer.[c] 26 For what mortal man has ever heard the voice of the living God speaking out of fire, as we have, and survived?[d] 27 Go near and listen to all that the LORD our God says.[e] Then tell us whatever the LORD our God tells you. We will listen and obey."[f] 28 The LORD heard you when you spoke to me and the LORD said to me, "I have heard what this people said to you. Everything they said was good.[g] 29 Oh, that their hearts would be inclined to fear me[h] and keep all my commands[i] always, so that it might go well with them and their children forever![j] 30 "Go, tell them to return to their tents. 31 But you stay here[k] with me so that I may give you all the commands, decrees and laws you are to teach them to follow in the land I am giving them to possess."
32 So be careful to do what the LORD your God has commanded you;[l] do not turn aside to the right or to the left.[m] 33 Walk in all the way that the LORD your God has commanded you,[n] so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days[o] in the land that you will possess.

Love the LORD Your God

ed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess, 2 so that you, your children and their children after them may fear[p]

the LORD your God as long as you live[a] by keeping all his decrees and commands[b] that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life.[c] 3 Hear, O Israel, and be careful to obey[d] so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly[e] in a land flowing with milk and honey,[f] just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised[g] you.

4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one.[m][h] 5 Love[i] the LORD your God with all your heart[j] and with all your soul and with all your strength.[k] 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts.[l] 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.[m] 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.[n] 9 Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.[o]

10 When the LORD your God brings you into the land he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to give you—a land with large, flourishing cities you did not build,[p] 11 houses filled with all kinds of good things you did not provide, wells you did not dig,[q] and vineyards and olive groves you did not plant—then when you eat and are satisfied,[r] 12 be careful that you do not forget[s] the LORD, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

13 Fear the LORD[t] your God, serve him only[u] and take your oaths[v] in his name.[w] 14 Do not follow other gods, the gods of the peoples around you; 15 for the LORD your God[x], who is among you, is a jealous God and his anger will burn against you, and he will destroy you from the face of the land. 16 Do not test the LORD your God[y] as you did at Massah. 17 Be sure to keep[z] the commands of the LORD your God and the stipulations and decrees he has given you.[a] 18 Do what is right and good in the LORD's sight,[b] so that it may go well[c] with you and you may go in and take over the good land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers, 19 thrusting out all your enemies[d] before you, as the LORD said.

20 In the future, when your son asks you,[e] "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?" 21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.[f] 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent miraculous signs and wonders—great and terrible—upon Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land that he promised on oath to our forefathers. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God,[g] so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today.[h] 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law[i] before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness.[j]"

Driving Out the Nations

7 When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess[k] and drives out before you many nations[l]—the Hittites,[m] Girgashites,[n] Amorites,[o] Canaanites, Perizzites,[p] Hivites[q] and Jebusites,[r] seven nations larger and stronger than you— 2 and when the LORD your God has delivered[s] them over to you and you have defeated them, then you must destroy[t] them totally.[n][u] Make no treaty[v] with them, and show them no mercy.[w] 3 Do not intermarry with them.[x] Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons, 4 for they will turn your sons away from following me to serve other gods,[y] and the LORD's anger will burn against you and will quickly destroy[z] you. 5 This is what you are to do to them: Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones, cut down their Asherah poles[o][a] and burn their idols in the fire.[b] 6 For you are a people holy[c] to the LORD your God.[d] The LORD your God has chosen[e] you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be his people, his treasured possession.[f]

7 The LORD did not set his affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous[g] than other peoples, for you were the fewest[h] of all peoples.[a] 8But it was because the LORD loved[b] you and kept the oath he swore[c] to your forefathers that he brought you out with a mighty hand[d] and redeemed[e] you from the land of slavery,[f] from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. 9Know therefore that the LORD your God is God;[g] he is the faithful God,[h] keeping his covenant of love[i] to a thousand generations[j] of those who love him and keep his commands.[k] 10But

those who hate him he will repay to their face by destruction; he will not be slow to repay to their face those who hate him.[l]

11Therefore, take care to follow the commands, decrees and laws I give you today.

12If you pay attention to these laws and are careful to follow them, then the LORD your God will keep his covenant of love with you, as he swore to your forefathers.[m] 13He will love you and bless you[n] and increase your numbers.[o] He will bless the fruit of your womb,[p] the crops of your land—your grain, new wine[q] and oil[r]—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks in the land that he swore to your forefathers to give you.[s] 14You will be blessed more than any other people; none of your men or women will be childless, nor any of your livestock without young.[t] 15The LORD will keep you free from every disease.[u] He will not inflict on you the horrible diseases you knew in Egypt,[v] but he will inflict them on all who hate you.[w] 16You must destroy all the peoples the LORD your God gives over to you.[x] Do not look on them with pity[y] and do not serve their gods,[z] for that will be a snare[a] to you.

17You may say to yourselves, "These nations are stronger than we are. How can we drive them out?[b]" 18But do not be afraid[c] of them; remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt.[d] 19You saw with your own eyes the great trials, the miraculous signs and wonders, the mighty hand[e] and outstretched arm, with which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples you now fear.[f] 20Moreover, the LORD your God will send the hornet[g] among them until even the survivors who hide from you have perished. 21Do not be terrified by them, for the LORD your God, who is among you,[h] is a great and awesome God.[i] 22The LORD your God will drive out those nations before you, little by little.[j] You will not be allowed to eliminate them all at once, or the wild animals will multiply around you. 23But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, throwing them into great confusion until they are destroyed.[k] 24He will give their kings[l] into your hand,[m] and you will wipe out their names from under heaven. No one will be able to stand up against you;[n] you will destroy them.[o] 25The images of their gods you are to burn[p] in the fire.

Do not covet[q] the silver and gold on them, and do not take it for yourselves, or you will be ensnared[r] by it, for it is detestable[s] to the LORD your God. 26Do not bring a detestable thing into your house or you, like it, will be set apart for destruction.[t] Utterly abhor and detest it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Do Not Forget the LORD

8 Be careful to follow every command I am giving you today, so that you may live[u] and increase and may enter and possess the land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers.[v] 2Remember how the LORD your God led[w] you all the way in the desert these forty years, to humble you and to test[x] you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commands. 3He humbled[y] you, causing you to hunger and then feeding you with manna,[z] which neither you nor your fathers had known, to teach[a] you that man does not live on bread[b] alone but on every word that comes from the mouth[c] of the LORD.[d] 4Your clothes did not wear out and your feet did not swell during these forty years.[e] 5Know then in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God disciplines you.[f]

6Observe the commands of the LORD your God, walking in his ways[g] and revering him.[h] 7For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land[i]—a land with streams and pools of water, with springs flowing in the valleys and hills;[j] 8a land with wheat and barley,[k] vines[l] and fig trees,[m] pomegranates, olive oil and honey;[n] 9a land where bread will not be scarce and you will lack nothing; a land where the rocks are iron and you can dig copper out of the hills.

10When you have eaten and are satisfied, praise the LORD your God for the good land he has given you. 11Be careful that you do not forget the LORD your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day. 12Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down, 13and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied, 14then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. 15He led you through the vast and dreadful desert, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock. 16He gave you manna to eat in the desert, something your fathers had never known, to humble and to test you so that in the end it might go well with you. 17You may say to yourself, "My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me." 18But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your forefathers, as it is today.
19If you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods and worship and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will surely be destroyed. 20Like the nations the LORD destroyed before you, so you will be destroyed for not obeying the LORD your God.

Not Because of Israel's Righteousness

9 Hear, O Israel. You are now about to cross the Jordan to go in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities that have walls up to the sky. 2The people are strong and tall—Anakites! You know about them and have heard it said:
"Who can stand up against the Ana-kites?" 3But be assured today that the LORD your God is the one who goes across ahead of you like a devouring fire. He will destroy them; he will subdue them before you. And you will drive them out and annihilate them quickly,[b] as the LORD has promised
you.
4After the LORD your God has driven them out before you, do not say to yourself,[c] "The LORD has brought me here to take possession of this land because of my righteousness." No, it is on account of the wickedness[d] of these nations[e] that the LORD is going to drive them out before you. 5It is not because of your righteousness or your integrity[f] that you are going in to take possession of their land; but on account of the wickedness[g] of these nations,[h] the LORD your God will drive them out[i] before you, to accomplish what he swore[j] to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.[k] 6Understand, then, that it is not because of your righteousness that the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.[l]

7Remember this and never forget how you provoked[m] the LORD your God to anger in the desert. From the day you left Egypt until you arrived here, you have been rebellious[n] against the LORD.[o] 8At Horeb you aroused the LORD's wrath[p] so that he was angry enough to destroy you.[q] 9When I went up on the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant[r] that the LORD had made with you, I stayed on the mountain forty days[s] and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water.[t] 10The LORD gave me two stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God.[u] On them were all the commandments the LORD proclaimed to you on the mountain out of the fire, on the day of the assembly.[v] 11At the end of the forty days and forty nights,[w] the LORD gave me the two stone tablets,[x] the tablets of the covenant. 12Then the LORD told me, "Go down from here at once, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have become corrupt.[y] They have turned away quickly[z] from what I commanded them and have made a cast idol for themselves." 13And the LORD said to me, "I have seen this people[a], and they are a stiff-necked people indeed! 14Let me alone,[b] so that I may destroy them and blot out[c] their name from under heaven.[d] And I will make you into a nation stronger and more numerous than they."
15So I turned and went down from the mountain while it was ablaze with fire. And the two tablets of the covenant were in my hands.[p][a] 16When I looked, I saw that you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made for yourselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf.[b] You had turned aside quickly from the way that the LORD had commanded you. 17So I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands, breaking them to pieces before your eyes.

18Then once again I fell[c] prostrate before the LORD for forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water,[d] because of all the sin you had committed,[e] doing what was evil in the LORD's sight and so provoking him to anger. 19I feared the anger and wrath of the LORD, for he was angry enough with you to destroy you.[f] But again the LORD listened to me.[g] 20And the LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, but at that time I prayed for Aaron too. 21Also I took that sinful thing of yours, the calf you had made, and burned it in the fire. Then I crushed it and ground it to powder as fine as dust[h] and threw the dust into a stream that flowed down the mountain.[i]

22You also made the LORD angry[j] at Taberah,[k] at Massah[l] and at Kibroth Hattaavah.[m]

23And when the LORD sent you out from Kadesh Barnea,[n] he said, "Go up and take possession[o] of the land I have given you." But you rebelled[p] against the command of the LORD your God.
You did not trust[q] him or obey him.
24You have been rebellious against the LORD ever since I have known you.[r] 25I lay prostrate before the LORD those forty days and forty nights[s] because the LORD had said he would destroy you.[t] 26I prayed to the LORD and said, "O Sovereign LORD, do not destroy your people,[u] your own inheritance[v] that you redeemed[w] by your great power and brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.[x] 27Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Overlook the stubbornness[y] of this people, their wickedness and their sin. 28Otherwise, the country[z] from which you brought us will say, 'Because the LORD was not able to take them into the land he had promised them, and because he hated them,[a] he brought them out to put them to death in the desert.'[b] 29But they are your people,[c] your inheritance[d] that you brought out by your great power and your outstretched

Tablets Like the First Ones

10 At that time the LORD said to me, "Chisel out two stone tablets[f] like the first ones and come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden chest.[q] 2I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. Then you are to put them in the chest."[g]

3So I made the ark out of acacia wood[h] and chiseled[i] out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hands. 4The LORD wrote on these tablets what he had written before, the Ten Commandments[j] he had proclaimed[k] to you on the mountain, out of the fire, on the day of the assembly.[l] And the LORD gave them to me.
5Then I came back down the mountain[m] and put the tablets in the ark[n] I had made,[o] as the LORD commanded me, and they are there now.[p]

6(The Israelites traveled from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah.[q] There Aaron died[r] and was buried, and Eleazar[s] his son succeeded him as priest.[t] 7From there they traveled to Gudgodah and on to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water.[u] 8At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi[v] to carry the ark of the covenant[w] of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister[x] and to pronounce blessings[y] in his name, as they still do today.[z] 9That is why the Levites have no share or inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance,[a] as the LORD your God told them.)

10Now I had stayed on the mountain forty days and nights, as I did the first time, and the LORD listened to me at this time also. It was not his will to destroy you.[b] 11"Go," the LORD said to me, "and lead the people on their way, so that they may enter and possess the land that I swore to their fathers to give them."

Fear the LORD

12And now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you[c] but to fear[d] the LORD your God, to walk[e] in all his ways, to love him,[f] to serve the LORD[g] your God with all your heart[h] and with all your soul,[i] 13and to observe the LORD's commands[a] and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good?[b] 14To the LORD your God belong the heavens,[c][d][e] even the highest heavens,[f][g] the earth and everything in it.[h] 15Yet the LORD set his affection on your forefathers and loved[i] them, and he chose you,[j] their descendants, above all the nations, as it is today.[k] 16Circumcise[l] your hearts,[m] therefore, and do not be stiff-necked[n] any longer.

17For the LORD your God is God of gods[o] and Lord of lords,[p] the great God, mighty and awesome,[q] who shows no partiality[r] and accepts no bribes.[s] 18He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow,[t] and loves the alien, giving him food and clothing.[u] 19And you are to love[v] those who are aliens,[w] for you yourselves were aliens in Egypt.[x] 20Fear the LORD your God and serve him.[y] Hold fast[z] to him and take your oaths in his name.[a] 21He is your praise;[b] he is your God, who performed for you those great[c] and awesome wonders[d] you saw with your own eyes. 22Your forefathers who went down into Egypt were seventy in all,[e] and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.[f]

Love and Obey the LORD

11 Love[g] the LORD your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.[h] 2Remember today that your children[i] were not the ones who saw and experienced the discipline of the LORD your God:[j] his majesty,[k] his mighty hand, his outstretched arm;[l] 3the signs he performed and the things he did in the heart of Egypt, both to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his whole country;[m] 4what he did to the Egyptian army, to its horses and chariots,[n] how he overwhelmed them with the waters of the Red Sea[a][o] as they were pursuing you, and how the LORD brought lasting ruin on them. 5It was not your children who saw what he did for you in the desert until you arrived at this place, 6and what he did[p] to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened[q] its mouth right in the middle of all Israel and swallowed them up with their households, their tents and every living thing that belonged to them. 7But it was your own eyes that saw all these great things the LORD has done.[r] 8Observe therefore all the commands[s] I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to go in and take over the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess,[t] 9and so that you may live long[u] in the land that the LORD swore[v] to your forefathers to give to them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.[w] 10The land you are entering to take over is not like the land of Egypt,[x] from which you have come, where you planted your seed and irrigated it by foot as in a vegetable garden. 11But the land you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of is a land of mountains and valleys[y] that drinks rain from heaven.[z] 12It is a land the LORD your God cares for; the eyes[a] of the LORD your God are continually on it from the beginning of the year to its end.

13So if you faithfully obey[b] the commands I am giving you today—to love[c] the LORD your God and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul[d]— 14then I will send rain[e] on your land in its season, both autumn and spring rains,[f] so that you may gather in your grain, new wine and oil. 15I will provide grass[g] in the fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.[h] 16Be careful, or you will be enticed to turn away and worship other gods and bow down to them.[i] 17Then the LORD's anger[j] will burn against you, and he will shut[k] the heavens so that it will not rain and the ground will yield no produce,[l] and you will soon perish[m] from the good land the LORD is giving you. 18Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.[n] 19Teach them to your children,[o] talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.[p] 20Write them on the door-frames of your houses and on your gates,[q] 21so that your days and the days of your children may be many[r] in the land that the LORD swore to give your forefathers, as many as the days that the heavens are above the earth.[s] 22If you carefully observe[t] all these the LORD your God that I am giving you today; 28the curse if you disobey[m] the commands of the LORD your God and turn from the way that I command you today by following other gods,[n] which you have not known. 29When the LORD your God has brought you into the land you are entering to possess, you are to proclaim on Mount Gerizim[o] the blessings, and on Mount Ebal[p] the curses.[q] 30As you know, these mountains are across the Jordan, west of the road,[t] toward the setting sun, near the great trees of Moreh,[r] in the territory of those Canaanites living in the Arabah in the vicinity of Gilgal.[s] 31You are about to cross the Jordan to enter and take possession[t] of the land the LORD your God is giving[u] you. When you have taken it over and are living there, 32be sure that you obey all the decrees and laws I am setting before you today.

The One Place of Worship

12 These are the decrees[v] and laws you must be careful to follow in the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess—as long as you live in the land.[w] 2Destroy completely all the places on the high mountains[x] and on the hills and under every spreading tree[y] where the nations you are dispossessing worship their gods. 3Break down their altars, smash[z] their sacred stones and burn[a] their Asherah[b] poles in the fire; cut down the idols of their gods and wipe out their names[c] from those places.
4You must not worship the LORD your God in their way.[d] 5But you are to seek the place the LORD your God will choose from among all your tribes to put his Name[e] there for his dwelling.[f] To that place you must go; 6there bring

20When the LORD your God has enlarged your territory[e] as he promised[f] you, and you crave meat[g] and say, "I would like some meat," then you may eat as much of it as you want. 21If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put his Name[h] is too far away from you, you may slaughter animals from the herds and flocks the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you, and in your own towns you may eat as much of them as you want.[i] 22Eat them as you would gazelle or deer.[j] Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat. 23But be sure you do not eat the blood,[k] because the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat.[l] 24You must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.[m] 25Do not eat it, so that it may go well[n] with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is right[o] in the eyes of the LORD.
26But take your consecrated things and whatever you have vowed to give,[p] and go to the place the LORD will choose. 27Present your burnt offerings[q] on the altar of the LORD your God, both the meat and the blood. The blood of your sacrifices must be poured beside the altar of the LORD your God, but you may eat[r] the meat. 28Be careful to obey all these regulations I am giving you, so that it may always go well[s] with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is good and right in the eyes of the LORD your God.
29The LORD your God will cut off[t] before you the nations you are about to invade and dispossess. But when you have driven them out and settled in their land,[u] 30and after they have been destroyed before you, be careful not to be ensnared[v] by inquiring about their gods, saying, "How do these nations serve their gods? We will do the same."[w] 31You must not worship the LORD your God in their way, because in worshiping their gods, they do all kinds of detestable things the LORD hates.[x] They even burn their sons[y] and daughters in the fire as sacrifices to their gods.[z]

Worshiping Other Gods

13 If a prophet,[b] or one who foretells by dreams,[c] appears among you and announces to you a miraculous sign or wonder, 2and if the sign[d] or wonder of which he has spoken takes place, and he says, "Let us follow other gods"[e] (gods you have not known) "and let us worship them," 3you must not listen to the words of that prophet[f] or dreamer.[g] The LORD your God is testing[h] you to find out whether you love[i] him with all your heart and with all your soul. 4It is the LORD your God you must follow,[j] and him you must revere.[k] Keep his commands and obey him; serve him and hold fast[l] to him. 5That prophet or dreamer must be put to death,[m] because he preached rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from the land of slavery; he has tried to turn[n] you from the way the LORD your God commanded you to follow. You must purge the evil[o] from among you.
6If your very own brother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you love, or your closest friend secretly entices[p] you, saying, "Let us go and worship other gods"[q] (gods that neither you nor your fathers have known, 7gods of the peoples around you, whether near or far, from one end of the land to the other), 8do not yield[r] to him or listen to him. Show him no pity.[s] Do not spare him or shield him. 9You must certainly put him to death.[t] Your hand[u] must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people.
10Stone him to death, because he tried to turn you away[v] from the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. 11Then all Israel will hear and be afraid,[w] and no one among you will do such an evil thing again.
12If you hear it said about one of the towns the LORD your God is giving you to live in 13that wicked men[x] have arisen among you and have led the people of their town astray, saying, "Let us go and worship other gods" (gods you have not known), 14then you must inquire, probe and investigate it thoroughly.[y] And if it is true and it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done among you,[z] 15you must certainly put to the sword all who live in that town. Destroy it completely,[u][a] both its people and its livestock.[b] 16Gather all the plunder of the town into the middle of the public square and completely burn the town[c] and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God.[d] It is to remain a ruin[e] forever, never to be rebuilt.

17None of those condemned things[u] shall be found in your hands, so that the LORD will turn from his fierce anger;[f] he will show you mercy,[g] have compassion[h] on you, and increase your numbers,[i] as he promised[j] on oath to your forefathers, 18because you obey the LORD your God, keeping all his commands that I am giving you today and doing what is right[k] in his eyes.

14 You are the children[l] of the LORD your God. Do not cut yourselves or shave the front of your heads for the dead, 2for you are a people holy[m] to the LORD your God.[n] Out of all the peoples on the face of the earth, the LORD has chosen you to be his treasured possession.[o] 3Do not eat any detestable thing.[p] 4These are the animals you may eat:[q] the ox, the sheep, the goat,[r] 5the deer,[s] the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat,[t] the ibex, the antelope and the mountain sheep.[v] 6You may eat any animal that has a split hoof divided in two and that chews the cud. 7However, of those that chew the cud or that have a split hoof completely divided you may not eat the camel, the rabbit or the coney.[w] Although they chew the cud, they do not have a split hoof; they are ceremonially unclean for you. 8The pig is also unclean; although it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud.
You are not to eat their meat or touch their carcasses.[u] 9Of all the creatures living in the water, you may eat any that has fins and scales. 10But anything that does not have fins and scales you may not eat; for you it is unclean.
11You may eat any clean bird. 12But these you may not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture, 13the red kite, the black kite, any kind[v] of falcon,[w] 14any kind of raven,[x] 15the horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk, 16the little owl, the great owl, the white owl, 17the desert owl,[y] the osprey, the cormorant, 18the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.
19All flying insects that swarm are unclean to you; do not eat them. 20But any winged creature that is clean you may eat.[z] 21Do not eat anything you find already dead.[a] You may give it to an alien living in any of your towns, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. But you are a people holy to the LORD your God.[b]
Do not cook a young goat in its mother's milk.[c]

Tithes

22Be sure to set aside a tenth[d] of all that your fields produce each year.
23Eat[e] the tithe of your grain, new wine[f] and oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name,[g] so that you may learn[h] to revere[i] the LORD your God always. 24But if that place is too distant and you have been blessed by the LORD your God and cannot carry your tithe (because the place where the LORD will choose to put his Name is so far away), 25then exchange[j] your tithe for silver, and take the silver with you and go to the place the LORD your God will choose. 26Use the silver to buy whatever you like: cattle, sheep, wine or other fermented drink,[k] or anything you wish. Then you and your household shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice.[l] 27And do not neglect the Levites[m] living in your towns, for they have no allotment or inheritance of their own.[n] 28At the end of every three years, bring all the tithes[o] of that year's produce and store it in your towns,[p] 29so that the Levites (who have no allotment[q] or inheritance[r] of their own) and the aliens,[s] the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns may come and eat and be satisfied,[t] and so that the LORD your God may bless[u] you in all the work of your hands.

The Year for Canceling Debts

15 At the end of every seven years you must cancel debts.[a] 2 This is how it is to be done: Every creditor shall cancel the loan he has made to his fellow Israelite. He shall not require payment from his fellow Israelite or brother, because the LORD's time for canceling debts has been proclaimed.
3 You may require payment from a foreigner,[b] but you must cancel any debt your brother owes you. 4 However, there should be no poor among you, for in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as your inheritance, he will richly bless[c] you, 5 if only you fully obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow[d] all these commands I am giving you today. 6 For the LORD your God will bless you as he has promised, and you will lend to many nations but will borrow from none.
You will rule over many nations but none will rule over you.[e] 7 If there is a poor man[f] among your brothers in any of the towns of the land that the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hardhearted or tightfisted[g] toward your poor brother. 8 Rather be openhanded[h] and freely lend him whatever he needs. 9 Be careful not to harbor this wicked thought: "The seventh year, the year for canceling debts,[i] is near," so that you do not show ill will[j] toward your needy brother and give him nothing. He may then appeal to the LORD against you, and you will be found guilty of sin.[k] 10 Give generously to him and do so without a grudging heart;[l] then because of this the LORD your God will bless[m] you in all your work and in everything you put your hand to.
11 There will always be poor people[n] in the land. Therefore I command you to be openhanded toward your brothers and toward the poor and needy in your land.[o]

Freeing Servants

15:12-18Ref — Lev 25:38-55

12 If a fellow Hebrew, a man or a woman, sells himself to you and serves you six years, in the seventh year you must let him go free.[p] 13 And when you release him, do not send him away empty-handed. 14 Supply him liberally from your flock, your threshing floor[q] and your winepress. Give to him as the LORD your God has blessed you.
15 Remember that you were slaves[r] in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you.[s] That is why I give you this command today.
16 But if your servant says to you, "I do not want to leave you," because he loves you and your family and is well off with you, 17 then take an awl and push it through his ear lobe into the door, and he will become your servant for life. Do the same for your maidservant.
18 Do not consider it a hardship to set your servant free, because his service to you these six years has been worth twice as much as that of a hired hand.
And the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

The Firstborn Animals

19 Set apart for the LORD[t] your God every firstborn male[u] of your herds and flocks.[v] Do not put the firstborn of your oxen to work, and do not shear the firstborn of your sheep.[w] 20 Each year you and your family are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose.[x] 21 If an animal has a defect,[y] is lame or blind, or has any serious flaw, you must not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.[z] 22 You are to eat it in your own towns.
Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer.[a] 23 But you must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.[b]

Passover

16:1-8pp — Ex 12:14-20; Lev 23:4-8; Nu 28:16-25

16 Observe the month of Abib[c] and celebrate the Passover[d] of the LORD your God, because in the month of Abib he brought you out of Egypt by night. 2 Sacrifice as the Passover to the LORD your God an animal from your flock or herd at the place the LORD will choose as a dwelling for his Name.[e] 3 Do not eat it with bread made with yeast, but for seven days eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction,[f] because you left Egypt in haste[g]—so that all the days of your life you may remember the time of your departure from Egypt.[h] 4 Let no yeast be found in your possession in all your land for seven days. Do not let any of the meat you sacrifice on the evening[i] of the first day remain until morning.[j] 5 You must not sacrifice the Passover

9Count off seven weeks[e] from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain.[f] 10Then celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God by giving a freewill offering in proportion to the blessings the LORD your God has given you. 11And rejoice[g] before the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name[h]—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, the Levites[i] in your towns, and the aliens,[j] the fatherless and the widows living among you.[k] 12Remem-ber that you were slaves in Egypt,[l] and follow carefully these decrees.

13Celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing floor[m] and your winepress.[n] 14Be joyful[o] at your Feast—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites, the aliens, the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns. 15For seven days celebrate the Feast to the LORD your God at the place the LORD will choose. For the LORD your God will bless you in all your harvest and in all the work of your hands, and your joy[p] will be complete.

16Three times a year all your men must appear[q] before the LORD your God at the place he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread,[r] the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles.[s] No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed:[t] 17Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed
you.

Judges

18Appoint judges[u] and officials for each of your tribes in every town the LORD your God is giving you, and they shall judge the people fairly.[v] 19Do not pervert justice[w] or show partiality.[x] Do not accept a bribe,[y] for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous. 20Follow justice and justice alone, so that you may live and possess the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Worshiping Other Gods

21Do not set up any wooden Asherah pole[y][z] beside the altar you build to the LORD your God,[a] 22and do not erect a sacred stone,[b] for these the LORD your God hates.

17 Do not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has any defect[c] or flaw in it, for that would be detestable[d] to him.[e] 2If a man or woman living among you in one of the towns the LORD gives you is found doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God in violation of his covenant,[f] 3and contrary to my command[g] has worshiped other gods,[h] bowing down to them or to the sun[i] or the moon or the stars of the sky,[j] 4and this has been brought to your attention, then you must investigate it thoroughly. If it is true[k] and it has

has been done in Israel,[l] 5take the man or woman who has done this evil deed to your city gate and stone that person to death.[m] 6On the testimony of two or three witnesses a man shall be put to death, but no one shall be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.[n] 7The hands of the witnesses must be the first in putting him to death,[o] and then the hands of all the people.[p] You must purge the evil[q] from among you.

Law Courts

8If cases come before your courts that are too difficult for you to judge[r]—whether bloodshed, lawsuits or assaults[s]—take them to the place the LORD your God will choose.[t] 9Go to the priests, who are Levites,[u] and to the judge[v] who is in office at that time.
Inquire of them and they will give you the verdict.[w] 10You must act according to the decisions they give you at the place the LORD will choose. Be careful to [x]6 Or down, at the time of day [y]21 Or Do not plant any tree dedicated to Asherah do everything they direct you to do.

11 Act according to the law they teach you and the decisions they give you.
Do not turn aside from what they tell you, to the right or to the left.[a] 12 The man who shows contempt[b] for the judge or for the priest who stands ministering[c] there to the LORD your God must be put to death.[d] You must purge the evil from Israel.[e] 13 All the people will hear and be afraid, and will not be contemptuous again.[f]

The King

14 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you and have taken possession[g] of it and settled in it,[h] and you say, "Let us set a king over us like all the nations around us,"[i] 15 be sure to appoint[j] over you the king the LORD your God chooses. He must be from among your own brothers.[k] Do not place a foreigner over you, one who is not a brother Israelite. 16 The king, moreover, must not acquire great numbers of horses[l] for himself[m] or make the people return to Egypt[n] to get more of them,[o] for the LORD has told you, "You are not to go back that way again."[p] 17 He must not take many wives,[q] or his heart will be led astray.[r] He must not accumulate[s] large amounts of silver and gold.[t] 18 When he takes the throne[u] of his kingdom, he is to write[v] for himself on a scroll a copy[w] of this law, taken from that of the priests, who are Levites. 19 It is to be with him, and he is to read it all the days of his life[x] so that he may learn to revere the LORD his God and follow carefully all the words of this law and these decrees[y] 20 and not consider himself better than his brothers and turn from the law[z] to the right or to the left.[a] Then he and his descendants will reign a long time over his kingdom in Israel.[b]

18 The priests, who are Levites[c]—indeed the whole tribe of Levi—are to have no allotment or inheritance with Israel. They shall live on the offerings[d] made to the LORD by fire, for that is their inheritance.[e] 2 They shall have no inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance,[f] as he promised them.[g] 3 This is the share due the priests[h] from the people who sacrifice a bull[i] or a sheep: the shoulder, the jowls and the inner parts.[j] 4 You are to give them the firstfruits of your grain, new wine and oil, and the first wool from the shearing of your sheep,[k] 5 for the LORD your God has chosen them[l] and their descendants out of all your tribes to stand and minister[m] in the LORD's name always.[n] 6 If a Levite moves from one of your towns anywhere in Israel where he is living, and comes in all earnestness to the place the LORD will choose,[o] 7 he may minister in the name[p] of the LORD his God like all his fellow Levites who serve there in the presence of the LORD.
8 He is to share equally in their benefits, even though he has received money from the sale of family possessions.[q]

Detestable Practices

9 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate[r] the detestable ways[s] of the nations there. 10 Let no one be found among you who sacrifices his son or daughter in[z] the fire,[t] who practices divination[u] or sorcery,[v] interprets omens, engages in witchcraft,[w] 11 or casts spells,[x] or who is a medium or spiritist[y] or who consults the dead.
12 Anyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD, and because of these detestable practices the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you.[z] 13 You must be blameless[a] before
the LORD your God.[b]

The Prophet

14 The nations you will dispossess listen to those who practice sorcery or divination.[c] But as for you, the LORD your God has not permitted you to do so. 15 The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers.[d] You must listen to him. 16 For this is what you asked of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, "Let us not hear the voice of the LORD our God nor see this great fire anymore, or we will die."[e] 17 The LORD said to me: "What they say is good. 18 I will raise up for them a prophet[f] like you from among their brothers; I will put my words[g] in his mouth,[h] and he will tell them everything I command him.[i] 19 If anyone

19 When the LORD your God has destroyed the nations whose land he is giving you, and when you have driven them out and settled in their towns and houses,[i] 2then set aside for yourselves three cities centrally located in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess. 3Build roads to them and divide into three parts the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, so that anyone who kills a man may flee there.
4This is the rule concerning the man who kills another and flees there to save his life—one who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without malice aforethought. 5For instance, a man may go into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood, and as he swings his ax to fell a tree, the head may fly off and hit his neighbor and kill him. That man may flee to one of these cities and save his life. 6Otherwise, the avenger of blood[j] might pursue him in a rage, overtake him if the distance is too great, and kill him even though he is not deserving of death, since he did it to his neighbor without malice aforethought. 7This is why I command you to set aside for yourselves three cities.
8If the LORD your God enlarges your territory,[k] as he promised[l] on oath to your forefathers, and gives you the whole land he promised them, 9because you carefully follow all these laws I command you today—to love the LORD your God and to walk always in his ways[m]—then you are to set aside three more cities. 10Do this so that innocent blood[n] will not be shed in your land, which the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance, and so that you will not be guilty of bloodshed.[o] 11But if a man hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him, assaults and kills him,[p] and then flees to one of these cities, 12the elders of his town shall send for him, bring him back from the city, and hand him over to the avenger of blood to die. 13Show him no pity.[q] You must purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood,[r] so that it may go well with you.
14Do not move your neighbor's boundary stone set up by your predecessors in the inheritance you receive in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.[s]

Witnesses

15One witness is not enough to convict a man accused of any crime or offense he may have committed. A matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.[t] 16If a malicious witness[u] takes the stand to accuse a man of a crime, 17the two men involved in the dispute must stand in the presence of the LORD before the priests and the judges[v] who are in office at the time. 18The judges must make a thorough investigation,[w] and if the witness proves to be a liar, giving false testimony against his brother, 19then do to him as he intended to do to his brother.[x] You must purge the evil from among you. 20The rest of the people will hear of this and be afraid,[y] and never again will such an evil thing be done among you.
21Show no pity:[z] life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.[a]

Going to War

20 When you go to war against your enemies and see horses and chariots and an army greater than yours,[b] do not be afraid[c] of them,[d] because the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt, will be with[e] you.
2When you are about to go into battle, the priest shall come forward and address the army. 3He shall say: "Hear, O Israel, today you are going into battle against your enemies. Do not be faint-hearted[f] or afraid; do not be terrified or give way to panic before them. 4For the LORD your God is the one who goes hearted? Let him go home so that his speaking to the army, they shall appoint commanders over it.

10When you march up to attack a city, make its people an offer of peace.[i] 11If they accept and open their gates, all the people in it shall be subject[j] to forced labor[k] and shall work for you. 12If they refuse to make peace and they engage you in battle, lay siege to that city. 13When the LORD your God delivers it into your hand, put to the sword all the men in it.[l] 14As for the women, the children, the livestock[m] and everything else in the city,[n] you may take these as plunder[o] for yourselves. And you may use the plunder the LORD your God gives you from your enemies. 15This is how you are to treat all the cities that are at a distance[p] from you and do not belong to the nations nearby.
16However, in the cities of the nations the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, do not leave alive anything that breathes.[q] 17Completely destroy[a] them—the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jeb-usites—as the LORD your God has commanded you. 18Otherwise, they will teach you to follow all the detestable things they do in worshiping their gods,[r] and you will sin[s] against the LORD your God.
19When you lay siege to a city for a long time, fighting against it to capture it, do not destroy its trees by putting an ax to them, because you can eat their fruit. Do not cut them down. Are the trees of the field people, that you should besiege them?[b] 20However, you may cut down trees that you know are not fruit trees[t] and use them to build siege works until the city at war with you falls.

Atonement for an Unsolved Murder

21 If a man is found slain, lying in a field in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,[u] 2your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distance from the body to the neighboring towns. 3Then the elders of the town nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked and has never worn a yoke[v] 4and lead her down to a valley that has not been plowed or planted and where there is a flowing stream. There in the valley they are to break the heifer's neck. 5The priests, the sons of Levi, shall step forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister and to pronounce blessings[w] in the name of the LORD and to decide all cases of dispute and assault.[x] 6Then all the elders of the town nearest the body shall wash their hands[y] over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley, 7and they shall declare: "Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it done.
8Accept this atonement for your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, O LORD, and do not hold your people guilty of the blood of an innocent man." And the bloodshed will be atoned for.[z] 9So you will purge[a] from yourselves the guilt of shedding innocent blood, since you have done what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Marrying a Captive Woman

10When you go to war against your enemies and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands[b] and you take captives,[c] 11if you notice among the captives a beautiful[d] woman and are attracted to her,[e] you may take her as your wife. 12Bring her into your home and have her shave her head,[f] trim her nails 13and put aside the clothes she was wearing when captured. After she has lived in your house and mourned her father and mother for a full month,[g] then you may go to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife. 14If you are not pleased with her, let her go wherever she wishes. You must not sell her or treat her as a slave, since you have dishonored her.[h]

The Right of the Firstborn

15 If a man has two wives,[a] and he loves one but not the other, and both bear him sons but the firstborn is the son of the wife he does not love,[b] 16 when he wills his property to his sons, he must not give the rights of the firstborn to the son of the wife he loves in preference to his actual firstborn, the son of the wife he does not love.[c] 17 He must acknowledge the son of his unloved wife as the firstborn by giving him a double[d] share of all he has. That son is the first sign of his father's strength.[e] The right of the firstborn belongs to him.[f]

A Rebellious Son

18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious[g] son[h] who does not obey his father and mother[i] and will not listen to them when they discipline him, 19 his father and mother shall take hold of him and bring him to the elders at the gate of his town. 20 They shall say to the elders, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a profligate and a drunkard." 21 Then all the men of his town shall stone him to death.[j] You must purge the evil[k] from among you. All Israel will hear of it and be afraid.[l]

22 If a man guilty of a capital offense[m] is put to death and his body is hung on a tree, 23 you must not leave his body on the tree overnight.[n] Be sure to bury[o] him that same day, because anyone who is hung on a tree is under God's curse.[p] You must not desecrate[q] the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

22 If you see your brother's ox or sheep straying, do not ignore it but be sure to take it back to him.[r] 2 If the brother does not live near you or if you do not know who he is, take it home with you and keep it until he comes looking for it. Then give it back to him. 3 Do the same if you find your brother's donkey or his cloak or anything he loses. Do not ignore it.
4 If you see your brother's donkey[s] or his ox fallen on the road, do not ignore it. Help him get it to its feet.[t] 5 A woman must not wear men's clothing, nor a man wear women's clothing, for the LORD your God detests anyone who does this.
6 If you come across a bird's nest beside the road, either in a tree or on the ground, and the mother is sitting on the young or on the eggs, do not take the mother with the young.[u] 7 You may take the young, but be sure to let the mother go,[v] so that it may go well with you and you may have a long life.[w] 8 When you build a new house, make a parapet around your roof so that you may not bring the guilt of bloodshed on your house if someone falls from the roof.[x] 9 Do not plant two kinds of seed in your vineyard;[y] if you do, not only the crops you plant but also the fruit of the vineyard will be defiled.[c] 10 Do not plow with an ox and a donkey yoked together.[z] 11 Do not wear clothes of wool and linen woven together.[a] 12 Make tassels on the four corners of the cloak you wear.[b]

Marriage Violations

13 If a man takes a wife and, after lying with her[c], dislikes her 14 and slanders her and gives her a bad name, saying, "I married this woman, but when I approached her, I did not find proof of her virginity," 15 then the girl's father and mother shall bring proof that she was a virgin to the town elders at the gate.[d] 16 The girl's father will say to the elders, "I gave my daughter in marriage to this man, but he dislikes her.
17 Now he has slandered her and said, 'I did not find your daughter to be a virgin.' But here is the proof of my daughter's virginity." Then her parents shall display the cloth before the elders of the town, 18 and the elders[e] shall take the man and punish him. 19 They shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver[d] and give them to the girl's father, because this man has given an Israelite virgin a bad name. She shall continue to be his wife; he must not divorce her as long as he lives.
20 If, however, the charge is true[f] and no proof of the girl's virginity can be found, 21 she shall be brought to the door of her father's house and there the men of her town shall stone her to death. She has done a disgraceful thing[g] in Israel by being promiscuous while still in her father's house. You must purge the evil from among you.

other man's wife, both the man who 23If a man happens to meet in a town a virgin pledged to be married and he sleeps with her, 24you shall take both of them to the gate of that town and stone them to death—the girl because she was in a town and did not scream for help, and the man because he violated another man's wife. You must purge the evil from among you.[c]

25But if out in the country a man happens to meet a girl pledged to be married and rapes her, only the man who has done this shall die. 26Do nothing to the girl; she has committed no sin deserving death. This case is like that of someone who attacks and murders his neighbor, 27for the man found the girl out in the country, and though the betrothed girl screamed,[d] there was no one to rescue her.

28If a man happens to meet a virgin who is not pledged to be married and rapes her and they are discovered,[e] 29he shall pay the girl's father fifty shekels of silver.[e] He must marry the girl, for he has violated her. He can never divorce her as long as he lives.

30A man is not to marry his father's wife; he must not dishonor his father's bed.[f]

Exclusion From the Assembly

23 No one who has been emasculated[g] by crushing or cutting may enter the assembly of the LORD.

2No one born of a forbidden marriage[f] nor any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.

3No Ammonite[h] or Moabite or any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.[i] 4For they did not come to meet you with bread and water[j] on your way when you came out of Egypt, and they hired Balaam[k] son of Beor from Pethor in Aram Naharaim[g][l] to pronounce a curse on you.[m] 5However, the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam but turned the curse[n] into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loves[o] you. 6Do not seek a treaty[p] of friendship with them as long as you live.[q]

7Do not abhor an Edomite,[r] for he is your brother.[s] Do not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as an alien in his country.[t] 8The third generation of children born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Uncleanness in the Camp

12Designate a place outside the camp where you can go to relieve yourself. 13As part of your equipment have something to dig with, and when you relieve yourself, dig a hole and cover up your excrement. 14For the LORD your God moves[y] about in your camp to protect you and to deliver your enemies to you. Your camp must be holy,[z] so that he will not see among you anything indecent and turn away from you.

Miscellaneous Laws

15If a slave has taken refuge[a] with you, do not hand him over to his master.[b] 16Let him live among you wherever he likes and in whatever town he chooses. Do not oppress[c] him.

17No Israelite man[d] or woman is to become a shrine prostitute.[e] 18You must not bring the earnings of a female prostitute or of a male prostitute[h] into the house of the LORD your God to pay any vow, because the LORD your God detests them both.[f]

19Do not charge your brother interest, whether on money or food or anything else that may earn interest.[g] 20You may charge a foreigner[h] interest, but not a brother Israelite, so that the LORD your God may bless[i] you in everything you put your hand to in the land you are entering to possess.

21If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not be slow to pay it,[j] for the LORD your God will certainly demand it of you and you will be guilty of sin.[k] 22But if you refrain from making a vow, you will not be guilty.[l] 23Whatever your lips utter you must be sure to do, because you made your vow freely to the LORD your God with your own mouth.

want, but do not put any in your basket. 25 If you enter your neighbor's grainfield, you may pick kernels with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to his standing grain.[a]

24 If a man marries a woman who becomes displeasing to him[b] because he finds something indecent about her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce,[c] gives it to her and sends her from his house, 2 and if after she leaves his house she becomes the wife of another man, 3 and her second husband dislikes her and writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her and sends her from his house, or if he dies, 4 then her first husband, who divorced her, is not allowed to marry her again after she has been defiled. That would be detestable in the eyes of the LORD. Do not bring sin upon the land the LORD[d] your God is giving you as an inheritance.

5 If a man has recently married, he must not be sent to war or have any other duty laid on him. For one year he is to be free to stay at home and bring happiness to the wife he has married.[e]

6 Do not take a pair of millstones—not even the upper one—as security for a debt, because that would be taking a man's livelihood as security.[f]

7 If a man is caught kidnapping one of his brother Israelites and treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must die.[g] You must purge the evil from among you.[h]

8 In cases of leprous[i] diseases be very careful to do exactly as the priests, who are Levites,[i] instruct you. You must follow carefully what I have commanded them.[j] 9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam along the way after you came out of Egypt.[k]

10 When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, do not go into his house to get what he is offering as a pledge.[l] 11 Stay outside and let the man to whom you are making the loan bring the pledge out to you. 12 If the man is poor, do not go to sleep with his pledge[m] in your possession. 13 Return his cloak to him by sunset[n] so that he may sleep in it.[o] Then he will thank you, and it will be regarded as a righteous act in the sight of the LORD your God.[p]

14 Do not take advantage of a hired man who is poor and needy, whether he is a brother Israelite or an alien living in one of your towns.[q] 15 Pay him his wages each day before sunset, because he is poor[r] and is counting on it.[s] Otherwise he may cry to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty of sin.[t]

16 Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sin.[u]

17 Do not deprive the alien or the fatherless[v] of justice,[w] or take the cloak of the widow as a pledge. 18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt[x] and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. That is why I command you to do this.

19 When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it.[y] Leave it for the alien,[z] the fatherless and the widow,[a] so that the LORD your God may bless[b] you in all the work of your hands. 20 When you beat the olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time.[c] Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow. 21 When you harvest the grapes in your vineyard, do not go over the vines again. Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow. 22 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That is why I command you to do this.[d]

25 When men have a dispute, they are to take it to court and the judges[e] will decide the case,[f] acquitting[g] the innocent and condemning the guilty.[h] 2 If the guilty man deserves to be beaten,[i] the judge shall make him lie down and have him flogged in his presence with the number of lashes his crime deserves, 3 but he must not give him more than forty lashes.[j] If he is flogged more than that, your brother will be degraded in your eyes.[k]

4 Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.[l]

5 If brothers are living together and one of them dies without a son, his widow must not marry outside the family. "My husband's brother refuses to carry on his brother's name in Israel. He will not fulfill the duty of a brother-in-law to me."[a] 8Then the elders of his town shall summon him and talk to him. If he persists in saying, "I do not want to marry her," 9his brother's widow shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, take off one of his sandals,[b] spit in his face[c] and say, "This is what is done to the man who will not build up his brother's family line." 10That man's line shall be known in Israel as The Family of the Unsandaled.

11If two men are fighting and the wife of one of them comes to rescue her husband from his assailant, and she reaches out and seizes him by his private parts, 12you shall cut off her hand.
Show her no pity.[d]

13Do not have two differing weights in your bag—one heavy, one light.[e] 14Do not have two differing measures in your house—one large, one small.
15You must have accurate and honest weights and measures, so that you may live long[f] in the land the LORD your God is giving you. 16For the LORD your God detests anyone who does these things, anyone who deals dishonestly.[g]

17Remember what the Amalekites[h] did to you along the way when you came out of Egypt. 18When you were weary and worn out, they met you on your journey and cut off all who were lagging behind; they had no fear of God.[i] 19When the LORD your God gives you rest[j] from all the enemies[k] around you in the land he is giving you to possess as an inheritance, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek[l] from under heaven. Do not forget!

Firstfruits and Tithes

26 When you have entered the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance and have taken possession of it and settled in it, 2take some of the firstfruits[m] of all that you produce from the soil of the land the LORD your God is giving you and put them in a basket. Then go to the place the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name[n] 3and say to the priest in office at the time, "I declare today to the LORD your God that I have come to the land the LORD swore to our forefathers to give us." 4The priest shall take the basket from your hands and set it down in front of the altar of the LORD your God. 5Then you shall declare before the LORD your God: "My father was a wandering[o] Aramean,[p] and he went down into Egypt with a few people[q] and lived there and became a great nation,[r] powerful and numerous. 6But the Egyptians mistreated us and made us suffer,[s] putting us to hard labor.[t] 7Then we cried out to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice[u] and saw[v] our misery,[w] toil and oppression.[x] 8So the LORD brought us out of Egypt[y] with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm,[z] with great terror and with miraculous signs and wonders.[a] 9He brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey;[b] 10and now I bring the firstfruits of the soil that you, O LORD, have given me."[c] Place the basket before the LORD your God and bow down before him. 11And you and the Levites[d] and the aliens among you shall rejoice[e] in all the good things the LORD your God has given to you and your household.

12When you have finished setting aside a tenth[f] of all your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe,[g] you shall give it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied. 13Then say to the LORD your God:
"I have removed from my house the sacred portion and have given it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, according to all you commanded. I have not turned aside from your commands nor have I forgotten any of them.[h] 14I have not eaten any of the sacred portion while I was in mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean,[i] nor have I offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God; I have done everything you commanded me.
15Look down from heaven,[j] your holy dwelling place, and bless[k] your people Israel and the land you have given us as you promised on oath to our forefathers, a land flowing with milk and honey."

Follow the LORD's Commands

16The LORD your God commands you this day to follow these decrees and laws; carefully observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.[l] 17You have declared this day that the LORD is your God and that you will walk in his ways, that you will keep his decrees, commands and laws, and that you will obey him.[m] 18And the LORD has declared this day that you are his people, his treasured possession[a] as he promised, and that you are to keep all his commands. 19 He has declared that honor high above all the nations[c] he has made and that you will be a people promised.

The Altar on Mount Ebal

27 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people: "Keep all these commands[e] that I give you today. 2 When you have crossed the Jordan[f] into the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones[g] and coat them with plaster.[h] 3 Write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey,[i] just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you. 4 And when you have crossed the Jordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal,[j] as I command you today, and coat them with plaster. 5 Build there an altar[k] to the LORD your God, an altar of stones.
Do not use any iron tool[l] upon them.
6 Build the altar of the LORD your God with fieldstones and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God. 7 Sacrifice fellowship offerings[j][m] there, eating them and rejoicing[n] in the presence of the LORD your God.[o] 8 And you shall write very clearly all the words of this law on these stones[p] you have set up."[q]

Curses From Mount Ebal

9 Then Moses and the priests, who are Levites,[r] said to all Israel, "Be silent, O Israel, and listen! You have now become the people of the LORD your God.[s] 10 Obey the LORD your God and follow his commands and decrees that I give you today."

11 On the same day Moses commanded the people:

12 When you have crossed the Jordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Geri-zim[t] to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar,[u] Joseph and Benjamin.[v] 13 And these tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal[w] to pronounce curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

14 The Levites shall recite to all the people of Israel in a loud voice:

15 "Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol[x]—a thing detestable[y] to the LORD, the work of the craftsman's hands—and sets it up in secret."

Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"[z]

16 "Cursed is the man who dishonors his father or his mother."[a]

Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

17 "Cursed is the man who moves his neighbor's boundary stone."[b]

Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

18 "Cursed is the man who leads the blind astray on the road."[c]

Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

19 "Cursed is the man who withholds justice from the alien,[d] the fatherless or the widow."[e]

20 "Cursed is the man who sleeps with his father's wife, for he dishonors his father's bed."[f]

21 "Cursed is the man who has sexual relations with any animal."[g]

Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

22 "Cursed is the man who sleeps with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother."[h]

23 "Cursed is the man who sleeps with his mother-in-law."[i]

commands[a] I give you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations on earth.[b] 2 All these blessings will come upon you[c] and accompany you if you obey the LORD your God:

3 You will be blessed[d] in the city and blessed in the country.[e] 4 The fruit of your womb will be blessed, and the crops of your land and the young of your livestock—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.[f] 5 Your basket and your kneading trough will be blessed.
6 You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.[g]

7 The LORD will grant that the enemies[h] who rise up against you will be defeated before you. They will come at you from one direction but flee from you in seven.[i] 8 The LORD will send a blessing on your barns and on everything you put your hand to. The LORD your God will bless[j] you in the land he is giving you.
9 The LORD will establish you as his holy people,[k] as he promised you on oath, if you keep the commands[l] of the LORD your God and walk in his ways. 10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that you are called by the name[m] of the LORD, and they will fear you. 11 The LORD will grant you abundant prosperity—in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock[n] and the crops of your ground—in the land he swore to your forefathers to give you.[o] 12 The LORD will open the heavens, the storehouse[p] of his bounty,[q] to send rain[r] on your land in season and to bless[s] all the work of your hands.
You will lend to many nations but will borrow from none.[t] 13 The LORD will make you the head, not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of the LORD your God that I give you this day and carefully follow[u] them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom.[v] 14 Do not turn aside from any of the commands I give you today, to the right or to the left,[w] following other gods and serving them.

Curses for Disobedience

15 However, if you do not obey[x] the LORD your God and do not carefully follow all his commands and decrees I am giving you today,[y] all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:[z]

16 You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.[a] 17 Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed.[b] 18 The fruit of your womb will be cursed, and the crops of your land, and the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.[c] 19 You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.[d]

20 The LORD will send on you curses,[e] confusion and rebuke[f] in everything you put your hand to, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin[g] because of the evil[h] you have done in forsaking him.[k] 21 The LORD will plague you with diseases until he has destroyed you from the land you are entering to possess.[i] 22 The LORD will strike you with wasting disease,[j] with fever and inflammation, with scorching heat and drought,[k] with blight[l] and mildew, which will plague[m] you until you perish.[n] 23 The sky over your head will be bronze, the ground beneath you iron.[o] 24 The LORD will turn the rain[p] of your country into dust and powder; it will come down from the skies until you are destroyed.
25 The LORD will cause you to be defeated[q] before your enemies. You will come at them from one direction but flee from them in seven,[r] and you will become a thing of horror[s] to all the kingdoms on earth.[t] 26 Your carcasses will be food for all the birds of the air[u] and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away.[v] 27 The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt[w] and with tumors, festering sores and the itch, from which you cannot be cured. 28 The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness and confusion of mind. 29 At midday you will grope[x] about like a blind man in the dark. You will be unsuccessful in everything you do; day after day you will be oppressed and robbed, with no one to rescue[y] you.
30 You will be pledged to be married to a woman, but another will take her and ravish her.[z] You will build a grapes, because worms will eat[t] them.[u] 40You will have olive trees throughout your country but you will not use the oil, because the olives will drop off.[v] 41You will have sons and daughters but you will not keep them, because they will go into captivity.[w] 42Swarms of locusts[x] will take over all your trees and the crops of your land.

43The alien who lives among you will rise above you higher and higher, but you will sink lower and lower.[y] 44He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him.[z] He will be the head, but you will be the tail.[a] 45All these curses will come upon you. They will pursue you and overtake you[b] until you are destroyed,[c] because you did not obey the LORD your God and observe the commands and decrees he gave you. 46They will be a sign and a wonder to you and your descendants forever.[d] 47Because you did not serve[e] the LORD your God joyfully and gladly[f] in the time of prosperity, 48therefore in hunger and thirst,[g] in nakedness and dire poverty, you will serve the enemies the LORD sends against you. He will put an iron yoke[h] on your neck[i] until he has destroyed

you.

49The LORD will bring a nation against you[j] from far away, from the ends of the earth,[k] like an eagle[l] swooping down, a nation whose language you will not understand,[m] 50a fierce-looking nation without respect for the old[n] or pity for the young. 51They will devour the young of your livestock and the crops of your land until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine[o] or oil,[p] nor any calves of your herds or lambs of your flocks until you are ruined.[q] 52They will lay siege[r] to all the cities throughout your land until the high fortified walls in which you trust fall down. They will besiege all the cities throughout the land the LORD your God is giving you.[s] 53Because of the suffering that your enemy will inflict on you during the siege, you will eat the fruit of the womb, the flesh of the sons and daughters the LORD your God has given you.[t] 54Even the most gentle and sensitive man among you will have no compassion on his own brother or the wife he loves or his surviving children, 55and he will not give to one of them any of the flesh of his children that he is eating. It will be all he has left because of the suffering your enemy will inflict on you during the siege of all your cities.[u] 56The most gentle and sensitive[v] woman among you—so sensitive and gentle that she would not venture to touch the ground with the sole of her foot—will begrudge the husband she loves and her own son or daughter[w] 57the afterbirth from her womb and the children she bears. For she intends to eat them[x] secretly during the siege and in the distress that your enemy will inflict on you in your cities.

58If you do not carefully follow all the words of this law,[y] which are written in this book, and do not revere[z] this glorious and awesome name[a]—the LORD your God— 59the LORD will send fearful plagues on you and your descendants, harsh and prolonged disasters, and severe and lingering illnesses.
60He will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt[b] that you dreaded, and they will cling to you. 61The LORD will also bring on you every kind of sickness and disaster not recorded in this Book of the Law,[a] until you are destroyed.[b] 62You who were as numerous as the stars in the sky[c] will be left but few[d] in number, because you did not obey the LORD your God. 63Just as it pleased[e] the LORD to make you prosper and increase in number, so it will please[f] him to ruin and destroy you.[g] You will be uprooted[h] from the land you are entering to possess.

64Then the LORD will scatter[i] you among all nations,[j] from one end of the earth to the other.[k] There you will worship other gods—gods of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known.[l] 65Among those nations you will find no repose, no resting place[m] for the sole of your foot.
There the LORD will give you an anxious mind, eyes[n] weary with longing, and a despairing heart.[o] 66You will live in constant suspense, filled with dread both night and day, never sure of your life. 67In the morning you will say, "If only it were evening!" and in the evening, "If only it were morning!"—because of the terror that will fill your hearts and the sights that your eyes will see.[p] 68The LORD will send you back in ships to Egypt on a journey I said you should never make again.[q] There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you.

Renewal of the Covenant

29 These are the terms of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in Moab,[r] in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Horeb.[s] 2Moses summoned all the Israelites and said to them:

Your eyes have seen all that the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials and to all his land.[t] 3With your own eyes you saw those great trials, those miraculous signs and great wonders.[u] 4But to this day the LORD has not given you a mind that understands or eyes that see or ears that hear.[v] 5During the forty years that I led[w] you through the desert, your clothes did not wear out, nor did the sandals on your feet.[x] 6You ate no bread and drank no wine or other fermented drink.[y] I did this so that you might know that I am the LORD your God.[z]

7When you reached this place, Sihon[a] king of Heshbon[b] and Og king of Bashan came out to fight against us, but we defeated them.[c] 8We took their land and gave it as an inheritance[d] to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.[e] 9Carefully follow[f] the terms of this covenant,[g] so that you may prosper in everything you do.[h] 10All of you are standing today in the presence of the LORD your God—your leaders and chief men, your elders and officials, and all the other men of Israel, 11together with your children and your wives, and the aliens living in your camps who chop your wood and carry your water.[i] 12You are standing here in order to enter into a covenant with the LORD your God, a covenant the LORD is making with you this day and sealing with an oath, 13to confirm you this day as his people,[j] that he may be your God[k] as he promised you and as he swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. 14I am making this covenant,[l] with its oath, not only with you 15who are standing here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God but also with those who are not here today.[m] 16You yourselves know how we lived in Egypt and how we passed through the countries on the way here. 17You saw among them their detestable images and idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold.[n] 18Make sure there is no man or woman, clan or tribe among you today whose heart turns[o] away from the LORD our God to go and worship the gods of those nations; make sure there is no root among you that produces such bitter poison.[p] 19When such a person hears the words of this oath, he invokes a blessing[q] on himself and therefore thinks, "I will be safe, even though I persist in going my own way."[r] This will bring disaster on the watered land as well as the dry.[1] 20The LORD will never be willing to forgive[s] him; his wrath and zeal[t] will burn[u] against that man. All the curses written in this book will fall upon him, and the LORD will blot[v] out his name from under heaven.
21The LORD will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for disaster,[w] according to all the curses of the covenant written in this Book of the Law.[x]

[1]19 Or way, in order to add drunkenness to thirst."

22Your children who follow you in later generations and foreigners who come from distant lands will see the calamities that have fallen on the land and the diseases with which the LORD has afflicted it.[a] 23The whole land will be a burning waste[b] of salt[c] and sulfur—nothing planted, nothing sprouting, no vegetation growing on it. It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah,[d] Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in fierce anger.[e] 24All the nations will ask: "Why has the LORD done this to this land?[f] Why this fierce, burning anger?"

25And the answer will be: "It is because this people abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, the covenant he made with them when he brought them out of Egypt.[g] 26They went off and worshiped other gods and bowed down to them, gods they did not know, gods he had not given them. 27Therefore the LORD's anger burned against this land, so that he brought on it all the curses written in this book.[h] 28In furious anger and in great wrath[i] the LORD uprooted[j] them from their land and thrust them into another land, as it is now."

29The secret things belong to the LORD our God,[k] but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may follow all the words of this law.[l]

Prosperity After Turning to the LORD

30 When all these blessings and curses[m] I have set before you come upon you and you take them to heart wherever the LORD your God disperses you among the nations,[n] 2and when you and your children return[o] to the LORD your God and obey him with all your heart[p] and with all your soul according to everything I command you today, 3then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes[m3][q] and have compassion[r] on you and gather[s] you again from all the nations where he scattered[t] you.[u] 4Even if you have been banished to the most distant land under the heavens,[v] from there the LORD your God will gather[w] you and bring you back.[x] 5He will bring[y] you to the land that belonged to your fathers, and you will take possession of it. He will make you more prosperous and numerous[z] than your fathers. 6The LORD your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants,[a] so that you may love[b] him with all your heart and with all your soul, and live. 7The LORD your God will put all these curses[c] on your enemies who hate and persecute you.[d] 8You will again obey the LORD and follow all his commands I am giving you today.
9Then the LORD your God will make you most prosperous in all the work of your hands and in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your land.[e] The LORD will again delight[f] in you and make you prosperous, just as he delighted in your fathers, 10if you obey the LORD your God and keep his commands and decrees that are written in this Book of the Law[g] and turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.[h]

The Offer of Life or Death

11Now what I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach.[i] 12It is not up in heaven, so that you have to ask, "Who will ascend into heaven[j] to get it and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?"[k] 13Nor is it beyond the sea,[l] so that you have to ask, "Who will cross the sea to get it and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?"[m] 14No, the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart so you may obey it.[n] 15See, I set before you today life[o] and prosperity,[p] death[q] and destruction.[r] 16For I command you today to love[s] the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commands, decrees and laws; then you will live[t] and increase, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.

17But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them, 18I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed.[u] You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

19This day I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you[v] that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses.[w] Now choose life, so that you and your children may live 20and that you may love[x] the LORD your God, listen to his voice, and hold fast to him.
For the LORD is your life,[y] and he will

31 Then Moses went out and spoke these words to all Israel: 2"I am now a hundred and twenty years old[c] and I am no longer able to lead you.[d] The LORD has said to me, 'You shall not cross the Jordan.'[e] 3The LORD your God himself will cross[f] over ahead of you.[g] He will destroy these nations[h] before you, and you will take possession of their land. Joshua also will cross[i] over ahead of you, as the LORD said. 4And the LORD will do to them what he did to Sihon and Og,[j] the kings of the Amorites, whom he destroyed along with their land. 5The LORD will deliver[k] them to you, and you must do to them all that I have commanded you. 6Be strong and courageous.[l] Do not be afraid or terrified[m] because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you;[n] he will never leave you[o] nor forsake[p] you."

7Then Moses summoned Joshua and said[q] to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you must go with this people into the land that the LORD swore to their forefathers to give them,[r] and you must divide it among them as their inheritance. 8The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you;[s] he will never leave you nor forsake you.[t] Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged."

The Reading of the Law

9So Moses wrote[u] down this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried[v] the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. 10Then Moses commanded them: "At the end of every seven years, in the year for canceling debts,[w] during the Feast of Tabernacles,[x] 11when all Israel comes to appear[y] before the LORD your God at the place he will choose,[z] you shall read this law[a] before them in their hearing. 12Assemble the people—men, women and children, and the aliens living in your towns—so they can listen and learn[b] to fear[c] the LORD your God and follow carefully all the words of this law. 13Their children,[d] who do not know this law, must hear it and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess."

Israel's Rebellion Predicted

14The LORD said to Moses, "Now the day of your death[e] is near. Call Joshua[f] and present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, where I will commission him.[g]" So Moses and Joshua came and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting.[h] 15Then the LORD appeared at the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood over the entrance to the Tent.[i] 16And the LORD said to Moses: "You are going to rest with your fathers,[j] and these people will soon prostitute[k] themselves to the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will forsake[l] me and break the covenant I made with them. 17On that day I will become angry[m] with them and forsake[n] them; I will hide[o] my face[p] from them, and they will be destroyed. Many disasters[q] and difficulties will come upon them, and on that day they will ask, 'Have not these disasters come upon us because our God is not with us?'[r] 18And I will certainly hide my face on that day because of all their wickedness in turning to other gods.

19"Now write[s] down for yourselves this song and teach it to the Israelites and have them sing it, so that it may be a witness[t] for me against them. 20When I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, the land I promised on oath to their forefathers,[u] and when they eat their fill and thrive, they will turn to other gods[v] and worship them,[w] rejecting me and breaking my covenant.[x] 21And when many disasters and difficulties come upon them,[y] this song will testify against them, because it will not be forgotten by their descendants. I know what they are disposed to do,[z] even before I bring them into the land I promised them on oath." 22So Moses wrote[a] down this song that day and taught it to the Israelites.

23The LORD gave this command[b] to Joshua son of Nun: "Be strong and courageous,[c] for you will bring the Israelites into the land I promised them on oath, and I myself will be with you."

24After Moses finished writing[d] in a book the words of this law[e] from beginning to end, 25he gave this command to the Levites who carried[f] the ark of the covenant of the LORD: 26"Take this Book of the Law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God. There it will remain as a witness against you.[a] 27For I know how rebellious[b] and stiff-necked[c] you are.

If you have been rebellious against the LORD while I am still alive and with you, how much more will you rebel after I die! 28Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes and all your officials, so that I can speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to testify against them.[d] 29For I know that after my death you are sure to become utterly corrupt[e] and to turn from the way I have commanded you.
In days to come, disaster[f] will fall upon you because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD and provoke him to anger by what your hands have made."

The Song of Moses

30And Moses recited the words of this song from beginning to end in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

32 Listen,[g] O heavens,[h] and I will speak; hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.[i] 2Let my teaching fall like rain[j] and my words descend like dew,[k l] like showers[m] on new grass, like abundant rain on tender plants.

3I will proclaim[n] the name of the LORD.[o] Oh, praise the greatness[p] of our God!
4He is the Rock,[q] his works are perfect,[r] and all his ways are just.
A faithful God[s] who does no wrong, upright[t] and just is he.[u] 5They have acted corruptly toward him; to their shame they are no longer his children, but a warped and crooked generation.[n v] 6Is this the way you repay[w] the LORD, O foolish[x] and unwise people?[y] Is he not your Father,[z] your Creator,[o] who made you and formed you?[a] 7Remember the days of old;[b] consider the generations long past.[c] Ask your father and he will tell you, your elders, and they will explain to you.[d] 8When the Most High[e] gave the nations their inheritance, when he divided all mankind,[f] he set up boundaries[g] for the peoples according to the number of the sons of Israel.[p h] 9For the LORD's portion[i] is his people, Jacob his allotted inheritance.[j]

10In a desert[k] land he found him, in a barren and howling waste.[l] He shielded[m] him and cared for him; he guarded him as the apple of his eye,[n] 11like an eagle that stirs up its nest and hovers over its young,[o] that spreads its wings to catch them and carries them on its pinions.[p] 12The LORD alone led[q] him;[r] no foreign god was with him.[s] 13He made him ride on the heights[t] of the land and fed him with the fruit of the fields.

He nourished him with honey from the rock,[u] and with oil[v] from the flinty crag, 14with curds and milk from herd and flock and with fattened lambs and goats, with choice rams of Bashan[w] and the finest kernels of wheat.[x] You drank the foaming blood of the grape.[y] 15Jeshurun[q z] grew fat[a] and kicked; filled with food, he became heavy and sleek.

He abandoned[b] the God who made him and rejected the Rock[c] his Savior.
16They made him jealous[d] with their foreign gods and angered[e] him with their detestable idols.
17They sacrificed[f] to demons,[g] which are not God—gods they had not known,[h] gods that recently appeared,[i] gods your fathers did not fear.

he will take vengeance on his and make atonement for his land and people.[g]

44Moses came with Joshua[u,h] son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.
45When Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel, 46he said to them, "Take to heart all the words I have solemnly declared to you this day,[i] so that you may command[j] your children to obey carefully all the words of this law. 47They are not just idle words for you—they are your life.[k] By them you will live long[l] in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess."

Moses to Die on Mount Nebo

48On that same day the LORD told Moses,[m] 49"Go up into the Abarim[n] Range to Mount Nebo[o] in Moab, across from Jericho,[p] and view Canaan,[q] the land I am giving the Israelites as their own possession. 50There on the mountain that you have climbed you will die[r] and be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died[s] on Mount Hor[t] and was gathered to his people. 51This is because both of you broke faith with me in the presence of the Israelites at the waters of Meribah Kadesh[u] in the Desert of Zin[v] and because you did not uphold my holiness among the Israelites.[w] 52Therefore, you will see the land only from a distance;[x] you will not enter[y] the land I am giving to the people of Israel."

Moses Blesses the Tribes

33:1-29Ref — Ge 49:1-28

33 This is the blessing[z] that Moses the man of God[a] pronounced on the Israelites before his death. 2He said:

"The LORD came from Sinai[b] and dawned over them from Seir;[c] he shone forth[d] from Mount Paran.[e]
He came with[v] myriads of holy ones[f] from the south, from his mountain slopes.[w] 3Surely it is you who love[g] the
people;
all the holy ones are in your hand.[h]
At your feet they all bow down,[i] and from you receive instruction, 4the law that Moses gave us,[j] the possession of the assembly of Jacob.[k] 5He was king[l] over Jeshurun[x,m] when the leaders of the people assembled, along with the tribes of Israel.

6"Let Reuben live and not die, nor[y] his men be few."[n]

7And this he said about Judah:[o]

"Hear, O LORD, the cry of Judah; bring him to his people.

Joshua

The LORD Commands Joshua

1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' aide: 2 "Moses my servant is dead. Now then, you and all these people, get ready to cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them—to the Israelites. 3 I will give you every place where you set your foot, as I promised Moses. 4 Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the great river, the Euphrates—all the Hittite country—to the Great Sea[a] on the west. 5 No one will be able to stand up against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.

6 "Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their forefathers to give them. 7 Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go. 8 Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. 9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go."

10 So Joshua ordered the officers of the people: 11 "Go through the camp and tell the people, 'Get your supplies ready. Three days from now you will cross the Jordan here to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you for your own.'"

12 But to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said, 13 "Remember the command that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you: 'The LORD your God is giving you rest and has granted you this land.' 14 Your wives, your children and your livestock may stay in the land that Moses gave you east of the Jordan, but all your fighting men, fully armed, must cross over ahead of your brothers. You are to help your brothers 15 until the LORD gives them rest, as he has done for you, and until they too have taken possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them. After that, you may go back and occupy your own land, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you east of the Jordan toward the sunrise."

16 Then they answered Joshua, "Whatever you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. 17 Just as we fully obeyed Moses, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses. 18 Whoever rebels against your word and does not obey your words, whatever you may command them, will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous!"

Rahab and the Spies

2 Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Shittim. "Go, look over the land," he said, "especially Jericho." So they went and entered the house of a prostitute[b] named Rahab and stayed there.

2 The king of Jericho was told, "Look! Some of the Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land." 3 So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: "Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, because they have come to spy out the whole land."

4 But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She said, a4 That is, the Mediterranean b1 Or possibly an innkeeper

"Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they had come from. 5At dusk, when it was time to close the city gate,[a] the men left. I don't know which way they went. Go after them quickly. You may catch up with them."[b] 6(But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them under the stalks of flax[c] she had laid out on the roof.)[d] 7So the men set out in pursuit of the spies on the road that leads to the fords of the Jordan,[e] and as soon as the pursuers[f] had gone out, the gate was shut.

8Before the spies lay down for the night, she went up on the roof[g] 9and said to them, "I know that the LORD has given this land to you and that a great fear[h] of you has fallen on us, so that all who live in this country are melting in fear because of you. 10We have heard how the LORD dried up[i] the water of the Red Sea[c] for you when you came out of Egypt,[j] and what you did to Sihon and Og,[k] the two kings of the Amorites[l] east of the Jordan,[m] whom you completely destroyed.[d][n] 11When we heard of it, our hearts melted[o] and everyone's courage failed[p] because of you,[q] for the LORD your God[r] is God in heaven above and on the earth[s] below. 12Now then, please swear to me[t] by the LORD that you will show kindness[u] to my family, because I have shown kindness to you. Give me a sure sign[v] 13that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them,[w] and that you will save us from death."

14"Our lives for your lives!"[x] the men assured her. "If you don't tell what we are doing, we will treat you kindly and faithfully[y] when the LORD gives us the land."

15So she let them down by a rope[z] through the window,[a] for the house she lived in was part of the city wall. 16Now she had said to them, "Go to the hills[b] so the pursuers[c] will not find you. Hide yourselves there three days[d] until they return, and then go on your way."[e]

17The men said to her, "This oath[f] you made us swear will not be binding on us 18unless, when we enter the land, you have tied this scarlet cord[g] in the window[h] through which you let us down, and unless you have brought your father and mother, your brothers and all your family[i] into your house. 19If anyone goes outside your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head;[j] we will not be responsible. As for anyone who is in the house with you, his blood will be on our head[k] if a hand is laid on him. 20But if you tell what we are doing, we will be released from the oath you made us swear.[l]"

21"Agreed," she replied. "Let it be as you say." So she sent them away and they departed. And she tied the scarlet cord[m] in the window.[n]

22When they left, they went into the hills and stayed there three days,[o] until the pursuers[p] had searched all along the road and returned without finding them. 23Then the two men started back. They went down out of the hills, forded the river and came to Joshua son of Nun and told him everything that had happened to them. 24They said to Joshua, "The LORD has surely given the whole land into our hands;[q] all the people are melting in fear[r] because of us."

Crossing the Jordan

3 Early in the morning Joshua and all the Israelites set out from Shittim[s] and went to the Jordan,[t] where they camped before crossing over. 2After three days[u] the officers[v] went throughout the camp,[w] 3giving orders to the people: "When you see the ark of the covenant[x] of the LORD your God, and the priests,[y] who are Levites,[z] carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it. 4Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before. But keep a distance of about a thousand yards[e][a] between you and the ark; do not go near it."

5Joshua told the people, "Consecrate yourselves,[b] for tomorrow the LORD will do amazing things[c] among you."

6Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on ahead of the people." So they took it up and went ahead of them.

7And the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to exalt you[d] in the eyes of all Israel, so they may know that I am with you as I was with Moses.[e] 8Tell the priests[f] who carry the ark of the covenant: 'When you reach the edge of the Jordan's waters, go and stand in the river.' "

14So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant[m] went ahead[n] of them. 15Now the Jordan[o] is at flood stage[p] all during harvest.[q] Yet as soon as the priests who carried the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water's edge, 16the water from upstream stopped flowing.[r] It piled up in a heap[s] a great distance away, at a town called Adam in the vicinity of Zarethan,[t] while the water flowing down[u] to the Sea of the Arabah[v] (the Salt Sea[f][w]) was completely cut off.[x] So the people crossed over opposite Jericho.[y] 17The priests[z] who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan,[a] while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.[b] 4 When the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan,[c] the LORD said to Joshua, 2"Choose twelve men[d] from among the people, one from each tribe, 3and tell them to take up twelve stones[e] from the middle of the Jordan[f] from right where the priests stood and to carry them over with you and put them down at the place where you stay tonight.[g]" 4So Joshua called together the twelve men[h] he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe, 5and said to them, "Go over before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan.[i] Each of you is to take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, 6to serve as a sign[j] among you. In the future, when your children[k] ask you, 'What do these stones mean?'[l] 7tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off[m] before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial[n] to the people of Israel forever." 8So the Israelites did as Joshua commanded them. They took twelve stones[o] from the middle of the Jordan,[p] according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, as the LORD had told Joshua;[q] and they carried them over with them to their camp, where they put them down. 9Joshua set up the twelve stones[r] that had been[g] in the middle of the Jordan at the spot where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are there to this day.[s] 10Now the priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything the LORD had commanded Joshua was done by the people, just as Moses had directed Joshua. The people hurried over, 11and as soon as all of them had crossed, the ark of the LORD and the priests came to the other side while the people watched. 12The men of Reuben,[t] Gad[u] and the half-tribe of Manasseh[v] crossed over, armed, in front of the Israelites,[w] as Moses had directed them.[x] 13About forty thousand armed for battle[y] crossed over[z] before the LORD to the plains of Jericho for war.
14That day the LORD exalted[a] Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they revered him all the days of his life, just as they had revered Moses.
15Then the LORD said to Joshua, 16"Command the priests carrying the ark of the Testimony[b] to come up out of the Jordan." 17So Joshua commanded the priests, "Come up out of the Jordan." 18And the priests came up out of the river carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD. No sooner had they set their feet on the dry ground than the waters of the Jordan returned to their place[c] and ran at flood stage[d] as before.
19On the tenth day of the first month the people went up from the Jordan and camped at Gilgal[e] on the eastern border of Jericho. 20And Joshua set up at Gilgal the twelve stones[f] they had taken out of the Jordan. 21He said to the Israelites, "In the future when your descendants ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean?'[g] 22tell them, 'Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.'[h] the Jordan just what he had done to the this so that all the peoples of the earth might know[b] that the hand of the LORD is powerful[c] and so that you might al-

Circumcision at Gilgal

5 Now when all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the coast[e] heard how the LORD had dried up the Jordan before the Israelites until we had crossed over, their hearts melted[f] and they no longer had the courage to face the Israelites.
2At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives[g] and circumcise[h] the Israelites again." 3So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath Haaraloth.[i] 4Now this is why he did so: All those who came out of Egypt—all the men of military age[i]—died in the desert on the way after leaving Egypt.[j] 5All the people that came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the desert during the journey from Egypt had not. 6The Israelites had moved about in the desert[k] forty years[l] until all the men who were of military age when they left Egypt had died, since they had not obeyed the LORD. For the LORD had sworn to them that they would not see the land that he had solemnly promised their fathers to give us,[m] a land flowing with milk and honey.[n] 7So he raised up their sons in their place, and these were the ones Joshua circumcised. They were still uncircumcised because they had not been circumcised on the way. 8And after the whole nation had been circumcised, they remained where they were in camp until they were healed.[o] 9Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." So the place has been called Gilgal[j][p] to this day.
10On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month,[q] while camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites celebrated the Passover.[r] 11The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land:[s] unleavened bread[t] and roasted grain.[u] 12The manna stopped the day after[k] they ate this food from the land;

Israelites, but that year they ate of the produce of Canaan.[v]

The Fall of Jericho

13Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man[w] standing in front of him with a drawn sword[x] in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, "Are you for us or for our enemies?" 14"Neither," he replied, "but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." Then Joshua fell face-down[y] to the ground[z] in reverence, and asked him, "What message does my Lord[l] have for his servant?" 15The commander of the LORD's army replied, "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy."[a] And Joshua did so.
6 Now Jericho[b] was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No one went out and no one came in.
2Then the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered[c] Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men. 3March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days. 4Have seven priests carry trumpets of rams' horns[d] in front of the ark.
On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets.[e] 5When you hear them sound a long blast[f] on the trumpets, have all the people give a loud shout;[g] then the wall of the city will collapse and the people will go up, every man straight in." 6So Joshua son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant of the LORD and have seven priests carry trumpets in front of it."[h] 7And he ordered the people, "Advance[i]! March around the city, with the armed guard going ahead of the ark[j] of the LORD." 8When Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets before the LORD went forward, blowing their trumpets, and the ark of the LORD's covenant followed them. 9The armed guard marched ahead of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard[k] followed the ark. All this time the trumpets were sounding. 10But Joshua had commanded the people, "Do not give a war cry, do not raise your voices, do not say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout![a]" 11So he had the ark of the LORD carried around the city, circling it once. Then the people returned to camp and spent the night there.

12Joshua got up early the next morning and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. 13The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets went forward, marching before the ark of the LORD and blowing the trumpets. The armed men went ahead of them and the rear guard followed the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets kept sounding. 14So on the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

15On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times.[b] 16The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city![c] 17The city and all that is in it are to be devoted[m][d] to the LORD.
Only Rahab the prostitute[n][e] and all who are with her in her house shall be spared, because she hid[f] the spies we sent. 18But keep away from the devoted things,[g] so that you will not bring about your own destruction by taking any of them. Otherwise you will make the camp of Israel liable to destruction[h] and bring trouble[i] on it. 19All the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron[j] are sacred to the LORD and must go into his treasury."

20When the trumpets sounded,[k] the people shouted, and at the sound of the trumpet, when the people gave a loud shout,[l] the wall collapsed; so every man charged straight in, and they took the city.[m] 21They devoted[n] the city to the LORD and destroyed[o] with the sword every living thing in it—men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys.

22Joshua said to the two men[p] who had spied out[q] the land, "Go into the prostitute's house and bring her out and all who belong to her, in accordance with your oath to her.[r]" 23So the young men who had done the spying went in and brought out Rahab, her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her.[s] They brought out her entire family and put them in a place outside the camp of Israel.

24Then they burned the whole city[t] and everything in it, but they put the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron[u] into the treasury of the LORD's house.[v] 25But Joshua spared[w] Rahab the prostitute,[x] with her family and all who belonged to her, because she hid the men Joshua had sent as spies to Jericho[y]—and she lives among the Israelites to this day.

26At that time Joshua pronounced this solemn oath:[z] "Cursed[a] before the LORD is the man who undertakes to rebuild this city, Jericho:

"At the cost of his firstborn son will he lay its foundations; at the cost of his youngest will he set up its gates."[b] 27So the LORD was with Joshua,[c] and his fame spread[d] throughout the land.

Achan's Sin

7 But the Israelites acted unfaithfully in regard to the devoted things[o];[e] Achan[f] son of Carmi, the son of Zimri,[p] the son of Zerah,[g] of the tribe of Judah,[h] took some of them. So the LORD's anger burned[i] against Israel.[j]

2Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai,[k] which is near Beth Aven[l] to the east of Bethel,[m] and told them, "Go up and spy out[n] the region." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

3When they returned to Joshua, they said, "Not all the people will have to go up against Ai. Send two or three thousand men to take it and do not weary all the people, for only a few men are there." 4So about three thousand men went up; but they were routed by the men of Ai,[o] 5who killed about thirty-six[p] of them. They chased the Israelites from the city gate as far as the stone quarries[q] and struck them down on the slopes. At this the hearts of the people melted[q] and became like water.

6Then Joshua tore his clothes[r] and fell facedown[s] to the ground before the ark of the LORD, remaining there till evening.[t] The elders of Israel[u] did the same, and sprinkled dust[v] on their heads. 7And Joshua said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD, why[w] did you ever bring Israel has been routed by its enemies?

9 The Canaanites and the other people of the country will hear about this and they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth.[b] What then will you do for your own great name?[c]" 10 The LORD said to Joshua, "Stand up!
What are you doing down on your face? 11 Israel has sinned;[d] they have violated my covenant,[e] which I commanded them to keep. They have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, they have lied,[f] they have put them with their own possessions.[g] 12 That is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies;[h] they turn their backs[i] and run[j] because they have been made liable to destruction.[k] I will not be with you anymore[l] unless you destroy whatever among you is devoted to destruction.
13 "Go, consecrate the people. Tell them, 'Consecrate yourselves[m] in preparation for tomorrow; for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:
That which is devoted is among you, O Israel. You cannot stand against your enemies until you remove it.
14 " 'In the morning, present[n] yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe that the LORD takes[o] shall come forward clan by clan; the clan that the LORD takes shall come forward family by family; and the family that the LORD takes shall come forward man by man. 15 He who is caught with the devoted things[p] shall be destroyed by fire,[q] along with all that belongs to him.[r] He has violated the covenant[s] of the LORD and has done a disgraceful thing in Israel!' "[t] 16 Early the next morning Joshua had Israel come forward by tribes, and Judah was taken. 17 The clans of Judah came forward, and he took the Zera-hites.[u] He had the clan of the Zerahites come forward by families, and Zimri was taken. 18 Joshua had his family come forward man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah,[v] was taken.[w] 19 Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory[x] to the LORD,[r] the God of Israel, and give him the praise.[s] Tell[y] me what you have done; do not hide it from me." 20 Achan replied, "It is true! I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I have done: 21 When I saw in the plunder[z] a beautiful robe from Babylonia,[t] two hundred shekels[u] of silver and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels,[v] I coveted[a] them and took them. They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath." 22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver underneath. 23 They took the things from the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites and spread them out before the LORD.
24 Then Joshua, together with all Israel, took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the gold wedge, his sons[b] and daughters, his cattle, donkeys and sheep, his tent and all that he had, to the Valley of Achor.[c] 25 Joshua said, "Why have you brought this trouble[d] on us? The LORD will bring trouble on you today."
Then all Israel stoned him,[e] and after they had stoned the rest, they burned them.[f] 26 Over Achan they heaped[g] up a large pile of rocks, which remains to this day.[h] Then the LORD turned from his fierce anger.[i] Therefore that place has been called the Valley of Achor[w][j] ever since.

Ai Destroyed

8 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid;[k] do not be discouraged.[l] Take the whole army[m] with you did to Jericho and its king, except that you may carry off their plunder[p]

3 So Joshua and the whole army moved out to attack Ai. He chose thirty thousand of his best fighting men and sent them out at night 4 with these orders: "Listen carefully. You are to set an ambush behind the city. Don't go very far from it. All of you be on the alert. 5 I and all those with me will ad-pursue us until we have lured them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are running away from us as they did before.' So when we flee from them, 7you are to rise up from ambush and take the city. The LORD your God will give it into your hand.[a] 8When you have taken the city, set it on fire.[b] Do what the LORD has commanded.[c] See to it; you have my orders."

9Then Joshua sent them off, and they went to the place of ambush[d] and lay in wait between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai—but Joshua spent that night with the people.

10Early the next morning[e] Joshua mustered his men, and he and the leaders of Israel[f] marched before them to Ai. 11The entire force that was with him marched up and approached the city and arrived in front of it. They set up camp north of Ai, with the valley between them and the city. 12Joshua had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city. 13They had the soldiers take up their positions—all those in the camp to the north of the city and the ambush to the west of it. That night Joshua went into the valley.

14When the king of Ai saw this, he and all the men of the city hurried out early in the morning to meet Israel in battle at a certain place overlooking the Arabah.[g] But he did not know[h] that an ambush had been set against him behind the city. 15Joshua and all Israel let themselves be driven back[i] before them, and they fled toward the desert.[j] 16All the men of Ai were called to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were lured away[k] from the city. 17Not a man remained in Ai or Bethel who did not go after Israel. They left the city open and went in pursuit of Israel.

18Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Hold out toward Ai the javelin[l] that is in your hand,[m] for into your hand I will deliver the city." So Joshua held out his javelin[n] toward Ai. 19As soon as he did this, the men in the ambush rose quickly[o] from their position and rushed forward. They entered the city and captured it and quickly set it on fire.[p]

20The men of Ai looked back and saw the smoke of the city rising against the sky,[q] but they had no chance to escape in any direction, for the Israelites who had been fleeing toward the desert had turned back against their pursuers. 21For when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that smoke was going up from the city, they turned around[r] and attacked the men of Ai. 22The men of the ambush also came out of the city against them, so that they were caught in the middle, with Israelites on both sides. Israel cut them down, leaving them neither survivors nor fugitives.[s] 23But they took the king of Ai alive[t] and brought him to Joshua.

24When Israel had finished killing all the men of Ai in the fields and in the desert where they had chased them, and when every one of them had been put to the sword, all the Israelites returned to Ai and killed those who were in it. 25Twelve thousand men and women fell that day—all the people of Ai.[u] 26For Joshua did not draw back the hand that held out his javelin[v] until he had destroyed[x][w] all who lived in Ai.[x] 27But Israel did carry off for themselves the livestock and plunder of this city, as the LORD had instructed Joshua.[y]

28So Joshua burned[z] Ai[a] and made it a permanent heap of ruins,[b] a desolate place to this day.[c] 29He hung the king of Ai on a tree and left him there until evening. At sunset,[d] Joshua ordered them to take his body from the tree and throw it down at the entrance of the city gate. And they raised a large pile of rocks[e] over it, which remains to this day.

The Covenant Renewed at Mount Ebal

30Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal[f] an altar[g] to the LORD, the God of Israel, 31as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites. He built it according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses—an altar of uncut stones, on which no iron tool[h] had been used. On it they offered to the LORD burnt offerings and sacrificed fellowship offerings.[y][i] 32There, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua copied on stones the law of Moses, which he had written.[j] 33All Israel, aliens and citizens[k] alike, with their elders, officials and judges, were standing on both sides of the ark of the covenant of the LORD, facing those who carried it—the priests, who were Levites.[l] Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of

The Gibeonite Deception

9 Now when all the kings west of the Jordan heard about these things—those in the hill country,[d] in the western foothills, and along the entire coast of the Great Sea[e1] as far as Lebanon[f] (the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites,[g] Hivites[h] and Jeb-usites)[i]— 2 they came together to make war against Joshua and Israel.
3 However, when the people of Gibe-on[j] heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,[k] 4 they resorted to a ruse: They went as a delegation whose donkeys were loaded[a] with worn-out sacks and old wineskins, cracked and mended. 5 The men put worn and patched sandals on their feet and wore old clothes. All the bread of their food supply was dry and moldy. 6 Then they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal[l] and said to him and the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant country;[m] make a treaty[n] with us." 7 The men of Israel said to the Hi-vites,[o] "But perhaps you live near us.
How then can we make a treaty[p] with
you?"
8 "We are your servants,[q]" they said to Joshua.
But Joshua asked, "Who are you and where do you come from?" 9 They answered: "Your servants have come from a very distant country[r] because of the fame of the LORD your God. For we have heard reports[s] of him: all that he did in Egypt,[t] 10 and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan—Sihon king of Heshbon,[u] and Og king of Bashan,[v] who reigned in Ashtaroth.[w] 11 And our elders and all those living in our country said to us, 'Take provisions for your journey; go and meet them and say to them, "We are your servants; make a treaty with us."' 12 This bread of ours was warm when we packed it at home on the day we left to come to you. But now see how dry and moldy it is. 13 And these wineskins that we filled were new, but see how cracked they are. And our clothes and sandals are worn out by the very long journey." 14 The men of Israel sampled their provisions but did not inquire[x] of the LORD. 15 Then Joshua made a treaty of peace[y] with them to let them live,[z] and the leaders of the assembly ratified it by oath.
16 Three days after they made the treaty with the Gibeonites, the Israelites heard that they were neighbors, living near[a] them. 17 So the Israelites set out and on the third day came to their cities: Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth[b] and Kiriath Jearim.[c] 18 But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the assembly had sworn an oath[d] to them by the LORD, the God of Israel.
The whole assembly grumbled[e] against the leaders, 19 but all the leaders answered, "We have given them our oath by the LORD, the God of Israel, and we cannot touch them now. 20 This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, so that wrath will not fall on us for breaking the oath[f] we swore to them." 21 They continued, "Let them live,[g] but let them be woodcutters and water carriers[h] for the entire community." So the leaders' promise to them was kept.
22 Then Joshua summoned the Gibe-onites and said, "Why did you deceive us by saying, 'We live a long way[i] from you,' while actually you live near[j] us? 23 You are now under a curse:[k] You will never cease to serve as woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God." 24 They answered Joshua, "Your servants were clearly told[l] how the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you the whole land and to wipe out all its inhabitants from before you. So we feared for our lives because of you, and that is why we did this. 25 We are now in your hands.[m] Do to us whatever seems good and right[n] to you."
26 So Joshua saved them from the Israelites, and they did not kill them.
27 That day he made the Gibeonites[o] woodcutters and water carriers[p] for the community and for the altar of the LORD

The Sun Stands Still

10 Now Adoni-Zedek[a] king of Jerusalem[b] heard that Joshua had taken Ai[c] and totally destroyed[b][d] it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and that the people of Gibeon[f] had made a treaty of peace[g] with Israel and were living near them. 2He and his people were very much alarmed at this, because Gibeon was an important city, like one of the royal cities; it was larger than Ai, and all its men were good fighters. 3So Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem appealed to Hoham king of Hebron,[h] Piram king of Jarmuth,[i] Japhia king of Lachish[j] and Debir[k] king of Eglon.[l] 4"Come up and help me attack Gibeon," he said, "because it has made peace[m] with Joshua and the Israelites."
5Then the five kings[n] of the Amorites[o]—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon—joined forces. They moved up with all their troops and took up positions against Gibeon and attacked it.
6The Gibeonites then sent word to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal:[p] "Do not abandon your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, because all the Amorite kings from the hill country have joined forces against us." 7So Joshua marched up from Gilgal with his entire army,[q] including all the best fighting men. 8The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid[r] of them; I have given them into your hand.[s] Not one of them will be able to withstand you."[t] 9After an all-night march from Gilgal, Joshua took them by surprise. 10The LORD threw them into confusion[u] before Israel,[v] who defeated them in a great victory at Gibeon.[w] Israel pursued them along the road going up to Beth Horon[x] and cut them down all the way to Azekah[y] and Makkedah.[z] 11As they fled before Israel on the road down from Beth Horon to Azekah, the LORD hurled large hailstones[a] down on them from the sky,[b] and more of them died from the hailstones than were killed by the swords of the Israelites.
12On the day the LORD gave the Amorites[c] over to Israel, Joshua said to the LORD in the presence of Israel:

"O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon.[d]" 13So the sun stood still,[e] and the moon stopped, till the nation avenged itself on[c] its enemies,

as it is written in the Book of Jashar.[f] The sun stopped[g] in the middle of the sky and delayed going down about a full day. 14There has never been a day like it before or since, a day when the LORD listened to a man. Surely the LORD was fighting[h] for Israel!
15Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.[i]

Five Amorite Kings Killed

16Now the five kings had fled[j] and hidden in the cave at Makkedah.
17When Joshua was told that the five kings had been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah, 18he said, "Roll large rocks up to the mouth of the cave, and post some men there to guard it.
19But don't stop! Pursue your enemies, attack them from the rear and don't let them reach their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand." 20So Joshua and the Israelites destroyed them completely[k]—almost to a man—but the few who were left reached their fortified cities.[l] 21The whole army then returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah, and no one uttered a word against the Israelites.
22Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me." 23So they brought the five kings out of the cave—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon. 24When they had brought these kings[m] to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the army commanders who had come with him, "Come here and put your feet[n] on the necks of these kings." So they came forward and placed their feet[o] on their necks.
25Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Be strong and courageous.[p] This is what the LORD will do to all the enemies you are going to fight." 26Then Joshua struck and killed the kings and hung them on five trees, and they were left hanging on the trees until evening.

27At sunset[a] Joshua gave the order and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had been hiding. At the mouth of the cave they placed large rocks, which are there to this day.[b] 28That day Joshua took Makkedah.
He put the city and its king to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it. He left no survivors.[c] And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.[d]

Southern Cities Conquered

29Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Makkedah to Libnah[e] and attacked it. 30The LORD also gave that city and its king into Israel's hand.
The city and everyone in it Joshua put to the sword. He left no survivors there. And he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.
31Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Libnah to Lachish;[f] he took up positions against it and attacked it. 32The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel, and Joshua took it on the second day. The city and everyone in it he put to the sword, just as he had done to Libnah. 33Meanwhile, Horam king of Gezer[g] had come up to help Lachish, but Joshua defeated him and his army—until no survivors were left.
34Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Lachish to Eglon;[h] they took up positions against it and attacked it. 35They captured it that same day and put it to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it, just as they had done to Lachish.
36Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron[i] and attacked it. 37They took the city and put it to the sword, together with its king, its villages and everyone[j] in it. They left no survivors. Just as at Eglon, they totally destroyed it and everyone in it.
38Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned around and attacked Debir.[k] 39They took the city, its king and its villages, and put them to the sword.
Everyone in it they totally destroyed.
They left no survivors. They did to Debir and its king as they had done to Libnah and its king and to Hebron.[l] 40So Joshua subdued the whole region, including the hill country, the Negev,[m] the western foothills and the mountain slopes,[n] together with all their kings.[o] He left no survivors. He totally destroyed all who breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded.[p] 41Joshua subdued them from Kadesh Barnea[q] to Gaza[r] and from the whole region of Goshen[s] to Gibeon. 42All these kings and their lands Joshua conquered in one campaign, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought[t] for Israel.
43Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.[u]

Northern Kings Defeated

11 When Jabin[v] king of Hazor[w] heard of this, he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, to the kings of Shimron[x] and Acshaph,[y] 2and to the northern kings who were in the mountains, in the Arabah[z] south of Kinnereth,[a] in the western foothills and in Naphoth Dor[a][b] on the west; 3to the Canaanites in the east and west; to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites[c] and Jeb-usites in the hill country;[d] and to the Hivites[e] below Hermon[f] in the region of Mizpah.[g] 4They came out with all their troops and a large number of horses and chariots—a huge army, as numerous as the sand on the seashore.[h] 5All these kings joined forces[i] and made camp together at the Waters of Merom,[j] to fight against Israel.
6The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, because by this time tomorrow I will hand all of them over[k] to Israel, slain. You are to hamstring[l] their horses and burn their chariots."[m] 7So Joshua and his whole army came against them suddenly at the Waters of Merom and attacked them, 8and the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel.
They defeated them and pursued them all the way to Greater Sidon,[n] to Misre-photh Maim,[o] and to the Valley of Mizpah on the east, until no survivors were left. 9Joshua did to them as the LORD had directed: He hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.
10At that time Joshua turned back and captured Hazor and put its king to the sword.[p] (Hazor had been the head of all these kingdoms.) 11Everyone in it they put to the sword. They totally destroyed[b] them,[q] not sparing anything that breathed,[r] and he burned up[s] Hazor itself.
12Joshua took all these royal cities and their kings and put them to the sword. He totally destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.[a] 13 Yet Israel did not burn any of the cities built on their mounds—except Hazor, which Joshua burned.

14 The Israelites carried off for themselves all the plunder and livestock of these cities, but all the people they put to the sword until they completely destroyed them, not sparing anyone that breathed.[b] 15 As the LORD commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and Joshua did it; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.[c]

16 So Joshua took this entire land: the hill country,[d] all the Negev,[e] the whole region of Goshen, the western foothills,[f] the Arabah and the mountains of Israel with their foothills, 17 from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir,[g] to Baal Gad[h] in the Valley of Lebanon[i] below Mount Hermon.[j] He captured all their kings and struck them down, putting them to death.[k] 18 Joshua waged war against all these kings for a long time. 19 Except for the Hivites[l] living in Gibeon,[m] not one city made a treaty of peace[n] with the Israelites, who took them all in battle.
20 For it was the LORD himself who hardened their hearts[o] to wage war against Israel, so that he might destroy them totally, exterminating them without mercy, as the LORD had commanded Moses.[p]

21 At that time Joshua went and destroyed the Anakites[q] from the hill country: from Hebron, Debir[r] and Anab,[s] from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua totally destroyed them and their towns. 22 No Anakites were left in Israelite territory; only in Gaza,[t] Gath[u] and Ashdod[v] did any survive.
23 So Joshua took the entire land,[w] just as the LORD had directed Moses, and he gave it as an inheritance[x] to Israel according to their tribal divisions.[y][z]

Then the land had rest[a] from war.[b]

List of Defeated Kings

12 These are the kings of the land whom the Israelites had defeated and whose territory they took[c] over east of the Jordan,[d] from the Ar-non[e] Gorge to Mount Hermon,[f] including all the eastern side of the Arabah:[g]

2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.[h] He ruled from Aroer[i] on the rim of the Arnon Gorge—from the middle of the gorge—to the Jabbok River,[j] which is the border of the Ammon-ites.[k] This included half of Gilead.[l] 3 He also ruled over the eastern Arabah from the Sea of Kinnereth[f][m] to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea[g][n]), to Beth Jeshi-moth,[o] and then southward below the slopes of Pisgah.[p]

4 And the territory of Og king of Bashan,[q] one of the last of the Rephaites,[r] who reigned in Ashtaroth[s] and Edrei. 5 He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah,[t] all of Bashan[u] to the border of the people of Geshur[v] and Maacah,[w] and half of Gilead[x] to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6 Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites conquered them.[y] And Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land to the Reubenites, the Gad-ites and the half-tribe of Manasseh to be their possession.[z]

Land Still to Be Taken

13 When Joshua was old and well advanced in years,[p] the LORD said to him, "You are very old, and there are still very large areas of land to be taken over.

2 "This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines[q] and Geshurites:[r] 3 from the Shihor River[s] on the east of Egypt to the territory of Ekron[t] on the north, all of it counted as Canaanite (the territory of the five Philistine rulers[u] in Gaza, Ashdod,[v] Ashkelon,[w] Gath and Ekron—that of the Avvites);[x] 4 from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, from Arah of the Sidonians as far as Aphek,[y] the region of the Amorites,[z] 5 the area of the Gebalites[i];[a] and all Lebanon[b] to the east, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon[c] to Lebo[j] Hamath.[d]

6 "As for all the inhabitants of the mountain regions from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim,[e] that is, all the Sidonians, I myself will drive them out[f] before the Israelites. Be sure to allocate this land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have instructed you,[g] 7 and divide it as an inheritance[h] among the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh."

Division of the Land East of the Jordan

8 The other half of Manasseh,[k] the Reubenites and the Gadites had received the inheritance that Moses had given them east of the Jordan, as he, the servant of the LORD, had assigned[i] it to them.[j]

9 It extended from Aroer[k] on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and included the whole plateau[l] of Medeba as far as Dibon,[m] 10 and all the towns of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon,[n] out to the border of the Ammonites.[o] 11 It also included Gilead,[p] the territory of the people of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon and all Bashan as far as Salecah[q]— 12 that is, the whole kingdom of Og in Bashan,[r] who had reigned in Ashtaroth[s] and Edrei[t] and had survived as one of the last of the Rephaites.[u] Moses had defeated them and taken over their land.[v] 13 But the Israelites did not drive out the people of Geshur[w] and Maacah,[x] so they continue to live among the Israelites to this day.[y]

14 But to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance, since the offerings made by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as he promised them.[z]

15 This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Reuben, clan by clan:

16 The territory from Aroer[a] on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and the whole plateau past Medeba[b] 17 to Heshbon and all its towns on the plateau,[c] including Dibon,[d] Bamoth Baal,[e] Beth Baal Meon,[f] 18 Jahaz,[g] Kedemoth,[h] Mephaath,[i] 19 Kiriathaim,[j] Sibmah,[k] Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley, 20 Beth Peor,[l] the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth 21 —all the towns on the plateau[m] and the entire realm of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled at Heshbon. Moses had defeated him and the Midianite chiefs,[n] Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba[o]—princes allied with Sihon—who lived in that country. 22 In addition to those slain in battle, the Israelites had put to the sword Balaam son of Beor,[a] who practiced divination.[b] 23The boundary of the Reubenites was the bank of the Jordan. These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Reu-benites, clan by clan.[c]

24This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Gad, clan by clan:

25The territory of Jazer,[d] all the towns of Gilead[e] and half the Am-monite country as far as Aroer, near Rabbah;[f] 26and from Heshbon[g] to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim[h] to the territory of Debir;[i] 27and in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah,[j] Succoth[k] and Zaphon[l] with the rest of the realm of Sihon king of Heshbon (the east side of the Jordan, the territory up to the end of the Sea of Kinnereth[l][m]). 28These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Gadites,[n] clan by clan.

29This is what Moses had given to the half-tribe of Manasseh, that is, to half the family of the descendants of Manasseh, clan by clan:

30The territory extending from Mahanaim[o] and including all of Bashan,[p] the entire realm of Og king of Bashan[q]—all the settlements of Jair[r] in Bashan, sixty towns, 31half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei (the royal cities of Og in Bashan).[s] This was for the descendants of Makir[t] son of Manasseh—for half of the sons of Makir, clan by clan.[u] 32This is the inheritance Moses had given when he was in the plains of Moab[v] across the Jordan east of Jericho.[w] 33But to the tribe of Levi, Moses had given no inheritance;[x] the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance,[y] as he promised them.[z]

Division of the Land West of the Jordan

14 Now these are the areas the Israelites received as an inheritance[a] in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar[b] the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel[c] allotted[d] to them.[e] 2Their inheritances were assigned by lot[f] to the nine-and-a-half tribes,[g] as the LORD had commanded through Moses. 3Moses had granted the two-and-a-half tribes their inheritance east of the Jordan[h] but had not granted the Levites an inheritance among the rest,[i] 4for the sons of Joseph had become two tribes—Manasseh and Ephraim.[j] The Levites received no share of the land but only towns to live in, with pasturelands for their flocks and herds.[k] 5So the Israelites divided the land, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.[l]

Hebron Given to Caleb

6Now the men of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal,[m] and Caleb son of Jephunneh[n] the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God[o] at Kadesh Barnea[p] about you and me.[q] 7I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea[r] to explore the land.[s] And I brought him back a report according to my convictions,[t] 8but my brothers who went up with me made the hearts of the people melt with fear.[u] I, however, followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.[v] 9So on that day Moses swore to me, 'The land on which your feet have walked will be your inheritance[w] and that of your children[x] forever, because you have followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.'[m]

10"Now then, just as the LORD promised,[y] he has kept me alive for forty-five years since the time he said this to Moses, while Israel moved[z] about in the desert. So here I am today, eighty-five years old![a] 11I am still as strong[b] today as the day Moses sent me out; I'm just as vigorous[c] to go out to battle now as I was then. 12Now give me this hill country that the LORD promised me that day.[d] You yourself heard then that the Anakites[e] were there and their cities were large and fortified,[f] but, the LORD helping me, I will drive them out just as he said."

13Then Joshua blessed[g] Caleb son of Jephunneh[h] and gave him Hebron[i] as his inheritance.[j] 14So Hebron has belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite ever since, because he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, wholeheartedly.[k] 15(Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba[l] after Arba,[m] who was the greatest man among the Ana-kites.)

Allotment for Judah

15:15-19pp — Jdg 1:11-15

15 The allotment for the tribe of Judah, clan by clan, extended down to the territory of Edom,[b] to the Desert of Zin[c] in the extreme south.[d] 2 Their southern boundary started from the bay at the southern end of the Salt Sea,[n][e] 3 crossed south of Scorpion[o] Pass,[f] continued on to Zin and went over to the south of Kadesh Barnea.[g] Then it ran past Hezron up to Addar and curved around to Karka. 4 It then passed along to Azmon[h] and joined the Wadi of Egypt,[i] ending at the sea.
This is their[p] southern boundary.
5 The eastern boundary[j] is the Salt Sea[k] as far as the mouth of the Jordan.

The northern boundary[l] started from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan, 6 went up to Beth Hoglah[m] and continued north of Beth Arabah[n] to the Stone of Bohan[o] son of Reuben. 7 The boundary then went up to Debir[p] from the Valley of Achor[q] and turned north to Gilgal,[r] which faces the Pass of Adummim south of the gorge. It continued along to the waters of En Shemesh[s] and came out at En Rogel.[t] 8 Then it ran up the Valley of Ben Hinnom[u] along the southern slope of the Jebusite[v] city (that is, Jerusalem[w]). From there it climbed to the top of the hill west of the Hinnom Valley[x] at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim.[y] 9 From the hilltop the boundary headed toward the spring of the waters of Nephtoah,[z] came out at the towns of Mount Ephron and went down toward Baalah[a] (that is, Kiriath Jearim).[b] 10 Then it curved westward from Baalah[c] to Mount Seir,[d] ran along the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Kesalon), continued down to Beth Shemesh[e] and crossed to Timnah.[f] 11 It went to the northern slope of Ekron,[g] turned toward Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah[h] and reached Jabneel.[i] The boundary ended at the sea.
12 The western boundary is the coastline of the Great Sea.[q][j]

These are the boundaries around the people of Judah by their clans.

13 In accordance with the LORD's command to him, Joshua gave to Caleb[k] son of Jephunneh a portion in Judah—Kiriath Arba[l], that is, Hebron.[m] (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)[n] 14 From Hebron Caleb drove out the three Ana-kites[o]—Sheshai, Ahiman and Tal-mai[p]—descendants of Anak.[q] 15 From there he marched against the people living in Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher). 16 And Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Acsah[r] in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher." 17 Othniel[s] son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.
18 One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him[r] to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What can I do for you?"
19 She replied, "Do me a special favor.
Since you have given me land in the Negev,[t] give me also springs of water." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.[u]

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Judah, clan by clan:

21 The southernmost towns of the tribe of Judah in the Negev[v] toward the boundary of Edom were:

Kabzeel,[w] Eder,[x] Jagur, 22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, 23 Kedesh,[y] Hazor,[z] Ithnan, 24 Ziph,[a] Telem, Bealoth, 25 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth mannah,[k] Sansannah, 32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain[l] and Rimmon[m]—a total of twenty-nine towns and their villages.

Allotment for Ephraim and Manasseh

16 The allotment for Joseph began at the Jordan of Jericho,[t] east of the waters of Jericho, and went up from there through the desert[a] into the hill country of Bethel.[b] 2It went on from Bethel (that is, Luz[c]),[u] crossed over to the territory of the Arkites[d] in Ataroth,[e] 3descended westward to the territory of the Japhletites as far as the region of Lower Beth Horon[f] and on to Gezer,[g] ending at the sea.
4So Manasseh and Ephraim, the descendants of Joseph, received their inheritance.[h]

5This was the territory of Ephraim, clan by clan:
The boundary of their inheritance went from Ataroth Addar[i] in the east to Upper Beth Horon[j] 6and continued to the sea. From Micmethath[k] on the north it curved eastward to Taanath Shiloh, passing by it to Janoah[l] on the east. 7Then it went down from Ja-noah[m] to Ataroth[n] and Naarah, touched Jericho and came out at the Jordan. 8From Tappuah[o] the border went west to the Kanah Ravine[p] and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites, clan by clan. 9It also included all the towns and their villages that were set aside for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites.[q] 10They did not dislodge the Canaanites living in Gezer; to this day the Canaanites live among the people of Ephraim but are required to do forced labor.[r]

17 This was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh[s] as Joseph's firstborn,[t] that is, for Makir,[u] Manasseh's firstborn. Makir was the ancestor of the Gileadites, who had received Gilead[v] and Bashan[w] because the Makirites were great soldiers. 2So this allotment was for the rest of the people of Manasseh[x]—the clans of Abiezer,[y] Helek, Asriel,[z] Shechem, Hepher[a] and Shemida.[b] These are the other male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their clans.

son of Manasseh, had no sons but only daughters,[a] whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. 4They went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers." So Joshua gave them an inheritance along with the brothers of their father, according to the LORD's command.[b] 5Manasseh's share consisted of ten tracts of land besides Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan,[c] 6because the daughters of the tribe of Manasseh received an inheritance among the sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

7The territory of Manasseh extended from Asher[d] to Micmethath[e] east of Shechem.[f] The boundary ran southward from there to include the people living at En Tappuah. 8(Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah[g] itself, on the boundary of Manasseh, belonged to the Ephraimites.) 9Then the boundary continued south to the Kanah Ravine.[h] There were towns belonging to Ephraim lying among the towns of Manasseh, but the boundary of Manasseh was the northern side of the ravine and ended at the sea. 10On the south the land belonged to Ephraim, on the north to Manasseh. The territory of Manasseh reached the sea and bordered Asher[i] on the north and Issachar[j] on the east.[k]

12Yet the Manassites were not able[t] to occupy these towns, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that region. 13However, when the Israelites grew stronger, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labor but did not drive them out completely.[u]

14The people of Joseph said to Joshua, "Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? We are a numerous people and the LORD has blessed us abundantly."[v]

15"If you are so numerous," Joshua answered, "and if the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, go up into the forest[w] and clear land for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites[x] and Rephaites.[y]"

16The people of Joseph replied, "The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the plain have iron chariots,[z] both those in Beth Shan[a] and its settlements and those in the Valley of Jezreel."[b]

17But Joshua said to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—"You are numerous and very powerful. You will have not only one allotment[c] 18but the forested hill country[d] as well. Clear it, and its farthest limits will be yours; though the Canaanites have iron chariots[e] and though they are strong, you can drive them out."

Division of the Rest of the Land

18 The whole assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh[f] and set up the Tent of Meeting[g] there. The country was brought under their control, 2but there were still seven Israelite tribes who had not yet received their inheritance.

3So Joshua said to the Israelites: "How long will you wait before you begin to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you? 4Appoint three men from each tribe. I will send them out to make a survey of the land and to write a description of it,[h] according to the inheritance of each.[i] Then they will return to me. 5You are to divide the land into seven parts. Judah is to remain in its territory on the south[j] and the house of Joseph in its territory on the north.[k] 6After you have written descriptions of the seven parts of the land, bring them here to me and I will cast lots[l] for you in the presence of the LORD our God. 7The Levites, however, do not get a portion among you, because the priestly service of the LORD is their inheritance.[m] And Gad, Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan. Moses the servant of the LORD gave it to them.[n]"

8As the men started on their way to map out the land, Joshua instructed them, "Go and make a survey of the land and write a description of it.[o] Then return to me, and I will cast lots for you here at Shiloh[p] in the presence of the LORD." 9So the men left and went through the land. They wrote its description on a scroll, town by town, in seven parts, and returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh. 10Joshua then cast lots[a] for them in Shiloh in the presence[b] of the LORD, and there he distributed the land to the Israelites according to their tribal divisions.[c]

Allotment for Benjamin

11The lot came up for the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan. Their allotted territory lay between the tribes of Judah and Joseph:

12On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan, passed the northern slope of Jericho and headed west into the hill country, coming out at the desert[d] of Beth Aven.[e] 13From there it crossed to the south slope of Luz[f] (that is, Bethel[g]) and went down to Ataroth Addar[h] on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon.

14From the hill facing Beth Horon[i] on the south the boundary turned south along the western side and came out at Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim),[j] a town of the people of Judah. This was the western side.

15The southern side began at the outskirts of Kiriath Jearim on the west, and the boundary came out at the spring of the waters of Neph-toah.[k] 16The boundary went down to the foot of the hill facing the Valley of Ben Hinnom, north of the Valley of Rephaim.[l] It continued down the Hinnom Valley[m] along the southern slope of the Jebusite city and so to En Rogel.[n] 17It then curved north, went to En Shemesh, continued to Geliloth,[o] which faces the Pass of Adummim,[p] and ran down to the Stone of Bohan[q] son of Reuben. 18It continued to the northern slope of Beth Arabah[w][r] and on down into the Arabah.[s] 19It then went to the northern slope of Beth Hoglah[t] and came out at the northern bay of the Salt Sea,[x][u] at the mouth of the Jordan in the south. This was the southern boundary.

20The Jordan formed the boundary on the eastern side.

These were the boundaries that marked out the inheritance of the clans of Benjamin on all sides.[v] 21The tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, had the following cities:

Jericho, Beth Hoglah,[w] Emek Keziz, 22Beth Arabah,[x] Zemaraim,[y] Bethel,[z] 23Avvim,[a] Parah, Ophrah,[b] 24Kephar Ammoni, Oph-ni and Geba[c]—twelve towns and their villages.

25Gibeon,[d] Ramah,[e] Beeroth,[f] 26Mizpah,[g] Kephirah,[h] Mozah, 27Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, 28Zelah,[i] Haeleph, the Jebusite city[j] (that is, Jerusalem[k]), Gibeah[l] and Kiriath—fourteen towns and their villages.[m]

This was the inheritance of Benjamin for its clans.[n]

Allotment for Simeon

19 The second lot came out for the tribe of Simeon, clan by clan.
Their inheritance lay within the territory of Judah.[o] 2It included:

Beersheba[p] (or Sheba),[y] Mola-dah,[q] 3Hazar Shual,[r] Balah, Ezem,[s] 4Eltolad,[t] Bethul, Hor-mah,[u] 5Ziklag,[v] Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah, 6Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhen—thirteen towns and
their villages;

7Ain, Rimmon,[w] Ether and Ashan[x]—four towns and their villages— 8and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah in the Negev).[y]

This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Simeonites, clan by clan. 9The inheritance of the Simeonites was taken from the share of Judah,[z] because Judah's portion was more than they needed. So the Simeonites received their inheritance within the territory of Judah.[a]

Allotment for Zebulun

10The third lot came up for Zebulun,[b] clan by clan:

The boundary of their inheritance went as far as Sarid.[c] 11Going west it ran to Maralah, touched Dabbesheth, and extended to the ravine near Jokneam.[d] 12It turned east from Sarid[e] toward the sunrise to the territory of Kisloth Tabor and went on to Daberath[f] and up to Japhia. 13Then it continued eastward to Gath Hepher[g] and Eth Ka-zin; it came out at Rimmon[h] and turned toward Neah. 14There the boundary went around on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah El.[a] 15Included were Kattath, Nahalal,[b] Shimron,[c] Idalah and Bethlehem.[d] There were twelve towns and their villages.

16These towns and their villages were the inheritance of Zebulun,[e] clan by clan.[f]

Allotment for Issachar

17The fourth lot came out for Issachar,[g] clan by clan. 18Their territory included: Jezreel,[h] Kesulloth, Shunem,[i] 19Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, 20Rabbith, Kishion,[j] Ebez, 21Remeth, En Gannim,[k] En Haddah and Beth Pazzez. 22The boundary touched Tabor,[l] Shahazumah and Beth Shemesh,[m] and ended at the Jordan. There were sixteen towns and their villages.
the inheritance of the tribe of Is-sachar,[n] clan by clan.[o]

Allotment for Asher

24The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher,[p] clan by clan. 25Their territory included:
Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph,[q] 26Allammelech, Amad and Mi-shal.[r] On the west the boundary touched Carmel[s] and Shihor Lib-nath. 27It then turned east toward Beth Dagon,[t] touched Zebulun[u] and the Valley of Iphtah El,[v] and went north to Beth Emek and Nei-el, passing Cabul[w] on the left. 28It went to Abdon,[z x] Rehob,[y] Hammon[z] and Kanah,[a] as far as Greater Sidon.[b] 29The boundary then turned back toward Ramah[c] and went to the fortified city of Tyre,[d] turned toward Hosah and came out at the sea[e] in the region of Aczib,[f] 30Ummah, Aphek[g] and Rehob.[h] There were twenty-two towns and their villages.
the inheritance of the tribe of Asher,[i] clan by clan.

Allotment for Naphtali

32The sixth lot came out for Naphtali, clan by clan:
33Their boundary went from Heleph and the large tree in Zaanannim,[j] passing Adami Nekeb and Jabneel[k] to Lakkum and ending at the Jordan. 34The boundary ran west through Aznoth Tabor and came out at Hukkok.[l] It touched Zebulun[m] on the south, Asher on the west and the Jordan[a] on the east. 35The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath,[n] Rakkath, Kinnereth,[o] 36Adamah, Ramah,[p] Hazor,[q] 37Kedesh,[r] Edrei,[s] En Hazor, 38Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath[t] and Beth Shemesh.[u] There were nineteen towns and their villages.
39These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali, clan by clan.[v]

Allotment for Dan

40The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan, clan by clan. 41The territory of their inheritance included: Zorah, Eshtaol,[w] Ir Shemesh, 42Shaalabbin, Aijalon,[x] Ithlah, 43Elon, Timnah,[y] Ekron,[z] 44Eltekeh, Gibbethon,[a] Baalath,[b] 45Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rim-mon,[c] 46Me Jarkon and Rakkon, with the area facing Joppa.[d] 47(But the Danites had difficulty taking possession of their territory,[e] so they went up and attacked Leshem[f], took it, put it to the sword and occupied it. They settled in Leshem and named[g] it Dan after their forefather.)[h] 48These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Dan,[i] clan by clan.

Allotment for Joshua

49When they had finished dividing the land into its allotted portions, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them, 50as the LORD had commanded. They gave him the town he asked for—Timnath Serah[b j] in the hill country of Ephraim. And he built up the town and settled there.
51These are the territories that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel assigned by lot at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. And so they finished dividing[k] the land.[l]

20:1-9Ref — Nu 35:9-34; Dt 4:41-43; 19:1-14

20 Then the LORD said to Joshua: 2"Tell the Israelites to designate the cities of refuge, as I instructed you through Moses, 3so that anyone who kills a person accidentally and unintentionally[a] may flee there and find protection from the avenger of blood.[b] 4"When he flees to one of these cities, he is to stand in the entrance of the city gate[c] and state his case before the elders[d] of that city. Then they are to admit him into their city and give him a place to live with them. 5If the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not surrender the one accused, because he killed his neighbor unintentionally and without malice aforethought. 6He is to stay in that city until he has stood trial before the assembly[e] and until the death of the high priest who is serving at that time. Then he may go back to his own home in the town from which he fled."
7So they set apart Kedesh[f] in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem[g] in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba[h] (that is, Hebron[i]) in the hill country of Judah.[j] 8On the east side of the Jordan of Jericho[c] they designated Bezer[k] in the desert on the plateau in the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead[l][m] in the tribe of Gad, and Go-lan in Bashan[n] in the tribe of Manasseh. 9Any of the Israelites or any alien living among them who killed someone accidentally[o] could flee to these designated cities and not be killed by the avenger of blood prior to standing trial before the assembly.[p]

21 Now the family heads of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the other tribal families of Israel[q] 2at Shiloh[r] in Canaan and said to them, "The LORD commanded through Moses that you give us towns[s] to live in, with pasturelands for our livestock."[t] 3So, as the LORD had commanded, the Israelites gave the Levites the following towns and pasturelands out of their own inheritance: 4The first lot came out for the Ko-hathites,[u] clan by clan. The Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest were allotted thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin.[v] 5The rest of Kohath's descendants were allotted ten towns from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan and half of Manasseh.[w] 6The descendants of Gershon[x] were allotted thirteen towns from the clans of the tribes of Issachar,[y] Asher,[z] Naphtali and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.
7The descendants of Merari,[a] clan by clan, received twelve[b] towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.[c] 8So the Israelites allotted to the Levites these towns and their pasture-lands, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.
9From the tribes of Judah and Simeon they allotted the following towns by name 10(these towns were assigned to the descendants of Aaron who were from the Kohathite clans of the Levites, because the first lot fell to them): 11They gave them Kiriath Arba[d] (that is, Hebron[e]), with its surrounding pastureland, in the hill country of Judah. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.) 12But the fields and villages around the city they had given to Caleb son of Jephun-neh as his possession.[f] 13So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron (a city of refuge[g] for one accused of murder), Libnah,[h] 14Jattir,[i] Esh-temoa,[j] 15Holon,[k] Debir,[l] 16Ain,[m] Juttah[n] and Beth Shemesh,[o] together with their pasturelands—nine towns from these two tribes.
17And from the tribe of Benjamin they gave them Gibeon,[p] Geba,[q] 18Anathoth[r] and Almon, together with their pasturelands—four towns.
19All the towns[s] for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were thirteen, together with their pasturelands.[t] 20The rest of the Kohathite clans of the Levites were allotted towns from the tribe of Ephraim:
21In the hill country of Ephraim they were given Shechem[u] (a city of refuge for one accused of murder) and Gezer,[v] 22Kibzaim and Beth Horon,[w] together with their pasturelands—four towns.[x] 23Also from the tribe of Dan they received Eltekeh, Gibbethon,[y] 24Aijalon[z] and Gath Rimmon,[a] together with their pasturelands—four towns.

25From half the tribe of Manasseh they received Taanach[a] and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasturelands—two towns.

26All these ten towns and their pasturelands were given to the rest of the Kohathite clans.[b]

27The Levite clans of the Gershonites were given:

from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan[c] (a city of refuge for one accused of murder[d]) and Be Eshtarah, together with their pasturelands—two towns;

28from the tribe of Issachar,[e] Kishion,[f] Daberath,[g] 29Jarmuth[h] and En Gannim,[i] together with their pasturelands—four towns;

30from the tribe of Asher,[j] Mishal,[k] Abdon,[l] 31Helkath and Rehob,[m] together with their pasturelands—four towns; 32from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh[n] in Galilee (a city of refuge for one accused of murder[o]), Hammoth Dor and Kartan, together with their pasturelands—three towns.

33All the towns of the Gershonite[p] clans were thirteen, together with their pasturelands.

34The Merarite clans (the rest of the Levites) were given:

from the tribe of Zebulun,[q] Jokneam,[r] Kartah, 35Dimnah and Nahalal,[s] together with their pasturelands—four towns;

36from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer,[t] Jahaz,[u] 37Kedemoth and Mephaath,[v] together with their pasturelands—four towns;

38from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth[w] in Gilead[x] (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Mahanaim,[y] 39Heshbon and Jazer,[z] together with their pasturelands—four towns in all.

40All the towns allotted to the Merarite clans, who were the rest of the Levites, were twelve.[a]

41The towns of the Levites in the territory held by the Israelites were forty-eight in all, together with their pasturelands.[b] 42Each of these towns had pasturelands surrounding it; this was true for all these towns.

43So the LORD gave Israel all the land he had sworn to give their forefathers,[c] and they took possession[d] of it and settled there.[e] 44The LORD gave them rest[f] on every side, just as he had sworn to their forefathers. Not one of their enemies[g] withstood them; the LORD handed all their enemies[h] over to them.[i] 45Not one of all the LORD's good promises[j] to the house of Israel failed; every one was fulfilled.

Eastern Tribes Return Home

22 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh 2and said to them, "You have done all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded,[k] and you have obeyed me in everything I commanded. 3For a long time now—to this very day—you have not deserted your brothers but have carried out the mission the LORD your God gave you. 4Now that the LORD your God has given your brothers rest[l] as he promised, return to your homes[m] in the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.[n] 5But be very careful to keep the commandment[o] and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you: to love the LORD[p] your God, to walk in all his ways, to obey his commands,[q] to hold fast to him and to serve him with all your heart and all your soul.[r]"

6Then Joshua blessed[s] them and sent them away, and they went to their homes. 7(To the half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given land in Bashan,[t] and to the other half of the tribe Joshua gave land on the west side[u] of the Jordan with their brothers.) When Joshua sent them home, he blessed them,[v] 8saying, "Return to your homes with your great wealth—with large herds of livestock,[w] with silver, gold, bronze and iron,[x] and a great quantity of clothing—and divide[y] with your brothers the plunder[z] from your enemies."

9So the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the Israelites at Shiloh[a] in Canaan to return to Gilead,[b] their own land, which they had acquired in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses.

10When they came to Geliloth[c] near the Jordan in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an imposing altar[d] there by the Jordan. 11And when the Israelites heard that they had built the altar on the border of Canaan at Geliloth near the Jordan on the Israelite side, 12the whole assembly of Israel gathered at Shiloh[a] to go to war against them.

13So the Israelites sent Phinehas[b] son of Eleazar,[c] the priest, to the land of Gilead—to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh. 14With him they sent ten of the chief men, one for each of the tribes of Israel, each the head of a family division among the Israelite clans.[d] 15When they went to Gilead—to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh—they said to them: 16"The whole assembly of the LORD says: 'How could you break faith[e] with the God of Israel like this? How could you turn away from the LORD and build yourselves an altar in rebellion[f] against him now?
17Was not the sin of Peor[g] enough for us? Up to this very day we have not cleansed ourselves from that sin, even though a plague fell on the community of the LORD! 18And are you now turning away from the LORD?
"'If you rebel against the LORD today, tomorrow he will be angry with the whole community[h] of Israel. 19If the land you possess is defiled, come over to the LORD's land, where the LORD's tabernacle[i] stands, and share the land with us. But do not rebel against the LORD or against us by building an altar[j] for yourselves, other than the altar of the LORD our God. 20When Achan son of Zerah acted unfaithfully regarding the devoted things,[d][k] did not wrath[l] come upon the whole community[m] of Israel? He was not the only one who died for his sin.'"[n] 21Then Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh replied to the heads of the clans of Israel: 22"The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God,[o] the LORD![p] He knows![q] And let Israel know! If this has been in rebellion or disobedience to the LORD, do not spare us this day. 23If we have built our own altar to turn away from the LORD and to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings,[r] or to sacrifice fellowship offerings[e] on it, may the LORD himself call us to account.[s] 24"No! We did it for fear that some day your descendants might say to ours, 'What do you have to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? 25The LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you—you Reubenites and Gad-ites! You have no share in the LORD.' So your descendants might cause ours to stop fearing the LORD.
26"That is why we said, 'Let us get the LORD and turn away from him today by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings and sacrifices, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle.[x]" 30When Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the community—the heads of the clans of the Israelites—heard what Reuben, Gad and Manasseh had to say, they were pleased. 31And Phine-has son of Eleazar, the priest, said to Reuben, Gad and Manasseh, "Today we know that the LORD is with us,[y] because you have not acted unfaithfully toward the LORD in this matter. Now you have rescued the Israelites from the LORD's hand." 32Then Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders returned to Canaan from their meeting with the Reu-benites and Gadites in Gilead and reported to the Israelites.[z] 33They were glad to hear the report and praised God.[a] And they talked no more about going to war against them to devastate the country where the Reubenites and the Gadites lived.

34And the Reubenites and the Gad-ites gave the altar this name: A Witness[b] Between Us that the LORD is God.

Joshua's Farewell to the Leaders

23 After a long time had passed and the LORD had given Israel rest[c] from all their enemies around them, Joshua, by then old and well advanced in years,[d] 2summoned all Israel—their elders,[e] leaders, judges and officials[f]—and said to them: "I am old and well advanced in years.[g] 3You yourselves have seen everything the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake; it was the LORD your God who fought for you.[a] 4Remember how I have allotted[b] as an inheritance[c] for your tribes all the land of the nations that remain—the nations I conquered—between the Jordan and the Great Sea[f][d] in the west. 5The LORD your God himself will drive them out[e] of your way. He will push them out[f] before you, and you will take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you.[g] 6"Be very strong; be careful to obey all that is written in the Book of the Law[h] of Moses, without turning aside[i] to the right or to the left.[j] 7Do not associate with these nations that remain among you; do not invoke the names of their gods or swear[k] by them. You must not serve them or bow down[l] to them. 8But you are to hold fast to the LORD[m] your God, as you have until now.

9"The LORD has driven out before you great and powerful nations;[n] to this day no one has been able to withstand you.[o] 10One of you routs a thousand,[p] because the LORD your God fights for you,[q] just as he promised. 11So be very careful[r] to love the LORD[s] your God.
12"But if you turn away and ally yourselves with the survivors of these nations that remain among you and if you intermarry with them[t] and associate with them,[u] 13then you may be sure that the LORD your God will no longer drive out[v] these nations before you. Instead, they will become snares[w] and traps for you, whips on your backs and thorns in your eyes,[x] until you perish from this good land,[y] which the LORD your God has given you.
14"Now I am about to go the way of all the earth.[z] You know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the LORD your God gave you has failed. Every promise[a] has been fulfilled; not one has failed.[b] 15But just as every good promise[c] of the LORD your God has come true, so the LORD will bring on you all the evil[d] he has threatened, until he has destroyed you[e] from this good land he has given you.[f] 16If you violate the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, the LORD's anger will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land he has given you.[g]"

The Covenant Renewed at Shechem

24 Then Joshua assembled[h] all the tribes of Israel at Shechem.[i] He summoned[j] the elders,[k] leaders, judges and officials of Israel,[l] and they presented themselves before God.
2Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Long ago your forefathers, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor,[m] lived beyond the River[g] and worshiped other gods.[n] 3But I took your father Abraham from the land beyond the River and led him throughout Canaan[o] and gave him many descendants.[p] I gave him Isaac,[q] 4and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau.[r] I assigned the hill country of Seir[s] to Esau, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.[t]
5" 'Then I sent Moses and Aaron,[u] and I afflicted the Egyptians by what I did there, and I brought you out.[v] 6When I brought your fathers out of Egypt, you came to the sea,[w] and the Egyptians pursued them with chariots and horsemen[h][x] as far as the Red Sea.[i][y] 7But they cried[z] to the LORD for help, and he put darkness[a] between you and the Egyptians; he brought the sea over them and covered them.[b] You saw with your own eyes what I did to the Egyptians.[c] Then you lived in the desert for a long time.[d] 8" 'I brought you to the land of the Amorites[e] who lived east of the Jordan. They fought against you, but I gave them into your hands. I destroyed them from before you, and you took possession of their land.[f] 9When Balak son of Zippor,[g] the king of Moab, prepared to fight against Israel, he sent for Balaam son of Beor[h] to put a curse on you.[i] 10But I would not listen to Balaam, so he blessed you[j] again and again, and I delivered you out of his hand.
11" 'Then you crossed the Jordan[k] and came to Jericho.[l] The citizens of Jericho fought against you, as did also the Amorites, Perizzites,[m] Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites and Jebu-sites,[n] but I gave them into your hands.[o] 12I sent the hornet[p] ahead of you, which drove them out[q] before you—also the two Amorite kings. You did not do it with your own sword and bow.[z] 13So I gave you a land[a] on which you did not toil and cities you did not build; and you live in them and eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.'[c]

14"Now fear the LORD[d] and serve him with all faithfulness.[e] Throw away the gods[f] your forefathers worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt,[g] and serve the LORD. 15But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites,[h] in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household,[i] we will serve the LORD."

16Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake[j] the LORD to serve other gods! 17It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our fathers up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery,[l] and performed those great signs[m] before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we traveled. 18And the LORD drove out[n] before us all the nations,[o] including the Amorites, who lived in the land.[p] We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God.[q]"

19Joshua said to the people, "You are not able to serve the LORD. He is a holy God;[r] he is a jealous God.[s] He will not forgive[t] your rebellion[u] and your sins. 20If you forsake the LORD[v] and serve foreign gods, he will turn[w] and bring disaster[x] on you and make an end of you,[y] after he has been good to you."

21But the people said to Joshua, "No! We will serve the LORD."

22Then Joshua said, "You are witnesses[z] against yourselves that you have chosen[a] to serve the LORD."

"Yes, we are witnesses,[b]" they replied.

23"Now then," said Joshua, "throw away the foreign gods[c] that are among you and yield your hearts[d] to the LORD, the God of Israel."

24And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and obey him."[e]

25On that day Joshua made a covenant[f] for the people, and there at Shechem[g] he drew up for them decrees and laws.[h] 26And Joshua recorded[i] these things in the Book of the Law of God.[j] Then he took a large stone[k] and set it up there under the oak[l] near the holy place of the LORD.

27"See!" he said to all the people. "This stone[m] will be a witness[n] against us. It has heard all the words the LORD has said to us. It will be a witness against you if you are untrue[o] to your God."[p]

Buried in the Promised Land

28Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.[q]

29After these things, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died[r] at the age of a hundred and ten.[s] 30And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah[a][t] in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.[u]

31Israel served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders[v] who outlived him and who had experienced everything the LORD had done for Israel.

32And Joseph's bones,[w] which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt,[x] were buried at Shechem in the tract of land[y] that Jacob bought for a hundred pieces of silver[b] from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. This became the inheritance of Joseph's descendants.

33And Eleazar son of Aaron[z] died and was buried at Gibeah,[a] which had been allotted to his son Phinehas[b] in the hill country[c] of Ephraim.

Israel Fights the Remaining Canaanites

1:11-15pp — Jos 15:15-19

1 After the death[a] of Joshua, the Israelites asked the LORD, "Who will be the first[b] to go up and fight for us against the Canaanites?[c]" 2 The LORD answered, "Judah[d] is to go; I have given the land into their hands.[e]" 3 Then the men of Judah said to the Simeonites their brothers, "Come up with us into the territory allotted to us, to fight against the Canaanites. We in turn will go with you into yours." So the Simeonites[f] went with them.
4 When Judah attacked, the LORD gave the Canaanites and Perizzites[g] into their hands and they struck down ten thousand men at Bezek.[h] 5 It was there that they found Adoni-Bezek[i] and fought against him, putting to rout the Canaanites and Perizzites.
6 Adoni-Bezek fled, but they chased him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.
7 Then Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have picked up scraps under my table. Now God has paid me back[j] for what I did to them." They brought him to Jerusalem,[k] and he died there.
8 The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem[l] also and took it. They put the city to the sword and set it on fire.
9 After that, the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country,[m] the Negev[n] and the western foothills.
10 They advanced against the Canaanites living in Hebron[o] (formerly called Kiriath Arba[p]) and defeated Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai.[q] 11 From there they advanced against the people living in Debir[r] (formerly called Kiriath Sepher).
12 And Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher." 13 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Ac-sah to him in marriage.
14 One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him[a] to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What can I do
for you?"
15 She replied, "Do me a special favor.
Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water." Then Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.[s] 16 The descendants of Moses' father-in-law,[t] the Kenite,[u] went up from the City of Palms[b][v] with the men of Judah to live among the people of the Desert of Judah in the Negev near Arad.[w] 17 Then the men of Judah went with the Simeonites[x] their brothers and attacked the Canaanites living in Ze-phath, and they totally destroyed[c] the city. Therefore it was called Hor-mah.[d][y] 18 The men of Judah also took[e] Gaza,[z] Ashkelon[a] and Ekron—each city with its territory.
19 The LORD was with[b] the men of Judah. They took possession of the hill country,[c] but they were unable to drive the people from the plains, because they had iron chariots.[d] 20 As Moses had promised, Hebron[e] was given to Caleb, who drove from it the three sons of Anak.[f] 21 The Benjamites, however, failed[g] to dislodge the Jebu-sites, who were living in Jerusalem;[h] to this day the Jebusites live there with the Benjamites.
22 Now the house of Joseph[i] attacked Bethel,[j] and the LORD was with them.
23 When they sent men to spy out Bethel (formerly called Luz),[k] 24 the spies saw a man coming out of the city and they said to him, "Show us how to get into the city and we will see that you are treated well.[l]" 25 So he showed whole family. 26He then went to the land of the Hittites,[b] where he built a city and called it Luz,[c] which is its name to this day.

27But Manasseh did not[d] drive out the people of Beth Shan or Taanach or Dor[e] or Ibleam[f] or Megiddo[g] and their surrounding settlements, for the Canaanites[h] were determined to live in that land. 28When Israel became strong, they pressed the Canaanites into forced labor but never drove them out completely.[i] 29Nor did Ephraim[j] drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer,[k] but the Canaanites continued to live there among them.[l] 30Neither did Zebulun drive out the Canaanites living in Kit-ron or Nahalol, who remained among them; but they did subject them to forced labor. 31Nor did Asher[m] drive out those living in Acco or Sidon[n] or Ahlab or Aczib[o] or Helbah or Aphek[p] or Rehob,[q] 32and because of this the people of Asher lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land.
33Neither did Naphtali drive out those living in Beth Shemesh[r] or Beth Anath[s]; but the Naphtalites too lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land, and those living in Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath became forced laborers for them. 34The Amorites[t] confined the Danites[u] to the hill country, not allowing them to come down into the plain.[v] 35And the Amorites were determined also to hold out in Mount Heres,[w] Aijalon[x] and Shaalbim,[y] but when the power of the house of Joseph increased, they too were pressed into forced labor. 36The boundary of the Amorites was from Scorpion[f] Pass[z] to Sela[a] and beyond.[b]

The Angel of the LORD at Bokim

2 The angel of the LORD[c] went up from Gilgal[d] to Bokim[e] and said, "I brought you up out of Egypt[f] and led you into the land that I swore to give to your forefathers.[g] I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you,[h] 2and you shall not make a covenant with the people of this land,[i] but you shall break down their altars.[j] Yet you have disobeyed[k] me. Why have you done this? 3Now therefore I tell you that I will not drive them out before you;[l] they will be ⌊thorns⌋[m] in your sides and their gods will be a snare[n] to you." 4When the angel of the LORD had spoken these things to all the Israelites, the people wept aloud,[o] 5and they called that place Bokim.[g][p] There they offered sacrifices to the LORD.

Disobedience and Defeat

2:6-9pp — Jos 24:29-31

6After Joshua had dismissed the Israelites, they went to take possession of the land, each to his own inheritance.
7The people served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had seen all the great things the LORD had done for Israel.[q] 8Joshua son of Nun,[r] the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten. 9And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Heres[h][s] in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.
10After that whole generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation grew up, who knew neither the LORD nor what he had done for Israel.[t] 11Then the Israelites did evil[u] in the eyes of the LORD[v] and served the Baals.[w] 12They forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of Egypt. They followed and worshiped various gods[x] of the peoples around them.[y] They provoked[z] the LORD to anger[a] 13because they forsook[b] him and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.[c] 14In his anger[d] against Israel the LORD handed them over[e] to raiders who plundered[f] them. He sold them[g] to their enemies all around, whom they were no longer able to resist.[h] 15Whenever Israel went out to fight, the hand of the LORD was against them[i] to defeat them, just as he had sworn to them. They were in great distress.[j] 16Then the LORD raised up judges,[i][k] who saved[l] them out of the hands of these raiders. 17Yet they would not listen to their judges but prostituted[m] themselves to other gods[n] and worshiped them.[o] Unlike their fathers, they quickly turned[p] from the way in which their fathers had walked, the way of obedience to the LORD's commands.[q] 18Whenever the LORD raised up a judge for them, he was with the judge and saved[r] them out of the hands of their enemies as long as the judge lived; for the LORD had compassion[a] on them as they groaned[b] under those who oppressed and afflicted[c] them. 19 But when the judge died, the people returned to ways even more corrupt[d] than those of their fathers,[e] following other gods and serving and worshiping them.[f] They refused to give up their evil practices and stubborn[g] ways.

20 Therefore the LORD was very angry[h] with Israel and said, "Because this nation has violated the covenant[i] that I laid down for their forefathers and has not listened to me, 21 I will no longer drive out[j] before them any of the nations Joshua left when he died. 22 I will use them to test[k] Israel and see whether they will keep the way of the LORD and walk in it as their forefathers did." 23 The LORD had allowed those nations to remain; he did not drive them out at once by giving them into the hands of Joshua.[l]

3 These are the nations the LORD left to test[m] all those Israelites who had not experienced any of the wars in Canaan 2 (he did this only to teach warfare to the descendants of the Israelites who had not had previous battle experience): 3 the five[n] rulers of the Philistines,[o] all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites[p] living in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon[q] to Lebo[j] Hamath.[r] 4 They were left to test[s] the Israelites to see whether they would obey the LORD's commands, which he had given their forefathers through Moses.

5 The Israelites lived[t] among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites,[u] Hivites and Jebusites.[v] 6 They took their daughters[w] in marriage and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.[x y]

Othniel

7 The Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD; they forgot the LORD[z] their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs.[a] 8 The anger of the LORD burned against Israel so that he sold[b] them into the hands of Cushan-Risha-thaim[c] king of Aram Naharaim,[k d] to whom the Israelites were subject for eight years. 9 But when they cried out[e] to the LORD, he raised up for them a deliverer,[f] Othniel[g] son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, who saved them. 10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him,[h] so that he became Israel's judge[l] and went to war. The LORD gave Cushan-Rishathaim[i] king of Aram[j] into the hands of Othniel, who overpowered him. 11 So the land had peace[k] for forty years,[l] until Othniel son of Kenaz[m] died.

Ehud

12 Once again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD,[n] and because they did this evil the LORD gave Eglon king of Moab[o] power over Israel. 13 Getting the Ammonites[p] and Amalekites[q] to join him, Eglon came and attacked Israel, and they took possession of the City of Palms.[m r] 14 The Israelites were subject to Eglon king of Moab[s] for eighteen years.

15 Again the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he gave them a deliverer[t]—Ehud[u], a left-handed[v] man, the son of Gera the Benjamite. The Israelites sent him with tribute[w] to Eglon king of Moab. 16 Now Ehud[x] had made a double-edged sword about a foot and a half[n] long, which he strapped to his right thigh under his clothing. 17 He presented the tribute[y] to Eglon king of Moab, who was a very fat man.[z] 18 After Ehud had presented the tribute, he sent on their way the men who had carried it. 19 At the idols[o] near Gilgal he himself turned back and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

The king said, "Quiet!" And all his attendants left him.

20 Ehud then approached him while he was sitting alone in the upper room of his summer palace[p a] and said, "I have a message from God for you." As the king rose[b] from his seat, 21 Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword[c] from his right thigh and plunged it into the king's belly. 22 Even the handle sank in after the blade, which came out his back. Ehud did not pull the sword out, and the fat closed in over it. 23 Then Ehud went out to the porch[q]; he shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

24 After he had gone, the servants came and found the doors of the upper room locked. They said, "He must be relieving himself[d] in the inner room of the house." 25 They waited to the point of embarrassment.[a] but when he did not open the doors of the room, they took a key and unlocked them. There they saw their lord fallen to the floor, dead.

[26]While they waited, Ehud got away.
He passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah. [27]When he arrived there, he blew a trumpet[b] in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went down with him from the hills, with him leading them.
[28]"Follow me," he ordered, "for the LORD has given Moab,[c] your enemy, into your hands.[d]" So they followed him down and, taking possession of the fords of the Jordan[e] that led to Moab, they allowed no one to cross over. [29]At that time they struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all vigorous and strong; not a man escaped.
[30]That day Moab[f] was made subject to Israel, and the land had peace[g] for eighty years.

Shamgar

[31]After Ehud came Shamgar son of Anath,[h] who struck down six hundred[i] Philistines[j] with an oxgoad. He too saved Israel.

Deborah

4 After Ehud[k] died, the Israelites once again did evil[l] in the eyes of the LORD.[m] [2]So the LORD sold them[n] into the hands of Jabin, a king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor.[o] The commander of his army was Sisera,[p] who lived in Harosheth Haggoyim.
[3]Because he had nine hundred iron chariots[q] and had cruelly oppressed[r] the Israelites for twenty years, they cried to the LORD for help.
[4]Deborah,[s] a prophetess,[t] the wife of Lappidoth, was leading[a] Israel at that time. [5]She held court[u] under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah[v] and Bethel[w] in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites came to her to have their disputes decided. [6]She sent for Barak son of Abinoam[x] from Kedesh[y] in Naphtali and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you: 'Go, take with you ten thousand men of Naphtali[z] and Zebulun[a] and lead the way to Mount Tabor.[b] [7]I will lure Sisera, the commander of Jabin's[c] army, with his chariots and his troops to the Kishon River[d] and give him into your hands.[e]' " [8]Barak said to her, "If you go with me, I will go; but if you don't go with me, I won't go." [9]"Very well," Deborah said, "I will go with you. But because of the way you are going about this,[b] the honor will not be yours, for the LORD will hand Sisera over to a woman." So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh,[f] [10]where he summoned[g] Zebulun and Naphtali. Ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.
[11]Now Heber the Kenite had left the other Kenites,[h] the descendants of Hobab,[i] Moses' brother-in-law,[c] and pitched his tent by the great tree[j] in Zaanannim[k] near Kedesh.
[12]When they told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor,[l] [13]Sisera gathered together his nine hundred iron chariots[m] and all the men with him, from Harosheth Hag-goyim to the Kishon River.[n] [14]Then Deborah said to Barak, "Go!
This is the day the LORD has given Sis-era into your hands.[o] Has not the LORD gone ahead[p] of you?" So Barak went down Mount Tabor, followed by ten thousand men. [15]At Barak's advance, the LORD routed[q] Sisera and all his chariots and army by the sword, and Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled on foot. [16]But Barak pursued the chariots and army as far as Harosheth Hag-goyim. All the troops of Sisera fell by the sword; not a man was left.[r] [17]Sisera, however, fled on foot to the tent of Jael,[s] the wife of Heber the Kenite,[t] because there were friendly relations between Jabin king of Hazor[u] and the clan of Heber the Kenite.
[18]Jael[v] went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Come, my lord, come right in. Don't be afraid." So he entered her tent, and she put a covering over him.
[19]"I'm thirsty," he said. "Please give me some water." She opened a skin of milk,[w] gave him a drink, and covered him up.
[20]"Stand in the doorway of the tent," he told her. "If someone comes by and asks you, 'Is anyone here?' say 'No.' " [21]But Jael,[x] Heber's wife, picked up a tent peg and a hammer and went quietly to him while he lay fast asleep,[y] exhausted. She drove the peg through his temple into the ground, and he died.[z] [22]Barak came by in pursuit of Sisera, and Jael[a] went out to meet him.

23On that day God subdued[b] Jabin,[c] the Canaanite king, before the Israelites. 24And the hand of the Israelites grew stronger and stronger against Jabin, the Canaanite king, until they destroyed him.[d]

The Song of Deborah

5 On that day Deborah[e] and Barak son of Abinoam[f] sang this song:[g]

2"When the princes in Israel take the lead, when the people willingly offer[h] themselves—praise the LORD![i]

3"Hear this, you kings! Listen, you rulers!
I will sing to[u] the LORD, I will sing;[j] I will make music to[v] the LORD, the God of Israel.[k]

4"O LORD, when you went out[l] from Seir,[m] when you marched from the land of Edom, the earth shook,[n] the heavens poured, the clouds poured down water.[o] 5The mountains quaked[p] before the LORD, the One of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

6"In the days of Shamgar son of Anath,[q] in the days of Jael,[r] the roads[s] were abandoned; travelers took to winding paths.[t] 7Village life[w] in Israel ceased, ceased until I,[x] Deborah,[u] arose, arose a mother in Israel.
8When they chose new gods,[v] war came to the city gates,[w] and not a shield or spear[x] was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
9My heart is with Israel's princes, with the willing volunteers[y] among the people.
Praise the LORD!

10"You who ride on white donkeys,[z] sitting on your saddle blankets, and you who walk along the road, consider 11the voice of the singers[y] at the watering places.
They recite the righteous acts[a] of the LORD, the righteous acts of his warriors[z] in Israel.

"Then the people of the LORD went down to the city gates.[b] 12'Wake up,[c] wake up, Deborah![d] Wake up, wake up, break out in song!
Arise, O Barak![e] Take captive your captives,[f] O son of Abinoam.'

13"Then the men who were left came down to the nobles; the people of the LORD came to me with the mighty.
14Some came from Ephraim,[g] whose roots were in Amalek;[h] Benjamin[i] was with the people who followed you.
From Makir[j] captains came down, from Zebulun those who bear a commander's staff.
15The princes of Issachar[k] were with Deborah;[l] yes, Issachar was with Barak,[m] rushing after him into the valley.
In the districts of Reuben
there was much searching of heart.
16Why did you stay among the campfires[a][n] to hear the whistling for the flocks?[o]
In the districts of Reuben
there was much searching of heart.
17Gilead[p] stayed beyond the Jordan.
And Dan, why did he linger by the ships?
Asher[q] remained on the coast[r] and stayed in his coves.
18The people of Zebulun[s] risked their very lives; so did Naphtali[t] on the heights of the field.[u] 19"Kings came[v], they fought; the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo,[w] but they carried off no silver, no plunder.[x] 20From the heavens[y] the stars fought, from their courses they fought against Sisera.

21The river Kishon[z] swept them away, the age-old river, the river Kishon.
March on, my soul; be strong![a] 22Then thundered the horses' hoofs—

LORD appeared to Gideon, he said, "The LORD is with you,[r] mighty warrior.[s]" 13 "But sir," Gideon replied, "if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened to us? Where are all his wonders[t] that our fathers told[u] us about when they said, 'Did not the LORD bring us up out of Egypt?' But now the LORD has abandoned[v] us and put us into the hand of Midian." 14 The LORD turned to him and said, "Go in the strength you have[w] and save[x] Israel out of Midian's hand. Am I not sending you?" 15 "But Lord,[b]" Gideon asked, "how can I save Israel? My clan[y] is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family.[z]" 16 The LORD answered, "I will be with

[b]15 Or sir

you[a], and you will strike down all the Midianites together."

[17]Gideon replied, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, give me a sign[b] that it is really you talking to me. [18]Please do not go away until I come back and bring my offering and set it before you."

And the LORD said, "I will wait until you return."

[19]Gideon went in, prepared a young goat,[c] and from an ephah[a][d] of flour he made bread without yeast. Putting the meat in a basket and its broth in a pot, he brought them out and offered them to him under the oak.[e]

[20]The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread, place them on this rock,[f] and pour out the broth." And Gideon did so. [21]With the tip of the staff[g] that was in his hand, the angel of the LORD touched the meat and the unleavened bread.[h] Fire flared from the rock, consuming the meat and the bread. And the angel of the LORD disappeared. [22]When Gideon realized[i] that it was the angel of the LORD, he exclaimed, "Ah, Sovereign LORD! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!"[j]

[23]But the LORD said to him, "Peace! Do not be afraid.[k] You are not going to die."[l]

[24]So Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and called[m] it The LORD is Peace. To this day it stands in Ophrah[n] of the Abiezrites.

[25]That same night the LORD said to him, "Take the second bull from your father's herd, the one seven years old.[b] Tear down your father's altar to Baal and cut down the Asherah pole[c][o] beside it. [26]Then build a proper kind of[d] altar to the LORD your God on the top of this height. Using the wood of the Asherah pole that you cut down, offer the second[e] bull as a burnt offering."[p]

[27]So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the LORD told him. But because he was afraid of his family and the men of the town, he did it at night rather than in the daytime.

[28]In the morning when the men of the town got up, there was Baal's altar,[q] demolished, with the Asherah pole beside it cut down and the second bull sacrificed on the newly built altar!

[29]They asked each other, "Who did this?"

When they carefully investigated, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash[r] did it."

[30]The men of the town demanded of Joash, "Bring out your son. He must die, because he has broken down Baal's altar[s] and cut down the Asherah pole beside it."

[31]But Joash replied to the hostile crowd around him, "Are you going to plead Baal's cause?[t] Are you trying to save him? Whoever fights for him shall be put to death by morning! If Baal really is a god, he can defend himself when someone breaks down his altar." [32]So that day they called Gideon "Jerub-Baal,[f][u]" saying, "Let Baal contend with him," because he broke down Baal's altar.

[33]Now all the Midianites, Amalekites[v] and other eastern peoples[w] joined forces and crossed over the Jordan and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.[x] [34]Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon[y] Gideon, and he blew a trumpet,[z] summoning the Abiezrites[a] to follow him. [35]He sent messengers throughout Manasseh, calling them to arms, and also into Asher,[b] Zebulun and Naphtali,[c] so that they too went up to meet them.[d]

[36]Gideon said to God, "If you will save[e] Israel by my hand as you have promised— [37]look, I will place a wool fleece[f] on the threshing floor.[g] If there is dew only on the fleece and all the ground is dry, then I will know[h] that you will save Israel by my hand, as you said." [38]And that is what happened. Gideon rose early the next day; he squeezed the fleece and wrung out the dew—a bowlful of water.

[39]Then Gideon said to God, "Do not be angry with me. Let me make just one more request.[i] Allow me one more test with the fleece. This time make the fleece dry and the ground covered with dew." [40]That night God did so. Only the fleece was dry; all the ground was covered with dew.[j]

Gideon Defeats the Midianites

7 Early in the morning, Jerub-Baal[k] (that is, Gideon[l]) and all his men camped at the spring of Harod.[m] The camp of Midian[n] was north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh.[o] [2]The LORD said to Gideon, "You have too many men for me to deliver Midian into their hands. In order that Israel may not boast against me that her own strength[a] has saved her, 3announce now to the people, 'Anyone who trembles with fear may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.[b]' " So twenty-two thousand men left, while ten thousand remained.

4But the LORD said to Gideon, "There are still too many[c] men. Take them down to the water, and I will sift them for you there. If I say, 'This one shall go with you,' he shall go; but if I say, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go." 5So Gideon took the men down to the water. There the LORD told him, "Separate those who lap the water with their tongues like a dog from those who kneel down to drink." 6Three hundred men[d] lapped with their hands to their mouths. All the rest got down on their knees to drink.
7The LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men that lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hands.[e] Let all the other men go, each to his own place."[f] 8So Gideon sent the rest of the Israelites to their tents but kept the three hundred, who took over the provisions and trumpets of the others.
Now the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley. 9During that night the LORD said to Gideon, "Get up, go down against the camp, because I am going to give it into your hands.[g] 10If you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah 11and listen to what they are saying. Afterward, you will be encouraged to attack the camp." So he and Purah his servant went down to the outposts of the camp. 12The Midianites, the Amalekites[h] and all the other eastern peoples had settled in the valley, thick as locusts.[i] Their camels[j] could no more be counted than the sand on the seashore.[k] 13Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a friend his dream. "I had a dream," he was saying. "A round loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed." 14His friend responded, "This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash,[l] the Israelite. God has given the Midianites and the whole camp into his hands." 15When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped God.[m] He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, "Get up! The LORD has given the Midianite camp into your hands."[n] 16Dividing the three hundred men[o] into three companies,[p] he placed trumpets[q] and empty jars[r] in the hands of all of them, with torches[s] inside.
17"Watch me," he told them. "Follow my lead. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do. 18When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets,[t] then from all around the camp blow yours and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.' " 19Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after they had changed the guard. They blew their trumpets and broke the jars[u] that were in their hands. 20The three companies blew the trumpets and smashed the jars. Grasping the torches[v] in their left hands and holding in their right hands the trumpets they were to blow, they shouted, "A sword[w] for the LORD and for Gideon!" 21While each man held his position around the camp, all the Midianites ran, crying out as they fled.[x] 22When the three hundred trumpets sounded,[y] the LORD caused the men throughout the camp to turn on each other[z] with their swords.[a] The army fled to Beth Shittah toward Zererah as far as the border of Abel Meholah[b] near Tabbath. 23Israelites from Naph-tali, Asher[c] and all Manasseh were called out,[d] and they pursued the Midianites.[e] 24Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters of the Jordan[f] ahead of them as far as Beth Barah."
So all the men of Ephraim were called out and they took the waters of the Jordan as far as Beth Barah. 25They also captured two of the Midianite leaders, Oreb and Zeeb[g]. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb,[h] and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites[i] and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Jordan.[j]

Zebah and Zalmunna

8 Now the Ephraimites asked Gideon,[k] "Why have you treated us like this? Why didn't you call us when you went to fight Midian?[l]"[m] And they criticized him sharply.[n]

2 But he answered them, "What have I accomplished compared to you?
Aren't the gleanings of Ephraim's grapes better than the full grape harvest of Abiezer?[a] 3 God gave Oreb and Zeeb,[b] the Midianite leaders, into your hands. What was I able to do compared to you?" At this, their resentment against him subsided.

4 Gideon and his three hundred men, exhausted yet keeping up the pursuit, came to the Jordan[c] and crossed it. 5 He said to the men of Succoth,[d] "Give my troops some bread; they are worn out,[e] and I am still pursuing Zebah and Zal-munna,[f] the kings of Midian."

6 But the officials of Succoth[g] said, "Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession? Why should we give bread[h] to your troops?"[i]

7 Then Gideon replied, "Just for that, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna[j] into my hand, I will tear your flesh with desert thorns and briers."

8 From there he went up to Peniel[l] [k] and made the same request of them, but they answered as the men of Suc-coth had. 9 So he said to the men of Peniel, "When I return in triumph, I will tear down this tower."[l]

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with a force of about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of the armies of the eastern peoples; a hundred and twenty thousand swordsmen had fallen.[m] 11 Gideon went up by the route of the nomads east of Nobah[n] and Jogbehah[o] and fell upon the unsuspecting army. 12 Zebah and Zalmun-na, the two kings of Midian, fled, but he pursued them and captured them, routing their entire army.

13 Gideon son of Joash[p] then returned from the battle by the Pass of Heres.[q] 14 He caught a young man of Succoth and questioned him, and the young man wrote down for him the names of the seventy-seven officials of Succoth,[r] the elders[s] of the town. 15 Then Gideon came and said to the men of Succoth, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me by saying, 'Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession?
Why should we give bread to your exhausted men?'[t]" 16 He took the elders of the town and taught the men of Suc-coth a lesson[u] by punishing them with desert thorns and briers. 17 He also pulled down the tower of Peniel[v] and killed the men of the town.[w]

18 Then he asked Zebah and Zalmun-na, "What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?"[x]

"Men like you," they answered, "each one with the bearing of a prince."

19 Gideon replied, "Those were my brothers, the sons of my own mother.
As surely as the LORD lives,[y] if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you." 20 Turning to Jether, his oldest son, he said, "Kill them!" But Jether did not draw his sword, because he was only a boy and was afraid.

21 Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Come, do it yourself. 'As is the man, so is his strength.'" So Gideon stepped forward and killed them, and took the ornaments[z] off their camels' necks.

Gideon's Ephod

22 The Israelites said to Gideon, "Rule over us—you, your son and your grandson—because you have saved us out of the hand of Midian."

23 But Gideon told them, "I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. The LORD will rule[a] over you." 24 And he said, "I do have one request, that each of you give me an earring[b] from your share of the plunder.[c]" (It was the custom of the Ishmaelites[d] to wear gold earrings.)

25 They answered, "We'll be glad to give them." So they spread out a garment, and each man threw a ring from his plunder onto it. 26 The weight of the gold rings he asked for came to seventeen hundred shekels,[j] not counting the ornaments, the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian or the chains[e] that were on their camels' necks. 27 Gideon made the gold into an ephod,[f] which he placed in Ophrah,[g] his town. All Israel pros-tituted themselves by worshiping it there, and it became a snare[h] to Gideon and his family.[i]

Gideon's Death

28 Thus Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not raise its head[j] again. During Gideon's lifetime, the land enjoyed peace[k] forty years.

29 Jerub-Baal[l] son of Joash[m] went back home to live. 30 He had seventy sons[n] of his own, for he had many wives. 31 His concubine,[a] who lived in Shechem, also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelech.[b] 32 Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age[c] and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 No sooner had Gideon died than the Israelites again prostituted themselves to the Baals.[d] They set up Baal-Berith[e] as their god[f] and 34 did not remember[g] the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hands of all their enemies on every side. 35 They also failed to show kindness to the family of Jerub-Baal[h] (that is, Gideon) for all the good things he had done for them.[i]

Abimelech

9 Abimelech[j] son of Jerub-Baal[k] went to his mother's brothers in Shechem and said to them and to all his mother's clan, 2 "Ask all the citizens of Shechem, 'Which is better for you: to have all seventy of Jerub-Baal's sons rule over you, or just one man?' Remember, I am your flesh and blood.[l]"

3 When the brothers repeated all this to the citizens of Shechem, they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." 4 They gave him seventy shekels[k] of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith,[m] and Abimelech used it to hire reckless adventurers,[n] who became his followers. 5 He went to his father's home in Ophrah and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers,[o] the sons of Jerub-Baal. But Jotham,[p] the youngest son of Jerub-Baal, escaped by hiding.[q] 6 Then all the citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo[r] gathered beside the great tree[s] at the pillar in Shechem to crown Abimelech king.

7 When Jotham[t] was told about this, he climbed up on the top of Mount Gerizim[u] and shouted to them, "Listen to me, citizens of Shechem, so that God may listen to you. 8 One day the trees went out to anoint a king for themselves. They said to the olive tree, 'Be our king.'

9 "But the olive tree answered, 'Should I give up my oil, by which both gods and men are honored, to hold sway over the trees?'

10 "Next, the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and be our king.'

11 "But the fig tree replied, 'Should I give up my fruit, so good and sweet, to hold sway over the trees?'

12 "Then the trees said to the vine, 'Come and be our king.'

13 "But the vine answered, 'Should I give up my wine,[v] which cheers both gods and men, to hold sway over the trees?'

14 "Finally all the trees said to the thornbush, 'Come and be our king.'

15 "The thornbush said to the trees, 'If you really want to anoint me king over you, come and take refuge in my shade;[w] but if not, then let fire come out[x] of the thornbush and consume the cedars of Lebanon!'[y]

16 "Now if you have acted honorably and in good faith when you made Abimelech king, and if you have been fair to Jerub-Baal and his family, and if you have treated him as he deserves— 17 and to think that my father fought for you, risked[z] his life to rescue you from the hand of Midian 18 (but today you have revolted against my father's family, murdered his seventy sons[a] on a single stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his slave girl, king over the citizens of Shechem because he is your brother)— 19 if then you have acted honorably and in good faith toward Jerub-Baal and his family today,[b] may Abimelech be your joy, and may you be his, too! 20 But if you have not, let fire come out[c] from Abimelech and consume you, citizens of Shechem[d] and Beth Millo,[e] and let fire come out from you, citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo, and consume Abimelech!"

21 Then Jotham[f] fled, escaping to Beer,[g] and he lived there because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

22 After Abimelech had governed Israel three years, 23 God sent an evil spirit[h] between Abimelech and the citizens of Shechem, who acted treacherously against Abimelech. 24 God did this in order that the crime against Jerub-Baal's seventy sons,[i] the shedding[j] of their blood, might be avenged[k] on their brother Abimelech and on the citizens of Shechem, who had helped him[l] murder his brothers. 25 In opposition to him these citizens of Shechem set men on the hilltops to ambush and rob everyone who passed by, and this was reported to Abimelech.

26 Now Gaal son of Ebed[m] moved with his brothers into Shechem, and its citizens put their confidence in him. 27 After they had gone out into the fields and gathered the grapes and trodden[a] them, they held a festival in the temple of their god.[b] While they were eating and drinking, they cursed Abimelech. 28Then Gaal son of Ebed[c] said, "Who[d] is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should be subject to him? Isn't he Jerub-Baal's son, and isn't Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor,[e] Shechem's father! Why should we serve Abimelech? 29If only this people were under my command![f] Then I would get rid of him. I would say to Abimelech, 'Call out your whole army!' "[l] [g]

30When Zebul the governor of the city heard what Gaal son of Ebed said, he was very angry. 31Under cover he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, "Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem and are stirring up the city against you. 32Now then, during the night you and your men should come and lie in wait[h] in the fields. 33In the morning at sunrise, advance against the city. When Gaal and his men come out against you, do whatever your hand finds to do.[i] "

34So Abimelech and all his troops set out by night and took up concealed positions near Shechem in four companies. 35Now Gaal son of Ebed had gone out and was standing at the entrance to the city gate[j] just as Abimelech and his soldiers came out from their hiding place.[k]

36When Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!"

Zebul replied, "You mistake the shadows of the mountains for men."

37But Gaal spoke up again: "Look, people are coming down from the center of the land, and a company is coming from the direction of the soothsay-ers' tree."

38Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your big talk now, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should be subject to him?' Aren't these the men you ridiculed?[l] Go out and fight them!"

39So Gaal led out[m] the citizens of Shechem and fought Abimelech. 40Abime-lech chased him, and many fell wounded in the flight—all the way to the entrance to the gate. 41Abimelech stayed in Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem.

42The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields, and this was reported to Abimelech. 43So he took his men, divided them into three companies[m] and set an ambush[n] in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he rose to attack them.
44Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward to a position at the entrance to the city gate. Then two companies rushed upon those in the fields and struck them down. 45All that day Abimelech pressed his attack against the city until he had captured it and killed its people. Then he destroyed the city[o] and scattered salt[p] over it.

46On hearing this, the citizens in the tower of Shechem went into the stronghold of the temple[q] of El-Berith.
47When Abimelech heard that they had assembled there, 48he and all his men went up Mount Zalmon.[r] He took an ax and cut off some branches, which he lifted to his shoulders. He ordered the men with him, "Quick! Do what you have seen me do!" 49So all the men cut branches and followed Abimelech.
They piled them against the stronghold and set it on fire over the people inside.
So all the people in the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women, also died.

50Next Abimelech went to Thebez[s] and besieged it and captured it. 51Inside the city, however, was a strong tower, to which all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled. They locked themselves in and climbed up on the tower roof. 52Abimelech went to the tower and stormed it.
But as he approached the entrance to the tower to set it on fire, 53a woman dropped an upper millstone on his head and cracked his skull.[t] 54Hurriedly he called to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and kill me,[u] so that they can't say, 'A woman killed him.' " So his servant ran him through, and he died. 55When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home.

56Thus God repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father by murdering his seventy brothers.
57God also made the men of Shechem pay for all their wickedness.[v] The curse of Jotham[w] son of Jerub-Baal came on them.

Jair

3He was followed by Jair[b] of Gilead, who led Israel twenty-two years. 4He had thirty sons, who rode thirty donkeys.[c] They controlled thirty towns in Gilead, which to this day are called Havvoth Jair.[o][d] 5When Jair[e] died, he was buried in Kamon.

Jephthah

6Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD.[f] They served the Baals and the Ashtoreths,[g] and the gods of Aram,[h] the gods of Sidon,[i] the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammon-ites[j][k] and the gods of the Philistines.[l] And because the Israelites forsook the LORD[m] and no longer served him, 7he became angry[n] with them. He sold them[o] into the hands of the Philistines and the Ammonites, 8who that year shattered and crushed them. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites on the east side of the Jordan in Gilead,[p] the land of the Amorites. 9The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah,[q] Benjamin and the house of Ephraim;[r] and Israel was in great distress. 10Then the Israelites cried[s] out to the LORD, "We have sinned[t] against you, forsaking our God and serving the Baals."[u] 11The LORD replied, "When the Egyptians,[v] the Amorites,[w] the Ammon-ites,[x] the Philistines,[y] 12the Sidonians, the Amalekites[z] and the Maonites[p][a] oppressed you[b] and you cried to me for help, did I not save you from their hands? 13But you have forsaken[c] me and served other gods,[d] so I will no longer save you. 14Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them save[e] you when you are in trouble![f]"

15But the Israelites said to the LORD, "We have sinned. Do with us whatever you think best,[g] but please rescue us now." 16Then they got rid of the foreign gods among them and served the LORD.[h] And he could bear Israel's misery[i] no longer.[j]

17When the Ammonites were called to arms and camped in Gilead, the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah.[k] 18The leaders of the people of Gilead said to each other, "Whoever will launch the attack against the Am-monites will be the head[l] of all those living in Gilead."

11 Jephthah[m] the Gileadite was a mighty warrior.[n] His father was Gilead;[o] his mother was a prostitute.[p] 2Gilead's wife also bore him sons, and when they were grown up, they drove Jephthah away. "You are not going to get any inheritance in our family," they said, "because you are the son of another woman." 3So Jephthah fled from his brothers and settled in the land of Tob,[q] where a group of adventurers[r] gathered around him and followed
him.

4Some time later, when the Ammon-ites[s] made war on Israel, 5the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. 6"Come," they said, "be our commander, so we can fight the Ammonites."

7Jephthah said to them, "Didn't you hate me and drive me from my father's house?[t] Why do you come to me now, when you're in trouble?"

8The elders of Gilead said to him, "Nevertheless, we are turning to you now; come with us to fight the Am-monites, and you will be our head[u] over all who live in Gilead."

9Jephthah answered, "Suppose you take me back to fight the Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me—will I really be your head?"

10The elders of Gilead replied, "The LORD is our witness;[v] we will certainly do as you say." 11So Jephthah went with the elders[w] of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them. And he repeated[x] all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.[y]

12Then Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king with the question:
"What do you have against us that you have attacked our country?"

13The king of the Ammonites answered Jephthah's messengers, "When Israel came up out of Egypt, they took away my land from the Arnon[z] to the Jabbok,[a] all the way to the Jordan.
Now give it back peaceably."

14Jephthah sent back messengers to the Ammonite king, 15saying:

"This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of Moab[b] or the land of the Ammonites.[c] 16But when they came up out of Egypt, n2 Traditionally judged; also in verse 3 o4 Or called the settlements of Jair p12 Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts Midianites

Israel went through the desert to the Red Sea[q][a] and on to Kadesh.[b] 17Then Israel sent messengers[c] to the king of Edom, saying, 'Give us permission to go through your country,'[d] but the king of Edom would not listen. They sent also to the king of Moab,[e] and he refused.[f] So Israel stayed at Kadesh.

18"Next they traveled through the desert, skirted the lands of Edom[g] and Moab, passed along the eastern side[h] of the country of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon.[i] They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was its border.

19"Then Israel sent messengers[j] to Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon,[k] and said to him, 'Let us pass through your country to our own place.'[l] 20Sihon, however, did not trust Israel[r] to pass through his territory. He mustered all his men and encamped at Jahaz and fought with Israel.[m]

21"Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his men into Israel's hands, and they defeated them. Israel took over all the land of the Amorites who lived in that country, 22capturing all of it from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the desert to the Jordan.[n]

23"Now since the LORD, the God of Israel, has driven the Amorites out before his people Israel, what right have you to take it over?
24Will you not take what your god Chemosh[o] gives you? Likewise, whatever the LORD our God has given us,[p] we will possess. 25Are you better than Balak son of Zip-por,[q] king of Moab? Did he ever quarrel with Israel or fight with them?[r] 26For three hundred years Israel occupied[s] Heshbon, Aroer,[t] the surrounding settlements and all the towns along the Arnon.
Why didn't you retake them during that time? 27I have not wronged you, but you are doing me wrong by waging war against me. Let the LORD, the Judge,[s][u] decide[v] the dispute this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites.[w]"

28The king of Ammon, however, paid no attention to the message Jephthah sent him.

29Then the Spirit[x] of the LORD came upon Jephthah. He crossed Gilead and Manasseh, passed through Mizpah[y] of Gilead, and from there he advanced against the Ammonites.[z] 30And Jephthah made a vow[a] to the LORD: "If you give the Ammonites into my hands, 31whatever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in triumph[b] from the Ammonites will be the LORD's, and I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering.[c]"

32Then Jephthah went over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into his hands. 33He devastated twenty towns from Aroer to the vicinity of Minnith,[d] as far as Abel Keramim. Thus Israel subdued Ammon.

34When Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, who should come out to meet him but his daughter, dancing[e] to the sound of tambourines![f] She was an only child.[g] Except for her he had neither son nor daughter. 35When he saw her, he tore his clothes[h] and cried, "Oh! My daughter! You have made me miserable and wretched, because I have made a vow to the LORD that I cannot break.[i]" 36"My father," she replied, "you have given your word to the LORD. Do to me just as you promised,[j] now that the LORD has avenged you[k] of your enemies,[l] the Ammonites. 37But grant me this one request," she said. "Give me two months to roam the hills and weep with my friends, because I will never marry."

38"You may go," he said. And he let her go for two months. She and the girls went into the hills and wept because she would never marry. 39After the two months, she returned to her father and he did to her as he had vowed. And she was a virgin.

From this comes the Israelite custom 40that each year the young women of Israel go out for four days to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Jephthah and Ephraim

12 The men of Ephraim called out their forces, crossed over to Zaphon[m] and said to Jephthah,[n] "Why did you go to fight the Ammonites without calling us to go with you?[o] We're going to burn down your house over your head."

I called, you didn't save me out of their hands. 3 When I saw that you wouldn't help, I took my life in my hands[a] and crossed over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave me the victory[b] over them. Now why have you come up today to fight me?" 4 Jephthah then called together the men of Gilead[c] and fought against Ephraim. The Gileadites struck them down because the Ephraimites had said, "You Gileadites are renegades from Ephraim and Manasseh.[d]" 5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan[e] leading to Ephraim, and whenever a survivor of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead asked him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he replied, "No," 6 they said, "All right, say 'Shibboleth.'" If he said, "Sibboleth," because he could not pronounce the word correctly, they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand Ephraimites were killed at that time.
7 Jephthah led[t] Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in a town in Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon and Abdon

8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem[f] led Israel. 9 He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He gave his daughters away in marriage to those outside his clan, and for his sons he brought in thirty young women as wives from outside his clan. Ibzan led Israel seven years. 10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried in Bethlehem.
11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite led Israel ten years. 12 Then Elon died, and was buried in Aijalon[g] in the land of Zebulun.
13 After him, Abdon son of Hillel, from Pirathon,[h] led Israel. 14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons,[i] who rode on seventy donkeys.[j] He led Israel eight years. 15 Then Abdon son of Hillel died, and was buried at Pirathon in Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.[k]

The Birth of Samson

13 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, so the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines[l] for forty years.[m] 2 A certain man of Zorah,[n] named Manoah,[o] from the clan of the Dan-ites,[p] had a wife who was sterile and remained childless.[q] 3 The angel of the LORD[r] appeared to her[s] and said, "You are sterile and childless, but you are going to conceive and have a son.[t] 4 Now see to it that you drink no wine or other fermented drink[u] and that you do not eat anything unclean,[v] 5 because you will conceive and give birth to a son.[w] No razor[x] may be used on his head, because the boy is to be a Nazi-rite,[y] set apart to God from birth, and he will begin[z] the deliverance of Israel from the hands of the Philistines." 6 Then the woman went to her husband and told him, "A man of God[a] came to me. He looked like an angel of God,[b] very awesome.[c] I didn't ask him where he came from, and he didn't tell me his name. 7 But he said to me, 'You will conceive and give birth to a son. Now then, drink no wine[d] or other fermented drink[e] and do not eat anything unclean, because the boy will be a Nazirite of God from birth until the day of his death.[f]'" 8 Then Manoah[g] prayed to the LORD:
"O Lord, I beg you, let the man of God[h] you sent to us come again to teach us how to bring up the boy who is to be born." 9 God heard Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman while she was out in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her. 10 The woman hurried to tell her husband, "He's here! The man who appeared to me[i] the other day!" 11 Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said, "Are you the one who talked to my wife?"
"I am," he said.
12 So Manoah asked him, "When your words are fulfilled, what is to be the rule for the boy's life and work?" 13 The angel of the LORD answered, "Your wife must do all that I have told her. 14 She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, nor drink any wine or other fermented drink[j] nor eat anything unclean.[k] She must do everything I have commanded her." 15 Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "We would like you to stay until we prepare a young goat[l] for you." 16 The angel of the LORD replied, "Even though you detain me, I will not eat any of your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering,[m] offer it to the LORD." of the LORD, "What is your name,[b] so 19 Then Manoah took a young goat, together with the grain offering, and sacrificed it on a rock[d] to the LORD. And the LORD did an amazing thing while Manoah and his wife watched: 20 As the flame[e] blazed up from the altar toward heaven, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame. Seeing this, Manoah and his wife fell with their faces to the ground.[f] 21 When the angel of the LORD did not show himself again to Manoah and his wife, Manoah realized[g] that it was the angel of the LORD.

22 "We are doomed[h] to die!" he said to his wife. "We have seen[i] God!" 23 But his wife answered, "If the LORD the LORD blessed him,[m] 25 and the Spirit

Samson's Marriage

14 Samson[p] went down to Timnah[q] and saw there a young Philistine woman. 2 When he returned, he said to his father and mother, "I have seen a Philistine woman in Timnah; now get her for me as my wife."[r] 3 His father and mother replied, "Isn't there an acceptable woman among your relatives or among all our people?[s] Must you go to the uncircumcised[t] Philistines to get a wife?[u]" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me. She's the right one for me." 4 (His parents did not know that this was from the LORD,[v] who was seeking an occasion to confront the Philistines;[w] for at that time they were ruling over Israel.)[x] 5 Samson went down to Timnah together with his father and mother. As they approached the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion came roaring toward him. 6 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power[y] so that he tore the lion apart[z] torn a young goat. But he told neither his father nor his mother what he had done. 7 Then he went down and talked with the woman, and he liked her.

8 Some time later, when he went back to marry her, he turned aside to look at the lion's carcass. In it was a swarm of bees and some honey, 9 which he scooped out with his hands and ate as he went along. When he rejoined his parents, he gave them some, and they too ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the lion's carcass.
10 Now his father went down to see the woman. And Samson made a feast[a] there, as was customary for bridegrooms. 11 When he appeared, he was given thirty companions.
12 "Let me tell you a riddle,[b]" Samson said to them. "If you can give me the answer within the seven days of the feast,[c] I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes.[d] 13 If you can't tell me the answer, you must give me thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes."
"Tell us your riddle," they said.
"Let's hear it."
14 He replied,

"Out of the eater, something to eat; out of the strong, something sweet."[e]

For three days they could not give the answer.
15 On the fourth[v] day, they said to Samson's wife, "Coax[f] your husband into explaining the riddle for us, or we will burn you and your father's household to death.[g] Did you invite us here to rob us?" 16 Then Samson's wife threw herself on him, sobbing, "You hate me! You don't really love me.[h] You've given my people a riddle, but you haven't told me the answer."
"I haven't even explained it to my father or mother," he replied, "so why should I explain it to you?" 17 She cried the whole seven days[i] of the feast. So on the seventh day he finally told her, because she continued to press him.
She in turn explained the riddle to her people.
18 Before sunset on the seventh day the men of the town said to him,

"What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?"[j] u18 Or is wonderful v15 Some Septuagint

Samson said to them,

"If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle."

19Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power.[a] He went down to Ashkelon,[b] struck down thirty of their men, stripped them of their belongings and gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. Burning with anger,[c] he went up to his father's house. 20And Samson's wife was given to the friend[d] who had attended him at his wedding.

Samson's Vengeance on the Philistines

15 Later on, at the time of wheat harvest,[e] Samson[f] took a young goat[g] and went to visit his wife. He said, "I'm going to my wife's room."[h] But her father would not let him go in.
2"I was so sure you thoroughly hated her," he said, "that I gave her to your friend.[i] Isn't her younger sister more attractive? Take her instead." 3Samson said to them, "This time I have a right to get even with the Philistines; I will really harm them." 4So he went out and caught three hundred foxes[j] and tied them tail to tail in pairs.
He then fastened a torch[k] to every pair of tails, 5lit the torches[l] and let the foxes loose in the standing grain of the Philistines. He burned up the shocks[m] and standing grain, together with the vineyards and olive groves.
6When the Philistines asked, "Who did this?" they were told, "Samson, the Timnite's son-in-law, because his wife was given to his friend.[n]" So the Philistines went up and burned her[o] and her father to death.[p] 7Samson said to them, "Since you've acted like this, I won't stop until I get my revenge on you." 8He attacked them viciously and slaughtered many of them. Then he went down and stayed in a cave in the rock[q] of Etam.[r] 9The Philistines went up and camped in Judah, spreading out near Lehi.[s] 10The men of Judah asked, "Why have you come to fight us?"
"We have come to take Samson prisoner," they answered, "to do to him as he did to us." 11Then three thousand men from Judah went down to the cave in the rock of Etam and said to Samson, "Don't you realize that the Philistines are rulers over us?[t] What have you done to us?"
He answered, "I merely did to them what they did to me." 12They said to him, "We've come to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines." Samson said, "Swear to me[u] that you won't kill me yourselves." 13"Agreed," they answered. "We will only tie you up and hand you over to them. We will not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes[v] and led him up from the rock. 14As he approached Lehi,[w] the Philistines came toward him shouting. The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power.[x] The ropes on his arms became like charred flax,[y] and the bindings dropped from his hands. 15Finding a fresh jawbone of a donkey, he grabbed it and struck down a thousand men.[z] 16Then Samson said,

"With a donkey's jawbone
I have made donkeys of them.[w][a]
With a donkey's jawbone
I have killed a thousand men."

17When he finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone; and the place was called Ramath Lehi.[x][b] 18Because he was very thirsty, he cried out to the LORD,[c] "You have given your servant this great victory.[d] Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?" 19Then God opened up the hollow place in Lehi, and water came out of it.
When Samson drank, his strength returned and he revived.[e] So the spring[f] was called En Hakkore,[y] and it is still there in Lehi.
20Samson led[z] Israel for twenty years[g] in the days of the Philistines.

Samson and Delilah

16 One day Samson[h] went to Gaza,[i] where he saw a prostitute.[j] He went in to spend the night with her. 2The people of Gaza were told, "Samson is here!" So they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate.[k] They made no move during the night, saying, "At dawn[l] we'll kill him." 3But Samson lay there only until the middle of the night. Then he got up and took hold of the doors of the city gate, together with the two posts, and tore them loose, bar and all. He lifted them to his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.[a] 4Some time later, he fell in love[b] with a woman in the Valley of Sorek whose name was Delilah.[c] 5The rulers of the Philistines[d] went to her and said, "See if you can lure[e] him into showing you the secret of his great strength[f] and how we can overpower him so we may tie him up and subdue him. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred shekels[a] of silver."[g] 6So Delilah[h] said to Samson, "Tell me the secret of your great strength and how you can be tied up and subdued." 7Samson answered her, "If anyone ties me with seven fresh thongs[b] that have not been dried, I'll become as weak as any other man." 8Then the rulers of the Philistines brought her seven fresh thongs that had not been dried, and she tied him with them. 9With men hidden in the room,[i] she called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!"[j] But he snapped the thongs as easily as a piece of string snaps when it comes close to a flame. So the secret of his strength was not discovered.

10Then Delilah said to Samson, "You have made a fool of me;[k] you lied to me. Come now, tell me how you can be tied." 11He said, "If anyone ties me securely with new ropes[l] that have never been used, I'll become as weak as any other man." 12So Delilah took new ropes and tied him with them. Then, with men hidden in the room, she called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!"[m] But he snapped the ropes off his arms as if they were threads.
13Delilah then said to Samson, "Until now, you have been making a fool of me and lying to me. Tell me how you can be tied."
He replied, "If you weave the seven braids of my head into the fabric ⌞on the loom⌟ and tighten it with the pin, I'll become as weak as any other man." So while he was sleeping, Delilah took the seven braids of his head, wove them into the fabric 14and[c] tightened it with the pin.
Again she called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!"[n] He awoke from his sleep and pulled up the pin and the loom, with the fabric.
15Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,'[o] when you won't confide in me? This is the third time[p] you have made a fool of me and haven't told me the secret of your great strength."[q] 16With such nagging she prodded him day after day until he was tired to death.
17So he told her everything.[r] "No razor has ever been used on my head," he said, "because I have been a Nazi-rite[s] set apart to God since birth. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would become as weak as any other man." 18When Delilah saw that he had told her everything, she sent word to the rulers of the Philistines[t], "Come back once more; he has told me everything." So the rulers of the Philistines returned with the silver in their hands.[u] 19Having put him to sleep on her lap, she called a man to shave off the seven braids of his hair, and so began to subdue him.[d] And his strength left him.[v] 20Then she called, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!"[w] He awoke from his sleep and thought, "I'll go out as before and shake myself free." But he did not know that the LORD had left him.[x] 21Then the Philistines[y] seized him, gouged out his eyes[z] and took him down to Gaza.[a] Binding him with bronze shackles, they set him to grinding[b] in the prison. 22But the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

The Death of Samson

23Now the rulers of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon[c] their god and to celebrate, saying, "Our god has delivered Samson, our enemy, into our hands." 24When the people saw him, they praised their god,[d] saying,

"Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands,[e] the one who laid waste our land and multiplied our slain."

25While they were in high spirits,[f] they shouted, "Bring out Samson to

When they stood him among the pilheld his hand, "Put me where I can feel the pillars that support the temple, so that I may lean against them." 27Now the temple was crowded with men and women; all the rulers of the Philistines were there, and on the roof[a] were about three thousand men and women watching Samson perform. 28Then Samson prayed to the LORD,[b] "O Sovereign LORD, remember me. O God, please strengthen me just once more, and let me with one blow get revenge[c] on the Philistines for my two eyes." 29Then Samson reached toward the two central pillars on which the temple stood. Bracing himself against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other, 30Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" Then he pushed with all his might, and down came the temple on the rulers and all the people in it. Thus he killed many more when he died than while he lived.

31Then his brothers and his father's whole family went down to get him.
They brought him back and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah[d] his father. He had led[e][a] Israel twenty years.[f]

Micah's Idols

17 Now a man named Micah[g] from the hill country of Ephraim 2said to his mother, "The eleven hundred shekels[b] of silver that were taken from you and about which I heard you utter a curse—I have that silver with me; I took it."

Then his mother said, "The LORD bless you,[h] my son!"

3When he returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, she said, "I solemnly consecrate my silver to the LORD for my son to make a carved image and a cast idol.[i] I will give it back to you."

4So he returned the silver to his mother, and she took two hundred shekels[c] of silver and gave them to a silversmith, who made them into the image and the idol.[j] And they were put in Micah's house.

5Now this man Micah had a shrine,[k] and he made an ephod[l] and some idols[m] and installed[n] one of his sons as his priest.[o] 6In those days Israel had no king;[p] everyone did as he saw fit.[q]

7A young Levite[r] from Bethlehem in Judah,[s] who had been living within the clan of Judah, 8left that town in search of some other place to stay. On his way[d] he came to Micah's house in the hill country of Ephraim.

9Micah asked him, "Where are you from?"

"I'm a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah,[t]" he said, "and I'm looking for a place to stay."

10Then Micah said to him, "Live with me and be my father[u] and priest,[v] and I'll give you ten shekels[e] of silver a year, your clothes and your food." 11So the Levite agreed to live with him, and the young man was to him like one of his sons. 12Then Micah installed[w] the Levite, and the young man became his priest[x] and lived in his house. 13And Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since this Levite has become my priest."[y]

Danites Settle in Laish

18 In those days Israel had no king.[z]

And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking a place of their own where they might settle, because they had not yet come into an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.[a] 2So the Danites[b] sent five warriors[c] from Zorah and Eshtaol to spy out[d] the land and explore it. These men represented all their clans. They told them, "Go, explore the land."[e]

The men entered the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah,[f] where they spent the night.
3When they were near Micah's house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite;[g] so they turned in there and asked him, "Who brought you here?
What are you doing in this place? Why are you here?"

4He told them what Micah had done for him, and said, "He has hired me and I am his priest.[h]" 5Then they said to him, "Please inquire of God[i] to learn whether our journey will be successful."

6The priest answered them, "Go in peace.[j] Your journey has the LORD's approval."

7So the five men[a] left and came to Laish,[b] where they saw that the people were living in safety, like the Sidonians, unsuspecting and secure.[c] And since their land lacked nothing, they were prosperous.[i] Also, they lived a long way from the Sidonians[d] and had no relationship with anyone else.[k] 8When they returned to Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers asked them, "How did you find things?" 9They answered, "Come on, let's attack them! We have seen that the land is very good. Aren't you going to do something? Don't hesitate to go there and take it over.[e] 10When you get there, you will find an unsuspecting people and a spacious land that God has put into your hands, a land that lacks nothing[f] whatever.[g]" 11Then six hundred men[h] from the clan of the Danites,[i] armed for battle, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol. 12On their way they set up camp near Kiriath Jearim[j] in Judah. This is why the place west of Kiriath Jearim is called Ma-haneh Dan[l][k] to this day. 13From there they went on to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah's house.[l] 14Then the five men who had spied out the land of Laish[m] said to their brothers, "Do you know that one of these houses has an ephod,[n] other household gods, a carved image and a cast idol?[o] Now you know what to do." 15So they turned in there and went to the house of the young Levite at Micah's place and greeted him. 16The six hundred Danites,[p] armed for battle, stood at the entrance to the gate. 17The five men who had spied out the land went inside and took the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods[q] and the cast idol while the priest and the six hundred armed men[r] stood at the entrance to the gate.
18When these men went into Micah's house and took[s] the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods[t] and the cast idol, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?" 19They answered him, "Be quiet![u] Don't say a word. Come with us, and be our father and priest.[v] Isn't it better that you serve a tribe and clan[w] in Israel as priest rather than just one man's household?" 20Then the priest was glad. He took the ephod, the other household gods and the carved image and went along with the people. 21Putting their little children, their livestock and their possessions in front of them, they turned away and left.
22When they had gone some distance from Micah's house, the men who lived near Micah were called together and overtook the Danites. 23As they shouted after them, the Danites turned and said to Micah, "What's the matter with you that you called out your men to fight?" 24He replied, "You took[x] the gods I made, and my priest, and went away.
What else do I have? How can you ask, 'What's the matter with you?' " 25The Danites answered, "Don't argue with us, or some hot-tempered men will attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives." 26So the Danites went their way, and Micah, seeing that they were too strong for him,[y] turned around and went back home.
27Then they took what Micah had made, and his priest, and went on to Laish, against a peaceful and unsuspecting people.[z] They attacked them with the sword and burned[a] down their city.[b] 28There was no one to rescue them because they lived a long way from Sidon[c] and had no relationship with anyone else. The city was in a valley near Beth Rehob.[d] The Danites rebuilt the city and settled there. 29They named it Dan[e] after their forefather Dan, who was born to Israel—though the city used to be called Laish.[f] 30There the Danites set up for themselves the idols, and Jonathan son of Gershom,[g] the son of Moses,[m] and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan until the time of the captivity of the land. 31They continued to use the idols Micah had made,[h] all the time the house of God[i] was in Shiloh.[j]

A Levite and His Concubine

Now a Levite who lived in a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim[k] took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.[l] 2But she was unfaithful to him. She left him and went back to her father's house in Bethlehem, Judah. After she had been there four months, 3her husband went to her to persuade her to return. He had with him his servant and two donkeys. She took him into her father's house, and when her father saw him, he gladly welcomed him. [4]His father-in-law, the girl's father, prevailed upon him to stay; so he remained with him three days, eating and drinking,[a] and sleeping there.

[5]On the fourth day they got up early and he prepared to leave, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh yourself[b] with something to eat; then you can go." [6]So the two of them sat down to eat and drink together. Afterward the girl's father said, "Please stay tonight and enjoy yourself."[c] [7]And when the man got up to go, his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed there that night. [8]On the morning of the fifth day, when he rose to go, the girl's father said, "Refresh yourself.
Wait till afternoon!" So the two of them ate together.
[9]Then when the man, with his concubine and his servant, got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said, "Now look, it's almost evening. Spend the night here; the day is nearly over.
Stay and enjoy yourself. Early tomorrow morning you can get up and be on your way home." [10]But, unwilling to stay another night, the man left and went toward Jebus[d] (that is, Jerusalem), with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine.
[11]When they were near Jebus and the day was almost gone, the servant said to his master, "Come, let's stop at this city of the Jebusites[e] and spend the night." [12]His master replied, "No. We won't go into an alien city, whose people are not Israelites. We will go on to Gibe-ah." [13]He added, "Come, let's try to reach Gibeah or Ramah[f] and spend the night in one of those places." [14]So they went on, and the sun set as they neared Gibeah in Benjamin.[g] [15]There they stopped to spend the night.[h] They went and sat in the city square,[i] but no one took them into his home for the night.
[16]That evening[j] an old man from the hill country of Ephraim,[k] who was living in Gibeah (the men of the place were Benjamites), came in from his work in the fields. [17]When he looked and saw the traveler in the city square, the old man asked, "Where are you going? Where did you come from?"[l] [18]He answered, "We are on our way from Bethlehem in Judah to a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim where I live. I have been to Bethlehem in Judah and now I am going to the house of the LORD.[m] No one has taken me into his house. [19]We have both straw and fodder[n] for our donkeys[o] and bread and wine[p] for ourselves your servants—me, your maidservant, and the young man with us. We don't need anything."
[20]"You are welcome at my house," the old man said. "Let me supply whatever you need. Only don't spend the night in the square." [21]So he took him into his house and fed his donkeys. After they had washed their feet, they had something to eat and drink.[q] [22]While they were enjoying themselves,[r] some of the wicked men[s] of the city surrounded the house. Pounding on the door, they shouted to the old man who owned the house, "Bring out the man who came to your house so we can have sex with him."[t] [23]The owner of the house went outside[u] and said to them, "No, my friends, don't be so vile. Since this man is my guest, don't do this disgraceful thing.[v] [24]Look, here is my virgin daughter,[w] and his concubine. I will bring them out to you now, and you can use them and do to them whatever you wish. But to this man, don't do such a disgraceful thing." [25]But the men would not listen to him. So the man took his concubine and sent her outside to them, and they raped her[x] and abused her[y] throughout the night, and at dawn they let her go. [26]At daybreak the woman went back to the house where her master was staying, fell down at the door and lay there until daylight.
[27]When her master got up in the morning and opened the door of the house and stepped out to continue on his way, there lay his concubine, fallen in the doorway of the house, with her hands on the threshold. [28]He said to her, "Get up; let's go." But there was no answer. Then the man put her on his donkey and set out for home.
[29]When he reached home, he took a knife[z] and cut up his concubine, limb by limb, into twelve parts and sent them into all the areas of Israel.[a] [30]Everyone who saw it said, "Such a thing has never been seen or done, not since the day the Israelites came up out of Egypt.[b] Think about it! Consider it!
Tell us what to do!"[c]

Israelites Fight the Benjamites

20 Then all the Israelites[a] from Dan to Beersheba[b] and from the land of Gilead came out as one man[c] and assembled[d] before the LORD in Mizpah.[e] 2The leaders of all the people of the tribes of Israel took their places in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand soldiers[f] armed with swords. 3(The Benjamites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the Israelites said, "Tell us how this awful thing happened."

4So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, said, "I and my concubine came to Gibeah[g] in Benjamin to spend the night.[h] 5During the night the men of Gibeah came after me and surrounded the house, intending to kill me.[i] They raped my concubine, and she died.[j] 6I took my concubine, cut her into pieces and sent one piece to each region of Israel's inheritance,[k] because they committed this lewd and disgraceful act[l] in Israel. 7Now, all you Israelites, speak up and give your verdict.[m]"

8All the people rose as one man, saying, "None of us will go home. No, not one of us will return to his house. 9But now this is what we'll do to Gibeah: We'll go up against it as the lot directs.[n] 10We'll take ten men out of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred from a thousand, and a thousand from ten thousand, to get provisions for the army. Then, when the army arrives at Gibeah[n] in Benjamin, it can give them what they deserve for all this vileness done in Israel." 11So all the men of Israel got together and united as one man[o] against the city.

12The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What about this awful crime that was committed among you?[p] 13Now surrender those wicked men[q] of Gibeah so that we may put them to death and purge the evil from Israel.[r]"

But the Benjamites would not listen to their fellow Israelites. 14From their towns they came together at Gibeah to fight against the Israelites. 15At once the Benjamites mobilized twenty-six thousand swordsmen from their towns, in addition to seven hundred chosen men from those living in Gibeah. 16Among all these soldiers there were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed,[s] each of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

17Israel, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand swordsmen, all of them fighting men.

18The Israelites went up to Bethel[o][t] and inquired of God.[u] They said, "Who of us shall go first[v] to fight[w] against the Benjamites?"

The LORD replied, "Judah[x] shall go first."

19The next morning the Israelites got up and pitched camp near Gibeah. 20The men of Israel went out to fight the Benjamites and took up battle positions against them at Gibeah. 21The Benjamites came out of Gibeah and cut down twenty-two thousand Israelites[y] on the battlefield that day. 22But the men of Israel encouraged one another and again took up their positions where they had stationed themselves the first day. 23The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD[z] until evening,[a] and they inquired of the LORD.[b] They said, "Shall we go up again to battle[c] against the Benjamites, our brothers?"

The LORD answered, "Go up against them."

24Then the Israelites drew near to Benjamin the second day. 25This time, when the Benjamites came out from Gibeah to oppose them, they cut down another eighteen thousand Israelites,[d] all of them armed with swords.

26Then the Israelites, all the people, went up to Bethel, and there they sat weeping before the LORD.[e] They fasted[f] that day until evening and presented burnt offerings[g] and fellowship offerings[p][h] to the LORD.[i] 27And the Israelites inquired of the LORD.[j] (In those days the ark of the covenant of God[k] was there, 28with Phinehas son of Eleazar,[l] the son of Aaron, ministering before it.)[m] They asked, "Shall we go up again to battle with Benjamin our brother, or not?"

The LORD responded, "Go, for tomorrow I will give them into your hands.[n]"

29Then Israel set an ambush[o] around Gibeah. 30They went up against the Benjamites on the third day and took up positions against Gibeah as they had done before. 31The Benjamites came out to meet them and were drawn away[a] from the city. They began to inflict casualties on the Israelites as before, so that about thirty men fell in the open field and on the roads—the one leading to Bethel[b] and the other to Gibeah.

32While the Benjamites were saying, "We are defeating them as before,"[c] the Israelites were saying, "Let's retreat and draw them away from the city to the roads." 33All the men of Israel moved from their places and took up positions at Baal Tamar, and the Israelite ambush charged out of its place[d] on the west[q] of Gibeah.[r] 34Then ten thousand of Israel's finest men made a frontal attack on Gibeah. The fighting was so heavy that the Benjamites did not realize[e] how near disaster was.[f] 35The LORD defeated Benjamin[g] before Israel, and on that day the Israelites struck down 25,- 100 Benjamites, all armed with swords.
36Then the Benjamites saw that they were beaten.
Now the men of Israel had given way[h] before Benjamin, because they relied on the ambush[i] they had set near Gibeah. 37The men who had been in ambush made a sudden dash into Gibeah, spread out and put the whole city to the sword.[j] 38The men of Israel had arranged with the ambush that they should send up a great cloud of smoke[k] from the city,[l] 39and then the men of Israel would turn in the battle.
The Benjamites had begun to inflict casualties on the men of Israel (about thirty), and they said, "We are defeating them as in the first battle."[m] 40But when the column of smoke began to rise from the city, the Benjamites turned and saw the smoke of the whole city going up into the sky.[n] 41Then the men of Israel turned on them,[o] and the men of Benjamin were terrified, because they realized that disaster had come[p] upon them. 42So they fled before the Israelites in the direction of the desert, but they could not escape the battle. And the men of Israel who came out of the towns cut them down there.
43They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them and easily[s] overran them in the vicinity of Gibeah on the east.
44Eighteen thousand Benjamites fell, all of them valiant fighters.[q] 45As they turned and fled toward the desert to the rock of Rimmon,[r] the Israelites cut down five thousand men along the roads. They kept pressing after the Benjamites as far as Gidom and struck down two thousand more.
46On that day twenty-five thousand Benjamite[s] swordsmen fell, all of them valiant fighters. 47But six hundred men turned and fled into the desert to the rock of Rimmon, where they stayed four months. 48The men of Israel went back to Benjamin and put all the towns to the sword, including the animals and everything else they found. All the towns they came across they set on fire.[t]

Wives for the Benjamites

21 The men of Israel had taken an oath[u] at Mizpah:[v] "Not one of us will give[w] his daughter in marriage to a Benjamite." 2The people went to Bethel,[t] where they sat before God until evening, raising their voices and weeping bitterly.
3"O LORD, the God of Israel," they cried, "why has this happened to Israel? Why should one tribe be missing[x] from Israel today?" 4Early the next day the people built an altar and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.[u][y] 5Then the Israelites asked, "Who from all the tribes of Israel[z] has failed to assemble before the LORD?" For they had taken a solemn oath that anyone who failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah should certainly be put to death.
6Now the Israelites grieved for their brothers, the Benjamites. "Today one tribe is cut off from Israel," they said.
7"How can we provide wives for those who are left, since we have taken an oath[a] by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters in marriage?" 8Then they asked, "Which one of the tribes of Israel failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah?" They discovered that no one from Jabesh Gilead[b] had come to the camp for the assembly. 9For when they counted the people, they found that none of the people of Jabesh Gilead were there.
10So the assembly sent twelve thousand fighting men with instructions to go to Jabesh Gilead and put to the sword those living there, including the women and children. 11"This is what male[a] and every woman who is not a virgin.[b]" 12They found among the people living in Jabesh Gilead four hundred young women who had never slept with a man, and they took them to the camp at Shiloh[c] in Canaan.

13Then the whole assembly sent an offer of peace[d] to the Benjamites at the rock of Rimmon.[e] 14So the Benjamites returned at that time and were given the women of Jabesh Gilead who had been spared. But there were not enough for all of them.

15The people grieved for Benjamin,[f] because the LORD had made a gap in the tribes of Israel. 16And the elders of the assembly said, "With the women of Benjamin destroyed, how shall we provide wives for the men who are left?
17The Benjamite survivors must have heirs," they said, "so that a tribe of Israel will not be wiped out.[g] 18We can't give them our daughters as wives, since we Israelites have taken this oath:[h] 'Cursed be anyone who gives[i] a wife to a Benjamite.' 19But look, there is the annual festival of the LORD in Shiloh,[j] to the north of Bethel[k], and east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem,[l] and to the south of Lebonah."

20So they instructed the Benjamites, saying, "Go and hide in the vineyards 21and watch. When the girls of Shiloh come out to join in the dancing,[m] then rush from the vineyards and each of you seize a wife from the girls of Shiloh and go to the land of Benjamin. 22When their fathers or brothers complain to us, we will say to them, 'Do us a kindness by helping them, because we did not get wives for them during the war, and you are innocent, since you did not give[n] your daughters to them.'" 23So that is what the Benjamites did.

While the girls were dancing,[o] each man caught one and carried her off to be his wife. Then they returned to their inheritance[p] and rebuilt the towns and settled in them.[q]

24At that time the Israelites left that place and went home to their tribes and clans, each to his own inheritance.

25In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit.[r]

Ruth

Naomi and Ruth

1 In the days when the judges ruled,[a][a] there was a famine in the land,[b] and a man from Bethlehem in Judah,[c] together with his wife and two sons, went to live for a while[d] in the country of Moab.[e] 2The man's name was Elimelech,[f] his wife's name Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion.[g] They were Ephrathites[h] from Bethlehem,[i] Judah.
And they went to Moab and lived
there.
3Now Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died, and she was left with her two sons. 4They married Moabite women,[j] one named Orpah and the other Ruth.[k] After they had lived there about ten years, 5both Mahlon and Kilion[l] also died,[m] and Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband.
6When she heard in Moab[n] that the LORD had come to the aid of his people[o] by providing food[p] for them, Naomi and her daughters-in-law[q] prepared to return home from there. 7With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had been living and set out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah.
8Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you, to your mother's home.[r] May the LORD show kindness[s] to you, as you have shown to your dead[t] and to me. 9May the LORD grant that each of you will find rest[u] in the home of another husband."
Then she kissed[v] them and they wept aloud[w] 10and said to her, "We will go back with you to your people." 11But Naomi said, "Return home, my daughters. Why would you come with me? Am I going to have any more sons, who could become your husbands?[x] 12Return home, my daughters; I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me—even if I had a husband tonight and then gave birth to sons— 13would you wait until they grew up?[y] Would you remain unmarried for them? No, my daughters. It is more bitter[z] for me than for you, because the LORD's hand has gone out against me![a]" 14At this they wept[b] again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law[c] good-by,[d] but Ruth clung to her.[e] 15"Look," said Naomi, "your sister-in-law[f] is going back to her people and her gods.[g] Go back with her." 16But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you[h] or to turn back from you.
Where you go I will go,[i] and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people[j] and your God my God.[k] 17Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely,[l] if anything but death separates you and me."[m] 18When Naomi realized that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her.[n] 19So the two women went on until they came to Bethlehem.[o] When they arrived in Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred[p] because of them, and the women exclaimed, "Can this be Naomi?"
20"Don't call me Naomi,[b]" she told them. "Call me Mara,[c] because the Almighty[d][q] has made my life very bitter.[r] 21I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty.[s] Why call me Naomi? The LORD has afflicted[e] me;[t] the Almighty has brought misfortune upon me." 22So Naomi returned from Moab accompanied by Ruth the Moabitess,[u] her daughter-in-law,[v] arriving in Bethlehem as the barley harvest[w] was beginning.[x]

Ruth Meets Boaz

2 Now Naomi had a relative[a] on her husband's side, from the clan of Elimelech,[b] a man of standing,[c] whose name was Boaz.[d] 2And Ruth the Moabitess[e] said to Naomi, "Let me go to the fields and pick up the leftover grain[f] behind anyone in whose eyes I find favor.[g]" Naomi said to her, "Go ahead, my daughter." 3So she went out and began to glean in the fields behind the harvesters.[h] As it turned out, she found herself working in a field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech.[i] 4Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters, "The LORD be with you![j]"
"The LORD bless you![k]" they called back.
5Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, "Whose young woman is that?" 6The foreman replied, "She is the Moabitess[l] who came back from Moab with Naomi. 7She said, 'Please let me glean and gather among the sheaves[m] behind the harvesters.' She went into the field and has worked steadily from morning till now, except for a short rest[n] in the shelter." 8So Boaz said to Ruth, "My daughter, listen to me. Don't go and glean in another field and don't go away from here. Stay here with my servant girls.
9Watch the field where the men are harvesting, and follow along after the girls. I have told the men not to touch you. And whenever you are thirsty, go and get a drink from the water jars the men have filled." 10At this, she bowed down with her face to the ground.[o] She exclaimed, "Why have I found such favor in your eyes that you notice me[p]—a foreigner?[q]" 11Boaz replied, "I've been told all about what you have done for your mother-in-law[r] since the death of your husband[s]—how you left your father and mother and your homeland and came to live with a people you did not know[t] before.[u] 12May the LORD repay you for what you have done. May you be richly rewarded by the LORD,[v] the God of Israel,[w] under whose wings[x] you have come to take refuge.[y]" 13"May I continue to find favor in your eyes,[z] my lord," she said. "You have given me comfort and have spoken kindly to your servant—though I do not have the standing of one of your servant girls." 14At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here. Have some bread[a] and dip it in the wine vinegar." When she sat down with the harvesters,[b] he offered her some roasted grain.[c] She ate all she wanted and had some left over.[d] 15As she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his men, "Even if she gathers among the sheaves,[e] don't embarrass her.
16Rather, pull out some stalks for her from the bundles and leave them for her to pick up, and don't rebuke[f] her." 17So Ruth gleaned in the field until evening. Then she threshed[g] the barley she had gathered, and it amounted to about an ephah.[f][h] 18She carried it back to town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gathered. Ruth also brought out and gave her what she had left over[i] after she had eaten enough.
19Her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who took notice of you![j]" Then Ruth told her mother-in-law about the one at whose place she had been working. "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz," she said.
20"The LORD bless him![k]" Naomi said to her daughter-in-law.[l] "He has not stopped showing his kindness[m] to the living and the dead." She added, "That man is our close relative;[n] he is one of our kinsman-redeemers.[o]" 21Then Ruth the Moabitess[p] said, "He even said to me, 'Stay with my workers until they finish harvesting all my grain.'" 22Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It will be good for you, my daughter, to go with his girls, because in someone else's field you might be harmed." 23So Ruth stayed close to the servant girls of Boaz to glean until the barley[q] and wheat harvests[r] were finished.
And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth and Boaz at the Threshing Floor

3 One day Naomi her mother-in-law[s] said to her, "My daughter, you, where you will be well provided

5"I will do whatever you say,"[g] Ruth answered. 6So she went down to the threshing floor[h] and did everything her mother-in-law told her to do.

7When Boaz had finished eating and drinking and was in good spirits,[i] he went over to lie down at the far end of the grain pile.[j] Ruth approached quietly, uncovered his feet and lay down.
8In the middle of the night something startled the man, and he turned and discovered a woman lying at his feet.
9"Who are you?" he asked.

"I am your servant Ruth," she said.
"Spread the corner of your garment[k] over me, since you are a kinsmanredeemer.[l]"

10"The LORD bless you,[m] my daughter," he replied. "This kindness is greater than that which you showed earlier:[n] You have not run after the younger men, whether rich or poor.
11And now, my daughter, don't be afraid. I will do for you all you ask. All my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of noble character.[o] 12Al-though it is true that I am near of kin, there is a kinsman-redeemer[p] nearer than[q] I. 13Stay here for the night, and in the morning if he wants to redeem,[r] good; let him redeem. But if he is not willing, as surely as the LORD lives[s] I will do it.[t] Lie here until morning."

14So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before anyone could be recognized; and he said, "Don't let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor."[u][v] 15He also said, "Bring me the shawl[w] you are wearing and hold it out." When she did so, he poured into it six measures of barley and put it on her.

Then he[h] went back to town.

16When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, "How did it go, my daughter?"

Then she told her everything Boaz had done for her 17and added, "He gave me these six measures of barley, saying, 'Don't go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.' " 18Then Naomi said, "Wait, my daughter, until you find out what happens. For the man will not rest until the matter is settled today."[x]

Boaz Marries Ruth

4 Meanwhile Boaz went up to the town gate[y] and sat there. When the kinsman-redeemer[z] he had mentioned[a] came along, Boaz said, "Come over here, my friend, and sit down." So he went over and sat down.

2Boaz took ten of the elders[b] of the town and said, "Sit here," and they did so.[c] 3Then he said to the kinsmanredeemer, "Naomi, who has come back from Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech.[d] 4I thought I should bring the matter to your attention and suggest that you buy it in the presence of these seated here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, do so. But if you[i] will not, tell me, so I will know. For no one has the right to do it except you,[e] and I am next in line."

"I will redeem it," he said.

5Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the land from Naomi and from Ruth the Moabitess,[f] you acquire[j] the dead man's widow, in order to maintain the name of the dead with his property."[g]

6At this, the kinsman-redeemer said, "Then I cannot redeem[h] it because I might endanger my own estate. You redeem it yourself. I cannot do it."[i] 7(Now in earlier times in Israel, for the redemption[j] and transfer of property to become final, one party took off his sandal[k] and gave it to the other.

This was the method of legalizing transactions[l] in Israel.)[m] 8So the kinsman-redeemer said to Boaz, "Buy it yourself." And he removed his sandal.[n]

9Then Boaz announced to the elders and all the people, "Today you are witnesses[o] that I have bought from Naomi all the property of Elimelech, Kilion and Mahlon. 10I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess,[p] Mahlon's the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah,[e] who together built up the house of Israel. May you have standing in Ephrathah[f] and be famous in Bethlehem.[g] 12Through the offspring the LORD gives you by this young woman, may your family be like that of Perez,[h] whom Tamar[i] bore to Judah."

The Genealogy of David

13So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. Then he went to her, and the LORD enabled her to conceive,[j] and she gave birth to a son.[k] 14The women[l] said to Naomi: "Praise be to the LORD,[m] who this day has not left you without a kinsman-redeemer.[n] May he become famous throughout Israel! 15He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law,[o] who loves you and who is better to you than seven sons,[p] has given him birth." 16Then Naomi took the child, laid him in her lap and cared for him. 17The women living there said, "Naomi has a son." And they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse,[q] the father of David.[r] 18This, then, is the family line of Perez[s]:

Perez was the father of Hezron,[t] 19Hezron the father of Ram, Ram the father of Amminadab,[u] 20Amminadab the father of Nahshon,[v] Nahshon the father of Salmon,[k] 21Salmon the father of Boaz,[w] Boaz the father of Obed, 22Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of David.

The Birth of Samuel

1 There was a certain man from Ra-mathaim,[a] a Zuphite[a][b] from the hill country[c] of Ephraim,[d] whose name was Elkanah[e] son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. 2 He had two wives:[f] one was called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.
3 Year after year[g] this man went up from his town to worship[h] and sacrifice to the LORD Almighty at Shiloh,[i] where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli,[j] were priests of the LORD.
4 Whenever the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice,[k] he would give portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters.[l] 5 But to Hannah he gave a double portion[m] because he loved her, and the LORD had closed her womb.[n] 6 And because the LORD had closed her womb, her rival kept provoking her in order to irritate her.[o] 7 This went on year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the LORD, her rival provoked her till she wept and would not eat.[p] 8 Elkanah her husband would say to her, "Hannah, why are you weeping? Why don't you eat? Why are you downhearted? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?[q]" 9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on a chair by the doorpost of the LORD's temple.[b][r] 10 In bitterness of soul[s] Hannah wept much and prayed to the LORD.
11 And she made a vow,[t] saying, "O LORD Almighty[u], if you will only look upon your servant's misery and remember[v] me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the LORD for all the days of his life,[w] and no razor[x] will ever be used on his head." 12 As she kept on praying to the LORD, Eli observed her mouth. 13 Hannah was praying in her heart, and her lips were moving but her voice was not heard.

Eli thought she was drunk 14 and said to her, "How long will you keep on getting drunk? Get rid of your wine." 15 "Not so, my lord," Hannah replied, "I am a woman who is deeply troubled.[y] I have not been drinking wine or beer; I was pouring[z] out my soul to the LORD. 16 Do not take your servant for a wicked woman; I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief."[a] 17 Eli answered, "Go in peace,[b] and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of him.[c]" 18 She said, "May your servant find favor in your eyes.[d]" Then she went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast.[e] 19 Early the next morning they arose and worshiped before the LORD and then went back to their home at Ramah.[f] Elkanah lay with Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered[g] her.
20 So in the course of time Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son.[h] She named[i] him Samuel,[c][j] saying, "Because I asked the LORD for him."

Hannah Dedicates Samuel

21 When the man Elkanah went up with all his family to offer the annual[k] sacrifice to the LORD and to fulfill his vow,[l] 22 Hannah did not go. She said to her husband, "After the boy is weaned, I will take him and present[m] him before the LORD, and he will live there always."
23 "Do what seems best to you," Elkanah her husband told her. "Stay here until you have weaned him; only may the LORD make good[n] his[d] word." So the woman stayed at home and nursed her son until she had weaned[o] him.
24 After he was weaned, she took the boy with her, young as he was, along with a three-year-old bull,[e][p] an

For his whole life[b] he will be given over to the LORD." And he worshiped the LORD there.

Hannah's Prayer

2 Then Hannah prayed and said:[c]

"My heart rejoices[d] in the LORD; in the LORD my horn[g][e] is lifted high.
My mouth boasts[f] over my enemies,[g] for I delight in your deliverance.

11Then Elkanah went home to Ramah,[l] but the boy ministered[m] before the LORD under Eli the priest.

Eli's Wicked Sons

12Eli's sons were wicked men; they had no regard[n] for the LORD. 13Now it was the practice[o] of the priests with the people that whenever anyone offered a sacrifice and while the meat[p] was being boiled, the servant of the priest would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand. 14He would plunge it into the pan or kettle or cal-dron or pot, and the priest would take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This is how they treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh. 15But even before the fat was burned, the servant of the priest would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give the priest some meat to roast; he won't accept boiled meat from you, but only raw."

16If the man said to him, "Let the fat[q] be burned up first, and then take whatever you want," the servant would then answer, "No, hand it over now; if you don't, I'll take it by force."

17This sin of the young men was very great in the LORD's sight, for they[j] were treating the LORD's offering with contempt.[r]

18But Samuel was ministering[s] before the LORD—a boy wearing a linen ephod.[t] 19Each year his mother made him a little robe and took it to him when she went up with her husband to offer the annual[u] sacrifice. 20Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, saying,

"May the LORD give you children by this woman to take the place of the one she prayed[a] for and gave to the LORD." Then they would go home. 21And the LORD was gracious to Hannah;[b] she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew[c] up in the presence of the LORD.
22Now Eli, who was very old, heard about everything[d] his sons were doing to all Israel and how they slept with the women[e] who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 23So he said to them, "Why do you do such things? I hear from all the people about these wicked deeds of yours. 24No, my sons; it is not a good report that I hear spreading among the LORD's people.
25If a man sins against another man, God[k] may mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who will[f] intercede[g] for him?" His sons, however, did not listen to their father's rebuke, for it was the LORD's will to put them to death.
26And the boy Samuel continued to grow[h] in stature and in favor with the LORD and with men.[i]

Prophecy Against the House of Eli

27Now a man of God[j] came to Eli and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Did I not clearly reveal myself to your father's house when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh? 28I chose[k] your father out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense,[l] and to wear an ephod[m] in my presence. I also gave your father's house all the offerings[n] made with fire by the Israelites. 29Why do you[l] scorn my sacrifice and offering[o] that I prescribed for my dwelling?[p] Why do you honor your sons more than me by fattening yourselves on the choice parts of every offering made by my people Israel?' 30"Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, declares: 'I promised that your house and your father's house would minister before me forever.[q]' But now the LORD declares: 'Far be it from me!
Those who honor me I will honor,[r] but those who despise[s] me will be disdained.[t] 31The time is coming when I will cut short your strength and the strength of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your family line[u] 32and you will see distress[v] in my dwelling. Although good will be done to Israel, in your family line there will never be an old man.[w] 33Every one of you that I do not cut off from my altar will be spared only to blind your eyes with tears and to grieve your heart, and all your descendants[x] will die in the prime of life.
34" 'And what happens to your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will be a sign[y] to you—they will both die[z] on the same day.[a] 35I will raise up for myself a faithful priest,[b] who will do according to what is in my heart and mind. I will firmly establish his house, and he will minister before my anoint-ed[c] one always. 36Then everyone left in your family line will come and bow down before him for a piece of silver and a crust of bread and plead,[d] "Appoint me to some priestly office so I can have food to eat.[e]" ' "

The LORD Calls Samuel

3 The boy Samuel ministered[f] before the LORD under Eli. In those days the word of the LORD was rare;[g] there were not many visions.[h] 2One night Eli, whose eyes[i] were becoming so weak that he could barely see,[j] was lying down in his usual place. 3The lamp[k] of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple[m][l] of the LORD, where the ark[m] of God was. 4Then the LORD called Samuel.
Samuel answered, "Here I am.[n]" 5And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." But Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." So he went and lay down.
6Again the LORD called, "Samuel!"
And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me."
"My son," Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." 7Now Samuel did not yet know[o] the LORD: The word[p] of the LORD had not yet been revealed[q] to him.
8The LORD called Samuel a third time, and Samuel got up and went to Eli and
said, "Here I am; you called me." Then Eli realized that the LORD was calling the boy. 9So Eli told Samuel, "Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.' " So Samuel went and lay down in his place.
10The LORD came and stood there,

Samuel answered, "Here I am." 17"What was it he said to you?" Eli asked. "Do not hide[f] it from me. May God deal with you, be it ever so severely,[g] if you hide from me anything he told you." 18So Samuel told him everything, hiding nothing from him. Then Eli said, "He is the LORD; let him do what is good in his eyes."[h] 19The LORD was with[i] Samuel as he grew[j] up, and he let none[k] of his words fall to the ground. 20And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba[l] recognized that Samuel was attested as a prophet of the LORD.[m] 21The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, and there he revealed[n] himself to Samuel through his word.

4 And Samuel's word came to all Israel.

The Philistines Capture the Ark

Now the Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. The Israelites camped at Ebenezer,[o] and the Philistines at Aphek.[p] 2The Philistines deployed their forces to meet Israel, and as the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand of them on the battlefield. 3When the soldiers returned to camp, the elders of Israel asked, "Why[q] did the LORD bring defeat upon us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark[r] of the LORD's covenant from Shiloh,[s] so that it[o] may go with us[t] and save us from the hand of our enemies."
4So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they brought back the ark of the covenant of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned between the cherubim.[u] And Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phine-has, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.
5When the ark of the LORD's covenant came into the camp, all Israel raised such a great shout[v] that the ground shook. 6Hearing the uproar, the Philistines asked, "What's all this shouting in the Hebrew[w] camp?" When they learned that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp, 7the Philistines were afraid.[x] "A god has come into the camp," they said. "We're in trouble! Nothing like this has happened before. 8Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? They are the gods who struck[y] the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues[z] in the desert. 9Be strong, Philistines! Be men, or you will be subject to the Hebrews, as they[a] have been to you. Be men, and fight!" 10So the Philistines fought, and the Israelites were defeated[b] and every man fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great; Israel lost thirty thousand foot soldiers. 11The ark of God was captured, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.[c]

Death of Eli

12That same day a Benjamite[d] ran from the battle line and went to Shiloh, his clothes torn and dust[e] on his head.
13When he arrived, there was Eli[f] sitting on his chair by the side of the road, watching, because his heart feared for the ark of God. When the man entered the town and told what had happened, the whole town sent up a cry.
14Eli heard the outcry and asked, "What is the meaning of this uproar?" The man hurried over to Eli, 15who was ninety-eight years old and whose eyes[g] were set so that he could not see.
16He told Eli, "I have just come from the battle line; I fled from it this very day." Eli asked, "What happened, my son?" 17The man who brought the news replied, "Israel fled before the Philistines, and the army has suffered heavy losses. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead,[h] and the ark of God has been captured."[i]

[o]3 Or he

[18]When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backward off his chair by the side of the gate. His neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man and heavy. He had led[p][a] Israel forty years.[b]

[19]His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and near the time of delivery. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went into labor and gave birth, but was overcome by her labor pains. [20]As she was dying, the women attending her said, "Don't despair; you have given birth to a son." But she did not respond or pay any attention.

[21]She named the boy Ichabod,[q][c] saying, "The glory[d] has departed from Israel"—because of the capture of the ark of God and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband. [22]She said, "The glory[e] has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured."[f]

The Ark in Ashdod and Ekron

5 After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer[g] to Ashdod.[h] [2]Then they carried the ark into Dagon's temple and set it beside Dagon.[i] [3]When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen[j] on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! They took Dagon and put him back in his place. [4]But the following morning when they rose, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! His head and hands had been broken[k] off and were lying on the threshold; only his body remained. [5]That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor any others who enter Dagon's temple at Ashdod step on the threshold.[l]

[6]The LORD's hand[m] was heavy upon the people of Ashdod and its vicinity; he brought devastation[n] upon them and afflicted them with tumors.[r][o] [7]When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of the god of Israel must not stay here with us, because his hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god." [8]So they called together all the rulers[p] of the Philistines and asked them, "What shall we do with the ark of the god of Israel?"

They answered, "Have the ark of the god of Israel moved to Gath.[q]" So they moved the ark of the God of Israel.

[9]But after they had moved it, the LORD's hand was against that city, throwing it into a great panic.[r] He afflicted the people of the city, both young and old, with an outbreak of tumors.[s] [10]So they sent the ark of God to Ekron.[s]

As the ark of God was entering Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "They have brought the ark of the god of Israel around to us to kill us and our people." [11]So they called together all the rulers[t] of the Philistines and said, "Send the ark of the god of Israel away; let it go back to its own place, or it[t] will kill us and our people." For death had filled the city with panic; God's hand was very heavy upon it. [12]Those who did not die[u] were afflicted with tumors, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

The Ark Returned to Israel

6 When the ark of the LORD had been in Philistine territory seven months, [2]the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners[v] and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it back to its place."

[3]They answered, "If you return the ark of the god of Israel, do not send it away empty,[w] but by all means send a guilt offering[x] to him. Then you will be healed, and you will know why his hand[y] has not been lifted from you."

[4]The Philistines asked, "What guilt offering should we send to him?"

They replied, "Five gold tumors and five gold rats, according to the number[z] of the Philistine rulers, because the same plague[a] has struck both you and your rulers. [5]Make models of the tumors[b] and of the rats that are destroying the country, and pay honor[c] to Israel's god. Perhaps he will lift his hand from you and your gods and your land. [6]Why do you harden[d] your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh did? When he[u] treated them harshly,[e] did they[f] not send the Israelites out so they could go on their way?

of the LORD and put it on the cart, and in a chest beside it put the gold objects you are sending back to him as a guilt offering. Send it on its way, 9but keep watching it. If it goes up to its own territory, toward Beth Shemesh,[a] then the LORD has brought this great disaster on us. But if it does not, then we will know that it was not his hand that struck us and that it happened to us by chance."

10So they did this. They took two such cows and hitched them to the cart and penned up their calves. 11They placed the ark of the LORD on the cart and along with it the chest containing the gold rats and the models of the tumors. 12Then the cows went straight up toward Beth Shemesh, keeping on the road and lowing all the way; they did not turn to the right or to the left.
The rulers of the Philistines followed them as far as the border of Beth She-mesh.

13Now the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat[b] in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they rejoiced at the sight.
14The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and there it stopped beside a large rock. The people chopped up the wood of the cart and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering[c] to the LORD. 15The Levites[d] took down the ark of the LORD, together with the chest containing the gold objects, and placed them on the large rock.[e] On that day the people of Beth Shemesh[f] offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD. 16The five rulers of the Philistines saw all this and then returned that same day to Ekron.

17These are the gold tumors the Philistines sent as a guilt offering to the LORD—one each[g] for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron. 18And the number of the gold rats was according to the number of Philistine towns belonging to the five rulers—the fortified towns with their country villages. The large rock, on which[v] they set the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

19But God struck down[h] some of the men of Beth Shemesh, putting seventy[w] of them to death because they had looked[i] into the ark of the LORD. The people mourned because of the heavy blow the LORD had dealt them, 20and the men of Beth Shemesh asked, "Who can stand[j] in the presence of the LORD, this holy[k] God? To whom will the ark go up from here?"

21Then they sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim,[l] saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to 7 your place." 1So the men of Kiriath Jearim came and took up the ark[m] of the LORD. They took it to Abina-dab's[n] house on the hill and consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the ark of the LORD.

Samuel Subdues the Philistines at Mizpah 2It was a long time, twenty years in all, that the ark remained at Kiriath Jearim,[o] and all the people of Israel mourned and sought after the LORD.[p] 3And Samuel said to the whole house of Israel, "If you are returning[q] to the LORD with all your hearts, then rid[r] yourselves of the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths[s] and commit[t] yourselves to the LORD and serve him only,[u] and he will deliver[v] you out of the hand of the Philistines." 4So the Israelites put away their Baals and Ashtoreths, and served the LORD only.

5Then Samuel[w] said, "Assemble all Israel at Mizpah[x] and I will intercede[y] with the LORD for you." 6When they had assembled at Mizpah,[z] they drew water and poured[a] it out before the LORD. On that day they fasted and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel was leader[x][b] of Israel at Mizpah.

7When the Philistines heard that Israel had assembled at Mizpah, the rulers of the Philistines came up to attack them. And when the Israelites heard of it, they were afraid[c] because of the Philistines. 8They said to Samuel, "Do not stop crying[d] out to the LORD our God for us, that he may rescue us from the hand of the Philistines." 9Then Samuel[e] took a suckling lamb and offered it up as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD on Israel's behalf, and the LORD answered him.[f]

10While Samuel was sacrificing the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to engage Israel in battle. But that day the LORD thundered[g] with loud thunder against the Philistines and threw them into such a panic[a] that they were routed before the Israelites.

11The men of Israel rushed out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, slaughtering them along the way to a point below Beth Car.
12Then Samuel took a stone[b] and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer,[y][c] saying, "Thus far has the LORD helped us." 13So the Philistines were subdued[d] and did not invade Israelite territory again.
Throughout Samuel's lifetime, the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines. 14The towns from Ekron[e] to Gath that the Philistines had captured from Israel were restored to her, and Israel delivered the neighboring territory from the power of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.[f] 15Samuel[g] continued as judge[h] over Israel all[i] the days of his life. 16From year to year he went on a circuit from Bethel[j] to Gilgal[k] to Mizpah, judging[l] Israel in all those places. 17But he always went back to Ramah,[m] where his home was, and there he also judged[n] Israel. And he built an altar[o] there to the LORD.

Israel Asks for a King

8 When Samuel grew old, he appointed[p] his sons as judges for Israel. 2The name of his firstborn was Joel and the name of his second was Abijah,[q] and they served at Beersheba.[r] 3But his sons[s] did not walk in his ways. They turned aside[t] after dishonest gain and accepted bribes[u] and perverted[v] justice.
4So all the elders[w] of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.[x] 5They said to him, "You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways; now appoint a king[y] to lead[z][z] us, such as all the other nations[a] have." 6But when they said, "Give us a king[b] to lead us," this displeased[c] Samuel; so he prayed to the LORD. 7And the LORD told him: "Listen[d] to all that the people are saying to you; it is not you they have rejected,[e] but they have rejected me as their king.[f] 8As they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day, forsaking[g] me and serving other gods, so they are doing to you. 9Now listen to them; but warn them solemnly and let them know[h] what the king who will reign over them will do."

us and to go out before us and fight our battles." 21When Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated[x] it before the LORD. 22The LORD answered, "Listen[y] to them and give them a king." Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Everyone go back to his town."

Samuel Anoints Saul

9 There was a Benjamite,[z] a man of standing,[a] whose name was Kish[b] son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah of Benjamin. 2He had a son named Saul, an impressive[c] young man without equal[d] among the Israelites—a head taller[e] than any of the others.
3Now the donkeys[f] belonging to Saul's father Kish were lost, and Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the servants with you and go and look for the donkeys." 4So he passed through the hill[a] country of Ephraim and through the area around Shalisha,[b] but they did not find them. They went on into the district of Shaalim, but the donkeys[c] were not there. Then he passed through the territory of Benjamin, but they did not find them.

5 When they reached the district of Zuph,[d] Saul said to the servant who was with him, "Come, let's go back, or my father will stop thinking about the donkeys and start worrying[e] about us." 6 But the servant replied, "Look, in this town there is a man of God;[f] he is highly respected, and everything[g] he says comes true. Let's go there now.
Perhaps he will tell us what way to take." 7 Saul said to his servant, "If we go, what can we give the man? The food in our sacks is gone. We have no gift[h] to take to the man of God. What do we have?"
8 The servant answered him again.
"Look," he said, "I have a quarter of a shekel[b] of silver. I will give it to the man of God so that he will tell us what way to take." 9 (Formerly in Israel, if a man went to inquire[i] of God, he would say, "Come, let us go to the seer," because the prophet of today used to be called a seer.)[j] 10 "Good," Saul said to his servant.
"Come, let's go." So they set out for the town where the man of God was.
11 As they were going up the hill to the town, they met some girls coming out to draw[k] water, and they asked them, "Is the seer here?" 12 "He is," they answered. "He's ahead of you. Hurry now; he has just come to our town today, for the people have a sacrifice[l] at the high place.[m] 13 As soon as you enter the town, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not begin eating until he comes, because he must bless[n] the sacrifice; afterward, those who are invited will eat. Go up now; you should find him about this time." 14 They went up to the town, and as they were entering it, there was Samuel, coming toward them on his way up to the high place.
15 Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed this to Samuel: 16 "About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint[o] him leader[p] over my people Israel; he will deliver[q] my people from the hand of the Philistines.[r] I have looked upon my people, for their cry[s] has reached me." 17 When Samuel caught sight of Saul, the LORD said to him, "This[t] is the man I spoke to you about; he will govern my
people." 18 Saul approached Samuel in the gateway and asked, "Would you please tell me where the seer's house is?"
19 "I am the seer," Samuel replied.
"Go up ahead of me to the high place, for today you are to eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart. 20 As for the donkeys[u] you lost three days ago, do not worry about them; they have been found. And to whom is all the desire[v] of Israel turned, if not to you and all your father's family?" 21 Saul answered, "But am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest tribe[w] of Israel, and is not my clan the least[x] of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin?[y] Why do you say such a thing to me?" 22 Then Samuel brought Saul and his servant into the hall and seated them at the head of those who were invited—about thirty in number. 23 Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the piece of meat I gave you, the one I told you to lay aside." 24 So the cook took up the leg[z] with what was on it and set it in front of Saul. Samuel said, "Here is what has been kept for you. Eat, because it was set aside for you for this occasion, from the time I said, 'I have invited guests.'" And Saul dined with Samuel that day.
25 After they came down from the high place to the town, Samuel talked with Saul on the roof[a] of his house.
26 They rose about daybreak and Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Get ready, and I will send you on your way." When Saul got ready, he and Samuel went outside together. 27 As they were going down to the edge of the town, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us"—and the servant did so—"but you stay here awhile, so that I may give you a message from God."

10 Then Samuel took a flask[b] of oil and poured it on Saul's head and kissed him, saying, "Has not the LORD anointed[c] you leader over his inheri-will meet you there. One will be carrying three young goats, another three loaves of bread, and another a skin of wine. 4 They will greet you and offer you two loaves of bread,[f] which you will accept from them.

5 "After that you will go to Gibeah[g] of God, where there is a Philistine outpost.[h] As you approach the town, you will meet a procession of prophets[i] coming down from the high place[j] with lyres, tambourines,[k] flutes[l] and harps[m] being played before them, and they will be prophesying.[n] 6 The Spirit[o] of the LORD will come upon you in power, and you will prophesy with them; and you will be changed[p] into a different person. 7 Once these signs are fulfilled, do whatever[q] your hand[r] finds to do, for God is with[s] you.
8 "Go down ahead of me to Gilgal.[t] I will surely come down to you to sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings,[d8] but you must wait seven[u] days until I come to you and tell you what you are to do."

Saul Made King

9 As Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed[v] Saul's heart, and all these signs[w] were fulfilled[x] that day.
10 When they arrived at Gibeah, a procession of prophets met him; the Spirit[y] of God came upon him in power, and he joined in their prophe-sying.[z] 11 When all those who had formerly known him saw him prophesying with the prophets, they asked each other, "What is this[a] that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"[b] 12 A man who lived there answered, "And who is their father?" So it became a saying: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"[c] 13 After Saul stopped prophesying,[d] he went to the high place.
14 Now Saul's uncle[e] asked him and his servant, "Where have you been?"
"Looking for the donkeys,[f]" he said. "But when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel." 15 Saul's uncle said, "Tell me what Samuel said to you." 16 Saul replied, "He assured us that the donkeys[g] had been found." But he did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said about the kingship.
17 Samuel summoned the people of Israel to the LORD at Mizpah[h] 18 and said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I brought Israel up out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the power of Egypt and all the kingdoms that oppressed[i] you.' 19 But you have now rejected[j] your God, who saves[k] you out of all your calamities and distresses. And you have said, 'No, set a king[l] over us.'[m] So now present[n] yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and clans." 20 When Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen. 21 Then he brought forward the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, and Matri's clan was chosen.[o] Finally Saul son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for him, he was not to be found. 22 So they inquired[p] further of the LORD, "Has the man come here yet?"
And the LORD said, "Yes, he has hidden himself among the baggage." 23 They ran and brought him out, and as he stood among the people he was a head taller[q] than any of the others.
24 Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the man the LORD has chosen?[r] There is no one like[s] him among all the people."
Then the people shouted, "Long live[t] the king!" 25 Samuel explained[u] to the people the regulations[v] of the kingship.[w] He wrote them down on a scroll and deposited it before the LORD. Then Samuel dismissed the people, each to his own home.
26 Saul also went to his home in Gibe-ah,[x] accompanied by valiant men[y] whose hearts God had touched. 27 But some troublemakers[z] said, "How can this fellow save us?" They despised him and brought him no gifts.[a] But Saul kept silent.

Saul Rescues the City of Jabesh

11 Nahash[a] the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh Gilead.[b] And all the men of Jabesh said to him, "Make a treaty[c] with us, and we will be subject to you." 2 But Nahash the Ammonite replied, "I will make a treaty with you only on the condition[d] that I gouge[e] out the right eye of every one of you and so bring disgrace[f] on all Israel." 3 The elders[g] of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days so we can send messengers throughout Israel; if no one comes to rescue[h] us, we will surrender[i] to you." 4 When the messengers came to Gibe-ah[j] of Saul and reported these terms to the people, they all wept[k] aloud. 5 Just then Saul was returning from the fields, behind his oxen, and he asked, "What is wrong with the people? Why are they weeping?" Then they repeated to him what the men of Jabesh had said.
6 When Saul heard their words, the Spirit[l] of God came upon him in power, and he burned with anger. 7 He took a pair of oxen,[m] cut them into pieces, and sent the pieces by messengers throughout Israel,[n] proclaiming, "This is what will be done to the oxen of anyone[o] who does not follow Saul and Samuel." Then the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they turned out as one man.[p] 8 When Saul mustered[q] them at Bezek,[r] the men of Israel numbered three hundred thousand and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
9 They told the messengers who had come, "Say to the men of Jabesh Gilead, 'By the time the sun is hot tomorrow, you will be delivered.'" When the messengers went and reported this to the men of Jabesh, they were elated.
10 They said to the Ammonites, "Tomorrow we will surrender[s] to you, and you can do to us whatever seems good
to you." 11 The next day Saul separated his men into three divisions;[t] during the last watch of the night they broke into the camp of the Ammonites[u] and slaughtered them until the heat of the day. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

Saul Confirmed as King

12 The people then said to Samuel, "Who[v] was it that asked, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring these men to us and we will put them to death." 13 But Saul said, "No one shall be put to death today,[w] for this day the LORD has rescued[x] Israel." 14 Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal[y] and there reaffirm the kingship."[z] 15 So all the people went to Gilgal[a] and confirmed Saul as king[b] in the presence of the LORD. There they sacrificed fellowship offerings[c] before the LORD, and Saul and all the Israelites held a great celebration.

Samuel's Farewell Speech

12 Samuel said to all Israel, "I have listened[c] to everything you said to me and have set a king[d] over you.
2 Now you have a king as your leader.[e] As for me, I am old and gray, and my sons[f] are here with you. I have been your leader from my youth until this day. 3 Here I stand. Testify against me in the presence of the LORD and his anointed.[g] Whose ox have I taken?
Whose donkey[h] have I taken? Whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I accepted a bribe[i] to make me shut my eyes? If I have done[j] any of these, I will make it right."[k] 4 "You have not cheated or oppressed us," they replied. "You have not taken anything from anyone's hand." 5 Samuel said to them, "The LORD is witness[l] against you, and also his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything[m] in my hand."[n]
"He is witness," they said.
6 Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought[o] your forefathers up out of Egypt. 7 Now then, stand[p] here, because I am going to confront[q] you with evidence before the LORD as to all the righteous acts[r] performed by the LORD for you and your fathers.
8 "After Jacob[s] entered Egypt, they cried[t] to the LORD for help, and the LORD sent[u] Moses and Aaron, who brought your forefathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.
9 "But they forgot[v] the LORD their God; so he sold them[w] into the hand of Sisera,[x] the commander of the army of Hazor,[y] and into the hands of the Philistines[z] and the king of Moab,[a] who fought against them. 10 They cried[a] out to the LORD and said, 'We have sinned; we have forsaken[b] the LORD and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths.[c] But now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve you.' 11 Then the LORD sent Jerub-Baal,[f][d] Barak,[g][e] Jephthah[f] and Samuel,[h][g] and he delivered you from the hands of your enemies on every side, so that you lived securely.

12 "But when you saw that Nahash[h] king[i] of the Ammonites was moving against you, you said to me, 'No, we want a king to rule[j] over us'—even though the LORD your God was your king. 13 Now here is the king[k] you have chosen, the one you asked[l] for; see, the LORD has set a king over you. 14 If you fear[m] the LORD and serve and obey him and do not rebel[n] against his commands, and if both you and the king who reigns over you follow the LORD your God—good! 15 But if you do not obey the LORD, and if you rebel 16 "Now then, stand still[p] and see[q] vest[r] now? I will call[s] upon the LORD to send thunder[t] and rain.[u] And you will realize what an evil[v] thing you did in the eyes of the LORD when you asked for a king." 18 Then Samuel called upon the LORD,[w] and that same day the LORD sent thunder and rain. So all the people stood in awe[x] of the LORD and of Samuel.

19 The people all said to Samuel, "Pray[y] to the LORD your God for your servants so that we will not die,[z] for we have added to all our other sins the evil of asking for a king." 20 "Do not be afraid," Samuel replied.
"You have done all this evil;[a] yet do not turn away from the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. 21 Do not turn away after useless[b] idols.[c] They can do you no good, nor can they rescue you, because they are useless. 22 For the sake[d] of his great name[e] the LORD will not reject[f] his people, because the LORD was pleased to make[g] you his own. 23 As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by failing to pray[h] for you. And I will teach[i] you the way that is good and right. 24 But be sure to fear[j] the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart;[k] consider[l] what great[m] things he has done for you. 25 Yet if you persist[n] in doing evil, both you and your king[o] will be swept[p] away."

Samuel Rebukes Saul

13 Saul was [thirty][i] years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel [forty-][j] two years.[k] 2 Saul[k] chose three thousand men from Israel; two thousand[q] were with him at Micmash[r] and in the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah[s] in Benjamin.
The rest of the men he sent back to their homes.
3 Jonathan attacked the Philistine outpost[t] at Geba,[u] and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul had the trumpet[v] blown throughout the land and said, "Let the Hebrews hear!" 4 So all Israel heard the news: "Saul has attacked the Philistine outpost, and now Israel has become a stench[w] to the Philistines." And the people were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.
5 The Philistines assembled[x] to fight Israel, with three thousand[l] chariots, six thousand charioteers, and soldiers as numerous as the sand[y] on the seashore. They went up and camped at Micmash,[z] east of Beth Aven.[a] 6 When the men of Israel saw that their situation was critical and that their army was hard pressed, they hid[b] in caves and thickets, among the rocks, and in pits and cisterns.[c] 7 Some Hebrews even crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad[d] and Gilead.
Saul remained at Gilgal, and all the troops with him were quaking[e] with fear. 8 He waited seven[f] days, the time set by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and Saul's men began to scatter. 9 So he said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings.[m]" And Saul offered[g] up the burnt offering. 10 Just as he finished making the offering, Samuel[h] arrived, and Saul went out to greet[i] him.

[11]"What have you done?" asked Samuel.
Saul replied, "When I saw that the men were scattering, and that you did not come at the set time, and that the Philistines were assembling at Mic-mash,[d] [12]I thought, 'Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal,[e] and I have not sought the LORD's favor.[f]' So I felt compelled to offer the burnt offering."
[13]"You acted foolishly,[g]" Samuel said. "You have not kept[h] the command the LORD your God gave you; if you had, he would have established your kingdom over Israel for all time.[i] [14]But now your kingdom[j] will not endure; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart[k] and appointed[l] him leader[m] of his people, because you have not kept[n] the LORD's command." [15]Then Samuel left Gilgal[n] and went up to Gibeah[p] in Benjamin, and Saul counted the men who were with him.
They numbered about six hundred.[q]

Israel Without Weapons

[16]Saul and his son Jonathan and the men with them were staying in Gibe-ah[o][r] in Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Micmash. [17]Raiding[s] parties went out from the Philistine camp in three detachments. One turned toward Ophrah[t] in the vicinity of Shual, [18]another toward Beth Horon,[u] and the third toward the borderland overlooking the Valley of Zeboim[v] facing the desert.
[19]Not a blacksmith[w] could be found in the whole land of Israel, because the Philistines had said, "Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears![x]" [20]So all Israel went down to the Philistines to have their plowshares, mattocks, axes and sickles[p] sharpened. [21]The price was two thirds of a shekel[q] for sharpening plowshares and mattocks, and a third of a shekel[r] for sharpening forks and axes and for repointing goads.
[22]So on the day of the battle not a soldier with Saul and Jonathan[y] had a sword or spear[z] in his hand; only Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

Jonathan Attacks the Philistines

[23]Now a detachment of Philistines had gone out to the pass[a] at Mic-mash.[b] 14 [1]One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man bearing his armor, "Come, let's go over to the Philistine outpost on the other side." But he did not tell his father.
[2]Saul was staying[y] on the outskirts of Gibeah[z] under a pomegranate tree[a] in Migron.[b] With him were about six hundred men, [3]among whom was Ahi-jah, who was wearing an ephod. He was a son of Ichabod's[c] brother Ahitub[d] son of Phinehas, the son of Eli,[e] the LORD's priest in Shiloh.[f] No one was aware that Jonathan had left.
[4]On each side of the pass[g] that Jonathan intended to cross to reach the Philistine outpost was a cliff; one was called Bozez, and the other Seneh.
[5]One cliff stood to the north toward Micmash, the other to the south toward Geba.[h] [6]Jonathan said to his young armor-bearer, "Come, let's go over to the outpost of those uncircumcised[i] fellows.
Perhaps the LORD will act in our behalf.
Nothing[j] can hinder the LORD from saving, whether by many[k] or by few.[l]" [7]"Do all that you have in mind," his armor-bearer said. "Go ahead; I am with you heart and soul." [8]Jonathan said, "Come, then; we will cross over toward the men and let them see us. [9]If they say to us, 'Wait there until we come to you,' we will stay where we are and not go up to them. [10]But if they say, 'Come up to us,' we will climb up, because that will be our sign[m] that the LORD has given them into our hands.[n]" [11]So both of them showed themselves to the Philistine outpost.
"Look!" said the Philistines. "The Hebrews[o] are crawling out of the holes they were hiding[p] in." [12]The men of the outpost shouted to Jonathan and his armor-bearer, "Come up to us and we'll teach you a lesson.[q]" So Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Climb up after me; the LORD has given them into the hand[r] of Israel." [13]Jonathan climbed up, using his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer right behind him. The Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer followed and killed behind him. [14]In that first attack Jonathan and his armor-bearer killed some twenty men in an area of about half an acre.[s]

Israel Routs the Philistines

15Then panic[a] struck the whole army—those in the camp and field, and those in the outposts and raiding[b] parties—and the ground shook. It was a panic sent by God.[t]

16Saul's lookouts[c] at Gibeah of Benjamin saw the army melting away in all directions. 17Then Saul said to the men who were with him, "Muster the forces and see who has left us." When they did, it was Jonathan and his armor-bearer who were not there.

18Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring[d] the ark[e] of God." (At that time it was with the Israelites.)[u] 19While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the Philistine camp increased more and more. So Saul said to the priest,[f] "Withdraw your hand."

20Then Saul and all his men assembled and went to the battle. They found the Philistines in total confusion, striking[g] each other with their swords. 21Those Hebrews who had previously been with the Philistines and had gone up with them to their camp went[h] over to the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. 22When all the Israelites who had hidden[i] in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were on the run, they joined the battle in hot pursuit. 23So the LORD rescued[j] Israel that day, and the battle moved on beyond Beth Aven.[k]

Jonathan Eats Honey

24Now the men of Israel were in distress that day, because Saul had bound the people under an oath,[l] saying, "Cursed be any man who eats food before evening comes, before I have avenged myself on my enemies!" So none of the troops tasted food.

25The entire army[v] entered the woods, and there was honey on the ground. 26When they went into the woods, they saw the honey oozing out, yet no one put his hand to his mouth, because they feared the oath. 27But Jonathan had not heard that his father had bound the people with the oath, so he reached out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb.[m] He raised his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.[w] 28Then one of the soldiers told him, "Your father bound the army under a strict oath, saying, 'Cursed be any man who eats food today!' That is why the men are faint."

29Jonathan said, "My father has made trouble[n] for the country. See how my eyes brightened[x] when I tasted a little of this honey. 30How much better it would have been if the men had eaten today some of the plunder they took from their enemies. Would not the slaughter of the Philistines have been even greater?"

31That day, after the Israelites had struck down the Philistines from Micmash[o] to Aijalon,[p] they were exhausted. 32They pounced on the plunder[q] and, taking sheep, cattle and calves, they butchered them on the ground and ate them, together with the blood.[r] 33Then someone said to Saul, "Look, the men are sinning against the LORD by eating meat that has blood[s] in it."

"You have broken faith," he said. "Roll a large stone over here at once." 34Then he said, "Go out among the men and tell them, 'Each of you bring me your cattle and sheep, and slaughter them here and eat them. Do not sin against the LORD by eating meat with blood still[t] in it.' "

So everyone brought his ox that night and slaughtered it there. 35Then Saul built an altar[u] to the LORD; it was the first time he had done this.

36Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them till dawn, and let us not leave one of them alive."

"Do whatever seems best to you," they replied.

But the priest said, "Let us inquire[v] of God here."

37So Saul asked God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into Israel's hand?" But God did not answer[w] him that day.

38Saul therefore said, "Come here, all you who are leaders of the army, and let us find out what sin has been committed[x] today. 39As surely as the LORD who rescues Israel lives,[y] even if it lies with my son Jonathan,[z] he must die."[a] But not one of the men said a word.

40Saul then said to all the Israelites,

"Do what seems best to you," the men replied.

41Then Saul prayed to the LORD, the God of Israel, "Give[a] me the right[b] answer."[y] And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, and the men were cleared. 42Saul said, "Cast the lot[c] between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.

43Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done."[d]

So Jonathan told him, "I merely tasted a little honey[e] with the end of my staff. And now must I die?"

44Saul said, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely,[f] if you do not die, Jonathan.[g]"

45But the men said to Saul, "Should Jonathan die—he who has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Never! As surely as the LORD lives, not a hair[h] of his head will fall to the ground, for he did this today with God's help." So the men rescued[i] Jonathan, and he was not put to death.

46Then Saul stopped pursuing the Philistines, and they withdrew to their own land.

47After Saul had assumed rule over Israel, he fought against their enemies on every side: Moab,[j] the Ammonites,[k] Edom,[l] the kings[z] of Zobah,[m] and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment on them.[a] 48He fought valiantly and defeated the Amalekites,[n] delivering Israel from the hands of those who had plundered them.

Saul's Family

49Saul's sons were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malki-Shua.[o] The name of his older daughter was Merab, and that of the younger was Michal.[p] 50His wife's name was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of Saul's army was Abner[q] son of Ner, and Ner was Saul's uncle.[r] 51Saul's father Kish[s] and Abner's father Ner were sons of Abiel.

52All the days of Saul there was bitter war with the Philistines, and whenever Saul saw a mighty or brave man, he took[t] him into his service.

The LORD Rejects Saul as King

15 Samuel said to Saul, "I am the one the LORD sent to anoint[u] you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the LORD. 2This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'I will punish the Amalekites[v] for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt. 3Now go, attack the Amalekites and totally[w] destroy[b] everything that belongs to them. Do not spare them; put to death men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys.' "

4So Saul summoned the men and mustered them at Telaim—two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men from Judah. 5Saul went to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the ravine. 6Then he said to the Kenites,[x] "Go away, leave the Amalekites so that I do not destroy you along with them; for you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

7Then Saul attacked the Amalekites[y] all the way from Havilah to Shur,[z] to the east of Egypt. 8He took Agag[a] king of the Amalekites alive,[b] and all his people he totally destroyed with the sword. 9But Saul and the army spared[c] Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves[c] and lambs—everything that was good. These they were unwilling to destroy completely, but everything that was despised and weak they totally destroyed.

10Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel: 11"I am grieved[d] that I have made Saul king, because he has turned[e] away from me and has not carried out my instructions."[f] Samuel was troubled,[g] and he cried out to the LORD all that night.

12Early in the morning Samuel got up and went to meet Saul, but he was told, "Saul has gone to Carmel.[h] There he has set up a monument[i] in his own honor and has turned and gone on down to Gilgal."

13When Samuel reached him, Saul said, "The LORD bless you! I have carried out the LORD's instructions."

14But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears? What is this lowing of cattle that I hear?"

15:12 [h]Jos 15:55 [i]S Nu 32:42

[y]41 Hebrew; Septuagint "Why have you not answered your servant today? If the fault is in me or my son Jonathan, respond with Urim, but if the men of Israel are at fault, respond with Thummim." [z]47 Masoretic Text; Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint king [a]47 Hebrew; Septuagint he was victorious [b]3 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verses 8, 9, 15, 18, 20 and 21. [c]9 Or the grown bulls; the meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.

15Saul answered, "The soldiers brought them from the Amalekites; they spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice to the LORD your God, but we totally destroyed the rest." 16"Stop!" Samuel said to Saul. "Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night."
"Tell me," Saul replied.
17Samuel said, "Although you were once small[a] in your own eyes, did you not become the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel. 18And he sent you on a mission, saying, 'Go and completely destroy those wicked people, the Amalekites; make war on them until you have wiped them out.' 19Why did you not obey the LORD? Why did you pounce on the plunder[b] and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?" 20"But I did obey[c] the LORD," Saul said. "I went on the mission the LORD assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king. 21The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal." 22But Samuel replied:

"Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD?
To obey is better than sacrifice,[d] and to heed is better than the fat of rams.
23For rebellion is like the sin of divination,[e]
and arrogance like the evil of idolatry.
Because you have rejected[f] the word of the LORD,
he has rejected you as king."

24Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned.[g] I violated[h] the LORD's command and your instructions. I was afraid[i] of the people and so I gave in to them. 25Now I beg you, forgive[j] my sin and come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD." 26But Samuel said to him, "I will not go back with you. You have rejected[k] the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you as king over Israel!" 27As Samuel turned to leave, Saul caught hold of the hem of his robe,[l] and it tore.[m] 28Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn[n] the kingdom[o] of Israel from you today and has given it to one of your neighbors—to one better than you.[p] 29He who is the Glory of Israel does not lie[q] or change[r] his mind; for he is not a man, that he should change his mind." 30Saul replied, "I have sinned.[s] But please honor[t] me before the elders of my people and before Israel; come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God." 31So Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.
32Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag king of the Amalekites." Agag came to him confidently,[d] thinking, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."
33But Samuel said,

"As your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women."[u]

And Samuel put Agag to death before the LORD at Gilgal.
34Then Samuel left for Ramah,[v] but Saul went up to his home in Gibeah[w] of Saul. 35Until the day Samuel[x] died, he did not go to see Saul again, though Samuel mourned[y] for him. And the LORD was grieved[z] that he had made Saul king over Israel.

Samuel Anoints David

16 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn[a] for Saul, since I have rejected[b] him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil[c] and be on your way; I am sending you to Jesse[d] of Bethlehem. I have chosen[e] one of his sons to be king." 2But Samuel said, "How can I go?
Saul will hear about it and kill me." The LORD said, "Take a heifer with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.' 3Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show[f] you what to do. You are to anoint[g] for me the one I indicate."
4Samuel did what the LORD said.
When he arrived at Bethlehem,[h] the elders of the town trembled[i] when they met him. They asked, "Do you come in peace?[j]" 5Samuel replied, "Yes, in peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate[k] yourselves and come to the sacrifice with me." Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

[d]32 Or him trembling, yet

6When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab[a] and thought, "Surely the LORD's anointed stands here before the LORD." 7But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance,[b] but the LORD looks at the heart."[c] 8Then Jesse called Abinadab[d] and had him pass in front of Samuel. But Samuel said, "The LORD has not chosen this one either." 9Jesse then had Shammah[e] pass by, but Samuel said, "Nor has the LORD chosen this one." 10Jesse had seven of his sons pass before Samuel, but Samuel said to him, "The LORD has not chosen these." 11So he asked Jesse, "Are these all[f] the sons you have?"
"There is still the youngest," Jesse answered, "but he is tending the sheep."[g] Samuel said, "Send for him; we will not sit down[e] until he arrives." 12So he[h] sent and had him brought in. He was ruddy, with a fine appearance and handsome[i] features.
Then the LORD said, "Rise and anoint him; he is the one." 13So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed[j] him in the presence of his brothers, and from that day on the Spirit of the LORD[k] came upon David in power.[l] Samuel then went to Ramah.

David in Saul's Service

14Now the Spirit of the LORD had departed[m] from Saul, and an evil[f] spirit[n] from the LORD tormented him.[o] 15Saul's attendants said to him, "See, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you. 16Let our lord command his servants here to search for someone who can play the harp.[p] He will play when the evil spirit from God comes upon you, and you will feel better." 17So Saul said to his attendants, "Find someone who plays well and bring him to me." 18One of the servants answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse[q] of Bethlehem who knows how to play the harp. He is a brave man and a warrior.[r] He speaks well and is a fine-looking man. And the LORD is with[s] him." 19Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.[t]" 20So Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread,[u] a skin of wine and a young goat and sent them with his son David to Saul.
21David came to Saul and entered his service.[v] Saul liked him very much, and David became one of his armor-bearers. 22Then Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, "Allow David to remain in my service, for I am pleased with him." 23Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit[w] would leave him.

David and Goliath

17 Now the Philistines gathered their forces for war and assembled[x] at Socoh in Judah. They pitched camp at Ephes Dammim, between Socoh[y] and Azekah.[z] 2Saul and the Israelites assembled and camped in the Valley of Elah[a] and drew up their battle line to meet the Philistines. 3The Philistines occupied one hill and the Israelites another, with the valley between them.
4A champion named Goliath,[b] who was from Gath, came out of the Philis-tine camp. He was over nine feet[g] tall.
5He had a bronze helmet on his head and wore a coat of scale armor of bronze weighing five thousand shekels[h]; 6on his legs he wore bronze greaves, and a bronze javelin[c] was slung on his back. 7His spear shaft was like a weaver's rod,[d] and its iron point weighed six hundred shekels.[i] His shield bearer[e] went ahead of him.
8Goliath stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why do you come out and line up for battle? Am I not a Phil-istine, and are you not the servants of Saul? Choose[f] a man and have him come down to me. 9If he is able to fight and kill me, we will become your subjects; but if I overcome him and kill him, you will become our subjects and serve us." 10Then the Philistine said, "This day I defy[g] the ranks of Israel!
Give me a man and let us fight each other.[h]" 11On hearing the Philistine's words, Saul and all the Israelites were dismayed and terrified.
12Now David was the son of an Ephrathite[i] named Jesse,[j] who was from Bethlehem[k] in Judah. Jesse had eight[l] sons, and in Saul's time he was old and well advanced in years. 13Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war: The firstborn was Eliab;[a] the second, Abinadab;[b] and the third, Shammah.[c] 14David was the youngest. The three oldest followed Saul, 15but David went back and forth from Saul to tend[d] his father's sheep[e] at Bethlehem.

16For forty days the Philistine came forward every morning and evening and took his stand.

17Now Jesse said to his son David, "Take this ephah[j][f] of roasted grain[g] and these ten loaves of bread for your brothers and hurry to their camp.
18Take along these ten cheeses to the commander of their unit.[k] See how your brothers[h] are and bring back some assurance[l] from them. 19They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines."

20Early in the morning David left the flock with a shepherd, loaded up and set out, as Jesse had directed. He reached the camp as the army was going out to its battle positions, shouting the war cry. 21Israel and the Philistines were drawing up their lines facing each other. 22David left his things with the keeper of supplies,[i] ran to the battle lines and greeted his brothers. 23As he was talking with them, Goliath, the Philistine champion from Gath, stepped out from his lines and shouted his usual[j] defiance, and David heard it. 24When the Israelites saw the man, they all ran from him in great fear.

25Now the Israelites had been saying, "Do you see how this man keeps coming out? He comes out to defy Israel.
The king will give great wealth to the man who kills him. He will also give him his daughter[k] in marriage and will exempt his father's family from taxes[l] in Israel."

26David asked the men standing near him, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes this disgrace[m] from Israel? Who is this uncircumcised[n] Philistine that he should defy[o] the armies of the living[p]

27They repeated to him what they had been saying and told him, "This is what will be done for the man who kills him."

28When Eliab, David's oldest brother, heard him speaking with the men, he burned with anger[q] at him and asked, "Why have you come down here? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle."

29"Now what have I done?" said David. "Can't I even speak?" 30He then turned away to someone else and brought up the same matter, and the men answered him as before. 31What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, and Saul sent for him.

32David said to Saul, "Let no one lose heart[r] on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him."

33Saul replied,[s] "You are not able to go out against this Philistine and fight him; you are only a boy, and he has been a fighting man from his youth."

34But David said to Saul, "Your servant has been keeping his father's sheep. When a lion[t] or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock, 35I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized[u] it by its hair, struck it and killed it. 36Your servant has killed both the lion[v] and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God. 37The LORD who delivered[w] me from the paw of the lion[x] and the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine."

Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with[y] you."

38Then Saul dressed David in his own[z] tunic. He put a coat of armor on him and a bronze helmet on his head.
39David fastened on his sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them.

"I cannot go in these," he said to Saul, "because I am not used to them." So he took them off. 40Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream, put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine.

41Meanwhile, the Philistine, with his shield bearer[a] in front of him, kept coming closer to David. 42He looked David over and saw that he was only a boy, ruddy and handsome,[b] and he despised[c] him. 43He said to David, "Am I a dog,[d] that you come at me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44"Come here," he said, "and I'll give your flesh to the birds of the air[a] and the beasts of the field![b]" 45David said to the Philistine, "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin,[c] but I come against you in the name[d] of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.[e] 46This day the LORD will hand[f] you over to me, and I'll strike you down and cut off your head. Today I will give the carcasses[g] of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and the whole world[h] will know that there is a God in Israel.[i] 47All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword[j] or spear that the LORD saves;[k] for the battle[l] is the LORD's, and he will give all of you into our hands." 48As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him. 49Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground.

50So David triumphed over the Phil-istine with a sling[m] and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him.
51David ran and stood over him. He took hold of the Philistine's sword and drew it from the scabbard. After he killed him, he cut[n] off his head with the sword.[o]
When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran.
52Then the men of Israel and Judah surged forward with a shout and pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gath[m] and to the gates of Ekron.[p] Their dead were strewn along the Shaaraim[q] road to Gath and Ekron.
53When the Israelites returned from chasing the Philistines, they plundered their camp. 54David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, and he put the Philistine's weapons in his own tent.
55As Saul watched David[r] going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, commander of the army, "Abner,[s] whose son is that young man?" Abner replied, "As surely as you live, O king, I don't know." 56The king said, "Find out whose son this young man is."
57As soon as David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with David still holding the Philistine's head.
58"Whose son are you, young man?"
Saul asked him.
David said, "I am the son of your servant Jesse[t] of Bethlehem."

Saul's Jealousy of David

18 After David had finished talking with Saul, Jonathan[u] became one in spirit with David, and he loved[v] him as himself.[w] 2From that day Saul kept David with him and did not let him return to his father's house. 3And Jonathan made a covenant[x] with David because he loved him as himself. 4Jona-than took off the robe[y] he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his tunic, and even his sword, his bow and his belt.[z] 5Whatever Saul sent him to do, David did it so successfully[n][a] that Saul gave him a high rank in the army.[b] This pleased all the people, and Saul's officers as well.
6When the men were returning home after David had killed the Philistine, the women came out from all the towns of Israel to meet King Saul with singing and dancing,[c] with joyful songs and with tambourines[d] and lutes. 7As they danced, they sang:[e]

"Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens[f] of thousands."

8Saul was very angry; this refrain galled him. "They have credited David with tens of thousands," he thought, "but me with only thousands. What more can he get but the kingdom?[g]" 9And from that time on Saul kept a jealous[h] eye on David.
10The next day an evil[o] spirit[i] from God came forcefully upon Saul. He was prophesying in his house, while David was playing the harp,[j] as he usually[k] did. Saul had a spear[l] in his hand 11and he hurled it, saying to himself,[m] "I'll pin David to the wall." But David eluded[n] him twice.[o] 12Saul was afraid[p] of David, because the LORD[q] was with[r] David but had left[s] Saul. 13So he sent David away from him and gave him command over a thousand men, and David led[t] the troops in their campaigns.[u] 14In everything he did he had great success,[p][v] because the LORD was with[w] him.

15When Saul saw how successful[q] he was, he was afraid of him. 16But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he led them in their campaigns.[a] 17Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter[b] Merab. I will give her to you in marriage;[c] only serve me bravely and fight the battles[d] of the LORD." For Saul said to himself,[e] "I will not raise a hand against him. Let the Philistines do that!"
18But David said to Saul, "Who am I,[f] and what is my family or my father's clan in Israel, that I should become the king's son-in-law?[g]" 19So[r] when the time came for Merab,[h] Saul's daughter, to be given to David, she was given in marriage to Adriel of Meholah.[i] 20Now Saul's daughter Michal[j] was in love with David, and when they told Saul about it, he was pleased.[k] 21"I will give her to him," he thought, "so that she may be a snare[l] to him and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." So Saul said to David, "Now you have a second opportunity to become my son-in-law." 22Then Saul ordered his attendants:
"Speak to David privately and say,
'Look, the king is pleased with you, and his attendants all like you; now become his son-in-law.' " 23They repeated these words to David. But David said, "Do you think it is a small matter to become the king's son-in-law?[m] I'm only a poor man and little known."
24When Saul's servants told him what David had said, 25Saul replied, "Say to David, 'The king wants no other price[n] for the bride than a hundred Philistine foreskins, to take revenge[o] on his enemies.' " Saul's plan[p] was to have David fall by the hands of the Philistines.
26When the attendants told David these things, he was pleased to become the king's son-in-law. So before the allotted time elapsed, 27David and his men went out and killed two hundred Philistines. He brought their foreskins and presented the full number to the king so that he might become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him his daughter Michal[q] in marriage.
28When Saul realized that the LORD was with David and that his daughter Michal[r] loved David, 29Saul became still more afraid[s] of him, and he remained his enemy the rest of his days.
30The Philistine commanders continued to go out to battle, and as often as they did, David met with more success[s][t] than the rest of Saul's officers, and his name became well known.

Saul Tries to Kill David 19 Saul told his son Jonathan[u] and all the attendants to kill[v] David.

But Jonathan was very fond of David 2and warned him, "My father Saul is looking for a chance to kill you. Be on your guard tomorrow morning; go into hiding[w] and stay there. 3I will go out and stand with my father in the field where you are. I'll speak[x] to him about you and will tell you what I find out." 4Jonathan spoke[y] well of David to Saul his father and said to him, "Let not the king do wrong[z] to his servant David; he has not wronged you, and what he has done has benefited you greatly. 5He took his life[a] in his hands when he killed the Philistine. The LORD won a great victory[b] for all Israel, and you saw it and were glad. Why then would you do wrong to an innocent[c] man like David by killing him for no reason?" 6Saul listened to Jonathan and took this oath: "As surely as the LORD lives, David will not be put to death." 7So Jonathan called David and told him the whole conversation. He brought him to Saul, and David was with Saul as before.[d] 8Once more war broke out, and David went out and fought the Philistines. He struck them with such force that they fled before him.
9But an evil[t] spirit[e] from the LORD came upon Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand.
While David was playing the harp,[f] 10Saul tried to pin him to the wall with his spear, but David eluded[g] him as Saul drove the spear into the wall. That night David made good his escape.
11Saul sent men to David's house to watch[h] it and to kill him in the morning.[i] But Michal, David's wife, warned him, "If you don't run for your life tonight, tomorrow you'll be killed." 12So Michal let David down through a window,[j] and he fled and escaped. 13Then Michal took an idol[u][k] and laid it on the bed, covering it with a garment and putting some goats' hair at the head.
14When Saul sent the men to capture David, Michal said,[l] "He is ill."

15Then Saul sent the men back to see David and told them, "Bring him up to me in his bed so that I may kill him." 16But when the men entered, there was the idol in the bed, and at the head was some goats' hair.
17Saul said to Michal, "Why did you deceive me like this and send my enemy away so that he escaped?" Michal told him, "He said to me, 'Let me get away. Why should I kill you?' " 18When David had fled and made his escape, he went to Samuel at Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there. 19Word came to Saul: "David is in Naioth at Ramah"; 20so he sent men to capture him. But when they saw a group of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing there as their leader, the Spirit of God came upon Saul's men and they also prophesied. 21Saul was told about it, and he sent more men, and they prophesied too. Saul sent men a third time, and they also prophesied. 22Finally, he himself left for Ramah and went to the great cistern at Secu. And he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?"
"Over in Naioth at Ramah," they
said.
23So Saul went to Naioth at Ramah.
But the Spirit of God came even upon him, and he walked along prophesying until he came to Naioth. 24He stripped off his robes and also prophesied in Samuel's presence. He lay that way all that day and night. This is why people say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

David and Jonathan

20 Then David fled from Naioth at Ramah and went to Jonathan and asked, "What have I done? What is my crime? How have I wronged your father, that he is trying to take my life?" 2"Never!" Jonathan replied. "You are not going to die! Look, my father doesn't do anything, great or small, without confiding in me. Why would he hide this from me? It's not so!" 3But David took an oath and said, "Your father knows very well that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said to himself, 'Jonathan must not know this or he will be grieved.' Yet as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, there is only a step between me and death."

4Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you want me to do, I'll do for you." 5So David said, "Look, tomorrow is the New Moon festival,[l] and I am supposed to dine with the king; but let me go and hide[m] in the field until the evening of the day after tomorrow. 6If your father misses me at all, tell him, 'David earnestly asked my permission[n] to hurry to Bethlehem,[o] his hometown, because an annual[p] sacrifice is being made there for his whole clan.' 7If he says, 'Very well,' then your servant is safe. But if he loses his temper,[q] you can be sure that he is determined[r] to harm me. 8As for you, show kindness to your servant, for you have brought him into a covenant[s] with you before the LORD. If I am guilty, then kill[t] me yourself! Why hand me over to your father?" 9"Never!" Jonathan said. "If I had the least inkling that my father was determined to harm you, wouldn't I tell
you?" 10David asked, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?" 11"Come," Jonathan said, "let's go out into the field." So they went there together.
12Then Jonathan said to David: "By the LORD, the God of Israel, I will surely sound[u] out my father by this time the day after tomorrow! If he is favorably disposed toward you, will I not send you word and let you know? 13But if my father is inclined to harm you, may the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely,[v] if I do not let you know and send you away safely. May the LORD be with[w] you as he has been with my father. 14But show me unfailing kindness[x] like that of the LORD as long as I live, so that I may not be killed, 15and do not ever cut off your kindness from my family[y]—not even when the LORD has cut off every one of David's enemies from the face of the earth." 16So Jonathan[z] made a covenant[a] with the house of David, saying, "May the LORD call David's enemies to account.[b]" 17And Jonathan had David reaffirm his oath[c] out of love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself.
18Then Jonathan said to David: "Tomorrow is the New Moon festival. You will be missed, because your seat will be empty.[d] 19The day after tomorrow, toward evening, go to the place where you hid[e] when this trouble began, and wait by the stone Ezel. 20I will shoot three arrows[a] to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target.

21 Then I will send a boy and say, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to him, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; bring them here,' then come, because, as surely as the LORD lives, you are safe; there is no danger. 22 But if I say to the boy, 'Look, the arrows are beyond[b] you,' then you must go, because the LORD has sent you away. 23 And about the matter you and I discussed—remember, the LORD is witness[c] between you and me forever." 24 So David hid in the field, and when the New Moon festival[d] came, the king sat down to eat. 25 He sat in his customary place by the wall, opposite Jonathan,[v] and Abner sat next to Saul, but David's place was empty.[e] 26 Saul said nothing that day, for he thought, "Something must have happened to David to make him ceremonially unclean—surely he is unclean.[f]" 27 But the next day, the second day of the month, David's place was empty again.
Then Saul said to his son Jonathan, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse come to the meal, either yesterday or today?" 28 Jonathan answered, "David earnestly asked me for permission[g] to go to Bethlehem. 29 He said, 'Let me go, because our family is observing a sacrifice[h] in the town and my brother has ordered me to be there. If I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away to see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the king's table." 30 Saul's anger flared up at Jonathan and he said to him, "You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Don't I know that you have sided with the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who bore you?
31 As long as the son of Jesse lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom[i] will be established. Now send and bring him to me, for he must die!" 32 "Why[j] should he be put to death?
What[k] has he done?" Jonathan asked his father. 33 But Saul hurled his spear at him to kill him. Then Jonathan knew that his father intended[l] to kill David.
34 Jonathan got up from the table in fierce anger; on that second day of the month he did not eat, because he was grieved at his father's shameful treatment of David.
35 In the morning Jonathan went out to the field for his meeting with David.
He had a small boy with him, 36 and he said to the boy, "Run and find the arrows I shoot." As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. 37 When the boy came to the place where Jonathan's arrow had fallen, Jonathan called out after him, "Isn't the arrow beyond[m] you?" 38 Then he shouted, "Hurry! Go quickly! Don't stop!" The boy picked up the arrow and returned to his master. 39 (The boy knew nothing of all this; only Jonathan and David knew.) 40 Then Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy and said, "Go, carry them back to town." 41 After the boy had gone, David got up from the south side of the stone and bowed down before Jonathan three times, with his face to the ground.[n] Then they kissed each other and wept together—but David wept the most.
42 Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace,[o] for we have sworn friendship[p] with each other in the name of the LORD,[q] saying, 'The LORD is witness[r] between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants forever.[s]' " Then David left, and Jonathan went back to the town.

David at Nob

21 David went to Nob,[t] to Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech trembled[u] when he met him, and asked, "Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?"
2 David answered Ahimelech the priest, "The king charged me with a certain matter and said to me, 'No one is to know anything about your mission and your instructions.' As for my men, I have told them to meet me at a certain place. 3 Now then, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever you can find." 4 But the priest answered David, "I don't have any ordinary bread[v] on hand; however, there is some consecrated[w] bread here—provided the men have kept[x] themselves from women." 5 David replied, "Indeed women have been kept from us, as usual[y] whenever[w] I set out. The men's things[x] are holy[z] even on missions that are not holy. How much more so today!" 6 So the priest gave him the consecrated bread,[a] since there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence that had been removed from before the LORD and replaced by hot [7]Now one of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before the LORD; he was Doeg[a] the Edomite,[b] Saul's head shepherd.

[8]David asked Ahimelech, "Don't you have a spear or a sword here? I haven't brought my sword or any other weapon, because the king's business was urgent." [9]The priest replied, "The sword[c] of Goliath[d] the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah,[e] is here; it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want it, take it; there is no sword here but that one." David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

David at Gath

[10]That day David fled from Saul and went[f] to Achish king of Gath. [11]But the servants of Achish said to him, "Isn't this David, the king of the land? Isn't he the one they sing about in their dances:

" 'Saul has slain his thousands,
and David his tens of thousands'?"[g]

[12]David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of Achish king of Gath. [13]So he pretended to be insane[h] in their presence; and while he was in their hands he acted like a madman, making marks on the doors of the gate and letting saliva run down his beard.
[14]Achish said to his servants, "Look at the man! He is insane! Why bring him to me? [15]Am I so short of madmen that you have to bring this fellow here to carry on like this in front of me?
Must this man come into my house?"

David at Adullam and Mizpah

22 David left Gath and escaped to the cave[i] of Adullam.[j] When his brothers and his father's household heard about it, they went down to him there. [2]All those who were in distress or in debt or discontented gathered[k] around him, and he became their leader. About four hundred men were with him.
[3]From there David went to Mizpah in Moab and said to the king of Moab, "Would you let my father and mother come and stay with you until I learn what God will do for me?" [4]So he left them with the king of Moab,[l] and they stayed with him as long as David was in the stronghold.
[5]But the prophet Gad[m] said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold. Go into the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.[n]

Saul Kills the Priests of Nob

[6]Now Saul heard that David and his men had been discovered. And Saul, spear in hand, was seated[o] under the tamarisk[p] tree on the hill at Gibeah, with all his officials standing around him. [7]Saul said to them, "Listen, men of Benjamin! Will the son of Jesse give all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make all of you commanders[q] of thousands and commanders of hundreds?
[8]Is that why you have all conspired[r] against me? No one tells me when my son makes a covenant[s] with the son of Jesse.[t] None of you is concerned[u] about me or tells me that my son has incited my servant to lie in wait for me, as he does today." [9]But Doeg[v] the Edomite, who was standing with Saul's officials, said, "I saw the son of Jesse come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub[w] at Nob.[x] [10]Ahimelech inquired[y] of the LORD for him; he also gave him provisions[z] and the sword[a] of Goliath the Philistine." [11]Then the king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and his father's whole family, who were the priests at Nob, and they all came to the king. [12]Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub."
"Yes, my lord," he answered.
[13]Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired[b] against me, you and the son of Jesse, giving him bread and a sword and inquiring of God for him, so that he has rebelled against me and lies in wait for me, as he does today?" [14]Ahimelech answered the king, "Who[c] of all your servants is as loyal as David, the king's son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard and highly respected in your household? [15]Was that day the first time I inquired of God for him?
Of course not! Let not the king accuse your servant or any of his father's family, for your servant knows nothing at all about this whole affair." [16]But the king said, "You will surely die, Ahimelech, you and your father's whole family.[d]" [17]Then the king ordered the guards at his side: "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because they too have sided with David. They knew he was fleeing, yet they did not tell me." But the king's officials were not willing to raise a hand to strike the priests of the LORD.

[18]The king then ordered Doeg, "You turn and strike down the priests." So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck them down. That day he killed eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.
[19]He also put to the sword Nob, the town of the priests, with its men and women, its children and infants, and its cattle, donkeys and sheep.
[20]But Abiathar, a son of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, escaped and fled to join David. [21]He told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.
[22]Then David said to Abiathar: "That day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, I knew he would be sure to tell Saul. I am responsible for the death of your father's whole family. [23]Stay with me; don't be afraid; the man who is seeking your life is seeking mine also.
You will be safe with me."

David Saves Keilah

23 When David was told, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah[x] and are looting the threshing floors," [2]he inquired[m] of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?"
The LORD answered him, "Go, attack the Philistines and save Keilah." [3]But David's men said to him, "Here in Judah we are afraid. How much more, then, if we go to Keilah against the Philistine forces!" [4]Once again David inquired[n] of the LORD, and the LORD answered him, "Go down to Keilah, for I am going to give the Philistines[o] into your hand.[p]" [5]So David and his men went to Keilah, fought the Philistines and carried off their livestock. He inflicted heavy losses on the Philistines and saved the people of Keilah. [6](Now Abiathar[q] son of Ahimelech had brought the ephod[r] down with him when he fled to David at Keilah.)

Saul Pursues David

[7]Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah, and he said, "God has handed him over[s] to me, for David has imprisoned himself by entering a town with gates and bars."[t] [8]And Saul called up all his forces for battle, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

[9]When David learned that Saul was plotting against him, he said to Abiathar[u] the priest, "Bring the ephod."[v] [10]David said, "O LORD, God of Israel, your servant has heard definitely that Saul plans to come to Keilah and destroy the town on account of me. [11]Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me to him? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O LORD, God of Israel, tell your servant."
And the LORD said, "He will." [12]Again David asked, "Will the citizens of Keilah surrender[w] me and my men to Saul?"
And the LORD said, "They will."
[13]So David and his men,[x] about six hundred in number, left Keilah and kept moving from place to place. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he did not go there.
[14]David stayed in the desert[y] strongholds and in the hills of the Desert of Ziph.[z] Day after day Saul searched[a] for him, but God did not[b] give David into his hands.
[15]While David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph, he learned that Saul had come out to take his life.[c] [16]And Saul's son Jonathan went to David at Horesh and helped him find strength[d] in God. [17]"Don't be afraid," he said.
"My father Saul will not lay a hand on you. You will be king[e] over Israel, and I will be second to you. Even my father Saul knows this." [18]The two of them made a covenant[f] before the LORD.
Then Jonathan went home, but David remained at Horesh.
[19]The Ziphites[g] went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is not David hiding among us[h] in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hakilah,[i] south of Jeshimon? [20]Now, O king, come down whenever it pleases you to do so, and we will be responsible for handing[j] him over to the king." [21]Saul replied, "The LORD bless[k] you for your concern[l] for me. [22]Go and make further preparation. Find out where David usually goes and who has seen him there. They tell me he is very crafty. [23]Find out about all the hiding places he uses and come back to me with definite information.[y] Then I will go with you; if he is in the area, I will track[m] him down among all the clans of Judah."
[24]So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men

[y]23 Or me at Nacon were in the Desert of Maon, in the Arabah south of Jeshimon. 25 Saul and his men began the search, and when David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Desert of Maon. When Saul heard this, he went into the Desert of Maon in pursuit of David.

26 Saul was going along one side of the mountain, and David and his men were on the other side, hurrying to get away from Saul. As Saul and his forces were closing in on David and his men to capture them, 27 a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Come quickly! The Philistines are raiding the land." 28 Then Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to meet the Philistines. That is why they call this place Sela Hammahlekoth.[a] 29 And David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

David Spares Saul's Life

24 After Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the Desert of En Gedi." 2 So Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and set out to look for David and his men near the Crags of the Wild Goats.

3 He came to the sheep pens along the way; a cave was there, and Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were far back in the cave. 4 The men said, "This is the day the LORD spoke of when he said[b] to you, 'I will give your enemy into your hands for you to deal with as you wish.'" Then David crept up unnoticed and cut off a corner of Saul's robe.

5 Afterward, David was conscience-stricken for having cut off a corner of his robe. 6 He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, the LORD's anoint-ed, or lift my hand against him; for he is the anointed of the LORD." 7 With these words David rebuked his men and did not allow them to attack Saul.
And Saul left the cave and went his way.

8 Then David went out of the cave and called out to Saul, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.
9 He said to Saul, "Why do you listen when men say, 'David is bent on harming you'? 10 This day you have seen with your own eyes how the LORD delivered you into my hands in the cave.
Some urged me to kill you, but I spared you; I said, 'I will not lift my hand against my master, because he is the LORD's anointed.' 11 See, my father, look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe but did not kill you. Now understand and recognize that I am not guilty of wrongdoing or rebellion. I have not wronged you, but you are hunting me down to take my life. 12 May the LORD judge between you and me. And may the LORD avenge the wrongs you have done to me, but my hand will not touch you. 13 As the old saying goes, 'From evildoers come evil deeds,' so my hand will not touch you.

14 "Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? A flea? 15 May the LORD be our judge and decide between us. May he consider my cause and uphold it; may he vindicate me by delivering me from your hand."

16 When David finished saying this, Saul asked, "Is that your voice, David my son?" And he wept aloud. 17 "You are more righteous than I," he said.
"You have treated me well, but I have treated you badly. 18 You have just now told me of the good you did to me; the LORD delivered me into your hands, but you did not kill me. 19 When a man finds his enemy, does he let him get away unharmed? May the LORD reward you well for the way you treated me today. 20 I know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hands.
21 Now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father's family."

22 So David gave his oath to Saul.
Then Saul returned home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

David, Nabal and Abigail

25 Now Samuel died, and all Israel assembled and mourned for him; and they buried him at his home in Ramah.

Then David moved down into the Desert of Maon.[c] 2 A certain man in Maon, who had property there at Carmel, was very wealthy. He had a thousand goats and three thousand sheep, which he was shearing in Carmel. 3His name was Nabal and his wife's name was Abigail.[a] She was an intelligent and beautiful woman, but her husband, a Calebite,[b] was surly and mean in his dealings.

4While David was in the desert, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep.
5So he sent ten young men and said to them, "Go up to Nabal at Carmel and greet him in my name. 6Say to him:
'Long life to you! Good health[c] to you and your household! And good health to all that is yours![d] 7" 'Now I hear that it is sheep-shearing time. When your shepherds were with us, we did not mistreat[e] them, and the whole time they were at Carmel nothing of theirs was missing.
8Ask your own servants and they will tell you. Therefore be favorable toward my young men, since we come at a festive time. Please give your servants and your son David whatever[f] you can find for them.' " 9When David's men arrived, they gave Nabal this message in David's name. Then they waited.
10Nabal answered David's servants, "Who[g] is this David? Who is this son of Jesse? Many servants are breaking away from their masters these days.
11Why should I take my bread[h] and water, and the meat I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men coming from who knows where?" 12David's men turned around and went back. When they arrived, they reported every word. 13David said to his men[i], "Put on your swords!" So they put on their swords, and David put on his. About four hundred men went[j] up with David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.[k] 14One of the servants told Nabal's wife Abigail: "David sent messengers from the desert to give our master his greetings,[l] but he hurled insults at them. 15Yet these men were very good to us. They did not mistreat[m] us, and the whole time we were out in the fields near them nothing was missing.[n] 16Night and day they were a wall[o] around us all the time we were herding our sheep near them. 17Now think it over and see what you can do, because disaster is hanging over our master and his whole household. He is such a wicked[p] man that no one can talk to him." 18Abigail lost no time. She took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five dressed sheep, five seahs[c] of roasted grain,[q] a hundred cakes of raisins[r] and two hundred cakes of pressed figs, and loaded them on donkeys.[s] 19Then she told her servants, "Go on ahead;[t] I'll follow you." But she did not tell[u] her husband Nabal.
20As she came riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, there were David and his men descending toward her, and she met them. 21David had just said, "It's been useless—all my watching over this fellow's property in the desert so that nothing of his was missing.[v] He has paid[w] me back evil[x] for good. 22May God deal with David,[d] be it ever so severely,[y] if by morning I leave alive one male[z] of all who belong to him!"
23When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey and bowed down before David with her face to the ground.[a] 24She fell at his feet and said:
"My lord, let the blame[b] be on me alone. Please let your servant speak to you; hear what your servant has to say.
25May my lord pay no attention to that wicked man Nabal. He is just like his name—his name is Fool[c],[d] and folly goes with him. But as for me, your servant, I did not see the men my master sent.
26"Now since the LORD has kept you, my master, from bloodshed[e] and from avenging[f] yourself with your own hands, as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, may your enemies and all who intend to harm my master be like Nabal.[g] 27And let this gift,[h] which your servant has brought to my master, be given to the men who follow you.
28Please forgive[i] your servant's offense, for the LORD will certainly make a lasting[j] dynasty for my master, because he fights the LORD's battles.[k] Let no wrongdoing[l] be found in you as long as you live. 29Even though someone is pursuing you to take your life,[m] the life of my master will be bound securely in the bundle of the living by the LORD your God. But the lives of your enemies he will hurl[n] away as from the pocket of a sling.[o] 30When the LORD has done for my master every good thing he promised concerning him and has appointed him leader[p] over Israel, 31my master will not have on his conscience the staggering burden of needless bloodshed or of having avenged himself. And when the LORD has be blessed for your good judgment and for keeping me from bloodshed[d] this day and from avenging myself with my the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, not one male belonging to Nabal[e] would have been left alive by daybreak." 35Then David accepted from her hand what she had brought him and said, "Go home in peace. I have heard your words and granted[f] your request." 36When Abigail went to Nabal, he was in the house holding a banquet like that of a king. He was in high[g] spirits and very drunk.[h] So she told[i] him nothing until daybreak. 37Then in the morning, when Nabal was sober, his wife told him all these things, and his heart failed him and he became like a stone.[j] 38About ten days later, the LORD struck[k] Nabal and he died.

39When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Praise be to the LORD, who has upheld my cause against Nabal for treating me with contempt. He has kept his servant from doing wrong and has brought Nabal's wrongdoing down on his own head." Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife. 40His servants went to Carmel and said to Abigail, "David has sent us to you to take you to become his wife." 41She bowed down with her face to the ground and said, "Here is your maidservant, ready to serve you and wash the feet of my master's servants." 42Abigail[l] quickly got on a donkey and, attended by her five maids, went with David's messengers and became his wife. 43David had also married Ahinoam[m] of Jezreel, and they both were his wives.[n] 44But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti-lim.[p]

men of Israel, to search[t] there for David. 3Saul made his camp beside the road on the hill of Hakilah[u] facing Je-shimon, but David stayed in the desert.
When he saw that Saul had followed him there, 4he sent out scouts and learned that Saul had definitely arrived.[b] 5Then David set out and went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw where Saul and Abner[v] son of Ner, the commander of the army, had lain down. Saul was lying inside the camp, with the army encamped around him.
6David then asked Ahimelech the Hittite[w] and Abishai[x] son of Zeruiah,[y] Joab's brother, "Who will go down into the camp with me to Saul?"
"I'll go with you," said Abishai.
7So David and Abishai went to the army by night, and there was Saul, lying asleep inside the camp with his spear stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the soldiers were lying around him.
8Abishai said to David, "Today God has delivered your enemy into your hands. Now let me pin him to the ground with one thrust of my spear; I won't strike him twice." 9But David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him! Who can lay a hand on the LORD's anointed[z] and be guiltless?[a] 10As surely as the LORD lives," he said, "the LORD himself will strike[b] him; either his time[c] will come and he will die,[d] or he will go into battle and perish. 11But the LORD forbid that I should lay a hand on the LORD's anointed.
Now get the spear and water jug that are near his head, and let's go." 12So David took the spear and water jug near Saul's head, and they left. No one saw or knew about it, nor did anyone wake up. They were all sleeping, because the LORD had put them into a deep sleep.[e] 13Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the hill some distance away; there was a wide space between them. 14He called out to the army and to Abner son of Ner, "Aren't you going to answer me, Abner?" Abner replied, "Who are you who calls to the king?" 15David said, "You're a man, aren't you? And who is like you in Israel?
Why didn't you guard your lord the not good. As surely as the LORD lives, you and your men deserve to die, because you did not guard your master, the LORD's anointed. Look around you.

Where are the king's spear and water jug that were near his head?" 17Saul recognized David's voice and said, "Is that your voice,[a] David my son?" David replied, "Yes it is, my lord the king." 18And he added, "Why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done, and what wrong[b] am I guilty of?
19Now let my lord the king listen[c] to his servant's words. If the LORD has incited you against me, then may he accept an offering.[d] If, however, men have done it, may they be cursed before the LORD! They have now driven me from my share in the LORD's inheritance[e] and have said, 'Go, serve other gods.'[f] 20Now do not let my blood[g] fall to the ground far from the presence of the LORD. The king of Israel has come out to look for a flea[h]—as one hunts a partridge in the mountains.[i]" 21Then Saul said, "I have sinned.[j] Come back, David my son. Because you considered my life precious[k] today, I will not try to harm you again.
Surely I have acted like a fool and have erred greatly." 22"Here is the king's spear," David answered. "Let one of your young men come over and get it. 23The LORD rewards[l] every man for his righteousness[m] and faithfulness. The LORD delivered[n] you into my hands today, but I would not lay a hand on the LORD's anointed. 24As surely as I valued your life today, so may the LORD value my life and deliver[o] me from all trouble." 25Then Saul said to David, "May you be blessed,[p] my son David; you will do great things and surely triumph." So David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

David Among the Philistines

27 But David thought to himself, "One of these days I will be destroyed by the hand of Saul. The best thing I can do is to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up searching for me anywhere in Israel, and I will slip out of his hand." 2So David and the six hundred men[q] with him left and went[r] over to Achish[s] son of Maoch king of Gath.

with Achish. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives:[t] Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, the widow of Nabal. 4When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him.
5Then David said to Achish, "If I have found favor in your eyes, let a place be assigned to me in one of the country towns, that I may live there.
Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?" 6So on that day Achish gave him Zik-lag,[u] and it has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since. 7David lived[v] in Philistine territory a year and four months.
8Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites,[w] the Gir-zites and the Amalekites.[x] (From ancient times these peoples had lived in the land extending to Shur[y] and Egypt.) 9Whenever David attacked an area, he did not leave a man or woman alive,[z] but took sheep and cattle, donkeys and camels, and clothes. Then he returned to Achish.
10When Achish asked, "Where did you go raiding today?" David would say, "Against the Negev of Judah" or "Against the Negev of Jerahmeel[a]" or "Against the Negev of the Kenites.[b]" 11He did not leave a man or woman alive to be brought to Gath, for he thought, "They might inform on us and say, 'This is what David did.'" And such was his practice as long as he lived in Philistine territory. 12Achish trusted David and said to himself, "He has become so odious[c] to his people, the Israelites, that he will be my servant forever.[d]"

Saul and the Witch of Endor

28 In those days the Philistines gathered[e] their forces to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, "You must understand that you and your men will accompany me in the army." 2David said, "Then you will see for yourself what your servant can do." Achish replied, "Very well, I will make you my bodyguard[f] for life." 3Now Samuel was dead,[g] and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in his own town of Ramah.[h] Saul had expelled[i] the mediums and spiritists[j] from the land.
4The Philistines assembled and came and set up camp at Shunem,[k] while Saul gathered all the Israelites and set up camp at Gilboa.[a] 5When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid; terror[b] filled his heart. 6He inquired[c] of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him by dreams[d] or Urim[e] or prophets.[f] 7Saul then said to his attendants, "Find me a woman who is a medium,[g] so I may go and inquire of her."

"There is one in Endor,[h]" they said.

8So Saul disguised[i] himself, putting on other clothes, and at night he and two men went to the woman. "Consult[j] a spirit for me," he said, "and bring up for me the one I name."

9But the woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done. He has cut off[k] the mediums and spiritists from the land. Why have you set a trap[l] for my life to bring about my death?"

10Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As surely as the LORD lives, you will not be punished for this."

11Then the woman asked, "Whom shall I bring up for you?"

"Bring up Samuel," he said.

12When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out at the top of her voice and said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me?[m] You are Saul!"

13The king said to her, "Don't be afraid. What do you see?"

The woman said, "I see a spirit[g] coming up out of the ground."[n]

14"What does he look like?" he asked.

"An old man wearing a robe[o] is coming up," she said.

Then Saul knew it was Samuel, and he bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

15Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?"

"I am in great distress," Saul said.
"The Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned[p] away from me. He no longer answers[q] me, either by prophets or by dreams.[r] So I have called on you to tell me what to do."

16Samuel said, "Why do you consult me, now that the LORD has turned away from you and become your enemy?
17The LORD has done what he predicted through me. The LORD has torn[s] the kingdom out of your hands and given it to one of your neighbors—to David.
18Because you did not obey[t] the LORD or carry out his fierce wrath[u] against the Amalekites,[v] the LORD has done this to you today. 19The LORD will hand over both Israel and you to the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons[w] will be with me. The LORD will also hand over the army of Israel to the Philistines."

20Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, filled with fear because of Samuel's words. His strength was gone, for he had eaten nothing all that day and night.

21When the woman came to Saul and saw that he was greatly shaken, she said, "Look, your maidservant has obeyed you. I took my life[x] in my hands and did what you told me to do.
22Now please listen to your servant and let me give you some food so you may eat and have the strength to go on your way."

23He refused[y] and said, "I will not eat."

But his men joined the woman in urging him, and he listened to them.
He got up from the ground and sat on the couch.

24The woman had a fattened calf[z] at the house, which she butchered at once. She took some flour, kneaded it and baked bread without yeast. 25Then she set it before Saul and his men, and they ate. That same night they got up and left.

Achish Sends David Back to Ziklag

29 The Philistines gathered[a] all their forces at Aphek,[b] and Israel camped by the spring in Jezreel.[c] 2As the Philistine rulers marched with their units of hundreds and thousands, David and his men were marching at the rear[d] with Achish. 3The commanders of the Philistines asked, "What about these Hebrews?"

Achish replied, "Is this not David,[e] who was an officer of Saul king of Israel? He has already been with me for over a year,[f] and from the day he left Saul until now, I have found no fault in him."

4But the Philistine commanders were angry with him and said, "Send[g] the man back, that he may return to the place you assigned him. He must not go with us into battle, or he will turn[h] against us during the fighting. How better could he regain his master's favor than by taking the heads of our own men? 5Isn't this the David they sang about in their dances:

" 'Saul has slain his thousands,
thousands'?"[i]

[g]13 Or see spirits; or see gods

6So Achish called David and said to him, "As surely as the LORD lives, you have been reliable, and I would be pleased to have you serve with me in the army. From the day[a] you came to me until now, I have found no fault in you, but the rulers[b] don't approve of you. 7Turn back and go in peace; do nothing to displease the Philistine rulers."
8"But what have I done?" asked David. "What have you found against your servant from the day I came to you until now? Why can't I go and fight against the enemies of my lord
the king?"
9Achish answered, "I know that you have been as pleasing in my eyes as an angel[c] of God; nevertheless, the Philis-tine commanders[d] have said, 'He must not go up with us into battle.' 10Now get up early, along with your master's servants who have come with you, and leave[e] in the morning as soon as it is light." 11So David and his men got up early in the morning to go back to the land of the Philistines, and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David Destroys the Amalekites

30 David and his men reached Zik-lag[f] on the third day. Now the Amalekites[g] had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burned[h] it, 2and had taken captive the women and all who were in it, both young and old. They killed none of them, but carried them off as they went on their way.
3When David and his men came to Ziklag, they found it destroyed by fire and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.[i] 4So David and his men wept[j] aloud until they had no strength left to weep. 5David's two wives[k] had been captured—Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel. 6David was greatly distressed because the men were talking of stoning[l] him; each one was bitter[m] in spirit because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength[n] in the LORD his God.
7Then David said to Abiathar[o] the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod.[p]" Abiathar brought it to him, 8and David inquired[q] of the LORD, "Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them?"
"Pursue them," he answered. "You will certainly overtake them and succeed[r] in the rescue.[s]" 9David and the six hundred men[t] with him came to the Besor Ravine, where some stayed behind, 10for two hundred men were too exhausted[u] to cross the ravine. But David and four hundred men continued the pursuit.
11They found an Egyptian in a field and brought him to David. They gave him water to drink and food to eat—12part of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins. He ate and was revived,[v] for he had not eaten any food or drunk any water for three days and three nights.
13David asked him, "To whom do you belong, and where do you come from?"
He said, "I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite.[w] My master abandoned me when I became ill three days ago. 14We raided the Negev of the Kerethites[x] and the territory belonging to Judah and the Negev of Caleb.[y] And we burned[z] Ziklag." 15David asked him, "Can you lead me down to this raiding party?" He answered, "Swear to me before God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master,[a] and I will take you down to them." 16He led David down, and there they were, scattered over the countryside, eating, drinking and reveling[b] because of the great amount of plunder[c] they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from Judah. 17David fought[d] them from dusk until the evening of the next day, and none of them got away, except four hundred young men who rode off on camels and fled.[e] 18David recovered[f] everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives. 19Nothing was missing: young or old, boy or girl, plunder or anything else they had taken. David brought everything back. 20He took all the flocks and herds, and his men drove them ahead of the other livestock, saying, "This is David's plunder." 21Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted[g] to follow him and who were left behind at the Besor Ravine. They came out to meet David and the people with him. As David and his men approached, he greeted them. 22But all the evil men and troublemakers among David's followers said, "Because they did not go out with us, we will not 23 David replied, "No, my brothers, you must not do that with what the LORD has given us. He has protected us and handed over to us the forces that came against us. 24 Who will listen to what you say? The share of the man who stayed with the supplies is to be the same as that of him who went down to the battle. All will share alike.[a]" 25 David made this a statute and ordinance for Israel from that day to this.

26 When David arrived in Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of Judah, who were his friends, saying, "Here is a present[b] for you from the plunder of the LORD's enemies." 27 He sent it to those who were in Bethel,[c] Ramoth[d] Negev and Jattir;[e] 28 to those in Aroer,[f] Siphmoth,[g] Esh-those in all the other places where David and his men had roamed.

Saul Takes His Life

31:1-13pp — 2Sa 1:4-12; 1Ch 10:1-12

31 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.[n] 2 The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons,[o] and they killed his sons Jonathan,[p] Abinadab and Malki-Shua.[q] 3 The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded[r] him critically.

4 Saul said to his armor-bearer,
"Draw your sword and run me through,[s] or these uncircumcised[t] fellows will come and run me through and abuse me."
But his armor-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it. 5 When the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died with him. 6 So Saul and his three sons and his armor-bearer and all his men died[u] together that same day.
7 When the Israelites along the valley and those across the Jordan saw that the Israelite army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.
8 The next day, when the Philistines[v] came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gil-boa. 9 They cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and they sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news[w] in the temple of their idols and among their people.[x] 10 They put his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths[y] and fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.[z]
11 When the people of Jabesh Gilead[a] heard of what the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 all their valiant men[b] journeyed through the night to Beth Shan.
They took down the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth Shan and went to Jabesh, where they burned[c] them. 13 Then they took their bones[d] and buried them under a tamarisk[e] tree at Jabesh, and they fasted[f] seven days.[g]

2 Samuel

David Hears of Saul's Death

1:4-12pp — 1Sa 31:1-13; 1Ch 10:1-12

1 After the death of Saul, David returned from defeating the Amal-ekites and stayed in Ziklag two days.
2 On the third day a man arrived from Saul's camp, with his clothes torn and with dust on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground to pay him honor.
3 "Where have you come from?" David asked him.
He answered, "I have escaped from the Israelite camp." 4 "What happened?" David asked.
"Tell me."
He said, "The men fled from the battle. Many of them fell and died.
And Saul and his son Jonathan are dead." 5 Then David said to the young man who brought him the report, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?" 6 "I happened to be on Mount Gil-boa," the young man said, "and there was Saul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and riders almost upon him. 7 When he turned around and saw me, he called out to me, and I said, 'What can I do?' 8 "He asked me, 'Who are you?'
"'An Amalekite,' I answered.
9 "Then he said to me, 'Stand over me and kill me! I am in the throes of death, but I'm still alive.' 10 "So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that after he had fallen he could not survive. And I took the crown that was on his head and the band on his arm and have brought them here to my lord." 11 Then David and all the men with him took hold of their clothes and tore them. 12 They mourned and wept and fasted till evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the army of the LORD and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.
13 David said to the young man who brought him the report, "Where are you from?"
"I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite," he answered.
14 David asked him, "Why were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?" 15 Then David called one of his men and said, "Go, strike him down!" So he struck him down, and he died.
16 For David had said to him, "Your blood be on your own head. Your own mouth testified against you when you said, 'I killed the LORD's anoint-ed.'"

David's Lament for Saul and Jonathan

17 David took up this lament concerning Saul and his son Jonathan, 18 and ordered that the men of Judah be taught this lament of the bow (it is written in the Book of Jashar):

19 "Your glory, O Israel, lies slain on your heights.
How the mighty have fallen!
20 "Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines be glad,
lest the daughters of the uncircumcised rejoice.
21 "O mountains of Gilboa, may you have neither dew nor rain, nor fields that yield offerings of grain.
For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul—no longer rubbed with oil.
22 From the blood of the slain, from the flesh of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn
back,
the sword of Saul did not return unsatisfied.
23 "Saul and Jonathan—in life they were loved and gracious, and in death they were not parted.

They were swifter than eagles,[a] they were stronger than lions.[b]

24 "O daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and finery, who adorned your garments with ornaments of gold.[c]

25 "How the mighty have fallen in battle!
Jonathan lies slain on your heights.
26 I grieve[d] for you, Jonathan[e] my brother;[f]
you were very dear to me.
Your love for me was wonderful,[g] more wonderful than that of women.

27 "How the mighty have fallen!
The weapons of war have perished!"[h]

David Anointed King Over Judah

2 In the course of time, David inquired[i] of the LORD. "Shall I go up to one of the towns of Judah?" he asked.
The LORD said, "Go up."
David asked, "Where shall I go?"
"To Hebron,"[j] the LORD answered.
2 So David went up there with his two wives,[k] Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail,[l] the widow of Nabal of Carmel. 3 David also took the men who were with him,[m] each with his family, and they settled in Hebron[n] and its towns. 4 Then the men of Judah came to Hebron[o] and there they anointed[p] David king over the house of Judah.
When David was told that it was the men of Jabesh Gilead[q] who had buried Saul, 5 he sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead to say to them, "The LORD bless[r] you for showing this kindness to Saul your master by burying him. 6 May the LORD now show you kindness and faithfulness,[s] and I too will show you the same favor because you have done this. 7 Now then, be strong[t] and brave, for Saul your master is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

War Between the Houses of David and Saul

8 Meanwhile, Abner[u] son of Ner, the commander of Saul's army, had taken Ish-Bosheth[v] son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.[w] 9 He made him king over Gilead,[x] Ashuri[a][y] and Jezreel, and also over Ephraim, Benjamin and all Israel.[z] 10 Ish-Bosheth son of Saul was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David. 11 The length of time David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.[a] 12 Abner son of Ner, together with the men of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon.[b] 13 Joab[c] son of Zeruiah and David's men went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. One group sat down on one side of the pool and one group on the other side.
14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let's have some of the young men get up and fight hand to hand in front of us."
"All right, let them do it," Joab said.
15 So they stood up and were counted off—twelve men for Benjamin and Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, and twelve for David. 16 Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his dagger[d] into his opponent's side, and they fell down together. So that place in Gibeon was called Helkath Hazzurim.[b] 17 The battle that day was very fierce, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated[e] by David's men.[f] 18 The three sons of Zeruiah[g] were there: Joab,[h] Abishai[i] and Asahel.[j] Now Asahel was as fleet-footed as a wild gazelle.[k] 19 He chased Abner, turning neither to the right nor to the left as he pursued him. 20 Abner looked behind him and asked, "Is that you, Asahel?"
"It is," he answered.
21 Then Abner said to him, "Turn aside to the right or to the left; take on one of the young men and strip him of his weapons." But Asahel would not stop chasing him.
22 Again Abner warned Asahel, "Stop chasing me! Why should I strike you down? How could I look your brother Joab in the face?"[l] 23 But Asahel refused to give up the pursuit; so Abner thrust the butt of his spear into Asahel's stomach,[m] and the spear came out through his back. He fell there and died on the spot. And every man stopped when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died.[a] 24But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and as the sun was setting, they came to the hill of Ammah, near Giah on the way to the wasteland of Gibeon.

25Then the men of Benjamin rallied behind Abner. They formed themselves into a group and took their stand on top of a hill.
26Abner called out to Joab, "Must the sword devour[b] forever? Don't you realize that this will end in bitterness?
How long before you order your men to stop pursuing their brothers?" 27Joab answered, "As surely as God lives, if you had not spoken, the men would have continued the pursuit of their brothers until morning.[c]" 28So Joab[c] blew the trumpet,[d] and all the men came to a halt; they no longer pursued Israel, nor did they fight anymore.
29All that night Abner and his men marched through the Arabah.[e] They crossed the Jordan, continued through the whole Bithron[d] and came to Maha-naim.[f] 30Then Joab returned from pursuing Abner and assembled all his men. Besides Asahel, nineteen of David's men were found missing. 31But David's men had killed three hundred and sixty Benjamites who were with Abner.
32They took Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb[g] at Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men marched all night and arrived at Hebron by daybreak.

3 The war between the house of Saul and the house of David lasted a long time.[h] David grew stronger and stronger,[i] while the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.[j] 2Sons were born to David in Hebron:
His firstborn was Amnon[k] the son of Ahinoam[l] of Jezreel; 3his second, Kileab the son of Abigail[m] the widow of Nabal of Carmel; the third, Absalom[n] the son of Maacah daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;[o] 4the fourth, Adonijah[p] the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; 5and the sixth, Ithream the son of David's wife Eglah.
These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Goes Over to David

6During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner[q] had been strengthening his own position in the house of Saul. 7Now Saul had had a concubine[r] named Rizpah[s] daughter of Aiah. And Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, "Why did you sleep with my father's concubine?" 8Abner was very angry because of what Ish-Bosheth said and he answered, "Am I a dog's head[t]—on Judah's side? This very day I am loyal to the house of your father Saul and to his family and friends. I haven't handed you over to David. Yet now you accuse me of an offense involving this woman! 9May God deal with Abner, be it ever so severely, if I do not do for David what the LORD promised[u] him on oath 10and transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and establish David's throne over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beersheba."[v] 11Ish-Bosheth did not dare to say another word to Abner, because he was afraid of him.
12Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to say to David, "Whose land is it? Make an agreement with me, and I will help you bring all Israel over to
you." 13"Good," said David. "I will make an agreement with you. But I demand one thing of you: Do not come into my presence unless you bring Michal daughter of Saul when you come to see me."[w] 14Then David sent messengers to Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, demanding, "Give me my wife Michal,[x] whom I betrothed to myself for the price of a hundred Philistine foreskins." 15So Ish-Bosheth gave orders and had her taken away from her husband[y] Paltiel[z] son of Laish. 16Her husband, however, went with her, weeping behind her all the way to Bahurim.[a] Then Abner said to him, "Go back home!"
So he went back.
17Abner conferred with the elders[b] of Israel and said, "For some time you have wanted to make David your king.
18Now do it! For the LORD promised David, 'By my servant David I will rescue my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines[c] and from the hand of all their enemies.[d]' "

[c]27 Or spoken this morning, the men would not have taken up the pursuit of their brothers; or spoken, the men would have given up the pursuit of their brothers by morning [d]29 Or morning; or ravine; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

19Abner also spoke to the Benjamites in person. Then he went to Hebron to tell David everything that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin[a] wanted to do. 20When Abner, who had twenty men with him, came to David at Hebron, David prepared a feast[b] for him and his men. 21Then Abner said to David, "Let me go at once and assemble all Israel for my lord the king, so that they may make a compact[c] with you, and that you may rule over all that your heart desires."[d] So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

22Just then David's men and Joab returned from a raid and brought with them a great deal of plunder. But Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, because David had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.
23When Joab and all the soldiers with him arrived, he was told that Abner son of Ner had come to the king and that the king had sent him away and that he had gone in peace.
24So Joab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why did you let him go?
Now he is gone! 25You know Abner son of Ner; he came to deceive you and observe your movements and find out everything you are doing." 26Joab then left David and sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it. 27Now when Abner[e] returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the gateway, as though to speak with him privately. And there, to avenge the blood of his brother Asahel, Joab stabbed him[f] in the stomach, and he died.[g] 28Later, when David heard about this, he said, "I and my kingdom are forever innocent[h] before the LORD concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner.
29May his blood[i] fall upon the head of Joab and upon all his father's house![j] May Joab's house never be without someone who has a running sore[k] or leprosy[e] or who leans on a crutch or who falls by the sword or who lacks food." 30(Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.) 31Then David said to Joab and all the people with him, "Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth[l] and walk in mourning[m] in front of Abner." King David himself walked behind the bier.
32They buried Abner in Hebron, and the king wept[n] aloud at Abner's tomb.
All the people wept also.
33The king sang this lament[o] for Abner:

"Should Abner have died as the lawless die?
34 Your hands were not bound, your feet were not fettered.[p] You fell as one falls before wicked men."

And all the people wept over him again.
35Then they all came and urged David to eat something while it was still day; but David took an oath, saying, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely,[q] if I taste bread[r] or anything else before the sun sets!" 36All the people took note and were pleased; indeed, everything the king did pleased them. 37So on that day all the people and all Israel knew that the king had no part[s] in the murder of Abner son of Ner.
38Then the king said to his men, "Do you not realize that a prince and a great man has fallen[t] in Israel this day?
39And today, though I am the anointed king, I am weak, and these sons of Zer-uiah[u] are too strong[v] for me.[w] May the LORD repay[x] the evildoer according to his evil deeds!"

Ish-Bosheth Murdered

4 When Ish-Bosheth son of Saul heard that Abner[y] had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel became alarmed. 2Now Saul's son had two men who were leaders of raiding bands. One was named Baanah and the other Recab; they were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite from the tribe of Benjamin—Beeroth[z] is considered part of Benjamin, 3because the people of Beeroth fled to Gittaim[a] and have lived there as aliens to this day.
4(Jonathan[b] son of Saul had a son who was lame in both feet. He was five years old when the news[c] about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but as she hurried to leave, he fell and became crippled.[d] His name was Mephibosheth.)[e] 5Now Recab and Baanah, the sons of e29 The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin—not necessarily leprosy.

Rimmon the Beerothite, set out for the house of Ish-Bosheth,[a] and they arrived there in the heat of the day while he was taking his noonday rest.[b] 6They went into the inner part of the house as if to get some wheat, and they stabbed[c] him in the stomach. Then Recab and his brother Baanah slipped away.
7They had gone into the house while he was lying on the bed in his bedroom. After they stabbed and killed him, they cut off his head. Taking it with them, they traveled all night by way of the Arabah.[d] 8They brought the head[e] of Ish-Bosheth to David at Hebron and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul,[f] your enemy, who tried to take your life. This day the LORD has avenged[g] my lord the king against Saul and his offspring." 9David answered Recab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered[h] me out of all trouble, 10when a man told me, 'Saul is dead,' and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and put him to death in Ziklag.[i] That was the reward I gave him for his news! 11How much more—when wicked men have killed an innocent man in his own house and on his own bed—should I not now demand his blood[j] from your hand and rid the earth of you!" 12So David gave an order to his men, and they killed them.[k] They cut off their hands and feet and hung the bodies by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in Abner's tomb at Hebron.

David Becomes King Over Israel

5:1-3pp — 1Ch 11:1-3

5 All the tribes of Israel[l] came to David at Hebron and said, "We are your own flesh and blood.[m] 2In the past, while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns.[n] And the LORD said[o] to you, 'You will shepherd[p] my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.[q]' " 3When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, the king made a compact[r] with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed[s] David king over Israel.
4David was thirty years old[t] when he became king, and he reigned[u] forty[v] years. 5In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months,[w] and in Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years.

David Conquers Jerusalem

5:6-10pp — 1Ch 11:4-9
5:11-16pp — 1Ch 3:5-9; 14:1-7

6The king and his men marched to Jerusalem[x] to attack the Jebusites,[y] who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, "You will not get in here; even the blind and the lame can ward you off." They thought, "David cannot get in here." 7Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion,[z] the City of David.[a] [b] 8On that day, David said, "Anyone who conquers the Jebusites will have to use the water shaft[f][c] to reach those 'lame and blind'[d] who are David's enemies.[g][e]" That is why they say, "The 'blind and lame' will not enter the palace." 9David then took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David.
He built up the area around it, from the supporting terraces[h][e] inward. 10And he became more and more powerful,[f] because the LORD God Almighty[g] was with him.[h] 11Now Hiram[i] king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs and carpenters and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David.
12And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom[j] for the sake of his people Israel.
13After he left Hebron, David took more concubines and wives[k] in Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him. 14These are the names of the children born to him there:[l] Shammua, Shobab, Nathan,[m] Solomon, 15Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, 16Elishama, Eliada and Eliphe-let.

vid had been anointed king over Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold.[n] 18Now out in the Valley of Rephaim;[o] 19so Da-and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?" The LORD answered him, "Go, for I will surely hand the Philistines over to

you." [20]So David went to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, "As waters break out, the LORD has broken out against my enemies before me." So that place was called Baal Perazim.[e][h] [21]The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them off.[f] [22]Once more the Philistines came up and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim; [23]so David inquired of the LORD, and he answered, "Do not go straight up, but circle around behind them and attack them in front of the balsam trees. [24]As soon as you hear the sound[g] of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move quickly, because that will mean the LORD has gone out in front[h] of you to strike the Philistine army." [25]So David did as the LORD commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines[i] all the way from Gibeon[j][i] to Gezer.[k]

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

6:1-11pp — 1Ch 13:1-14

6 David again brought together out of Israel chosen men, thirty thousand in all. [2]He and all his men set out from Baalah[h] of Judah[k] to bring up from there the ark[i] of God, which is called by the Name,[l][j] the name of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned[k] between the cherubim[l] that are on the ark. [3]They set the ark of God on a new cart[m] and brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill.[n] Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart [4]with the ark of God on it,[m] and Ahio was walking in front of it. [5]David and the whole house of Israel were celebrating[o] with all their might before the LORD, with songs[n] and with harps, lyres, tambourines, sistrums and cymbals.[p] [6]When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of[q] the ark of God, because the oxen stumbled. [7]The LORD's anger burned against Uzzah because of his irreverent act;[r] therefore God struck him down[s] and he died there beside the ark of God.
[8]Then David was angry because the LORD's wrath[t] had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.[u][o] [9]David was afraid of the LORD that day and said, "How[v] can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?" [10]He was not willing to take the ark of the LORD to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom[w] the Gittite. [11]The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite for three months, and the LORD blessed him and his entire household.[x] [12]Now King David[y] was told, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-Edom and everything he has, because of the ark of God." So David went down and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with rejoicing.
[13]When those who were carrying the ark of the LORD had taken six steps, he sacrificed[z] a bull and a fattened calf.
[14]David, wearing a linen ephod,[a] danced[b] before the LORD with all his might, [15]while he and the entire house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouts[c] and the sound of trumpets.[d] [16]As the ark of the LORD was entering the City of David,[e] Michal[f] daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she despised him in her heart.
[17]They brought the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it,[g] and David sacrificed burnt offerings[h] and fellowship offerings[p] before the LORD. [18]After he had finished sacrificing[i] the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed[j] the people in the name of the LORD Almighty. [19]Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins[k] to each person in the whole crowd of Israelites, both men and women.[l] And all the people went to their homes.
[20]When David returned home to bless his household, Michal daughter

God's Promise to David

7 After the king was settled in his palace[d] and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies[e] around him,[f] 2 he said to Nathan[g] the prophet, "Here I am, living in a palace[h] of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent."[i] 3 Nathan replied to the king, "Whatever you have in mind,[j] go ahead and do it, for the LORD is with you." 4 That night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying:

5 "Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD says: Are you[k] the one to build me a house to dwell in?[l] 6 I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day.[m] I have been moving from place to place with a tent[n] as my dwelling.[o] 7 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites,[p] did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd[q] my people Israel, "Why have you not built me a house[r] of cedar?[s]"' 8 "Now then, tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock[t] to be ruler[u] over my people Israel.[v] 9 I have been with you wherever you have gone,[w] and I have cut off all your enemies from before you.[x] Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men of the earth.[y] 10 And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant[z] them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed.[a] Wicked[b] people will not oppress them anymore,[c] as they did at the beginning 11 and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders[a][d] over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies.[e]
" 'The LORD declares[f] to you that the LORD himself will establish[g] a house[h] for you: 12 When your days are over and you rest[i] with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, who will come from your own body,[j] and I will establish his kingdom.[k] 13 He is the one who will build a house[l] for my Name,[m] and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.[n] 14 I will be his father, and he will be my son.[o] When he does wrong, I will punish him[p] with the rod[q] of men, with floggings inflicted by men.
15 But my love will never be taken away from him,[r] as I took it away from Saul,[s] whom I removed from before you. 16 Your house and your kingdom will endure forever before me[b]; your throne[t] will be established[u] forever.[v]' "

17 Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

David's Prayer

18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said:

"Who am I,[w] O Sovereign LORD, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far? 19 And as if this were not enough in your sight, O Sovereign LORD, you have also spoken about the future of the house of your servant. Is this your usual way of dealing with man,[x] O Sovereign LORD?
20 "What more can David say[y] to you? For you know[z] your servant,[a] O Sovereign LORD. 21 For the sake of your word and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made it known to your servant.

David's Victories

8 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines[o] and subdued[p] them, and he took Metheg Ammah from the control of the Philistines.
2 David also defeated the Moabites.[q] He made them lie down on the ground and measured them off with a length of cord. Every two lengths of them were put to death, and the third length was allowed to live. So the Moabites became subject to David and brought tribute.[r] 3 Moreover, David fought Hadadezer[s] son of Rehob, king of Zobah,[t] when he went to restore his control along the Euphrates[u] River. 4 David captured a thousand of his chariots,

David struck down twenty-two thou-

David and Mephibosheth

9 David asked, "Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan's sake?"[g]

2 Now there was a servant of Saul's household named Ziba.[h] They called him to appear before David, and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?"

"Your servant," he replied.

3 The king asked, "Is there no one still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show God's kindness?"

Ziba answered the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan;[i] he is crippled[j] in both feet."

4 "Where is he?" the king asked.

Ziba answered, "He is at the house of Makir[k] son of Ammiel in Lo Debar."

5 So King David had him brought from Lo Debar, from the house of Makir son of Ammiel.

6 When Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, he bowed down to pay him honor.[l]

David said, "Mephibosheth!"

"Your servant," he replied.

7 "Don't be afraid," David said to him, "for I will surely show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan.[m] I will restore to you all the land that belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will always eat at my table.[n]"

8 Mephibosheth[o] bowed down and said, "What is your servant, that you should notice a dead dog[p] like me?"

9 Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "I have given your master's grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family. 10 You and your sons and your servants are to farm the land for him and bring in the crops, so that your master's grandson[q] may be provided for. And Mephibosheth, grandson of your master, will always eat at my table." (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)

11 Then Ziba said to the king, "Your servant will do whatever my lord the king commands his servant to do." So Mephibosheth ate at David's[a] table like one of the king's sons.[r]

12 Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica, and all the members of Ziba's household were servants of Mephibosheth.[s] 13 And Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he always ate at the king's table, and he was crippled in both feet.

David Defeats the Ammonites

10 In the course of time, the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun succeeded him as king.
2 David thought, "I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash,[t] just as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father.

When David's men came to the land of the Ammonites, 3 the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think David is honoring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Hasn't David sent them to you to explore the city and spy it out[u] and overthrow it?" 4 So Hanun seized David's men, shaved off half of each man's beard,[v] cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks,[w] and sent them away.

5 When David was told about this, he sent messengers to meet the men, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back."

6 When the Ammonites realized that they had become a stench[x] in David's nostrils, they hired twenty thousand Aramean[y] foot soldiers from Beth Rehob[z] and Zobah,[a] as well as the king of Maacah[b] with a thousand men, and also twelve thousand men from Tob.[c]

7 On hearing this, David sent Joab[d] out with the entire army of fighting men. 8 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city gate, while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open country.

9 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans. 10 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai[e] his brother and deployed them against the Ammonites. 11 Joab said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to come to my rescue; but if the then I will come to rescue you. [12]Be people and the cities of our God. The [13]Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him. [14]When the Am-monites[c] saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they fled before Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab returned from fighting the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

[15]After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they regrouped. [16]Hadadezer had Arameans brought from beyond the River[b]; they went to Helam, with Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army leading
them.

[17]When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan and went to Helam. The Arameans formed their battle lines to meet David and fought against him. [18]But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven hundred of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers.[c] He also struck down Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there. [19]When all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with the Israelites and became subject[d] to them.

So the Arameans[e] were afraid to help the Ammonites anymore.

David and Bathsheba

11 In the spring,[f] at the time when kings go off to war, David sent Joab[g] out with the king's men and the whole Israelite army.[h] They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah.[i] But David remained in Jerusalem.

[2]One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof[j] of the palace. From the roof he saw[k] a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful, [3]and David sent someone to find out about her. The man said, "Isn't this Bathsheba,[l] the daughter of Eliam[m] and the wife of Uriah[n] the Hittite?" [4]Then David sent messengers to get her.[o] She came to him, and he slept[p] with her. (She had purified herself from her uncleanness.)[q] Then[d] she went back home. [5]The woman conceived and sent word to David, saying,
"I am pregnant."

[6]So David sent this word to Joab: "Send me Uriah[r] the Hittite." And Joab sent him to David. [7]When Uriah came to him, David asked him how Joab was, how the soldiers were and how the war was going. [8]Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet."[s] So Uriah left the palace, and a gift from the king was sent after him. [9]But Uriah slept at the entrance to the palace with all his master's servants and did not go down to his house.

[10]When David was told, "Uriah did not go home," he asked him, "Haven't you just come from a distance? Why didn't you go home?"

[11]Uriah said to David, "The ark[t] and Israel and Judah are staying in tents, and my master Joab and my lord's men are camped in the open fields. How could I go to my house to eat and drink and lie[u] with my wife? As surely as you live, I will not do such a thing!"

[12]Then David said to him, "Stay here one more day, and tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next. [13]At David's invitation, he ate and drank with him, and David made him drunk.
But in the evening Uriah went out to sleep on his mat among his master's servants; he did not go home.

[14]In the morning David wrote a letter[v] to Joab and sent it with Uriah. [15]In it he wrote, "Put Uriah in the front line where the fighting is fiercest. Then withdraw from him so he will be struck down[w] and die.[x]"

[16]So while Joab had the city under siege, he put Uriah at a place where he knew the strongest defenders were.
[17]When the men of the city came out and fought against Joab, some of the men in David's army fell; moreover, Uriah the Hittite was dead.

[18]Joab sent David a full account of the battle. [19]He instructed the messenger:
"When you have finished giving the king this account of the battle, [20]the king's anger may flare up, and he may ask you, 'Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn't you know they would shoot arrows from the wall?

Besheth[e]? Didn't a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall,[z] 22The messenger set out, and when he arrived he told David everything Joab had sent him to say. 23The messenger said to David, "The men overpowered us and came out against us in the open, but we drove them back to the entrance to the city gate. 24Then the archers shot arrows at your servants from the wall, and some of the king's men died. Moreover, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead." 25David told the messenger, "Say this to Joab: 'Don't let this upset you; the sword devours one as well as another. Press the attack against the city and destroy it.' Say this to encourage Joab." 26When Uriah's wife heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for him. 27After the time of mourning[a] was over, David had her brought to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing David had done displeased[b] the LORD.

Nathan Rebukes David

12 The LORD sent Nathan[c] to David.[d] When he came to him,[e] he said, "There were two men in a certain town, one rich and the other poor.
2The rich man had a very large number of sheep and cattle, 3but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb he had bought. He raised it, and it grew up with him and his children. It shared his food, drank from his cup and even slept in his arms. It was like a daughter to him.
4"Now a traveler came to the rich man, but the rich man refrained from taking one of his own sheep or cattle to prepare a meal for the traveler who had come to him. Instead, he took the ewe lamb that belonged to the poor man and prepared it for the one who had come to him." 5David[f] burned with anger[g] against the man[h] and said to Nathan, "As surely as the LORD lives,[i] the man who did this deserves to die! 6He must pay for that lamb four times over,[j] because he did such a thing and had no pity." 7Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man![k] This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed[l] you[m] king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul. 8I gave your master's house to you,[n] and your master's wives into your arms. I gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if all this had been too little, I would have given you even more. 9Why did you despise[o] the word of the LORD by doing what is evil in his eyes? You struck down[p] Uriah[q] the Hittite with the sword and took his wife to be your own. You killed[r] him with the sword of the Ammonites. 10Now, therefore, the sword[s] will never depart from your house, because you despised me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your own.' 11"This is what the LORD says: 'Out of your own household[t] I am going to bring calamity upon you.[u] Before your very eyes I will take your wives and give them to one who is close to you, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight.[v] 12You did it in secret,[w] but I will do this thing in broad daylight[x] before all Israel.' " 13Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned[y] against the LORD." Nathan replied, "The LORD has taken away[z] your sin.[a] You are not going to die.[b] 14But because by doing this you have made the enemies of the LORD show utter contempt,[f][c] the son born to you will die." 15After Nathan had gone home, the LORD struck[d] the child that Uriah's wife had borne to David, and he became ill.
16David pleaded with God for the child.
He fasted and went into his house and spent the nights lying[e] on the ground.
17The elders of his household stood beside him to get him up from the ground, but he refused,[f] and he would not eat any food with them.[g] 18On the seventh day the child died.
David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they thought, "While the child was still living, we spoke to David but he would not listen to us. How can we tell him the child is dead? He may do something desperate." 19David noticed that his servants were whispering among themselves and he realized the child was dead. "Is the child dead?" he asked.
"Yes," they replied, "he is dead." 20Then David got up from the ground. After he had washed,[h] put on lotions and changed his clothes,[i] he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he went to his own house, and at his request they served him food, and he ate.

21His servants asked him, "Why are you acting this way? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept,[a] but now that the child is dead, you get up and eat!" 22He answered, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept. I thought, 'Who knows?[b] The LORD may be gracious to me and let the child live.'[c] 23But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him,[d] but he will not return to me."[e] 24Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba,[f] and he went to her and lay with her. She gave birth to a son, and they named him Solomon.[g] The LORD loved him; 25and because the LORD loved him, he sent word through Nathan the prophet to name him Jedi-diah.[g][h] 26Meanwhile Joab fought against Rabbah[i] of the Ammonites and captured the royal citadel. 27Joab then sent messengers to David, saying, "I have fought against Rabbah and taken its water supply. 28Now muster the rest of the troops and besiege the city and capture it. Otherwise I will take the city, and it will be named after me." 29So David mustered the entire army and went to Rabbah, and attacked and captured it. 30He took the crown[j] from the head of their king[h]—its weight was a talent[i] of gold, and it was set with precious stones—and it was placed on David's head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city 31and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labor with saws and with iron picks and axes, and he made them work at brickmaking.[j] He did this to all the Ammonite[k] towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

Amnon and Tamar

13 In the course of time, Amnon[l] son of David fell in love with Tamar,[m] the beautiful sister of Absalom[n] son of David.
2Amnon became frustrated to the point of illness on account of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible for him to do anything to her.
3Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah,[o] David's brother. Jonadab was a very shrewd man. 4He asked Amnon, "Why do you, the king's son, look so haggard morning after morning? Won't you tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I'm in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."
5"Go to bed and pretend to be ill," Jonadab said. "When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'I would like my sister Tamar to come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare the food in my sight so I may watch her and then eat it from her hand.' " 6So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to him, "I would like my sister Tamar to come and make some special bread in my sight, so I may eat from her hand." 7David sent word to Tamar at the palace: "Go to the house of your brother Amnon and prepare some food for him." 8So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon, who was lying down. She took some dough, kneaded it, made the bread in his sight and baked it. 9Then she took the pan and served him the bread, but he refused to eat.
"Send everyone out of here,"[p] Am-non said. So everyone left him. 10Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food here into my bedroom so I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the bread she had prepared and brought it to her brother Amnon in his bedroom.
11But when she took it to him to eat, he grabbed[q] her and said, "Come to bed with me, my sister."[r] 12"Don't, my brother!" she said to him. "Don't force me. Such a thing should not be done in Israel![s] Don't do this wicked thing.[t] 13What about me?[u] Where could I get rid of my disgrace?
And what about you? You would be like one of the wicked fools in Israel.
Please speak to the king; he will not keep me from being married to you." 14But he refused to listen to her, and since he was stronger than she, he raped her.[v] 15Then Amnon hated her with intense hatred. In fact, he hated her more than he had loved her. Amnon said to her, "Get up and get out!" 16"No!" she said to him. "Sending me away would be a greater wrong

But he refused to listen to her. 17He 21When King David heard all this, he was furious.[c] 22Absalom never said a word to Amnon, either good or bad;[d] he hated[e] Amnon because he had disgraced his sister Tamar.

Absalom Kills Amnon

23Two years later, when Absalom's sheepshearers[f] were at Baal Hazor near the border of Ephraim, he invited all the king's sons to come there. 24Absalom went to the king and said, "Your servant has had shearers come. Will the king and his officials please join me?"
25"No, my son," the king replied.
"All of us should not go; we would only be a burden to you." Although Absalom urged him, he still refused to go, but gave him his blessing.
26Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon come with us." The king asked him, "Why should he go with you?" 27But Absalom urged him, so he sent with him Amnon and the rest of the king's sons.
28Absalom[g] ordered his men, "Listen! When Amnon is in high[h] spirits from drinking wine and I say to you, 'Strike Amnon down,' then kill him.
Don't be afraid. Have not I given you this order? Be strong and brave.[i]" 29So Absalom's men did to Amnon what Absalom had ordered. Then all the king's sons got up, mounted their mules and fled.
30While they were on their way, the report came to David: "Absalom has struck down all the king's sons; not one of them is left." 31The king stood up, tore[j] his clothes and lay down on the ground; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.
32But Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "My lord should not think that they killed all the princes; only Amnon is dead. This has been Absalom's expressed intention ever since the day Amnon raped his sister Tamar. 33My lord the king should not be concerned about the report that all the king's sons are dead. Only Am-non is dead." 34Meanwhile, Absalom had fled.
Now the man standing watch looked up and saw many people on the road west of him, coming down the side of the hill. The watchman went and told the king, "I see men in the direction of Horonaim, on the side of the hill."[m] 35Jonadab said to the king, "See, the king's sons are here; it has happened just as your servant said." 36As he finished speaking, the king's sons came in, wailing loudly. The king, too, and all his servants wept very bitterly.
37Absalom fled and went to Talmai[k] son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur.
But King David mourned for his son every day.
38After Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he stayed there three years.
39And the spirit of the king[n] longed to go to Absalom,[l] for he was consoled[m] concerning Amnon's death.

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

14 Joab[n] son of Zeruiah knew that the king's heart longed for Absalom. 2So Joab sent someone to Tekoa[o] and had a wise woman[p] brought from there. He said to her, "Pretend you are in mourning. Dress in mourning clothes, and don't use any cosmetic lotions.[q] Act like a woman who has spent many days grieving for the dead.
3Then go to the king and speak these words to him." And Joab[r] put the words in her mouth.
4When the woman from Tekoa went[o] to the king, she fell with her face to the ground to pay him honor, and she said, "Help me, O king!" 5The king asked her, "What is troubling you?"

husband is dead. 6I your servant had two sons. They got into a fight with each other in the field, and no one was there to separate them. One struck the other and killed him. 7Now the whole clan has risen up against your servant; they say, 'Hand over the one who struck his brother down, so that we may put him to death[a] for the life of his brother whom he killed; then we will get rid of the heir[b] as well.' They would put out the only burning coal I have left,[c] leaving my husband neither name nor descendant on the face of the earth."

8The king said to the woman, "Go home,[d] and I will issue an order in your behalf."

9But the woman from Tekoa said to him, "My lord the king, let the blame[e] rest on me and on my father's family,[f] and let the king and his throne be without guilt.[g]"

10The king replied, "If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not bother you again."

11She said, "Then let the king invoke the LORD his God to prevent the avenger[h] of blood from adding to the destruction, so that my son will not be destroyed."

"As surely as the LORD lives," he said, "not one hair[i] of your son's head will fall to the ground.[j]" 12Then the woman said, "Let your servant speak a word to my lord the king."

"Speak," he replied.

13The woman said, "Why then have you devised a thing like this against the people of God? When the king says this, does he not convict himself,[k] for the king has not brought back his banished son?[l] 14Like water[m] spilled on the ground, which cannot be recovered, so we must die.[n] But God does not take away life; instead, he devises ways so that a banished person[o] may not remain estranged from him.

15"And now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. Your servant thought, 'I will speak to the king; perhaps he will do what his servant asks.
16Perhaps the king will agree to deliver his servant from the hand of the man who is trying to cut off both me and my son from the inheritance[p] God gave us.'

17"And now your servant says, 'May the word of my lord the king bring me rest, for my lord the king is like an angel[q] of God in discerning[r] good and evil. May the LORD your God be with
you.' "

18Then the king said to the woman, "Do not keep from me the answer to what I am going to ask you."

"Let my lord the king speak," the woman said.

19The king asked, "Isn't the hand of Joab[s] with you in all this?"

The woman answered, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything my lord the king says. Yes, it was your servant Joab who instructed me to do this and who put all these words into the mouth of your servant. 20Your servant Joab did this to change the present situation. My lord has wisdom[t] like that of an angel of God—he knows everything that happens in the land.[u]"

21The king said to Joab, "Very well, I will do it. Go, bring back the young man Absalom."

22Joab fell with his face to the ground to pay him honor, and he blessed the king.[v] Joab said, "Today your servant knows that he has found favor in your eyes, my lord the king, because the king has granted his servant's request."

23Then Joab went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.
24But the king said, "He must go to his own house; he must not see my face." So Absalom went to his own house and did not see the face of the king.

25In all Israel there was not a man so highly praised for his handsome appearance as Absalom. From the top of his head to the sole of his foot there was no blemish in him. 26Whenever he cut the hair of his head[w]—he used to cut his hair from time to time when it became too heavy for him—he would weigh it, and its weight was two hundred shekels[p] by the royal standard.

27Three sons[x] and a daughter were born to Absalom. The daughter's name was Tamar,[y] and she became a beautiful woman.

28Absalom lived two years in Jerusalem without seeing the king's face.
29Then Absalom sent for Joab in order to send him to the king, but Joab refused to come to him. So he sent a second time, but he refused to come.
30Then he said to his servants, "Look,

Joab's field is next to mine, and he has barley[a] there. Go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.
31 Then Joab did go to Absalom's house and he said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"[b] 32 Absalom said to Joab, "Look, I sent word to you and said, 'Come here so I can send you to the king to ask, "Why have I come from Geshur?[c] It would be better for me if I were still there!"'[d] Now then, I want to see the king's face, and if I am guilty of anything, let him put me to death."[d] 33 So Joab went to the king and told him this. Then the king summoned Absalom, and he came in and bowed down with his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed[e] Absalom.

Absalom's Conspiracy

15 In the course of time,[f] Absalom provided himself with a chariot[g] and horses and with fifty men to run ahead of him. 2 He would get up early and stand by the side of the road leading to the city gate.[h] Whenever anyone came with a complaint to be placed before the king for a decision, Absalom would call out to him, "What town are you from?" He would answer, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel." 3 Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your claims are valid and proper, but there is no representative of the king to hear you."[i] 4 And Absalom would add, "If only I were appointed judge in the land![j] Then everyone who has a complaint or case could come to me and I would see that he gets justice." 5 Also, whenever anyone approached him to bow down before him, Absalom would reach out his hand, take hold of him and kiss him. 6 Absalom behaved in this way toward all the Israelites who came to the king asking for justice, and so he stole the hearts[k] of the men of Israel.
7 At the end of four[q] years, Absalom said to the king, "Let me go to Hebron and fulfill a vow I made to the LORD.
8 While your servant was living at Geshur[l] in Aram, I made this vow:[m] 'If the LORD takes me back to Jerusalem, I will worship the LORD in Hebron.[r]'" 9 The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he went to Hebron.
10 Then Absalom sent secret messengers throughout the tribes of Israel to say, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpets,[n] then say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron.'" 11 Two hundred men from Jerusalem had accompanied Absalom. They had been invited as guests and went quite innocently, knowing nothing about the matter. 12 While Absalom was offering sacrifices, he also sent for Ahithophel[o] the Gilonite, David's counselor,[p] to come from Giloh,[q] his hometown. And so the conspiracy gained strength, and Absalom's following kept on increasing.[r]

David Flees

13 A messenger came and told David, "The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom." 14 Then David said to all his officials who were with him in Jerusalem, "Come! We must flee,[s] or none of us will escape from Absalom.[t] We must leave immediately, or he will move quickly to overtake us and bring ruin upon us and put the city to the sword." 15 The king's officials answered him, "Your servants are ready to do whatever our lord the king chooses." 16 The king set out, with his entire household following him; but he left ten concubines[u] to take care of the palace. 17 So the king set out, with all the people following him, and they halted at a place some distance away. 18 All his men marched past him, along with all the Kerethites[v] and Pelethites; and all the six hundred Gittites who had accompanied him from Gath marched before the king.
19 The king said to Ittai[w] the Gittite,
"Why should you come along with us?
Go back and stay with King Absalom.
You are a foreigner,[x] an exile from your homeland. 20 You came only yesterday. And today shall I make you wander[y] about with us, when I do not know where I am going? Go back, and take your countrymen. May kindness and faithfulness[z] be with you." 21 But Ittai replied to the king, "As surely as the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether it means life or death, there will your servant be."[a] 22 David said to Ittai, "Go ahead, march on." So Ittai the Gittite marched on with all his men and the families that were with him.

23The whole countryside wept aloud[a] as all the people passed by. The king also crossed the Kidron Valley,[b] and all the people moved on toward the desert.
24Zadok[c] was there, too, and all the Levites who were with him were carrying the ark[d] of the covenant of God.
They set down the ark of God, and Abiathar[e] offered sacrifices[a] until all the people had finished leaving the city.
25Then the king said to Zadok, "Take the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the LORD's eyes, he will bring me back and let me see it and his dwelling place[f] again. 26But if he says, 'I am not pleased with you,' then I am ready; let him do to me whatever seems good to him.[g]" 27The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer?[h] Go back to the city in peace, with your son Ahima-az and Jonathan[i] son of Abiathar. You and Abiathar take your two sons with you. 28I will wait at the fords[j] in the desert until word comes from you to inform me." 29So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there.
30But David continued up the Mount of Olives, weeping[k] as he went; his head[l] was covered and he was barefoot. All the people with him covered their heads too and were weeping as they went up. 31Now David had been told, "Ahithophel[m] is among the conspirators with Absalom." So David prayed, "O LORD, turn Ahithophel's counsel into foolishness." 32When David arrived at the summit, where people used to worship God, Hushai[n] the Arkite[o] was there to meet him, his robe torn and dust[p] on his head. 33David said to him, "If you go with me, you will be a burden[q] to me.
34But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; I was your father's servant in the past, but now I will be your servant,'[r] then you can help me by frustrating[s] Ahithophel's advice. 35Won't the priests Zadok and Abiathar be there with you? Tell them anything you hear in the king's palace.[t] 36Their two sons, Ahimaaz[u] son of Zadok and Jonathan[v] son of Abiathar, are there with them.
Send them to me with anything you hear."
37So David's friend Hushai[w] arrived at Jerusalem as Absalom[x] was entering the city.

David and Ziba

16 When David had gone a short distance beyond the summit, there was Ziba,[y] the steward of Mephibosheth, waiting to meet him. He had a string of donkeys saddled and loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred cakes of raisins, a hundred cakes of figs and a skin of wine.[z] 2The king asked Ziba, "Why have you brought these?" Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and fruit are for the men to eat, and the wine is to refresh[a] those who become exhausted in the desert." 3The king then asked, "Where is your master's grandson?"[b] Ziba[c] said to him, "He is staying in Jerusalem, because he thinks, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back my grandfather's kingdom.'" 4Then the king said to Ziba, "All that belonged to Mephibosheth[d] is now yours."
"I humbly bow," Ziba said. "May I find favor in your eyes, my lord the king."

Shimei Curses David

5As King David approached Bahu-rim,[e] a man from the same clan as Saul's family came out from there. His name was Shimei[f] son of Gera, and he cursed[g] as he came out. 6He pelted David and all the king's officials with stones, though all the troops and the special guard were on David's right and left. 7As he cursed, Shimei said, "Get out, get out, you man of blood, you scoundrel! 8The LORD has repaid you for all the blood you shed in the household of Saul, in whose place you have reigned.[h] The LORD has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. You have come to ruin because you are a man of blood!"[i] 9Then Abishai[j] son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog[k] curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off his head."[l] 10But the king said, "What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah?[m] If he is cursing because the LORD said to him, 'Curse David,' who can ask, 'Why do you do this?'"[n] 11David then said to Abishai and all his officials, "My son,[o] who is of my own flesh, is trying to take my life.

along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went and throwing stones at him and showering him with dirt. [14]The king and all the people with him ar-

And there he refreshed himself.

The Advice of Hushai and Ahithophel

[15]Meanwhile, Absalom[f] and all the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel[g] was with him. [16]Then Hu-shai[h] the Arkite, David's friend, went to Absalom and said to him, "Long live the king! Long live the king!" [17]Absalom asked Hushai, "Is this the love you show your friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?"[i] [18]Hushai said to Absalom, "No, the one chosen by the LORD, by these people, and by all the men of Israel—his I will be, and I will remain with him. [19]Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve the son? Just as I served your father, so I will serve you."[j] [20]Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give us your advice. What should we do?" [21]Ahithophel answered, "Lie with your father's concubines whom he left to take care of the palace. Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself a stench in your father's nostrils, and the hands of everyone with you will be strengthened." [22]So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and he lay with his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.[k] [23]Now in those days the advice[l] Ahithophel gave was like that of one who inquires of God. That was how both David[m] and Absalom regarded all of Ahithophel's advice.

17 Ahithophel said to Absalom, "I would[t] choose twelve thousand men and set out tonight in pursuit of David. [2]I would[u] attack him while he is weary and weak.[n] I would[u] strike him with terror, and then all the people with him will flee. I would[u] strike down only the king[o] [3]and bring all the people back to you. The death of the man you seek will mean the return of all; all the people will be unharmed." [4]This plan seemed good to Absalom and to all the elders of Israel.
[5]But Absalom said, "Summon also Hushai[p] the Arkite, so we can hear what he has to say." [6]When Hushai came to him, Absalom said, "Ahitho-phel has given this advice. Should we do what he says? If not, give us your opinion." [7]Hushai replied to Absalom, "The advice Ahithophel has given is not good this time. [8]You know your father and his men; they are fighters, and as fierce as a wild bear robbed of her cubs.[q] Besides, your father is an experienced fighter;[r] he will not spend the night with the troops. [9]Even now, he is hidden in a cave or some other place.[s] If he should attack your troops first,[v] whoever hears about it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the troops who follow Absalom.' [10]Then even the bravest soldier, whose heart is like the heart of a lion,[t] will melt[u] with fear, for all Israel knows that your father is a fighter and that those with him are brave.[v] [11]"So I advise you: Let all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba[w]—as numerous as the sand[x] on the seashore—be gathered to you, with you yourself leading them into battle. [12]Then we will attack him wherever he may be found, and we will fall on him as dew settles on the ground. Neither he nor any of his men will be left alive. [13]If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it down to the valley[y] until not even a piece of it can be found." [14]Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice[z] of Hushai the Ar-kite is better than that of Ahitho-phel."[a] For the LORD had determined to frustrate[b] the good advice of Ahitho-phel in order to bring disaster[c] on Absalom.[d] [15]Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, "Ahithophel has advised Absalom and the elders of Israel to do such and such, but I have advised them to do so and so. [16]Now send a message immediately and tell David, 'Do not spend the night at the fords in the desert;[e] cross over without fail, or the king and all the people with him will be swallowed up.[f]'" [17]Jonathan[g] and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel.[h] A servant girl was to go and inform them, and they were to go and tell King David, for they could not risk being seen entering the city.[s] 18But a young man saw them and told Absalom. So the two of them left quickly and went to the house of a man in Bahurim.[s] He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it. 19His wife took a covering and spread it out over the opening of the well and scattered grain over it. No one knew anything about it.[t]

20When Absalom's men came to the woman[u] at the house, they asked, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

The woman answered them, "They crossed over the brook."[w] The men searched but found no one, so they returned to Jerusalem.

21After the men had gone, the two climbed out of the well and went to inform King David. They said to him, "Set out and cross the river at once; Ahithophel has advised such and such against you." 22So David and all the people with him set out and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, no one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

23When Ahithophel saw that his advice[v] had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his house in his hometown. He put his house in order[w] and then hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

24David went to Mahanaim,[x] and Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel. 25Absalom had appointed Amasa[y] over the army in place of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Jether,[x][z] an Israelite[y] who had married Abigail,[z] the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah the mother of Joab. 26The Israelites and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

27When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash[b] from Rabbah[c] of the Ammonites, and Makir[d] son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai[e] the Gileadite[f] from Rogelim 28brought bedding and bowls and articles of pottery. They also brought wheat and barley, flour and roasted grain, beans and lentils,[a] 29honey and curds, sheep, and cheese from cows' milk for David and his people to eat.[g] For they said, "The people have become hungry and tired and thirsty in the desert.[h]"

Absalom's Death

18 David mustered the men who were with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. 2David sent the troops out[p]—a third under the command of Joab, a third under Joab's brother Abishai[q] son of Zeruiah, and a third under Ittai[r] the Gittite. The king told the troops, "I myself will surely march out with you."

3But the men said, "You must not go out; if we are forced to flee, they won't care about us. Even if half of us die, they won't care; but you are worth ten[s] thousand of us.[b] It would be better now for you to give us support from the city."[t]

4The king answered, "I will do whatever seems best to you."

So the king stood beside the gate while all the men marched out in units of hundreds and of thousands. 5The king commanded Joab, Abishai and Ittai, "Be gentle with the young man Absalom for my sake." And all the troops heard the king giving orders concerning Absalom to each of the commanders.

6The army marched into the field to fight Israel, and the battle took place in the forest[u] of Ephraim. 7There the army of Israel was defeated by David's men, and the casualties that day were great—twenty thousand men. 8The battle spread out over the whole countryside, and the forest claimed more lives that day than the sword.

9Now Absalom happened to meet David's men. He was riding his mule, and as the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak, Absalom's head[v] got caught in the tree. He was left hanging in midair, while the mule he was riding kept on going.

10When one of the men saw this, he told Joab, "I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree."

11Joab said to the man who had told him this, "What! You saw him? Why didn't you strike[w] him to the ground right there? Then I would have had to give you ten shekels[c] of silver and a warrior's belt.[x]"

12But the man replied, "Even if a nothing is hidden from the king[a]—you would have kept your distance from 14 Joab[b] said, "I'm not going to wait like this for you." So he took three javelins in his hand and plunged them into Absalom's heart while Absalom was still alive in the oak tree.

15 And ten of Joab's armor-bearers surrounded Absalom, struck him and killed him.[c] 16 Then Joab[d] sounded the trumpet, and the troops stopped pursuing Israel, for Joab halted them.
17 They took Absalom, threw him into a big pit in the forest and piled up[e] a large heap of rocks[f] over him. Meanwhile, all the Israelites fled to their homes.
18 During his lifetime Absalom had taken a pillar and erected it in the King's Valley[g] as a monument[h] to himself, for he thought, "I have no son[i] to carry on the memory of my name." He named the pillar after himself, and it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.

David Mourns

19 Now Ahimaaz[j] son of Zadok said, "Let me run and take the news to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the hand of his enemies.[k]" 20 "You are not the one to take the news today," Joab told him. "You may take the news another time, but you must not do so today, because the king's son is dead." 21 Then Joab said to a Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed down before Joab and ran off.
22 Ahimaaz son of Zadok again said to Joab, "Come what may, please let me run behind the Cushite." But Joab replied, "My son, why do you want to go? You don't have any news that will bring you a reward." 23 He said, "Come what may, I want to run."
So Joab said, "Run!" Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain[g] and outran the Cushite.
24 While David was sitting between the inner and outer gates, the watchman[l] went up to the roof of the gateway by the wall. As he looked out, he saw a man running alone.
25 The watchman called out to the king and reported
it.
The king said, "If he is alone, he must have good news." And the man came closer and closer.
26 Then the watchman saw another man running, and he called down to the gatekeeper, "Look, another man running alone!"
The king said, "He must be bringing good news,[m] too." 27 The watchman said, "It seems to me that the first one runs like[n] Ahima-az son of Zadok."
"He's a good man," the king said.
"He comes with good news." 28 Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, "All is well!" He bowed down before the king with his face to the ground and said, "Praise be to the LORD your God! He has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against my lord the king." 29 The king asked, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" Ahimaaz answered, "I saw great confusion just as Joab was about to send the king's servant and me, your servant, but I don't know what it was." 30 The king said, "Stand aside and wait here." So he stepped aside and stood there.
31 Then the Cushite arrived and said, "My lord the king, hear the good news!
The LORD has delivered you today from all who rose up against you." 32 The king asked the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" The Cushite replied, "May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up to harm you be like that young man."[o] 33 The king was shaken. He went up to the room over the gateway and wept. As he went, he said: "O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died[p] instead of you—O Absalom, my son, my son!"[q] 19 Joab was told, "The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom." 2 And for the whole army the victory that day was turned into mourning, because on that day the troops heard it said, "The king is grieving for his son."

the king and said, "Today you have saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters and the lives of your wives and concubines. 6You love those who hate you and hate those who love you. You have made it clear today that the commanders and their men mean nothing to you. I see that you would be pleased if Absalom were alive today and all of us were dead.

7Now go out and encourage your men.
I swear by the LORD that if you don't go out, not a man will be left with you by nightfall. This will be worse for you than all the calamities that have come upon you from your youth till now."[a] 8So the king got up and took his seat in the gateway. When the men were told, "The king is sitting in the gateway,[b]" they all came before him.

David Returns to Jerusalem

Meanwhile, the Israelites had fled to their homes. 9Throughout the tribes of Israel, the people were all arguing with each other, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies; he is the one who rescued us from the hand of the Philistines.[c] But now he has fled the country because of Absalom;[d] 10and Absalom, whom we anointed to rule over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?" 11King David sent this message to Zadok[e] and Abiathar, the priests: "Ask the elders of Judah, 'Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his palace, since what is being said throughout Israel has reached the king at his quarters? 12You are my brothers, my own flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to bring back the king?' 13And say to Amasa,[f] 'Are you not my own flesh and blood?[g] May God deal with me, be it ever so severely,[h] if from now on you are not the commander of my army in place of Joab.[i]' " 14He won over the hearts of all the men of Judah as though they were one man. They sent word to the king, "Return, you and all your men." 15Then the king returned and went as far as the Jordan.

Now the men of Judah had come to Gilgal[j] to go out and meet the king and bring him across the Jordan.
16Shimei[k] son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David.
17With him were a thousand Benja-mites, along with Ziba,[l] the steward of Saul's household,[m] and his fifteen sons and twenty servants. They rushed to the Jordan, where the king was. 18They crossed at the ford to take the king's household over and to do whatever he wished.
When Shimei son of Gera crossed the Jordan, he fell prostrate before the king 19and said to him, "May my lord not hold me guilty. Do not remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem.[n] May the king put it out of his mind. 20For I your servant know that I have sinned, but today I have come here as the first of the whole house of Joseph to come down and meet my lord the king." 21Then Abishai[o] son of Zeruiah said, "Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this? He cursed[p] the LORD's anoint-ed."[q] 22David replied, "What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah?[r] This day you have become my adversaries! Should anyone be put to death in Israel today?[s] Do I not know that today I am king over Israel?" 23So the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king promised him on oath.[t] 24Mephibosheth,[u] Saul's grandson, also went down to meet the king. He had not taken care of his feet or trimmed his mustache or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he returned safely. 25When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, "Why didn't you go with me,[v] Mephibosheth?" 26He said, "My lord the king, since I your servant am lame,[w] I said, 'I will have my donkey saddled and will ride on it, so I can go with the king.' But Ziba[x] my servant betrayed me. 27And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. My lord the king is like an angel[y] of God; so do whatever pleases you. 28All my grandfather's descendants deserved nothing but death[z] from my lord the king, but you gave your servant a place among those who sat at your table.[a] So what right do I have to make any more appeals to the king?"

29The king said to him, "Why say more? I order you and Ziba to divide the fields." 30Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let him take everything, now that my lord the king has arrived home safely." 31Barzillai[a] the Gileadite also came down from Rogelim to cross the Jordan with the king and to send him on his way from there. 32Now Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years of age. He had provided for the king during his stay in Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy[b] man. 33The king said to Bar-zillai, "Cross over with me and stay with me in Jerusalem, and I will provide for you."
34But Barzillai answered the king, "How many more years will I live, that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king? 35I am now eighty[c] years old.
Can I tell the difference between what is good and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats and drinks?
Can I still hear the voices of men and women singers?[d] Why should your servant be an added[e] burden to my lord the king? 36Your servant will cross over the Jordan with the king for a short distance, but why should the king reward me in this way? 37Let your servant return, that I may die in my own town near the tomb of my father[f] and mother. But here is your servant Kimham.[g] Let him cross over with my lord the king. Do for him whatever pleases you." 38The king said, "Kimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him whatever pleases you. And anything you desire from me I will do for you." 39So all the people crossed the Jordan, and then the king crossed over.
The king kissed Barzillai and gave him his blessing,[h] and Barzillai returned to his home.
40When the king crossed over to Gilgal, Kimham crossed with him. All the troops of Judah and half the troops of Israel had taken the king over.
41Soon all the men of Israel were coming to the king and saying to him, "Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, steal the king away and bring him and his household across the Jordan, together with all his men?"[i] 42All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "We did this because the king is closely related to us. Why are you angry about it? Have we eaten any of the king's provisions? Have we taken anything for ourselves?"

So why do you treat us with contempt?

But the men of Judah responded

Sheba Rebels Against David

20 Now a troublemaker named Sheba son of Bicri, a Benjamite, happened to be there. He sounded the trumpet and shouted,

"We have no share[k] in David,[l] no part in Jesse's son![m] Every man to his tent, O Israel!"

2So all the men of Israel deserted David to follow Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Judah stayed by their king all the way from the Jordan to Jerusalem.
3When David returned to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines[n] he had left to take care of the palace and put them in a house under guard. He provided for them, but did not lie with them. They were kept in confinement till the day of their death, living as widows.
4Then the king said to Amasa,[o] "Summon the men of Judah to come to me within three days, and be here yourself." 5But when Amasa went to summon Judah, he took longer than the time the king had set for him.
6David said to Abishai,[p] "Now Sheba son of Bicri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your master's men and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities and escape from us." 7So Joab's men and the Kerethites[q] and Pelethites and all the mighty warriors went out under the command of Abish-ai. They marched out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.
8While they were at the great rock in Gibeon,[r] Amasa came to meet them.
Joab[s] was wearing his military tunic, and strapped over it at his waist was a belt with a dagger in its sheath. As he stepped forward, it dropped out of its sheath.
9Joab said to Amasa, "How are you, my brother?" Then Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. 10Amasa was not on his guard against the dagger[t] in Joab[u]'s hand, and Joab plunged it into his belly, and his intestines spilled out on the ground. Without being stabbed again, Amasa died. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bicri.

11One of Joab's men stood beside Amasa and said, "Whoever favors Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!" 12Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road, and the man saw that all the troops came to a halt there. When he realized that everyone who came up to Amasa stopped, he dragged him from the road into a field and threw a garment over him. 13After Amasa had been removed from the road, all the men went on with Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.
14Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah[a] and through the entire region of the Be-rites, who gathered together and followed him. 15All the troops with Joab came and besieged Sheba in Abel Beth Maacah. They built a siege ramp up to the city, and it stood against the outer fortifications. While they were battering the wall to bring it down, 16a wise woman called from the city, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab to come here so I can speak to him." 17He went toward her, and she asked, "Are you Joab?"

"I am," he answered.

She said, "Listen to what your servant has to say."

"I'm listening," he said.

18She continued, "Long ago they used to say, 'Get your answer at Abel,' and that settled it. 19We are the peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why do you want to swallow up the LORD's inheritance?"

20"Far be it from me!" Joab replied, "Far be it from me to swallow up or destroy! 21That is not the case. A man named Sheba son of Bicri, from the hill country of Ephraim, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David.
Hand over this one man, and I'll withdraw from the city."

The woman said to Joab, "His head will be thrown to you from the wall."

22Then the woman went to all the people with her wise advice, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri and threw it to Joab. So he sounded the trumpet, and his men dispersed from the city, each returning to his home.
And Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

23Joab was over Israel's entire army; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; 24Adoniram[b] was in charge of forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder; 25Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; 26and Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

The Gibeonites Avenged

21 During the reign of David, there was a famine for three successive years; so David sought the face of the LORD. The LORD said, "It is on account of Saul and his blood-stained house; it is because he put the Gibeonites to death."

2The king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not a part of Israel but were survivors of the Amorites; the Israelites had sworn to spare them, but Saul in his zeal for Israel and Judah had tried to annihilate them.) 3David asked the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? How shall I make amends so that you will bless the LORD's inheritance?"

4The Gibeonites answered him, "We have no right to demand silver or gold from Saul or his family, nor do we have the right to put anyone in Israel to death."

"What do you want me to do for you?" David asked.

5They answered the king, "As for the man who destroyed us and plotted against us so that we have been decimated and have no place anywhere in Israel, 6let seven of his male descendants be given to us to be killed and exposed before the LORD at Gibeah of Saul—the LORD's chosen one."

So the king said, "I will give them to
you."

7The king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath before the LORD between David and Jonathan son of Saul.
8But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Aiah's daughter Rizpah, whom she had borne to Saul, together with the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab,[c] whom she had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite. 9He handed them over to the Gibeonites, who killed and exposed them on a hill before the LORD.
All seven of them fell together; they were put to death[a] during the first days of the harvest, just as the barley harvest was beginning.[b] 10 Rizpah daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock. From the beginning of the harvest till the rain poured down from the heavens on the bodies, she did not let the birds of the air touch them by day or the wild animals by night.[c] 11 When David was told what Aiah's daughter Rizpah, Saul's concubine, had done, 12 he went and took the bones of Saul[d] and his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead.[e] (They had taken them secretly from the public square at Beth Shan,[f] where the Philistines had hung[g] them after they struck Saul down on Gilboa.)[h] 13 David brought the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from there, and the bones of those who had been killed and exposed were gathered up.

14 They buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the tomb of Saul's father Kish, at Zela[i] in Benjamin, and did everything the king commanded.
After that,[j] God answered prayer[k] in behalf of the land.[l]

Wars Against the Philistines

15 Once again there was a battle between the Philistines[m] and Israel. David went down with his men to fight against the Philistines, and he became exhausted. 16 And Ishbi-Benob, one of the descendants of Rapha, whose bronze spearhead weighed three hundred shekels[k] and who was armed with a new ⌞sword⌟, said he would kill David. 17 But Abishai[n] son of Zeruiah came to David's rescue; he struck the Philistine down and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, saying, "Never again will you go out with us to battle, so that the lamp[o] of Israel will not be extinguished.[p]" 18 In the course of time, there was another battle with the Philistines, at Gob. At that time Sibbecai[q] the Hu-shathite killed Saph, one of the descendants of Rapha.
19 In another battle with the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan son of Jaare-Oregim[l] the Bethlehemite killed Goliath[m] the Gittite,[r] who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.[s] 20 In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot—twenty-four in all.
He also was descended from Rapha.
21 When he taunted[t] Israel, Jonathan son of Shimeah,[u] David's brother, killed him.
22 These four were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

David's Song of Praise

22:1-51pp — Ps 18:1-50

22 David sang[v] to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.
2 He said:

"The LORD is my rock,[w] my fortress[x] and my deliverer;[y] 3 my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge,[z] my shield[a] and the horn[n][b] of my salvation.
He is my stronghold,[c] my refuge and my savior—from violent men you save me.
4 I call to the LORD, who is worthy[d] of praise, and I am saved from my enemies.

5 "The waves[e] of death swirled about me;
the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.
6 The cords of the grave[o][f] coiled around me;
the snares of death confronted me.
7 In my distress[g] I called[h] to the LORD; I called out to my God.
From his temple he heard my voice;
my cry came to his ears.
8 "The earth[i] trembled and quaked,[j] the foundations[k] of the heavens[p] shook;
they trembled because he was angry.
9 Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire[l] came from his mouth, burning coals[m] blazed out of it.
10 He parted the heavens and came down;
dark clouds[n] were under his feet.
11 He mounted the cherubim[o] and flew;

The Last Words of David

23 These are the last words of David:

"The oracle of David son of Jesse, the oracle of the man exalted[s] by the Most High, the man anointed[t] by the God of Jacob,
Israel's singer of songs[w]:

2 "The Spirit[u] of the LORD spoke through me;
his word was on my tongue.
3 The God of Israel spoke, the Rock[v] of Israel said to me:
'When one rules over men in righteousness,[w] when he rules in the fear[x] of God,[y] 4 he is like the light[z] of morning[a] at sunrise[b] on a cloudless morning, like the brightness after rain[c] that brings the grass from the earth.'

5 "Is not my house right with God?
Has he not made with me an everlasting covenant,[d] arranged and secured in every part?
Will he not bring to fruition my salvation
and grant me my every desire?
6 But evil men are all to be cast aside like thorns,[e] which are not gathered with the hand.
7 Whoever touches thorns uses a tool of iron or the shaft of a spear;
they are burned up where they lie."

David's Mighty Men

8 These are the names of David's mighty men:[f] Josheb-Basshebeth,[x][g] a Tahkemonite,[y] was chief of the Three; he raised his spear against eight hundred men, whom he killed[z] in one encounter.
9 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai[h] the Ahohite.[i] As one of the three mighty men, he was with David when they taunted the Philistines gathered ⌞at Pas Dammim⌟[a] for battle. Then the men of Israel retreated, 10 but he stood his ground and struck down the Philistines till his hand grew tired and froze to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. The troops returned to Eleazar, but only to strip the dead.
11 Next to him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. When the Philistines banded together at a place where there was a field full of lentils, Israel's troops fled from them.
12 But Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field. He defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.
13 During harvest time, three of the thirty chief men came down to David at the cave of Adullam,[j] while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.[k] 14 At that time David was in the stronghold,[l] and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.[m] 15 David longed for water and said, "Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!" 16So the three mighty men broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured[a] it out before the LORD.

17"Far be it from me, O LORD, to do this!" he said. "Is it not the blood[b] of men who went at the risk of their lives?" And David would not drink it.

Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.

18Abishai[c] the brother of Joab son of Zeruiah was chief of the Three.[b] He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three. 19Was he not held in greater honor than the Three? He became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

20Benaiah[d] son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel,[e] who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab's best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. 21And he struck down a huge Egyptian. Although the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear. 22Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men. 23He was held in greater honor than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

24Among the Thirty were:
Asahel[f] the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem, 25Shammah the Harodite,[g] Elika the Harodite, 26Helez[h] the Paltite, Ira[i] son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, 27Abiezer[j] from Anathoth,[k] Mebunnai[c] the Hushathite, 28Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai[l] the Netophathite,[m] 29Heled[d][n] son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah[o] in Benjamin, 30Benaiah the Pirathonite,[p] Hiddai[e] from the ravines of Gaash,[q] 31Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,[r] 32Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan 33son of[f] Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar[g] the Hararite, 34Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite,[s] Eliam[t] son of Ahithophel[u] the Gilonite, 35Hezro the Carmelite,[v] Paarai the Arbite, 36Igal son of Nathan from Zobah,[w] the son of Hagri,[h] 37Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite,[x] the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah, 38Ira the Ithrite,[y] Gareb the Ithrite 39and Uriah[z] the Hittite.
There were thirty-seven in all.

David Counts the Fighting Men

24:1-17pp — 1Ch 21:1-17

24 Again[a] the anger of the LORD burned against Israel,[b] and he incited David against them, saying, "Go and take a census of[c] Israel and Judah."

2So the king said to Joab[d] and the army commanders[i] with him, "Go throughout the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beersheba[e] and enroll[f] the fighting men, so that I may know how many there are."

3But Joab[g] replied to the king, "May the LORD your God multiply the troops a hundred times over,[h] and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king want to do such a thing?"

4The king's word, however, overruled Joab and the army commanders; so they left the presence of the king to enroll the fighting men of Israel.

5After crossing the Jordan, they camped near Aroer,[i] south of the town in the gorge, and then went through Gad and on to Jazer.[j] 6They went to Gilead and the region of Tahtim Hod-shi, and on to Dan Jaan and around toward Sidon.[a] 7 Then they went toward the fortress of Tyre[b] and all the towns of the Hivites[c] and Canaanites.

Finally, they went on to Beersheba[d] in the Negev[e] of Judah.
8 After they had gone through the entire land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.
9 Joab reported the number of the fighting men to the king: In Israel there were eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who could handle a sword, and in Judah five hundred thousand.[f] 10 David was conscience-stricken[g] after he had counted the fighting men, and he said to the LORD, "I have sinned[h] greatly in what I have done.
Now, O LORD, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing.[i]" 11 Before David got up the next morning, the word of the LORD had come to Gad[j] the prophet, David's seer:[k] 12 "Go and tell David, 'This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.'" 13 So Gad went to David and said to him, "Shall there come upon you three[i] years of famine[l] in your land?
Or three months of fleeing from your enemies while they pursue you? Or three days of plague[m] in your land?
Now then, think it over and decide how I should answer the one who sent me." 14 David said to Gad, "I am in deep distress. Let us fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy[n] is great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men." 15 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel from that morning until the end of the time designated, and seventy thousand of the people from Dan to Beersheba died.[o] 16 When the angel stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD was grieved[p] because of the calamity and said to the angel who was afflicting the people, "Enough! Withdraw your hand." The angel of the LORD[q] was then at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
17 When David saw the angel who was striking down the people, he said to the LORD, "I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep.[r] What have they done?[s] Let your hand fall upon me and my family."[t]

David Builds an Altar

18 On that day Gad went to David and said to him, "Go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah[u] the Jebusite." 19 So David went up, as the LORD had commanded through Gad. 20 When Araunah looked and saw the king and his men coming toward him, he went out and bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.
21 Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"
"To buy your threshing floor," David answered, "so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped."[v] 22 Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take whatever pleases him and offer it up. Here are oxen[w] for the burnt offering, and here are threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood.
23 O king, Araunah gives[x] all this to the king." Araunah also said to him, "May the LORD your God accept you." 24 But the king replied to Araunah, "No, I insist on paying you for it. I will not sacrifice to the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing."[y] So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen and paid fifty shekels[k][z] of silver for them. 25 David built an altar[a] to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.[l] Then the LORD answered prayer[b] in behalf of the land, and the plague on Israel was stopped.

1 Kings

Adonijah Sets Himself Up as King

1 When King David was old and well advanced in years, he could not keep warm even when they put covers over him. 2So his servants said to him, "Let us look for a young virgin to attend the king and take care of him. She can lie beside him so that our lord the king may keep warm." 3Then they searched throughout Israel for a beautiful girl and found Abishag,[a] a Shunammite,[b] and brought her to the king. 4The girl was very beautiful; she took care of the king and waited on him, but the king had no intimate relations with her.
5Now Adonijah,[c] whose mother was Haggith, put himself forward and said, "I will be king." So he got chariots[d] and horses[a] ready, with fifty men to run ahead of him. 6(His father had never interfered[e] with him by asking, "Why do you behave as you do?" He was also very handsome and was born next after Absalom.) 7Adonijah conferred with Joab[f] son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar[g] the priest, and they gave him their support. 8But Zadok[h] the priest, Benaiah[i] son of Jehoiada, Nathan[j] the prophet, Shimei[k] and Rei[b] and David's special guard[l] did not join Adonijah.
9Adonijah then sacrificed sheep, cattle and fattened calves at the Stone of Zoheleth near En Rogel.[m] He invited all his brothers, the king's sons,[n] and all the men of Judah who were royal officials, 10but he did not invite[o] Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the special guard or his brother Solomon.[p] 11Then Nathan asked Bathsheba,[q] Solomon's mother, "Have you not heard that Adonijah,[r] the son of Hag-gith, has become king without our lord David's knowing it? 12Now then, let me advise[s] you how you can save your own life and the life of your son Solomon. 13Go in to King David and say to him, 'My lord the king, did you not swear[t] to me your servant: "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne"?
Why then has Adonijah become king?' 14While you are still there talking to the king, I will come in and confirm what you have said." 15So Bathsheba went to see the aged king in his room, where Abishag[u] the Shunammite was attending him.
16Bathsheba bowed low and knelt before the king.
"What is it you want?" the king
asked.
17She said to him, "My lord, you yourself swore[v] to me your servant by the LORD your God: 'Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne.' 18But now Adonijah has become king, and you, my lord the king, do not know about it. 19He has sacrificed[w] great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep, and has invited all the king's sons, Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant. 20My lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to learn from you who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21Otherwise, as soon as my lord the king is laid to rest[x] with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be treated as criminals." 22While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived.
23And they told the king, "Nathan the prophet is here." So he went before the king and bowed with his face to the ground.
24Nathan said, "Have you, my lord the king, declared that Adonijah shall be king after you, and that he will sit on your throne? 25Today he has gone down and sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep. He has invited all the king's sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. Right now they are eating and drinking with him and saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!' 26But me your ser-this something my lord the king has done without letting his servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

David Makes Solomon King

28Then King David said, "Call in Bathsheba." So she came into the king's presence and stood before him.
29The king then took an oath: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of every trouble,[b] 30I will surely carry out today what I swore[c] to you by the LORD, the God of Israel: Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place." 31Then Bathsheba bowed low with her face to the ground and, kneeling before the king, said, "May my lord King David live forever!" 32King David said, "Call in Zadok[d] the priest, Nathan the prophet and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." When they came before the king, 33he said to them:
"Take your lord's servants with you and set Solomon my son on my own mule[e] and take him down to Gihon.[f] 34There have Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint[g] him king over Israel. Blow the trumpet[h] and shout, 'Long live King Solomon!' 35Then you are to go up with him, and he is to come and sit on my throne and reign in my place. I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah." 36Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, "Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so declare it.
37As the LORD was with my lord the king, so may he be with[i] Solomon to make his throne even greater[j] than the throne of my lord King David!" 38So Zadok[k] the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites[l] and the Pelethites went down and put Solomon on King David's mule and escorted him to Gihon.[m] 39Zadok the priest took the horn of oil[n] from the sacred tent[o] and anointed Solomon. Then they sounded the trumpet[p] and all the people shouted,[q] "Long live King Solomon!" 40And all the people went up after him, playing flutes[r] and rejoicing greatly, so that the ground shook with the sound.
41Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they were finishing their feast. On hearing the sound of the trumpet, Joab asked, "What's the meaning of all the noise in the city?"[s] 42Even as he was speaking, Jonathan[t] son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adonijah said, "Come in. A worthy man like you must be bringing good news."[u] 43"Not at all!" Jonathan answered.
"Our lord King David has made Solomon king. 44The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and they have put him on the king's mule, 45and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon. From there they have gone up cheering, and the city resounds[v] with it. That's the noise you hear. 46Moreover, Solomon has taken his seat[w] on the royal throne.
47Also, the royal officials have come to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May your God make Solomon's name more famous than yours and his throne greater[x] than yours!' And the king bowed in worship on his bed 48and said, 'Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has allowed my eyes to see a successor[y] on my throne today.' " 49At this, all Adonijah's guests rose in alarm and dispersed. 50But Adonijah, in fear of Solomon, went and took hold of the horns[z] of the altar. 51Then Solomon was told, "Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon and is clinging to the horns of the altar. He says, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.' " 52Solomon replied, "If he shows himself to be a worthy man, not a hair[a] of his head will fall to the ground; but if evil is found in him, he will die." 53Then King Solomon sent men, and they brought him down from the altar.
And Adonijah came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon said, "Go to your home."

to die,[b] he gave a charge to Solo-earth," he said. "So be strong,[d] show the LORD your God requires: Walk in his ways, and keep his decrees and commands, his laws and requirements, as written in the Law of Moses, so that you may prosper[a] in all you do and wherever you go, 4and that the LORD may keep his promise[b] to me: 'If your descendants watch how they live, and if they walk faithfully[c] before me with all their heart and soul, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

5"Now you yourself know what Joab[d] son of Zeruiah did to me—what he did to the two commanders of Israel's armies, Abner[e] son of Ner and Amasa[f] son of Jether. He killed them, shedding their blood in peacetime as if in battle, and with that blood stained the belt around his waist and the sandals on his feet. 6Deal with him according to your wisdom,[g] but do not let his gray head go down to the grave[a] in peace.
7"But show kindness[h] to the sons of Barzillai[i] of Gilead and let them be among those who eat at your table.[j] They stood by me when I fled from your brother Absalom.
8"And remember, you have with you Shimei[k] son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, who called down bitter curses on me the day I went to Maha-naim.[l] When he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore[m] to him by the LORD: 'I will not put you to death by the sword.' 9But now, do not consider him innocent. You are a man of wisdom;[n] you will know what to do to him. Bring his gray head down to the grave in blood." 10Then David rested with his fathers and was buried[o] in the City of David.[p] 11He had reigned[q] forty years over Israel—seven years in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem. 12So Solomon sat on the throne[r] of his father David, and his rule was firmly established.[s]

Solomon's Throne Established

13Now Adonijah,[t] the son of Hag-gith, went to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. Bathsheba asked him, "Do you come peacefully?"[u] He answered, "Yes, peacefully." 14Then he added, "I have something to say to you."
"You may say it," she replied.
15"As you know," he said, "the kingdom was mine. All Israel looked to me as their king. But things changed, and the kingdom has gone to my brother; for it has come to him from the LORD.
16Now I have one request to make of you. Do not refuse me."
"You may make it," she said.
17So he continued, "Please ask King Solomon—he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag[v] the Shunammite as my wife."
18"Very well," Bathsheba replied, "I will speak to the king for you." 19When Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah, the king stood up to meet her, bowed down to her and sat down on his throne. He had a throne brought for the king's mother,[w] and she sat down at his right hand.[x] 20"I have one small request to make of you," she said. "Do not refuse me." The king replied, "Make it, my mother; I will not refuse you." 21So she said, "Let Abishag[y] the Shunammite be given in marriage to your brother Adonijah." 22King Solomon answered his mother, "Why do you request Abishag[z] the Shunammite for Adonijah?
You might as well request the kingdom for him—after all, he is my older brother[a]—yes, for him and for Abiathar[b] the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah!" 23Then King Solomon swore by the LORD: "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely,[c] if Adonijah does not pay with his life for this request! 24And now, as surely as the LORD lives—he who has established me securely on the throne of my father David and has founded a dynasty for me as he promised[d]—Adonijah shall be put to death today!" 25So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah[e] son of Jehoiada, and he struck down Adonijah and he died.[f] 26To Abiathar[g] the priest the king said, "Go back to your fields in Anathoth.[h] You deserve to die, but I will not put you to death now, because you carried the ark[i] of the Sovereign LORD before my father David and shared all my father's hardships."[j] 27So Solomon removed Abiathar from the priesthood of the LORD, fulfilling[k] the word the LORD had spoken at Shiloh about the house of Eli.
28When the news reached Joab, who had conspired with Adonijah though not with Absalom, he fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns[l] of the altar. 29King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD and was beside the altar.[a] Then Solomon ordered Benaiah[b] son of Jehoiada, "Go, strike him down!" 30So Benaiah entered the tent[c] of the LORD and said to Joab, "The king says, 'Come out![d]' "

But he answered, "No, I will die here." Benaiah reported to the king, "This is how Joab answered me." 31Then the king commanded Benaiah, "Do as he says. Strike him down and bury him, and so clear me and my father's house of the guilt of the innocent blood[e] that Joab shed. 32The LORD will repay[f] him for the blood he shed,[g] because without the knowledge of my father David he attacked two men and killed them with the sword.
Both of them—Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel's army, and Amasa[h] son of Jether, commander of Judah's army—were better[i] men and more upright than he. 33May the guilt of their blood rest on the head of Joab and his descendants forever. But on David and his descendants, his house and his throne, may there be the LORD's peace forever." 34So Benaiah[j] son of Jehoiada went up and struck down Joab[k] and killed him, and he was buried on his own land[d] in the desert. 35The king put Benaiah[l] son of Jehoiada over the army in Joab's position and replaced Abiathar with Zadok[m] the priest.
36Then the king sent for Shimei[n] and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but do not go anywhere else. 37The day you leave and cross the Kidron Valley,[o] you can be sure you will die; your blood will be on your own head."[p] 38Shimei answered the king, "What you say is good. Your servant will do as my lord the king has said." And Shimei stayed in Jerusalem for a long time.
39But three years later, two of Shimei's slaves ran off to Achish[q] son of Maacah, king of Gath, and Shimei was told, "Your slaves are in Gath." 40At this, he saddled his donkey and went to Achish at Gath in search of his slaves. So Shimei went away and brought the slaves back from Gath.
41When Solomon was told that Shim-ei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned, 42the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn[r] you, 'On the day you leave to will repay you for your wrongdoing.

naiah[u] son of Jehoiada, and he went killed him.

The kingdom was now firmly established[w] in Solomon's hands.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

3:4-15pp — 2Ch 1:2-13

3 Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt and married[x] his daughter.[y] He brought her to the City of David[z] until he finished building his palace[a] and the temple of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem. 2The people, however, were still sacrificing at the high places,[b] because a temple had not yet been built for the Name[c] of the LORD. 3Solomon showed his love[d] for the LORD by walking[e] according to the statutes[f] of his father David, except that he offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.[g] 4The king went to Gibeon[h] to offer sacrifices, for that was the most important high place, and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.
5At Gibeon the LORD appeared[i] to Solomon during the night in a dream,[j] and God said, "Ask[k] for whatever you want me to give you." 6Solomon answered, "You have shown great kindness to your servant, my father David, because he was faithful[l] to you and righteous and upright in heart. You have continued this great kindness to him and have given him a son[m] to sit on his throne this very day.
7"Now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David. But I am only a little child[n] and do not know how to carry out my duties. 8Your servant is here among the people you have chosen,[o] a great people, too numerous to count or number.[p] 9So give your servant a discerning[a] heart to govern your people and to distinguish[b] between right and wrong. For who is able[c] to govern this great people of yours?" 10The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this. 11So God said to him, "Since you have asked[d] for this and not for long life or wealth for yourself, nor have asked for the death of your enemies but for discernment[e] in administering justice, 12I will do what you have asked.[f] I will give you a wise[g] and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be. 13Moreover, I will give you what you have not[h] asked for—both riches and honor[i] —so that in your lifetime you will have no equal[j] among kings. 14And if you walk[k] in my ways and obey my statutes and commands as David your father did, I will give you a long life."[l] 15Then Solomon awoke[m]—and he realized it had been a dream.[n] He returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord's covenant and sacrificed burnt offerings[o] and fellowship offerings.[e][p] Then he gave a feast[q] for all his court.

A Wise Ruling

16Now two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him. 17One of them said, "My lord, this woman and I live in the same house. I had a baby while she was there with me. 18The third day after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no one in the house but the two of us.
19"During the night this woman's son died because she lay on him. 20So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I your servant was asleep. She put him by her breast and put her dead son by my breast. 21The next morning, I got up to nurse my son—and he was dead!
But when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn't the son I had borne." 22The other woman said, "No! The living one is my son; the dead one is yours."
But the first one insisted, "No! The dead one is yours; the living one is mine." And so they argued before the king.
23The king said, "This one says, 'My son is alive and your son is dead,' while that one says, 'No! Your son is dead and mine is alive.' " 24Then the king said, "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword for the king. 25He then gave an order: "Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other." 26The woman whose son was alive was filled with compassion[r] for her son and said to the king, "Please, my lord, give her the living baby! Don't kill him!"

But the other said, "Neither I nor you shall have him. Cut him in two!" 27Then the king gave his ruling:
"Give the living baby to the first woman. Do not kill him; she is his mother." 28When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom[s] from God to administer justice.

Solomon's Officials and Governors

4 So King Solomon ruled over all Israel. 2And these were his chief officials:[t]

Azariah[u] son of Zadok—the priest; 3Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha—secretaries;[v] Jehoshaphat[w] son of Ahilud—recorder; 4Benaiah[x] son of Jehoiada—commander in chief; Zadok[y] and Abiathar—priests; 5Azariah son of Nathan—in charge of the district officers; Zabud son of Nathan—a priest and personal adviser to the king; 6Ahishar—in charge of the palace;[z] Adoniram[a] son of Abda—in charge of forced labor.[b]

7Solomon also had twelve district governors[c] over all Israel, who supplied provisions for the king and the royal household. Each one had to provide supplies for one month in the year. 8These are their names:

Ben-Hur—in the hill country[d] of Ephraim; 9Ben-Deker—in Makaz, Shaalbim,[e] Beth Shemesh[f] and Elon Bethhanan; 10Ben-Hesed—in Arubboth (Socoh[g] and all the land of Hepher[h] were his); 11Ben-Abinadab — in Naphoth

[e]15 Traditionally peace offerings

Dor[f][a] (he was married to Ta-phath daughter of Solomon); 12 Baana son of Ahilud—in Taanach and Megiddo, and in all of Beth Shan[b] next to Zarethan[c] below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah[d] across to Jokmeam;[e] 13 Ben-Geber—in Ramoth Gilead (the settlements of Jair[f] son of Manasseh in Gilead[g] were his, as well as the district of Argob in Bashan and its sixty large walled cities[h] with bronze gate bars); 14 Ahinadab son of Iddo—in Maha-naim;[i] 15 Ahimaaz[j]—in Naphtali (he had married Basemath daughter of Solomon);
16 Baana son of Hushai[k]—in Asher and in Aloth; 17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah—in Is-sachar;
18 Shimei[l] son of Ela—in Benjamin; 19 Geber son of Uri—in Gilead (the country of Sihon[m] king of the Amorites and the country of Og[n] king of Bashan). He was the only governor over the district.

Solomon's Daily Provisions

20 The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand[o] on the seashore; they ate, they drank and they were happy.[p] 21 And Solomon ruled[q] over all the kingdoms from the River[g][r] to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.[s] These countries brought tribute[t] and were Solomon's subjects all his life.
22 Solomon's daily provisions[u] were thirty cors[h] of fine flour and sixty cors[i] of meal, 23 ten head of stall-fed cattle, twenty of pasture-fed cattle and a hundred sheep and goats, as well as deer, gazelles, roebucks and choice fowl.[v] 24 For he ruled over all the kingdoms west of the River, from Tiphsah[w] to Gaza, and had peace[x] on all sides.
25 During Solomon's lifetime Judah and Israel, from Dan to Beersheba,[y] lived in safety,[z] each man under his own vine and fig tree.[a] 26 Solomon had four[j] thousand stalls for chariot horses,[b] and twelve thousand horses.[k] 27 The district officers,[c] each in his month, supplied provisions for King Solomon and all who came to the king's table. They saw to it that nothing was lacking. 28 They also brought to the proper place their quotas of barley and straw for the chariot horses and the other horses.

Solomon's Wisdom

29 God gave Solomon wisdom[d] and very great insight, and a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand[e] on the seashore. 30 Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men of the East,[f] and greater than all the wisdom of Egypt.[g] 31 He was wiser[h] than any other man, including Ethan the Ezrahite—wiser than Heman, Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame spread to all the surrounding nations. 32 He spoke three thousand proverbs[i] and his songs[j] numbered a thousand and five. 33 He described plant life, from the cedar of Lebanon to the hyssop[k] that grows out of walls. He also taught about animals and birds, reptiles and fish. 34 Men of all nations came to listen to Solomon's wisdom, sent by all the kings[l] of the world, who had heard of his wisdom.

Preparations for Building the Temple

5:1-16pp — 2Ch 2:1-18

5 When Hiram[m] king of Tyre heard that Solomon had been anointed king to succeed his father David, he sent his envoys to Solomon, because he had always been on friendly terms with David. 2 Solomon sent back this message to Hiram:

3 "You know that because of the wars[n] waged against my father David from all sides, he could not build[o] a temple for the Name of the LORD his God until the LORD put his enemies under his feet.[p] 4 But now the LORD my God has given me rest[q] on every side, and there is no adversary[r] or disaster. 5 I intend, therefore, to build a temple[s] for the Name of the LORD my God, as the LORD told my father David, when he said, 'Your son whom I will put on the throne in your place will build the temple for my Name.'[t] 6 "So give orders that cedars[u] of Lebanon be cut for me. My men will work with yours, and I will pay you for your men whatever wages you set. You know that we

[7]When Hiram heard Solomon's message, he was greatly pleased and said, "Praise be to the LORD[a] today, for he has given David a wise son to rule over this great nation."

[8]So Hiram sent word to Solomon:

"I have received the message you sent me and will do all you want in providing the cedar and pine logs. [9]My men will haul them down from Lebanon to the sea[b], and I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you specify. There I will separate them and you can take them away. And you are to grant my wish by providing food[c] for my royal household."

[10]In this way Hiram kept Solomon supplied with all the cedar and pine logs he wanted, [11]and Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors[l] of wheat as food[d] for his household, in addition to twenty thousand baths[m,n] of pressed olive oil. Solomon continued to do this for Hiram year after year. [12]The LORD gave Solomon wisdom,[e] just as he had promised him. There were peaceful relations between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.[f]

[13]King Solomon conscripted laborers[g] from all Israel—thirty thousand men. [14]He sent them off to Lebanon in shifts of ten thousand a month, so that they spent one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram[h] was in charge of the forced labor. [15]Solomon had seventy thousand carriers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hills, [16]as well as thirty-three hundred[o] foremen[i] who supervised the project and directed the workmen. [17]At the king's command they removed from the quarry[j] large blocks of quality stone[k] to provide a foundation of dressed stone for the temple. [18]The craftsmen of Solomon and Hiram[l] and the men of Gebal[p,m] cut and prepared the timber and stone for the building of the temple.

Solomon Builds the Temple

6:1-29pp — 2Ch 3:1-14

6 In the four hundred and eightieth[q] year after the Israelites had come out of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, the second month,[n] he began to build the temple of the LORD.[o]

[2]The temple[p] that King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty wide and thirty high.[r] [3]The portico[q] at the front of the main hall of the temple extended the width of the temple, that is twenty cubits,[s] and projected ten cubits[t] from the front of the temple. [4]He made narrow clerestory windows[r] in the temple. [5]Against the walls of the main hall and inner sanctuary he built a structure around the building, in which there were side rooms.[s] [6]The lowest floor was five cubits[u] wide, the middle floor six cubits[v] and the third floor seven.[w] He made offset ledges around the outside of the temple so that nothing would be inserted into the temple walls.

[7]In building the temple, only blocks dressed[t] at the quarry were used, and no hammer, chisel or any other iron tool[u] was heard at the temple site while it was being built.

[8]The entrance to the lowest[x] floor was on the south side of the temple; a stairway led up to the middle level and from there to the third. [9]So he built the temple and completed it, roofing it with beams and cedar[v] planks. [10]And he built the side rooms all along the temple. The height of each was five cubits, and they were attached to the temple by beams of cedar.

[11]The word of the LORD came[w] to Solomon: [12]"As for this temple you are building, if you follow my decrees, carry out my regulations and keep all my commands[x] and obey them, I will fulfill through you the promise[y] I gave to David your father. [13]And I will live among the Israelites and will not abandon[z] my people Israel."

[14]So Solomon[a] built the temple and completed[b] it. [15]He lined its interior walls with cedar boards, paneling them from the floor of the temple to the ceiling,[c] and covered the floor of the temple with planks of pine.[d] [16]He parti-tioned off twenty cubits[s] at the rear of the temple with cedar boards from floor to ceiling to form within the temple an inner sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.[a] 17The main hall in front of this room was forty cubits[y] long. 18The inside of the temple was cedar,[b] carved with gourds and open flowers. Everything was cedar; no stone was to be seen.

19He prepared the inner sanctuary[c] within the temple to set the ark of the covenant[d] of the LORD there. 20The inner sanctuary[e] was twenty cubits long, twenty wide and twenty high.[z] He overlaid the inside with pure gold, and he also overlaid the altar of cedar.[f] 21Solomon covered the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he extended gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, which was overlaid with gold. 22So he overlaid the whole interior with gold. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary.
23In the inner sanctuary he made a pair of cherubim[g] of olive wood, each ten cubits[a] high. 24One wing of the first cherub was five cubits long, and the other wing five cubits—ten cubits from wing tip to wing tip. 25The second cherub also measured ten cubits, for the two cherubim were identical in size and shape. 26The height of each cherub was ten cubits. 27He placed the cher-ubim[h] inside the innermost room of the temple, with their wings spread out. The wing of one cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the other touched the other wall, and their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. 28He overlaid the cherubim with gold.
29On the walls[i] all around the temple, in both the inner and outer rooms, he carved cherubim,[j] palm trees and open flowers. 30He also covered the floors of both the inner and outer rooms of the temple with gold.
31For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood with five-sided jambs. 32And on the two olive wood doors[k] he carved cher-ubim, palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid the cherubim and palm trees with beaten gold. 33In the same way he made four-sided jambs of olive wood for the entrance to the main hall.
34He also made two pine doors, each having two leaves that turned in sockets. 35He carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers on them and overlaid them with gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

36And he built the inner courtyard[l] of three courses[m] of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams.
37The foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv. 38In the eleventh year in the month of Bul, the eighth month, the temple was finished in all its details[n] according to its specifications.[o] He had spent seven years building it.

Solomon Builds His Palace

7 It took Solomon thirteen years, however, to complete the construction of his palace.[p] 2He built the Palace[q] of the Forest of Lebanon[r] a hundred cubits long, fifty wide and thirty high,[b] with four rows of cedar columns supporting trimmed cedar beams. 3It was roofed with cedar above the beams that rested on the columns—forty-five beams, fifteen to a row. 4Its windows were placed high in sets of three, facing each other. 5All the doorways had rectangular frames; they were in the front part in sets of three, facing each other.[c] 6He made a colonnade fifty cubits long and thirty wide.[d] In front of it was a portico, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.
7He built the throne hall, the Hall of Justice, where he was to judge,[s] and he covered it with cedar from floor to ceiling.[e][t] 8And the palace in which he was to live, set farther back, was similar in design. Solomon also made a palace like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.[u] 9All these structures, from the outside to the great courtyard and from foundation to eaves, were made of blocks of high-grade stone cut to size and trimmed with a saw on their inner and outer faces. 10The foundations were laid with large stones of good quality, some measuring ten cubits[e] and some eight.[f] 11Above were high-grade stones, cut to size, and cedar beams. 12The great courtyard was surrounded by a wall of three courses[v] of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams, as was the inner

The Temple's Furnishings

7:23-26pp — 2Ch 4:2-5

13King Solomon sent to Tyre and brought Huram,[a] 14whose mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali and whose father was a man of Tyre and a craftsman in bronze. Huram was highly skilled and experienced in all kinds of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all the work assigned to him.
15He cast two bronze pillars, each eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits around,[b] by line. 16He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; each capital was five cubits[c] high. 17A network of interwoven chains festooned the capitals on top of the pillars, seven for each capital. 18He made pomegranates in two rows[d] encircling each network to decorate the capitals on top of the pillars.[e] He did the same for each capital. 19The capitals on top of the pillars in the por-tico were in the shape of lilies, four cubits[f] high. 20On the capitals of both pillars, above the bowl-shaped part next to the network, were the two hundred pomegranates in rows all around.
21He erected the pillars at the portico of the temple. The pillar to the south he named Jakin[g] and the one to the north Boaz.[h] 22The capitals on top were in the shape of lilies. And so the work on the pillars was completed.
23He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits[i] from rim to rim and five cubits high. It took a line of thirty cubits[j] to measure around it. 24Below the rim, gourds encircled it—ten to a cubit. The gourds were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.
25The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were toward the center. 26It was a handbreadth[k] in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths.[l] 27He also made ten movable stands of bronze; each was four cubits long, four wide and three high.[m] 28This is how the stands were made: They had side panels attached to uprights. 29On the panels between the uprights were lions, bulls and cherubim—and on the uprights as well. Above and below the lions and bulls were wreaths of hammered work. 30Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and each had a basin resting on four supports, cast with wreaths on each side.
31On the inside of the stand there was an opening that had a circular frame one cubit[n] deep. This opening was round, and with its basework it measured a cubit and a half.[o] Around its opening there was engraving. The panels of the stands were square, not round. 32The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles of the wheels were attached to the stand. The diameter of each wheel was a cubit and a half. 33The wheels were made like chariot wheels; the axles, rims, spokes and hubs were all of cast metal.
34Each stand had four handles, one on each corner, projecting from the stand. 35At the top of the stand there was a circular band half a cubit[p] deep.
The supports and panels were attached to the top of the stand. 36He engraved cherubim, lions and palm trees on the surfaces of the supports and on the panels, in every available space, with wreaths all around. 37This is the way he made the ten stands. They were all cast in the same molds and were identical in size and shape.
38He then made ten bronze basins, each holding forty baths[q] and measuring four cubits across, one basin to go on each of the ten stands. 39He placed five of the stands on the south side of the temple and five on the north. He placed the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner of the temple. 40He also made the basins and shovels and sprinkling bowls.[a] So Huram finished all the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of the LORD:

[41]the two pillars;
the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;
the two sets of network decorating
the two bowl-shaped capitals on
top of the pillars; [42]the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-pillars); [43]the ten stands with their ten basins;

[44]the Sea and the twelve bulls under
it;
[45]the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls.[c]

All these objects that Huram[d] made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of burnished bronze. [46]The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain[e] of the Jordan between Succoth[f] and Zarethan.[g] [47]Solomon left all these things unweighed,[h] because there were so many;[i] the weight of the bronze[j] was not determined.
[48]Solomon also made all[k] the furnishings that were in the LORD's temple:

the golden altar;
the golden table[l] on which was the bread of the Presence;[m] [49]the lampstands[n] of pure gold (five on the right and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary);
the gold floral work and lamps and tongs;
[50]the pure gold basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes[o] and censers;[p]
and the gold sockets for the doors of the innermost room, the Most Holy Place, and also for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

[51]When all the work King Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated[q]—the silver and gold and the furnishings[r]—and he placed them in the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

The Ark Brought to the Temple

8:1-21pp — 2Ch 5:2-6:11

8 Then King Solomon summoned into his presence at Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs[s] of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark[t] of the LORD's covenant from Zion, the City of David.[u] [2]All the men of Israel came together to King Solomon at the time of the festival[v] in the month of Ethanim, the seventh month.[w] [3]When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the priests[x] took up the ark, [4]and they brought up the ark of the LORD and the Tent of Meeting[y] and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests and Levites[z] carried them up, [5]and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing[a] so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.
[6]The priests then brought the ark of the LORD's covenant[b] to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place,[c] and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim.[d] [7]The cher-ubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and overshadowed[e] the ark and its carrying poles. [8]These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today.[f] [9]There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets[g] that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.
[10]When the priests withdrew from the Holy Place, the cloud[h] filled the temple of the LORD. [11]And the priests could not perform their service[i] because of the cloud, for the glory[j] of the LORD filled his temple.
[12]Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;[k] [13]I have indeed built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell[l] forever." [14]While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned around and blessed[m] them. [15]Then he said:

"Praise be to the LORD,[n] the God of Israel, who with his own hand has fulfilled what he promised with his own mouth to my father David.
For he said, [16]'Since the day I brought my people Israel out of Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

8:22-53pp — 2Ch 6:12-40

22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel, spread out his hands[k] toward heaven 23 and said:

"O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like[l] you in heaven above or on earth below—you who keep your covenant of love[m] with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way.
24 You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it—as it is today.
25 "Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises[n] you made to him when you said, 'You shall never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me as you have done.' 26 And now, O God of Israel, let your word that you promised[o] your servant David my father come true.
27 "But will God really dwell[p] on earth? The heavens, even the highest heaven,[q] cannot contain[r] you.
How much less this temple I have built!
28 Yet give attention to your servant's prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence this day.
29 May your eyes be open[s] toward[t] this temple night and day, this place of which you said, 'My Name[u] shall be there,' so that you will hear the prayer your servant prays toward this place.
30 Hear the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray[v] toward this place. Hear[w] from heaven, your dwelling place, and when you hear, forgive.[x] 31 "When a man wrongs his neighbor and is required to take an oath and he comes and swears the oath[y] before your altar in this temple, 32 then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, condemning the guilty and bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty, and so establish his innocence.[z] 33 "When your people Israel have been defeated[a] by an enemy because they have sinned[b] against you, and when they turn back to you and confess your name, praying and making supplication to you in this temple,[c] 34 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to their fathers.
35 "When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain[d] because your people have sinned[e] against you, and when they pray toward this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them, 36 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel.
Teach[f] them the right way[g] to live, and send rain[h] on the land you gave your people for an inheritance.
37 "When famine[i] or plague[j] comes to the land, or blight[k] or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers,[l] or when an enemy besieges them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come, 38 and own heart, and spreading out his hands[a] toward this temple—39then hear[b] from heaven, your dwelling place. Forgive[c] and act; deal with each man according to all he does, since you know[d] his heart (for you alone know the hearts of all men), 40so that they will fear[e] you all the time they live in the land[f] you gave our fathers.

41"As for the foreigner[g] who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your name— 42for men will hear[h] of your great name and your mighty hand[i] and your outstretched arm—when he comes and prays toward this temple, 43then hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know[j] your name and fear[k] you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house I have built bears your Name.[l]

44"When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray[m] to the LORD toward the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name, 45then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.[n]

46"When they sin against you—for there is no one who does not sin[o]—and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive[p] to his own land, far away or near; 47and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead[q] with you in the land of their conquerors and say, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly';[r] 48and if they turn back[s] to you with all their heart[t] and soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and pray[u] to you toward the land you gave their fathers, toward the city you have chosen and the temple[v] I have built for your Name;[w] 49then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause. 50And forgive your people, who have sinned against you; forgive all the offenses they have committed against you, and cause their conquerors to show them mercy;[x] 51for they are your people and your inheritance,[y] whom you brought out of Egypt, out of that iron-smelting furnace.[z]

52"May your eyes be open[a] to your servant's plea and to the plea of your people Israel, and may you listen to them whenever they cry out to you.[b] 53For you singled them out from all the nations of the world to be your own inheritance,[c] just as you declared through your servant Moses when you, O Sovereign LORD, brought our fathers out of Egypt."

54When Solomon had finished all these prayers and supplications to the LORD, he rose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven. 55He stood and blessed[d] the whole assembly of Israel in a loud voice, saying:

56"Praise be to the LORD, who has given rest[e] to his people Israel just as he promised. Not one word has failed of all the good promises[f] he gave through his servant Moses.
57May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our fathers; may he never leave us nor forsake[g] us.
58May he turn our hearts[h] to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep the commands, decrees and regulations he gave our fathers. 59And may these words of mine, which I have prayed before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that he may uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel according to each day's need, 60so that all the peoples[i] of the earth may know that the LORD is God and that there is no other.[j] 61But your hearts[k] must be fully committed[l] to the LORD our God, to live by his decrees and obey his commands, as at this time."

him offered sacrifices[m] before the LORD.

ship offerings[n] to the LORD: twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So 64 On that same day the king consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings, because the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings.

65 So Solomon observed the festival at that time, and all Israel with him—a vast assembly, people from Lebo[a] Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. They celebrated it before the LORD our God for seven days and seven days more, fourteen days in all. 66 On the following day he sent the people away. They blessed the king and then went home, joyful and glad in heart for all the good things the LORD had done for his servant David and his people Israel.

The LORD Appears to Solomon

9:1-9pp—2Ch 7:11-22

9 When Solomon had finished building the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had achieved all he had desired to do, 2 the LORD appeared to him a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. 3 The LORD said to him:

"I have heard the prayer and plea you have made before me; I have consecrated this temple, which you have built, by putting my Name there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.
4 "As for you, if you walk before me in integrity of heart and uprightness, as David your father did, and do all I command and observe my decrees and laws, 5 I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised David your father when I said, 'You shall never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.' 6 "But if you[b] or your sons turn away from me and do not observe the commands and decrees I have given you and go off to serve other gods and worship them, 7 then I will cut off Israel from the land I have given them and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. Israel will then become a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples.

brought all this disaster on

Solomon's Other Activities

9:10-28pp—2Ch 8:1-18

10 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built these two buildings—the temple of the LORD and the royal palace— 11 King Solomon gave twenty towns in Galilee to Hiram king of Tyre, because Hiram had supplied him with all the cedar and pine and gold he wanted. 12 But when Hiram went from Tyre to see the towns that Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them. 13 "What kind of towns are these you have given me, my brother?" he asked. And he called them the Land of Cabul,[c] a name they have to this day. 14 Now Hiram had sent to the king 120 talents[d] of gold.
15 Here is the account of the forced labor King Solomon conscripted to build the LORD's temple, his own palace, the supporting terraces,[e] the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, Megid-do and Gezer. 16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Ge-zer. He had set it on fire. He killed its Canaanite inhabitants and then gave it as a wedding gift to his daughter, Solomon's wife. 17 And Solomon rebuilt Gezer.) He built up Lower Beth Horon, 18 Baalath, and Tadmor[f] in the desert, within his land, 19 as well as all his store cities and the towns for his chariots[g] and for his horses—whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.
20 All the people left from the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites (these peoples were not Israelites), 21 that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites could not exterminate[f a]—these Solomon conscripted for his slave labor force,[b] as it is to this day. 22But Solomon did not make slaves[c] of any of the Israelites; they were his fighting men, his government officials, his officers, his captains, and the commanders of his chariots and charioteers. 23They were also the chief officials[d] in charge of Solomon's projects—550 officials supervising the men who did the work.

24After Pharaoh's daughter[e] had come up from the City of David to the palace Solomon had built for her, he constructed the supporting terraces.[f] 25Three[g] times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings[g] on the altar he had built for the LORD, burning incense before the LORD along with them, and so fulfilled the temple obligations.
26King Solomon also built ships[h] at Ezion Geber,[i] which is near Elath[j] in Edom, on the shore of the Red Sea.[h] 27And Hiram sent his men—sailors[k] who knew the sea—to serve in the fleet with Solomon's men. 28They sailed to Ophir[l] and brought back 420 talents[i] of gold,[m] which they delivered to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

10:1-13pp — 2Ch 9:1-12

10 When the queen of Sheba[n] heard about the fame[o] of Solomon and his relation to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.[p] 2Arriving at Jerusalem with a very great caravan[q]—with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones—she came to Solomon and talked with him about all that she had on her mind. 3Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain to her. 4When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the palace he had built, 5the food on his table,[r] the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he made at[j] the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.
6She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.
7But I did not believe[s] these things until I came and saw with my own eyes.
Indeed, not even half was told me; in wisdom and wealth[t] you have far exceeded the report I heard. 8How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear[u] your wisdom! 9Praise[v] be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the LORD's eternal love[w] for Israel, he has made you king, to maintain justice[x] and righteousness." 10And she gave the king 120 talents[k] of gold,[y] large quantities of spices, and precious stones. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
11(Hiram's ships brought gold from Ophir;[z] and from there they brought great cargoes of almugwood[l] and precious stones. 12The king used the almugwood to make supports for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. So much almugwood has never been imported or seen since that day.) 13King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

Solomon's Splendor

10:14-29pp — 2Ch 1:14-17; 9:13-28

14The weight of the gold[a] that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents,[m] 15not including the revenues from merchants and traders and from all the Arabian kings and the governors of the land.
16King Solomon made two hundred large shields[b] of hammered gold; six hundred bekas[n] of gold went into each shield. 17He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold, with three minas[o] of gold in each shield.
The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.[c] 18Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory and overlaid with fine gold. 19The throne had six steps, and its back had a rounded top. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each of them.

20 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom. 21 All King Solomon's goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold.[a] Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon's days. 22 The king had a fleet of trading ships[p][b] at sea along with the ships[c] of Hiram. Once every three years it returned, carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.
23 King Solomon was greater in riches[d] and wisdom[e] than all the other kings of the earth. 24 The whole world sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom[f] God had put in his heart.
25 Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift[g]—articles of silver and gold, robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.
26 Solomon accumulated chariots and horses;[h] he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses,[q] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. 27 The king made silver as common[i] in Jerusalem as stones,[j] and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig[k] trees in the foothills.
28 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt[r] and from Kue[s]—the royal merchants purchased them from Kue.
29 They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels[t] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty.[u] They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites[l] and of the Arameans.

Solomon's Wives

11 King Solomon, however, loved many foreign women[m] besides Pharaoh's daughter—Moabites, Am-monites,[n] Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites. 2 They were from nations about which the LORD had told the Israelites, "You must not intermarry[o] with them, because they will surely turn your hearts after their gods." Nevertheless, Solomon held fast to them in love. 3 He had seven hundred wives of royal birth and three hundred concubines,[p] and his wives led him astray.[q] 4 As Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods,[r] and his heart was not fully devoted[s] to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been.
5 He followed Ashtoreth[t] the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molech[v][u] the detestable god of the Ammonites. 6 So Solomon did evil[v] in the eyes of the LORD; he did not follow the LORD completely, as David his father had done.
7 On a hill east[w] of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh[x] the detestable god of Moab, and for Molech[y] the detestable god of the Am-monites. 8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.
9 The LORD became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared[z] to him twice. 10 Although he had forbidden Solomon to follow other gods,[a] Solomon did not keep the LORD's command.[b] 11 So the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this is your attitude and you have not kept my covenant and my decrees,[c] which I commanded you, I will most certainly tear[d] the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your subordinates.
12 Nevertheless, for the sake of David[e] your father, I will not do it during your lifetime. I will tear it out of the hand of your son. 13 Yet I will not tear the whole kingdom from him, but will give him one tribe[f] for the sake[g] of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."[h]

Solomon's Adversaries

14 Then the LORD raised up against Solomon an adversary,[i] Hadad the Edomite, from the royal line of Edom.
15 Earlier when David was fighting with Edom, Joab the commander of the army, who had gone up to bury the dead, had struck down all the men in Edom.[j] 16 Joab and all the Israelites stayed there for six months, until they had destroyed all the men in Edom.
17 But Hadad, still only a boy, fled to Egypt with some Edomite officials who had served his father. 18 They set out from Midian and went to Paran.[k] Then taking men from Paran with them, they went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house and land and provided him with food.
19 Pharaoh was so pleased with Hadad that he gave him a sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes, in marriage. 20 The sister of Tahpenes bore him a son named Genubath, whom Tahpenes brought up in the royal pal-the army was also dead. Then Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me go, that I may return to my own country." 22"What have you lacked here that you want to go back to your own country?" Pharaoh asked.

"Nothing," Hadad replied, "but do let me go!"
23And God raised up against Solomon another adversary,[a] Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer[b] king of Zobah. 24He gathered men around him and became the leader of a band of rebels when David destroyed the forces[w] of Zobah; the rebels went to Damascus,[c] where they settled and took control. 25Rezon was Israel's adversary as long as Solomon lived, adding to the trouble caused by Hadad. So Rezon ruled in Aram[d] and was hostile toward Israel.

Jeroboam Rebels Against Solomon

26Also, Jeroboam son of Nebat rebelled[e] against the king. He was one of Solomon's officials, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, and his mother was a widow named Zeruah.
27Here is the account of how he rebelled against the king: Solomon had built the supporting terraces[x][f] and had filled in the gap in the wall of the city of David his father. 28Now Jeroboam was a man of standing,[g] and when Solomon saw how well[h] the young man did his work, he put him in charge of the whole labor force of the house of Joseph.
29About that time Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, and Ahijah[i] the prophet of Shiloh met him on the way, wearing a new cloak. The two of them were alone out in the country, 30and Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore[j] it into twelve pieces. 31Then he said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:
'See, I am going to tear[k] the kingdom out of Solomon's hand and give you ten tribes. 32But for the sake[l] of my servant David and the city of Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, he will have one tribe. 33I will do this because they have[y] forsaken me and worshiped[m] Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Molech the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked[n] in my ways, nor done what is right in my eyes, nor kept my statutes[o] and laws as David, Solomon's father, did.
34" 'But I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon's hand; I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of David my servant, whom I chose and who observed my commands and statutes. 35I will take the kingdom from his son's hands and give you ten tribes. 36I will give one tribe[p] to his son so that David my servant may always have a lamp[q] before me in Jerusalem, the city where I chose to put my Name. 37However, as for you, I will take you, and you will rule[r] over all that your heart desires;[s] you will be king over Israel. 38If you do whatever I command you and walk in my ways and do what is right[t] in my eyes by keeping my statutes[u] and commands, as David my servant did, I will be with you. I will build you a dynasty[v] as enduring as the one I built for David and will give Israel to you. 39I will humble David's descendants because of this, but not forever.' " 40Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam fled[w] to Egypt, to Shishak[x] the king, and stayed there until Solomon's death.

Solomon's Death

41As for the other events of Solomon's reign—all he did and the wisdom he displayed—are they not written in the book of the annals of Solomon? 42Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. 43Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam[y] his son succeeded him as king.

Israel Rebels Against Rehoboam

12 Rehoboam went to Shechem,[z] for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king. 2When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was still in Egypt, where he had fled[a] from King Solomon), he returned from[a] Egypt. 3So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and the whole assembly of Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him:

4"Your father put a heavy yoke[a] on us, but now lighten the harsh labor and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

5Rehoboam answered, "Go away for three days and then come back to me." So the people went away.

6Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders[b] who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. "How would you advise me to answer these people?" he asked.

7They replied, "If today you will be a servant to these people and serve them and give them a favorable answer,[c] they will always be your servants."

8But Rehoboam rejected[d] the advice the elders gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him. 9He asked them, "What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me, 'Lighten the yoke your father put on us'?"

10The young men who had grown up with him replied, "Tell these people who have said to you, 'Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter'—tell them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. 11My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.' "

12Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, "Come back to me in three days." 13The king answered the people harshly. Rejecting the advice given him by the elders, 14he followed the advice of the young men and said, "My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged[e] you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions." 15So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from the LORD,[f] to fulfill the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah[g] the Shilonite.

16When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king:

"What share[h] do we have in David, what part in Jesse's son?
To your tents, O Israel![i] Look after your own house, O David!"[j]

So the Israelites went home. 17But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah,[k] Rehoboam still ruled over them.

18King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram,[b][l] who was in charge of forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death.[m] King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem. 19So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David[n] to this day.

20When all the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the house of David.[o]

21When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin—a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men—to make war[p] against the house of Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam son of Solomon.

22But this word of God came to Shemaiah[q] the man of God:[r] 23"Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, to the whole house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, 24'This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.' " So they obeyed the word of the LORD and went home again, as the LORD had ordered.

Golden Calves at Bethel and Dan

25Then Jeroboam fortified Shechem[s] in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built up Peniel.[c][t]

26Jeroboam thought to himself, "The kingdom will now likely revert to the house of David. 27If these people go up to offer sacrifices at the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem,[u] they will again give their allegiance to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah. They will kill me and return to King Rehoboam."

28After seeking advice, the king made two golden calves.[v] He said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt."[w] 29One he set up in Bethel,[x] and the other in Dan.[y] 30And this thing became a sin;[z] the people went even as far as Dan to worship the one there.

31 Jeroboam built shrines[a] on high places and appointed priests[b] from all sorts of people, even though they were not Levites. 32 He instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth[c] month, like the festival held in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. This he did in Bethel,[d] sacrificing to the calves he had made. And at Bethel he also installed priests at the high places he had made. 33 On the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing, he offered sacrifices on the altar he had built at Bethel.[e] So he instituted the festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to make offerings.

The Man of God From Judah

13 By the word of the LORD a man of God[f] came from Judah to Bethel,[g] as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to make an offering. 2 He cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD: "O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says: 'A son named Josiah[h] will be born to the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places[i] who now make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you.' " 3 That same day the man of God gave a sign:[j] "This is the sign the LORD has declared: The altar will be split apart and the ashes on it will be poured out."

4 When King Jeroboam heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar and said, "Seize him!" But the hand he stretched out toward the man shriveled up, so that he could not pull it back. 5 Also, the altar was split apart and its ashes poured out according to the sign given by the man of God by the word of the LORD.

6 Then the king said to the man of God, "Intercede[k] with the LORD your God and pray for me that my hand may be restored." So the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king's hand was restored and became as it was before.

7 The king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and have something to eat, and I will give you a gift."[l]

8 But the man of God answered the king, "Even if you were to give me half your possessions,[m] I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread[n] or drink water here. 9 For I was commanded by the word of the LORD: 'You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came.' " 10 So he took another road and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

11 Now there was a certain old prophet living in Bethel, whose sons came and told him all that the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what he had said to the king. 12 Their father asked them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken. 13 So he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." And when they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it 14 and rode after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

"I am," he replied.

15 So the prophet said to him, "Come home with me and eat."

16 The man of God said, "I cannot turn back and go with you, nor can I eat bread[o] or drink water with you in this place. 17 I have been told by the word of the LORD: 'You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.' "

18 The old prophet answered, "I too am a prophet, as you are. And an angel said to me by the word of the LORD:[p]
'Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.' " (But he was lying[q] to him.) 19 So the man of God returned with him and ate and drank in his house.

20 While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the old prophet who had brought him back.
21 He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, "This is what the LORD says: 'You have defied[r] the word of the LORD and have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you.
22 You came back and ate bread and drank water in the place where he told you not to eat or drink. Therefore your body will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers.' "

23 When the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him. 24 As he went on his way, a lion[s] met him on the road and killed him, and his body was thrown down on the road, with both the donkey and the lion standing beside it. 25 Some people who passed by saw the body thrown down there, with the lion standing beside the body, and they went and reported it in the city where the old prophet lived.

26 When the prophet who had brought him back from his journey heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God who defied[a] the word of the LORD.
The LORD has given him over to the lion, which has mauled him and killed him, as the word of the LORD had warned him." 27 The prophet said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me," and they did so. 28 Then he went out and found the body thrown down on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. The lion had neither eaten the body nor mauled the donkey. 29 So the prophet picked up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to his own city to mourn for him and bury him. 30 Then he laid the body in his own tomb,[b] and they mourned over him and said, "Oh, my brother!"[c] 31 After burying him, he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones[d] beside his bones. 32 For the message he declared by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines on the high places[e] in the towns of Samaria[f] will certainly come true."[g] 33 Even after this, Jeroboam did not change his evil ways,[h] but once more appointed priests for the high places from all sorts[i] of people. Anyone who wanted to become a priest he consecrated for the high places. 34 This was the sin[j] of the house of Jeroboam that led to its downfall and to its destruction[k] from the face of the earth.

Ahijah's Prophecy Against Jeroboam

14 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became ill, 2 and Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go, disguise yourself, so you won't be recognized as the wife of Jeroboam. Then go to Shiloh. Ahi-jah[l] the prophet is there—the one who told me I would be king over this people. 3 Take ten loaves of bread[m] with you, some cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy." 4 So Jero-boam's wife did what he said and went to Ahijah's house in Shiloh.
Now Ahijah could not see; his sight was gone because of his age. 5 But the LORD had told Ahijah, "Jeroboam's wife is coming to ask you about her son, for he is ill, and you are to give her such and such an answer. When she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else." 6 So when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps at the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why this pretense?[n] I have been sent to you with bad news. 7 Go, tell Jeroboam that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:[o] 'I raised you up from among the people and made you a leader[p] over my people Israel. 8 I tore[q] the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you, but you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commands and followed me with all his heart, doing only what was right[r] in my eyes. 9 You have done more evil[s] than all who lived before you.[t] You have made for yourself other gods, idols[u] made of metal; you have provoked[v] me to anger and thrust me behind your back.[w] 10 "'Because of this, I am going to bring disaster[x] on the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off from Jeroboam every last male in Israel—slave or free.[y] I will burn up the house of Jeroboam as one burns dung, until it is all gone.[z] 11 Dogs[a] will eat those belonging to Jeroboam who die in the city, and the birds of the air[b] will feed on those who die in the country. The LORD has spoken!' 12 "As for you, go back home. When you set foot in your city, the boy will die. 13 All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only one belonging to Jeroboam who will be buried, because he is the only one in the house of Jeroboam in whom the LORD, the God of Israel, has found anything good.[c] 14 "The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who will cut off the family of Jeroboam. This is the day!
What? Yes, even now.[d] 15 And the LORD will strike Israel, so that it will be like a reed swaying in the water. He will uproot[d] Israel from this good land that he gave to their forefathers and scatter them beyond the River,[e] because they provoked[e] the LORD to anger by making Asherah[f] poles.[f] 16 And he will give Israel up because of the sins[g] Jeroboam has committed and has caused Israel to commit." 17 Then Jeroboam's wife got up and left and went to Tirzah.[h] As soon as she stepped over the threshold of the house, the boy died. 18They buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, as the LORD had said through his servant the prophet Ahijah.

Rehoboam King of Judah

21Rehoboam son of Solomon was king in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.[a] 22Judah[b] did evil in the eyes of the LORD. By the sins they committed they stirred up his jealous anger[c] more than their fathers had done. 23They also set up for themselves high places, sacred stones[d] and Asherah poles[e] on every high hill and under every spreading tree.[f] 24There were even male shrine prostitutes[g] in the land; the people engaged in all the detestable[h] practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

25In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt attacked[i] Jerusalem. 26He carried off the treasures of the temple[j] of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including all the gold shields[k] Solomon had made. 27So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.[l] 28Whenever the king went to the LORD's temple, the guards bore the shields, and afterward they returned them to the guardroom.

29As for the other events of Rehoboam's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? 30There was continual warfare[m] between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. 31And Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.[n] And Abijah[g] his son succeeded him as king.

Abijah King of Judah

15 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijah[h] became king of Judah, 2and he reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother's name was Maacah[o] daughter of Abishalom.[i]

3He committed all the sins his father had done before him; his heart was not fully devoted[p] to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his forefather had been. 4Nevertheless, for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp[q] in Jerusalem by raising up a son to succeed him and by making Jerusalem strong. 5For David had done what was right in the eyes of the LORD and had not failed to keep[r] any of the LORD's commands all the days of his life—except in the case of Uriah[s] the Hittite.

6There was war[t] between Rehoboam[j] and Jeroboam throughout ⌞Abijah's⌟ lifetime. 7As for the other events of Abijah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. 8And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Asa his son succeeded him as king.

Asa King of Judah

9In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah, 10and he reigned in Jerusalem forty-one years. His grandmother's name was Maacah[u] daughter of Abishalom.

11Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as his father David[v] had done. 12He expelled the male shrine prostitutes[w] from the land and got rid of all the idols[x] his fathers had made. 13He even deposed his grandmother Maacah[y] from her position as queen mother,[z] because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole. Asa cut the pole down[a] and burned it in the Kidron Valley. 14Although he did not remove[b] the high places, Asa's heart was fully committed[c] to the LORD all his life. 15He brought into the temple of the LORD the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.[a] 16There was war[b] between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns. 17Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah[c] to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

18Asa then took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the LORD's temple[d] and of his own palace. He entrusted it to his officials and sent[e] them to Ben-Hadad[f] son of Tab-rimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.
19"Let there be a treaty[g] between me and you," he said, "as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you a gift of silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so he will withdraw from me."

20Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. He conquered[h] Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah and all Kinnereth in addition to Naph-tali. 21When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah[i] and withdrew to Tirzah.[j] 22Then King Asa issued an order to all Judah—no one was exempt—and they carried away from Ramah[k] the stones and timber Baasha had been using there. With them King Asa[l] built up Geba[m] in Benjamin, and also Mizpah.[n]

23As for all the other events of Asa's reign, all his achievements, all he did and the cities he built, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? In his old age, however, his feet became diseased. 24Then Asa rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his father David. And Jehoshaphat[o] his son succeeded him as king.

Nadab King of Israel

25Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. 26He did evil[p] in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of his father[q] and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

27Baasha son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar plotted against him, and he struck him down[r] at Gibbethon,[s] a Philistine town, while Nadab and all Israel were besieging it. 28Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Judah and succeeded him as king.

29As soon as he began to reign, he killed Jeroboam's whole family.[t] He did not leave Jeroboam anyone that breathed, but destroyed them all, according to the word of the LORD given through his servant Ahijah the Shilo-nite— 30because of the sins[u] Jeroboam had committed and had caused[v] Israel to commit, and because he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger.

31As for the other events of Nadab's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals[w] of the kings of Israel? 32There was war[x] between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

Baasha King of Israel

33In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of all Israel in Tirzah,[y] and he reigned twenty-four years. 34He did evil[z] in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

16 Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu[a] son of Hanani[b] against Baasha: 2"I lifted you up from the dust[c] and made you leader[d] of my people Israel, but you walked in the ways of Jeroboam and caused[e] my people Israel to sin and to provoke me to anger by their sins. 3So I am about to consume Baasha[f] and his house,[g] and I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat. 4Dogs[h] will eat those belonging to Baasha who die in the city, and the birds of the air[i] will feed on those who die in the country."

5As for the other events of Baasha's reign, what he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals[j] of the kings of Israel?
6Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah.[k] And Elah his son succeeded him as king.

7Moreover, the word of the LORD came[l] through the prophet Jehu[m] son of Hanani to Baasha and his house, because of all the evil he had done in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger by the things he did, and becoming like the house of Jeroboam—and also because he destroyed it.

Elah King of Israel

8In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah two years.

9Zimri, one of his officials, who had command of half his chariots, plotted against him. Elah was in Tirzah at the time, getting drunk[a] in the home of Arza, the man in charge[b] of the palace at Tirzah. 10Zimri came in, struck him down and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah.

Then he succeeded him as king.[c] 11As soon as he began to reign and was seated on the throne, he killed off Baasha's whole family.[d] He did not spare a single male, whether relative or friend. 12So Zimri destroyed the whole family of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken against Baasha through the prophet Jehu—13because of all the sins Baasha and his son Elah had committed and had caused Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.[e] 14As for the other events of Elah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

Zimri King of Israel

15In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned in Tirzah seven days. The army was encamped near Gibbethon,[f] a Philistine town.
16When the Israelites in the camp heard that Zimri had plotted against the king and murdered him, they proclaimed Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that very day there in the camp. 17Then Omri and all the Israelites with him withdrew from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah. 18When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the royal palace and set the palace on fire around him.
So he died, 19because of the sins he had committed, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD and walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in the sin he had committed and had caused Israel to commit.
20As for the other events of Zimri's reign, and the rebellion he carried out, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

Omri King of Israel

21Then the people of Israel were split into two factions; half supported Tibni son of Ginath for king, and the other half supported Omri. 22But Omri's followers proved stronger than those of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.
23In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.[g] 24He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents[k] of silver and built a city on the hill, calling it Samaria,[h] after Shemer, the name of the former owner of the hill.
25But Omri did evil[i] in the eyes of the LORD and sinned more than all those before him. 26He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in his sin, which he had caused[j] Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.[k] 27As for the other events of Omri's reign, what he did and the things he achieved, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? 28Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria.[l] And Ahab his son succeeded him as king.

Ahab Becomes King of Israel

29In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria over Israel twenty-two years.
30Ahab son of Omri did more[m] evil in the eyes of the LORD than any of those before him. 31He not only considered it trivial to commit the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, but he also married[n] Jezebel daughter[o] of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and began to serve Baal[p] and worship him. 32He set up an altar[q] for Baal in the temple[r] of Baal that he built in Samaria. 33Ahab also made an Asherah pole[s] and did more[t] to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than did all the kings of Israel before him.
34In Ahab's time, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundations at the cost of his firstborn son Abiram, and he set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by Joshua son of Nun.[u]

Elijah Fed by Ravens

17 Now Elijah[v] the Tishbite, from Tishbe[l] in Gilead,[w] said to Ahab, "As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain[x] in the next few years except at my word." 2Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah: 3"Leave here, turn eastward and hide[y] in the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan. 4You will drink from the brook, you there."

5 So he did what the LORD had told him. He went to the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan, and stayed there.
6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning[b] and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

The Widow at Zarephath

7 Some time later the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land. 8 Then the word of the LORD came to him: 9 "Go at once to Zarephath[c] of Sidon and stay there. I have commanded a widow[d] in that place to supply you with food." 10 So he went to Zarephath. When he came to the town gate, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and asked, "Would you bring me a little water in a jar so I may have a drink?"[e] 11 As she was going to get it, he called, "And bring me, please, a piece of bread." 12 "As surely as the LORD your God lives," she replied, "I don't have any bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil[f] in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it—and die." 13 Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid.
Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small cake of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son. 14 For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the LORD gives rain[g] on the land.' " 15 She went away and did as Elijah had told her. So there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family. 16 For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the LORD spoken by Elijah.
17 Some time later the son of the woman who owned the house became ill. He grew worse and worse, and finally stopped breathing. 18 She said to Elijah, "What do you have against me, man of God? Did you come to remind me of my sin[h] and kill my son?" 19 "Give me your son," Elijah replied.
He took him from her arms, carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his bed.
20 Then he cried[i] out to the LORD, "O LORD my God, have you brought tragedy also upon this widow I am staying with, by causing her son to die?" 21 Then he stretched[j] himself out on the boy three times and cried to the LORD, "O LORD my God, let this boy's life return to him!" 22 The LORD heard Elijah's cry, and the boy's life returned to him, and he lived. 23 Elijah picked up the child and carried him down from the room into the house. He gave him to his mother[k] and said, "Look, your son is alive!" 24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know[l] that you are a man of God[m] and that the word of the LORD from your mouth is the truth."[n]

Elijah and Obadiah

18 After a long time, in the third[o] year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah: "Go and present[p] yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain[q] on the land." 2 So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab.
Now the famine was severe[r] in Samaria, 3 and Ahab had summoned Obadiah, who was in charge[s] of his palace.
(Obadiah was a devout believer[t] in the LORD. 4 While Jezebel[u] was killing off the LORD's prophets, Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and hidden[v] them in two caves, fifty in each, and had supplied[w] them with food and water.) 5 Ahab had said to Obadiah, "Go through the land to all the springs[x] and valleys. Maybe we can find some grass to keep the horses and mules alive so we will not have to kill any of our animals."[y] 6 So they divided the land they were to cover, Ahab going in one direction and Obadiah in another.
7 As Obadiah was walking along, Elijah met him. Obadiah recognized[z] him, bowed down to the ground, and said, "Is it really you, my lord Elijah?" 8 "Yes," he replied. "Go tell your master, 'Elijah is here.' " 9 "What have I done wrong," asked Obadiah, "that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to be put to death? 10 As surely as the LORD your God lives, there is not a nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to look[a] for you. And whenever a nation or kingdom claimed you were not there, he made them swear they could not find you. 11 But now you tell me to go to my master and say, 'Elijah is here.' 12 I don't know where the Spirit[b] of the LORD may carry you when I leave you. If I go and tell Ahab and he 15Elijah said, "As the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, I will surely present[a] myself to Ahab today."

Elijah on Mount Carmel

16So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab went to meet Elijah. 17When he saw Elijah, he said to him, "Is that you, you troubler[b] of Israel?"

18"I have not made trouble for Israel," Elijah replied. "But you[c] and your father's family have. You have abandoned[d] the LORD's commands and have followed the Baals. 19Now summon[e] the people from all over Israel to meet me on Mount Carmel.[f] And bring the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."[g]

20So Ahab sent word throughout all Israel and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel.[h] 21Elijah went before the people and said, "How long will you waver[i] between two opinions? If the LORD[j] is God, follow him; but if Baal is God, follow him."

But the people said nothing.

22Then Elijah said to them, "I am the only one of the LORD's prophets left,[k] but Baal has four hundred and fifty prophets.[l] 23Get two bulls for us. Let them choose one for themselves, and let them cut it into pieces and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. 24Then you call[m] on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD.[n] The god who answers by fire[o]—he is God."

Then all the people said, "What you say is good."

25Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one of the bulls and prepare it first, since there are so many of you.
Call on the name of your god, but do not light the fire." 26So they took the bull given them and prepared it.

Then they called[p] on the name of Baal from morning till noon. "O Baal, answer us!" they shouted. But there was no response;[q] no one answered.
And they danced around the altar they had made.

27At noon Elijah began to taunt them.
"Shout louder!" he said. "Surely he is a god! Perhaps he is deep in thought, or busy, or traveling. Maybe he is sleeping and must be awakened."[r] 28So they shouted louder and slashed[s] themselves with swords and spears, as was their custom, until their blood flowed. 29Midday passed, and they continued their frantic prophesying until the time for the evening sacrifice.[t] But there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention.[u]

30Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come here to me." They came to him, and he repaired the altar[v] of the LORD, which was in ruins. 31Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes descended from Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Your name shall be Israel."[w] 32With the stones he built an altar in the name[x] of the LORD, and he dug a trench around it large enough to hold two seahs[m] of seed. 33He arranged[y] the wood, cut the bull into pieces and laid it on the wood.
Then he said to them, "Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the offering and on the wood."

34"Do it again," he said, and they did it again.

"Do it a third time," he ordered, and they did it the third time. 35The water ran down around the altar and even filled the trench.

36At the time[z] of sacrifice, the prophet Elijah stepped forward and prayed: "O LORD, God of Abraham,[a] Isaac and Israel, let it be known[b] today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your command.[c] 37Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so these people will know[d] that you, O LORD, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back again."

38Then the fire[e] of the LORD fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones and the soil, and also licked up the water in the trench.

39When all the people saw this, they fell prostrate[f] and cried, "The LORD—he is God! The LORD—he is God!"[g] 40Then Elijah commanded them, "Seize the prophets of Baal. Don't let anyone get away!" They seized them, and Elijah had them brought down to 41 And Elijah said to Ahab, "Go, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a heavy rain." 42 So Ahab went off to eat and drink, but Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent down to the ground and put his face between his knees.[c]

43 "Go and look toward the sea," he told his servant. And he went up and looked.

"There is nothing there," he said.

Seven times Elijah said, "Go back."

44 The seventh time[d] the servant reported, "A cloud[e] as small as a man's hand is rising from the sea."

So Elijah said, "Go and tell Ahab, 'Hitch up your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.' "

45 Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, a heavy rain[f] came on and Ahab rode off to Jezreel.[g] 46 The power[h] of the LORD came upon Elijah and, tucking his cloak into his belt,[i] he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

Elijah Flees to Horeb

19 Now Ahab told Jezebel[j] everything Elijah had done and how he had killed[k] all the prophets with the sword. 2 So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, "May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely,[l] if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them."[m]

3 Elijah was afraid[n] and ran[n] for his life.[o] When he came to Beersheba[p] in Judah, he left his servant there, 4 while he himself went a day's journey into the desert. He came to a broom tree,[q] sat down under it and prayed that he might die. "I have had enough, LORD," he said. "Take my life;[r] I am no better than my ancestors." 5 Then he lay down under the tree and fell asleep.[s]

All at once an angel[t] touched him and said, "Get up and eat." 6 He looked around, and there by his head was a cake of bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again.

7 The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, "Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you." 8 So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he traveled forty[u] days and forty nights until he reached Horeb,[v] the mountain of God. 9 There he went into a cave[w] and spent the night.

The LORD Appears to Elijah

And the word of the LORD came to him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?"[x]

10 He replied, "I have been very zealous[y] for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant,[z] broken down your altars,[a] and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left,[b] and now they are trying to kill me too."

11 The LORD said, "Go out and stand on the mountain[c] in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by."[d]

Then a great and powerful wind[e] tore the mountains apart and shattered[f] the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. 12 After the earthquake came a fire,[g] but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper.[h] 13 When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face[i] and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave.

Then a voice said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

14 He replied, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left,[j] and now they are trying to kill me too."

15 The LORD said to him, "Go back the way you came, and go to the Desert of Damascus. When you get there, anoint Hazael[k] king over Aram. 16 Also, anoint[l] Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha[m] son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah[n] to succeed you as prophet. 17 Jehu will put to death any who escape the sword of Hazael,[o] and Elisha will put to death any who escape the sword of Jehu.[p] 18 Yet I reserve[q] seven thousand in Israel—all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and all whose mouths have not kissed[r] him."

The Call of Elisha

19 So Elijah went from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. He was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen, and he himself was driving the twelfth pair. Elijah went up to him and threw his cloak[s] around him. 20 Elisha then left his oxen and ran after Elijah. "Let me

Ben-Hadad Attacks Samaria

20 Now Ben-Hadad[d] king of Aram mustered his entire army. Accompanied by thirty-two kings with their horses and chariots, he went up and besieged Samaria[e] and attacked it.
2He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, saying, "This is what Ben-Hadad says: 3'Your silver and gold are mine, and the best of your wives and children are mine.' " 4The king of Israel answered, "Just as you say, my lord the king. I and all I have are yours." 5The messengers came again and said, "This is what Ben-Hadad says: 'I sent to demand your silver and gold, your wives and your children. 6But about this time tomorrow I am going to send my officials to search your palace and the houses of your officials. They will seize everything you value and carry it away.' " 7The king of Israel summoned all the elders[f] of the land and said to them, "See how this man is looking for trouble![g] When he sent for my wives and my children, my silver and my gold, I did not refuse him." 8The elders and the people all answered, "Don't listen to him or agree to his demands." 9So he replied to Ben-Hadad's messengers, "Tell my lord the king, 'Your servant will do all you demanded the first time, but this demand I cannot meet.' " They left and took the answer back to Ben-Hadad.
10Then Ben-Hadad sent another message to Ahab: "May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if enough dust[h] remains in Samaria to give each of my men a handful." 11The king of Israel answered, "Tell him: 'One who puts on his armor should not boast[i] like one who takes it off.' " 12Ben-Hadad heard this message while he and the kings were drinking[j] in their tents,[e] and he ordered his men: "Prepare to attack." So they prepared to attack the city.

Ahab Defeats Ben-Hadad

13Meanwhile a prophet[k] came to Ahab king of Israel and announced, "This is what the LORD says: 'Do you see this vast army? I will give it into your hand today, and then you will know[l] that I am the LORD.' " 14"But who will do this?" asked Ahab.
The prophet replied, "This is what the LORD says: 'The young officers of the provincial commanders will do it.' "
"And who will start[m] the battle?" he asked.
The prophet answered, "You will."
15So Ahab summoned the young officers of the provincial commanders, 232 men. Then he assembled the rest of the Israelites, 7,000 in all. 16They set out at noon while Ben-Hadad and the 32 kings allied with him were in their tents getting drunk.[n] 17The young officers of the provincial commanders went out first.
Now Ben-Hadad had dispatched scouts, who reported, "Men are advancing from Samaria." 18He said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive." 19The young officers of the provincial commanders marched out of the city with the army behind them 20and each one struck down his opponent. At that, the Arameans fled, with the Israelites in pursuit. But Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of his horsemen. 21The king of Israel advanced and overpowered the horses and chariots and inflicted heavy losses on the Arameans.
22Afterward, the prophet[o] came to the king of Israel and said, "Strengthen your position and see what must be done, because next spring[p] the king of Aram will attack you again." 23Meanwhile, the officials of the king of Aram advised him, "Their gods are gods[q] of the hills. That is why they were too strong for us. But if we fight them on the plains, surely we will be stronger than they. 24Do this: Remove all the kings from their commands and replace them with other officers. 25You must also raise an army like the one

26The next spring[a] Ben-Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek[b] to fight against Israel. 27When the Israelites were also mustered and given provisions, they marched out to meet them. The Israelites camped opposite them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans covered the countryside.[c]

28The man of God came up and told the king of Israel, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because the Arameans think the LORD is a god of the hills and not a god[d] of the valleys, I will deliver this vast army into your hands, and you will know[e] that I am the LORD.' "

29For seven days they camped opposite each other, and on the seventh day the battle was joined. The Israelites inflicted a hundred thousand casualties on the Aramean foot soldiers in one day. 30The rest of them escaped to the city of Aphek,[f] where the wall collapsed[g] on twenty-seven thousand of them. And Ben-Hadad fled to the city and hid[h] in an inner room.

31His officials said to him, "Look, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful.[i] Let us go to the king of Israel with sackcloth[j] around our waists and ropes around our heads. Perhaps he will spare your life."

32Wearing sackcloth around their waists and ropes around their heads, they went to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says: 'Please let me live.' "

The king answered, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

33The men took this as a good sign and were quick to pick up his word. "Yes, your brother Ben-Hadad!" they said.

"Go and get him," the king said. When Ben-Hadad came out, Ahab had him come up into his chariot.

34"I will return the cities[k] my father took from your father," Ben-Hadad[l] offered. "You may set up your own market areas[m] in Damascus,[n] as my father did in Samaria."

⌞Ahab said,⌟ "On the basis of a treaty[o] I will set you free." So he made a treaty with him, and let him go.

A Prophet Condemns Ahab

35By the word of the LORD one of the sons of the prophets[p] said to his companion, "Strike me with your weapon," but the man refused.[q]

36So the prophet said, "Because you have not obeyed the LORD, as soon as you leave me a lion[r] will kill you." And after the man went away, a lion found him and killed him.

37The prophet found another man and said, "Strike me, please." So the man struck him and wounded him. 38Then the prophet went and stood by the road waiting for the king. He disguised himself with his headband down over his eyes. 39As the king passed by, the prophet called out to him, "Your servant went into the thick of the battle, and someone came to me with a captive and said, 'Guard this man. If he is missing, it will be your life for his life,[s] or you must pay a talent[p] of silver.' 40While your servant was busy here and there, the man disappeared."

"That is your sentence,"[t] the king of Israel said. "You have pronounced it yourself."

41Then the prophet quickly removed the headband from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. 42He said to the king, "This is what the LORD says: 'You[u] have set free a man I had determined should die.[q][v] Therefore it is your life for his life,[w] your people for his people.' " 43Sullen and angry,[x] the king of Israel went to his palace in Samaria.

Naboth's Vineyard

21 Some time later there was an incident involving a vineyard belonging to Naboth[y] the Jezreelite. The vineyard was in Jezreel,[z] close to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. 2Ahab said to Naboth, "Let me have your vineyard to use for a vegetable garden, since it is close to my palace. In exchange I will give you a better vineyard or, if you prefer, I will pay you whatever it is worth."

3But Naboth replied, "The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance[a] of my fathers."

4So Ahab went home, sullen and angry[b] because Naboth the Jezreelite had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He lay on his bed sulking and refused[a] to eat.

5His wife Jezebel came in and asked him, "Why are you so sullen? Why won't you eat?" 6He answered her, "Because I said to Naboth the Jezreelite, 'Sell me your vineyard; or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard in its place.' But he said, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" 7Jezebel his wife said, "Is this how you act as king over Israel? Get up and eat! Cheer up. I'll get you the vineyard[b] of Naboth the Jezreelite." 8So she wrote letters[c] in Ahab's name, placed his seal[d] on them, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city with him. 9In those letters she wrote:

"Proclaim a day of fasting and seat Naboth in a prominent place among the people. 10But seat two scoundrels[e] opposite him and have them testify that he has cursed[f] both God and the king.
Then take him out and stone him to death."

11So the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city did as Jezebel directed in the letters she had written to them.
12They proclaimed a fast[g] and seated Naboth in a prominent place among the people. 13Then two scoundrels came and sat opposite him and brought charges against Naboth before the people, saying, "Naboth has cursed both God and the king." So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death.[h] 14Then they sent word to Jezebel: "Naboth has been stoned and is dead." 15As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, "Get up and take possession of the vineyard[i] of Naboth the Jezreelite that he refused to sell you.
He is no longer alive, but dead." 16When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up and went down to take possession of Naboth's vineyard.
17Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: 18"Go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He is now in Naboth's vineyard, where he has gone to take possession of it. 19Say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: Have you not murdered a man and seized his property?'[j] Then say to him, 'This is what the LORD says: In the place where dogs licked up Naboth's blood,[k] dogs[l] will lick up your blood—yes, yours!'" 20Ahab said to Elijah, "So you have found me, my enemy!"[m]
"I have found you," he answered, "because you have sold[n] yourself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD. 21'I am going to bring disaster on you. I will consume your descendants and cut off from Ahab every last male[o] in Israel—slave or free.[p] 22I will make your house[q] like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat and that of Baasha son of Ahi-jah, because you have provoked me to anger and have caused Israel to sin.'[r] 23"And also concerning Jezebel the LORD says: 'Dogs[s] will devour Jezebel by the wall of[r] Jezreel.' 24"Dogs[t] will eat those belonging to Ahab who die in the city, and the birds of the air[u] will feed on those who die in the country." 25(There was never[v] a man like Ahab, who sold himself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, urged on by Jezebel his wife. 26He behaved in the vilest manner by going after idols, like the Amorites[w] the LORD drove out before Israel.) 27When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth[x] and fasted. He lay in sackcloth and went around meekly.[y] 28Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: 29"Have you noticed how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled[z] himself, I will not bring this disaster in his day,[a] but I will bring it on his house in the days of his son."[b]

Micaiah Prophesies Against Ahab

22 For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel. 2But in the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to see the king of Israel. 3The king of Israel had said to his officials, "Don't you know that Ramoth Gilead[c] belongs to us and yet we are doing nothing to retake it from the king of Aram?" 4So he asked Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight[d] against Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." 5But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, "First seek the counsel[a] of the LORD." 6So the king of Israel brought together the prophets—about four hundred men—and asked them, "Shall I go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"

"Go,"[b] they answered, "for the Lord will give it into the king's hand."[c] 7But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not a prophet[d] of the LORD here whom we can inquire[e] of?"
8The king of Israel answered Jehosh-aphat, "There is still one man through whom we can inquire of the LORD, but I hate[f] him because he never prophesies anything good[g] about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah." "The king should not say that," Jehoshaphat replied.
9So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, "Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once." 10Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor[h] by the entrance of the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them. 11Now Zedekiah[i] son of Kenaanah had made iron horns[j] and he declared, "This is what the LORD says: 'With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.'" 12All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. "Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious," they said, "for the LORD will give it into the king's hand." 13The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favorably."[k] 14But Micaiah said, "As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what the LORD tells me."[l] 15When he arrived, the king asked him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"
"Attack and be victorious," he answered, "for the LORD will give it into the king's hand." 16The king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"
17Then Micaiah answered, "I saw all Israel scattered[m] on the hills like sheep

18The king of Israel said to Jehosha-phat, "Didn't I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?" 19Micaiah continued, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne[o] with all the host[p] of heaven standing around him on his right and on his left. 20And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?'
"One suggested this, and another that. 21Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, 'I will entice him.' 22" 'By what means?' the LORD asked.
" 'I will go out and be a lying[q] spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,' he said.
" 'You will succeed in enticing him,' said the LORD. 'Go and do it.' 23"So now the LORD has put a lying[r] spirit in the mouths of all these prophets[s] of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster[t] for you." 24Then Zedekiah[u] son of Kenaanah went up and slapped[v] Micaiah in the face. "Which way did the spirit from[a] the LORD go when he went from me to speak[w] to you?" he asked.
25Micaiah replied, "You will find out on the day you go to hide[x] in an inner room." 26The king of Israel then ordered, "Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king's son 27and say, 'This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison[y] and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.'" 28Micaiah declared, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken[z] through me." Then he added, "Mark my words, all you people!"

Ahab Killed at Ramoth Gilead

29So the king of Israel and Jehosha-phat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. 30The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will enter the battle in disguise,[a] but you wear your royal robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.
31Now the king of Aram[b] had ordered his thirty-two chariot commanders, "Do not fight with anyone, small a24 Or Spirit of or great, except the king[a] of Israel." [32]When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, "Surely this is the king of Israel." So they turned to attack him, but when Jehoshaphat cried out, [33]the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel and stopped pursuing him.

[34]But someone drew his bow[b] at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armor. The king told his chariot driver, "Wheel around and get me out of the fighting. I've been wounded." [35]All day long the battle raged, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. The blood from his wound ran onto the floor of the chariot, and that evening he died. [36]As the sun was setting, a cry spread through the army: "Every man to his town; everyone to his land!"[c]

[37]So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried him there. [38]They washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria (where the prostitutes bathed),[t] and the dogs[d] licked up his blood, as the word of the LORD had declared.

[39]As for the other events of Ahab's reign, including all he did, the palace he built and inlaid with ivory,[e] and the cities he fortified, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? [40]Ahab rested with his fathers. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

[41]Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. [42]Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. [43]In everything he walked in the ways of his father Asa[f] and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. The high places,[g] however, were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. [44]Jehoshaphat was also at peace with the king of Israel.

[45]As for the other events of Jehoshaphat's reign, the things he achieved and his military exploits, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? [46]He rid the land of the rest of the male shrine prostitutes[h] who remained there even after the reign of his father Asa. [47]There was then no king[i] in Edom; a deputy ruled.

[48]Now Jehoshaphat built a fleet of trading ships[u][j] to go to Ophir for gold, but they never set sail—they were wrecked at Ezion Geber.[k] [49]At that time Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my men sail with your men," but Jehoshaphat refused.

[50]Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of David his father. And Jehoram his son succeeded him.

Ahaziah King of Israel

[51]Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. [52]He did evil[l] in the eyes of the LORD, because he walked in the ways of his father and mother and in the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. [53]He served and worshiped Baal[m] and provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, just as his father[n] had done.

2 Kings

The Lord's Judgment on Ahaziah

1 After Ahab's death, Moab[a] rebelled against Israel. 2Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So he sent messengers,[b] saying to them, "Go and consult Baal-Zebub,[c] the god of Ekron,[d] to see if I will recover[e] from this injury."

3But the angel[f] of the Lord said to Elijah[g] the Tishbite, "Go up and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel[h] that you are going off to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?' 4Therefore this is what the Lord says: 'You will not leave[i] the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!' " So Elijah went.

5When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you come back?"

6"A man came to meet us," they replied. "And he said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, "This is what the Lord says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending men to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave[j] the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!" ' "

7The king asked them, "What kind of man was it who came to meet you and told you this?"

8They replied, "He was a man with a garment of hair[k] and with a leather belt around his waist."

The king said, "That was Elijah the Tishbite."

9Then he sent[l] to Elijah a captain[m] with his company of fifty men. The captain went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down!' "

10Elijah answered the captain, "If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!" Then fire[n] fell from heaven and consumed the captain and his men.

11At this the king sent to Elijah another captain with his fifty men. The captain said to him, "Man of God, this is what the king says, 'Come down at once!' "

12"If I am a man of God," Elijah replied, "may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!" Then the fire of God fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

13So the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. This third captain went up and fell on his knees before Elijah. "Man of God," he begged, "please have respect for my life[o] and the lives of these fifty men, your servants! 14See, fire has fallen from heaven and consumed the first two captains and all their men. But now have respect for my life!"

15The angel[p] of the Lord said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid[q] of him." So Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

16He told the king, "This is what the Lord says: Is it because there is no God in Israel for you to consult that you have sent messengers[r] to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Because you have done this, you will never leave[s] the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!" 17So he died,[t] according to the word of the Lord that Elijah had spoken.

Because Ahaziah had no son, Joram[a][u] succeeded him as king in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. 18As for all the other events of Ahaziah's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

wind.[a] Elijah and Elisha[b] were on their way from Gilgal.[c] 2Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here;[d] the LORD has sent me to Bethel."
But Elisha said, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you."[e] So they went down to Bethel.
3The company[f] of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?"
"Yes, I know," Elisha replied, "but do not speak of it." 4Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, Elisha; the LORD has sent me to Jericho.[g]"
And he replied, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho.
5The company[h] of the prophets at Jericho went up to Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?"
"Yes, I know," he replied, "but do not speak of it." 6Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here;[i] the LORD has sent me to the Jordan."[j]
And he replied, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you."[k] So the two of them walked on.
7Fifty men of the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan. 8Elijah took his cloak,[l] rolled it up and struck[m] the water with it. The water divided[n] to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry[o] ground.
9When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?"
"Let me inherit a double[p] portion of your spirit,"[q] Elisha replied.
10"You have asked a difficult thing," Elijah said, "yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours—otherwise not."
11As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire[r] and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven[s] in a whirlwind.[t] 12Elisha saw this and cried out, "My father! My father! The chariots[u] and horsemen of Israel!" And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore[v] them apart.

13He picked up the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. 14Then he took the cloak[w] that had fallen from him and struck[x] the water with it.
"Where now is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over.
15The company[y] of the prophets from Jericho, who were watching, said, "The spirit[z] of Elijah is resting on Elisha." And they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.
16"Look," they said, "we your servants have fifty able men. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit[a] of the LORD has picked him up[b] and set him down on some mountain or in some valley."
"No," Elisha replied, "do not send
them."
17But they persisted until he was too ashamed[c] to refuse. So he said, "Send them." And they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him. 18When they returned to Elisha, who was staying in Jericho, he said to them, "Didn't I tell you not to go?"

Healing of the Water

19The men of the city said to Elisha, "Look, our lord, this town is well situated, as you can see, but the water is bad and the land is unproductive." 20"Bring me a new bowl," he said, "and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.
21Then he went out to the spring and threw[d] the salt into it, saying, "This is what the LORD says: 'I have healed this water. Never again will it cause death or make the land unproductive.' " 22And the water has remained wholesome[e] to this day, according to the word Elisha had spoken.

Elisha Is Jeered

23From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, some youths came out of the town and jeered[f] at him. "Go on up, you baldhead!" they said. "Go on up, you baldhead!" 24He turned around, looked at them and called down a curse[g] on them in the name[h] of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths. 25And he went on to Mount Carmel[i] and from there returned to Samaria.

Moab Revolts

3 Joram[b][a] son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned twelve years. 2He did evil[b] in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father[c] and mother had done. He got rid of the sacred stone[d] of Baal that his father had made. 3Nevertheless he clung to the sins[e] of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he did not turn away from them.

4Now Mesha king of Moab[f] raised sheep, and he had to supply the king of Israel with a hundred thousand lambs[g] and with the wool of a hundred thousand rams. 5But after Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled[h] against the king of Israel. 6So at that time King Joram set out from Samaria and mobilized all Israel. 7He also sent this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight[i] against Moab?"

"I will go with you," he replied. "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

8"By what route shall we attack?" he asked.

"Through the Desert of Edom," he answered.

9So the king of Israel set out with the king of Judah and the king of Edom.[j] After a roundabout march of seven days, the army had no more water for themselves or for the animals with them.

10"What!" exclaimed the king of Israel. "Has the LORD called us three kings together only to hand us over to Moab?"

11But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire[k] of the LORD through him?"

An officer of the king of Israel answered, "Elisha[l] son of Shaphat is here. He used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.[c][m]" 12Jehoshaphat said, "The word[n] of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What do we have to do with each other? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother."

"No," the king of Israel answered, "because it was the LORD who called us three kings together to hand us over to Moab."

14Elisha said, "As surely as the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, if I did not have respect for the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you or even notice you. 15But now bring me a harpist."[o]

While the harpist was playing, the hand[p] of the LORD came upon Elisha 16and he said, "This is what the LORD says: Make this valley full of ditches. 17For this is what the LORD says: You will see neither wind nor rain, yet this valley will be filled with water,[q] and you, your cattle and your other animals will drink. 18This is an easy[r] thing in the eyes of the LORD; he will also hand Moab over to you. 19You will overthrow every fortified city and every major town. You will cut down every good tree, stop up all the springs, and ruin every good field with stones."

20The next morning, about the time[s] for offering the sacrifice, there it was—water flowing from the direction of Edom! And the land was filled with water.[t]

21Now all the Moabites had heard that the kings had come to fight against them; so every man, young and old, who could bear arms was called up and stationed on the border. 22When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water. To the Moabites across the way, the water looked red—like blood. 23"That's blood!" they said. "Those kings must have fought and slaughtered each other. Now to the plunder, Moab!"

24But when the Moabites came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and fought them until they fled. And the Israelites invaded the land and slaughtered the Moabites. 25They destroyed the towns, and each man threw a stone on every good field until it was covered. They stopped up all the springs and cut down every good tree. Only Kir Hareseth[u] was left with its stones in place, but men armed with slings surrounded it and attacked it as well.

26When the king of Moab saw that the battle had gone against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed. 27Then he took his firstborn[v] son, who was to succeed

The Widow's Oil

4 The wife of a man from the company[a] of the prophets cried out to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that he revered the LORD. But now his creditor[b] is coming to take my two boys as his slaves." 2 Elisha replied to her, "How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?"
"Your servant has nothing there at all," she said, "except a little oil."[c] 3 Elisha said, "Go around and ask all your neighbors for empty jars. Don't ask for just a few.
4 Then go inside and shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour oil into all the jars, and as each is filled, put it to one side." 5 She left him and afterward shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her and she kept pouring.
6 When all the jars were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another one."
But he replied, "There is not a jar left." Then the oil stopped flowing.
7 She went and told the man of God,[d] and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left."

The Shunammite's Son Restored to Life

8 One day Elisha went to Shunem.[e] And a well-to-do woman was there, who urged him to stay for a meal. So whenever he came by, he stopped there to eat.
9 She said to her husband, "I know that this man who often comes our way is a holy man of God.
10 Let's make a small room on the roof and put in it a bed and a table, a chair and a lamp for him. Then he can stay[f] there whenever he comes to us." 11 One day when Elisha came, he went up to his room and lay down
there.
12 He said to his servant Gehazi, "Call the Shunammite."[g] So he called her, and she stood before him.
13 Elisha said to him, "Tell her, 'You have gone to all this trouble for us. Now what can be done for you? Can we speak on your behalf to the king or the commander of the army?' "
She replied, "I have a home among my own people."

14 "What can be done for her?" Elisha
asked.
Gehazi said, "Well, she has no son and her husband is old." 15 Then Elisha said, "Call her." So he called her, and she stood in the doorway.
16 "About this time[h] next year," Elisha said, "you will hold a son in your arms."
"No, my lord," she objected. "Don't mislead your servant, O man of God!" 17 But the woman became pregnant, and the next year about that same time she gave birth to a son, just as Elisha had told her.
18 The child grew, and one day he went out to his father, who was with the reapers.[i] 19 "My head! My head!"
he said to his father.
His father told a servant, "Carry him to his mother." 20 After the servant had lifted him up and carried him to his mother, the boy sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.
21 She went up and laid him on the bed[j] of the man of God, then shut the door and went out.
22 She called her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and a donkey so I can go to the man of God quickly and return." 23 "Why go to him today?" he asked.
"It's not the New Moon[k] or the Sabbath."
"It's all right," she said.
24 She saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Lead on; don't slow down for me unless I tell you." 25 So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel.[l]
When he saw her in the distance, the man of God said to his servant Gehazi, "Look! There's the Shunammite!
26 Run to meet her and ask her, 'Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your child all right?' "
"Everything is all right," she said.
27 When she reached the man of God at the mountain, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi came over to push her away, but the man of God said, "Leave her alone! She is in bitter distress,[m] but the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me why." 28 "Did I ask you for a son, my lord?" she said. "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't raise my hopes'?" 29 Elisha said to Gehazi, "Tuck your cloak into your belt,[n] take my staff[o] in your hand and run. If you meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer. Lay my staff on the boy's face."

30But the child's mother said, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So he got up and followed her.
31Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the boy's face, but there was no sound or response. So Gehazi went back to meet Elisha and told him, "The boy has not awakened." 32When Elisha reached the house, there was the boy lying dead on his couch.[a] 33He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed[b] to the LORD. 34Then he got on the bed and lay upon the boy, mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, hands to hands. As he stretched[c] himself out upon him, the boy's body grew warm. 35Elisha turned away and walked back and forth in the room and then got on the bed and stretched out upon him once more. The boy sneezed seven times[d] and opened his eyes.[e] 36Elisha summoned Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite." And he did.
When she came, he said, "Take your son."[f] 37She came in, fell at his feet and bowed to the ground. Then she took her son and went out.

Death in the Pot

38Elisha returned to Gilgal[g] and there was a famine[h] in that region. While the company of the prophets was meeting with him, he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot and cook some stew for these men." 39One of them went out into the fields to gather herbs and found a wild vine. He gathered some of its gourds and filled the fold of his cloak. When he returned, he cut them up into the pot of stew, though no one knew what they were. 40The stew was poured out for the men, but as they began to eat it, they cried out, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.
41Elisha said, "Get some flour." He put it into the pot and said, "Serve it to the people to eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.[i]

Feeding of a Hundred

42A man came from Baal Shalishah,[j] bringing the man of God twenty loaves[k] of barley bread[l] baked from the first ripe grain, along with some heads of new grain. "Give it to the people to eat," Elisha said.
43"How can I set this before a hundred men?" his servant asked.
But Elisha answered, "Give it to the people to eat.[m] For this is what the LORD says: 'They will eat and have some left over.'[n]" 44Then he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

Naaman Healed of Leprosy

5 Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram.[o] He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the LORD had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy.[d][p] 2Now bands[q] from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. 3She said to her mistress, "If only my master would see the prophet[r] who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." 4Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said.
5"By all means, go," the king of Aram replied. "I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents[e] of silver, six thousand shekels[f] of gold and ten sets of clothing.[s] 6The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: "With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his lep-rosy." 7As soon as the king of Israel read the letter,[t] he tore his robes and said, "Am I God?[u] Can I kill and bring back to life?[v] Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his lep-rosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel[w] with me!" 8When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: "Why have you torn your robes? Have the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet[x] in Israel." 9So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house. 10Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, "Go, wash[y] yourself seven times[z] in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed." 11But Naaman went away angry and said, "I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on boy.[g] 15 Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God[h].

He stood before him and said, "Now I know[i] that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. Please accept now a gift[j] from your servant." 16 The prophet answered, "As surely as the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will not accept a thing." And even though Naaman urged him, he refused.[k] 17 "If you will not," said Naaman, "please let me, your servant, be given as much earth[l] as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will never again make burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god but the LORD. 18 But may the LORD forgive your servant for this one thing: When my master enters the temple of Rimmon to bow down and he is leaning[m] on my arm and I bow there also—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant for this." 19 "Go in peace,"[n] Elisha said.
After Naaman had traveled some distance, 20 Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself,
"My master was too easy on Naaman, this Aramean, by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as the LORD[o] lives, I will run after him and get something from him." 21 So Gehazi hurried after Naaman.
When Naaman saw him running toward him, he got down from the chariot to meet him. "Is everything all right?" he asked.
22 "Everything is all right," Gehazi answered. "My master sent me to say, 'Two young men from the company of the prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim.
Please give them a talent[g] of silver and two sets of clothing.' "[p]

23 "By all means, take two talents," said Naaman. He urged Gehazi to accept them, and then tied up the two talents of silver in two bags, with two sets of clothing. He gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them ahead of Gehazi. 24 When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the things from the servants and put them away in the house. He sent the men away and they left. 25 Then he went in and stood before his master Elisha.
"Where have you been, Gehazi?" Elisha asked.
"Your servant didn't go anywhere," Gehazi answered.
26 But Elisha said to him, "Was not my spirit with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time[q] to take money, or to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, flocks, herds, or menservants and maidservants?[r] 27 Naaman's leprosy[s] will cling to you and to your descendants forever." Then Gehazi[t] went from Elisha's presence and he was leprous, as white as snow.[u]

An Axhead Floats

6 The company[v] of the prophets said to Elisha, "Look, the place where we meet with you is too small for us.
2 Let us go to the Jordan, where each of us can get a pole; and let us build a place there for us to live."
And he said, "Go." 3 Then one of them said, "Won't you please come with your servants?"
"I will," Elisha replied. 4 And he went with them.
They went to the Jordan and began to cut down trees. 5 As one of them was cutting down a tree, the iron axhead fell into the water. "Oh, my lord," he cried out, "it was borrowed!" 6 The man of God asked, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, Elisha cut a stick and threw[w] it there, and made the iron float. 7 "Lift it out," he said. Then the man reached out his hand and took it.

Elisha Traps Blinded Arameans

8 Now the king of Aram was at war with Israel. After conferring with his officers, he said, "I will set up my camp in such and such a place." 9 The man of God sent word to the king[x] of Israel: "Beware of passing that place, because the Arameans are going down there."[a] 10So the king of Israel checked on the place indicated by the man of God. Time and again Elisha warned[a] the king, so that he was on his guard in such places.

11This enraged the king of Aram. He summoned his officers and demanded of them, "Will you not tell me which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?" 12"None of us, my lord the king[b]," said one of his officers, "but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the very words you speak in your bedroom." 13"Go, find out where he is," the king ordered, "so I can send men and capture him." The report came back:
"He is in Dothan."[c] 14Then he sent[d] horses and chariots and a strong force there. They went by night and surrounded the city.
15When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. "Oh, my lord, what shall we do?" the servant asked.
16"Don't be afraid,"[e] the prophet answered. "Those who are with us are more[f] than those who are with them." 17And Elisha prayed, "O LORD, open his eyes so he may see." Then the LORD opened the servant's eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots[g] of fire all around Elisha.
18As the enemy came down toward him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, "Strike these people with blindness."[h] So he struck them with blindness, as Elisha had asked.
19Elisha told them, "This is not the road and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you are looking for." And he led them to Samaria.
20After they entered the city, Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men so they can see." Then the LORD opened their eyes and they looked, and there they were, inside Samaria.
21When the king of Israel saw them, he asked Elisha, "Shall I kill them, my father?[i] Shall I kill them?" 22"Do not kill them," he answered.
"Would you kill men you have captured[j] with your own sword or bow?
Set food and water before them so that they may eat and drink and then go back to their master." 23So he prepared a great feast for them, and after they had finished eating and drinking, he sent them away, and they returned to their master. So the bands[k] from Aram stopped raiding Israel's territory.

Famine in Besieged Samaria

24Some time later, Ben-Hadad[l] king of Aram mobilized his entire army and marched up and laid siege[m] to Samaria.
25There was a great famine[n] in the city; the siege lasted so long that a donkey's head sold for eighty shekels[h] of silver, and a fourth of a cab[i] of seed pods[j] [o] for five shekels.[k] 26As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, "Help me, my lord the king!" 27The king replied, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor? From the winepress?" 28Then he asked her, "What's the matter?"
She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give up your son so we may eat him today, and tomorrow we'll eat my son.' 29So we cooked my son and ate[p] him. The next day I said to her, 'Give up your son so we may eat him,' but she had hidden him." 30When the king heard the woman's words, he tore[q] his robes. As he went along the wall, the people looked, and there, underneath, he had sackcloth[r] on his body. 31He said, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today!" 32Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders[s] were sitting with him. The king sent a messenger ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the elders, "Don't you see how this murderer[t] is sending someone to cut off my head?[u] Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it shut against him. Is not the sound of his master's footsteps behind him?" 33While he was still talking to them, the messenger came down to him. And the king said, "This disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait[v] for the LORD any longer?" 7 Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the LORD says: About this time tomorrow, a seah[l] of flour will sell for a shekel[m] and two seahs[n] of barley for a shekel[a] at the gate of Samaria." 2 The officer on whose arm the king was leaning[b] said to the man of God, "Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates[c] of the heavens, could this happen?"

"You will see it with your own eyes," answered Elisha, "but you will not eat[d] any of it!"

The Siege Lifted

3 Now there were four men with lep-rosy[o][e] at the entrance of the city gate.
They said to each other, "Why stay here until we die? 4 If we say, 'We'll go into the city'—the famine is there, and we will die. And if we stay here, we will die. So let's go over to the camp of the Arameans and surrender. If they spare us, we live; if they kill us, then we die." 5 At dusk they got up and went to the camp of the Arameans. When they reached the edge of the camp, not a man was there, 6 for the Lord had caused the Arameans to hear the sound[f] of chariots and horses and a great army, so that they said to one another, "Look, the king of Israel has hired[g] the Hittite[h] and Egyptian kings to attack us!" 7 So they got up and fled[i] in the dusk and abandoned their tents and their horses and donkeys. They left the camp as it was and ran for their lives.
8 The men who had leprosy[j] reached the edge of the camp and entered one of the tents. They ate and drank, and carried away silver, gold and clothes, and went off and hid them. They returned and entered another tent and took some things from it and hid them also.
9 Then they said to each other,
"We're not doing right. This is a day of good news and we are keeping it to ourselves. If we wait until daylight, punishment will overtake us. Let's go at once and report this to the royal palace." 10 So they went and called out to the city gatekeepers and told them, "We went into the Aramean camp and not a man was there—not a sound of anyone—only tethered horses and donkeys, and the tents left just as they were." 11 The gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported within the palace.
12 The king got up in the night and said to his officers, "I will tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know we are starving; so they have left the camp to hide[k] in the countryside, thinking, 'They will surely come out, and then we will take them alive and get into the city.'" 13 One of his officers answered, "Have some men take five of the horses that are left in the city. Their plight will be like that of all the Israelites left here—yes, they will only be like all these Israelites who are doomed. So let us send them to find out what happened." 14 So they selected two chariots with their horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army. He commanded the drivers, "Go and find out what has happened." 15 They followed them as far as the Jordan, and they found the whole road strewn with the clothing and equipment the Arameans had thrown away in their headlong flight.[l] So the messengers returned and reported to the king. 16 Then the people went out and plundered[m] the camp of the Arameans. So a seah of flour sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley sold for a shekel,[n] as the LORD had said.
17 Now the king had put the officer on whose arm he leaned in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died,[o] just as the man of God had foretold when the king came down to his house. 18 It happened as the man of God had said to the king: "About this time tomorrow, a seah of flour will sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria." 19 The officer had said to the man of God, "Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates[p] of the heavens, could this happen?" The man of God had replied, "You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it!" 20 And that is exactly what happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died.

woman[q] whose son he had re-seven years."[a] 2The woman proceeded to do as the man of God said. She and her family went away and stayed in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3At the end of the seven years she came back from the land of the Philistines and went to the king to beg for her house and land. 4The king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, and had said, "Tell me about all the great things Elisha has done." 5Just as Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had restored[b] the dead to life, the woman whose son Elisha had brought back to life came to beg the king for her house and land.

Gehazi said, "This is the woman, my lord the king, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life." 6The king asked the woman about it, and she told him.

Then he assigned an official to her case and said to him, "Give back everything that belonged to her, including all the income from her land from the day she left the country until now."

Hazael Murders Ben-Hadad

7Elisha went to Damascus,[c] and Ben-Hadad[d] king of Aram was ill. When the king was told, "The man of God has come all the way up here," 8he said to Hazael,[e] "Take a gift[f] with you and go to meet the man of God. Consult[g] the LORD through him; ask him, 'Will I recover from this illness?' "

9Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him as a gift forty camel-loads of all the finest wares of Damascus. He went in and stood before him, and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to ask, 'Will I recover from this illness?' "

10Elisha answered, "Go and say to him, 'You will certainly recover';[h] but[p] the LORD has revealed to me that he will in fact die." 11He stared at him with a fixed gaze until Hazael felt ashamed.[i] Then the man of God began to weep.[j]

12"Why is my lord weeping?" asked Hazael.

"Because I know the harm[k] you will do to the Israelites," he answered. "You will set fire to their fortified places, kill their young men with the sword, dash[l] their little children[m] to the ground, and rip open[n] their pregnant women."

13Hazael said, "How could your servant, a mere dog,[o] accomplish such a feat?"

"The LORD has shown me that you will become king[p] of Aram," answered Elisha.

14Then Hazael left Elisha and returned to his master. When Ben-Hadad asked, "What did Elisha say to you?" Hazael replied, "He told me that you would certainly recover." 15But the next day he took a thick cloth, soaked it in water and spread it over the king's face, so that he died.[q] Then Hazael succeeded him as king.

Jehoram King of Judah

16In the fifth year of Joram[r] son of Ahab king of Israel, when Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram[s] son of Jehoshaphat began his reign as king of Judah. 17He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. 18He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter[t] of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. 19Nevertheless, for the sake of his servant David, the LORD was not willing to destroy[u] Judah. He had promised to maintain a lamp[v] for David and his descendants forever.

20In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king.[w] 21So Jehoram[q] went to Zair with all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night; his army, however, fled back home. 22To this day Edom has been in rebellion[x] against Judah. Libnah[y] revolted at the same time.

23As for the other events of Jehoram's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? 24Jehoram rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

Ahaziah King of Judah

25In the twelfth[z] year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. 26Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah,[a] a granddaughter of Omri[b] king of Israel. 27He walked in the ways of the house of Ahab[c] and did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was related by marriage to Ahab's family.

28Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram; 29so King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramoth[a] in his battle with Hazael king of Aram.

Then Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because he had been wounded.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

9 The prophet Elisha summoned a man from the company of the prophets and said to him, "Tuck your cloak into your belt, take this flask of oil with you and go to Ramoth Gilead. 2When you get there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go to him, get him away from his companions and take him into an inner room. 3Then take the flask and pour the oil on his head and declare, 'This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and run; don't delay!"

4So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. 5When he arrived, he found the army officers sitting together. "I have a message for you, commander," he said.

"For which of us?" asked Jehu.

"For you, commander," he replied.

6Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on Jehu's head and declared, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I anoint you king over the LORD's people Israel. 7You are to destroy the house of Ahab your master, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the LORD's servants shed by Jezebel. 8The whole house of Ahab will perish. I will cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel—slave or free. 9I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah. 10As for Jezebel, dogs will devour her on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and no one will bury her.'" Then he opened the door and ran.

11When Jehu went out to his fellow officers, one of them asked him, "Is everything all right? Why did this madman come to you?"

"You know the man and the sort of things he says," Jehu replied.

12"That's not true!" they said. "Tell us."

Jehu said, "Here is what he told me: 'This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.'" 13They hurried and took their cloaks and spread them under him on the bare steps. Then they blew the trumpet and shouted, "Jehu is king!"

Jehu Kills Joram and Ahaziah

14So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram and all Israel had been defending Ramoth Gilead against Hazael king of Aram, 15but King Joram[b] had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him in the battle with Hazael king of Aram.) Jehu said, "If this is the way you feel, don't let anyone slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel." 16Then he got into his chariot and rode to Jezreel, because Joram was resting there and Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to see him.

17When the lookout standing on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu's troops approaching, he called out, "I see some troops coming."

"Get a horseman," Joram ordered. "Send him to meet them and ask, 'Do you come in peace?'"

18The horseman rode off to meet Jehu and said, "This is what the king says: 'Do you come in peace?'"

"What do you have to do with peace?" Jehu replied. "Fall in behind me."

The lookout reported, "The messenger has reached them, but he isn't coming back."

19So the king sent out a second horseman. When he came to them he said, "This is what the king says: 'Do you come in peace?'"

Jehu replied, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

20The lookout reported, "He has reached them, but he isn't coming back either. The driving is like that of Jehu son of Nimshi—he drives like a madman."

21"Hitch up my chariot," Joram ordered. And when it was hitched up, Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah rode out, each in his own chariot, to meet Jehu. They met him at the plot of ground that had belonged to Naboth[a] the Jezreelite. 22When Joram saw Jehu he asked, "Have you come in peace, Jehu?"

"How can there be peace," Jehu replied, "as long as all the idolatry and witchcraft of your mother Jezebel[b] abound?"

23Joram turned about and fled, calling out to Ahaziah, "Treachery,[c] Aha-ziah!"

24Then Jehu drew his bow[d] and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow pierced his heart and he slumped down in his chariot. 25Jehu said to Bidkar, his chariot officer, "Pick him up and throw him on the field that belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite.
Remember how you and I were riding together in chariots behind Ahab his father when the LORD made this prophecy[e] about him: 26'Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth[f] and the blood of his sons, declares the LORD, and I will surely make you pay for it on this plot of ground, declares the LORD.'[g] Now then, pick him up and throw him on that plot, in accordance with the word of the LORD."[z]

27When Ahaziah king of Judah saw what had happened, he fled up the road to Beth Haggan.[a] Jehu chased him, shouting, "Kill him too!" They wounded him in his chariot on the way up to Gur near Ibleam,[h] but he escaped to Megiddo[i] and died there.
28His servants took him by chariot[j] to Jerusalem and buried him with his fathers in his tomb in the City of David.
29(In the eleventh[k] year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king of Judah.)

Jezebel Killed

30Then Jehu went to Jezreel. When Jezebel heard about it, she painted[l] her eyes, arranged her hair and looked out of a window. 31As Jehu entered the gate, she asked, "Have you come in peace, Zimri,[m] you murderer of your master?"[b]

32He looked up at the window and called out, "Who is on my side? Who?"
Two or three eunuchs looked down at him. 33"Throw her down!" Jehu said.
So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered the wall and the horses as they trampled her underfoot.[n]

34Jehu went in and ate and drank.
"Take care of that cursed woman," he said, "and bury her, for she was a king's daughter."[o] 35But when they went out to bury her, they found nothing except her skull, her feet and her hands. 36They went back and told Jehu, who said, "This is the word of the LORD that he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite: On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs[p] will devour Jezebel's flesh.[c q] 37Jezebel's body will be like refuse[r] on the ground in the plot at Jezreel, so that no one will be able to say, 'This is Jezebel.'"

Ahab's Family Killed

10 Now there were in Samaria[s] seventy sons[t] of the house of Ahab. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria: to the officials of Jez-reel,[d u] to the elders and to the guardians[v] of Ahab's children. He said, 2"As soon as this letter reaches you, since your master's sons are with you and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons, 3choose the best and most worthy of your master's sons and set him on his father's throne.
Then fight for your master's house."

4But they were terrified and said, "If two kings could not resist him, how can we?"

5So the palace administrator, the city governor, the elders and the guardians sent this message to Jehu: "We are your servants[w] and we will do anything you say. We will not appoint anyone as king; you do whatever you think best."

6Then Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are on my side and will obey me, take the heads of your master's sons and come to me in Jez-reel by this time tomorrow."

Now the royal princes, seventy of them, were with the leading men of the city, who were rearing them. 7When the letter arrived, these men took the princes and slaughtered all seventy[x] of them. They put their heads[y] in baskets and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel.
8When the messenger arrived, he told Jehu, "They have brought the heads of the princes."

Then Jehu ordered, "Put them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning."

9The next morning Jehu went out.
He stood before all the people and said, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these? 10Know then, that not a word the LORD has spoken against the house of Ahab will fail. The LORD has done what he promised[a] through his servant Elijah."[b] 11So Jehu[c] killed everyone in Jezreel who remained of the house of Ahab, as well as all his chief men, his close friends and his priests, leaving him no survivor.[d] 12Jehu then set out and went toward Samaria. At Beth Eked of the Shepherds, 13he met some relatives of Aha-ziah king of Judah and asked, "Who are you?"
They said, "We are relatives of Aha-ziah,[e] and we have come down to greet the families of the king and of the queen mother.[f]" 14"Take them alive!" he ordered. So they took them alive and slaughtered them by the well of Beth Eked—forty-two men. He left no survivor.[g] 15After he left there, he came upon Jehonadab[h] son of Recab,[i] who was on his way to meet him. Jehu greeted him and said, "Are you in accord with me, as I am with you?"
"I am," Jehonadab answered.
"If so," said Jehu, "give me your hand."[j] So he did, and Jehu helped him up into the chariot. 16Jehu said, "Come with me and see my zeal[k] for the LORD." Then he had him ride along in his chariot.
17When Jehu came to Samaria, he killed all who were left there of Ahab's family;[l] he destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD spoken to Elijah.

Ministers of Baal Killed

18Then Jehu brought all the people together and said to them, "Ahab served[m] Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much. 19Now summon[n] all the prophets of Baal, all his ministers and all his priests. See that no one is missing, because I am going to hold a great sacrifice for Baal. Anyone who fails to come will no longer live." But Jehu was acting deceptively in order to destroy the ministers of Baal.
20Jehu said, "Call an assembly[o] in honor of Baal." So they proclaimed it.
21Then he sent word throughout Israel, and all the ministers of Baal came; not one stayed away. They crowded into the temple of Baal until it was full from one end to the other. 22And Jehu said to the keeper of the wardrobe, "Bring robes for all the ministers of Baal." So he brought out robes for them.
23Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Recab went into the temple of Baal.
Jehu said to the ministers of Baal,
"Look around and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you—only ministers of Baal." 24So they went in to make sacrifices and burnt offerings.
Now Jehu had posted eighty men outside with this warning: "If one of you lets any of the men I am placing in your hands escape, it will be your life for his life."[p] 25As soon as Jehu had finished making the burnt offering, he ordered the guards and officers: "Go in and kill[q] them; let no one escape."[r] So they cut them down with the sword. The guards and officers threw the bodies out and then entered the inner shrine of the temple of Baal. 26They brought the sacred stone[s] out of the temple of Baal and burned it. 27They demolished the sacred stone of Baal and tore down the temple[t] of Baal, and people have used it for a latrine to this day.
28So Jehu[u] destroyed Baal worship in Israel. 29However, he did not turn away from the sins[v] of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit—the worship of the golden calves[w] at Bethel[x] and Dan.
30The LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in accomplishing what is right in my eyes and have done to the house of Ahab all I had in mind to do, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."[y] 31Yet Jehu was not careful[z] to keep the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins[a] of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit.
32In those days the LORD began to reduce[b] the size of Israel. Hazael[c] overpowered the Israelites throughout their territory 33east of the Jordan in all the land of Gilead (the region of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh), from Aroer[d] by the Arnon[e] Gorge through Gilead to Bashan.
34As for the other events of Jehu's reign, all he did, and all his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals[f] of the kings of Israel?
35Jehu rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son succeeded him as king. 36The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

Athaliah and Joash

11 When Athaliah[a] the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family. 2But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram[a] and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash[b] son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes, who were about to be murdered. She put him and his nurse in a bedroom to hide him from Athaliah; so he was not killed.[c] 3He remained hidden with his nurse at the temple of the LORD for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

4In the seventh year Jehoiada sent for the commanders of units of a hundred, the Carites[d] and the guards and had them brought to him at the temple of the LORD. He made a covenant with them and put them under oath at the temple of the LORD. Then he showed them the king's son. 5He commanded them, saying, "This is what you are to do: You who are in the three companies that are going on duty on the Sabbath[e]—a third of you guarding the royal palace,[f] 6a third at the Sur Gate, and a third at the gate behind the guard, who take turns guarding the temple— 7and you who are in the other two companies that normally go off Sabbath duty are all to guard the temple for the king. 8Station yourselves around the king, each man with his weapon in his hand. Anyone who approaches your ranks[b] must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes."

9The commanders of units of a hundred did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men—those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty—and came to Jehoiada the priest. 10Then he gave the commanders the spears and shields[g] that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of the LORD. 11The guards, each with his weapon in his hand, stationed themselves around the king—near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

12Jehoiada brought out the king's son and put the crown on him; he presented him with a copy of the covenant[h] and proclaimed him king. They anointed[i] him, and the people clapped their hands[j] and shouted, "Long live the king!"[k]

13When Athaliah heard the noise made by the guards and the people, she went to the people at the temple of the LORD. 14She looked and there was the king, standing by the pillar,[l] as the custom was. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets.[m] Then Athaliah tore[n] her robes and called out, "Treason! Treason!"[o]

15Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops: "Bring her out between the ranks[c] and put to the sword anyone who follows her." For the priest had said, "She must not be put to death in the temple[p] of the LORD." 16So they seized her as she reached the place where the horses enter[q] the palace grounds, and there she was put to death.[r]

17Jehoiada then made a covenant[s] between the LORD and the king and people that they would be the LORD's people. He also made a covenant between the king and the people.[t] 18All the people of the land went to the temple[u] of Baal and tore it down. They smashed[v] the altars and idols to pieces and killed Mattan the priest[w] of Baal in front of the altars.

Then Jehoiada the priest posted guards at the temple of the LORD. 19He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the Carites,[x] the guards and all the people of the land, and together they brought the king down from the temple of the LORD and went into the palace, entering by way of the gate of the guards. The king then took his place on the royal throne, 20and all the people of the land rejoiced.[y] And the city was quiet, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword at the palace.

21Joash[d] was seven years old when he began to reign.

right[a] in the eyes of the LORD all the years Jehoiada the priest instructed him. 3The high places,[b] however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.
4Joash said to the priests, "Collect[c] all the money that is brought as sacred offerings[d] to the temple of the LORD—the money collected in the census,[e] the money received from personal vows and the money brought voluntarily[f] to the temple. 5Let every priest receive the money from one of the treasurers, and let it be used to repair[g] whatever damage is found in the temple." 6But by the twenty-third year of King Joash the priests still had not repaired the temple. 7Therefore King Joash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and asked them, "Why aren't you repairing the damage done to the temple? Take no more money from your treasurers, but hand it over for repairing the temple." 8The priests agreed that they would not collect any more money from the people and that they would not repair the temple themselves.
9Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid. He placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the temple of the LORD. The priests who guarded the entrance[h] put into the chest all the money[i] that was brought to the temple of the LORD.
10Whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the royal secretary[j] and the high priest came, counted the money that had been brought into the temple of the LORD and put it into bags. 11When the amount had been determined, they gave the money to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple.
With it they paid those who worked on the temple of the LORD—the carpenters and builders, 12the masons and stone-cutters.[k] They purchased timber and dressed stone for the repair of the temple of the LORD, and met all the other expenses of restoring the temple.
13The money brought into the temple was not spent for making silver basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, trumpets or any other articles of gold[l] or silver for the temple of the LORD; 14it was paid to the workmen, who used it to repair the temple. 15They did not require an accounting from those to whom they gave the money to pay the workers, because they acted with complete honesty.[m] 16The money from the not brought into the temple of the LORD; it belonged[p] to the priests.

17About this time Hazael[q] king of Aram went up and attacked Gath and captured it. Then he turned to attack Jerusalem. 18But Joash king of Judah took all the sacred objects dedicated by his fathers—Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, the kings of Judah—and the gifts he himself had dedicated and all the gold found in the treasuries of the temple of the LORD and of the royal palace, and he sent[r] them to Hazael king of Aram, who then withdrew[s] from Jerusalem.
19As for the other events of the reign of Joash, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? 20His officials[t] conspired against him and assassinated[u] him at Beth Millo,[v] on the road down to Silla. 21The officials who murdered him were Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer. He died and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

Jehoahaz King of Israel

13 In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years. 2He did evil[w] in the eyes of the LORD by following the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit, and he did not turn away from them. 3So the LORD's anger[x] burned against Israel, and for a long time he kept them under the power[y] of Hazael king of Aram and Ben-Hadad[z] his son.
4Then Jehoahaz sought[a] the LORD's favor, and the LORD listened to him, for he saw[b] how severely the king of Aram was oppressing[c] Israel. 5The LORD provided a deliverer[d] for Israel, and they escaped from the power of Aram. So the Israelites lived in their own homes as they had before. 6But they did not turn away from the sins[e] of the house of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit; they continued in them. Also, the Asherah pole[d][f] remained standing in Samaria.
7Nothing had been left[g] of the army of Jehoahaz except fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand foot solstroyed the rest and made them like the dust[a] at threshing time.

8As for the other events of the reign of Jehoahaz, all he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?
9Jehoahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoash[e] his son succeeded him as king.

Jehoash King of Israel

10In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years. 11He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he continued in them.
12As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, all he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah[b] king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals[c] of the kings of Israel? 13Jehoash rested with his fathers, and Jeroboam[d] succeeded him on the throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
14Now Elisha was suffering from the illness from which he died. Jehoash king of Israel went down to see him and wept over him. "My father! My father!" he cried. "The chariots[e] and horsemen of Israel!" 15Elisha said, "Get a bow and some arrows,"[f] and he did so. 16"Take the bow in your hands," he said to the king of Israel. When he had taken it, Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.
17"Open the east window," he said, and he opened it. "Shoot!"[g] Elisha said, and he shot. "The LORD's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram!" Elisha declared. "You will completely destroy the Arameans at Aphek."[h] 18Then he said, "Take the arrows," and the king took them. Elisha told him, "Strike the ground." He struck it three times and stopped. 19The man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. But now you will defeat it only three times."[i] 20Elisha died and was buried.
Now Moabite raiders[j] used to enter the country every spring. 21Once while some Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a band of raiders; so they threw the man's body into Elisha's tomb. When the body touched Elisha's bones, the man came to life[k] and stood up on his feet.

22Hazael king of Aram oppressed[l] Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz. 23But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion and showed concern for them because of his covenant[m] with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
To this day he has been unwilling to destroy[n] them or banish them from his presence.[o] 24Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad[p] his son succeeded him as king.
25Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz recaptured from Ben-Hadad son of Hazael the towns he had taken in battle from his father Jehoahaz. Three times[q] Je-hoash defeated him, and so he recovered[r] the Israelite towns.

Amaziah King of Judah

14:1-7pp — 2Ch 25:1-4,11-12
14:8-22pp — 2Ch 25:17–26:2

14 In the second year of Jehoash[f] son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah began to reign. 2He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddin; she was from Jerusalem. 3He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father David had done.
In everything he followed the example of his father Joash. 4The high places,[s] however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.
5After the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, he executed[t] the officials[u] who had murdered his father the king. 6Yet he did not put the sons of the assassins to death, in accordance with what is written in the Book of the Law[v] of Moses where the LORD commanded:
"Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins."[g] [w] 7He was the one who defeated ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt[x] and captured Sela[y] in battle, calling it Joktheel, the name it has to this day.
8Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehu, king of Israel, with the challenge:

"Come, meet me face to face." 9But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle[a] in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot. 10You have indeed defeated Edom and now you are arrogant.[b] Glory in your victory, but stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?"
11Amaziah, however, would not listen, so Jehoash king of Israel attacked.
He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh[c] in Judah.
12Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home.[d] 13Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. Then Je-hoash went to Jerusalem and broke down the wall[e] of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate[f] to the Corner Gate[g]—a section about six hundred feet long.[h] 14He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace. He also took hostages and returned to Samaria.
15As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, what he did and his achievements, including his war[h] against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? 16Jehoash rested with his fathers and was buried
in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
And Jeroboam his son succeeded him as king.
17Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.
18As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?
19They conspired[i] against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish,[j] but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there. 20He was brought back by horse[k] and was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers, in the City of David.
21Then all the people of Judah took Azariah,[i][l] who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. 22He was the one who rebuilt Elath[m] and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

Jeroboam II King of Israel

23In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam[n] son of Jehoash king of Israel became king in Samaria, and he reigned forty-one years. 24He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.[o] 25He was the one who restored the boundaries of Israel from Lebo[j] Hamath[p] to the Sea of the Arabah,[k][q] in accordance with the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, spoken through his servant Jonah[r] son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hepher.
26The LORD had seen how bitterly everyone in Israel, whether slave or free,[s] was suffering;[t] there was no one to help them.[u] 27And since the LORD had not said he would blot out[v] the name of Israel from under heaven, he saved[w] them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.
28As for the other events of Jero-boam's reign, all he did, and his military achievements, including how he recovered for Israel both Damascus[x] and Hamath,[y] which had belonged to Yaudi,[l] are they not written in the book of the annals[z] of the kings of Is-riah his son succeeded him as king.

reign, and all he did, are they not writ-kings of Judah? 7 Azariah rested[w] with his fathers and was buried near them in the City of David. And Jotham[x] his son succeeded him as king.

Zechariah King of Israel

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned six months. 9 He did evil[y] in the eyes of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.
10 Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah. He attacked him in front of the people,[a] assassinated[c] him and succeeded him as king. 11 The other events of Zechariah's reign are written in the book of the annals[d] of the kings of Israel. 12 So the word of the LORD spoken to Jehu was fulfilled:[e] "Your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."[b]

Shallum King of Israel

13 Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned in Samaria[f] one month. 14 Then Menahem son of Gadi went from Tirzah[g] up to Samaria.
He attacked Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, assassinated[h] him and succeeded him as king.
15 The other events of Shallum's reign, and the conspiracy he led, are written in the book of the annals[i] of the kings of Israel.
16 At that time Menahem, starting out from Tirzah, attacked Tiphsah[j] and everyone in the city and its vicinity, because they refused to open[k] their gates. He sacked Tiphsah and ripped open all the pregnant women.

Menahem King of Israel

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria ten years. 18 He did evil[l] in the eyes of the LORD. During his entire reign he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.
19 Then Pul[c][m] king of Assyria invaded the land, and Menahem gave him a thousand talents[d] of silver to gain his support and strengthen his own hold on the kingdom. 20 Menahem exacted this money from Israel. Every wealthy man had to contribute fifty shekels[e] of silver to be given to the king of Assyria.
So the king of Assyria withdrew[n] and stayed in the land no longer.
21 As for the other events of Menahem's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? 22 Menahem rested with his fathers. And Pekahiah his son succeeded him as king.

Pekahiah King of Israel

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned two years. 24 Pekahiah did evil[o] in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit. 25 One of his chief officers, Pekah[p] son of Remaliah, conspired against him. Taking fifty men of Gilead with him, he assassinated[q] Pekahiah, along with Argob and Arieh, in the citadel of the royal palace at Samaria. So Pekah killed Pekahiah and succeeded him as king.
26 The other events of Pekahiah's reign, and all he did, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

Pekah King of Israel

27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah[r] son of Remaliah[s] became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned twenty years. 28 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.
29 In the time of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser[t] king of Assyria came and took Ijon,[u] Abel Beth Maacah, Ja-noah, Kedesh and Hazor. He took Gilead and Galilee, including all the land of Naphtali,[v] and deported[w] the people to Assyria. 30 Then Hoshea[x] son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked and assassinated[y] him, and then succeeded him as king in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

Jotham King of Judah

32In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham[b] son of Uzziah king of Judah began to reign.
33He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.
34He did what was right[c] in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done. 35The high places,[d] however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate[e] of the temple of the LORD.
36As for the other events of Jotham's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? 37(In those days the LORD began to send Rezin[f] king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.) 38Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David, the city of his father. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

Ahaz King of Judah

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz[g] son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.
2Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right[h] in the eyes of the LORD his God. 3He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel[i] and even sacrificed his son[j] in[t] the fire, following the detestable[k] ways of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. 4He offered sacrifices and burned incense[l] at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.[m] 5Then Rezin[n] king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem and besieged Ahaz, but they could not overpower him. 6At that time, Rezin[o] king of Aram recovered Elath[p] for Aram by driving out the men of Judah.
Edomites then moved into Elath and have lived there to this day.
7Ahaz sent messengers to say to Tiglath-Pileser[q] king of Assyria, "I am your servant and vassal. Come up and save[r] me out of the hand of the king of Aram and of the king of Israel, who are attacking me." 8And Ahaz took the silver and gold found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace and sent it as a gift[s] to the king of Assyria. 9The king of Assyria complied by attacking Damascus[t] and capturing it. He deported its inhabitants to Kir[u] and put Rezin to death.
10Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria.
He saw an altar in Damascus and sent to Uriah[v] the priest a sketch of the altar, with detailed plans for its construction. 11So Uriah the priest built an altar in accordance with all the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus and finished it before King Ahaz returned. 12When the king came back from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached it and presented offerings[u][w] on it. 13He offered up his burnt offering[x] and grain offering,[y] poured out his drink offering,[z] and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings[v][a] on the altar. 14The bronze altar[b] that stood before the LORD he brought from the front of the temple—from between the new altar and the temple of the LORD—and put it on the north side of the new altar.
15King Ahaz then gave these orders to Uriah the priest: "On the large new altar, offer the morning[c] burnt offering and the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offering. Sprinkle on the altar all the blood of the burnt offerings and sacrifices. But I will use the bronze altar for seeking guidance."[d] 16And Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz had ordered.
17King Ahaz took away the side panels and removed the basins from the movable stands. He removed the Sea from the bronze bulls that supported it and set it on a stone base.[e] 18He took away the Sabbath canopy[w] that had been built at the temple and removed the royal entryway outside the temple of the LORD, in deference to the king of Assyria.[f]

of Ahaz, and what he did, are they not kings of Judah? 20 Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

Hoshea Last King of Israel

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years. 2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.
3 Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up to attack Hoshea, who had been Shalmaneser's vassal and had paid him tribute. 4 But the king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was a traitor, for he had sent envoys to So[a] king of Egypt, and he no longer paid tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore Shalmaneser seized him and put him in prison.
5 The king of Assyria invaded the entire land, marched against Samaria and laid siege to it for three years. 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in the towns of the Medes.

Israel Exiled Because of Sin

7 All this took place because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of Egypt from under the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshiped other gods 8 and followed the practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before them, as well as the practices that the kings of Israel had introduced. 9 The Israelites secretly did things against the LORD their God that were not right. From watchtower to fortified city they built themselves high places in all their towns. 10 They set up sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree. 11 At every high place they burned incense, as the nations whom the LORD had driven out before them had done. They did wicked things that provoked the LORD to anger. 12 They worshiped idols, though the LORD had said, "You shall not do this."[b] 13 The LORD warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers: "Turn from your evil ways. Observe my commands and decrees, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your fathers to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets." 14 But they would not listen and were as stiff-necked as their fathers, who did not trust in the LORD their God.
15 They rejected his decrees and the covenant he had made with their fathers and the warnings he had given them.
They followed worthless idols and themselves became worthless. They imitated the nations around them although the LORD had ordered them, "Do not do as they do," and they did the things the LORD had forbidden them to do.

16 They forsook all the commands of the LORD their God and made for themselves two idols cast in the shape of calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed down to all the starry hosts, and they worshiped Baal. 17 They sacrificed[c] their sons and daughters in the fire. They practiced divination and sorcery and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

18 So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah was left, 19 and even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God. They followed the practices Israel had introduced. 20 Therefore the LORD rejected all the people of Israel; he afflicted them and gave them into the hands of plunderers, until he thrust them from his presence.

21 When he tore Israel away from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam enticed Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit a great sin. 22 The Israelites persisted in all the sins of Jeroboam and did not turn away from them 23 until the LORD removed them from his presence, as he had warned through all his servants the prophets. So the people of Israel were taken from their homeland into exile in Assyria, and they are still there.

Samaria Resettled

24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the towns of Samaria to replace the Israelites. They took over Samaria and lived in its towns. 25 When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD; so he sent lions among them and they killed some of the people. 26 It was reported to the king of Assyria: "The people you deported and resettled in the towns of Samaria do not know what the god of that country requires. He has sent lions among them, which are killing them off, because the people do not know what he requires."

27 Then the king of Assyria gave this order: "Have one of the priests you took captive from Samaria go back to live there and teach the people what the god of the land requires." 28 So one of the priests who had been exiled from Samaria came to live in Bethel and taught them how to worship the LORD.

29 Nevertheless, each national group made its own gods in the several towns where they settled, and set them up in the shrines the people of Samaria had made at the high places. 30 The men from Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men from Cuthah made Nergal, and the men from Hamath made Ashima; 31 the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. 32 They worshiped the LORD, but they also appointed all sorts of their own people to officiate for them as priests in the shrines at the high places. 33 They worshiped the LORD, but they also served their own gods in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they had been brought.

34 To this day they persist in their former practices. They neither worship the LORD nor adhere to the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel. 35 When the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, he commanded them: "Do not worship any other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them. 36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of Egypt with mighty power and outstretched arm, is the one you must worship. To him you shall bow down and to him offer sacrifices. 37 You must always be careful to keep the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands he wrote for you. Do not worship other gods. 38 Do not forget the covenant I have made with you, and do not worship other gods. 39 Rather, worship the LORD your God; it is he who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."

40 They would not listen, however, but persisted in their former practices. 41 Even while these people were worshiping the LORD, they were serving their idols. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.

Hezekiah King of Judah

18:2-4pp — 2Ch 29:1-2; 31:1
18:9-12pp — 2Ki 17:3-7

18 In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. 2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abijah[a] daughter of Zechariah. 3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done. 4 He removed the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. (It was called[b] Nehushtan.[c])

5 Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, either before him or after him. 6 He held fast to the LORD and did not cease to follow him; he kept the commands the LORD had given Moses. 7 And the LORD was with him; he was successful in whatever he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. 8 From watchtower to fortified city, he defeated the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory.

9 In King Hezekiah's fourth year, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched against Samaria and laid siege to it. 10 At the end of three years the Assyrians took it. So Samaria was captured in Hezekiah's sixth year, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel. 11 The king of Assyria deported Israel to Assyria and settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in towns of the Medes.[a] 12This happened because they had not obeyed the LORD their God, but had violated his covenant[b]—all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.[c] They neither listened to the commands[d] nor carried them out.

13In the fourteenth year[e] of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah[f] and captured them. 14So Hezekiah king of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish:[g] "I have done wrong.[h] Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you demand of me." The king of Assyria exacted from Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents[d] of silver and thirty talents[e] of gold. 15So Hezekiah gave[i] him all the silver that was found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace.
16At this time Hezekiah king of Judah stripped off the gold with which he had covered the doors[j] and doorposts of the temple of the LORD, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

18:13, 17-37pp — Isa 36:1-22

17The king of Assyria sent his supreme commander,[k] his chief officer and his field commander with a large army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They came up to Jerusalem and stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool,[l] on the road to the Wash-erman's Field. 18They called for the king; and Eliakim[m] son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna[n] the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to them.
19The field commander said to them,
"Tell Hezekiah:

" 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence[o] of yours? 20You say you have strategy and military strength—but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel against me? 21Look now, you are depending on Egypt,[p] that splintered reed of a staff,[q] which pierces a man's hand and wounds him if he leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him. 22And if you say to me, "We are depending on the LORD our God"—isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem"?
23" 'Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses—if you can put riders on them! 24How can you repulse one officer[r] of the least of my master's officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen[f]? 25Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this place without word from the LORD?[s] The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it.' "

26Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic,[t] since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall." 27But the commander replied, "Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the men sitting on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own filth and drink their own urine?" 28Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!
29This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive[u] you. He cannot deliver you from my hand. 30Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, 'The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.' 31"Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me.
Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and fig tree[v] and drink water from his own cistern,[w] 32until I come and take you to a land like your own, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey. Choose life[x] and not death!
"Do not listen to Hezekiah, for he is misleading you when he says, 'The LORD will deliver us.' 33Has the god[y] of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

[36]But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, "Do not answer [37]Then Eliakim[d] son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn,[e] and told him what the field commander had said.

Jerusalem's Deliverance Foretold

19:1-13pp — Isa 37:1-13

19 When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore[f] his clothes and put on sackcloth and went into the temple of the LORD. [2]He sent Eliakim[g] the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and the leading priests,[h] all wearing sackcloth,[i] to the prophet Isaiah[j] son of Amoz. [3]They told him, "This is what Hezekiah says: This day is a day of distress and rebuke and disgrace, as when children come to the point[k] of birth and there is no strength to deliver them. [4]It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to ridicule[l] the living God, and that he will rebuke[m] him for the words the LORD your God has heard. Therefore pray for the remnant[n] that still survives."

[5]When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah, [6]Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid[o] of what you have heard—those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed[p] me. [7]Listen! I am going to put such a spirit in him that when he hears a certain report,[q] he will return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.[r]' "

[8]When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish,[s] he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.[t]

[9]Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the Cushite[g] king of Egypt, was marching out to fight against him. So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word: [10]"Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend[u] on deceive[v] you when he says, 'Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.' [11]Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered? [12]Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my forefathers deliver[w] them: the gods of Gozan,[x] Haran,[y] Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar?
[13]Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, or of Hena or Ivvah?"[z]

Hezekiah's Prayer

19:14-19pp — Isa 37:14-20

[14]Hezekiah received the letter[a] from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. [15]And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: "O LORD, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim,[b] you alone[c] are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. [16]Give ear,[d] O LORD, and hear;[e] open your eyes,[f] O LORD, and see; listen to the words Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God.

[17]"It is true, O LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste these nations and their lands. [18]They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods[g] but only wood and stone, fashioned by men's hands.[h] [19]Now, O LORD our God, deliver[i] us from his hand, so that all kingdoms[j] on earth may know[k] that you alone, O LORD, are God."

Isaiah Prophesies Sennacherib's Fall

19:20-37pp — Isa 37:21-38

[20]Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I have nacherib king of Assyria. [21]This is the

The zeal[w] of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

32"Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria:

"He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield or build a siege ramp against it.
33By the way that he came he will return;[x]
 he will not enter this city, declares the LORD.
34I will defend[y] this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David[z] my servant."

35That night the angel of the LORD[a] went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning—there were all the dead bodies![b] 36So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew.[c] He returned to Nineveh[d] and stayed there.
37One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech[e] and Sharezer cut him down with the sword,[f] and they escaped to the land of Ararat.[g] And Esarhaddon[h] his son succeeded him as king.

Hezekiah's Illness

20:1-11pp — 2Ch 32:24-26; Isa 38:1-8

20 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death.
The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, "This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover." 2Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, 3"Remember,[i]
O LORD, how I have walked[j] before you faithfully[k] and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.
4Before Isaiah had left the middle court, the word of the LORD came to
him: 5"Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of my people, 'This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard[l] your prayer and seen your tears;[m] I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the temple of the LORD.
6I will add fifteen years to your life. And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend[a] this city for my sake and for the sake of my servant David.' " 7 Then Isaiah said, "Prepare a poultice of figs." They did so and applied it to the boil,[b] and he recovered.

8 Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the temple of the LORD on the third day from now?" 9 Isaiah answered, "This is the LORD's sign[c] to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or shall it go back ten steps?" 10 "It is a simple[d] matter for the shadow to go forward ten steps," said Hezekiah. "Rather, have it go back ten steps." 11 Then the prophet Isaiah called upon the LORD, and the LORD made the shadow go back[e] the ten steps it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.

Envoys From Babylon

20:12-19pp — Isa 39:1-8
20:20-21pp — 2Ch 32:32-33

12 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of Hezekiah's illness. 13 Hezekiah received the messengers and showed them all that was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine oil—his armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.
14 Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did those men say, and where did they come from?"
"From a distant land," Hezekiah replied. "They came from Babylon." 15 The prophet asked, "What did they see in your palace?"
"They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."
16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD: 17 The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon.[f] Nothing will be left, says the LORD. 18 And some of your descendants,[g] your own flesh and blood, that will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eu-nuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."[h] 19 "The word of the LORD you have spoken is good," Hezekiah replied. For he thought, "Will there not be peace and security in my lifetime?" 20 As for the other events of Heze-kiah's reign, all his achievements and how he made the pool[i] and the tunnel[j] by which he brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? 21 Hezekiah rested with his fathers. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

Manasseh King of Judah

21:1-10pp — 2Ch 33:1-10
21:17-18pp — 2Ch 33:18-20

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years.
His mother's name was Hephzibah.[k] 2 He did evil[l] in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices[m] of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. 3 He rebuilt the high places[n] his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he also erected altars to Baal[o] and made an Asherah pole,[p] as Ahab king of Israel had done. He bowed down to all the starry hosts[q] and worshiped them. 4 He built altars[r] in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put my Name."[s] 5 In both courts[t] of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts. 6 He sacrificed his own son[u] in[h] the fire, practiced sorcery and divination,[v] and consulted mediums and spiritists.[w] He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking[x] him to anger.
7 He took the carved Asherah pole[y] he had made and put it in the temple,[z] of which the LORD had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name[a] forever. 8 I will not again[b] make the feet of the Israelites wander from the land I gave their forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them and will keep the whole Law that my servant Moses[c] gave them." 9 But the people did not listen. Manasseh led them astray, so that they did more evil[d] than the nations[e] the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

the prophets: [11]"Manasseh king of Judah has committed these detestable sins. He has done more evil[a] than the Amorites[b] who preceded him and has led Judah into sin with his idols.[c] [12]Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster[d] on Jerusalem and Judah that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.[e] [13]I will stretch out over Jerusalem the measuring line used against Samaria and the plumb line[f] used against the house of Ahab. I will wipe[g] out Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. [14]I will forsake[h] the remnant[i] of my inheritance and hand them over to their enemies. They will be looted and plundered by all their foes, [15]because they have done evil[j] in my eyes and have provoked[k] me to anger from the day their forefathers came out of Egypt until this day."

[16]Moreover, Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood[l] that he filled Jerusalem from end to end—besides the sin that he had caused Judah[m] to commit, so that they did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

[17]As for the other events of Manasseh's reign, and all he did, including the sin he committed, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? [18]Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in his palace garden,[n] the garden of Uzza. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

Amon King of Judah

21:19-24pp — 2Ch 33:21-25

[19]Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz; she was from Jotbah. [20]He did evil[o] in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. [21]He walked in all the ways of his father; he worshiped the idols his father had worshiped, and bowed down to them. [22]He forsook[p] the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk[q] in the way of the LORD.

[23]Amon's officials conspired against him and assassinated[r] the king in his palace. [24]Then the people of the land killed[s] all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah[t] his son king in his place.

[25]As for the other events of Amon's reign, and what he did, are they not
written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? [26]He was buried in his grave in the garden[u] of Uzza. And Josiah his son succeeded him as king.

The Book of the Law Found

22 Josiah[v] was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years.
His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath.[w] [2]He did what was right[x] in the eyes of the LORD and walked in all the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right[y] or to the left.

[3]In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah sent the secretary, Shaphan[z] son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the temple of the LORD. He said: [4]"Go up to Hilkiah[a] the high priest and have him get ready the money that has been brought into the temple of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have collected[b] from the people. [5]Have them entrust it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. And have these men pay the workers who repair[c] the temple of the LORD— [6]the carpenters, the builders and the masons. Also have them purchase timber and dressed stone to repair the temple.[d] [7]But they need not account for the money entrusted to them, because they are acting faithfully."[e] [8]Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law[f] in the temple of the LORD." He gave it to Shaphan, who read it. [9]Then Shaphan the secretary went to the king and reported to him:

"Your officials have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the workers and supervisors at the temple." [10]Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.[g]

[11]When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law,[h] he tore his robes. [12]He gave these orders to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam[i] son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan

Lord's anger[a] that burns against us because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written there concerning us." 14 Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to speak to the prophetess[b] Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.
15 She said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me, 16 'This is what the Lord says: I am going to bring disaster[c] on this place and its people, according to everything written in the book[d] the king of Judah has read. 17 Because they have forsaken[e] me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all the idols their hands have made,[i] my anger will burn against this place and will not be quenched.' 18 Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire[f] of the Lord, 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard: 19 Because your heart was responsive and you humbled[g] yourself before the Lord when you heard what I have spoken against this place and its people, that they would become accursed[h] and laid waste,[i] and because you tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the Lord. 20 Therefore I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace.[j] Your eyes[k] will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place.'"
So they took her answer back to the king.

Josiah Renews the Covenant

23 Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. 2 He went up to the temple of the Lord with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the prophets—all the people from the least to the greatest. He read[l] in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant,[m] which had been found in the temple of the Lord. 3 The king stood by the pillar[n] and renewed the covenant[o] in the presence of the Lord—to follow[p] the Lord and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, thus confirming the words of the covenant written in this book. Then all the people pledged themselves to the covenant.
4 The king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, the priests next in rank and the doorkeepers[q] to remove[r] from the temple of the Lord all the articles made for Baal and Asherah and all the starry hosts. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley and took the ashes to Bethel. 5 He did away with the pagan priests appointed by the kings of Judah to burn incense on the high places of the towns of Judah and on those around Jerusalem—those who burned incense[s] to Baal, to the sun and moon, to the constellations and to all the starry hosts.[t][u] 6 He took the Asherah pole from the temple of the Lord to the Kidron Valley[v] outside Jerusalem and burned it there. He ground it to powder[w] and scattered the dust over the graves[x] of the common people.[y] 7 He also tore down the quarters of the male shrine prostitutes,[z] which were in the temple of the Lord and where women did weaving for Asherah.
8 Josiah brought all the priests from the towns of Judah and desecrated the high places, from Geba[a] to Beersheba, where the priests had burned incense.
He broke down the shrines[j] at the gates—at the entrance to the Gate of Joshua, the city governor, which is on the left of the city gate. 9 Although the priests of the high places did not serve[b] at the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, they ate unleavened bread with their fellow priests.
10 He desecrated Topheth,[c] which was in the Valley of Ben Hinnom,[d] so no one could use it to sacrifice his son[e] or daughter in[k] the fire to Molech. 11 He removed from the entrance to the temple of the Lord the horses that the kings of Judah[f] had dedicated to the sun. They were in the court near the room of an official named Nathan-Melech. Josiah then burned the chariots dedicated to the sun.[g] 12 He pulled down[h] the altars the kings of Judah had erected on the roof[i] near the upper room of Ahaz, and the altars Manasseh had built in the two courts[j] of the temple of the Lord. He removed them from there, smashed

Asherah poles and covered the sites with human bones.[f] [15]Even the altar[g] at Bethel, the high place made by Jeroboam[h] son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin—even that altar and high place he demolished. He burned the high place and ground it to powder, and burned the Asherah pole also. [16]Then Josiah[i] looked around, and when he saw the tombs that were there on the hillside, he had the bones removed from them and burned on the altar to defile it, in accordance[j] with the word of the LORD proclaimed by the man of God who foretold these things.
[17]The king asked, "What is that tombstone I see?"
The men of the city said, "It marks the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and pronounced against the altar of Bethel the very things you have done to it." [18]"Leave it alone," he said. "Don't let anyone disturb his bones[k]." So they spared his bones and those of the prophet[l] who had come from Samaria.
[19]Just as he had done at Bethel, Josiah removed and defiled all the shrines at the high places that the kings of Israel had built in the towns of Samaria that had provoked the LORD to anger. [20]Josiah slaughtered[m] all the priests of those high places on the altars and burned human bones[n] on them. Then he went back to Jerusalem.
[21]The king gave this order to all the people: "Celebrate the Passover[o] to the LORD your God, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant."[p] [22]Not since the days of the judges who led Israel, nor throughout the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah, had any such Passover been observed. [23]But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was celebrated to the LORD in Jerusalem.[q] [24]Furthermore, Josiah got rid of the mediums and spiritists,[r] the household gods,[s] the idols and all the other detestable[t] things seen in Judah and Jerusalem. This he did to fulfill the requirements of the law written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had discovered in the temple of the LORD.
[25]Neither before nor after Josiah was there a king like him who turned[u] to the LORD as he did—with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his strength, in accordance with all the Law of Moses.[v] [26]Nevertheless, the LORD did not turn away from the heat of his fierce anger,[w] which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh[x] had done to provoke him to anger. [27]So the LORD said, "I will remove[y] Judah also from my presence[z] as I removed Israel, and I will reject[a] Jerusalem, the city I chose, and this temple, about which I said, 'There shall my Name be.'[m]" [28]As for the other events of Josiah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?
[29]While Josiah was king, Pharaoh Neco[b] king of Egypt went up to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah marched out to meet him in battle, but Neco faced him and killed him at Megiddo.[c] [30]Josiah's servants brought his body in a chariot[d] from Megiddo to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

23:31-34pp — 2Ch 36:2-4

[31]Jehoahaz[e] was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Hamutal[f] daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.
[32]He did evil[g] in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done. [33]Pharaoh Neco put him in chains at Riblah[h] in the land of Hamath[n][i] so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and he imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents[o] of silver and a talent[p] of gold. [34]Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim[j] son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim.
But he took Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt, and there he died.[k] [35]Jehoiakim paid Pharaoh Neco the sil-

Jehoiakim King of Judah

36Jehoiakim[b] was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah; she was from Rumah.
37And he did evil[c] in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done.

24 During Jehoiakim's reign, Nebuchadnezzar[d] king of Babylon invaded[e] the land, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. But then he changed his mind and rebelled[f] against Nebuchadnezzar. 2The LORD sent Babylonian,[a][g] Aramean,[h] Moabite and Ammonite raiders[i] against him. He sent them to destroy[j] Judah, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by his servants the prophets.[k] 3Surely these things happened to Judah according to the LORD's command,[l] in order to remove them from his presence[m] because of the sins of Manasseh[n] and all he had done, 4in-cluding the shedding of innocent blood.[o] For he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to forgive.[p]

5As for the other events of Jehoiakim's reign,[q] and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? 6Jehoiakim rested[r] with his fathers. And Jehoiachin[s] his son succeeded him as king.

7The king of Egypt[t] did not march out from his own country again, because the king of Babylon[u] had taken all his territory, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

8Jehoiachin[v] was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta[w] daughter of Elnathan; she was from Jerusalem. 9He did evil[x] in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father had done.

10At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar[y] king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem and laid siege to it, 11and Nebuchadnezzar himself came up to the city while his officers were besieging it. 12Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his attendants, his nobles and his officials all surrendered[z] to him.

In the eighth year of the reign of the king of Babylon, he took Jehoiachin prisoner. 13As the LORD had declared,[a] Nebuchadnezzar removed all the treasures[b] from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace, and took away all the gold articles[c] that Solomon[d] king of Israel had made for the temple of the LORD. 14He carried into exile[e] all Jerusalem: all the officers and fighting men,[f] and all the craftsmen and artisans—a total of ten thousand. Only the poorest[g] people of the land were left.

15Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin[h] captive to Babylon. He also took from Jerusalem to Babylon the king's mother,[i] his wives, his officials and the leading men[j] of the land. 16The king of Babylon also deported to Babylon the entire force of seven thousand fighting men, strong and fit for war, and a thousand craftsmen and artisans.[k] 17He made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.[l]

Zedekiah King of Judah

24:18-20pp — 2Ch 36:11-16; Jer 52:1-3

18Zedekiah[m] was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he
mother's name was Hamutal[n] daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.
19He did evil[o] in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. 20It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust[p] them from his presence.[q]

The Fall of Jerusalem

25:1-12pp — Jer 39:1-10
25:1-21pp — 2Ch 36:17-20; Jer 52:4-27
25:22-26pp — Jer 40:7-9; 41:1-3, 16-18

Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 So in the ninth[r] year of Zede-kiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar[s] king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He encamped outside the city and built siege works[t] all around it. 2The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. 3By the ninth day of the ⌊fourth⌋[r] month the famine[a] in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat.

4Then the city wall was broken through,[b] and the whole army fled at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Babylonians[s] were surrounding[c] the city. They fled toward the Arabah,[t] 5but the Babylonian[u] army pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered,[d] 6and he was captured.[e] He was taken to the king of Babylon at Rib-lah,[f] where sentence was pronounced on him. 7They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. Then they put out his eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.[g] 8On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, an official of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. 9He set fire[h] to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem.
Every important building he burned down.[i] 10The whole Babylonian army, under the commander of the imperial guard, broke down the walls[j] around Jerusalem. 11Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile[k] the people who remained in the city, along with the rest of the populace and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon.[l] 12But the commander left behind some of the poorest people[m] of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
13The Babylonians broke[n] up the bronze pillars, the movable stands and the bronze Sea that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried the bronze to Babylon. 14They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, dishes[o] and all the bronze articles[p] used in the temple service. 15The commander of the imperial guard took away the cen-sers and sprinkling bowls—all that were made of pure gold or silver.[q] 16The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the movable stands, which Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed. 17Each pillar[r] was twenty-seven feet[v] high. The bronze capital on top of one pillar was four and a half feet[w] high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its network, was similar.
18The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah[s] the chief priest, Zephaniah[t] the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers.[u] 19Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men and five royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscript-ing the people of the land and sixty of his men who were found in the city.
20Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 21There at Rib-lah,[v] in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed.[w] So Judah went into captivity,[x] away from her land.[y] 22Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah[z] son of Ahikam,[a] the son of Shaphan, to be over the people he had left behind in Judah.
23When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, and their men. 24Geda-liah took an oath to reassure them and their men. "Do not be afraid of the Babylonian officials," he said. "Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with
you." 25In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated[b] Gedaliah and also the men of Judah and the Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah.[c] 26At this, all the people from the least to the greatest, together with the army officers, fled to Egypt[d] for fear of the Babylonians.

Judah

2:5-15pp — Ru 4:18-22; Mt 1:3-6

To Hezron's Sons

3The sons of Judah:[a] Er, Onan and Shelah.[b] These three were born to him by a Canaanite woman, the daughter of Shua.[c] Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the LORD's sight; so the LORD put him to death.[d] 4Tamar,[e] Judah's daughter-in-law,[f] bore him Perez[g] and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.

5The sons of Perez:[h] son was Abinadab, the third Shimea, 14the fourth Nethanel, the fifth Raddai, 15the sixth Ozem and the seventh David.

16Their sisters were Zeruiah[t] and Abigail. Zeruiah's[u] three sons were Abishai, Joab[v] and Asahel. 17Abigail was the mother of Amasa,[w] whose father was Jether the Ishmaelite.

Caleb Son of Hezron

18Caleb son of Hezron had children by his wife Azubah (and by Jerioth). These were her sons: Jesher, Shobab and Ardon.
19When Azubah died, Caleb[x] married Ephrath, who bore him Hur. 20Hur was the father of Uri, and Uri the father of Bezalel.[y] 21Later, Hezron lay with the daughter of Makir the father of Gilead[z] (he had married her when he was sixty years old), and she bore him Segub. 22Segub was the father of Jair, who controlled twenty-three towns in Gilead.
23(But Geshur and Aram captured Havvoth Jair,[y] [a] as well as Kenath[b] with its surrounding settlements—sixty towns.) All these were descendants of Makir the father of Gilead.

24After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, Abijah the wife of Hezron bore him Ashhur[c] the father[z] of Tekoa.

Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

[21]The sons of Shelah[b] son of Judah: Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah and the clans of the linen workers at Beth Ashbea, [22]Jokim, the men of Cozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who ruled in Moab and Ja-shubi Lehem. (These records are from ancient times.) [23]They were the potters who lived at Netaim and Gederah; they stayed there and worked for the king.

Simeon

4:28-33pp — Jos 19:2-10

[24]The descendants of Simeon:[c] Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib,[d] Zerah and Shaul; [25]Shallum was Shaul's son, Mib-sam his son and Mishma his
son.
[26]The descendants of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son and Shimei his son.

[27]Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children; so their entire clan did not become as numerous as the people of Judah. [28]They lived in Beersheba,[e] Moladah,[f] Hazar Shual, [29]Bil-hah, Ezem,[g] Tolad, [30]Bethuel, Hor-mah,[h] Ziklag,[i] [31]Beth Marcaboth, Ha-

These were their towns until the reign of David. [32]Their surrounding villages were Etam, Ain,[k] Rimmon, Token and Ashan[l]—five towns— [33]and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath.[a] These were their settlements.
And they kept a genealogical record.

[34]Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah, [35]Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, [36]also Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, [37]and Ziza son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah.

[38]The men listed above by name were leaders of their clans. Their families increased greatly, [39]and they went to the outskirts of Gedor[m] to the east of the valley in search of pasture for their flocks. [40]They found rich, good pasture, and the land was spacious, peaceful and quiet.[n] Some Hamites had lived there formerly.

[41]The men whose names were listed came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. They attacked the Hamites in their dwellings and also the Meunites[o] who were there and completely destroyed[b] them, as is evident to this day. Then they settled in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks. [42]And five hundred of these Simeonites, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, invaded the hill country of Seir.[p] [43]They killed the remaining Amalekites[q] who had escaped, and they have lived there to this day.

Reuben

5 The sons of Reuben[r] the firstborn of Israel (he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father's marriage bed,[s] his rights as firstborn were given to the sons of Joseph[t] son of Israel;[u] so he could not be listed in the genealogical record in accordance with his birthright,[v] [2]and though Judah[w] was the strongest of his brothers and a ruler[x] came from him, the rights of the first-born[y] belonged to Joseph)— [3]the sons of Reuben[z] the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu,[a] Hezron[b] and Car-mi.
[4]The descendants of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, [5]Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, [6]and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser[c][c] king of Assyria a33 Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also Joshua 19:8); Hebrew Baal b41 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them. c6 Hebrew Tilgath-Pilneser, a variant of Tiglath-Pileser; also in verse 26 took into exile. Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites.

7Their relatives by clans,[c] listed according to their genealogical records: Jeiel the chief, Zechariah, 8and Bela son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel. They settled in the area from Aroer[d] to Nebo[e] and Baal Meon.[f] 9To the east they occupied the land up to the edge of the desert that extends to the Euphrates[g] River, because their livestock had increased in Gilead.
10During Saul's reign they waged war against the Hagrites[h], who were defeated at their hands; they occupied the dwellings of the Hagrites throughout the entire region east of Gilead.

Gad

11The Gadites[i] lived next to them in Bashan, as far as Salecah:[j] 12Joel was the chief, Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat, in Bashan.
13Their relatives, by families, were: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber—seven in all.
14These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz.
15Ahi son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was head of their family.
16The Gadites lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its outlying villages, and on all the pasturelands of Sharon as far as they extended.
17All these were entered in the genealogical records during the reigns of Jotham[k] king of Judah and Jeroboam[l] king of Israel.

18The Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 men ready for military service—able-bodied men who could handle shield and sword, who could use a bow, and who were trained for battle. 19They waged war against the Hagrites, Jetur,[m] Naphish and Nodab.
20They were helped[n] in fighting them, and God handed the Hagrites and all their allies over to them, because they cried[o] out to him during the battle. He answered their prayers, because they trusted[p] in him. 21They seized the livestock of the Hagrites—fifty thousand camels, two hundred fifty thousand sheep and two thousand donkeys. They also took one hundred thousand people captive, 22and many others fell slain, because the battle[q] was God's. And they occupied the land until the exile.[r]

The Half-Tribe of Manasseh

23The people of the half-tribe of Manasseh[s] were numerous; they settled in the land from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir (Mount Hermon).[t] 24These were the heads of their families: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel. They were brave warriors, famous men, and heads of their families. 25But they were unfaithful[u] to the God of their fathers and prostituted[v] themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them. 26So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit[w] of Pul[x] king of Assyria (that is, Tiglath-Pileser[y] king of Assyria), who took the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah,[z] Habor, Hara and the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

and Asaiah his son.

The Temple Musicians

6:54-80pp — Jos 21:4-39

31These are the men[o] David put in charge of the music[p] in the house of the LORD after the ark came to rest there. 32They ministered with music before the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon built the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem. They performed their duties according to the regulations laid down for them.
33Here are the men who served, together with their sons:
From the Kohathites: Heman,[q] the musician, the son of Joel,[r] the son of Samuel, 34the son of Elkanah,[s] the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 35the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 37the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah,[t] 38the son of Izhar,[u] the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; 39and Heman's associate Asaph,[v] who served at his right hand: Asaph son of Berekiah, the son of Shimea,[w] 40the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah,[e] the son of Malkijah, 41the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, 42the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, 43the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi; 44and from their associates, the Merarites,[x] at his left hand: Ethan son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, 45the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, 46the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, 47the son of the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48Their fellow Levites[e] were assigned to all the other duties of the tabernacle, the house of God. 49But Aaron and his descendants were the ones who presented offerings on the altar[f] of burnt offering and on the altar of incense[g] in connection with all that was done in the Most Holy Place, making atonement for Israel, in accordance with all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50These were the descendants of Aaron:
Eleazar his son, Phinehas his
son, Abishua his son, 51Bukki his
son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, 52Meraioth his son, Amariah his
son, Ahitub his son, 53Zadok[h] his
son and Ahimaaz his son.

54These were the locations of their settlements[i] allotted as their territory (they were assigned to the descendants of Aaron who were from the Kohathite clan, because the first lot was for them): 55They were given Hebron in Judah with its surrounding pas-turelands. 56But the fields and villages around the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh.[j] 57So the descendants of Aaron were given Hebron (a city of refuge), and Libnah,[a][k] Jattir,[l] Esh-temoa, 58Hilen, Debir,[m] 59Ashan,[n] Juttah[b] and Beth Shemesh, together with their pasturelands.
60And from the tribe of Benjamin they were given Gibeon,[c] Geba, Alemeth and Anathoth,[o] together with their pasturelands.
These towns, which were distributed among the Kohathite clans, were thirteen in all.
61The rest of Kohath's descendants were allotted ten towns from the clans of half the tribe of Manasseh.
62The descendants of Gershon, clan by clan, were allotted thirteen towns from the tribes of Issachar, Asher and Naphtali, and from the part of the tribe of Manasseh that is in Bashan.
63The descendants of Merari, clan by clan, were allotted twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebu-lun.
64So the Israelites gave the Levites these towns[l] and their pasturelands.
65From the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin they allotted the previously named towns.
66Some of the Kohathite clans were given as their territory towns from the tribe of Ephraim.
67In the hill country of Ephraim they were given Shechem (a city of refuge), and Gezer,[d][m] 68Jok-meam,[n] Beth Horon,[o] 69Aijalon[p] and Gath Rimmon,[q] together with their pasturelands.
70And from half the tribe of Manasseh the Israelites gave Aner and Bileam, together with their pas-turelands, to the rest of the Kohathite clans.

71The Gershonites[r] received the following:
From the clan of the half-tribe of Manasseh
they received Golan in Bashan[s] and also Ashtaroth, together
with their pasturelands; 72from the tribe of Issachar they received Kedesh, Dab-erath,[t] 73Ramoth and Anem, together with their pasturelands; 74from the tribe of Asher they received Mashal, Abdon,[u] 75Hukok[v] and Rehob,[w] together
with their pasturelands; 76and from the tribe of Naphtali they received Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon[x] and Kiriathaim,[y] together with their pasturelands.

77The Merarites (the rest of the Levites) received the following: From the tribe of Zebulun they received Jokneam, Kar-tah,[e] Rimmono and Tabor, together with their pasturelands; 78from the tribe of Reuben across the Jordan east of Jericho they received Bezer[z] in the desert, Jahzah, 79Kedemoth[a]

Issachar

7 The sons of Issachar:[e] Tola, Puah,[f] Jashub and Shimron—four in all.
2The sons of Tola:
Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam and Samuel—heads of their families. During the reign of David, the descendants of Tola listed as fighting men in their genealogy numbered 22,600.
3The son of Uzzi: Izrahiah.
The sons of Izrahiah:
Michael, Obadiah, Joel and Isshiah. All five of them were chiefs.
4According to their family genealogy, they had 36,000 men ready for battle, for they had many wives and children.
5The relatives who were fighting men belonging to all the clans of Issachar, as listed in their genealogy, were 87,000 in all.

Benjamin

6Three sons of Benjamin:[g] Bela, Beker and Jediael.
7The sons of Bela:
Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth and Iri, heads of families—five in all. Their genealogical record listed 22,034 fighting men.
8The sons of Beker: Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth and Alemeth. All these were the sons of Beker.
9Their genealogical record listed the heads of families and 20,200 fighting men.
10The son of Jediael: Bilhan.
The sons of Bilhan: Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish and Ahishahar.
11All these sons of Jediael were heads of families. There were 17,200 fighting men ready to go out to war.
12The Shuppites and Huppites were the descendants of Ir, and the Hushites the descendants of Aher.

13The sons of Naphtali:[h] Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem[c]—the descendants of Bilhah.

Manasseh

14The descendants of Manasseh:[i] Asriel was his descendant through his Aramean concubine. She gave birth to Makir the father of Gilead.[j] 15Makir took a wife from among the Huppites and Shuppites. His sister's name was Maacah.
Another descendant was named Zelophehad,[k] who had only daughters.
16Makir's wife Maacah gave birth to a son and named him Peresh. His brother was named Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.
17The son of Ulam: Bedan.
These were the sons of Gilead[l] son of Makir, the son of Manasseh.
18His sister Hammoleketh gave birth to Ishhod, Abiezer[m] and Mahlah.
19The sons of Shemida[n] were:
Ahian, Shechem, Likhi and Aniam.

Ephraim

20The descendants of Ephraim:[o] Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eleadah his son, Tahath his son, 21Zabad his son and Shuthelah his son.
Ezer and Elead were killed by the native-born men of Gath, when they went down to seize their livestock.
22Their father Ephraim mourned for them many days, and his relatives came to comfort him.
23Then he lay with his wife again, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. He named him Beriah,[d] because there had been misfortune in his family.
24His daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth Horon[p] as well as Uzzen Sheerah.

[28]Their lands and settlements included Bethel and its surrounding villages, Naaran to the east, Gezer[a] and its villages to the west, and Shechem and its villages all the way to Ayyah and its villages. [29]Along the borders of Manasseh were Beth Shan,[b] Taanach, Megiddo and Dor,[c] together with their villages. The descendants of Joseph son of Israel lived in these towns.

Asher

[30]The sons of Asher:[d] Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah. Their sister was Serah.
[31]The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malkiel, who was the father of Birzaith.
[32]Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer and Hotham and of their sister Shua.
[33]The sons of Japhlet: Pasach, Bimhal and Ashvath.
These were Japhlet's sons.
[34]The sons of Shomer: Ahi, Rohgah,[f] Hubbah and Aram.
[35]The sons of his brother Helem: Zophah, Imna, Shelesh and Amal.
[36]The sons of Zophah: Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, [37]Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran[g] and Beera.
[38]The sons of Jether: Jephunneh, Pispah and Ara.
[39]The sons of Ulla: Arah, Hanniel and Rizia.

[40]All these were descendants of Asher—heads of families, choice men, brave warriors and outstanding leaders. The number of men ready for battle, as listed in their genealogy, was 26,000.

The Genealogy of Saul the Benjamite

8:29-38pp — 1Ch 9:35-44

8 Benjamin[e] was the father of Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second son, Aharah the third, [2]Nohah the fourth and Rapha the fifth.
[3]The sons of Bela were:
Addar,[f] Gera, Abihud,[h] [4]Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah,[g] [5]Gera, Shephuphan and Huram.
[6]These were the descendants of Ehud,[h] who were heads of families of those living in Geba and were deported to Manahath: [7]Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera, who deported them and who was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.
[8]Sons were born to Shaharaim in Moab after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara. [9]By his wife Hodesh he had Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, [10]Jeuz, Sakia and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of families. [11]By Hushim he had Abitub and Elpaal.
[12]The sons of Elpaal:
Eber, Misham, Shemed (who built Ono[i] and Lod with its surrounding villages), [13]and Beriah and Shema, who were heads of families of those living in Aijalon[j] and who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.[k] [14]Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, [15]Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, [16]Michael, Ishpah and Joha were the sons of Beriah.
[17]Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, [18]Ishmerai, Izliah and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.
[19]Jakim, Zicri, Zabdi, [20]Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, [21]Adaiah, Beraiah and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.
[22]Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, [23]Abdon, Zicri, Hanan, [24]Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, [25]Iphdeiah and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.
[26]Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, [27]Jaareshiah, Elijah and Zicri were the sons of Jeroham.

[28]All these were heads of families, chiefs as listed in their genealogy, and they lived in Jerusalem.

[29]Jeiel[i] the father[j] of Gibeon lived in Gibeon.[l] His wife's name was Maacah, [30]and his firstborn son was Abdon, followed by Zur, Kish, the father of Saul[c], and Saul the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal.[l] [d] 34 The son of Jonathan:[e] Merib-Baal,[m] [f] who was the father of Micah.

35 The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tarea and Ahaz.
36 Ahaz was the father of Jehoaddah, Jehoaddah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri was the father of Moza. 37 Moza was the father of Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his
son.
38 Azel had six sons, and these were their names:
Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.
39 The sons of his brother Eshek: Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second son and Eliphelet the third. 40 The sons of Ulam were brave warriors who could handle the bow. They had many sons and grandsons—150 in all.
All these were the descendants of Benjamin.[g]

9 All Israel[h] was listed in the genealogies recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

The People in Jerusalem

9:1-17pp — Ne 11:3-19

The people of Judah were taken captive to Babylon[i] because of their unfaithfulness.[j] 2 Now the first to resettle on their own property in their own towns[k] were some Israelites, priests, Levites and temple servants.[l] 3 Those from Judah, from Benjamin, and from Ephraim and Manasseh who lived in Jerusalem were: 4 Uthai son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, a descendant of Perez son of Judah.[m] 5 Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

6 Of the Zerahites: Jeuel.
The people from Judah numbered 690.
7 Of the Benjamites: Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah; 8 Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi, the son of Micri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah.
9 The people from Benjamin, as listed in their genealogy, numbered 956. All these men were heads of their families.
10 Of the priests:
Jedaiah; Jehoiarib; Jakin; 11 Azariah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the official in charge of the house of God; 12 Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur,[n] the son of Malkijah; and Maasai son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer.
13 The priests, who were heads of families, numbered 1,760. They were able men, responsible for ministering in the house of God.
14 Of the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, a Merarite; 15 Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal and Mattaniah[o] son of Mica, the son of Zicri, the son of Asaph; 16 Obadiah son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berekiah son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.[p] 17 The gatekeepers:[q] Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their brothers, Shallum their chief 18 being stationed at the King's Gate[r] on the east, up to the present time. These were the gatekeepers belonging to the camp of the Levites. 19 Shallum[s] son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his fellow gatekeepers from his family (the Korahites) were responsible for guarding the thresholds of the Tent[a] just as their fathers had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of the LORD. 20In earlier times Phinehas[a] son of Eleazar was in charge of the gatekeepers, and the LORD was with him. 21Zechariah[b] son of Meshelemiah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

22Altogether, those chosen to be gatekeepers[c] at the thresholds numbered 212. They were registered by genealogy in their villages. The gatekeepers had been assigned to their positions of trust by David and Samuel the seer.[d] 23They and their descendants were in charge of guarding the gates of the house of the LORD—the house called the Tent. 24The gatekeepers were on the four sides: east, west, north and south. 25Their brothers in their villages had to come from time to time and share their duties for seven-day[e] periods. 26But the four principal gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted with the responsibility for the rooms and treasuries[f] in the house of God. 27They would spend the night stationed around the house of God,[g] because they had to guard it; and they had charge of the key[h] for opening it each morning.
28Some of them were in charge of the articles used in the temple service; they counted them when they were brought in and when they were taken out.
29Others were assigned to take care of the furnishings and all the other articles of the sanctuary,[i] as well as the flour and wine, and the oil, incense and spices. 30But some[j] of the priests took care of mixing the spices. 31A Levite named Mattithiah, the firstborn son of Shallum the Korahite, was entrusted with the responsibility for baking the offering bread. 32Some of their Kohathite brothers were in charge of preparing for every Sabbath the bread set out on the table.[k] 33Those who were musicians,[l] heads of Levite families, stayed in the rooms of the temple and were exempt from other duties because they were responsible for the work day and night.[m] 34All these were heads of Levite families, chiefs as listed in their genealogy, and they lived in Jerusalem.

The Genealogy of Saul

35Jeiel[n] the father[o] of Gibeon lived in Gibeon.
His wife's name was Maacah, 36and his firstborn son was Ab-don, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.
38Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. They too lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.
39Ner[o] was the father of Kish,[p] Kish the father of Saul, and Saul the father of Jonathan,[q] Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal.[p r] 40The son of Jonathan:
Merib-Baal,[q s] who was the father of Micah.
41The sons of Micah:
Pithon, Melech, Tahrea and Ahaz.[r] 42Ahaz was the father of Jadah, Jadah[s] was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri was the father of Moza. 43Moza was the father of Binea; Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his
son.
44Azel had six sons, and these were
their names:
Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, She-ariah, Obadiah and Hanan.
These were the sons of Azel.

10:1-12pp — 1Sa 31:1-13; 2Sa 1:4-12

10 Now the Philistines fought
against Israel; the Israelites fled
before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa. 2The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua. 3The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him.
4Saul said to his armor-bearer,
"Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and abuse me."
But his armor-bearer was terrified

armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died. 6So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.
7When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they aban-
Philistines came and occupied them.
8The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
9They stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news among their idols and their people. 10They put his armor in the temple of their gods and hung up his head in the temple of Dagon.[a] 11When all the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead[b] heard of everything the Philistines had done to Saul, 12all their valiant men went and took the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh. Then they buried their bones under the great tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.
13Saul died[c] because he was unfaithful[d] to the LORD; he did not keep[e] the word of the LORD and even consulted a medium[f] for guidance, 14and did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned[g] the kingdom[h] over to David son of Jesse.

David Becomes King Over Israel

11:1-3pp — 2Sa 5:1-3

11 All Israel[i] came together to David at Hebron[j] and said, "We are your own flesh and blood. 2In the past, even while Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns.[k] And the LORD your God said to you, 'You will shepherd[l] my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.[m]' " 3When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, he made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed[n] David king over Israel, as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

David Conquers Jerusalem

11:4-9pp — 2Sa 4:6-10

4David and all the Israelites marched to Jerusalem, that is, Jebus. The Jebu-sites[o] who lived there 5said to David, "You will not get in here." Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

6David had said, "Whoever leads the attack on the Jebusites will become commander-in-chief." Joab[p] son of Zeruiah went up first, and so he received the command.
fortress, and so it was called the City of David. 8He built up the city around it, from the supporting terraces[t][q] to the surrounding wall, while Joab restored the rest of the city. 9And David became more and more powerful,[r] because the LORD Almighty was with him.

10These were the chiefs of David's mighty men—they, together with all Israel,[s] gave his kingship strong support to extend it over the whole land, as the LORD had promised[t]— 11this is the list of David's mighty men:[u] Jashobeam,[u] a Hacmonite, was chief of the officers[v]; he raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed in one encounter.
12Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men. 13He was with David at Pas Dammim when the Philistines gathered there for battle. At a place where there was a field full of barley, the troops fled from the Philistines.
14But they took their stand in the middle of the field. They defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.[v] 15Three of the thirty chiefs came down to David to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley[w] of Rephaim. 16At that time David was in the stronghold,[x] and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem. 17David longed for water and said, "Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!" 18So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured[y] it out before the LORD. 19"God forbid that I should do this!" he said. "Should I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives?" Because they risked
